established trend as one of the nation's top programs both on the field and in the classroom. The Scarlet Knights were ranked in the top 10 percent nationally in APR for eightstraight seasons, the only distinction during that span.

Head coach Chris Ash instituted the "Life Beyond the Game" program that the Scarlet Knights. Players have participated in mock interviews, job fairs, internship training and made visits to several Fortune 500 companies located in the Metropolitan area. A weekly guest speaker is also invited to share their and offer words of advice to becoming successful off the field after their playing careers

"It's our obligation to help student-athletes in the life after stops, the goal is to help give them an opportunity to go get employed. A lot of people want college athletes in the workforce, and what we need to do is make sure our college athletes get connected to the right people." – Chris Ash

COMPETITIVE EXCELLENCE

Head Football Strength and Conditioning Coach Kenny Parker works to help transform the Scarlet Knights both physically and mentally, encouraging a culture of competitive excellence and commitment to pushing each player to reach their fullest potential.

"I want to build a fast, physical team that plays with relentless effort, tremendous enthusiasm, and plays for each other. I want our opponents to turn on the film and say, you know what, this is a real one. We'd better strap it on because these guys are going to come and they are going to play hard." – Chris Ash

NFL KNIGHTS

Rutgers football has become an elite program in terms of developing players for success at the next level. The Scarlet Knights boast 21 players who have been a member of a Super Bowl team, and 15 who have hoisted the Lombardi Trophy. There are currently over 20 former Scarlet Knights on NFI rosters.

Two more former Scarlet Knights joined the NFL ranks in 2019 with the sixth round draft selections of defensive backs Saquan Hampton to the New Orleans Saints and Blessuan Austin to the New York Jets. Devin and Jason McCourty, and Duron Harmon went on to capture the Super Bowl title the third for Devin and Duron, and first for Jason.

Super Bowl LIII saw four Scarlet Knights on rosters for the Los Angeles Rams and New England Patriots, marking the third consecutive season and 11th time in 15 years that a Rutgers player would compete in the league's biggest game.

MARCO BATTAGLIA PRACTICE COMPLEX

Rutgers Athletics unveiled a state-of-the-art football dedicated in the name of Marco Battaglia, a former consensus All-American and Big East Offensive Player of the Year.

The upgraded practice facility features two new Kentucky Bluegrass fields equipped with an improved drainage and irrigation systems. A separate FieldTurf playing surface with CoolPlay technology was installed, providing the Scarlet Knights with an additional area for practice drills. The complex has been fitted with a high-powered Musco LED light system. Two permanent 54-foot film towers were constructed in the complex along with two new scoreboards, a new LED video board and six game clocks. A 5,000 square foot storage unit was installed along with new maintenance equipment and

The outside facade of the program's six College Football Hall of Fame honorees - Paul Robeson, Alex Kroll, Harvey Harmon, Homer Hazel, George Little and George Foster Sanford – and lists each All-American who represented Rutgers football. The entrance also includes a monument of Battaglia, the namesake of the complex.

FACILITIES

Rutgers football has one of the top football complexes in the nation. Included within the Hale Center is the state-of-theart Ron and Joanna Garutti Strength and Conditioning Center, an interactive lobby entrance, spacious meeting rooms, a player lounge with all the latest technology and an in-house academic support center.

The Scarlet Knights will call a brand new locker room home for the 2019 season thanks to the generosity of Greg and Anna Brown, who made a pledge of $4 million towards the project.

HEAD COACH CHRIS ASH

CHRIS ASH HEAD COACH • FOURTH SEASON

Chris Ash took over the helm of the Rutgers football program, his first season as a head coach in 2016, culminating a nearly 20-year career as an assistant coach.

A coach with a na-

accomplished career prior to arriving "On the Banks," including five years in the Big Ten Conference (four as a defensive coordinator) with four Big Ten championships.

Ash built a reputation as a relentless and tireless worker throughout his various stops. Upon becoming the 30th head coach in the 147-year history at the Birthplace of College Football, Ash made clear his vision for the Scarlet Knights program.

"I want to build a first-class program here, a program that the University, the State of New Jersey, high school coaches and high school players can be proud to say that this program is theirs and they want to come here and be a part of it."

Ash has embarked on outlining the plans to complete that vision, which includes a mission to create an environment to develop student-athletes mentally, physically and spiritually to reach their full potential and to be successful in life after football

The 2017 season was one marked by improvements for the Scarlet Knights as the team matched its program record for victories in Big Ten play, tying a league win total from 2014, the first year in the conference. Rutgers defeated Illinois on the road for its first road league win in two seasons and topped both Purdue and Maryland in front its home crowd.

In his previous post before Rutgers, Ash served as co-defensive coordinator and safeties coach at Ohio State and helped lead the Buckeyes to the 2014 national championship.

In his five seasons as a defensive coordinator, Ash pioneered four groups ranked in the top 25 statistically, including a top-10 defensive unit in 2015. As the defense coordinator at Wisconsin in 2011 and 2012, the Badgers put together back-to-back seasons ranked 15th overall in total defense. The 2011 squad was 13th in scoring defense while the 2012 team turned in a 17th-place ranking.

Ash was hired by Ohio State head coach Urban Meyer in January 2014 to improve a Buckeye defense that placed 112th in pass defense and 47th in total defense in 2013. In his first season, OSU's defense ranked 19th nationally in total defense and 29th in pass defense. The Buckeyes also ranked fourth in the country with 24 interceptions en route to Big Ten, Sugar Bowl and national championships.

In 2015, the Ohio State defense continued its strides under Ash, ranking second in scoring defense nationally and ninthbest in total defense. The Buckeyes earned a berth in the Fiesta Bowl, finishing the season with a 12-1 record after defeating Notre Dame in the bowl game.

The 2016 NFL Draft saw numerous players from Ash's defensive unit selected, including the first overall defensive player in Joey Bosa, who was picked third by the San Diego Chargers. In all, the draft featured six defensive players taken from Ohio State with three in the first round.

Prior to taking over the OSU defense, Ash held the defensive coordinator post and coached the secondary at the University of Arkansas in the Southeastern Conference in 2013 under head coach Bret Bielema. He helped improve Arkansas' pass defense in his one season in Fayetteville, with the Razorbacks' defense finishing 72nd nationally in passing yards allowed after ranking 113th in 2012.

Ash was first promoted to the defensive coordinator role in the Big Ten while at the University of Wisconsin, where he spent three seasons with the Badgers. His 2011 defense led the Big Ten (conference games only) in total defense and pass defense efficiency, and it ranked fourth nationally in fewest passing yards allowed (163.6), 13th in scoring (19.0) and 15th in total defense (316.4). In 2012, the UW defense ranked 15th nationally in total defense (322.5), 17th in scoring (19.1), 18th in fewest passing yards allowed (193.6), 22nd in pass efficiency and 24th against the run (128.9)

Ash began his coaching career as a defensive graduate assistant at his alma mater, Drake University, in 1997. He was promoted to defensive coordinator for the next two seasons before moving on to Iowa State University in 2000. Ash spent eight seasons over two different stints in Ames, including the 2009 season, during which current Texas head coach Tom Herman was also on the staff. Ash progressed from graduate assistant with the Cyclones in 2000-01 to defensive backs coach for a total of six seasons.

Ash spent the 2007 and 2008 seasons at San Diego State University as the defensive backs coach and recruiting coordinator under head coach and College Football Hall of Fame inductee Chuck Long.

Ash has produced numerous instructional videos, including a three-video series -- "Aggressive 4-3 Defense" -- that includes shutting down the passing game and stuffing the run segments. He has coached 34 different players that have gone on to sign NFL contracts.

A native of Ottumwa, Iowa, Ash earned his undergraduate degree from Drake in 1996, and was a two-time letterwinner at defensive back for the Bulldogs. He is one of three from that era of Drake football who became a FBS head coach, joining Dave Doeren (NC State) and Charlie Partridge (formerly with Florida Atlantic). Ash completed his master's degree in education from Iowa State in 2005.

Ash and his wife, Doreen, are the parents of a son, Brady and daughter, Alexis. Ash also has a son, Tanner, and a daughter, Jacey.

ANDY BUH DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR/LINEBACKERS

Andy Buh is in his first season as Rutgers' defensive coordinator and linebackers coach. Buh is in his ninth season as a defensive coordinator and 22nd overall as an assistant coach.

Buh (pronounced same as "boo") spent the previous three seasons as the Maryland defensive coordinator where he guided a 2018 defensive unit that ranked fifth in the Big Ten in takeaways (23) and sixth in passing yards allowed (206.5). The defense was second in the conference and fifth nationally with 18 interceptions. He also helped tutor three All-Big Ten selections on defense in 2018.

Buh helped guide a Maryland defense that ended 2016 tied for third in the Big Ten with 37 sacks. The Terps finished strong, compiling 15 sacks during the final three games of the season. Buh's defense allowed just one 300-yard passer during his first season. Maryland allowed only 212.3 passing yards/game in 2016, marking just the second time from 2008-2016 that a Terps team achieved the feat.

In 2017, Buh's defense intercepted 10 passes - the most for a Terps team since 2013. Four Terps earned All-Big Ten honorable mention status following the season.

Prior to Maryland, Buh spent a season at Kentucky, coaching outside linebackers. Kentucky was stout in the red zone during Buh's tenure, ranking fourth in the conference and 14th nationally. The Wildcats also forced nine fumbles in 2015, ranking fourth in the SEC.

Buh was the linebackers coach at Wisconsin in 2012 and the UW defense ranked in the nation's top 25 in several statistical categories. The Badgers were 15th in the nation in total defense (322.6 yards per game), 17th in scoring defense (19.1 points per game), 22nd in pass efficiency defense and 24th in rushing defense.

Prior to Wisconsin Buh was defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Nevada in 2010-11. In his first season. Buh helped lead Nevada to a 13-1 record, tying for the Western Athletic Conference championship. Nevada ranked 31st in the nation in scoring defense (21.4 ppg) and 18th nationally in rushing defense at 120.3 yards per game. The Wolf Pack rated 24th nationally in sacks with 35, 2.5 per game. Defensive end Dontay Moch had 22 tackles-for-loss, leading the WAC and rating 10th nationally with 1.57 TFL per game. Moch was a third-round draft nick by the Cincinnati Bengals Buh's success came after inheriting a unit that had ranked 96th and 91st nationally in total defense in 2008 and 2009, respectively, the two seasons before his arrival. In his two years at Nevada, the Wolf Pack was 54th in the country in total defense in 2010 and 52nd in 2011.

In his first year as co-defensive coordinator, Stanford ranked 11th nationally in quarterback sacks. Three Cardinal defenders were named All-Pac-12. In 2009, Stanford played in the Sun Bowl, the school's first bowl appearance since 2001, and had four players receive All-Pac-12 honors, including NFL All-Pro cornerback Richard Sherman.

A native of Escondido, Calif., Buh played linebacker for two seasons at Palomar College, where he helped the team to a share of the 1991 Junior College Grid-Wire national championship as a freshman. He was a junior-college All-American as a sophomore.

Buh went on to play at Nevada in 1993-94 and was a part of a Big West championship team as a senior. He graduated with a degree in physical education and began his coaching career at his high school alma mater, Orange Glen HS, in 1996.

Buh entered the collegiate coaching ranks at Nevada as a graduate assistant in 1997-98 and coached defensive backs and special teams in 1999. He was a defensive administrative assistant at California in 2000-01. Buh coached linebackers at San Diego State at 2002-05.

Buh and his wife Kelly have two sons, Luke and Logan.

JOHN MCNULTY

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR/QUARTERBACKS

John McNulty is in his second season as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach under head coach Chris Ash.

McNulty, who has over 25 years experience as an offensive coach, previously spent five seasons on the Scarlet Knights' sideline, including three as offensive coordinator.

McNulty piloted one of the most prolific offenses in Rutgers history in 2007 with the Scarlet Knights becoming the first program in the FBS to have a 3,000-yard passer (Mike Teel), 2,000-yard rusher (Ray Rice) and a pair of 1,000-yard receivers (Kenny Britt and Tiquan Underwood) in the same season. At the time, the 2007 squad was one of just eight teams in the 138 seasons of football at Rutgers to score 300 points in a season. The Scarlet Knights set school records for scoring (426), first downs (294) and total offense (5,841) in 2007.

During the 2007 season, Britt and Underwood became the 26th pair of teammates in the NCAA and the first in Big East history to each have at least 1,000 yards receiving in the same season. Britt led the conference with 1,232 yards and Underwood added 1,100 yards.

McNulty was part of four bowl teams during his five-year tenure at Rutgers, including three-straight wins at the Texas, International and PapaJohns. com Bowls.

Following his final season at Rutgers, McNulty spent three seasons with the Arizona Cardinals, coaching wide receivers from 2009-11, including All-Pro receiver Larry Fitzgerald, and quarterbacks in 2012. He later joined the Tampa Bay Buccaneers staff for the 2013 season, coaching rookie quarterback Mike Glennon, who earned All-Rookie honors.

McNulty served as quarterbacks coach for two seasons with the Tennessee Titans from 2014-15 under his former Arizona Cardinals coach Ken Whisenhunt While with the Titans, he mentored second overall pick Marcus Mariota for the 2015 season. Mariota went on to earn All-Rookie honors after finishing the season with the highest passer rating among rookies (91.5). He posted four games with at least three touchdown passes in 2015, tying Peyton Manning (1998) for the most ever by an NFL rookie despite missing four games. Mariota also broke the franchise record for most passing touchdowns (19), completions (230) and passing yards (2.818) by a rookie.

Most recently, McNulty has spent the previous two seasons (2016-17) on the Los Angeles Chargers staff as tight ends coach.

Prior to his first stint with the Scarlet Knights, McNulty spent six seasons as an NFL assistant coach with the Jacksonville Jaguars from 1998-2002 under head coach Tom Coughlin and the Dallas Cowboys in 2003 with Hall of Fame head coach Bill Parcells. During his six-year stint, McNulty helped his teams advance to three playoff berths. While in Jacksonville, he coached two of the NFL's top receiving duos in Jimmy Smith and Keenan McCardell. In 2000 and 2001, the pair combined for 390 receptions and 4,903 yards, while Smith earned All-Pro honors both seasons.

