DOUG ALONGI
1993 ABCA Third Team

Alongi was one of two All-Americans on the 1993 squad, which was one of Rutgers’ finest. He helped lead RU to a school record in wins (38) at the time while finishing with a .371 batting average, nine home runs, 39 stolen bases and 143 total bases. He set RU single-season records at the time with his stolen bases (39) and total bases (143). His nine homers placed him 10th on the all-time single-season list that year. Alongi also recorded 18 doubles and six triples, ranking him fourth and second on those single-season lists, respectively, when he achieved the feats. Alongi made just one error in right field and led all RU outfielders with 14 assists. Alongi also claimed Atlantic 10 Player of the Year honors as well as ECAC and NJCBA recognition. He was inducted into the Rutgers Hall of Fame in 2018.

PAT BISERTA
2010 ABCA Third Team

Biserta, a First Team All-Big East selection, hit .368 with 17 doubles and 18 home runs during his junior season in 2010. He was selected by the St. Louis Cardinals in the 24th round of the 2010 Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft and signed with the club over the summer. The outfielder ranked fourth in the Big East in slugging percentage (.688), fifth in home runs and total bases (161). Biserta tied for sixth on the school’s career home runs list with 25 in his first three seasons “On the Banks.” His 86 hits tied for ninth on the Rutgers single-season hits chart. Biserta’s 161 total bases were second-best in a season in school history, while his .688 slugging percentage was fifth-best. He was named the New Jersey Collegiate Baseball Association (NJCBA) Division I Player of the Year in 2010. The Scarlet Knight opened the season splitting time as RU’s designated hitter and left fielder and took over the reins full time in left field early in the 2010 campaign. He started all 56 games for RU with three outfield assists as a junior. Biserta was honored as the Pro-Line Athletic National Hitter of the Week by the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association (NCBWA) as a junior after hitting .550 (11-for-20) with three home runs, three doubles and a triple to drive in 13 runs and score nine in four victories in a week’s span. He owned a .337 career batting average (160-for-475) with 37 doubles, three triples and 25 home runs in his three seasons as a Scarlet Knight. He drove in 99 career runs and scored 89 in three seasons.

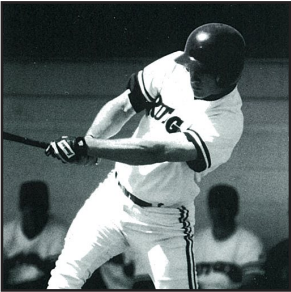

BOBBY BROWNLIE
2000 Louisville Slugger Freshman
2000 Collegiate Baseball Second Team
2000 Baseball America Freshman

One of college baseball’s biggest surprises in 2000, Bobby Brownlie arrived on the scene and emerged as one of the top young players in the nation. In 2000, Brownlie posted a 10-1 record, including a perfect 7-0 mark in the Big East. He fired eight complete games and posted an ERA of just 2.55, fourth-best among all freshmen in the country. He was on the mound when Rutgers clinched the 2000 Big East Regular Season Championship, outdueling Notre Dame’s Aaron Heilman for the crown. He then collected two wins in the Big East Tournament, including a 1-0, complete-game shutout of Seton Hall in the title contest. He closed his season with a 4-3 win over Army in the opening round of the NCAA Championship, running his win streak to 10 games and tying the single-season win mark at Rutgers. His 89 strikeouts established a new school record, and he allowed just a .247 opponent batting average.

MIKE CARTER
2014 Louisville Slugger Freshman

Mike Carter was a third-team all-conference selection and started 52 games in centerfield for the Scarlet Knights as a rookie. He helped pace the Scarlet Knights’ offensive efforts with a team-leading 67 hits, the fourth most by a Rutgers freshman since 2000. Carter batted .318 from the leadoff spot, including .355 in league games, making him a vital piece on offense. Carter played tremendously in centerfield, making only one error in 152 chances. He was named to the 2014 Louisville Slugger Freshman All-American Team at the end of the season. Carter was also named the Division I Rookie of the Year by the New Jersey Collegiate Baseball Association.

JAKE DAUBERT
1998 Louisville Slugger Freshman

Jake Daubert enjoyed a fine offensive season in 1998, batting .368 in his inaugural college season. In addition, he set or tied eight Rutgers records, the most impressive being the single-season RBI mark, which he eclipsed by knocking in 64 runs. Daubert was named Rutgers’ first Big East Rookie of the Year and, at the end of the season, was named to the Louisville Slugger/TPX Freshman All-America squad.

DARREN FENSTER
1999 Rawlings/ABCA Third Team
2000 NCBWA First Team
2000 Sporting News First Team
2000 Rawlings/ABCA first Team
2000 Baseball America Second Team
2000 Collegiate Baseball Second Team
2000 Baseball Weekly Second Team

Going on to become a manager in the Boston Red Sox organization, Fenster also served as an assistant coach with Rutgers. He was a two-time All-American, becoming the first RU player to achieve First Team honors in 2000 since Jeff Torborg in 1963. Fenster led Rutgers in hitting for the second-straight season in 2000, posting a .433 average, which included a new school-record 101 hits in a season. Along the way, Fenster also set the school mark for career hits with 315, becoming the first RU player to reach the 300-hit mark. In addition to his 101 hits and .433 average, Fenster scored 59 runs, drove in 55, collected 23 doubles and hit a career-high four home runs. He also led the team with 182 assists at shortstop, committing just 10 errors. In 1999, Fenster, known initially for his defensive work at shortstop, enjoyed a breakthrough offensive season, leading the team in batting with a .424 average, including a .505 mark in conference action. Batting in the second spot in the order, Fenster provided stability to the Rutgers offense, which ended the season ranked seventh in the nation in team batting average. Fenster’s .424 mark was the sixth-best single-season mark in Rutgers history at the time and his .505 Big East average was the best in 12 seasons. A model of consistency, Fenster hit safely in 50 of 56 starts, collecting 37 multiple hit games. He also continued to play flawlessly in the field, stabilizing the defense from his shortstop position for the third year in a row.

