Jersey Mike's Arena is the home of the Rutgers men's and women's basketball programs, as well as the host for wrestling, gymnastics and various events. Opened in 1977, Jersey Mike's Arena is one of the great venues in the nation to watch college basketball. The fans are right on top of the action. It's also the perfect-sized venue to see a game. This 8,000 seat arena has been dubbed, "louder than a 757 from nearby Newark." Jersey Mike's Arena is one of the toughest college basketball venues in the nation for opponents.

Since 2010, the Scarlet Knights have played on a Robbins MVP permanent hardwood and ample floor and in 2013 a brand new state-of-the-art Daktronics scoreboard featuring high definition video along with two new auxiliary scoreboards and sound system were installed.

Since its inception in 1896, the pursuit and a attainment of academic excellence has been a priority for every Big Ten member institution. But maintaining the conference's standard of competing at the highest level in athletics also endures as an important component of the Big Ten experience.

Striking that balance between academics and athletics is integral to the Big Ten's identity. Recognized as one of intercollegiate sports' most successful undertakings, the Big Ten strives for success from its students not only on the field and in the classroom, but around the world.

- Rutgers is in THE WORLD'S NO. 1 MEDIA MARKET, New York, which grants access to 22 MILLION VIEWERS ON GAMEDAY.
- The Big Ten has completed a new seven-year media rights agreement with Fox, CBS and NBC that is set to bring in more than $7 billion to one of the nation's most powerful athletic conferences, the Big Ten.
- BTN is in MORE THAN 60 MILLION HOMES across the United States and Canada.
- RVision, the video arm of Rutgers Athletics, produces live events and uploads news packages, highlights, press conferences and interviews to the web.

ACADEMICS

Rutgers offers more than 100 majors through its undergraduate colleges and professional schools and more than 4,000 undergraduate courses.

LOCATION

At the center of the Boston to Washington, D.C. corridor, Rutgers-New Brunswick is approximately a half-hour drive from New York City and is close to numerous beaches and ski resorts.

CAMPUS

Rutgers is a community of five campuses that offers student-athletes the opportunity to take advantage of both open space and a bustling downtown. It's as big, or as small, as you want it to be.

The Office of Academic Support Services for Student Athletes (ASSSA) is dedicated to assisting students to persist through the dual pressure of being a student at an AAU institution and a Division I student-athlete competing at the highest level of amateur sports.

COQUESE WASHINGTON

HEAD COACH

4TH SEASON AT RUTGERS/16TH SEASON OVERALL

Coquese Washington was named the third full-time head coach in the history of Rutgers women's basketball on May 23, 2022. A three-time Big Ten Coach of the Year during her 12-year tenure at Penn State, Washington (first name pronounced ko-KWEES) arrived "On the Banks" with extensive experience program building and coaching championship-caliber basketball.

During her third and most recent season at the helm of the Scarlet Knights, Washington brought the team back to the postseason for the first time in 2021, with the program's third appearance in the WNIT.

Destiny Adams ended her collegiate career with a historic season, helping the team advance to the WNIT Great 8 with the program's seventh triple-double and first since 2020. Adams was also named to the Big Ten Second Team, USBWA Ann Meyers Drysdale Award Midseason Watch List selection, All-ECAC Second Team and First Team All-MET.

Rutgers continued to grow under Washington in her second slate on the sidelines. The team celebrated its 50th season in program history, highlighting historic moments, players and coaches throughout the year, which culminated in a grand celebration for Alumni Weekend. RU also inducted its inaugural Knights of Honor class in the 1982, 2000 and 2007 teams with banner is Jersey Mike's Arena.

The squad earned its sixth advance sellout in program history and first since 2006, against Iowa, which became the most attended basketball game between men's and women's contests of the entire 2023-24 campaign.

Adams had a breakout year in her first campaign "On The Banks" under Washington. The transfer led active players on the team in multiple statistical categories while also ranking top-5 in the conference. She earned All-Big Ten Second Team (Coaches) honors and an Honorable Mention (Media). In addition, Adams set the Big Ten Tournament single game rebounding record with 24 boards in the opening round.

In her first season as head coach, Washington set a solid foundation for the team. She guided the program to its 1,000th win in program history with a road victory over Minnesota (Jan. 12), becoming just the 22nd Division

I team and the third squad in the Big Ten to reach the milestone. In the same game against the Gophers, Washington also picked up her 100th Big Ten win.