McNulty began his coaching career as a graduate assistant coach at Michigan from 1991-94. He then spent three seasons as wide receivers coach at Connecticut from 1995-97 before joinign the NFL McNulty played safety at Penn State from 1988-90, where he was a member of two Nittany Lion bowl teams

A native of Scranton, Pa., McNulty and his wife Kim have four daughters: Abigail, Allison, Megan and Kaitlyn.

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR/OUTSIDE LINEBACKERS

Vince Okruch is in his fourth year as special teams coordinator. He also serves as outside linebackers coach after spending the first three seasons leading the tight ends. Prior to joining RU, Okruch spent two seasons (2014–15) at Ohio State as quality control coach for the kicking game and defense.

With more than 35 years of coaching experience, Okruch has worked with some of the legendary names in college football, including Lou Holtz, Bill McCartney, Gary Barnett and Urban Meyer.

Okruch spent three seasons at the University of Akron before joining the Buckeyes. While at Akron from 2009-11, he coached on the defensive side of the ball, overseeing the defensive tackles, safeties and linebackers at different times during his stint. He also served as special teams coordinator.

Okruch has over 15 years of experience coaching in the Big Ten with stops at Minnesota, where he coached under Holtz and John Gutekunst, Northwestern (Barnett) and Illinois (Ron Zook). Okruch coached alongside Barnett for a total of 12 years, including five seasons as the defensive coordinator at the University of Colorado.

In 2009 while at Akron, Okruch tutored Zips linebacker Brian Wagner who was named consensus Freshman All-America, including first-team honors by Sporting News.

Prior to coming to Akron, Okruch served as defensive coordinator at Illinois for one season. Under his guidance, the 2006 Illini defense made the jump to the upper half of the Big Ten. Nationally, the unit ranked 33rd in total defense (310.17 ypg), 31st in pass defense (182.25 ypg) and 31st in pass efficiency defense (115.20 rating).

Okruch came to Illinois after one season as linebackers coach at Louisiana-Monroe and one year as defensive coordinator at Western Illinois. ULM posted a 5-2 conference record and were Sun Belt co-champions.

He spent five seasons as the defensive coordinator at Colorado (1999-2003). During his time at CU, the Buffs' defense held opponents to under 100 yards rushing 18 times and limited their foes to below 300 yards total offense on 12 occasions.

Before heading to Colorado, Okruch was part of Barnett's staff at Northwestern (1992-98), which won two Big Ten titles and made a trip to the 1996 Rose Bowl and 1997 Citrus Bowl. At NU, he served as defensive line coach for five years (1992-96) and two seasons as defensive coordinator (1997-98).

A native of Buffalo, N.Y., and a graduate of Culver-Stockton College in Canton, Mo., Okruch earned four letters playing both quarterback and tight end at Culver-Stockton. He also was a member of its baseball team. After completing his bachelor's degree in physical education, he went on to earn his master's degree at Northeast Missouri State in 1980. He and his wife Janet have two children; a daughter, Taylor, and a son. Jordan.

NOAH JOSEPH CO-DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR/SAFETIES

Noah Joseph is in his second season as co-defensive coordinator and safeties coach on the Rutgers staff. A native of Ohio, Joseph has nearly 20 years of coaching experience, including a stint with lowa State where Ash was the defensive backs coach in 2002.

Joseph spent four seasons in the Big Ten as a member of the Indiana coaching staff where he oversaw the safeties and served as recruiting coordinator on the defensive side of the ball. In 2017, the Hoosiers ranked fourth in the Big Ten in passing defense, and in 2016, the Joseph-coached secondary accounted for 13 takeaways, while Marcelino Ball, Jonathan Crawford and Tony Fields were third, fourth and fifth, respectively on the team in tackles. In his first season at Indiana, Joseph's safeties accounted for seven of IU's 13 interceptions.

Prior to his stint at Indiana, Joseph spent two seasons at North Texas as the safeties coach and recruiting coordinator in 2012 and 2013. While there, the Mean Green finished 2013 with a 9-4 record and won the Heart of Dallas Bowl. The nine wins tied for the secondmost victories in program history. Joseph coached a pair of All-Conference USA selections that season in Marcus Trice and Lairamie Lee, including a safeties group that had eight interceptions, four forced fumbles and three fumble recoveries.

Joseph served as co-defensive coordinator in 2011 at Montana State and was the secondary coach and recruiting coordinator from 2007-10. The Bobcats secondary led the Big Sky Conference in pass efficiency defense (12h nationally) and pass defense (22nd nationally). Montana State finished 27th in the country in total defense and recorded 44 sacks, which led the league and ranked seventh in the nation.

During his four seasons at Eastern Illinois University from 2003-06, Joseph produced one of the top pass efficiency defenses in the nation in 2005. He also worked as a graduate assistant at Drake University (2000), Eastern Kentucky University (2001) and Iowa State University (2002). Joseph played collegiately at Drake, where he earned Academic All-Pioneer Football League honors and was captain of the 1998 team. Joseph holds the school record for the longest interception return (100 yards) at Wayne (Neb.) State in 1997. He received his degree from Drake in 1999 and a master's degree from lowa State in 2003.

Joseph and his wife Lyla have two daughters, Lily and Chloe.

COREY BROWN

DEFENSIVE LINE

Corey Brown is in his second season as defensive line coach after being hired by head coach Chris Ash on Jan. 30, 2018. A native of Houston with 12 years of coaching experience, Brown spent four previous seasons coaching the defensive line at Miami (Ohio) after a two-year stint as a graduate assistant at Notre Dame.

In 2017, Brown was part of a defensive staff that led a unit ranked 14th in the country in red zone defense, 24th in first downs defense and 43rd in scoring defense. Ikeem Allen earned third team All-MAC to make it four all-conference honors from the defensive line under Brown's watch in as many seasons.

In his first year with the RedHawks, Brown mentored a pair of defensive ends in Bryson Albright and J'Terius Jones, who combined for 11 sacks during the 2014 season. Jones and Albright improved on their play in 2015, combining for 17 sacks. Jones would earn third team All-MAC honors and finish second in the league with 10 sacks, while Albright was named second team all-conference. Brown's defensive front had one of the best games in Miami history in a contest versus Eastern Michigan in which the RedHawks recorded a school-record eight sacks versus the Eagles.

Jones would earn second-team All-MAC honors in 2016, but Brown also guided Austin Gearing, a former Miami quarterback, to be a productive member of Miami's starting defensive line.

Before that, Brown worked as a graduate assistant at Notre Dame for two seasons. The 2012 Fighting Irish advanced to the BCS National Championship Game after posting a perfect 12-0 regular season, meeting Alabama in the title contest. That team allowed only four rushing touchdowns, holding eight different opponents under 100 yards, for the fewest in the nation. Both defensive end Stephon Tuitt and defensive tackle Louis Nix would go on to be drafted in the top three rounds from the unit.

Prior to Notre Dame, Brown coached for four seasons at lowa Western Community College in Council Bluffs, Iowa. He focused on the defensive line and also served as a strength and conditioning coach. Brown helped six players earn scholarships to Football Bowl Subdivision schools such as Oregon, Washington State, West Virginia and Iowa State. He coached one All-America pick and had eight all-region or all-conference performers.

From 2006-07, Brown coached the defensive line and again was a strength and conditioning coach at North Iowa Area Community College.

A Big Ten alumnus, Brown graduated from the University of Iowa in 2005 with a sociology degree. He was a member of the Hawkeyes football team from 1995-99. As a senior in 1999, Brown started all 11 games at defensive tackle, ranked ninth on the team with 52 tackles and earned the team's defensive hustle award.

Following college, Brown played five years on the defensive and offensive line for the Quad City Steam Wheelers in the Arena Football League 2. Brown helped the Steam Wheelers claim back-to-back AFL2 championships as Quad City posted a combined 37-1 record in Brown's first two seasons with the club.

Brown and his wife Susan have a son Blaze. Brown has two daughters, Erin and Kayla.

NUNZIO CAMPANILE

Nunzio Campanile is in his second season on the Rutgers coaching staff and first season leading the tight ends.

Campanile spent his first season (2018)
"On the Banks," coaching the running backs

A graduate of Paramus Catholic, Campanile spent the previous eight seasons as the head coach at Bergen Catholic, including winning a state title in 2017, after working as offensive coordinator at Don Bosco Prep from 2000-09.

Campanile compiled a 60-28 (.681) record leading the Crusaders from 2010-17 as a perennial top-100 football national power. The team capped off the 2017 season by capturing the Non-Public, Group 4 title, the first state championship for the program since 2004, with a 44-7 triumph over St. Peter's Prep that featured over 400 yards of total offense. Bergen Catholic went 10-2 overall with a nine-game winning streak to end the season, finishing 10-0 against New Jersey competition to earn the No. 1 ranking in the state.

The Crusaders saw seven all-state quarterbacks under Campanile's watch and averaged over 35 points per game during his tenure. Numerous prospects signed scholarship offers across the country.

In 2012, Campanile was selected by USA Football to join the coaching staff for the US Under-19 National Team that competed in the third annual International Bowl in Austin, Texas.

Prior to arriving in Oradell, Campanile worked under legendary coach Greg Toal at Don Bosco Prep. The Ironmen won six state titles in 10 seasons with Campanile as the offensive coordinator with a 112-6 record, claiming the national championship in 2009. He mentored quarterbacks Mike Teel and Gary Nova during that time, who would both go on to set passing records at Rutgers.

Campanile also previously served as the head wrestling coach and athletic director at Don Bosco Prep, winning the 2010 Non-Public A state title on the mat. He has additionally worked as a history and physical education teacher.

Campanile comes from a football family, having played quarterback and safety for his father, Mike, at Paramus Catholic. His brothers, Vito, Nick and Anthony, are coaches as well.

A 1999 graduate of Montclair State University, Campanile also attended Amherst College for two years. He has been married to his wife Heather for 15 years and the couple has two children, Michael (12) and James (6).

Lester Erh is in his third season on the Rutgers staff and second season coaching the wide receivers. He spent his first year at RU coaching the running backs. Erb has over 25 years of coaching experience, including 13 seasons in the Big Ten Conference at Iowa.

Prior to arriving at Rutgers, Erb spent four seasons at Nevada where he served as running backs coach and special teams coordinator from 2013-15 before holding the post of assistant head coach and wide receivers coach

In 2015, Erb coached a pair of 1,000yard running backs en route to a 7-6 record and victory in the NOVA Home Loans Arizona Bowl. It marked the third time in program history that two running backs topped the 1,000-yard mark in the same season.

A standout recruiter throughout his career. Erb was twice recognized by Rivals.com as one of the nation's top-25 recruiters in 2005 and 2011

Erb spent 13 seasons at Iowa, including the final five years as the running backs coach. He also worked eight seasons as the wide receivers coach and coached special teams throughout his tenure in Iowa City. Overall while at Iowa, Erb and the Hawkeves went to 11 bowl games. including six January bowl trips during his tenure. They won a share of two Big Ten Championships and finished in the final top 10 of both major polls four times

In his first season working with the Iowa running backs in 2008. Erb coached Shonn Greene to the Doak Walker Award and consensus All-American honors while being named the Offensive Player of the Year in the Big Ten Conference. He rushed for 1.850 vards to set an lowa single-season rushing mark and was the only running back in the nation to surpass 100 yards in every game during the season.

Erb was also an integral part of special teams in Iowa City as the Hawkeyes led the Big Ten and ranked 25th in the nation in net punting in 2011. The Hawkeves ranked third in the Big Ten in net punting in 2010 after ranking fourth in 2009, third in 2008 and second in 2007. Senior punter Ryan Donahue was a finalist for the Ray Guy Punter of the Year award in 2010

Erb coached kicker Nate Kaeding to first team All-America honors in both 2002 and 2003. Kaeding was named winner of the 2002 Lou Groza Placekicker of the Year award and was one of three finalists for the award in 2003

Erb began his career at Hobart College coaching wide receivers. He then spent three seasons at Syracuse, where he assisted with the offensive line and scout team preparation while earning a master's degree.

Erb played receiver at Bucknell University where he set records for touchdown receptions in a season and career. He set a school record for average yards per catch in a single game when he averaged 33.7 yards on six catches vs. Fordham. His 902 receiving yards in 1989 ranks second best all-time at Bucknell. He ranks fifth in career allpurpose yards (3,286) and was Bucknell's Most Valuable Player as a senior

He earned his B A in husiness administration from Bucknell and his M.A. in high educational administration from

Pete Rossomando is in his first season as offensive line coach on the Rutgers staff Rossomando previously served as head coach at Central Connecticut State for the past five seasons.

In his final season leading the Blue Devils, Rossomando guided the squad to a 6-4 record and 4-2 mark in conference action. Eleven players were named All-Northeast Conference, including five picked for the first team and six secondteam selections

In 2017, Rossomando led the Blue Devils to their first NCAA FCS Playoffs appearance after winning the Northeast Conference title with a perfect 6-0 record. The campaign included an eightgame win streak, a program record for a single season. Rossomando's defense led the country in defensive touchdowns and was among the leaders in turnover margin, helping CCSU to the NEC's first unbeaten record since 2008. For his efforts, Rossomando was named the league's Coach of the Year and he was a finalist for the Eddie Robinson National Coach of the Year.

Prior to his arrival in New Britain, Rossomando spent five seasons as the head coach at the University of New Haven. During that time, he led the Chargers to a 42-13 record, two NCAA Playoff appearances and coached numerous all-conference and All-America student-athletes

Rossomando was named head coach of the Chargers in December of 2007 after New Haven reinstated its Division II football program after a five-year hiatus. He rebuilt the Chargers into one of the best Division II programs in the country. In his final three seasons. 2011-13, the Chargers posted an overall record of 29-6 and a 20-2 mark in Northeast-10 action, including two consecutive 8-0 regular seasons in league play (2011, 2012). New Haven was ranked as high as No. 3 in the 2012 Division II national polls.

Rossomando was named Liberty Mutual NCAA Division II National Coach of the Year following the 2012 season. He also earned three Northeast-10 Coach of the Year awards as the head coach of the Chargers (2010-12).

Prior to being named head coach at New Haven, Rossomando was an assistant coach at the University at Albany for seven seasons (2001-07), serving as associate head coach, offensive coordinator and offensive line coach for his final three seasons with the Great Danes. Albany won three Northeast Conference Championships (2002, 2003, 2007) with Rossomando on the sidelines. The Great Danes posted a record of 46-32 in his seven seasons, including 36-12 in NEC play.