JEFF FRAZIER
2002 Baseball America Freshman
2004 Collegiate Baseball Second Team
2004 USA Today Second Team
2004 ABCA Third Team

The 2001 Star-Ledger High School Player of the Year, Frazier’s adjustment to the college game came quickly. He was the first true freshman since Darren Fenster in 1997 to start the season opener and proceeded to start all 57 games in left field for the Scarlet Knights. After an 0-for-3 effort in the season opener, Frazier was 7-for-14 over his next three games and was hitting as high as .424 through the first 17 games of the season. After dipping to a season-low .353 on April 14, Frazier went on a seven-game tear from April 17 through April 26, raising his average to .392. He was 15-for-24 (.625) with seven home runs, 14 runs scored and 22 RBIs during that span. In 2004, he hit a team-best .382 overall and .365 in Big East play. He was among the league leaders in several offensive categories, including average (2nd), home runs (13, 2nd) and RBIs (59, 3rd). He also led the league in hits with 79 and finished tied for third in doubles (16). Frazier was also third in slugging percentage (.657). He led the Scarlet Knights in batting average, at bats (207), runs (59), doubles, total bases (136), slugging percentage, hits, sacrifice flies (4), RBIs and home runs, tying the single-season record he set in 2002. He finished his career ranked first in school history with 34 home runs.

TODD FRAZIER

2005 Baseball America Freshman
2005 Louisville Slugger Freshman
2007 NCBWA Preseason Third Team
2007 Baseball America Preseason Third Team
2007 Collegiate Baseball Preseason Third Team
2007 Baseball America First Team
2007 NCBWA First Team
2007 Collegiate Baseball First Team
2007 Rivals First Team

Frazier, the younger brother of Rutgers All-American Jeff Frazier, was selected by the Cincinnati Reds with the 34th overall pick in the Major League Baseball First Year Player Draft in 2007. He was named a consensus First Team All-American by Baseball America, Collegiate Baseball, National Collegiate Baseball Writers and Rivals.com. Frazier was also the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association of America District II Player of the Year. Frazier, a semifinalist for the Brooks Wallace National Player of the Year Award, was one of nine District Players of the Year from around the nation. The shortstop painted himself throughout the Rutgers record book, finishing in the top-six in every single-season offensive category as a junior in 2007, excluding triples. Frazier broke the Rutgers single-season record for home runs (22), home runs by a leadoff hitter (22), runs scored (87), walks (62), doubles (24) and total bases (187) in 2007. He also finished second in slugging percentage (.757), second in at-bats (247), tied for third in runs batted in (65), fifth in hits (93) and tied for sixth in stolen bases (25). Frazier also placed himself on several Rutgers career record charts in just three seasons. He finished as the Scarlet Knights' all-time leader in home runs (42) and runs scored (210), second in walks (138) and total bases (434), third in hits (241), slugging percentage (.625) and stolen bases (65), and fifth in runs batted in (152). Frazier, who played with the USA Baseball National Team in the summer of 2006 and starred on the Toms River East American Team that won the 1998 Little League World Series title, was named the unanimous Big East Player of the Year in 2007. He finished the season ranked among the Big East leaders in virtually every offensive category and was fourth in the nation in home runs (22), fourth in runs per game (1.38), eighth in walks per game (0.98) and 11th in home runs per game (0.35). Frazier was inducted into the Rutgers Athletics Hall of Fame in 2019.

GLEN GARDNER

1986 ABCA/Baseball America Freshman
1987 Collegiate Baseball Third Team

Gardner was one of the most outstanding players in Rutgers history and one of a select group of Scarlet Knights to be chosen as two-time All-Americans. A 1986 Baseball America Freshman All-American, Gardner was second on the team in hitting that year with a .398 batting average while leading RU in hits (70), RBIs (45), home runs (6), total bases (102), slugging percentage (.580) and on-base percentage (.470). In 1987, Gardner followed his impressive debut by collecting Collegiate Baseball All-America honors. Gardner led the team in hitting at .368 despite missing 13 games with a hand injury. He finished second on the team in homers (8) and RBIs (45) and was named to the NCAA East Region First Team. Gardner also achieved All-Atlantic 10 honors for the second time.

TYLER GEBLER

2010 Louisville Slugger Freshman

Gebler broke the Rutgers single-season school record for saves with 12 in his first season "On the Banks." He left second on the school's career saves chart with 16. The closer posted a 1.74 earned run average and struck out 18 in 36.0 innings spanning a team-high 28 appearances. Gebler's ERA in league contests was 1.80. The freshman did not surrender an earned run in 23 of his 28 appearances, including shutout performances in his first five appearances that included scoreless innings against No. 4 Georgia Tech and No. 12 Miami. The freshman also posted shutout performances in his final six appearances of the season. Gebler appeared at least once in every series in his rookie season. He posted his first collegiate save to seal RU's first win of the season against Purdue. Against FAU, he came in with a 2-0 lead and the bases loaded in the eighth and induced a fly out to get out of the jam and then retired the side in order in the ninth to earn the save and help snap a 12-game losing streak to FAU. In an 8-7 win at Georgetown, he came in during the eighth inning and with the tying run on third with two outs and induced an inning-ending fly out and worked a 1-2-3 ninth for the save. In a 7-5 win at Georgetown, and came in midway through the eighth with the tying run at the plate and just one out and induced a ground ball to the shortstop with the bases loaded to get a fielder's choice for the out and an inning-ending fly out to get out of the jam. He posted a scoreless ninth for the save. The freshman held Notre Dame hitless in 3.1 innings of shutout relief to help RU earn a come-from-behind win in the series finale. He picked up his 10th and 11th saves against eventual Big East Champion St. John's in the final regular-season series and notched his 12th save against Connecticut to preserve a one-run lead in the Big East Championship.