Washington aided freshman guard Kaylene Smikle in chasing greatness, as she was named to the All-Big Ten Second Team (Media & Coaches) and the Big Ten All-Freshman team (Media & Coaches). The guard also collected three Big Ten Freshman of the Week honors, the most in program history. Under Washington's direction, Smikle became Rutgers' all-time leading freshman scorer, ending the season with 573 points to best the previous high of 536 points. She is the third freshman in program history to amass 500+ points.

Smikle paced the team with 17.9 points per game in addition to averaging 19.5 points in Big Ten play. She was the only Scarlet Knight to net 20+ points in a game during the season and accomplished the feat 15 times, including versus 12 Big Ten opponents, leading all freshmen in reaching double-digit scoring. The Farmingdale, New York product also paced the team with 56 three-pointers and 69 steals to rank top-10 in the conference in both categories.

Washington also saw Chyna Cornwell named an All-Big Ten Honorable Mention (Media) as well as earning the Big Ten Sportsmanship Award. In a breakout season, Cornwell paced RU with nine double-doubles, including four in Big Ten play.

Before settling "On The Banks" Washington spent two seasons at Notre Dame, marking her second coaching stint in South Bend after serving as assistant coach for her alma mater from 1999-2007. She earned her first head coaching position at Penn State, where she became the first female African American head coach in the school's history and went on to lead the Lady Lions to three Big Ten titles and four NCAA Tournaments. Washington also spent the 2019-20 season as associate head coach at Oklahoma.

During her most recent two seasons at Notre Dame, the Fighting Irish returned to the national scene with an appearance in the NCAA Sweet 16 in 2022. The Sweet 16 run marked Washington's 10th season on the sidelines in South Bend following an eight-year stint as an assistant under Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame inductee Muffet McGraw, highlighted by eight consecutive NCAA Tournaments, four NCAA Sweet 16 appearances, and the 2001 NCAA Championship.

The Washington era at Rutgers signals the head coach's return to the Big Ten. From 2012-14, the Lady Lions claimed three consecutive Big Ten regular-season titles, becoming one of four programs in conference history to win three or more regular-season crowns in a row. She guided Penn State to Sweet 16 appearances in 2012 and 2014 while developing 17 players to All-Big Ten status on 32 separate occasions.

Washington earned Big Ten Coach of the Year honors three times (2012-14), WBCA Regional Coach of the Year twice (2012, 2013), and was named a finalist for WBCA National Coach of the Year two times (2012, 2013). She was also selected as the 2011 and 2014 Black Coaches Association (BCA) Female Coach of the Year.

Her programs' success has mirrored her prowess on the recruiting trail, where she signed 12 top-25 recruiting classes throughout her coaching career at Notre Dame and Penn State. After recruitment came development as Washington mentored six All-Americans and 13 future WNBA professionals. During her tenure at Notre Dame, Washington was directly responsible for developing three All-Americans and two Frances Pomeroy Naismith Award winners - Niele Ivey (current Notre Dame head coach) and Megan Duffy (current Marquette University head coach). Washington also worked with Alicia Ratay, who is the NCAA's career three-point field goal percentage leader.

A student of the game, Washington enjoyed success in the college ranks and later as a professional in the WNBA. During her time in an Irish uniform, Washington rewrote the record books with 554 career assists (seventh all-time) and 307 career steals (third all-time). Her 2.7 steals-per-game career average still holds the top spot in South Bend. Washington was just as impressive in the classroom, earning her undergraduate degree in just three years and, later, earning a juris doctorate from Notre Dame Law School in 1997 to become a "Double-Domer."

Washington then played six seasons in the WNBA and won a WNBA title with the Houston Comets in 2000. She followed the Comets' championship season with another strong campaign in 2001, ranking among the Top 10 in the WNBA in assists (ninth) and steals (fourth) as the Comets made their fifth consecutive playoff appearance. Midway through the 2002 season, she was traded to the Indiana Fever, where she guided that club to its first-ever playoff berth and became the first player in WNBA history to lead three different squads to the postseason.

She was a key figure in helping create the WNBA Players Association (WNBA), serving as the founding president of the WNBA from 1999 until 2001. She served as the executive vice president of the WNBA from 2001 until her retirement in 2003. Washington led negotiations for the association's first collective bargaining agreement, and as executive vice president, was a mainstay in the negotiations for the league's second collective bargaining agreement, which brought about the first free agency system in women's professional sports.