Rossomando has also served as an assistant at Cortland State (2000) and Northeastern (1999). His collegiate coaching career began in 1994 as an assistant at New Haven under head coach Tony Sparano. While an assistant at UNH, the Chargers advanced to the NCAA Playoffs in 1995 and again in 1997 when the team reached the National Championship game.

Rossomando played at Boston University, seeing action on the offensive and defensive lines for the Terriers from 1990-93. He helped the team to the 1993 Yankee Conference Championship and a trip to the NCAA Playoffs with an undefeated record.

A native of Staten Island, New York, Rossomando was a decorated studentathlete at Port Richmond High School. being named the 1989 Staten Island Player of the Year. Rossomando and his wife Jessica have three children, Reese, Gianna and Nicholas.

KOLBY SMITH

Kolby Smith is in his first season as running backs coach at Rutgers. Prior to joining the Scarlet Knights, Smith spent the previous five seasons coaching the running backs at Louisville.

Smith helped Louisville, his alma mater, to four bowls, establishing a school record in rushing yards in both 2017 (3,186) and 2016 (3,148). In 2017, the Cardinals ranked No. 15 nationally in rushing with an average of 245.1 yards per game and totaled over 250 yards in seven games. Smith's three running backs combined to rush for 1,225 yards and 14 touchdowns. The 2016 campaign saw the Cardinals total 37 scores on the ground, highlighted by the 903 yards and six touchdowns by Brandon Radcliff, who was second on the team with four 100-yard games.

During the 2015 campaign, Smith helped the Cardinals post their best rushing games in the second part of the season, rushing for over 200 yards in four of the final five games. That included a season-best 314 yards in a 38-24 victory over Kentucky. For the year, the Cardinals averaged a 171.0 yards on the ground and totaled 23 touchdowns.

With a stable of running backs in 2014, Smith's unit recorded 28 rushing touchdowns and averaged 142.7 yards per game in leading the Cardinals to a 9-4 record and a berth in the Belk Bowl. Smith saw his backs record six 100-yard rushing games, including Brandon Radcliff, who tallied a team-best three 100-yard rushing games.

Before returning to his alma mater, Smith's coaching career began in 2013 season as the running backs coach at Western Kentucky.

With the Hilltoppers, Smith tutored Antonio Andrews, the nation's top all-purpose player, to a career season on the ground. Andrews re-set the school rushing mark with 1,730 yards in 2013. WKU running backs combined for 30 of the team's 31 rushing touchdowns in 2013, led by Andrews' career-best 16. He also set a school record for the most 100-yard rushing games in a career (21), in a season (11) and consecutively (11). He generated 125 all-purpose yards in 25 consecutive games, a streak unmatched to within 10 games by any other player in the country.

Smith's running back group also accounted for 724 yards and a pair of touchdowns through the air.

As a player at Louisville, Smith led the Cardinals to a 12-1 record as the primary back in 2006. Sharing the backfield that year with Michael Bush, Smith stepped in after an injury to Bush to average more than five yards per carry, scoring seven touchdowns on a team that defeated Wake Forest in the Orange Bowl, the program's first BCS victory.

For his career, Smith rushed for over 1,800 yards, averaging nearly 6.0 yards per carry and scored 18 touchdowns on the ground. Smith was also a threat catching the ball out of the backfield, pulling in 56 passes for over 500 yards and two touchdowns.

Smith's playing career moved on to the NFL level following his time at Louisville, as he was selected in the fifth round of the 2007 NFL Draft by the Kansas City Chiefs. Smith immediately made an impact in his rookie campaign, as he filled the void left by the injured Larry Johnson by rushing for over 400 yards on 112 carries. Smith played in all 16 games in 2007, scoring a pair of touchdowns and earning AFC Offensive Player of the Week honors after rushing for 150 yards on 31 carries against the Raiders.

Smith finished his NFL career in 2010, spending brief periods with the Denver Broncos and the Jacksonville Jaguars. Following his professional playing career, Smith moved on to Arkansas to serve as the assistant strength and conditioning coach with the Razorbacks for the 2012 season.

Smith and his wife Ashley have three sons, Kolby, Jr., Karter and Klay.

KENNY PARKER HEAD FOOTBALL STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

Kenny Parker is in his fourth season as head strength and conditioning coach for the Rutgers football program. Prior to arriving in Piscataway, Parker spent four seasons as an assistant with the Ohio State football program.

As a key member of the staff, Parker leads the strength and conditioning program for the Scarlet Knights. That includes implementing the in-season and offseason workouts, and preparing the team both physically and mentally.

Prior to joining Rutgers, Parker served as an assistant strength and conditioning coach at Ohio State for four seasons. A 2005 graduate of the University of Florida, Parker came to Ohio State after two seasons as a defensive line coach and strength coach at Murray State University.

Parker, who also spent a year in a director of player development capacity while at Murray State, was responsible for all of the Racers' in-season and offseason training in his strength coach role. His players made great strides in the weight room, and on the field his defensive line helped the Racers rank fourth nationally in tackles-for-loss as it combined for 54 tackles-for-loss, including 16 quarterback sacks.

Parker spent 10 years as a player and/ or coach with the Gators, and was part of the Gators' programs when the team won a National Championship and three Southeastern Conference titles.

His playing career with the Gators spanned 2000 through 2004, including redshirt seasons in 2001 and 2002 because of a back injury. He was a starting defensive tackle in 2003 and 2004. Following his graduation in 2005 (sociology), Parker worked in a number of roles with UF, including as a defensive intern, graduate assistant and as an assistant director with the school's football camps. He left Florida after the 2009 season for his position at Murray State.

Parker played his prep ball at Northside (Ga.) High School, where he was a USA Today All-American and was rated as one of the nation's top 20 defensive tackles by Rivals.com. Parker was a two-time all-state honoree and played in the Florida-Georgia all-star game as a senior.

Parker and his wife Melissa are from Warner Robins, Georgia. The couple has a daughter, Kyndal, and twin boys, Kellen and Kaden.

ANDREW DIRIENZO

OFFENSIVE ASSISTANT

Andrew DiRienzo enters first season as an offensive assistant and second year in the program after joining the player development staff in February 2018. He will work primarily with the wide receivers.

Prior to his arrival "On the Banks," DiRienzo served as the defensive backs coach at Division III Pace University in Pleasantville, New York. In his lone season with the Setters in 2017, DiRienzo helped install the defensive game plan and was in charge of Pace's special teams unit. DiRienzo also worked as the program's social media coordinator.

DiRienzo was a student assistant at Springfield College from 2015-16, where he worked with the team's wide receivers as a junior and the quarterbacks as a senior.

DiRienzo graduated from Springfield in 2016 with a bachelor's degree in sports studies.

ROSS DOUGLAS DEFENSIVE ASSISTANT

Ross Douglas enters his first year as a defensive assistant after spending the 2018 season in player development. In his current role, Douglas will work primarily with the cornerbacks.

A two-year letterwinner "On the Banks", Douglas played in 22 career games from 2016-17. As a senior in 2017, Douglas started all 12 games at linebacker, totaling 38 tackles with four pass breakups. Douglas also competed in 10 games at safety during his junior campaign. He participated in the Pittsburgh Steelers rookie mini-camp in 2018.

Douglas transferred to Rutgers from the University of Michigan, where he played from 2013-15. Douglas appeared in 18 career games for the Wolverines, which included six games at running back during the 2015 season. One of the top prospects out of Ohio during his scholastic career, Douglas was named AP Division II All-Ohio first team as a senior after he rushed for 1,363 yards and 24 touchdowns

A 2017 Academic All-Big Ten selection, Douglas graduated from Michigan with a bachelor's degree in general studies with a concentration in history in 2016. The Avon, Ohio, native earned his master's degree in labor studies and employment relations from Rutgers in 2018.

MYLES NASH DEFENSIVE ASSISTANT

Myles Nash enters his first year as a defensive assistant working primarily with the defensive line

Nash was a four-year letterwinner for the Scarlet Knights from 2013-17 and played in 33 career games during his career "On the Banks." Nash played both ways for RU as a senior in 2017, when he totaled three receptions for 29 yards at tight end and nine tackles with 1.5 for loss, a half sack and two quarterhack hurries at defensive end

In 2018, Nash earned an invite to training camp with the Indianapolis Colts. Nash later signed with the San Diego Fleet in the Alliance of American Football League in August of that year. Through six games, Nash recorded six tackles, 2.5 sacks, two tackles-for-loss, two forced fumbles and a pass breakup.

Prior to his arrival at Rutgers, the Sicklerville, New Jersey, native was a standout on the gridiron and was part of back-to-back South Jersey Group IV section championship teams for head coach Rob Hinson at Timber Creek. Nash, who closed out his scholastic career with 70 tackles, 14 sacks and eight tackles-for-loss as a senior, was a First Team All-Group IV selection by the Star-Ledger and a four-star recruit by ESPN.com.

Nash earned his bachelor's degree in criminal justice from Rutgers in 2018.

LOUIS DIRIENZO SPECIAL TEAMS QUALITY CONTROL

Louis DiRienzo begins his first season as special teams quality control coach at Rutgers. A Yonkers, New York, native, DiRienzo spent last year coaching the outside linebackers at Wagner College.

In his lone season with the Seahawks, DiRienzo helped outside linebacker Cam Gill earn Northeast Conference (NEC) Defensive Player of the Year honors after he recorded 13.5 sacks and 24 tackles-for-loss during his junior campaign. Under DiRienzo's watch, Gill was also named First Team All-NEC, ECAC Defensive Player of the Year, Second Team STATS All-America and third Team AP All-America.

Prior to his arrival in Staten Island, DiRienzo enjoyed a two-year stint as a graduate assistant at Springfield College, where he served as co-special teams coordinator and outside linebackers coach in 2017 after coach the Pride defensive backs in 2016. DiRienzo played football at Division II Southern Connecticut State, where he was a team captain as a senior in 2015. Dirienzo was also a standout high school football player at New Rochelle High School where he was an all-state, all-county, all-section and all-league player.

DiRienzo earned his bachelor's degree in exercise science from SCSU in 2016 and his masters of physical education degree from Springfield in 2018.

JOHN WEISS OFFENSIVE ASSISTANT

John Weiss is in his second season on the Rutgers football staff, serving as an offensive assistant, working with the offensive line.

This is the second Big Ten stop for Weiss after a two-year stint on the Nebraska football staff. He served as an offensive assistant with the Cornhuskers, working primarily with the running backs.

In his first season with the Huskers, Weiss oversaw the development of fullback Luke McNitt, who was a strong blocker at the position, while ranking as one of the team's top special teams performers.

Weiss came to Nebraska after spending fall 2015 at DePaul Catholic High School in Wayne, New Jersey, helping coach the offensive line, defensive line and serving as the special teams coordinator. Weiss helped lead the team to the 2015 New Jersey State Championship, where the Spartans claimed the state title.

Prior, Weiss interned at Southern Connecticut State, where he worked with the wide receivers in the spring of 2015.

Weiss played at Southern Connecticut State in a variety of roles, including tight end, fullback, on the offensive line and special teams. Before his time at SCSU, Weiss spent his freshman year at Southern Illinois.

Weiss played high school football at De-Paul Catholic in Wayne, New Jersey. He played tight end and spent time on the defensive line while with the Spartans.

JORDAN HUXTABLE DEFENSE QUALITY CONTROL

Jordan Huxtable enters his first year as a defense quality control coach at Rutgers.

Huxtable served as an assistant defensive backs coach at Morehead State during the 2018 season. Huxtable helped Sayyid Kanu earn Honorable Mention All-Pioneer honors last fall after the senior corner produced a teambest 62 tackles along with a team-high six pass breakups and two interceptions.

Prior to his arrival at Morehead State, Huxtable spent the 2017 season on the coaching staff at Elmhurst College and the 2016 campaign as a coaching intern at Northern Illinois. At NIU, Huxtable assisted with the cornerbacks.

The St. Charles, Illinois, native played football at the University of Connecticut and Northern Illinois before he closed out his collegiate career at Illinois State. Huxtable earned his bachelor's degree in university studies from Illinois State in 2016.

She sits on the American Dairy Association North East (ADANE) Sport Nutrition Advisory Panel and is a member of the Collegiate and Professional Sports Dietitian Association (CPSDA), the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics, and the Sports Cardiovascular and Wellness Dietetic Practice Group (SCAN).

The 2017 recipient of the Young Achiever Award at Central Arkansas' annual FACS Alumni Banquet, Kreimeier published an article in the August 2017 edition of Friday Night Football Coaches Magazine on Game Day Nutrition.

Kreimeier has a daughter, Payton.

SCOTT WALKER

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR OF ACADEMIC SUPPORT FOR STUDENT-ATHLETES

Since his arrival at Rutgers in 2004, Scott Walker has worked diligently to put Rutgers Athletics on the map academically as the director of football academic support and most recently as the executive director of academic support Services for student-athletes. In his role, Walker oversees the entire academic program for Rutgers student-athletes.

During the previous 10 years at RU, Walker has helped the football program establish unprecedented success in the classroom, further upholding the high academic standards of Rutgers University. The team has stood as a pillar for great achievement both on the field and in the classroom.

In the most recent Academic Progress Rate (APR) report, Rutgers saw 13 teams either tie or set program records for their multiyear scores, with a school-record eight earning public recognition from the NCAA. Additionally, 19 of 22 programs posted multiyear APR scores of 980 or better, 14 had scores of 990 or above, and nine programs had multi-year scores of 995 or better. All Rutgers University athletic programs are well above the 930 benchmark required by the NCAA.

Rutgers has had two National Football Foundation Scholar Athletes in Brian Leonard and Brandon Renkart during Walker's tenure. Leonard received the prestigious Draddy Trophy, recognized as the "Academic Heisman," in 2006.

Prior to his tenure at Rutgers, Walker spent 17 years as an assistant football coach. His career included stints at Texas, Purdue, Iowa, Maine, Georgia Tech and Cornell. He also served three years as the Director of Football Academics at Georgia Tech.

Walker graduated from Princeton in 1984 with a Bachelor of Arts degree in geology. During his time at Princeton, he worked as the freshman defensive ends coach from 1982-84. In addition to attending college in New Jersey, Walker spent 15 years recruiting the New Jersey metropolitan area for various universities during his coaching career.

Scott and his wife, Michelle, have a son, Kyle, who was a four-year letterwinner on the baseball team at Rutgers.