PETE HALL

1961 AACBC Second Team
1962 AACBC Second Team

Hall is another Scarlet Knight to garner multiple All-America honors. In 1961, the third baseman from Bound Brook led the Scarlet Knights in hitting at .397, runs (21), hits (31), RBIs (30), doubles (6), home runs (4), and made just five errors while starting in every game.

MIKE HIGGINS

1993 ABCA Third Team

The Scarlet Knights' catcher battled Doug Alongi in almost every offensive category while captaining Rutgers during the 1993 season. He was second in hitting with a .370 average, drove in 56 runs, then a school record, tied Alongi for team honors with nine homers and led the Scarlet Knights in doubles (20).

His 39 walks and 20 doubles were both second on the all-time season record at that time.

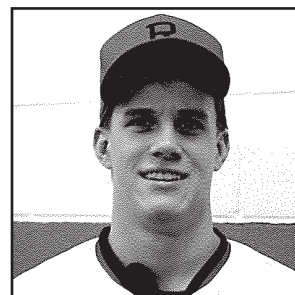

PATRICK KIVLEHAN

2012 Baseball America Third Team

Winning the first league triple crown in Big East history (.402, 10, 36), Kivlehan had one memorable season for the Rutgers baseball team. He played on the football team for four seasons prior to walking-on in the spring and becoming the most feared hitter in the conference. Kivlehan became the third player from RU to earn Big East Player of the Year after hitting .392 with 14 home runs and 50 RBIs in his first season playing the sport since high school. "Patrick winning Big East Player of the Year is just an amazing accomplishment as far as I'm concerned," Fred Hill said. "Not having played baseball in four years and to do the things he did is a testament to his hard work. He was also a lifesaver for our team because one of our better players, Russ Hopkins, was injured the day before practice started and he picked up right where Russ left off. He's got to be very proud of himself, the coaches certainly are proud of his accomplishment." The third baseman took home four weekly league honors during the course of the season, including the Big East Player of the Week on March 26 after collecting seven hits and reaching base safely in 12-of-15 plate appearances against Seton Hall in the first conference series. During the season, Kivlehan recorded 24 multiple-hit games, including three contests with four knocks. He concluded the season having reached base safely in the last 27 games, adding 14 games with at least two RBIs, adding 24 steals. Kivlehan was drafted in the fourth round by the Seattle Mariners and made his MLB debut with the San Diego Padres.

JIM KOHL

1990 ABCA Third Team

Relief ace extraordinaire, Jim Kohl was one of the keys to Rutgers' run in the East Region, where it finished one game shy of the College World Series. Kohl finished with a perfect 8-0 record and three saves while appearing in 22 games and starting just two. Even more impressive may be his team low 1.85 ERA or the fact that he walked just eight batters in 39.0 innings. In the 1990 tournament, where Rutgers went 4-2, he recorded 8.2 innings of scoreless relief.

JOE LYNCH

1986 ABCA Third Team

As a designated hitter, Lynch was third on the Scarlet Knights with a .364 average. He also smacked three home runs and drove in 30 runs. A captain in 1986, Lynch had 55 hits with 11 doubles and two triples. His .470 on-base percentage tied for team honors as well. Lynch also collected All-District II, Atlantic 10 and

All-East honors following the season.

SCOTT MADISON

1996 ABCA Third Team

After missing all of 1995 due to elbow surgery, Madison returned to the mound and made an impact by beating some of America's top teams on his way to an 8-3 record and a 2.33 ERA, which ranked 15th in the country. Madison earned First Team All-Big East honors and was the most dominant pitcher in the conference from the beginning of the season to the end. He finished 1996 with eight complete games and a school-record four shutouts, which now ranks second in the program record books. His 92.2 innings was the second-highest total in school history. Madison finished his career with a .772 (17-5) winning percentage, which ranked eighth all time when he graduated.

JAREN MATTHEWS

2008 Baseball America Second Team Freshman
2008 Collegiate Baseball Freshman

Jaren Matthews earned a pair of Freshman All-American honors in 2008. The rookie slugger, who was also named a Third Team All-Big East selection by the league's coaches, was one of two Scarlet Knights to start all 53 games in 2008.

The freshman finished the season with a team-best 10 home runs and 54 RBIs. He hit .294 overall with a team-best 63 hits, including 11 doubles and two triples. He also earned 21 walks and was successful in eight of his nine stolen base attempts. Matthews' RBI total tied for seventh-most in the Big East, while his home run total was tied for ninth-most in the conference through the regular season. During regular season league play, the Scarlet Knight tied for the Big East lead with 30 RBIs. He tied for second in the league with seven home runs and ranked 11th with a .570 slugging percentage during conference action. Matthews was second on the team in hitting with a .328 batting average, with six home runs, 28 RBIs and 41 runs scored to earn All-Big East Third Team honors for the second-straight season as a sophomore in 2009. Matthews hit .305 with 17 doubles and seven home runs as a junior in 2010.

