RUTGERS NOTES

• Rutgers is coming off of a 2-1 win at No. 6 Princeton last Friday, marking the program's highest ever ranked road win. It marked the second ranked win for the team this season, seventh ranked win in the last two seasons. Of the program's 13 lifetime ranked wins, 10 of them have come over the last three seasons. In the win over Princeton, RU received goals from freshman Rachel Houston and junior Gracey Butsack, both of whom marked their first goal of the season.

• The team has excelled defensively, with a 1.14 goals-against-average that ranks 11th in the nation. Goalkeeper Gianna Glatz, who was named the Big Ten Defensive Player of the Week, ranks second in the conference in goals-against-average and save percentage (0.771).
