KNIGHT NOTES

• No. 24 Rutgers wrestling (8-3, 0-2) returns to Piscataway for weekends matchups with No. 20 Michigan State (7-2, 0-2) on Friday and No. 3 Michigan (7-0, 2-0) on Sunday. Friday's dual against the Spartans is set for a 7 p.m. start, while Sunday's matchup with the Wolverines begins at 2 p.m.

• The Scarlet Knights dropped a pair of road matches to open Big Ten Conference action in their last time out with losses at No. 7 Ohio State (27-12) and RV Indiana (24-16).

• Since its season-opening win over Clarion on Nov. 11, 2022 at the College Ave. Gym, RU has wrestled 10 duals and two tournaments away from campus. Friday night's matchup with Michigan State will be the team's first home event in 70 days. The Scarlet Knights last wrestled at Jersey Mike's Arena on Feb. 19, 2022 - a 21-17 win over Columbia.

• This Sunday's matchup with No. 7 Ohio State began a seven-match swing against ranked opponents to close the dual season. RU will have face three top-10 opponents in that span - No. 1 Penn State, No. 3 Michigan and No. 7 Ohio State.

• Rutgers has seven ranked wrestlers in this weekend's projected lineup, led by No. 11 Dean Peterson (125), No. 14 Brian Soldano (184), No. 17 Joe Heilmann (133) and No. 17 Joseph Olivieri (141). The quartet is a combined 27-4 in duals this season.

• Soldano is 10-1 in dual action during his first collegiate season, which includes eight wins by bonus and four falls.

• Head coach Scott Goodale picked up his 200th career win as a head coach when RU defeated Clarion in its season opener. The program's all-time wins leader, Goodale owns 207 victories during his 16-year tenure "On the Banks."

SOLDANO MAKES AN IMPACT

- Rookie Brian Soldano (184) has made an immediate impact for the Scarlet Knights during his first month of action. The High Point product is 16-4 with 11 of his wins coming by bonus and five by fall.
- Soldano already owns two wins over ranked foes - an 18-3 tech fall over No. 17 Anthony Montalvo (Arizona State) and a 15-5 major decision over No. 22 Will Feldkamp (Clarion).

OLIVIERI GETS HIS SHIRT PULLED

- Joseph Olivieri (141) was pulled out of redshirt for the second consecutive season when he wrestled this past weekend at Indiana & Ohio State. Olivieri made an immediate impact with a 2-1 win over No. 16 Dylan D'Emilio (OSU) and a 15-2 MD over Cayden Rooks (IU).
- Now 10-2 this season, Olivieri was a 2022 NCAA qualifier at 133 pounds.

PINNERS & BONUS

- Rutgers has produced 60 pins this season, including 14 in dual action. Devon Britton leads the team with five falls this season, which includes a third-period fall against Bloomsburg on Jan. 6 in RU's 45-0 dual victory.
- The Scarlet Knights have generated 136 wins by bonus this season. In dual action, Rutgers has produced 15 wins by major, 14 by fall and three by tech fall.
- Brian Soldano leads the team with 11 bonus-point victories this season.

THROWBACK MATCH AT THE BARN

- No. 21 Rutgers wrestling (1-0) delivered a 29-4 win over Clarion (0-1) at the College Ave. Gym to open its season. It marked the 200th career win for head coach Scott Goodale during his tenure 'On the Banks'. The Scarlet Knights used a 9-1 match split, which included bonus-point victories from No. 18/16 Joe Heilmann and Brian Soldano (over No. 22/21 Will Feldkamp).
- The match with the Golden Eagles was the first for the Scarlet Knights at the College Ave. Gym since they defeated Binghamton, 38-0, on Nov. 1, 2015.

