STRENGTH OF SCHEDULE

Rutgers has the toughest conference strength of schedule in the Big Ten, per KenPom. The Scarlet Knights play the top three teams in the league twice.

JEREMIAH WILLIAMS RETURNS

Jeremiah Williams has been a catalyst since his debut. Williams made his Scarlet Knights debut on February 3, following a 709 day wait between games due to injury and NCAA eligibility. Williams, who has been practicing with the team since the beginning of the season, made an immediate impact as a starter. He was named the Big Ten Player of the Week after averaging 16.0 points, 5.0 rebounds and 4.0 assists over the two wins against Maryland and Wisconsin, the fourth Scarlet Knight ever to be named Big Ten POW.

Williams has scored in double-figures in five of his seven games. In his short time on floor he is the team's current leader in scoring average (12.9 ppg) with 27 assists and 4.1 rebounds per game. He is also shooting 87.5% from the free throw line (21-of-24).

OMORUYI WITH THE SWAT

Senior center Cliff Omoruyi had been one of the top shot blockers in the nation this season. He has 87 rejections this season, which stands second in the nation in total and second in the country in per game average. He is first in the Big Ten in blocks per game (3.11 blocks per game). Omoruyi has 22 more blocks than the second-most in the league (Felix Okpara, 65). In conference play alone, Omoruyi has a league best 54 blocks (3.2 per game), and is 11 ahead of Okpara.

Omoruyi has had multiple blocks in 22 of the 28 games this season, five games of at least five blocks, has 10 games of at least four blocks, and three games of at least seven blocks (seven blocks versus Seton Hall, eight blocks versus Illinois and Wisconsin). Omoruyi, who had 72 blocks last season (12th all-time at RU in a single season), is sixth all-time at RU in career blocks (215) and is currently 7th on the single-season blocks list for this year. He became the first Scarlet Knight with consecutive seasons of 60+ blocks since Hamady Ndiaye (2008-09 and 2009-10). He is one of 15 finalists for the Naismith Defensive Player of the Year Award.

MAWOT MAG EXCELLING IN RETURN

Senior Mawot Mag saw his excellent 2022-23 season ended early last season, as he suffered a torn ACL in February. He returned this season on December 9 and has found his footing of late, with 9 double-digit scoring performances, including career-highs in his first ever double-double at Iowa (24 points, 10 rebounds). He's averaging a career-best 9.1 points per game, with back-to-back 15 point games for the first time in his career.

STRONG ON 'D'

Rutgers has continued to play the stout defense that head coach Steve Pikiell's teams have been known for. Per KenPom, RU is third nationally and first in the Big Ten Conference in adjusted defensive efficiency (91.7), third in non-steal turnover percentage (10.7), fourth in block percentage (15.7), and also in the top-35 in turnover percentage and effective field goal percentage. In the NCAA stats, Rutgers is 10th in blocks per game and 19th in FG % defense.

KNIGHTS OF HONOR

Rutgers established "The Knights of Honor" to recognize the best Scarlet Knights men's basketball players in the program's history. Former guard Mike Dabney, forward Hollis Copeland and guard Eddie Jordan were inducted into the inaugural class in a halftime ceremony during the Jan. 28 Purdue game.

RIP PHIL SELLERS

The Rutgers men's basketball family mourns the loss of Scarlet Knights legend Phil Sellers, who passed away at the age of 69 years old in September. Sellers is Rutgers' all-time scoring and rebounding leader with 2,399 points and 1,115 rebounds and was the leader of the 1975-76 Final Four team. The team is wearing a jersey patch reading "PS - 12" for his jersey number in his memory.

INTERNATIONAL TOUR

Rutgers men's basketball had the opportunity to take a foreign tour this summer, travelling to Senegal and Portugal. During the trip, the team had the opportunity to bond and play against international competition.

In Portugal, the team took in the sights of Lisbon, including a bike tour and kayaking tour in Algarve, and took a catamaran tour departing from Albufeira Marina and sailed from Algarve to Senhora da Rocha. In Senegal, the team went on a safari at the Bandia Reserve, rode camels on Pink Lake, hosted a local basketball clinic and visited the historic Goree Island, known for its role in the Atlantic slave trade.