Washington's service to the game has gone beyond coaching. She has served on the WBCA Board of Directors and led a committee tasked to grow the game of women's basketball. She won a gold medal with Team USA at the 2013 World University Games and served on the USA Basketball Women's Junior National Committee from 2009-12. She was a member of the Kay Yow Cancer Fund Board of Directors from 2012-15 and served five years on the NCAA Women's Basketball Issues Committee. Currently, she Co-Chairs the WBCA's Diversity, Equity & Inclusion Committee.

A native of Flint, Michigan, Washington was inducted into the Greater Flint Area Sports Hall of Fame in December 2009. Washington and her husband, Raynell Brown, have two children, Quenton and Rhaiyna.

SHANNON LeBEAUF

SR. ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH

Shannon LeBeauf, one of the top assistant coaches in the nation, joins the Scarlet Knights in 2025-26 after spending the last 14 seasons on the sidelines at UCLA as an Assistant and Associate Head Coach for the Bruins. She is a proven recruiter, having tallied 14 Top-25 recruiting classes over her stellar career, including UCLA's first-ever No. 1-ranked recruiting class in 2014-15 and its second No. 1 class in 2021-22.

In her extensive time with the Bruins, LeBeauf helped guide the team to 321 wins and nine NCAA Tournament appearances, including an Elite 8 berth in 2018 and most recently, a Final Four appearance in a historic 2024-25 campaign.

LeBeauf helped bring in UCLA's first-ever No. 1-ranked recruiting class in 2014-15. The class included Reece Caldwell, Jordan Canada, Monique Billings, Lajahna Drummer and Kelli Hayes. In 2015-16, the Bruins' recruiting class of Ashley Hearn and Kennedy Burke ranked ninth nationally. In 2021-22, the Bruins' recruiting class of Kiki Rice, Gabriela Jaquez, Londynn Jones, Christeen Iwuala and Lina Sontag ranks first nationally.

Prior to UCLA, LeBeauf coached at Duke for five seasons (2004-09). There, she helped the Blue Devils reach the Final Four, making it all the way to the National Championship game. Duke played in the NCAA Tournament all five years LeBeauf was an assistant coach, and her recruiting acumen was equally impressive, as she pulled in recruiting classes ranked No. 2, No. 3, and No. 5 in the nation. Additionally, Duke captured two ACC Regular Season Championships in 2005 and 2007 during LeBeauf's tenure.

LeBeauf also has a strong ability to mentor players to high-level success. She has coached 10 Player-of-the-Year winners, 22 WNBA draftees/professional athletes and 38 All-Conference selections.

Her duties on the Duke coaching staff included recruiting, practice instruction, scouting and coaching guards. Perry-LeBeauf coached five All-Americans at Duke, including future WNBA players Waner, Lindsey Harding, Alison Bales, Monique Currie, and Chante Black. She coached in the NCAA Tournament all five years at Duke, with the Blue Devils advancing to the championship game in 2006. Duke captured Atlantic Coast Conference regular season championships in 2005 and 2007.

LeBeauf was an assistant at USC from 2000-04 where her responsibilities included national recruiting, practice instruction and academic liaison. She helped USC sign a top-10 recruiting class in 2004. At Iowa, she was involved with daily practice instruction, coaching the post players, scouting, recruiting and monitoring academic progress of student-athletes.

LeBeauf graduated in 1998 from the University of Iowa with a Bachelor of Arts in journalism and communication studies, where she graduated with honors. She was a four-year letterwinner at Iowa from 1995-98, including one season under the legendary C. Vivian Stringer. She was regarded as the team's leading defensive player throughout that time and guided the Hawkeyes to the 1997 Big Ten Tournament title, as well as regular season titles in 1996 and 1998. Her teams advanced to the NCAA Tournament her final three seasons and made a trip to the Sweet 16 in 1996. Additionally, she was a three-time All-Big Ten Academic selection and received the 1998 Robin Roberts/WBCA Sports Communication Scholarship award and the 1998 NCAA Women's Enhancement Post-Graduate Scholarship award.

A Southern California native, LeBeauf played basketball and volleyball at Cerritos High School.

JEANINE WASIELEWSKI

ASSISTANT COACH

Jeanine Wasielewski enters her third season as an assistant coach for the Rutgers women's basketball team in the 2025-26 campaign and assumes the role of Offensive Coordinator for the Scarlet Knights. Wasielewski joined head coach Coquese Washington at Rutgers after coaching with her at Penn State for two seasons.