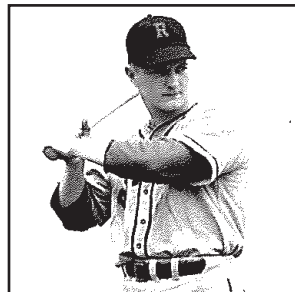

BILLY MCCARTHY

2001 NCBWA Second Team
2001 Collegiate Baseball Second Team
2001 ABCA Third Team

Billy McCarthy, from Washington Township, N.J., transferred to Rutgers in 2000 after two highly-successful seasons at Radford University. The move back home proved to be a beneficial decision for both RU and McCarthy. The junior right fielder batted a team-high .421 (20th best in the country) and added seven home runs, 21 doubles, 56 runs, 11 stolen bases and a team-high 65 RBIs while playing exceptional defense and providing an all-out hustling style of play. His .421 average led the Big East Conference. A First Team All-Big East pick, McCarthy earned All-Tournament honors after an outstanding showing in the NCAA Regional in Lincoln, Neb. At season's end, he was selected in the sixth round by the Atlanta Braves (195th overall) and signed a contract to play professionally for several years before retiring after the 2007 season.

JAMES MONAHAN

1952 AACBC First Team

The Scarlet Knights' left fielder led the team with a .400 batting average, 26 hits and 17 stolen bases. He was second on the team in home runs with two and RBIs with 18. Appearing in all 17 games, he made just three errors. He was also a member of the 1950 College World Series team.

ADAM NEUBART

1996 Mizuno Freshman

The outfielder was named Mizuno Freshman All-America after leading Rutgers in eight offensive categories. The Livingston, N.J., native was the first freshman to lead the team in hitting since 1986. He appeared in 54 games with 51 starts and finished the season batting at .333. At the time, he broke Rutgers freshman records for the most runs scored (45) and doubles (15). Adept in the field, he recorded outfield assists from both right and left field. He had the only grand slam of the 1996 campaign, the difference maker in Rutgers' 11-7 win over Providence. After the 1996 season, he was selected to try out for Team USA.

STEVE NYISZTOR

2010 Louisville Slugger Freshman

RU's starting second baseman in 2010, Nyisztor appeared in all 56 games and started all but one contest. He led the Scarlet Knights with a .410 batting average, earning Second Team All-Big East honors in his rookie season. His 94 hits were tied for fourth-best on the Rutgers single-season hits chart. He drove in 51 runs and scored 52 from the No. 3 spot in the lineup. The freshman collected 24 extra-base hits, including 17 doubles, three triples and four home runs. He stole 11 bases on the year. The middle infielder was excellent defensively with just three errors in 278 chances. He helped turn 45 double plays. Nyisztor, who was also named the New Jersey Collegiate Baseball Association Division I Rookie of the Year, led the Big East with a .434 batting average in league games. He ranked fourth overall in the league in hitting and first among freshmen at the conclusion of the regular season. The true freshman owned a 26-game hitting streak during the regular season and hit safely in 36 of his last 38 contests. He collected a season-high five hits twice in his rookie season at FIU (5-for-7) in March and in the Big East Tournament against Connecticut (5-for-6). The first-year Scarlet Knight recorded 27 multi-hit games and drove in three or more runs in a contest on seven different occasions.

MIKE O'BRIEN

1997 Louisville Slugger Freshman

A designated hitter/first baseman, Mike O'Brien was named to the Louisville Slugger Freshman All-America team, as announced by Collegiate Baseball. O'Brien appeared in 38 games for the Scarlet Knights, starting 31. He batted .302 with 11 doubles, six home runs and 36 RBIs. His six home runs were the most by an RU freshman since Angel Echevarria hit nine in 1990. He hit a robust .348 against the Big East and was named to the Big East All-Rookie team.

HARDING PETERSON

1950 AACBC First-Team

Catcher Harding Peterson was the lone All-America choice from RU's 1950 College World Series team. Known for his defensive ability, he made just two errors behind the dish in 27 games. He hit a respectable .276 while driving in 23 runs which tied for second on the team.

His grandson, Sean Peterson, was a relief pitcher with the Scarlet Knights in 2009 and 2010.

WALLY PORTER

1953 AACBC Third Team

Catcher Wally Porter was selected to the All-East (NCAA District II) first team and chosen by the American Association of College Baseball Coaches on its All-America Third Team following his junior season. He was chosen primarily for his defensive capabilities. No bases were stolen against Porter in the 1953 season. At the end of the 1954 academic year, Porter received the Donald Leslie Coursen Award as the school's most outstanding senior athlete.

GABY ROSA

2014 Louisville Slugger Freshman

Rosa stepped into the Scarlet Knights' rotation in 2014 and proved to be one of the most productive pitchers on the staff. He appeared in 15 games while starting 11 and compiled a 6-3 record. The six wins were the most by a Rutgers freshman since 2006. Rosa posted a 2.91 earned run average and struck out 30 batters. Rosa led the American Athletic Conference in fly outs forced per game with 15.01. He was named to the 2014 Louisville Slugger Freshman All-American Team at the end of the season. Rosa was also named the American Athletic Conferences Co-Rookie of the Year at the conference tournament.

JEFF TORBORG

1963 AACBC First Team

A 1963 All-America choice, he set the school record for batting average (.537). His slugging percentage that year (1.032) is also a single-season standard. He led the 1963 Scarlet Knight team with 21 RBIs and six home runs. In his three-year career, Torborg batted .390 and set the career slugging percentage mark at .684. In his career, the Scarlet Knights were 40-13-1. Torborg went on to manage in the major leagues and is still found in the Rutgers record book today.

RAY VAN CLEEF

1951 AACBC First Team

Centerfielder Ray Van Cleef was chosen by the American Association of College Baseball Coaches following his senior season where he batted .378, scored 22 runs and smacked two triples - all team-highs. He made just one error in centerfield while playing in all 23 games.

In 1950, Van Cleef paced the Scarlet Knights with a lofty .404 average, 44 hits, 15 extra-base hits, 35 runs and 18 stolen bases. He was a first-team District II choice and the MVP of National Baseball Tournament.

