FACING OFF

Maryland won its third one-goal game of the season on April 20 at No. 9 Ohio State, thanks in part to the player who wears No. 1, Jared Bernhardt. The Longwood, Fla. native delivered the game-winning goal in overtime just 31 seconds into the extra period, his third game-winning goal of the year.

Maryland had three players earn All-Big Ten honors on Tuesday in senior Curtis Corley, junior Jared Bernhardt and sophomore Logan Wisnauskas. Corley and Bernhardt were both named first team selections, while Wisnauskas garnered a spot on the second team.

Maryland spread out the scoring in the team's come-from-behind win over Rutgers on April 14, with four different players recording a hat trick in the 16-13 victory. It was the first time since at least 1998 that four different Terps recorded a hat trick in the same game. Of the 10 teams in Division I lacrosse to produce four hat trick scorers in the same game this season, Maryland reached the feat in the fewest goals scored overall (16).

Maryland is 5-2 all-time in the Big Ten Tournament, which includes back-to-back tournament championships in 2017 and 2018. Thursday marks the second-ever Big Ten Tournament meeting between Maryland and Hopkins.

Sophomore Roman Puglise scored Maryland's first man down goal in over seven years last weekend vs. Johns Hopkins, scoring in transition at the 5:07 mark in the first quarter. The goal was assisted by senior goalie Danny Dolan – the first of his collegiate career. Maryland's last man down goal came on February 6, 2012 from Joe Cummings vs. UMBC.

10

Maryland held Ohio State to under 10 goals for just the third time for the Buckeyes this season in the Terps' 10-9 OT victory on April 20. Under head coach John Tillman, Maryland has won an incredible 24 straight games when holding opponents to under 10 goals.

17

Maryland has extended its NCAA-best streak of consecutive double-digit win seasons to 17 after defeating Rutgers 16-13 on April 14. Maryland is just one of two programs nationally that has a streak of 10 or more seasons with at least 10 wins (Duke – 13).

69

Logan Wisnauskas's 69 points this season ranks 10th all-time in program history and second most by a Maryland sophomore. He needs just five points to tie Jack Heim's sophomore record of 74 points set in 1965, and his 4.93 points per game average ranks 11th nationally.

GAME NOTES

COACHING MATCHUP

- John Tillman is in his 12th season as a head coach, and ninth with the Terps, with a 141-55 career record for a .719 winning percentage. Tillman is 121-36 (.771) as Maryland's head coach. John Tillman is 6-6 all-time vs. Johns Hopkins.
- Johns Hopkins head coach Dave Pietramala is in his 19th season at the helm for Hopkins, holding a 204-87 record during his tenure with the Blue Jays.

SERIES HISTORY VS. JOHNS HOPKINS

- Thursday reignites one of the most storied traditions in college lacrosse when Maryland and Hopkins meet for the 112th time since Maryland became a varsity program. The meeting between the two schools marks the first back-to-back matchup of the two programs in series history.
- Hopkins earned a 16-11 win when the teams met last Saturday, April 27 in both teams' regular season finale.
- The Blue Jays (45) and Terps (41) have played in the first and second most NCAA Tournaments since the event began in 1971, respectively. Maryland and Hopkins have also produced the most first team All-Americans in the history of lacrosse dating to the first awards in 1922.
- Maryland and Hopkins met for the first time when both programs sponsored varsity programs back in 1924, a game which Maryland won 4-2.
- Maryland will look to end JHU's two-game win streak in the head-to-head series, which included a victory in last year's Big Ten Tournament championship.

BERNHARDT & WISNAUSKAS BY THE NUMBERS

5 – Credited with five game-winning goals this season.

8 – Became the Terrapin first duo to score eight points in the same game since Bob Boneillo and Terry Kimball (vs. Brown, 1978). The duo has combined for five (Bernhardt – 2, Wisnauskas – 3) eight-point games this season.

9 – Averaging over 9 points a game (9.64) as a duo.

11 – Led the Terps in goals or tied for the lead in goals in every game (11) but three this season.

20 – Of the duo's 80 combined goals, 20% have been assisted by the other (Wisnauskas 8A on 42 Bernhardt goals, Bernhardt 8A on 38 Wisnauskas goals)

60 – Both have eclipsed their career high in points this season with over 60, and both rank inside the top-20 in single season points (Wisnauskas – 10th, Bernhardt – 16th)

SINCE JOHN TILLMAN TOOK OVER IN 2011...