During the past two seasons, Wasielewski worked with the Scarlet Knight shooting guards while also serving as the Director of Offensive Analytics.

Wasielewski helped the Scarlet Knights earn their first postseason bid since 2021, qualifying for the 2025 WNIT. The team advanced to the Great 8, the second best WNIT finish in program history.

Wasielewski helped the Scarlet Knights stay on track during her first campaign with the team. RU celebrated its 50th season in program history, highlighting historic moments, players and coaches throughout the year, which culminated in a grand celebration for Alumni Weekend. Rutgers also inducted its inaugural Knights of Honor class in the 1982, 2000 and 2007 teams with banner is Jersey Mike's Arena. The squad earned its sixth advance sell-out in program history and first since 2006, against Iowa, which became the most attended basketball game between men's and women's contests of the entire 2023-24 campaign. Wasielewski helped the shooting guards find success, including freshman Jillian Huerter, who averaged 6.9 points, to rank sixth on the team and pace all underclassmen. Huerter led the team from beyond the arc, cashing in on 57 three-pointers and earning a .370 percentage from deep. She hit multiple threes in 18 games and reached double digit points in eight contests. In addition, she earned the team's only Big Ten Freshman of the Week honor.

Prior to coming "On The Banks" Wasielewski served as the head coach at Southwestern Michigan College. She led the revival of the women's basketball program after a 25-year hiatus. In the program's first season back to competition in 2022-23, she recruited and coached a team of all freshmen to an 18-9 overall record, a 13-1 record on their home court and a third-place finish in conference that earned the squad a postseason tournament bid. The team found success both on the court and in the classroom as four players earned All-Conference recognition and eight players were awarded conference academic honors.

Before her time at SMC, Wasielewski served as the lead assistant at Saint Francis University from 2019-21. She worked primarily with the guards while her off-court efforts included opponent scouting, recruiting and academics oversight. She helped lead the Red Flash to a 21-13 conference record over two seasons which secured top seeds in the conference tournaments. Overall, she developed and mentored players that earned conference Scholar Athlete of the Year, All-Conference team honors, and Player/Rookie of the Week Honors.

From 2017-2019, Wasielewski was a member of Coquese Washington's coaching staff at Penn State where she assisted with the team's offense, practice planning and game planning. She also took lead roles in opponent scouting, coordination of on campus recruiting and implemented advanced analytics for the program. During her tenure with the Nittany Lions, she helped the program sign a Top-15 recruiting class.

Before her time in State College, Wasielewski was the lead assistant at Loyola University Chicago for the first three seasons the program competed in the Missouri Valley Conference. She coordinated the team's offense, led the player development efforts for the guards and wings and served as the academic liaison. Wasielewski also played a key role in signing top recruiting classes in back-to-back years. She mentored and developed players that earned All-Conference honors including Newcomer of the Year. In her third year, the team posted a 10-8 conference record and made program history in defeating the No. 15-ranked team in the nation on the road.

Wasielewski formally began her college coaching career at MSU Denver where the team finished 21-10 and advanced to the second round of the NCAA DII Tournament in 2013. She assisted with all aspects of the program with focused contributions in developing the guards, opponent scouting, community service and management of team gear and equipment.

Before starting her collegiate coaching career full-time, Wasielewski had an impressive career in executive leadership roles for Molson Coors Brewing Company and PricewaterhouseCoopers. At Coors, she was the chief information officer for the U.S. business entity and for the MillerCoors joint venture.

During her own collegiate player career, Wasielewski was a four-year letter winner at Northwestern University. She was a key contributor on the 1990 Big Ten Championship team, participated and advanced in two NCAA Tournaments and posted back-to-back 20-win seasons. She earned Academic all-Big Ten honors three consecutive years, served as a team captain her senior year and was awarded the Roger L White endowment scholarship. Wasielewski graduated from Northwestern in 1991 with a bachelor's degree in computer science and later earned her master's degree in business administration from the University of Denver in 2004.

SEAN LeBEAUFASSISTANT COACH

Sean LeBeauf comes "On The Banks" for his first season in 2025-26 after spending the previous four seasons at UC Riverside as an assistant coach. There he helped the Highlanders to 55 wins including 38 victories in Big West play. He helped the team advance to the Big West Tournament Championship in 2024 and onto the WNIT.

