SERIES PREVIEW

Rutgers baseball will play its final nonconference series of this season this weekend, heading up to Storrs to take on former Big East rival UConn in a three-game set.

The Huskies are 13-5 and are coming off a midweek win over UMass after taking 3-of-4 last weekend at San Diego State.

Rutgers swept a pair of midweek games against Lafayette and Rider and took 2-of-3 from Mercer last weekend. The Scarlet Knights have won nine of their last 10 games.

RU will go with the same rotation as last week, with RU will run back the same rotation for the third straight week, with Drew Conover starting game one on Friday, true freshman Christian Coppola starting game two and Jake Marshall starting on Sunday.

All three games of the series will be broadcast on UConn+ through uconn-huskies.com.

Fans can also follow along on Twitter (@RutgersBaseball) for live updates. Live stats will be available at go.rutgers.edu/LiveStats for all three games.

BIO

Why Rutgers? "I have heard many great things about the Rutgers program. Growing up in New England, I was familiar with the coaching staff and their successes when they coached at Bryant. Also, I had heard from players on the team that they love what the team stands for and how they compete day in and day out. Aside from baseball, the academics will provide me with what I need to do well in the future."

Prior to College: Earned varsity letters in baseball, football and hockey at Belmont Hill ... a three-time First Team All-Independent School League selection in baseball ... helped BHS win the 2019 Independent School Championship and was named the team's MVP ... the No. 1 overall high school player in Massachusetts according to Perfect Game ... also rated as the 32nd-best outfielder nationally by Perfect Game ... won the Johnny Pesky Teammate Award in 2016 ... named to the USA Today All USA Massachusetts Baseball and the Northeast Region All-High School Senior first teams ... played travel baseball for the New England Ruffnecks and Sticks Baseball ... maintained honors throughout high school including high honors as a senior ... recipient of the BHS Merit Award.

Personal: Son of Debra and Peter Sleight ... has an older sister, Fiona.

BIO

Why Rutgers? "I chose Rutgers for their world-renowned academics and big campus. I also knew that I wanted to play baseball at a Division I school, and Rutgers has been building an amazing program under Coach Owens. Another consideration was that it is close to family and friends."

Head Coach Steve Owens: "Andrew is a starting pitcher with a solid three-pitch mix. He competes at a very high level and wins. With his high-level commitment to training in the offseason, we expect his senior year to be outstanding."

Prior to Rutgers: Named a 2021 Pre-season Underclass All-American by Perfect Game ... transferred to St. Joseph's (Metuchen) as a junior and earned 2021 Home News Tribune Player of the Year ... also won GMC "Cy Young" Pitcher of the Year ... named first team all-state non-public, first team all-area, all-conference and all-division ... a GMC Quad Country All-Star ... compiled a 7-0 record with a 0.51 ERA with only three runs allowed in 41.1 innings ... played at Watchung Hills Regional High School as a freshman, with sophomore year canceled due to COVID-19 pandemic ... played travel baseball with Upper Deck Elite, Farrah Scout and Wladyka Baseball ... competed for Team USA in the LABC Tournament in the Dominican Republic in 2019 and named most valuable pitcher.

Personal: Son of Jill and Ron Goldan ... father played tennis at the University of Miami and Drew University ... has an older brother, Matthew ... intends to major in exercise science.

BIO

Why Rutgers? "I chose Rutgers because it is a highly-recognized university that provides a quality education. I was looking to be part of a growing, competitive Division I program that would give me the opportunity to make an impact right away. Rutgers is close to home so my family will be able to come to watch me play. My family has a strong connection to Rutgers, as we have had five members of our family graduate from Rutgers and my brother is currently a student at Rutgers."

Prior to Rutgers: Played four seasons of varsity baseball at Metuchen ... ranked a top 500 player nationally by Perfect Game ... selected to the 2020 Perfect Game Underclassmen All-America First Team Northeast Region, to the Perfect Game Mid-Atlantic World Series All-Tournament Team and to the Mid-Atlantic Elite Fall Championship All-Tournament Team ... named 2020 GMC Preseason All-Blue Division ... played in the 2019 GMC Underclassmen All-Star Game after earning GMC All-Blue Division ... an honorable mention to the 2019 Perfect Game Underclassmen All-Tournament Team ... earned top fast-ball velocity and top outfield velocity at the 2018 Mid-Atlantic Prospect Showcase ... played travel baseball for Full Count since 2012 ... also played basketball as a freshman.