About Rutgers

The Scarlet Knights are coming off of a great team effort in a 30-point win over Michigan on Thursday night. 10 players had an assist in the game, en route to 17 helpers total, third most in a game this season. Rutgers made 33 field goals overall, tied for most in a game this season.

Cliff Omoruyi had his ninth double-double of the season against the Wolverines with 19 points and 15 rebounds. The Scarlet Knights are now 9-0 this season when Cliff has a double-double. Omoruyi, a leading candidate for Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year, increased his block total to 87 rejections. He is 22 blocks ahead of the second-place blocker in the league. Omoruyi is six blocks away from recording the most blocks in the Big Ten since 2018. He is just the fourth Big Ten player to reach 85+ blocks in a season since 2009.

The Scarlet Knights took advantage of a 46-18 margin in points in the paint and 18-3 in fast break points. Rutgers shot its best field goal percentage in a Big Ten game this season, while holding Michigan to a season-low in points.

Jeremiah Williams posted 19 points in the game as well. His 12.9 points per game through eight contests lead the team.

Guard Noah Fernandes has sparked the team with his outside shooting. He is 10-of-14 behind the three-point line over his last six games.

Milestone Tracker

Cliff Omoruyi is two field goals away from 500 makes for his Scarlet Knight career. He will become the 18th RU player all-time with 500 field goals. Omoruyi has 1,226 points, five away from tying Kevin Black for 23rd all-time at RU and 19 away from 22nd place (Bucky Hatchett). Omoruyi needs six blocks to tie for 6th most in a single-season by a RU player. He has 85 blocks on the season, seventh-most in a season in RU history. He needs eight more blocks to tie for sixth. Omoruyi is the ninth Big Ten player since 2000 to reach 210 career blocks, and 17th on the all-time Big Ten blocks list.

NLI SIGNEES

Ace Bailey, Bryce Dortch, Dylan Grant and Lathan Sommerville Sign with RU in heralded 2024 incoming class

ACE BAILEY

The 6-foot-8 185-pound forward is ranked as high as the No. 2 player in the entire 2024 high school class and is set to go down as the highest recruit in the University's history. Bailey is the best player in the 2024 class out of the state of Georgia. Bailey is the highest-ranked recruit in the Pikiell era and officially tops Mike Rosario (No. 16) as the top recruit in school history. Current Scarlet Knights guard Jamichael Davis goes back to childhood with Bailey and the two played together alongside each other in high school at McEachern and AAU at Athletes of Tomorrow. Their McEachern High School team finished 23-7 last season and 8-0 in their region, which was good for first place and was one of the best teams in the state. Bailey's decision to join RU was a top-12 that consisted of Tennessee, Auburn, Georgia, Kentucky, Alabama, Memphis, Oregon, Arkansas, Kansas, West Virginia, and South Carolina before choosing Rutgers.

"Ace has the quickest feet that I've seen in high school basketball in a very long time. He has a competitive spirit and an energy about him that is going to make him truly one of the all-time great Scarlet Knights."

- Steve Pikiell

BRYCE DORTCH

Dortch is a 6-foot-8, 190-pound forward from Chestnut Hill, Massachusetts. Dortch is ranked 144th nationally by 24/7Sports and the 32nd-best forward in the nation. On3.com ranks Dortch as the 52nd-best forward and the 6th-best player out of Massachusetts. Rivals ranked Dortch as 41st at his position.

"Bryce Dortch is a unique player from a terrific basketball program. He was well-coached in a terrific AAU program. He's versatile and reminds me of Caleb McConnell in some ways defensively. He can guard multiple positions. He's a terrific ball-handler for his height. He's competitive, comes from a great family, and is a great student. He has all the things you look for."

- Steve Pikiell

DYLAN GRANT

Grant is a 6-foot-7, 205-pound forward from Mississauga, Canada. Grant moved to Warren, Michigan to compete at the high school level. Grant quickly became one of the best players in the state of Michigan at Michigan Collegiate High School and is currently ranked as the No. 1 player in all of Michigan in the class according to On3.com.