DAN SPITTAL DIRECTOR OF PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

A long-time fixture in New Jersey's football scene, Dan Spittal begins his first year as the director of player personnel at Rutgers after spending the past three seasons in the program's player development office.

Prior to his arrival "On the Banks" in 2016, Spittal served as the offensive coordinator and tight ends coach at TCNJ in 2015. Spittal mentored five all-conference selections on the offensive side of the ball that season.

Spittal arrived at TCNJ after a 13-year stint as the head coach at Eastern Camden County Regional High School in Voorhees, New Jersey from 2000-13. Under the leadership of Spittal, the Vikings made playoffs eight times, which included four quarterfinal appearances in 2004, 20006, 2008, 2009; semifinal appearances in 2007 and 2012; finalist in 2013 and a state title in 2003. Among the players Spittal coached at Eastern was Logan Ryan, a standout defensive back at Rutgers and current starter for the Tennessee Titans as well as Eli Apple, current starter with the New Orleans Saints

Prior to his head coaching stint, Spittal was the offensive coordinator at Eastern from 1992-99 and Pemberton Township High School from 1985-1991. While an assistant, he coached two eventual NFL first round draft picks -Irv Smith of the New Orleans Saints and Chris Canty of the New England Patriots. Spittal also coached 2000 Eastern HS graduate Adam Taliaferro, whose book, A Miracle in the Making, recorded his amazing comeback from a spinal cord injury during his freshman season at Pann State.

Spittal played collegiately at Lock Haven and was a quarterback for the Bald Eagles, leading the team to its only Pennsylvania Conference title in 1979 during his all-conference senior season.

Spittal graduated from Lock Haven in 1980 with his bachelor's degree and is a member of the school's football hall of fame. Spittal also earned a master's degree from Temple, where he was a graduate assistant from 1983-85 under current Tampa Bay Buccaneers Head Coach Bruce Arians.

Spittal and his wife, Ann Westhoven, live in Haddon Heights. Spittal also has two children, Matthew and Meghan.

BIG TEN CONFERENCE

Known as one of intercollegiate sports' most successful undertakings, the Big Ten is home to a lineage of legendary names and an ongoing tradition of developing strong leaders. Even in its infancy, the conference established itself as the preeminent collection of institutions in the nation, where the pursuit of academic excellence prevailed as the definitive goal.

The history of the Big Ten traces back more than 120 years to the Palmer House hotel in Chicago, where on January 11, 1895, then-Purdue president James H. Smart and leaders from the University of Chicago, University of Milniesota, Northwestern University and University of Wisconsin set out to organize and develop principles for the regulation of intercollegiate athletics.

At that meeting, a blueprint for the administration of college athletics under the direction of appointed faculty representatives was outlined. The presidents' first known action "restricted eligibility for athletics to bonafide, full-time students who were not delinquent in their studies." That important legislation, along with other legislation that would follow in the coming years, served as the primary building block for intercollegiate athletics.

On February 8, 1896, one faculty member from each of those seven universities met at the same Palmer House and officially established the mechanics of the conference, which was officially incorporated as the "Intercollegiate Conference Athletic Association" in 1905.

Indiana University and the State University of Iowa became the eighth and ninth members in 1899. In 1908, Michigan briefly withdrew its membership, and in 1912 Ohio State University joined the conference, bringing its membership total back to nine. Upon Michigan's return in 1917, the conference was first referred to as the "Big Ten" by media members, and that name was eventually incorporated in 1987.

As the 1900s opened, faculty representatives established rules for intercollegiate athletics that were novel for the time. As early as 1904, the faculty approved legislation that required eligible athletes to meet entrance requirements and to have completed a full year's work, along with having one year of residence.

In 1901, the first Big Ten Championship event was staged when the outdoor track and field championships were held at the University of Chicago. The debut event marked what is now a staple of conference competition. Today, the Big Ten sponsors 28 official sports, 14 for men and 14 for women, including the addition of men's ice hockey and men's and women's lacrosse over the last four years. Big Ten schools compete in a total of 42 different sports, furthering the conference's commitment to broad-based programming and providing more participation opportunities than any conference in the country.

One of the conference's proudest traditions began in 1902 when Michigan took on Stanford in the Rose Bowl, the nation's first bowl game. Big Ten teams only appeared in Pasadena twice before the conference signed an exclusive contract with the Tournament of Roses in 1946, making it the first bowl game with permanent conference affiliations. But Michigan's appearance in 1902 cultivated a relationship that has endured for more than a century. In January 2014, Michigan State defeated Stanford in the 100th Rose Bowl Game.

Coupling the academic goals set forth by the leaders of the charter members of the conference and their steadfast commitment to athletics, the conference instituted the Big Ten Medal of Honor in 1915. It is awarded annually by each conference institution to a student of the graduating class who has attained the greatest proficiency in scholarship and athletics. For more than 100 years, it has been the most prestigious honor a student competing in Big Ten athletics can receive.

In 1922, Major John L. Griffith became the conference's first "Commissioner of Athletics." Griffith was the first of five men to assume the role of commissioner in the conference's history, followed by Kenneth L. "Tug" Wilson in 1945, Bill Reed in 1961, Wayne Duke in 1971 and current commissioner James E. Delany in 1989.

After nearly 30 years with 10 members, the conference consolidated to nine schools when the University of Chicago formally withdrew its membership in 1946. Michigan State College (now Michigan State University) was added to the Big Ten three years later, bringing the number of affiliated conference schools to 10 once again.

In 1955, the Big Ten formulated a revenue-sharing model designed to pool all football television rights of its members and share those proceeds equally. The conference and its members continue to utilize a revenue-sharing model, dividing media rights, bowl payouts and other profits among all conference institutions.

While academics have always played an integral role in the conference, presidents of the Big Ten member institutions formalized the primacy of academics with the establishment of the Big Ten Academic Alliance (formerly the Committee on Institutional Cooperation) in 1958. The Big Ten Academic Alliance is an academic consortium of all Big Ten universities. Annually, the schools currently constituting the Big Ten Academic Alliance produced over $10 billion in funded research, $5 billion more than any other conference.

In one of Duke's first actions as commissioner, he oversaw the adoption of the Big Ten Advisory Commission in 1972, designed to study conference programs and make suggestions which would further Big Ten objectives. The Advisory Commission enlists former students that competed in Big Ten athletics to serve as liaisons to the NCAA's Diversity and Inclusion Department, the Big Ten Student-Athlete Advisory Commission and other organizations.

In 1981, the conference presidents and chancellors endorsed a proposal that enabled universities to affiliate their women's intercollegiate programs with the conference, and the first conference championships for women were staged that fall. The Big Ten was the first conference to voluntarily adopt male and female participation goals after launching its Gender Equity Action Plan in 1992.

In December of 1989, the conference agreed in principle to invite Pennsylvania State University for membership. On June 4, 1990, the Council of Presidents officially voted to integrate Penn State into the conference, giving the Big Ten 11 members.

In 2004, the Big Ten implemented a pilot program of instant replay for college football. Following the season, the conference forwarded replay proposals to the NCAA regarding the future use of instant replay, where it approved country-wide testing in 2005. In 2006, the NCAA approved the use of instant replay for all conferences.

In 2006, Delany announced the creation of the first conference-owned television network, a 20-year agreement with FOX Networks to create what would become the Big Ten Network (BTN). Launched on Aug. 30, 2007, BTN now produces more than 1,800 events across all platforms each year. BTN is in almost 60 million homes in the U.S. and Canada via the nation's major video providers and more than 300 additional video providers across the country. BTN is also available through the majority of OTT providers, and via the Fox Sports App, which delivers live and ondemand programming to computers, smartphones and tablets. BTN Plus streams hundreds of additional events each season.

On June 11, 2010, the Big Ten Council of Presidents/ Chancellors (COP/C) approved a formal membership application by the University of Nebraska, expanding the conference to 12 institutions. Nebraska officially joined the Big Ten on July 1, 2011.

The conference expanded its footprint further in 2012 when the COP/C approved formal membership applications from the University of Maryland and Rutgers University on November 19 and 20, respectively. Maryland and Rutgers became official Big Ten members on July 1, 2014, giving the conference almost 9,500 students participating in intercollegiate athletics and more than 11,000 participation opportunities on 350 teams.

On June 3, 2013, the Big Ten announced that Johns Hopkins University had been accepted as the conference's first sport affiliate member. Johns Hopkins' addition in men's lacrosse gave the Big Ten six institutions sponsoring the sport, allowing the debut of men's lacrosse as an official conference sport and building on the Big Ten's tradition of broad-based sports competition. On June 17, 2015, the conference announced that Johns Hopkins was accepted as a sport affiliate member for women's lacrosse beginning with the 2016-17 academic year. On March 23, 2016, the conference announced that Notre Dame will join the Big Ten for men's ice hockey beginning with the 2017-18 academic year.

Since opening in the fall of 2013, the Big Ten conference center hosts more than 300 meetings annually for member institutions, Big Ten Academic Alliance (formerly CIC) related committees and coaches' groups. The headquarters also features an interactive digital museum - the Big Ten Experience – which brings the conference's storied academic and athletic history to life. For more information on the Big Ten Experience, go to bigten.org.

In June 2014, the Big Ten opened a second office in New York City, featuring both office and meeting space in Midtown Manhattan. Big Ten staff members are based in the New York City office to provide expanded coverage and service, while other conference and institutional administrators utilize the space as necessary when conducting business on the East Coast. The Big Ten and its member institutions also have access to satellite office space in Washington, D.C.

Delany and his staff work to meet the educational needs of students competing in intercollegiate athletics to allow them to excel in all areas of their lives. The conference office manages 28 different championships and tournaments, offers legislative and compliance services, oversees the production and distribution of more than 2,000 events annually, provides staff services to coaching and administrative personnel, and services media and fans interest for information on the Big Ten.

On March 4, 2019, Delany announced he would conclude his term as commissioner in 2020 following a 30-year career with the conference. On June 4, 2019, the Big Ten Conference Council of Presidents and Chancellors introduced Kevin Warren as the sixth commissioner of the Big Ten Conference. Warren will start on September 16, 2019 providing an opportunity to transition alongside Delany who will officially step down on January 1, 2020.

More than 120 years after its inception, the Big Ten remains a national leader in intercollegiate athletics on and off the field. Big Ten programs have combined to win more than 450 team and 1,800 individual national championships, consistently taking home individual honors for athletic and academic accomplishments and fulfilling the Big Ten's mission of academic achievement and athletic success.

PISCATAWAY, N.J. – Rutgers football cruised to a 35-7, season-opening win over Texas State on Saturday afternoon at HighPoint.com Stadium. The Scarlet Knights scored first five minutes into the contest and never relinquished the lead or momentum.

Freshman quarterback Artur Sitkowski went 20-for-30 with 205 passing yards in his debut as a Scarlet Knight, including the first passing touchdown of his career. He became the 11th true freshman to start a game at quarterback for RU and third since WWII to start the season opener.

Sophomore Raheem Blackshear and senior Jonathan Hilliman each contributed a pair of touchdowns, while sophomore Olakunle Fatukasi added one of his own on a fumble recovery.

Overall, Blackshear led the attack with 150 all-purpose yards, rushing for 62 yards and receiving for 56 yards. Freshman Isaih Pacheco led the team on the ground with 76 yards rushing.

Senior Trevor Morris guided the defense with nine tackles followed by senior Isaiah Wharton and senior Deonte Roberts with six each. Redshirt sophomore defensive end Elorm Lumor filled the stat sheet with a blocked field goal, a sack, two tacklesfor-loss and a recovered fumble. Rutgers had 11 tackles-for-loss, paced by two apiece from Lumor, senior defensive back Blessuan Austin and sophomore defensive tackle Julius Turner.

LAWRENCE, Kan. – Playing in its second consecutive road game, Rutgers football fell to Kansas, 55-14, Saturday afternoon in Lawrence.

Sophomore running back Raheem Blackshear led the offense with 102 yards on the ground, while freshman receiver Eddie Lewis and senior tight end Jerome Washington contributed 43 and 41 receiving yards, respectively. On defense, senior Deonte Roberts had a team-high eight tackles, while redshirt sophomores Tyreek Maddox-Williams and Elorm Lumor each registered seven with one for a loss.

After falling behind 10-0 to start the contest, Roberts blocked a Jayhawk field goal attempt and returned it 64 yards for a touchdown. The special teams score made it a 10-7 game with 9:06 left in the first quarter.

The Scarlet Knights added another blocked field goal at the end of the first, this one courtesy of senior defensive lineman Jon Bateky. The blocked kick was the 52nd for the program since 2009 – the most nationally during that soan.

Kansas added another touchdown early in the second quarter, but RU responded with a nine-play, 86-yard scoring drive, capped by a two-yard touchdown run from senior Jonathan Hilliman. Blackshear added three carries for 49 yards during the 2:58 drive, which helped make it just a 24-14 game late in the second quarter.

PISCATAWAY, N.J. – Returning home after back-to-back games on the road, Rutgers football dropped the contest to Buffalo, 42-13, Saturday afternoon at HighPoint.com

Sophomore running back Raheem Blackshear paced RU with a touchdown and 102 all-purpose yards. Senior tight end Jerome Washington registered a career-high 62 receiving yards. On defense, senior linebacker Trevor Morris posted 11 tackles, while fifth-year defensive back Isaiah Wharton and junior defensive back Damon Hayes both collected interceptions.

The Scarlet Knights added points to the board to open the contest with a field goal by sophomore Justin Davidovicz. The Bulls, however, shifted momentum by pushing to a 14-3 edge at the end of the first quarter.

Although Rutgers opened the second stanza with another field goal from Davidovicz, Buffalo added on 21 more points to hold onto the lead moving into halftime.

At the start of the fourth quarter, Blackshear added a 14-yard rushing touchdown for the Scarlet Knights. Hayes held onto the energy, reeling in an interception on Buffalo's following drive. The deficit, however, was too large for the momentum to overcome.

MADISON, Wis. – Rutgers football returned to action after a bye week with a 31-17 loss at Wisconsin on Saturday at Camp Randall Stadium. It was the third all-time meeting between the programs.