Prior to his time with UC Riverside, he spent one season as an associate head coach at Northern Colorado where he helped the Bears finish in the top four in the Big Sky Conference, reach the semifinals of the conference tournament, while also coaching the Conference Player of the Year, Alisha Davis.

LeBeauf joined the UNC staff after two years as Assistant Coach and Recruiting Coordinator at Prairie View A&M University, where after his first year the team qualified for the Women's National Invitation Tournament, WNIT. He also got to see one of his players, Artavia Ford, sign a professional contract to play overseas.

Prior to coaching at Prairie View A&M, he was an assistant coach at the University of Arizona for three seasons. While at Arizona, LeBeauf helped secure a Top 25 recruiting class and coach one of the most prolific scorers in program history, Candice Warthen. He also saw eight players, including Warthen, sign professional contracts.

LeBeauf came to Arizona from Paris Junior College (PJC), where he served as Athletic Director and Head Women's Coach. At PJC, he led the Dragons to the single season record for wins and a national ranking. He coached an NJCAA All-American nominee, four All-Region XIV selections, five Honorable Mention All-Conference selections and two Freshman of the Year nominees.

Before his four-year stint at PJC, LeBeauf served as men's assistant coach at Southern University. While there, the men's team won the SWAC Conference championship, the HBCU National Championship and participated in the NCAA Tournament. He has had other stops as a men's basketball coach at Centenary College and Paris Junior College.

Through his men's basketball experience, he has coached 23 players into the professional ranks.

LeBeauf is a graduate of the University of Montevallo where he earned his Bachelors of Business Administration in Accounting. He was a starter and captain on a team that finished with three consecutive 20-win seasons.

DANIELLE EDWARDS

ASSISTANT COACH

Dani Edwards joins the Scarlet Knights coaching staff for the 2025-26 campaign. She will serve as an Assistant Coach as well as Director of Recruiting Operations.

Edwards comes "On The Banks" from SMU where she was hired as the Director of Player Personnel in April 2021 but went onto become an Assistant Coach and Recruiting Coordinator for the past four seasons.

Edwards helped the Mustangs to new heights during her tenure, collecting 50+ overall wins and 20+ conference victories. She helped the team reach the WNIT her first two seasons, the first time the Mustangs made the postseason in back-to-back campaigns for the first time since 2014 and 2015.

In her most recent slate, she helped guide Tiara Young to earn a spot on the All-American Athletic Conference Second Team, and helped develop Chantae Embry into the conference's Ambassador Award recipient.

In her second season as an assistant coach, Edwards also helped Savannah Wilkinson, Jasmine Smith and Ella Brow to All-AAC honors.

Prior to arriving at SMU, Edwards spent two seasons as the Director of Player Personnel at Michigan. She served as liaison with duties related to academics, assisted the recruiting coordinator with daily operations and oversaw the day-to-day personal matters of student athletes.

She joined the Wolverines' staff after finishing her playing career at Clemson, where she earned a bachelor's degree in sports communications and masters in athletic leadership. She finished her career ranked first in the program in starts (123), third in steals (291) and 14th in points (1,274). She was the first player in program history to be named to the ACC All-Academic Team all four seasons and was a two-time all-defensive team selection. During her senior campaign she also led the Tigers to the NCAA Tournament.

As a Tiger, Edwards served as a team captain and was also a representative on the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee. In 2019, she participated in the WBCA "So You Want to Be a Coach" program and interned in Clemson's communications department. She is a native of Perry Hall, Maryland.

JAMES SPINELLI

ing scorer in the CAA.

Spinelli was also responsible for all the analytics utilized by Northeastern.

The Long Hill, New Jersey native handled all internal video needs for the Fighting Irish for five seasons, from the perspectives of scouting and analysis under head coach Niele Ivey. He oversaw all game and scout film exchange, while assisting in the editing of scout film. Spinelli also produced analytical content through video for the program's internal use.

While on staff with the Fighting Irish, Spinelli helped the team to runs in the NCAA Sweet 16, Final Four and National Championship game.

In addition, Spinelli oversaw all internal graphic and video needs for recruiting and assisted with media efforts. In addition, he was in charge of running the Notre Dame women's basketball summer camps.

Spinelli worked directly with Coach Coquese Washington while she was associate head coach at Notre Dame. He was instrumental in the recruiting of 5-star prospect Hannah Hidalgo while at ND and also aided in the development of No. 3 2025 WNBA draft pick Sonia Citron.