"We're really excited about Dylan Grant. First and foremost, we are getting a wonderful young man from a great family. He's an athlete, a rebounder, an inside-outside scorer, and the ultimate defender of all five positions. Rutgers fans are going to love him and most of all they are going to love his energy."

- Steve Pikiell

LATHAN SOMMERVILLE

Sommerville developed into one of the best high school big men in the country at The Skill Factory in Atlanta Georgia. He is ranked as high as No. 87 nationally in the country by ESPN and is ranked the No. 3 player in Illinois by 247Sports. ESPN ranks Sommerville as the tenth-best center in the nation. He is ranked a top-115 player in the nation.

He has a great personality and he's improved every time I see him. He has an inside-outside presence. He is a player that can play multiple positions. He can rebound and pass as well as any player in the nation at his position. I know he's going to have a great career and we're really excited about how good he is going to become. We're so excited to add Lathan to the RU family."

- Steve Pikiell

FUTURE KNIGHTS SHINE AT THE BATTLE

A pair of future Scarlet Knights showed out at Jersey Mike's Arena in front of a RU-crowd.

Center Lathan Sommerville (Richwoods High School) and forward Ace Bailey (MacEachern High School) combined for 68 points, 29 rebounds and two victories in Piscataway in their respective games in The Battle for New Jersey Showcase.

Sommerville, the six-foot-nine center kicked off the day for Richwoods High School with 28 points, eight rebounds, four blocks, and three assists in the 81-71 victory over College Achieve (Asbury Park, N.J.). Sommerville had both of his parents, some future teammates from the 2023-24 Rutgers men's basketball squad, and more in attendance.

"It meant a lot," Sommerville said. "It felt amazing to play in front of my family and some future teammates. Just to get out there and play with my team meant a lot."

Sommerville shot 10-15 from the field, made three of five three-point attempts, and flashed some elite ball-handling for a 225-pound player in transition. The Peoria, Ill. native broke down a defender on a crossover and finished at the basket for a highlight reel play.

"I shot the ball well, especially in the first half and then I slowed down a little bit," Sommerville said. "I got a little frustrated with the calls, but then once I started moving on, it got better. The shots started falling again, and we ended up winning the game."

Bailey followed up that elite performance with one of his own. The Chattanooga, Tenn. native scored a game-high 40 points and collected 21 rebounds in MacEachern's blowout victory over Camden.

Bailey's performance led to the crowd of over 4,000 chanting "R-U" and he received a standing ovation as he stood at midcourt.

"It felt great to have them watching me," Bailey said. "Just me coming out here and doing what I'm doing and feeling their energy. Playing with Lathan Sommerville and the rest of that crew will be dope. It's going to be crazy, we're going to try to bring us a national championship."

Bailey didn't waste any time getting acquainted with his future home. The 6-foot-10 forward rushed to the hoop and his first basketball was an emphatic slam dunk.

"I thought my first basketball was going to be a three," Bailey laughed. "But when I got there, I knew it would be a good night. I made that going to the hole and then I knew it was going to be a good night."

It was a good night indeed and Bailey flashed phenomenal rebounding-ability, long-range shooting from the Jersey Mike's Arena logo, and energy that ignited all of the crowd in attendance.

Bailey said it meant the world to him to put on a show for Rutgers Nation and was especially excited to play in front of his childhood friend and high school teammate, Jamichael Davis, current point guard for RU. Bailey had his entire family at the game, his AAU coaches, and even former Rutgers great Ron Harper Jr. in attendance.

"Since I saw I was playing in Jersey, I just knew I had to put on a show for the people man," Bailey said. "I had to. It's a blessing just to come out here and play in front of a crowd like this. J-Mike coming to watch me play and me coming to watch him tomorrow just feels great man it's a family thing."

Both Bailey and Sommerville signed their National Letters of Intent during the early signing period and join forward Dylan Grant and forward Bryce Dortch as official members of the 2024-25 class.