Offensively, freshman quarterback Artur Sitkowski finished 20-for-39 for 261 passing yards. Sophomore running back Raheem Blackshear had a team-high 162 receiving gards for the first 100-yard receiving game by a Scarlet Knight since Jawuan Harris in 2016 versus Indiana and the most ever in a game by an RU running back. He had a five-yard receiving touchdown and a career-high 200 all-purpose yards. In addition, graduate student running back Jonathan Hilliman scored from one yard out for his 32nd career rushing touchdown in his 50th game overall.

Senior safety Saquan Hampton picked off two passes to help the Scarlet Knights establish a plus-two advantage in turnover margin. He became the first RU player to record two interceptions in a game since Brandon Jones at the 2012 Russell Athletic Bowl and ended with four passes defended overall.

Senior linebacker Trevor Morris totaled 10 tackles to become the 11th player in program history to reach 300 career stops. Hampton and senior linebacker Deonte Roberts also had 10 stops on defense.

ROBERT L. BARCHI PRESIDENT OF RUTGERS UNIVERSITY

Robert Barchi is the 20th president of Rutgers, The State University of New Jersey, a comprehensive research institution with 70,000 students.

Appointed in 2012, President Barchi is leading Rutgers at one of the most exciting moments of its more than 250-year history. He guided the 2013 formation of Rutgers Biomedical and Health Sciences, a major division of the university established through restructuring legislation that brought into Rutgers most units of the former University of Medicine and Dentistry of New Jersey. Five years later, he played a pivotal role in an affiliation agreement that RBHS entered into with RWJBarnabas Health to jointly operate New Jersey's largest and most comprehensive academic health system.

President Barchi has led development and implementation of an ambitious universitywide strategic plan, the first at Rutgers in nearly 20 years, and creation of a corresponding physical master plan. He helped lead Rutgers into the Big Ten Athletic Conference, a group of similarly sized leading research institutions, and the conference's academic consortium, the Big Ten Academic Alliance.

Among other projects, President Barchi launched the Honors College at Rutgers–New Brunswick, implemented a forward-looking plan to ensure the continued strength of the humanities at Rutgers, championed great faculty diversity across the university, undertook an overhaul of Rutgers' administrative systems, and focused efforts on improving the student experience while increasing access and affordability. In-state tuition increases during his tenure have averaged less than 2.5 percent, significantly lower than those prior to his arrival. Since he took office, undergraduate enrollment has increased by more than 10 percent.

Working closely with Rutgers alumni and friends, he successfully completed the university's first billion-dollar capital campaign, and annual giving to the university has more than doubled in his tenure. After helping advocate for passage of a statewide bond referendum for higher education construction, Dr. Barchi has overseen a capital program totaling more than $2.5 billion in planning, design, and construction of academic and student-services facilities across all Rutgers locations.

In 2016, President Barchi oversaw the 250th anniversary of Rutgers' founding—a year-long celebration that culminated with then-President Barack Obama delivering the commencement address in New Brunswick.

From 2004 to 2012, Dr. Barchi served as president of Thomas Jefferson University in Philadelphia, nationally regarded as a top university dedicated to health sciences education and research. Prior to Jefferson, he was provost and chief academic officer of the University of Pennsylvania, an Ivy League institution founded in 1740. There, he had responsibility for Penn's 12 schools, all academic programs, athletics, students, and faculty.

Dr. Barchi was born in Philadelphia but spent his formative years not far from Rutgers in Westfield, N.J. He received his B.S. and M.S. degrees from Georgetown University, and Ph.D. and M.D. degrees from the University of Pennsylvania. He completed specialty training at the Hospital of the University of Pennsylvania and holds board certification in neurology. Throughout his career, Dr. Barchi has been active as a teacher and as an NIH-funded researcher in the fields of neuroscience and neurology, and he has published extensively in his field. He was elected to the National Academy of Medicine in recognition of his pioneering research on the structure and function of voltage-gated ion channels in nerve and muscle, and on the role these critical molecules can play in human disease. He was also elected to the American Society for Clinical Investigation and the Association of American Physicians and named a fellow of the American Association for the Advancement of Science, the American Neurological Association, and the American Academy of Neurology.

In 1972, Dr. Barchi began his academic career as a faculty member at Penn. Within a decade, he rose to become the David Mahoney Professor of Neurological Sciences. Between 1983 and 1996, he served as director of the Mahoney Institute of Neurological Sciences—an interdisciplinary, universitywide entity that he expanded to become the focus for Penn's growth in neuroscience, encompassing the intellectual activities of more than 120 faculty members. Dr. Barchi founded the Department of Neuroscience at Penn and served as its first chair; he also served as chair of the Department of Neurology. He was named the Fairhill Professor in 2002, a position that he still holds in emeritus status.

The University of Pennsylvania named Dr. Barchi as its provost and chief academic officer in 1999, and he served in this capacity until 2004. As provost, Dr. Barchi had responsibility for the university's 12 schools and their academic programs and budgets and Penn's intercollegiate athletics program, as well as for Penn's students and faculty. During his tenure, he worked with president Judith Rodin to reassert the primacy of the academic mission in the direction of the university. He recruited new leadership to nine of the 12 schools at Penn and established a number of universitywide interdisciplinary educational and research institutes. He also led the university through a comprehensive strategic planning process.

As president of Thomas Jefferson University, Dr. Barchi oversaw a period of tremendous growth. The university established three new schools—including the Jefferson School of Pharmacy, which graduated its first class in May 2012, and the Jefferson School of Population Health, the only school in the nation to offer a master's degree in chronic care management. Overall student enrollment increased by 51 percent and annual degrees awarded rose by 54 percent. Dr. Barchi also expanded the reach of the campus, inaugurating the Partnership in Healthcare Education, an academic affiliation with the University of Delaware that offers dual-degree programs between the two institutions.

Other accomplishments at Jefferson include successful implementation of an ambitious strategic plan that integrated the university's clinical, education, and research missions; a comprehensive facilities master plan that supports those missions; and a major fundraising campaign that provides the resources necessary for success. During Dr. Barchi's tenure, Jefferson established 22 new endowed professorships and 50 endowed scholarships, helping to ensure a healthy and diverse community of faculty and students. The university surpassed $300 million in fundraising under his leadership, twice the amount raised during the preceding eight-year period.

During his presidency, Dr. Barchi also oversaw the transformation of Jefferson's urban environment into a vibrant university campus. A coordinated construction program, coupled with improved landscape design and signage, helped provide visitors and the Jefferson community a sense of place and connectedness to the compact urban campus in the heart of the city's historic district.

Dr. Barchi is married to Francis Harper Barchi, a faculty member in the Edward J. Bloustein School of Planning and Public Policy at Rutgers. Before coming to Rutgers, she was a senior fellow in the Center for Bioethics at the University of Pennsylvania. where she was engaged in education and research activities relating to international research ethics. Francis Barchi holds a Ph.D. in social welfare, a master's in bioethics, and a master's in nonprofit leadership from the University of Pennsylvania, as well as a bachelor's degree from Smith College. She is the former executive vice president of the Dana Foundation in New York, a post she assumed following a 20-year span as president of her own company, which provided protocol and strategic communication services for international clients. Francis Barchi's research focuses on the social and behavioral factors that influence women's health in southern Africa. In 2009, she completed the first major quantitative study on women's autonomy and gender-based violence in Botswana, and she is the principal investigator on a study in that country examining the extent to which women's understanding of HPV and cervical cancer influences their decision-making about prevention and treatment. She is currently part of a team responsible for ethics training of health professionals in Botswana, Tanzania, and Guatemala

As an avocation, President Barchi is an expert in the history and mechanical development of clocks and watches. In addition to collecting and conserving examples of these timepieces from the 17th and 18th centuries, he designs and constructs his own precision clocks in his basement machine shop.

The Barchis, who have four adult children and one dog, spend their leisure time at their home in coastal Maine where they are avid boaters and hikers.

PAT HOBBS DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

A New Jersey native with more than 25 years of leadership experience in higher education and public service, Pat Hobbs enters his fifth year as the Director of Athletics at Rutgers University in 2019-20. Since his appointment on Nov. 29, 2015, he has fostered a vision for the Scarlet Knights, which was further defined with the release of "The Relentless Pursuit of Excellence." A strategic vision that outlines a plan and quantifying measures towards achieving goals over a five-year time frame, the plan is the first in the history of Rutgers Athletics.

In 2018-19, Rutgers Athletics improved 25 positions in the Learfield Director's Cup Division I standings, posting its best finish in 12 years. Thirteen Scarlet Knights earned All-America status, including wrestlers Anthony Ashnault and Nick Suriano, who claimed the first NCAA individual national titles in program history. Five student-athletes won Big Ten individual titles, as 40 Scarlet Knights earned All-Big Ten honors or medaled at Conference Championships.

Numerous programs earned NCAA postseason berths in 2018-19 to ensure RU's rise in the Director's Cup. Women's basketball posted a 22-10 record and earned its 25th NCAA Tournament berth, while women's soccer garnered its seventh straight NCAA bid. Number 11-ranked field hockey qualified for its first NCAA Tournament since 1986, and rowing, nationally-ranked for the first time in program history, placed 11th at NCAA Championships. In addition, softball competed in the National Invitational Softball Championship, its first non-conference postseason tournament since 1996.

In the classroom, a school-record 87 student-athletes of at least sophomore standing were recognized by the Big Ten Conference as 2018-19 Distinguished Scholars. The honorees were among the school-record 276 student-athletes that earned academic all-conference honors overall. Rutgers Athletics had a 990 average APR rate, well above the NCAA average of 983. A school-record nine programs, which ranked second in the Big Ten behind only Northwestern, earned recognition from the NCAA for their multi-year APR scores.

The development of capital projects to support these studentathletes is at the forefront of Hobbs' charge to further the mission of the only Power Five conference program located in the nation's largest media market.

On April 13, 2019, R Fund hosted a ceremonial groundbreaking for the Gary and Barbara Rodkin Academic Success Center. Scheduled to open in December of 2020, the facility will serve all student-athletes and provide a range of resources, including academic advising, learning specialists, one-on-one and group tutoring, as well as housing soccer, lacrosse and administration.

The "Rodkin" follows the RWJBarnabas Health Athletic Performance Center, which began welcoming tenants in the summer of 2019. The Center represents a partnership between Rutgers and RWJBarnabas Health to create a comprehensive sports medicine program to serve Rutgers athletes, students and communities throughout New Jersey. The Center also provides state-of-the-art practice facilities, training areas, locker room and office space for men's and women's basketball, wrestling and gymnastics.

Much of the capital project success can be credited to "R B1G Build," a comprehensive campaign launched on Jan. 20, 2016 to raise $100 million for new or upgraded facilities. On April 10, 2019, R Fund announced the initiative crested its goal, as head coaches Steve Pikiell and Chris Ash made significant contributions to realize the milestone.

Additional facilities to rise under Hobbs' leadership include The Brown Family Football Locker Room, The Marco Battaglia Football Practice Complex, The Fred Hill Training Complex, The Garutti Strength and Conditioning Center, The Druskin Strength and Conditioning Center and the Abe Suydam Men's Basketball Locker Room.

A restructuring of athletics leadership under Hobbs has enhanced the student-athlete experience, elevated communication, improved resource allocation and enriched customer service. The Office of Leadership Development and Strategic Partnerships (LDSP) completed an organizational redesign and unit rebrand in 2018-19 that redefined its mission and vision and developed a credit based internship program. LDSP created a credit based global abroad program and fostered new relationships with campus entities RU Global, the Graduate School of Education, Rutgers Business School, Student Affairs, and the Office of Experiential Learning.

In the consumer space, Hobbs shepherded the partnership between Rutgers and adidas, providing that the Portland-based company serves as the official athletic footwear, apparel and accessory brand through 2023-24.

Prior to joining Rutgers, Hobbs served as Ombudsman to the Office of the Governor in the Christie administration, serving as a resource for whistleblowers within the Office. He also oversaw ethics training and guidance to the 140 employees in the Office of the Governor.

Hobbs moved south down the New Jersey Turnpike after notable achievements at Seton Hall University. He served as Dean at the Seton Hall School of Law from 1999 to 2015 and oversaw the Department of Athletics from 2009 to 2011. As Interim Director of Athletics, Hobbs assumed supervision of the department and led searches for men's and women's basketball coaches. He also negotiated the contract for the Prudential Center to serve as home site for men's basketball games.

Hobbs joined the Seton Hall Law faculty in 1990 with a specialty in tax law. He became Associate Dean for Finance in 1995 and was named Dean in 1999. In his years as Dean, Hobbs shepherded the Law School through a series of groundbreaking initiatives that raised Seton Hall Law to unprecedented prominence. The school was the fastest-rising law school in the U.S. News & World Report ranking over the past decade.

The Garden State product also spearheaded the school's largest fundraising initiative, Seton Hall Law Rising, a $25 million-plus campaign that revitalized alumni support and resulted in a contribution rate of over 70 percent.

Hobbs has been dedicated to fostering greater diversity in the legal profession. In 2008, he formed the Dean's Diversity Council, comprising faculty, students, alumni and administration working in concert to enhance the Law School's inclusive environment. In 2012, Hobbs was honored by the Thurgood Marshall College Fund with its Excellence Award for his work on behalf of diversity within the legal profession and for "exemplifying Justice Thurgood Marshall's commitment to justice, civil rights and education."

Prior to joining Seton Hall Law, Hobbs was a tax attorney with the law firm of Shanley & Fisher in Roseland, N.J. He received his B.A. in accounting, magna cum laude, from Seton Hall University, his J.D. from the University of North Carolina and his LL.M. (in taxation) from New York University.

Hobbs, 59, is the proud father of three children and resides in Basking Ridge, N.J.

HOME SITES AND RECORDS

College Field

Site of the first game in 1869, is now the parking lot behind the College Avenue Gym.

Years	Record
1869-1890	24-18-5

Located across the street from the College Avenue Gymnasium, the current site of Records Hall.

Years	Record

"Old" Rutgers Stadium

Dedicated on November 5, 1938 at the Rutgers-Princeton game, the Stadium had its first game two weeks earlier as Rutgers hosted Hampden-Sydney. The season finale against Lafayette was the third game in the Stadium. Rutgers won all three contests and did not lose at the site until the sixth game in 1940, a 7-6 loss to Lafayette. Rutgers won the first 13 Stadium games, including seven straight in 1939.

Years	Record
1938-1992	168-53-4

SHI Stadium

Built on the site of the "Old" Rutgers Stadium on the Busch Campus in Piscataway. The name became High Point Solutions Stadium in 2011, HighPoint.com Stadium in 2018 and SHI Stadium in 2019.