PETE ZOCCOLILLO

1998 NCBWA Third-Team

1999 NCBWA Third-Team

1999 Rawlings/ABCA Second-Team

Zoccolillo, one of three players to earn All-America honors in consecutive seasons, was named to the 1998 NCBWA Third Team, 1999 NCBWA Third Team and Rawlings/ABCA Second Team during his final two seasons. In 1998, Zoccolillo was the team's top offensive threat, slugging a club-record 12 home runs while knocking in 59 runs and batting .387. He followed up his outstanding 1998 season with a record-breaking 1999, setting 10 school records and two Big East marks while leading Rutgers to back-to-back NCAA Tournament appearances. He left the Rutgers baseball program as the all-time leader in eight offensive categories and the single-season leader in two others.

JEFF TORBORG (1961-63)

CLASS OF 1994

Jeff Torborg was a 1963 All-American and set the school record for single-season batting average (.537) that year, which was the national leading average for 100 at bats and under. His .537 average was the highest ever recorded up to that time and since then, only a handful of college players have hit for a better average. His slugging percentage that year (1.032) is also a single-season standard. In 1963, he led the team with 21 RBIs and six home runs. A draft choice of the Los Angeles Dodgers, he played 10 seasons in the majors, seven with the Dodgers and three with the California Angels. He caught three no-hitters, a perfect game with Sandy Koufax and another no-hitter with Bill Singer of the Dodgers and Nolan Ryan of the Angels; and was the backstop in Don Drysdale's record fifth-straight shutout in 1968. He was a successful manager with the Chicago White Sox, the Cleveland Indians, the New York Mets, the Montreal Expos and the Florida Marlins, winning the Baseball Writer's Association, Associated Press, United Press International and The Sporting News Manager of the Year award. He led the Marlins to the 2003 World Series title. In his three-year career from 1961-63, the Westfield, N.J., native batted .390. His number (#10) was retired in 1992. He is second in RU career slugging percentage with a mark of .684. During his career, the Knights were 15-4-1, 14-4 and 11-5 for a three-year mark of 40-13-1 (.741 winning percentage).

PETE HALL (1960-62)

CLASS OF 1995

Hall is one of a select group of Scarlet Knights to twice earn All-American honors (1961 and 1962) in baseball. During his three letter-winning years (1960-62), the Scarlet Knights were 40-14-1. The former third baseman still holds ninth place on the career batting average chart (.384) and fifth place on the career slugging percentage chart (.612) in the Scarlet Knight record book. Hall was a 1961 draft pick of the New York Yankees. He was the Upstream Award winner in 1962. In 1961, he led the team in hitting (.397), runs (21), hits (31), RBIs (30) and made just five errors while starting every game.

RAY VAN CLEEF (1949-51)

CLASS OF 1996

Van Cleef was a two-time All-American, garnering first-team accolades from the American Association of College Baseball Coaches in 1950 and 1951. In the process, he became the first Eastern player to repeat as an All-American. A veteran of two NCAA Tournaments, he was the starting centerfielder on the 1950 Rutgers team which advanced to the College World Series. He batted .458 (11-24) in the series en route to MVP honors, while leading the Knights to a co-runner-up finish. Van Cleef batted .404 that season, his junior year, and followed it up with a .378 mark in 1951. He currently ranks third in career batting average at Rutgers. He set the Rutgers single season record for triples with seven in 1950 (mark is now third) and stands fifth in career triples with 13. Van Cleef is sixth in career slugging percentage with a .606 mark. The Scarlet Knights were 50-21-2 his three varsity years. He also won three letters in basketball and one in soccer.

GLEN GARDNER (1986-88)

CLASS OF 1997

Gardner, one of the most prolific hitters in Rutgers baseball history, was elected after a stellar three-year career (1986-88), which saw him earn two All-America awards as well as collect a host of offensive records. Gardner, one of New Jersey's top all-time athletes, came to Rutgers from Immaculata High School, where he was a First Team All-State choice in both football and baseball. Following his freshman season, Gardner was named Freshman All-America by Baseball America. He was drafted after his sophomore season by the San Diego Padres in the 13th round of the Major League Baseball Amateur draft. He chose to stay at Rutgers for his junior season and that year set nine single-season offensive records and earned All-America honors from Collegiate Baseball. He was a three-time Atlantic 10 choice and a three-time New Jersey College Baseball Association honoree. Following his junior season, Gardner was drafted by the Atlanta Braves and he began a professional career in that organization. He ended his career as the Rutgers all-time leader in six offensive categories and ranked in the top 10 in four others.

HARDING PETERSON (1948-50)

CLASS OF 1997

Peterson, the backstop for the 1950 Rutgers College World Series team, was a second-team All-America selection by the American Baseball Coaches Association and a first-team District II choice that year, as well. Known for his defensive ability, Peterson made just two errors in 27 games in 1950 while hitting .276 (27-98), with 21 runs, 23 RBIs (second on team), four doubles and two triples. His best season as a collegian was in 1948, when he hit for a .312 average (10-32) with seven RBIs and three doubles. In his three varsity seasons, Peterson led his teams to a combined 57-16-2 record, highlighted by a third-place finish in the 1950 College World Series. Following his career at Rutgers, Peterson signed as free agent with Pittsburgh Pirates in 1950, but had his career interrupted by Korean War service. Following the war, Peterson played four years with Pirates until a broken arm in a home plate collision hastened his retirement. A well-respected baseball man, Peterson spent over 30 years with the Pirates, including stints as a player (four years), manager (nine years), farm director and scouting director. He was named VP for player personnel in 1976 and named executive VP in 1979 and is possibly best known for the trade of C Manny Sanguillen to the Oakland A's for manager Chuck Tanner in 1976. His dealings helped bring the Pirates their World Series Championship in 1979. Peterson also spent two years with the Yankees and was a co-general manager in 1990 and two more years with San Diego as a scout.

