SENIOR NIGHT

Rutgers gymnastics will host its fourth and final home meet of the season tonight at 7 p.m. inside the RAC. The quad meet will also involve Bridgeport, Centenary and Towson.

Following the fourth rotation on Friday, the Scarlet Knights will honor their four seniors: Riahanah Ali, Michelle Amoresano, Jenna Rizkalla and Eriel Santagado. It will be the final time the group competes in front of the home crowd.

"I think all of the leadership that we've gotten this year comes from the senior class," head coach Umme Salim-Beasley said. "They really wanted to end their careers on a high note. They inspire their teammates every single day. They come into the gym and work their hardest, and they always have words of encouragement for the underclassmen. Everything that we've been able to accomplish this year has been driven by the senior class."

The Scarlet Knights are coming off a 194.625 last Saturday at New Hampshire. The team has posted a 194 or better in each of the past five outings and in six of the last seven. The high was a 196.050, the second-best mark in program history, the last time RU competed at the RAC on Feb. 9. That ended with a Big Ten victory over No. 25 Penn State, with Rutgers also knocking off No. 22 Ohio State at the Big Five meet on Feb. 23. The program had combined to record two Big Ten regular season wins in the previous four seasons.