HISTORY & TRADITION

THE FIRST FOOTBALL GAME

Rutgers and Princeton played the first game of intercollegiate football on Nov. 6, 1869, on a plot of ground where the present-day Rutgers gymnasium now stands in New Brunswick, N.J. Rutgers won that first game, 6-4.

The game was played with two teams of 25 men each under rugby-like rules, but like modern football, it was "replete with surprise, strategy, prodigies of determination and physical prowess," to use the words of one of the Rutgers players.

At 3 p.m. on that memorable afternoon, the 50 competitors and about 100 spectators gathered on the field. To distinguish themselves from the bareheaded visitors, 50 Rutgers students, including players, donned scarlet-colored scarves which they converted into turbans.

Events leading up to the game were described by John W. Herbert, Rutgers' 72, who was one of the players: "To appreciate this game to the fullest you must know something of its background," Herbert wrote in 1933. "The two colleges were, and still are, of course, about 20 miles apart. The rivalry between them was intense. For years each had striven for possession of an old Revolutionary cannon, making night forays and lugging it back and forth time and again. Not long before the first football game, the canny Princetonians had settled this competition in their own favor by ignominiously sinking the gun in several feet of concrete. In addition to this, I regret to report, Princeton had beaten Rutgers in baseball by the harrowing score of 40-2. Rutgers longed for a chance to square things."

A challenge for the game was issued by Rutgers. Three games were to be played that year. The first, played at New Brunswick, was won by Rutgers. Princeton won the second game, but cries of "over-emphasis" prevented the third game in football's first year when faculties of both institutions protested on the grounds that the games were interfering with student studies. An analytical account of the game appeared in the November, 1869 issue of the Targum, Rutgers' undergraduate newspaper.

"To describe the varying fortunes of the match, game by game, would be a waste of labor for every game was like the one before," wrote the student reporter. "There was the same headlong running, wild shouting, and frantic kicking.

"To sum up, Princeton had the most muscle, but didn't kick very well, and wanted organization. They evidently don't like to kick the ball on the ground. Our men, on the other hand, though comparatively weak, ran well, and kicked well throughout. But their great point was the organization, for which great praise is due to the captain. The right men were always in the right place."

One of the Princeton players, William Preston Lane, in 1933 contended in a newspaper interview that Rutgers "ran us Princeton men out of town. I never found out why they did that," he related. "But we don't ask any questions. When we saw them coming after us, we ran to the outskirts of New Brunswick and got into our carriages and wagons and went away as fast as we could."

Lane's contention is refuted in the Targum account. "After the match the players had an amicable "feed together," the paper reported. "At 8 o'clock our guests went home, in high good spirits, thirsting to beat us next time, if they can."

Regardless of what actually happened after the first game, football was here to stay. Rutgers got Columbia University started in the grid sport the following season and in a few years most of the colleges and universities in the East were represented on the gridiron.

THE BIRTHPLACE OF COLLEGE FOOTBALL

Parts of this article were written by John Bruns, former longtime sports writer for the Home News and the Easton Times-Express.

When Rutgers defeated Princeton in 1869, the setting was quite different than it is today. The game was contested on a field along College Avenue in New Brunswick. There were not tens of thousands of cheering fans in a multi-million dollar stadium. There was no manicured grass field or electronic scoreboard. There was no elaborate athletic equipment or television cameras. But on that fall day in 1869, those students established a tradition of quality football programs, competitiveness and school spirit that continues at Rutgers, the birth-place of intercollegiate football.

Now 148 years later entering the 2017 season, Rutgers has had many historical moments, outstanding athletes and memorable triumphs over the years.

However, those historic moments were difficult to predict during the early years when intercollegiate football scheduling was inconsistent. For example, Rutgers won six of 10 games in 1882, but played only one game in 1885. Similarly, the Scarlet Knights went 8-6 in 1891, but two years later played only four games. By the early 1900s, scheduling had become more consistent and football became more popular across the country.

The eight wins of 1891 were not matched until Rutgers went 8-1 in 1947 with one of the most successful teams of coach Harvey Harman in the Golden Era immediately following World War II. That team, quarterbacked by Frank Burns, who would later become Rutgers' most successful coach, lost its opener to Columbia and then swept through eight-straight opponents.

In 1913, coach George Foster Sanford began a tradition of success among Rutgers coaches in their inaugural year by leading his team to a 6-3 mark. He then flirted with two perfect seasons, improving the team to 7-1 in 1915 and 7-1-1 in 1917.

Those two seasons, which featured All-American Paul Robeson, were among Rutgers' best. The Scarlet Knights outscored opponents by an average of 44-3 in 1915 and 33-2 in 1917. Sanford, a member of Rutgers' Hall of Fame, also helped to introduce Rutgers to the New York metropolitan area, playing games at the Polo Grounds against teams like Notre Dame, Nebraska, Louisiana State and West Virginia. A few years later, in 1924, two-time All-America end and fullback Homer Hazel helped coach John Wallace continue the tradition of first-year coaching success, as Rutgers posted a 7-1-1 mark.

Harvey Harman also had a successful first season, going 7-1 in 1938, the year Rutgers dedicated the original Rutgers Stadium. Rutgers won the dedication game, 20-18, over Princeton.

Harman, however, was replaced by former coach Harry Rockafeller during World War II. His tenure included an 8-1 season in 1947 when Rutgers, dominated by WWII veterans, registered a combined record of 27-7 from 1945-48. When John Steigman coached Rutgers from 1956-59, he brought back the single-wing formation to the Scarlet Knight offense, and led Rutgers to an 8-1 mark in 1958. The only loss of that season, 13-12 to the Quantico Marines, came when All-American tailback Billy Austin had to miss a game due to a broken hand.

Another first-year coach got off to an impressive start when John Bateman went 8-1 in 1960. That campaign was followed by Rutgers' first undefeated season in 1961, when the team went 9-0, capping the season with a fourth-quarter, 25-point comeback win over Columbia. That team included All-American center Alex Kroll, and was ranked 15th nationally. In his 11 seasons, Bateman led Rutgers to 73 wins in 124 games.

In 1973, Frank Burns took the reins of Rutgers football and became the most successful Rutgers coach ever by building teams recognized for fundamentals and defense. Burns himself was also known as a fierce linebacker and won the Most Valuable Player Award in the 1949 College All-Star game, when he made 17 tackles against the New York Giants. The Burns' defenses were led by linebackers Ed Steward, Jim Hughes, Jim Dumont and defensive end Nate Toran. Burns' first team went 6-5, while running back "JJ" Jennings rushed for 1,353 yards (third in Rutgers history) and 21 touchdowns (second).

Over the next five seasons, Burns' teams won at least seven games each season, including a five-season stretch from 1975-79 when Rutgers' winning percentage was .803 with a record of 45-11. The jewel in the crown of Burns' tenure as Rutgers' coach was the 1976 season, when the team was perfect at 11-0, establishing the best season ever at Rutgers. During Burns' 11 seasons at Rutgers, the Scarlet Knights won nearly two-thirds of their games (78-44). He also took Rutgers to its first bowl appearance – the Garden State Bowl – at Giants Stadium against Arizona State in 1978.

Doubtless, the biggest win of the Burns era was the 13-7 upset of Tennessee on November 3, 1979 in Knoxville. Burns called it "the greatest of my coaching career."

The following year, 1980, Rutgers had one of its great "near-misses" of its long history when the Scarlet bowed, 17-13, to a highly-favored Alabama team coached by Bear Bryant at Giants Stadium. The gracious Bryant said, "We didn't beat Rutgers. All I can say is we won."

In 1984 when Dick Anderson was named head coach, a renewed commitment to football at Rutgers was backed by a $3 million state-funded package. Those funds helped finance the artificial surface practice fields, the practice "Bubble" and the Hale Center, which includes locker rooms, offices, a weightraining area and medical facilities for the football team.

Anderson won seven of 10 games in his inaugural season. Other highlights of his years at Rutgers include upset wins over such nationally-ranked teams as Penn State and Michigan State, and a nationally-televised victory over Northwestern in the program's 1,000th game. Anderson's teams produced some of the most exciting players in Rutgers history, including record-breaking passer Scott Erney, career tackles leader

HISTORY & TRADITION

Tyronne Stowe (533 from 1983-86) and football/baseball star Eric Young. Anderson's last game at Rutgers was a memorable one. It was the 1989 Emerald Isle Classic versus Pittsburgh in Dublin, Ireland, the first time a Rutgers team played overseas.

Doug Graber became the Scarlet Knights' 23rd coach in 1990 and placed an emphasis on recruiting the best talent in the state of New Jersey. His first recruiting class included three first team all-state selections and two second-team All-State selections among the 12 recruits from New Jersey.

Another major boost for Rutgers came in 1991 when Rutgers joined the Big East Conference and won its first league game over Boston College, 20-13. The team went 13-9 in its first two years in the league, including a 4-2 mark in 1992.

The 1994 season celebrated not only the 125 years of college football, but also the return of the newly-renovated and expanded Rutgers Stadium. The return was a welcomed one. Rutgers teams have been at their best at the stadium, compiling a 237-120-4 (.662) record there since 1938. The new stadium has been quite a different setting than that of the first college football game played 130 years ago, as the Scarlet Knights are playing for their own place in history as they continue the college football tradition that was born "On the Barks of the Old Baritan"

1998 Big East Coach of the Year Terry Shea concluded his tenure in 2000, as the Scarlet Knights opted to take the program in a different direction for the 2001 season. On Dec. 1, 2000, Director of Athletics Bob Mulcahy introduced the newest coach in the storied history of Rutgers football - Greg Schiano.

Schiano's first three recruiting classes rejuvenated the football program. In 2003, the team closed strong, upsetting Syracuse, 24-7, in the season finale. In 2004, before the largest crowd ever at the time at Rutgers Stadium (42,612), the Scarlet Knights defeated Michigan State, 19-14.

In 2005, Schiano coached Rutgers to its best record in over a decade, 7-5, and its first bowl bid since 1978. In a Wild West shootout staged at Chase Field in Phoenix, Rutgers fell just short, Iosing to Arizona State, 45-40, at the Insight Bowl Dec. 27

In 2006 Schiano was named the National Coach of the Year and Big East Coach of the Year, as the Scarlet Knights earned their first national top-10 ranking in 2006 and won 11 games for the second time in school history. The campaign included a thrilling win 28-25 over No. 3/4 Louisville in front of a Thursday night national audience on ESPN. The comeback victory, with RU overcoming an 18-point deficit, became one of the turning points in modern Rutgers history as fans stormed the field to ignite "Pandemonium in Piscataway." Rutgers ended the season with a ranking of No. 12 in the national polls.

The success Rutgers achieved on the field was something Schiano envisioned from the first day he became the leader of the Scarlet Knights. At his introductory press conference, Schiano stated, "We're going to win at Rutgers and we're going to do it the right way." The 2006 season was complete with a convincing 37-10 victory over Kansas State in the Texas Bowl, the first bowl championship in school history. In addition, Brian Leonard was the recipient of the Draddy Trophy, known as the Academic Heisman.

The program won eight more games in 2007, including the highest ranked win in program history with a 30-27 victory over No. 2 USF. The season concluded with a dominating 52-30 victory over Ball State at the International Bowl in Toronto. Ray Rice ran for a school-record 280 rushing yards on the day to bring his career total to 4,926, a program high. An All-America pick and Heisman Trophy candidate, the running back also set the Scarlet Knight standards for attempts (910), touchdowns (49) and 100-yard games (25).

The 2008 campaign for the Scarlet Knights started slowly, but the program relied on a strong foundation built by Schiano and together as a family Rutgers turned in seven consecutive victories to close out the season — culminating in a 29-23 victory over NC State in the Papalohns.com Bowl. In 2009, the Scarlet Knights saw a number of milestones set en route to a record of 9-4, including a 45-24 victory over UCF in the St. Petersburg Rowl

Prior to Schiano's arrival at Rutgers, the Scarlet Knights had never fielded a receiver who had gained 1,000 yards in a season. In 2009, Tim Brown became the fourth during his tenure to eclipse the mark. Brown also became the school's all-time leader in receiving touchdowns, passing RU's initial first round draft pick Kenny Britt. RU had two first round picks in 2010, with Anthony Davis being the highest pick in program history at No. 11 by the San Francisco 49ers. Devin McCourty was selected at No. 27 by the New England Patriots.

While the results on the field did not favor Rutgers in 2010, the world was introduced to Eric LeGrand. The junior defensive tackle suffered a spinal cord injury at MetLife Stadium Oct. 16 against Army, but he did not let the condition bring him down. LeGrand has become a public figure and has raised countless dollars towards spinal cord research. He became the first Scarlet Knight in the 144 years of the football program to have his number retired during halftime of the Sept. 14, 2013 game against Eastern Michigan.

Rutgers returned to a bowl game in 2011 with a trip to the New Era Pinstripe Bowl. It was the second game of the season for the team at Yankee Stadium. The Scarlet Knights defeated Army during the regular season before beating lowa State in the bowl game. Wide receiver Mohamed Sanu set the school record with 115 receptions on the season and was drafted in the third round of the NFL Draft by the Cincinnati Bengals.

Following the season, head coach Greg Schiano took the head coaching job with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers to end an 11-year tenure. Kyle Flood, who joined the program in 2005, was promoted from the staff to the lead position several days later.

Flood made an immediate impact on the Rutgers program with a successful first season, as he led the school to its first Big East Championship in 2012, ending with a 9-4 record and 5-2 record in the league. Flood was named the Big East Coach of the Year, an honor he shared with Louisville's Charlie Strong. Flood's nine regular season victories were the most by any first-year coach in Rutgers history, as eight players garnered All-Big East honors. Khaseem Greene totaled 136 tackles to earn Big East Defensive Player of the Year for the second consecutive season, in addition to All-America status. The defensive unit was among the best in school history, ranking fourth nationally in scoring defense, tied for ninth in turnovers gained and 10th in total defense.

Offensively, wide receiver Brandon Coleman established himself as one of the nation's premier deep threats by scoring 10 touchdowns during the season, tied for the most in school history. He would end up with 20 in his career, tied with Brown for the school record.