ERIC YOUNG (1987-89)

CLASS OF 1999

Eric Young was a two-sport standout (football, baseball) at Rutgers, earning three letters in baseball (1987-89). Young batted over .300 in each of his three seasons, including a career-high .337 as a senior in 1989. During his career on the diamond, Young was a two-time Atlantic-10 All-Conference selection and led Rutgers to an Atlantic-10 Championship and NCAA berth in 1988. Young graduated from Rutgers as the career runs, triples and stolen base leader, setting a then single-season mark with 28 thefts in 1989. At the conclusion of his Rutgers career, Young was the recipient of the Coursen Award in 1989 and was selected by the Los Angeles Dodgers in the 1989 amateur draft. Young made his major league debut with the Colorado Rockies in 1993 and was selected to the 1995 All-Star game. A nine-year major league veteran with a .283 career average, Young played his last season with the San Diego Padres and the Texas Rangers in 2006. Since retiring as a player, Young has remained a part of the game as a coach in the major leagues.

DARRIN WINSTON (1985-88)

CLASS OF 2000

Darrin Winston received his nod in 2000. Winston was a four-year letterwinner at Rutgers from 1985-88, and concluded his career as one of Rutgers' all-time winningest pitchers. A left-hander, Winston was a three-time team MVP, and led the Scarlet Knights to two berths in the NCAA Tournament, as well as the 1988 Atlantic 10 Championship. He was an all-region selection in 1988 after posting a 10-4 record with a 3.74 ERA, and was the MVP of the A-10 Tournament that year. At the time of his induction, Winston was the Rutgers leader in several statistical categories, including career wins (26), career innings pitched (278), career strikeouts (176), career complete-games (8), and single-season wins (10). Originally from Woodbridge, N.J., Winston was drafted by the Montreal Expos and later pitched in the major leagues for the Philadelphia Phillies. Winston passed away unexpectedly on August 15, 2008.

MATT BOLGER, HEAD COACH
(1961-83)

CLASS OF 2001

Matt Bolger spent 22 years as the head coach at Rutgers, compiling a record of 295-256-7 during his career. A 2001 Olympic Sports Hall of Fame Inductee, Bolger led Rutgers to three NCAA Tournaments in a five-year span from 1966-1970, and posted his best season in 1961, when the Scarlet Knights finished with a 15-4-1 record. A two-time Coach of the Year honoree by the New Jersey Collegiate Baseball Association, Bolger mentored several major league draft picks, including former first-round pick Jeff Torborg. A past President of the American Association of College Baseball Coaches, Bolger is a member of the AACBC Hall of Fame, as well as the Newark Hall of Fame and the St. Benedict's Prep Hall of Fame. Bolger, who coached at Rutgers from 1961 through 1983, was the school's all-time winningest coach in any sport at the time of his retirement.

JIM MONAHAN (1950-52)

CLASS OF 2002

Jim Monahan was a key member of the 1950 Rutgers baseball team which advanced to the College World Series for the first and only time in school history. Monahan was among the offensive leaders in five categories in 1950, while his best season came in 1952. That year, Monahan earned First Team All-East and First Team All-America honors after hitting .400 with a team-high 17 stolen bases and 18 RBIs, second-best on the team. Rutgers enjoyed a 41-19-1 record during his four seasons, including a 17-4-1 mark during that memorable 1950 campaign.

PETE ZOCCOLILLO (1996-99)

CLASS OF 2004

In 2004, Pete Zoccolillo was enshrined in the Olympic Sports Hall of Fame. Zoccolillo held 10 career and single-season records when he left Rutgers, including career hits, RBIs, home runs and total bases. A four-year starter, he earned All-Big East honors each year and was a two-time All-American, leading Rutgers to the 1998 Big East Regular Season and Tournament championship and NCAA Tournament berths in 1998 and 1999. As a senior in 1999, he set the school and Big East single-season record with 72 RBIs, while hitting .418. Drafted by the Chicago Cubs in 1999, he made his Major League debut with the Milwaukee Brewers in 2003 and was a Triple-A All-Star in 2004 as a member of the Oklahoma City Red Hawks. He later signed free agent contracts with the St. Louis Cardinals and Colorado Rockies. He played for the Cardinals' Triple-A affiliate Memphis Redbirds in 2005, hitting .261 with nine home runs and 34 RBIs in 79 games. In 2006, he played for the Italian National team in the World Baseball Classic before retiring from professional baseball.

DARREN FENSTER (1997-00)

CLASS OF 2007

A two-time All-American shortstop at Rutgers from (1997-2000), Fenster played six years professionally in the Kansas City Royals' organization. The program leader in several offensive categories including career hits (315), single-season hits (101) and career doubles (65), Fenster was a four-year starter at shortstop. He was a part of three Big East Regular Season and Tournament championships, winning the 1998 and 2000 titles as a player and achieving the feat again in 2007 as a member of the staff. Fenster was also a part of four appearances in the NCAA Tournament, including three as a player. As a senior in 2000, Fenster was a consensus First-Team All-American, hitting .433 while playing near-flawless defense. That season, Rutgers posted its first-ever 40-win season, was ranked as high as No. 12 nationally and served as the top seed and host of the NCAA Regional at Upper Montclair, N.J. The 2000 Big East Player of the Year, NCBWA District II Player of the Year, and captain and MVP of a team that would feature three future Major Leaguers, he was also one of 10 finalists for the prestigious Dick Howser Trophy, presented annually to the nation's top collegiate player. He was also a three-time All-Big East selection. Drafted in the 12th round by the Kansas City Royals following his All-American season in 2000, Fenster advanced to the Double-A level in the Royals system and was a Carolina League All-Star in both 2002 and 2004, as a member of the Wilmington Blue Rocks. Following a breakout season in 2004 where he hit a career-best .302 between A-Wilmington and Double-A Wichita, Fenster was a non-roster invitee to the Royals spring training camp in 2005, where he suffered a career-ending ACL injury while playing third base in a spring training game with the Major League club. He re-joined the Rutgers program in April of 2006, serving as the director of baseball operations for three seasons before being elevated to an assistant coach position prior to the 2009 season and eventually becoming a manager in the Boston Red Sox organization.