Personal: Son of Justine and Richard Rowe ... has an older brother, Zachary.

Why Rutgers? "I chose Rutgers because it has a great academic standard and also provides a great opportunity to excel athletically."

Head Coach Steve Owens: "Jake has put together an impressive season of work so far. When he entered the portal, we were able to evaluate him as a starting pitcher against very good competition in the NECBL. He is a talented pitcher with a three-pitch mix who gets a ton of ground balls on his fastball. He fields his position well, controls the running game and has a mature approach to his work. We are excited to have him with us to help the team and we look forward to assisting him with his individual goals."

Personal: 2019 graduate of C.W. Baker High School in New York, where he was a member of the National Honor Society... son of Timothy and Patricia Marshall... Has one brother, Timmy, and one sister, Morgan ... intends to major in human resource management in the School of Management and Labor Relations.

Why Rutgers? "I chose Rutgers University because of their prestigious academic reputation, along with the incredible coaching staff, who have a history of winning."

Head Coach Steve Owens: "Grant will be an outstanding addition to our bullpen next year. He has a ton of successful experience and displays high-level maturity in tough situations. He works quick and attacks hitters with a steady mix that allows him to pitch multiple innings against all types of hitters. He is excited about coming to Rutgers and having the opportunity to pitch in the Big Ten. We are equally excited for his arrival and look forward to his contributions on and off the field."

Prior to College: Played baseball, football and basketball at South Adams ... earned all-state in baseball two times and first-team all-conference four times ... recorded 130 strikeouts in 54 innings as a senior with a 0.77 ERA ... overall, fanned 451 in 241 innings with a 1.27 ERA in high school ... played travel baseball for the Summit City Sluggers (Fort Wayne, Indiana).

Why Rutgers? "I chose Rutgers because I am from New Jersey and playing for my home state means a lot to me and my family. Also, the combination of great academics and competing at a high level of athletics is awesome."

Head coach Steve Owens: "We are very pleased that Danny will be joining our program in the Fall. He is an accomplished hitter who had a breakout season in 2022 with his offensive productivity. Danny hits for both power and average and will be a great addition to our position player group. Another NJ product, we welcome him back home to compete for his home state in the Big Ten Conference. We look forward to working with him to continue his development and feel he will fit in great with our current players and established culture."

Personal: Son of Brian and Stacey Melnick ... has one sister, Samantha ... intends to major in marketing.

Why Rutgers? "I chose Rutgers because it's close to home and having the comfort of knowing that my family is just a short distance away. Rutgers also drew my interest because it's known to be a strong academic institution with a diverse student population."

Head Coach Steve Owens: "Isaiah emerged on our staff's radar after excelling in several tournaments we watched virtually during the initial COVID shutdown. He showed an advanced skill set in showcase settings and also performed very well in the games. Isaiah has a polished swing and hits for both average and power. Defensively, he plays well at both first and third base and provides us the flexibility to play either or both going forward. He will be a perfect fit in our school and program."

BIO

Why Rutgers? "I chose Rutgers because they have great academics. Rutgers is very close to my family and friends, so they could come watch me play. The program they are building here is amazing. Coach Owens, Coach Monaghan and the rest of staff are great at developing players and young men."

Head Coach Steve Owens: "JT is a strong, polished left-handed pitcher with very good stuff. With continued development, he will have an opportunity to compete for a starting pitcher role early in his career."

Prior to Rutgers: A four-year varsity player at Colonia ... earned first team all-conference, first team all-division in 2021 ... added Home News Tribune Second Team ... played travel baseball for East Coast Ghost for three years ... named top-500 player and No. 32 in New Jersey by Perfect Game ... also plays high school basketball ... won the state championship as a freshman and county title as a junior.

Personal: Son of Amy and Joe Kroner ... mother played college softball at Husson College ... has a younger brother, Colin ... intends to major in exercise science.

BIO

Head Coach Steve Owens: "A tall lanky left-handed pitcher who has recently made a huge jump in both velocity and quality of pitches. He has a very nice delivery and we are excited that he can develop into a power-type starting pitcher with his size and athletic actions. There is huge potential here for Justin to become a difference maker for us."