- All-Americans: Maryland (53), Duke (47), UNC (41)
- NCAA Final Fours: Maryland (7), Denver (5), Duke (5)
- NCAA Tournament Wins: Maryland (20), Duke (16), Denver (14)
- MLL Draft Selections: Maryland (39), Syracuse (30), UNC (28)

WISNAUSKAS TAKES FAST TRACK TO 100

- Sophomore Logan Wisnauskas's offensive ability is currently in line with some of the program's recent standout players, as the Sykesville, Md. native became the fastest Terp to score 100 points (29 games) since four-time All-American Joe Walters.
- Wisnauskas hit the mark with first assist of the day against Michigan on April 6, becoming the 56th 100-point scorer in Maryland history.
- Wisnauskas's current points per game average (min. 20 games played) of 3.65 is the best by a Terrapin since Pete Worstell averaged 3.65 from 1977-81.

HENNINGSEN MAKING HISTORY AT FACEOFF X

- Senior faceoff specialist Austin Henningsen was named the Big Ten Specialist of the Week for the third time this season after winning 22 faceoffs and scooping 15 ground balls vs. Michigan.
- It was the second time this season Henningsen reached 22 faceoff wins – the second most wins in a single game in program history – after reaching the mark against #19 North Carolina.
- Henningsen became just the fourth Terp to record 500 career faceoff wins earlier this season, and has a chance to move up to No. 2 all-time before the end of the season.
- Henningsen was named the Big Ten Specialist of the Week earlier this season on February 12 after a career performance where he won 15-of-15 faceoffs for the Terps in their 10-9 win over Richmond on February 9.
- Henningsen became the first player in Big Ten history to post a perfect faceoff percentage (15-for-15, 100%) with at least 15 wins. Henningsen is also the only Terp with at least 10 faceoff wins and a perfect 100% clip since at least 2000, and he's the first Division I player this season to post 15+ faceoff wins and a perfect win percentage.
- Henningsen came through clutch late against Richmond, winning the final faceoff of the game with two minutes remaining to give Maryland the last possession of the game for the win.

GET TO 10 AND WIN

- Since John Tillman took over the program in 2011, Maryland has won 101 of the 113 games in which it has scored 10 or more goals for a .894 winning percentage.
- Maryland is also 84-9 in the last seven seasons when scoring at least 10 goals.

HOLDING OPPONENTS TO SINGLE-DIGITS

- Maryland is 95-11 since Tillman took over the program in 2011 when it allows nine goals or less, for an .896 winning percentage.
- The Terps are 73-6 over the last seven seasons when allowing less than 10 goals.

BERNHARDT WINS IT IN COLUMBUS

- Junior Jared Bernhardt scored his 100th career goal in dramatic fashion, netting the game-winner in overtime to push Maryland to a critical 10-9 victory over No. 9 Ohio State on April 20.
- The goal was the third game-winner of the season for Bernhardt and the sixth of his career, and the second overtime winner for the Terps this season. Roman Puglise scored his first goal of the season to win it in OT at Penn on February 16.

CONSECUTIVE 10-WIN SEASONS

- Maryland's 16-13 win over Rutgers on April 14, 2019 extended the Terps' streak of double-digit win seasons to 17, which is the longest active streak in NCAA Division I men's lacrosse.
- There are only two programs with a current streak of at least 10-straight 10-win seasons, after Notre Dame's streak was snapped in 2017 at 11.
  - Maryland (17): 2019 (11-2), 2018 (14-4), 2017 (16-3), 2016 (17-3), 2015 (15-4), 2014 (13-4), 2013 (10-4), 2012 (12-6), 2011 (13-5), 2010 (12-4), 2009 (10-7), 2008 (10-6), 2007 (10-6), 2006 (12-5), 2005 (11-6), 2004 (13-3), 2003 (12-4)

TERPS' 94TH SEASON OF LACROSSE

- The Terps boast an all-time record of 822-271-4 (.751) entering the 2019 season, dating back to the first varsity team in 1924 (a team was not fielded in 1944 and 1945 due to World War II). Maryland has finished with a .500 or better record in all 93 seasons of existence, including last season when the Terps went 14-4. The program reached the 800-win milestone with a thrilling 12-6 victory on April 12, 2017 on the road against Albany.
- During the decade of the 2000s, Maryland went 111-49 for a .694 win percentage, making it the winningest decade in Terrapin lacrosse history. In the decade of the 1990s, Maryland posted a 95-47 record. The .669 winning percentage matched Maryland's win percentage of the 1980s when the Terps went 83-41 and also compiled a .669 win percentage.
- So far, Maryland is 122-38 in the 2010's for a .763 winning percentage - on pace for the best decade in Maryland history.