BOBBY BROWNLIE (2000-02)

CLASS OF 2013

A consensus All-American during his career at Rutgers from 2000-02, Brownlie was one of the top pitchers to ever wear a Scarlet Knight uniform. He is painted throughout the RU record books, having owned the school record for career strikeouts (235), career shutouts (7), single-season wins (10 in 2000), single-season complete games (8 in 2000) and single-season shutouts (4 in 2000). Brownlie finished his RU career ranked second in career complete games (20) and third in career wins (22), single-season starts (15 in 2000), single-season innings pitched (102.1 in 2000) and career innings pitched (265.1). In Brownlie's three years at Rutgers, the Scarlet Knights posted a 116-57-1 record, advancing to the NCAA Championships twice and capturing the Big East regular season and tournament titles in 2000. The right-handed pitcher posted a 22-10 record on the mound. Brownlie joined the Scarlet Knights in the fall of 1999 from nearby Edison High School, where he was a First Team All-State selection and NJ Pitcher of the Year as a senior. After being selected by the Colorado Rockies in the 26th round of the 1999 draft, Brownlie opted for Rutgers and earned Big East Rookie of the Year and Third Team All-America honors after posting a 10-1 record as a freshman in 2000. As the team's top starter, Brownlie was the MVP of the 2000 Big East Tournament, hurling a nine-inning shutout to propel Rutgers to a 1-0 win over Seton Hall in the championship game. He posted a perfect 7-0 mark in Big East play as a freshman en route to All-American accolades by Baseball America, Louisville Slugger and Collegiate Base- ball. Brownlie fired eight complete games and recorded an earned run average of 2.55 during his first season "On the Banks" – the fourth-lowest among all freshmen in the nation. He was on the mound when Rutgers clinched the 2000 Big East Regular season title. Prior to the 2002 season, Brownlie was featured on the cover of the Baseball America's college preview issue and named the Louisville Slugger Preseason Player of the Year. Brownlie was selected by the Chicago Cubs with the 21st overall pick of the 2002 Major League Baseball Draft and decided to forego his final season of eligibility to begin his professional career. He spent seven seasons in Major League Baseball as a member of the Chicago Cubs, Cleveland Indians, Washington Nationals and Atlanta Braves organizations, reaching the Triple-A level with the Cubs, Nationals and Braves. He was a Double-A All-Star selection with the Washington Nationals in 2008.

CHARLES B. GARRETT, SR.

(1928-30)

CLASS OF 2014

The late Charles Bert Garrett Sr. was a pitcher on the Rutgers baseball team from 1928-1930. Garrett left as the all-time Rutgers list for strikeouts with 166. He also currently ranks third amongst Scarlet Knight pitchers for career complete games with 17, and is tied for fourth all-time for single season complete games with seven pitched in 1928, when Garrett ran the table to a 9-0 undefeated season, including a victory over Holy Cross, the top team in the nation. Garrett is tied for fourth in both single-season wins (nine) and single-season strikeouts (73) during his 1928 campaign. He held seven single season or career records for over 55 years, and is still in the top 10 in those categories 84 years later. Although baseball did not name All-Americans when Garrett played, he was part of the "Best Battery in the U.S.," which would have earned All-America recognition today. Garrett played football for two seasons before dedicating himself to baseball, and he joins his brother Alfred T. Garrett as only the second pair of known siblings in the Rutgers Athletics Hall of Fame.

FRED HILL, HEAD COACH

(1984-14)

CLASS OF 2015

A member of the American Baseball Coaches Association (ABCA) Hall of Fame, Fred Hill earned 1,089 career victories at the collegiate level over 37 years, including 941 in 30 seasons leading the Scarlet Knights. Hill retired from Rutgers ranked 32nd in college baseball history in wins, having earned his 1,000th career victory April 17, 2010 against USF in front of a record crowd of 1,124 fans at Bainton Field. Overall, Hill led RU to 11 NCAA Regional appearances, 12 regular season conference championships and eight conference tournament titles during his tenure in Piscataway. Rebuilding the team into a northeast baseball power, he won eight straight Atlantic 10 regular season titles starting in 1986 to advance RU to the NCAA Tournament five times in that stretch. Hill continued that success after the program moved to the Big East and became the second-winningest coach in conference history, with 267 victories in the league over 19 seasons. His first championship in the Big East came in 1998 as he earned Coach of the Year honors and won both the regular season and tournament title. That started a stretch of five NCAA berths in six years that included hosting an NCAA Regional in 2000, a rarity for a northeast school. The 2007 team was among the best for Hill, as it tied the school record with 42 wins and won both the Big East regular season and tournament titles. Named ABCA East Region Coach of the Year, the Scarlet Knights earned the No. 2 seed in the Charlottesville Regional. A school-record six players off that team were selected in the ensuing MLB Draft. During his career, Hill sent over 70 players to professional baseball - with Todd Frazier and David DeJesus both currently in the major leagues - and developed 20 All-America selections. His No. 24 was retired at Bainton Field May 10, 2014 after officially retiring in February of that season.

