OLYMPIC SPORTS HALL OF FAME

Heidi Faith - Induction Class of 2002

A native of Princeton, N.J., Faith was inducted into the Rutgers Olympic Sports Hall of Fame in 2002. Faith holds two RU single-game records -- goals (six) and points (12). She achieved both milestones as a senior in 1976. In 1973, she was named to the New Atlantic All-Conference First Team and repeated the feat in 1975. After her career at Rutgers, Faith went on to earn a bronze medal at the U.S. Olympic Sports Festival in 1981 as a member of the U.S. National Team.

Heather Jones - Induction Class of 2000

One of the most decorated field hockey players in Rutgers history, Jones was inducted into the Olympic Sports Hall of Fame in 2000. Jones capped her career off in 1993 by setting the school single-season records for goals (28) and points (59). Her 59 points were also an Atlantic-10 record. For her efforts, she was named to the 1993 CFHCA All-America Team and was a two-time Regional All-America selection (1991 and 1993). The Atlantic-10 Freshman of the Year in 1990, Jones was voted RU's Best Offensive Player in 1993 and the team's Most Valuable Player in 1991 and 1993. During her senior season, Jones led RU to a 14-8 record and the school's first-ever Atlantic 10 Tournament victory (5-0 over Rhode Island). To cap her playing career, Jones was selected to play in the North/South All-Star Game in 1993.

Elizabeth Ferrara - Induction Class of 1998

A Collingswood, N.J., native, Ferrara entered the Rutgers Olympic Sports Hall of Fame in 1998. Her stellar career concluded in 1984 when she was the Rutgers Player of the Year and led the Scarlet Knights to the NCAA Tournament Elite Eight and a 15-4-4 record. As a standout goalkeeper, Ferrara set the school record with 13 shutouts and an .886 save percentage, which ranked ninth nationally all time. For her efforts as a senior, Ferrara was a CFHCA Regional All-American and Mitchell & Ness Mid-East selection. In 1980, Ferrara was a member of the United States 21 & Under National Team.

Renee Clarke - Induction Class of 1994

Renee Clarke became a member of the Rutgers Olympic Sports Hall of Fame in 1994 after establishing herself as one of the greatest goalkeepers in school history. The Hatboro, PA, native played from 1984-88 and helped Rutgers advance to the NCAA Tournament Elite Eight in 1986. For her efforts, she was named Rutgers' Best Defensive Player and the squad's Player of the Year. During the 1987 season, she set a school record by stopping 29 shots in a game and 289 for the season. Clarke graduated as the school's all-time leader in saves (634) and ranked nationally in career save percentage (12th, .882), career saves (29th, 634) and single-season saves (13th, 289). Prior to her graduation in 1988, Clarke received the Headley-Singer Award as RU's top graduating female athlete.

Elizabeth McGuire - Induction Class of 1994

A two-time team Most Valuable Player, McGuire has the rare distinction of being a member of the Rutgers Olympic Sports Hall of Fame and having her jersey number (No. 4) retired. McGuire was a Scarlet Knight from 1980-84 and her career was highlighted by earning team MVP honors in 1982 and 1984. In 1984, she was a key member of RU's NCAA Tournament Elite Eight team that finished 15-4-4. That fall, she also was a CFHCA regional All-American and honorable mention All-American. McGuire also received the Headley-Singer Award as RU's top graduating female athlete in 1985 for her stellar senior season. A member of the U.S. National Team in 1984, McGuire participated in the 1982 National Sports Festival and the 1984 Pikes Peak Festival.