Prior to Rutgers: A three-year varsity baseball letterwinner at Bridgewater-Raritan ... named Second Team All-Skyland Conference ... played travel baseball for Go Yard and Zoned Sports Academy ... a member of the honor roll.

Personal: Son of Paula and Salvatore Sinibaldi ... has an older sister, Gabrielle.

BIO

Why Rutgers? "I chose Rutgers because it allowed me the opportunity to play for my home state and go to a strong academic school. Given both my parents went to school at Rutgers and were athletes, I was very familiar with the university. I also chose Rutgers because the coaches prepare us to win and care about player development."

Prior to College: Started at North Hunterdon High School before finishing his prep career at Voorhees High School ... Struck out 38 batters in 41 innings as a junior in 2018 ... Racked up 56 strikeouts in 30.1 innings as a senior ... All-State selection in 2020 ... Played with Diamond Jacks ... Also an all-state football player.

Personal: Son of Kevin Conover and Beth Starr ... both parents are former Rutgers athletes ... father Kevin was left-handed pitcher for baseball team under Fred Hill and was drafted by the Chicago White Sox in 1989 ... mother Beth Starr ran track and field/cross country ... has one brother, Kyle ... intends to major in Criminal Justice.

Head Coach Steve Owens: "Drew will be a huge addition to our pitching staff for next year. He has three very good swing-and-miss pitches from a unique arm slot. He has shown tremendous improvement and will get great experience in the Cape this summer. He has the size and athleticism to not only be an impact arm in the Big Ten, but also pitch professionally."

Why Rutgers? "I chose Rutgers to be a part of a growing winning tradition and be close to home."

Head Coach Steve Owens: "Gavin was a highly recruited and very successful NJ pitcher who we welcome back home. We are excited for him to have a fresh opportunity to compete for innings and a role on a staff that lost 3 starters. He has gained valuable experience over the past 2 years and has pitched in high leverage situations against quality opponents. We are confident that he will continue to work hard and will impact our team positively."

Maryland

Struck out three against Siena in 1 inning pitched (3/20) ... struck out one and gave up an unearned run against Ohio State (4/17) ... gave up two hits and struck out one in 2.0 innings against Indiana in the Big Ten Tournament (5/28) ... struck out two in an inning of work against UConn in the College Park Regional (6/6).

2021 (Freshman)

Made four appearances out of the bullpen ... made his collegiate debut against Rutgers (3/13) ... struck out one at Nebraska (4/11) ... tossed 0.2 of an inning against Minnesota (4/30) ... tossed a scoreless inning and struck out two at No. 24 Michigan (5/22).

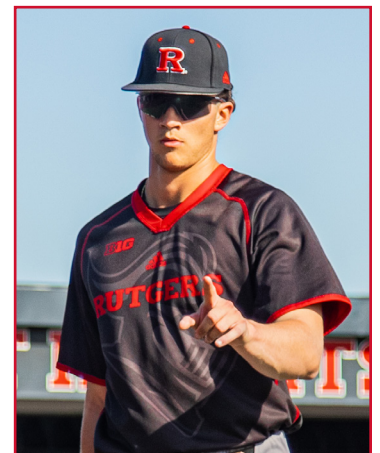

Prior to College: Starred at Somerville HS ... helped the Pioneers to a state championship and 20-5 record in 2018 and a 18-6 record in 2019 ... ranked the No. 18 right-handed pitching prospect in the state of New Jersey per Perfect Game ... also played travel ball for the Diamond Jacks.

Why Rutgers? "The coaching staff really made me feel welcome and this was the best way I could represent New Jersey in the Big Ten."

Head Coach Steve Owens: "John is a very talented player who has two years of experience pitching in meaningful games in the Big Ten conference. He has the physical size, arm strength, experience and maturity to continue his development as a starter. We welcome him to our program and are very excited about the immediate and future impact his addition will have on our success."

Prior to College: Played for head coach Mike Rooney at Don Bosco Prep High School, where he was a four-year letterwinner ... Rated the No. 70 prospect in New Jersey and the No. 25 right-handed pitcher in the state ... Named team captain and team MVP as a senior ... Garnered all-county and all-league as a senior ... Also lettered twice in bowling ... Finished high school with a 4.20 GPA ... Part of the National Honor Society and Spanish Honor Society ... Logged 120 hours of community service in high school.

Personal: Son of Sandra and Vito Modugno ... Has one brother, Andre, and one sister, Carina ... Intends to major in biology.