DOUG ALONGI

(1991-93)

CLASS OF 2018

A native of Spotswood and graduate of St. Joseph High School in Metuchen, Doug Alongi is one of just two players in Rutgers baseball history to be named first team all-conference three times, one of four to earn a conference player of the year distinction and still holds the program career record with 85 stolen bases. The leadoff hitter, who joined the team as a walk-on, was named All-America in 1993 after hitting .371 with nine home runs, 86 hits, 18 doubles, 45 RBIs, 39 stolen bases and 143 total bases. His signature moment came in the 1993 Atlantic 10 Championship Game against West Virginia when he blasted a three-run homer on an 0-2 pitch to tie the game in the bottom of the ninth, earning him tournament Most Outstanding Player. The Scarlet Knights would go on to walk off to overcome a five-run deficit starting the inning, making it two tournament titles (1991 and 1993), three regular season championships (1991-93) and two NCAA Tournament berths (1991 and 1993) during Alongi's three seasons that saw the team finish 103-58-2. In addition to holding the career stolen base mark, Alongi left as the program single-season leader in runs (62), hits (86), total bases (143) and steals (39) during the memorable 1993 campaign in which he earned Atlantic 10 Player of the Year. The Chicago Cubs selected the outfielder in the 1993 draft.

TODD FRAZIER

(2005-07)

CLASS OF 2019

One of the finest players in Rutgers baseball history, Todd Frazier was named consensus First Team All-America as a junior in 2007 and was the 34th overall selection in the MLB Draft. Frazier earned unanimous Big East Player of the Year that season by helping the Scarlet Knights to 42 wins, tying the school record. Frazier batted .520 (13-for-25) with three homers and seven RBIs in the Big East tournament held in Brooklyn to win the Jack Kaiser Award as MVP and lead Rutgers to an NCAA Regional berth. The two-time First Team All-Big East honoree finished as the Scarlet Knights' all-time leader in home runs (42) and runs scored (210), second in walks (138) and total bases (434), third in hits (241), slugging percentage (.625) and stolen bases (65) and fifth in runs batted in (152) despite only playing three seasons. Originally from Point Pleasant, New Jersey, Frazier previously starred on the Toms River East American Team that won the 1998 Little League World Series title. He is in his 10th MLB season, winning the Home Run Derby in 2015.

RUTGERS 1950 COLLEGE WORLD SERIES GAME-BY-GAME RECAP

The Scarlet Knights opened play on Thursday, June 15 in the opening game of the tournament against defending national champion Texas (22-5)... Texas took a 2-0 lead in the second on Frank Womack's two-run homer, and Murray Wall pitched six shutout innings before giving up a run in the seventh... Trailing 2-1, Rutgers rallied to take the lead in the eighth, scoring three runs off Wall on three walks, two singles and an error... Wall walked home a run, and Rutgers first baseman Bob Suba stole home for another... Suba finished the game with three stolen bases, as Rutgers set a College World Series record with a total of seven for the game... Herman Hering steadied after giving up the early home run, and although he walked seven and struck out only one, he also allowed only three hits in going the distance for the win... Ray Van Cleef paced the attack, going three for four, as Rutgers won, 4-2.

Saturday, June 17, Rutgers faced Wisconsin in a second-round winner's bracket matchup before only 955 fans in steady drizzle... Tom Forster pitched a complete-game six-hitter, and Van Cleef went four-for-five with a double and a run scored to pace the Scarlet 5-3 win, and a 2-and-0 record in the tournament..

On Monday, June 19, Rutgers met Washington State in the winner's bracket final... The game was a terrific pitcher's duel between Al Willenbrock for Rutgers and Rod Keogh for the Cougars... Willenbrock gave up an early home run to Ted Tappe of the Cougars, but the Scarlet tied it in the fourth on a triple by Jim Monahan and an infield out... That would prove to be the only hit off Keogh, but he walked eight and was frequently in trouble... In the seventh, Rutgers loaded the bases, with Willenbrock up... without warning, (Rutgers later said it was not a called play), the runner on third tried to steal home and was tagged out... As he broke, the runner on second started toward third, then hesitated, and was eventually run down and tagged out to complete an unusual double play, killing the potential rally... In the top of the ninth, Washington State loaded the bases with no outs... Don Paul grounded sharply to third baseman Steve Kalapos, who threw home for the force there... catcher Hardy Peterson then threw to first to double Paul, and Suba, the first baseman, then spotted Gordon Brunswick, the runner at second, trying to make a surprise dash to home... Suba threw back to Peterson, who tagged Brunswick to complete the triple play... It was the second of three triple plays in the CWS... In the top of the 10th, Washington State finally broke through on an outfield error, hit batter and a two-run double by Terry Carroll to take a 3-1 lead, and Keogh completed his one hitter by retiring the side in the bottom of the 10th... Washington State improved to 3-0, and Rutgers fell to 2-1... Van Cleef, after going seven-for-nine in the first two games was held to 0-for-5...

On Wednesday, June 21, Rutgers came back from its one-hit outing to blow out Wisconsin 16-2...The Scarlet collected 11 hits, including two apiece by four different players, and the Badgers unraveled, committing seven errors... (Van Cleef was 1-for-6)... Herman Hering turned in his second complete game win of the tournament, scattering eight hits, and also contributed a triple and a single to the 11-hit attack... Wisconsin was eliminated at 2-2, and Rutgers joined Texas and Washington State at 3-1 (Texas had beaten the Cougars, 12-1, on Tuesday). Washington State drew the bye into the championship game, and Rutgers faced Texas for the second time, on Thursday, June 22... The Scarlet went with second-round winner Tom Foster, but Texas knocked him out early, scoring three in the second, and five in the fourth on their way to a 15-9 win... Charlie Gorin went the distance for Texas, despite allowing 12 hits and nine runs, as the Longhorns out-hit Rutgers, 15-12...Texas went on to win the title over Washington State the next night, 3-0, while Rutgers finished third at 3-2... finishing the season at 17-4-1...Van Cleef was 2-for-4 in the final game to finish the CWS at .417 on 10-for-24, and was named the Most Outstanding Player.