JOHN TILLMAN

HEAD COACH • NINTH SEASON AT MARYLAND • CORNELL '91

Blending a mix of the program's historic motto, "Be The Best," with his own principles of high character in all aspects of life, John Tillman has created a formula that has resulted in one of the most successful eras in Maryland lacrosse's illustrious history.

Tillman's formula came to ultimate fruition in 2017 when Maryland captured its first NCAA National Championship since 1975. Since taking over the helm as Maryland head coach eight years ago, Tillman has led the Terps to seven NCAA Final Fours, five national title games and a 110-33 (.769) overall record.

Tillman's numbers since arriving in College Park in 2011 are impressive, leading the country in All-American selections (53), Major League Lacrosse draft selections (36), NCAA Tournament wins (21) and Final Fours (7) during that eight-year span.

In just eight NCAA Tournament appearances, Tillman has already supplanted himself among the greatest coaches in history. His 21-7 career NCAA Tournament record ranks seventh all-time in NCAA history.

Additionally, the program's accomplishments have translated to the classroom, as Tillman has had 12 USILA Scholar All-Americans in eight seasons. The 2015 spring semester and 2016 fall semester combined for the program's highest GPA in more than 10 years.

Maryland did not skip a beat in 2018 despite losing four first team all-Americans to graduation from the 2017 title team, as Tillman led the Terps to their fifth straight Final Four and seventh in eight seasons and a Big Ten regular season title. Connor Kelly became the third Tewaaraton finalist in program history and was named Big Ten Offensive Player of the Year, and five individuals were named USILA All-Americans.

Maryland went 16-3 and captured the Big Ten regular season and tournament titles en route to capturing the 2017 National Championship. Tillman coached Matt Rambo, who set team records for points (257) and goals (155) en route to capturing the program's first-ever Tewaaraton Award, and Tim Muller, who earned the Schmeisser Award for being the nation's top defender. The Terps had a nation's-best nine USILA All-America selections, while Isaiah Davis-Allen became just the second student-athlete in Maryland history to receive the Senior CLASS Award.

The Terrapins won a program record 17 games in addition to piecing together a single-season record 16 consecutive wins in 2016 as they returned to the National Championship game, where they lost an overime heartbreaker to UNC. Tillman's team swept the Big Ten regular season and tournament titles, while compiling the NCAA's top-ranked RPI. Eight players earned USILA All-America honors and Matt Dunn was named a Senior CLASS Award First Team All-American.

Maryland had another phenomenal season in 2015 when Tillman led the team to a Terrapin single-season record 15 victories and a berth in the NCAA national title game. The Terps featured the top-ranked scoring defense (7.1 goals allowed/g), as junior Kyle Bernlohr claimed the Ensign C. Markland Kelly, Jr. Award. Additionally, five players earned USILA All-America honors and Casey Ikeda was also a USILA Scholar All-American.

Tillman captured his first career ACC Coach of the Year honor by leading the Terps to the 2014 ACC regular season championship and the program's third Final Four appearance in four seasons. Senior Niko Amato earned the Ensign C. Markland Kelly, Jr. Award as the nation's most outstanding goalie, as five Maryland players earned USILA All-America honors.

Tillman's third season in College Park saw the Terps ascend to the top of the national rankings for the first time since 2006, following a 12-10 win at then-No. 1 Loyola on Feb. 21. Maryland earned a bid to the NCAA tournament for the 11th consecutive season, which is the longest active streak in Division I men's lacrosse. Seniors Jesse Bernhardt and John Haus became the first Terrapins since 2006 to earn first-team All-America honors, leading a group of seven Maryland honorees.

The 2012 season was viewed by many as a rebuilding year after Maryland graduated 17 seniors in 2011, but Tillman rallied the team and the Terrapins returned to the NCAA championship game with sensational postseason performances from seniors Joe Cummings and Drew Snider among others. Five Terps earned All-America honors following Maryland's 12-6 campaign and junior Jesse Bernhardt was selected as co-recipient of the ACC's first-ever Defensive Player of the Year award.

