KNIGHT NOTES

• No. 13 Rutgers wrestling (9-1, 2-0) brings its seven-match win streak on the road with duals at RV Michigan State (7-1, 0-1) on Friday in East Lansing and at No. 11 Michigan (4-1, 2-0) on Sunday in Ann Arbor.

• A win over Michigan State on Friday would move Rutgers to 3-0 in the Big Ten, something the Scarlet Knights have never accomplished since joining the league in 2014-15. A win Sunday over Michigan would be the first for Rutgers in program history.

• RU opened its Big Ten schedule with dominant victories over No. 21 Indiana and Purdue last weekend in its last time out. Rutgers worked a 7-3 match split with five wins via bonus in its 30-11 win over the Hoosiers before it followed with a 26-13 win over the Boilermakers on Sunday in West Lafayette.

• With his 2-0 weekend, Jackson Turley (174) was named Big Ten Co-Wrestler of the Week. It is the first weekly laurel for Turley and the third for Rutgers this campaign – setting a program record for most weekly Big Ten awards in a single season.

• Rutgers moved up one spot to No. 13 in this week's NWCA Coaches Poll. The Scarlet Knights are one of eight Big Ten programs ranked this week, which includes No. 1 Penn State, No. 3 Iowa, No. 6 Nebraska, No. 7 Ohio State, No. 9 Minnesota, No. 11 Michigan and No. 22 Wisconsin.

• Four Scarlet Knights – No. 7 Yaraslau Slavikouski (HWT), No. 8 Dylan Shawver (133), No. 9 John Poznanski (197), and No. 11 Mitch Moore (141) – are ranked within the top 12 of their respective weight classes.

Slavikouski earned the No. 10 seed at the 2020 NCAA Championships.

POZNANSKI, SHAWVER RETURN FROM INJURIES

- Veterans Dylan Shawver (133) and John Poznanski (1897) both return to the lineup after missing the majority of last season due to injuries.
- Poznanski is a two-time NCAA qualifier and finished fourth in the country as a true freshman competing at 184 pounds during the 2021 campaign. Shawver wrestled at the 2022 NCAA Championships in Detroit.
