THE BIRTHPLACE OF COLLEGE FOOTBALL

• Rutgers University and its neighbor, Princeton, played the first game of intercollegiate football on Nov. 6, 1869, on a plot of ground where the present-day Rutgers gymnasium now stands in New Brunswick, N.J. Rutgers won that first game, 6-4.

• In celebrating the upcoming 150th anniversary of the first game, Rutgers has announced several new details for the year-long festivities. "An anniversary like this deserves a season-long celebration with many elements and that's just what we've planned. There's only one Birthplace and it's right here 'On the Banks,'" said Director of Athletics Pat Hobbs.

GAME THEMES

- Aug. 30 vs. Massachusetts: "The Birthplace of College Football"
- Sept. 21 vs. Boston College: "Celebrating Paul Robeson"
- Oct. 5 vs. Maryland: "Celebrating Our All-Americans"
- Oct. 19 vs. Minnesota: "Celebrating the 1940, 1950s & 1960s"
- Oct. 26 vs. Liberty: "Celebrating the 1970s, 1980s & 1990s"
- Nov. 16 vs. Ohio State: "Celebrating the 2000s"
- Nov. 23 vs. Michigan State: "The Believe Game"

THE FIRST GAME

• The game was played with two teams of 25 men each under rugby-like rules, but like modern football, it was "replete with surprise, strategy, prodigies of determination, and physical prowess," to use the words of one of the Rutgers players.

• William J. Leggett, captain of the Rutgers team, who later became a distinguished clergyman of the Dutch Reformed Church, suggested that rules for the contest be adopted from those of the London Football Association. Leggett's proposal was accepted by Captain William Gunmere of Princeton, who later became Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of New Jersey.

• At 3 p.m. on that memorable afternoon, the 50 combatants and about 100 spectators gathered on the field. Most of the assemblage sat on a low wooden fence and watched the athletes doff hats, coats and vests and use suspenders as belts. To distinguish themselves from the bareheaded visitors, 50 Rutgers students, including players, donned scarlet-colored scarfs which they converted into turbans.

• The teams lined up with two members of each team remaining more or less stationary near the opponent's goal in the hopes of being able to slip over and score from unguarded positions. Thus, the present day "sleeper" was conceived. The remaining 23 players were divided into groups of 11 and 12. While the 11 "fielders" lined up in their own territory as defenders, the 12 "bulldogs" carried the battle.

• Each score counted as a "game" and 10 games completed the contest. Following each score, the teams changed direction. The ball could be advanced only by kicking or batting it with the feet, hands, heads or sides.

• Events leading up to the game were described by John W. Herbert, Rutgers '72, who was one of the players: "To appreciate this game to the full you must know something of its background," Herbert wrote in 1933. "The two colleges were, and still are, of course, about 20 miles apart. The rivalry between them was intense. For years each had striven for possession of an old Revolutionary cannon, making night forays and lugging it back and forth time and again. Not long before the first football game, the canny Princetonians had settled this competition in their own favor by ignominiously sinking the gun in several feet of concrete. In addition to this, I regret to report, Princeton had beaten Rutgers in baseball by the harrowing score of 40-2. Rutgers longed for a chance to square things."

• Rutgers got Columbia University started in the grid sport the following season and in a few years most of the colleges and universities in the East were represented on the gridiron.

• The Scarlet Knights improved to 105-67-1 when playing an opponent for the first time and knocked off a team entering on a five-game winning streak for the first time since defeating No. 17 Pittsburgh on the road on Oct. 25, 2008.

• QB Johnny Langan (118) and RB Isaih Pacheco (107) topped 100 rushing yards to make it the first game two Scarlet Knights reached the century mark on the ground since Josh Hicks (113) and Robert Martin (102) versus Kansas on Sept. 26, 2015.

• DL Elorm Lumor and LB Rashawn Battle collected solo sacks, while DL Mike Tverdov and LB Tyreek Maddox-Williams teamed up for a third RU sack.

LANGAN EARNS WEEKLY HONORS

• QB Johnny Langan was named Big Ten Co-Freshman of the Week and a Manning Award Star of the Week on Oct. 28.

• Langan recorded a career-high 310 yards of total offense in the win over Liberty. He had 192 passing yards, with touchdown passes to WR Eddie Lewis and WR Isaiah Washington, and ran for 118 yards on the ground with a 3-yard score.

• The 118 rushing yards were the most by a Rutgers quarterback in a game since 1951. The only other RU quarterback to reach the century mark was Sam Mudie (105) versus Lehigh on Oct. 21, 1961, a 32-15 win.

• Johnathan Lewis is the only other Scarlet Knight to win Big Ten Freshman of the Week (Sept. 18, 2017).

VERSUS ILLINOIS

• Rutgers will take on Illinois in a Big Ten game for the fourth time and sixth time overall. The Scarlet Knights will be traveling to Champaign for the third time (2005, 2017), having split the previous two meetings at Memorial Stadium.

• The road team has won each of the three conference games between the teams.

• Despite being in opposite divisions, this will be the fourth of six-straight years (2016-21) the programs will match up.