Before his time in South Bend, Spinelli spent four seasons as the video coordinator at Temple, working for the program's all-time winningest head coach, Tonya Cardoza. He graduated from Temple in 2014 with a B.S. in Sport & Recreation Management.

Spinelli resides in New Jersey with his wife Cassandra Spinelli and son Nicholas.

James Spinelli joins the Rutgers sideline for the first time ahead of the 2025-26 slate. Spinelli spent the last two seasons at Northeastern as an assistant coach after serving as the Video Coordinator at Notre Dame and Temple.

Spinelli has an extensive background in the space of digital media design, and will oversee the program's internal media needs in regard to recruiting and heavy involvement in scouting. He has earned the reputation as a players coach, always making the relationships built with players paramount as well as the overall importance of team bonding.

While with the Huskies, he coached the wings as well as serving as the lead scouter on staff and running in-practice skill development for the guards. He was instrumental in signing multiple impact players with the Huskies including wing Abby Jegede, who he worked with closely to help become the third lead-

BRITTNEY O'DELL
SWA / SPORT
ADMINISTRATOR

Brittney O'Dell joined the Rutgers Athletics administration as Deputy Athletic Director, Senior Woman Administrator in October 2025. She brings two decades of experience in senior administration, academic services, student-athlete development and leadership at the Division I level.

As Senior Woman Administrator (SWA) at Rutgers, O'Dell plays a key role in department administration with oversight of human resources, compliance, academics, sports health and student-athlete development. She also serves as the sport administrator for women's basketball and volleyball.

O'Dell joins Rutgers from West Virginia University, where she spent 10 years, most recently serving as Executive Senior Associate Athletics Director for Student-Athlete Services and Wellness. In that role, she provided strategic oversight of multiple units, including sports medicine, strength and conditioning, nutrition, sport psychology, academics, and student-athlete development. O'Dell also served as sport administrator for men's and women's swimming and diving and women's tennis.

Throughout her tenure at WVU, O'Dell advanced student-athlete well-being by building cross-campus partnerships with academics, counseling and admissions units. Her leadership delivered measurable results, including record team GPAs, consistent graduation success, and innovative wellness initiatives. She has been deeply involved in NCAA governance, budget planning, and staff development.

O'Dell partnered with the Office of General Counsel and Employee Relations to manage personnel matters, compensation planning and contractual agreements. She also led annual budget planning discussions with the chief financial officer, managing multimillion dollar operational budgets across assigned units.

O'Dell began her collegiate career at UCF, working in academic services for student-athletes from 2009-15. She oversaw all daily academic operations, ensuring student-athletes maintained satisfactory progress in coursework and met NCAA continuing eligibility standards.

A graduate of Florida State University, O'Dell earned a Bachelor of Science in family and child sciences. She later completed her master's in educational leadership at the University of Central Florida.

NNEKA ENEMKPALI
CHIEF OF STAFF

After two seasons as an assistant coach "On The Banks," Nneka Enemkpali will now serve as the team's Chief of Staff starting in the 2025-26 season.

In this new role, Enemkpali will helm administrative operations for the program as the team's primary liaison to internal support units for athletics including compliance, the R Fund, the alumni office, ticketing services, and the offices of the Chancellor and President. In addition, Enemkpali will work closely with Washington concerning matters related to revenue sharing and NIL management.

Enemkpali will also work with external units, collaborating with marketing, sports information and brand advancement on social media and communications initiatives.

She will facilitate strategic community engagement opportunities for the program, while also serving as liaison to season ticketholders and the women's basketball booster club, The Cagers Club.

Enemkpali is a 2015 graduate of Texas, where she averaged 10.0 points and 8.0 rebounds over her four years, earning three All-Big 12 selections and finishing ranked No. 10 all-time in career rebounds (899) and No. 30 in career points (1,116). She also was a three-time Academic All-Big 12 honoree as a Longhorn and was recognized as a Senior CLASS Award Second Team All-American for excellence in the community, classroom, character and competition.

After completing her degree in African American and African Diaspora Studies at Texas, Enemkpali was drafted 26th overall in the 2015 WNBA Draft by the Seattle Storm, although her playing career was cut short and ended by a knee injury.

A native of Pflugerville, Texas, she attended Pflugerville High School.