In his first season in College Park Tillman guided the Terps to a 13-5 record, the 2011 ACC championship (the program's first since 2005) and a berth in the NCAA championship game (the first for the Terps since 1998). Eight Terrapins earned All-America honors in Tillman's first season, which is the most Maryland players selected in a single-season since 2004.

Tillman was hired as the University of Maryland's head men's lacrosse coach on June 16, 2010, becoming the ninth coach in the then-85-year history of the program.

Widely considered one of the top coaches in the country and a dynamic recruiter, Tillman was the head men's lacrosse coach at Harvard for three seasons prior to his arrival in College Park. His last recruiting class for the Crimson was rated No. 3 in the nation, according to Inside Lacrosse.

During his three seasons at Harvard, Tillman compiled an overall record of 20-19, including an 8-5 mark in 2009, which was the Crimson's highest win total since 1999.

Tillman's time at Harvard produced a number of the most memorable wins in the program's history. This past season, during which Harvard climbed as high as No. 11 in the national polls, Tillman guided the Crimson to an 11-8 victory over No. 6 Princeton, which was the first time Harvard had defeated the Tigers in 20 years. In 2009, Tillman led the Crimson to a season-opening 9-6 upset victory at No. 5 Duke.

Tillman improved his teams in every aspect over the past three seasons. Prior to his arrival in Cambridge, Mass., the Crimson ranked 40th and 42nd, respectively, in total offense and defense. Tillman's defense ranked as high as No. 3 in the nation, while his offense rose to No. 15 in the country. He also dramatically improved Harvard's extra-man offense, from the 51st-ranked unit before he arrived, to a perennial top 15 unit.

Prior to Harvard, Tillman spent 12 seasons at the U.S. Naval Academy in Annapolis, Md. After six seasons as an assistant coach, he was promoted to head assistant coach and offensive coordinator prior to the 2002 season. From 2004 through 2007, Tillman helped lead the Midshipmen to the some of the most successful seasons in program history, including four straight NCAA tournament berths, four consecutive Patriot League tournament titles and four straight Patriot League regular season championships.

In 2004, with Tillman at the helm of the Navy offense, the Mids made a remarkable run through the NCAA tournament, defeating three Ivy League teams (Penn, Cornell and Princeton) en route to a spot in the national championship game. Tillman's offense was a key component of Navy's success that season, ranking third in the nation in scoring offense. Following the Mids' tremendous 2004 season, Tillman was awarded the first of his two Collegiate Lacrosse Assistant Coach of the Year Awards by the Maryland State Lacrosse Coaches Association.

During his 12 season at the Naval Academy, Tillman was responsible for helping develop first team All-America midfielders Graham Gill and Billy Looney and second team All-America attackman Jon Birsner. In his 12 seasons in Annapolis, the Mids compiled an overall record of 104-63.

Tillman started his coaching career as an assistant coach at Ithaca College. He spent four seasons (1992-95) with the Bombers, helping lead them to the Division III national semifinals in 1992.

In addition to his extensive coaching experience, Tillman also serves as a member of the Tewaaraton Award Men's Selection Committee.

Tillman is also extremely active in the community, regularly speaking to local schools and lacrosse programs. He has been highly involved with Team IMPACT since 2015, which matches children with life-threatening illnesses with sports programs. In addition, he also regularly coaches in the annual "Shootout for Soldiers" event locally.

A 1991 graduate of Cornell University's School of Hotel Administration, Tillman was a three-year member of the school's Dean's list. He had the opportunity to play for legendary coach

Richie Moran and was a member of the 1989 squad that earned a berth in the NCAA tournament.

Tillman was a goalie when he entered college, but played a number of positions for the Big Red, giving him a great appreciation and understanding for the overall game of lacrosse.

Tillman played professionally for the Baltimore Thunder and the Washington Power of the National Lacrosse League. During his final two seasons in Baltimore, he helped the Thunder reach the NLL Championship and Semifinals. Tillman also played for the Toyota Lacrosse Club, who won five-consecutive Southern Division Championships, including a world championship in 2000.

A native of Corning, N.Y., Tillman was previously commissioned into the U.S. Navy as a fleet support officer and was awarded the Navy Achievement Medal.