TOPS IN ATTENDANCE

- For the sixth consecutive season, Rutgers wrestling finished top five in national attendance for the 2021-22 home dual season. The Scarlet Knights averaged 3,712 fans per home dual this past season, fifth in the country and third in the Big Ten behind Iowa and Penn State.
- A total of 33,409 fans went through the turnstiles at Jersey Mike's Arena in 2021-22 for RU's nine home events, which included a season-best 6,365 fans against Army on December 10, 2021 in Piscataway. The crowd against the Black Knights was the fourth-largest crowd at the venue in program history and the largest since 6,754 fans watched Rutgers versus Iowa on December 8, 2017.

NATIONAL SUCCESS

- Rutgers has qualified five or more student-athletes for the national tournament in eight consecutive seasons.
- The Scarlet Knights' seven NCAA qualifiers last season were their most since 2017.
- The program has produced multiple All-Americans in seven consecutive seasons, as Sebastian Rivera (141) finished third in the country and Greg Bulsak (197) finished eighth at the 2022 NCAA Championships in Detroit.
- Rutgers secured its first top-10 finish at the NCAA Championships in 2019 when it finished ninth, as Anthony Ashnault and Nick Suriano produced the program's first NCAA individual titles.
- Since 2009, Rutgers has earned two top-10 finishes and 10 top-25 finishes in the NWCA Division I Coaches Poll.

POLLARD ELEVATED TO ASSISTANT HEAD COACH

- An influential presence in the Rutgers wrestling room for more than a decade, Joe Pollard has been elevated to assistant coach, announced today by head coach Scott Goodale. Now entering his 12th season with the Scarlet Knights, Pollard has spent the past five seasons as the program's director of operations and has been "On the Banks" since 2011.
- With Pollard on staff, Rutgers has become one of the most recognizable programs in the country, as the Scarlet Knights have produced two individual national champions, five individual conference titles, 17 All-Americans in the past nine seasons and multiple All-Americans at the last six NCAA Championships. Since his first season with RU in 2011-12, Rutgers has earned eight top 25 finishes in the NWCA Division I Coaches Poll.

MYTYCH ADDED AS DIRECTOR OF OPS

- Head coach Scott Goodale announced the hiring of Steven Mytych as Rutgers wrestling's director of operations. Mytych spent the previous two seasons on staff as an assistant coach at Binghamton and has also coached at Bloomsburg and Keystone College.
- Mytych served as an assistant at Binghamton from 2020-22, with eight Bearcats qualifying for nationals during that stretch. In his first season with the Binghamton, Mytych helped Micah Roes (125 pounds) become the third true freshman in program history to qualify for NCAA Championships.

BUXTON ADDED AS VOLUNTEER ASSISTANT

- Jeff Buxton will serve as a volunteer assistant this season. Currently the head coach of the Scarlet Knights Wrestling Club (SKWC), Buxton brings more than 40 years of coaching experience to Goodale's program.
- Prior to his arrival last year with the SKWC, Buxton served as the head coach of the Lehigh Valley Wrestling Club from 2012-21. During his tenure, Buxton was also named the coach of the U.S. Freestyle World Team in 2019, which competed in Nur-Sultan, Kazakhstan.
- Before his tenure at Lehigh Valley, Buxton was one of the nation's top high school coaches at national power Blair Academy from 1982-2012. During his 30 years at the helm of Blair, Buxton captured 30 National Prep team titles. His wrestlers went on to win 12 national titles and earn 41 All-America laurels.

RUTGERS ADDS GRAD TRANSER, NJ NATIVE HEILMANN

- NCAA qualifier and former New Jersey high school standout Joe Heilmann has enrolled at Rutgers and will compete for wrestling beginning this fall. Heilmann spent his first four seasons at North Carolina and will have two years of eligibility remaining as he pursues his master's degree 'On the Banks'.
- A native of South Plainfield, Heilmann collected 37 varsity wins for the Tar Heels during his time in Chapel Hill, which included a 20-6 record last season. Heilmann finished the 2021-22 campaign with a 6-2 mark in ACC dual action and qualified for the 2022 NCAA Wrestling Championships in Detroit.