• Rutgers picked up a 35-24 win in 2017 at Memorial Stadium. The victory marked the first over a Big Ten West opponent. RU never trailed in the contest, led by as many 18 points and scored in each quarter. The Scarlet Knights won the battle in the trenches on both sides of the ball by out-rushing the Fighting Illini, 274-86. The 274 yards (5.8 per carry) are still the most by RU in a Big Ten game. Gus Edwards led the way with 91 yards and two touchdowns, with Raheem Blackshear following with 87 yards with an average of 14.5 per carry. Four different running backs combined for five rushing touchdowns, the most for Rutgers against an FBS opponent since 2003 (Navy). Defensively, Jawuan Harris transitioned to safety for his first collegiate action on defense and totaled a game-high 11 tackles to go with an interception and a forced fumble. The unit garnered three turnovers overall.

• Illinois won last season in Piscataway, 38-17. QB Artur Sitkowski finished 29-for-46 for 267 yards and one touchdown.

• Before reuniting in the Big Ten in 2016, Rutgers blanked Illinois at home, 33-0, in a non-conference meeting between the teams in 2006. The Scarlet Knights raced out to a 20-0 lead after one quarter with a score on special teams (Derrick Roberson blocked punt return), on defense (Devin McCourty interception return) and on offense (Clark Harris 1-yard touchdown pass from Mike Teel). Ray Rice added a score to highlight a 108-yard performance, as RU out-gained UI in the

RUTGERS ATHLETICS ANNOUNCES CHANGE IN FOOTBALL LEADERSHIP

- Director of athletics Pat Hobbs announced Sept. 29 that head football coach Chris Ash and offensive coordinator John McNulty were relieved of their duties, effective immediately. Tight ends coach Nunzio Campanile is serving as interim head coach/offensive coordinator for the remainder of the season.

- "We appreciate Chris's dedicated efforts on behalf of our football program, our department and our University," said Hobbs. "This change is especially difficult because of the steadfast commitment that Chris and his family have made to our student-athletes. Progress has been achieved in many areas, but, unfortunately, that progress has not been realized on the field of play. As such, it is in the best interest of the program to make a change."

- The terms of Ash's and McNulty's contracts will be honored by Rutgers Athletics, exclusively using department-generated funds.

- A national search for a new head coach will take place.

- Rutgers announced Oct. 14 the retention of Ventura Partners, a leading executive search and talent management agency with a diverse range of consulting and intelligence services. Among the services and deliverables to be provided by Ventura Partners are leadership identification, market mapping and intelligence, outreach, internal search assistance, reference review, staff development, and industry consulting.

- "We are excited to be working with Ventura Partners," said Hobbs. "They provide a unique range of services, including talent acquisition and development. We will begin working together immediately to ensure excellent leadership for our football program. They will also be working with us throughout the engagement on strengthening our human resources and providing market data and intelligence."

INTERIM HEAD COACH/OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR NUNZIO CAMPANILE

Nunzio Campanile is in his second season on the Rutgers coaching staff and has served as the interim head coach and offensive coordinator since Sept. 29, 2019.

Campanile spent his first season (2018) “On the Banks,” coaching the running backs before moving to tight ends to start 2019.

A graduate of Paramus Catholic, Campanile spent the previous eight seasons as the head coach at Bergen Catholic, including winning a state title in 2017, after working as offensive coordinator at Don Bosco Prep from 2000-09.

Campanile compiled a 60-28 (.681) record leading the Crusaders from 2010-17 as a perennial top-100 football national power. The team capped off the 2017 season by capturing the Non-Public, Group 4 title, the first state championship for the program since 2004, with a 44-7 triumph over St. Peter’s Prep that featured over 400 yards of total offense. Bergen Catholic went 10-2 overall with a nine-game winning streak to end the season, finishing 10-0 against New Jersey competition to earn the No. 1 ranking in the state.

The Crusaders saw seven all-state quarterbacks under Campanile’s watch and averaged over 35 points per game during his tenure. Numerous prospects signed scholarship offers across the country.

In 2012, Campanile was selected by USA Football to join the coaching staff for the US Under-19 National Team that competed in the third annual International Bowl in Austin, Texas.

Prior to arriving in Oradell, Campanile worked under legendary coach Greg Toal at Don Bosco Prep. The Ironmen won six state titles in 10 seasons with Campanile as the offensive coordinator with a 112-6 record, claiming the national championship in 2009. He mentored quarterbacks Mike Teel and Gary Nova during that time, who would both go on to set passing records at Rutgers.

Campanile also previously served as the head wrestling coach and athletic director at Don Bosco Prep, winning the 2010 Non-Public A state title on the mat. He has additionally worked as a history and physical education teacher.

Campanile comes from a football family, having played quarterback and safety for his father, Mike, at Paramus Catholic. His brothers, Vito, Nick and Anthony, are coaches as well.

A 1999 graduate of Montclair State University, Campanile also attended Amherst College for two years. He has been married to his wife Heather for 16 years and the couple has two children, Michael and James.