The year culminated with a trip to the Russell Athletic Bowl in Orlando to face Virginia Tech. However, the Scarlet Knights fell 13-10 in overtime. In the offseason, Rutgers had 12 players signed by NFL teams, with a school-record seven selected in the NFI Draff

Rutgers came out of the gates in 2013 with a 4-1 start through September. Following a 52-51 loss in overtime at Fresno State, RU rattled off four straight wins. The winning streak was highlighted by a comeback win over Arkansas in the first visit by an SEC team to High Point Solutions Stadium. In its first American Athletic Conference game, Rutgers won in triple overtime at SMU, 55-52. Other conference victories included a late fourth quarter win with the hurry-up offense versus Temple and a postseason-clinching performance on Senior Night against USF. The 2013 New Era Pinstripe Bowl was the eighth bowl trip in nine years for Rutgers. The Scarlet Knights took on a ranked Notre Dame team inside a sold-out Yankee Stadium.

On July 1, 2014, Rutgers officially joined the Big Ten Conference to usher in a new era in its deep and storied history. Support for the program reached new levels for the Big Ten opener, as a stadium-record 53,774 fans packed High Point Solutions Stadium for a game against Penn State. The Scarlet Knights won their first Big Ten game Oct. 4 over Michigan, with Kemoko Turay leaping to block a potential go-ahead field goal to seal the win and set off a storming of the field. The first road win in conference play came at Maryland after RU erased a 35-10 deficit to win 41-38 in the biggest comeback in school history, which would be matched a year later at Indiana. Senior quarterback Gary Nova threw for 347 yards on a career-best 28 completions in the 2014 win versus the Terrapins, ending his career as the all-time touchdown passing leader (73).

The first year in the Big Ten would be capped off with a convincing 40-21 win over North Carolina in the Quick Lane Bowl, hoted by the Detroit Lions. The Scarlet Knights went 8-5 and earned the Lambert-Meadowlands Trophy, emblematic of the top team in the East in the Bowl Subdivision.

In the second year in the Big Ten, Leonte Carroo closed his time as a Scarlet Knight with 10 receiving touchdowns to raise his school-record total to 29 over 31 games at the position. He averaged a score once every 4.2 receptions over his career, racking up 2,373 yards to join the list of standout wide receivers.

On Dec. 7, 2015, Chris Ash took over the program as the Scarlet Knights continue to establish a presence in the Big Ten and After Ash's first season in Piscataway, Rutgers Athletics announced the opening of the Marco Battaglia Football Practice Complex. The upgraded facility, part of the "R Big Ten Build' fundraising initiative, features two new grass fields; complete with rebuilt drainage and a new irrigation system as well as a state-of-the-art LED lighting system.

Rutgers showed marked improvement in year two under Ash, as the Scarlet Knights doubled their win total from the previous year and matched a program-best conference win total, which included Big Ten wins against Illinois, Maryland and Purdue.

In preparation of the 150th anniversary of college football, Rutgers launched a year-long commemoration of its historic contribution to the sport on November 6, 2018. As the birthplace of college football, Rutgers celebrates the tradition, history and pageantry of 150 years of football "On the Banks."

COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

PAUL ROBESON

Paul Robeson played four years for the famous coach, G. Foster Sanford. Rutgers had a 22-6-3 record in that time. In 31 games, Rutgers scored 941 points to opponents' 191. Robeson was a powerful contributor to that record. Robeson was a two-time All-America end, Frank Menke named him All-America in 1917 and 1918, Walter Camp picked him in 1918. (Camp did not name an All-America team in 1917.) Following college, Robeson played three years as a pro - 1920 with Hammond, 1921 with Akron and 1922 with Milwaukee - in the American Professional Football League. He obtained his law degree in 1923. At Rutgers, Robeson was elected to Phi Beta Kappa and was valedictorian of the class of 1919. He won the college oratorical contest fourstraight years and gave the commencement address at graduation. Robeson won 12 letters in four sports - four in football, three each in basketball and baseball, and two in track. He stood 6-3 in height and his weight was listed at 191 in early years, at 215 his senior season. This man of many talents became an actor, singer and lecturer. He was on Broadway and in the movies. His rich basso made his signature song "OI" Man River" a classic. He starred in plays, such as "The Emperor Jones," "Othello," "Showboat," as well as many others, in the U.S., Europe and Africa. In 1925 he made a recording that sold 55,000 copies in four months. In 1972 he received the Whitney Young Memorial Award. Ebony Magazine called him "one of the 10 most important black men in American history." Paul Robeson was born April 9, 1898, in Princeton, N.J. His father, Rev. William Robeson, had escaped slavery in 1860 in North Carolina at age 15. His mother, Maria Bustill, was a teacher. When Paul was a high school senior. he won the statewide academic test and received a scholarship to Rutgers. In 1915, he was the third African-American to enter Rutgers and the first to play football. He died January 23, 1976. After his tenure at Rutgers, he became an accomplished actor, singer and lecturer, and was commemorated on a US postal stamp.

ALEX KROLL

Alex Kroll, a consensus All-American center on Rutgers' first undefeated football team in 1961, is the Scarlet Knights' sixth inductee into the College Football Hall of Fame, as a part of the Class of 1997. Kroll, a 6-2, 228-pound center and linebacker, was a major force in Rutgers compiling a 17-1 record in his two years of play "On the Banks." In 1960, the Knights, under coach John Bateman, were 8-1 and followed up with the school's first undefeated campaign, going 9-0 in 1961. Team captain of the lauded 1961 squad, Kroll was a two-time first-team All-ECAC choice and won first-team All-America honors from the Associated Press, United Press International, Newspaper Enterprise Association, Look, and the American Football Coaches Association. Known as a "coach on the field," he was credited with making the quarterback sneak an offensive weapon as Rutgers scored seven touchdowns on that play in 1961 with Kroll clearing the way into the end zone for the signal-caller. He was also a first-team All-East choice by the AP in 1961 and played in the North-South game and the Senior Bowl. In 1960, he was an honorable mention All-American. Following his senior season, he was a second-round draft pick of the New York Titans, playing for one season in 1962. Kroll earned a BA in English Literature in 1962 and was a Henry Rutgers Scholar with a perfect grade point average in his major. He received a National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame Post-Graduate Scholarship in 1961. In 1986, he was awarded the Silver Anniversary Award from the National Collegiate Athletic Association for his collegiate achievements. Immediately following his last game with the Titans, he joined the workforce at Young & Rubicam, the world's largest independent advertising agency, as a copywriter. After a succession of writing and supervisory jobs in the creative department, he was named executive vice president and worldwide creative director in 1970. He was named president and chief operating officer in 1982 and, four years later, Kroll became chairman of Young & Rubicam, He is retired but still serves as Chairman Emeritus of Young & Rubicam.

HARVEY HARMAN

Few men loved the game with the fervor of Harvey Harman, a huge man with a grand smile and a fierce dedication to the sport. A former president of the American Football Coaches Association, Harman received that group's Amos Alonzo Stagg Award, symbolic of outstanding service to the profession. It was not surprising that Harman achieved such acclaim, for he learned his football lessons from two of the game's mentors - Glenn "Pop" Warner and Jock Sutherland - while at Pittsburgh. Harman was a starting tackle for the Panthers before taking his first coaching assignment at Haverford. From there he moved on to Sewanee (the University of the South), Pennsylvania and Rutgers. It was at Rutgers that he had his greatest success, directing the Scarlet Knights to a 26-7-1 record before interrupting his career to serve in the U.S. Navy during World War II. Harman returned to Rutgers after the war and led the Scarlet Knights for another 10 seasons before accepting a position as Executive Director of the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame, Inc. In that capacity, Harman became known as the goodwill ambassador for football, continuing to serve the game until his death in 1969. His career record lists a slate of 140-104-7.

HOMER HAZEL

He parted his dark hair down the middle, in the fashion of the day, and his deep-set eyes glowed with a competitive fire. Homer Hazel, Rutgers' first Hall of Famer, was, without doubt, the most versatile player the Scarlet ever produced. A natural athlete, Hazel excelled in various sports and was most successful as a track and field star. His speed and quickness served him well, for he once recovered his own kickoff in the enemy end zone for a touchdown. Homer led Rutgers to identical 7-1-1 records in his final two seasons, earning All-America laurels in each. He was an end in 1923, when the only Scarlet loss was to West Virginia (27-7). He had Rutgers on the way to an unbeaten finish in 1924 - this time as a hard-hitting fullback - when Bucknell untracked the Scarlet in the final game of the season, 12-7. During the 1924 campaign, Homer Hazel established school records for most points after a touchdown and longest completed pass. He could do it all. Carrying 226 pounds over a 5-foot-11 frame, Homer lettered in football, basketball, baseball and track at Rutgers. He later served as Athletic Director, football and basketball coach at the University of Mississippi for more than five years. He was a golf pro for four years, and a labor relations manager for more than 20 years. Hazel won his first letter in football at Rutgers in 1916. He left school because of a lack of funds. Hazel worked at various jobs and, at age 28, played football again at Rutgers. Walter Camp named him All-America end in 1923, All-America fullback in 1924. Hazel was born June 2, 1895, and died February 3, 1968.

GEORGE LITTLE

A graduate of Ohio Wesleyan, George Little opened his coaching career at the University of Cincinnati and produced a two-year record of 10-8-0 before moving up the road to Oxford, Ohio, home of the Miami Redskins, in 1916. There, Little brought the Redskins their first Conference Championship and a 7-0-1 mark. After service in World War I, Little returned to Miami and directed the Red and White to yet another league crown and a three-year post-war record of 20-3-1. He also coached the Miami basketball and track teams, claiming a conference crown in the latter sport. The 1922 and 1923 seasons found Little at Michigan under head coach Fielding Yost, the man he replaced in 1924. That year, Little's Wolverines were 6-2. The next season, Little was in Wisconsin as the new Athletic Director and head coach of the Badgers, and he led his charges to a two-year mark of 11-3-2. His teams displayed imagination and strength on offense, a unique ruggedness on defense. Little wound up his collegiate career as the Athletic Director at Rutgers, and then served as executive secretary of the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame.

GEORGE FOSTER SANFORD

At the entrance to Rutgers Stadium, inscribed upon a bronze plaque, is a tribute to George Sanford. It was financed and installed by his players, the men "...he inspired to deeds beyond themselves." Undoubtedly, Sanford was an inspirational leader of men, a gentleman who excelled as both player and coach. Sanford played center on the 1891 and 1892 Yale teams which held each of their 26 opponents scoreless. Though he was never chosen to an All-America team, a 1927 poll named him the all-time Yale center. Sanford began his coaching career at Columbia (1899-1901), called in to revive the football program which had been abandoned after the 1891 campaign. His 1899 team defeated Yale for the first time ever, and it was at Columbia that Sanford developed the famous "Flying Hurdle Play" which saw Harold Weekes catapulted over the line of scrimmage. Moving to Rutgers (1913-23), Sanford had marked success as his club rolled to a 56-32-5 record. He was hailed as a "miracle worker" in 1917, after his Rutgers team beat the heavily-favored Newport Naval Reserve All-Stars, 14-0. Between his teams at Columbia and Rutgers, Sanford devoted his energy toward a successful insurance brokerase business.

RUTGERS BOWL HISTORY

1978 GARDEN STATE BOWL

EAST RUTHERFORD, N.J. – In its first postseason action in program history, Rutgers faced Arizona State at Giants Stadium in the inaugural Garden State Bowl in 1978. The Scarlet Knights pulled ahead in the first half on a touchdown by David Dorn and field goal from Kennan Startzell to take a 10-0 lead. However, the Sun Devils closed the gap just before the end of the first half when Mark Malone found Bob Weathers in the end zone. In the third quarter, Arizona State claimed the lead with two Malone touchdown passes and in the final quarter added another score with a rushing TD to make the score 28-10. Ted Blackwell brought the Scarlet Knights to within 10 points with his five-yard rushing touchdown and successful two-point conversion. Rutgers had a final chance to take over the game when an offside kick came bouncing its way, but an offside flag on the kickoff erased the Scarlet Knights good fortune. Arizona State tacked on two touchdowns to secure the 34-18 victory.

2005 INSIGHT BOWL

PHOENIX – Rutgers and Arizona State met for the second time in a bowl game, this time at Phoenix's Chase Field. The Scarlet Knights came up just short in the contest, losing 45-40 to the Sun Devils. RU scored the game's first touchdown on a pass from Ryan Hart to Clark Harris, but ASU quickly responded with a TD of its own, evening the game at 7-7. Both teams traded a number of scores, but back-to-back touchdowns in the fourth quarter helped ASU to a 45-33 lead and the eventual victory. Rutgers engineered a 63-yard TD drive in the final 51 seconds, but it was not enough as the Sun Devils held on for the 45-40 win.

2006 TEXAS BOWL

HOUSTON – Rutgers' most memorable season ended with the program's biggest milestone - the first bowl victory in the history of Scarlet Knight football. Ray Rice rushed for 170 yards and a touchdown, while Tim Brown hauled in two TD passes as the 16th-ranked Scarlet Knights defeated Kansas State 37-10. Rice eventually went on to be named the Texas Bowl's Most Valuable Player. In the first quarter, Mike Teel hit Brown in the end zone on a 14-yard touchdown pass and the pair later connected, this time with a 49-yard strike to give Rutgers a 14-0 lead. Jeremy Ito sent a 37-yard field goal through the uprights with less than a minute remaining in the first half to take a 17-10 lead at halftime. In the opening minute of the third quarter, Rutgers extended its lead on an interception returned for a touchdown by Quintero Frierson. The Scarlet Knights scored the final 23 points of the game as Rice added a 46-yard touchdown run and Ito converted a pair of field goals to give RU the 37-10 victory.

2008 INTERNATIONAL BOWL

TORONTO — In its third-consecutive bowl game, Rutgers pulled off another program milestone with its second-straight postseason victory as the Scarlet Knights defeated Ball State, 52-30. Ray Rice had one of the finest individual outings in college football history, rushing for a career-high 280 yards and four touchdowns en route to being named the International Bowl's Most Valuable Player, his second-consecutive MVP honor in a bowl game. Rice's 280 yards were the third-most rushing yards in NCAA Bowl history. He entered the game with 1,732 yards on the ground and ended his season with 2,012 yards rushing to become the 13th player in NCAA history to amass more than 2,000 yards. The rushing total also set a Big East and school single-season record. The 52 points scored were the most in Rutgers' bowl history. Including both individual and team marks, RU set a total of nine bowl records at the International Bowl.

HISTORY & TRADITION

2008 PAPAJOHNS.COM BOWL

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. - Fitting that Rutgers would end the 2008 season with a come-from-behind win. After winning only one of their first six games, Mike Teel and the Scarlet Knights erased an 11-point second half deficit to defeat North Carolina State 29-23 in the Papaiohns.com Bowl. Leading the comeback -- as he did all season -- was Teel, who passed for 319 yards and two touchdowns, including a 42-yard scoring toss to Kenny Britt to give the Scarlet Knights (8-5) the lead for good in the fourth quarter. Teel's pass to Britt with 8:30 to play proved to be the winning touchdown. Britt, a third-team All-American, made a juggling catch as he crossed the goal line and finished with six catches for 119 yards. Teel, a senior, was the game's most valuable player. He ended his career on a seven-game winning streak after being booed at home when he was struggling earlier in the season. NC State (6-7) held a 17-6 halftime edge, led by quarterback Russell Wilson who was 11-for-23 for 186 yards and a score. But Wilson left the game with a strained knee late in the first half and did not return. The Scarlet Knights scored 10 consecutive points in the third quarter on a 31-yard field goal by San San Te and an 11-yard pass from Teel to Tiquan Underwood. Rutgers took a 19-17 lead with 13:31 to play on a 28-yard field by Te after a 10-play, 70-yard drive. The Wolfpack came right back as reserve quarterback Daniel Evans drove them 64 yards in eight plays and hit Anthony Hill with a 16-yard touchdown pass to give NC State a 23-19 lead. But it was only two plays later when Teel hit Britt for the go-ahead score.

2009 ST. PETERSBURG BOWL

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. – Rutgers (9-4) capped off its fifth-straight bowl appearance with its fourth-consecutive bowl victory, defeating Central Florida 45-24 in the 2009 St. Petersburg Bowl on Saturday, Dec. 19 at Tropicana Field. The Scarlet Knights showed a great display of balance in all three phases of the game, recording touchdowns on offensive, defensive and special teams. RU ended the night with two rushing touchdowns, two passing touchdowns, one interception and one kickoff returned for scores. Rutgers gained 380 yards of total offense behind a career passing day from freshman quarterback Tom Savage who completed 14-of-27 passes for 294 yards and two touchdowns. Fellow true freshman Mohamed Sanu also enjoyed a career-best evening as he accounted for three of RU's five touchdowns. Sanu had 13 carries for 41 yards and a pair of touchdowns, in addition to catching four passes for 97 yards and a TD. For his performance Sanu was awarded the Most Outstanding Player trophy, joining past bowl honorees Ray Rice (2006 Texas Bowl, 2008 International Bowl) and Mike Teel (2008 PapaJohns.com Bowl).

2011 NEW ERA PINSTRIPE BOWL

BRONX, N.Y. – Chas Dodd hit Brandon Coleman for an 86-yard touchdown pass late in the fourth quarter and Jawan Jamison ran for two scores to lead Rutgers over lowa State 27-13 in the New Far Pinstripe Bowl on Dec. 30, 2011. The Scarlet Knights (9-4) ran their bowl winning streak to five and improved to 2-0 this season at Yankee Stadium, where they beat Army earlier in the season. Rutgers, which played in one bowl game before 2005, is 5-1 in the postseason since that season. The Cyclones (6-7) finished the season on a three-game losing streak, their last win coming on Nov. 18 in Ames, Iowa, when they pulled off the biggest upset of the season against Oklahoma State. In this game, Steele Jantz relieved Barnett in the second quarter and helped pull the Cyclones within 20-13 in the fourth on Jeff Woody's 20-yard touchdown run with 10:00 left. After an exchange of punts left Rutgers deep in its own end, Dodd went deep to Coleman. The 6-foot-6 redshirt freshman went over 5-7 cornerback Jeremy Reeves, then outran the corner to the end zone to make it 27-13 with 5:47 left. It was Coleman's only catch, but it turned out to be the play of the game. Jamison, another redshirt freshman giving Rutgers fans hope for more bowls to come, finished with 134 yards on 27 carries.

2012 RUSSELL ATHLETIC BOWL

ORLANDO – Rutgers saw its 2012 season come to an end with a 13-10 overtime loss to Virginia Tech in the Russell Athletic Bowl in Orlando on Dec. 28, 2012. The loss ended the Scarlet Knights' bowl win streak at five, which had previously been the longest active streak in the nation. In the 15th meeting between the two squads, Rutgers held a 10-0 lead heading into the fourth quarter. The Scarlet Knights scored first on a ball that was snapped over Virginia Tech QB Logan Thomas and recovered in the end zone by Rutgers LB Khaseem Greene on the opening drive. An RU field goal by Nick Borgese late in the opening quarter would be the final points until the last stanza. In the fourth, the Hokies were able to tie it up. In the first overtime possession, the Hokies settled for a 22-yard field goal to take a 13-10 lead. Rutgers had a possession to answer, but after going three-and-out, Borgese missed wide-right on a 42-yard field goal attempt to end the game. Rutgers finished the year 9-4 and earned a share of the school's first Big East Championship.

2013 NEW ERA PINSTRIPE BOWL

BRONX, N.Y. — A 47-yard field goal by Kyle Federico brought Rutgers within three with less than nine minutes remaining, but 10 unanswered points by Notre Dame iced the contest, as the Irish defeated the Scarlet Knights, 29-16, in the 2013 Pinstripe Bowl at Yankee Stadium. It was the eighth bowl trip in nine seasons for Rutgers. A Pinstripe Bowl record crowd of 47,122 watched a back-and-forth affair for the majority of the contest, with neither team leading by more than one possession until late in the fourth quarter. Brandon Coleman led RU in receiving with two catches for 65 yards and a touchdown, while Paul James logged 48 yards on 10 rushing attempts. Coleman's touchdown late in the first quarter was the 20th of his career, tying him for the school record. Federico converted all three of his field goal attempts.

2014 QUICK LANE BOWL

DETROIT - In control from the outset, Rutgers thoroughly dominated North Carolina, 40-21, in the Quick Lane Bowl at Ford Field, turning in one of its stronger performances of the year to finish the 2014 campaign at 8-5. Quarterback Gary Nova threw two touchdown passes, freshmen running backs Josh Hicks and Robert Martin proved to be a dynamic 1-2 punch in the running game, with each topping 100 yards rushing, and the Scarlet Knights' defense quieted the most productive offense in North Carolina history for all but the final 6:45 of the game. The Scarlet Knights jumped out to a 23-0 lead at halftime, sparked by a 34-yard touchdown pass from Nova to Andre Patton on the first drive of the game, Hicks and Martin both added rushing scores to pad the lead. with Kyle Federico connecting from 19 yards away with 11 seconds left in the second quarter. Nova, who finished 9-of-20 for 184 yards, pushed the Scarlet Knights' 23-0 halftime lead to 30-7 with his second touchdown pass - this one a 34-yard strike to Andrew Turzilli - with 7:33 left in the third quarter. The advantage grew to 37-7 on Martin's 28-vard touchdown run with 14:11 to play. Federico tacked on a 31-yard field goal with 10:04 remaining to make it 40-7. Martin and Hicks joined Ray Rice (three times) and Jawan Jamison as the only Rutgers backs to rush for 100 yards in a bowl game. Martin (19 carries for 100 yards and two touchdowns) and Hicks (202 yards and one touchdown on 19 carries) also joined Rice as the only true freshmen to reach 100 in a bowl for the Scarlet Knights. Hicks was named MVP of the game for his efforts. The rushing totals for both Martin and Hicks were career highs, with Rutgers' 340 rushing yards overall the most in program history in a bowl game and the highest total this season. Defensively, Lorenzo Waters totaled a game-high 14 tackles (10 solo), adding two fumble recoveries and a blocked field goal. Darius Hamilton contributed two tackles for loss in the victory.

MEDIA POLICIES

RUTGERS ATHLETIC COMMUNICATIONS

The Rutgers Athletic Communications Office is committed to assisting members of the media with their coverage of the Rutgers football team. Hasim Phillips serves as the primary contact for the football program with support from Jimmy Gill and Brad Derechailo.

The Athletic Communications Office is located on level one of the press box at SHI Stadium. For information regarding credentials, interviews, statistics, press conferences, etc., please call the Athletic Communications Office at 732-445-7028, visit CollegePressBox.com or e-mail Hasim Phillips at hphillips@scarletknights.com.

To assist in your coverage throughout the year, please read the media information on this page. All interview requests must be directed to and arranged through the Athletic Communications Office at least one day (24 hours) in advance. Coaches, players and support staff are prohibited from participating in any interviews without prior authorization from the Athletic Communications Office.

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

All media credential requests must be submitted via email to credentials@scarletknights.com. Admittance to the SHI Stadium press box is limited to working media members only. Credential requests must be made formally to the credential email address.

Requests for game day credentials must be received at least two weeks in advance of the date of the contest to provide sufficient time for processing and mailing. Media credentials which cannot be mailed will be left at the West Gate Media Will Call (Media Entrance) beneath the press box at SHI Stadium.

Working space in the SHI Stadium Press Box is allotted on the following basis: (1) daily newspaper writers covering for next-day publication covering Rutgers or the current game opponent; (2) sports editors of newspapers in New Jersey, New York and Eastern Pennsylvania; (3) radio personnel for broadcast originations; (4) official school student daily newspaper; (5) approved special coverage; (6) press and TV working photographers; (7) weekly press representatives; non-originating radio representatives of AM news stations; and Internet writers for sites affiliated with established, nationally-recognized media outlets will be considered on a game-by-game basis as space permits. Visiting freelance and amateur photographers are not eligible for media credentials.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Sideline photographers and media members must follow NCAA guidelines, which prohibit entry to the bench areas.

PARKING

Media parking is located in the RWJMS Lot on Hoes Lane West, near the Rutgers Golf Course. Pre and postgame shuttle service will be provided to transport media members from the RWJMS Lot to the drop off point near Athletes Glen. You should request your parking at the same time you request your game credential. If time permits, both will be mailed to you. There is no day-of-game media parking list and therefore members of the media must have a media parking pass in advance of the game.

PRESS BOX SERVICES

Complete NCAA statistics, play-by-play and quote sheets from both teams are all regular services on game day. Upon your arrival, you will receive information with a game program, flipcard, updated stats and game day notes.

The press box has wireless internet access. Login information will be provided on the day of game.

PLAYER INTERVIEWS

All player interviews must be arranged through the Athletic Communications Office at least one day (24 hours) in advance. Players are available in person following practice on Tuesday and Wednesday, pending class schedules.

Please consult with Hasim Phillips regarding availability as it will vary from week to week. A time mutually convenient for the player and media member can be set up by the Athletic Communications Office. During a traditional game week, there will be no player interviews after Wednesday until following the game.

COACH ASH INTERVIEWS

All interview requests for Rutgers head coach Chris Ash must be arranged through Hasim Phillips. In addition to post-practice media availability, coach Ash will be available to the media every Monday morning at his weekly press conference in the team meeting room of the Hale Center.

POST PRACTICE INTERVIEWS

On Tuesday, select offensive coaches and players will be available to the media post practice, while select defensive coaches and players will be available on Wednesday. Head coach Chris Ash will address the media following practice on Thursday.

ASSISTANT COACH INTERVIEWS

Assistant coaches are available to the media following practice with the offensive staff conducting interviews on Tuesdays, while the defensive staff meets on Wednesdays. The offensive and defensive coordinators will be available at the weekly Monday press conference in the team meeting room of the Hale Center.

PRACTICE COVERAGE

The use of social media (Twitter, Facebook, Instagram, Snapchat or Periscope) is strictly prohibited during practice sessions. Live reporting is NOT permitted during practice. Live video/audio broadcast of any kind is also NOT permitted. This includes the use of social media platforms such as Facebook Live, Instagram, Snapchat or Periscope. All reports must be filed at the conclusion of any open media practice windows.

POST-GAME INTERVIEWS

Head coach Chris Ash and select players, following the designated cooling off period, will be made available for interviews after each game. Following home games, the press conference for coach Ash will take place in the team meeting room on the second floor of the Hale Center, which is located on the east side of the stadium opposite the press box.

With approximately five minutes remaining in the game, members of the media will be escorted across the field towards the Hale Center.

The visiting team's press conference will be held in the linebackers meeting room on the second floor of the Hale Center.

WEEKLY PRESS CONFERENCE

Live video/audio broadcast of any kind will not be permitted during the weekly press conference. This includes the use of live video features on social media platforms such as Facebook Live, Instagram, Snapchat, Twitter or Periscope.

COLLEGEPRESSBOX.COM

Collegepressbox.com is the official media website for Big Ten football. Access and download weekly game notes, quotes, statistics, media guides and more for the conference and each of its member schools throughout the season. Login information will be distributed to accredited media or you can apply for a password by sending an e-mail to password@collegepressbox.com.

RUTGERS RADIO NETWORK

All Rutgers football games will be broadcast over the Rutgers Sports Network from Learfield IMG College to 50,000 watt WOR 710-AM in New York City and Central Jersey's WCTC 1450-AM.

Play-by-play announcer Chris Carlin is well known to sports radio fans throughout the State of Rutgers. Carlin is in his 19th year on Rutgers broadcast, including his 16th as the play-by-play voice of Rutgers football. Carlin, who has 20 years of experience in radio and television, is an afternoon host on WFAN in New York City. He began his career as producer with Mike & The Mad Dog on WFAN and later hosted joined SNY hosting "Loud Mouths," "Geico Sportsnite," as well as New York Mets pregame and postgame shows.

Former Rutgers standout quarterback Ray Lucas begins his 11th season as the color analyst on the Rutgers broadcast. The seven-year NFL veteran has also been an analyst for SNY on its New York Jets programming since 1996 and won a New York Emmy for best analyst in 2010 for his work on SNY.

Anthony "Fooch" Fucilli returns for his 16th season as the sideline reporter. Fucilli has also worked as a field producer and reporter for MSG Network since 1989.

Marc Malusis is back for his 11th year as the pre-game and post-game host. The pre-game shows starts one hour prior to kickoff while the post-game show stays on the air one hour following the game.

Former Rutgers defensive lineman Eric LeGrand begins his ninth season on the broadcast, providing insight and commentary on the pre-game show, halftime report and post-game.