ALEJANDRO RAMIREZ
OPERATIONS

After one season as the interim Director of Basketball Operations, Alejandro Ramirez has been promoted to the role full time for the 2025-26 slate.

Ramirez assists Washington with the day-to-day operations of the program in all aspects including team travel, game day organization, practice operations and recruiting.

Ramirez leads multiple game day operations efforts including the game day schedule and managing shoot-arounds for both home and away teams. Ramirez works in close conjunction with multiple Rutgers departments, in particular, equipment and facilities. He oversees the robust Scarlet Knight student-manager program, hiring, training and scheduling all managers working with the program. In addition, Ramirez organizes and directs all summer camps for Rutgers Women's Basketball.

During the 2024-25 slate, Ramirez helped with travel and other organizational efforts as the Scarlet Knights earned their first postseason bid since 2021, qualifying for the 2025 WNIT. The team advanced to the Great 8, the second best WNIT finish in program history.

GLENN CAIN
STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

Glenn Cain begins his 10th season at Rutgers as an Associate Director of Strength and Conditioning. In his position, he works alongside the Scarlet Knight Women's Basketball student-athletes in designing programs to develop strength, speed, agility, conditioning and nutrition to maximize on-court performance.

During his time at Rutgers, Cain has helped the Scarlet Knights to two NCAA Tournament appearances in addition to a WNIT Great 8 appearance in the 2024-25 campaign. He has also aided 35+ student-athletes to All-Big Ten postseason honors.

Cain arrived at Rutgers after working as an Athletic Performance Coach at the University of New Mexico working with the Lobos men's basketball team.

Before serving on the staff at New Mexico, Cain spent five years at Kansas as an Assistant Sport Performance Coach. While a member of the Jayhawk strength & conditioning staff, he worked with the men's and women's basketball program and, as well as directly working with three other teams. During his tenure, eight players were selected in the NBA draft, four of which were lottery picks and the women's team made back-to-back appearances in the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Tournament. Cain also oversaw the graduate assistant program helping fundraise over $100,000 for the Sport Performance department.

Prior to working at Kansas, Cain served for two years as the Strength and Conditioning/Fitness Center Coordinator at Frostburg State University. As the program's first strength and conditioning coach, he oversaw over 300 student-athletes and 21 teams.

Cain, who began his strength career as an intern with the Rutgers Football team in 2007, also interned with the UConn women's basketball program in 2009.

Cain received his Master of Education: Exercise Science and Sport Studies with a concentration in Strength and Conditioning from Springfield College. He previously received his undergraduate degree in Health Studies from Gettysburg College. He is CSCS certified through NSCA.

Denise Kenney

CLASS OF 1993

Dr. Hyman "Copey" Copleman ('29) gained the respect and admiration of thousands of RU student-athletes during his 50 years as team physician. One of the nation's most highly-decorated physicians of World War II, the humanitarian/philanthropist became known as the Dean of Sports Medicine in New Jersey. "Copey" received the Rutgers Medal and established the Copleman Scholarship Fund for scholarship athletes majoring in the biological sciences and pre-medical studies. He also is a member of the Rutgers Football Hall of Fame.

Mary Coyle (1978-82) was the first in a long line of distinguished point guards directing the Lady Knight offense. Finishing her career first on the all-time assist chart with 640, she was named the team's co-Most Valuable Player following the 1981-82 season. A four-year starter, Coyle played in 124 games, the fourth-highest total for a Lady Knight at the time, while also competing for both the 1979 National Sports Festival East Team and the U.S. Junior National Teams, each time capturing the gold medal.

Patty Coyle (1978-82), the other half of the Coyle duo, registered 1,209 career points, the fourth-highest total in Lady Knight history at the time, and collected 382 rebounds, 198 steals and 394 assists in 129 career games. A three-year starter, Coyle gained EIAW All-Region honors in 1981 and was named the Lady Knights' Most Valuable Player for the 1980-81 season. One of the highlights of her career was a 30-point performance against Texas in the 1982 AIAW Championship game for which she was named the game's Most Valuable Player.

Nancy Mitchell

A teammate of the Coyles both nationally and internationally, and the second Lady Knight to be selected as a Kodak All-American, June Olkowski (1978-

82) was the first Lady Knight to have her number retired when her number 45 was retired in 1988. Her 1,500 career points and 780 rebounds still stand among the top-10 totals in the Lady Knight record books. She posted a 14.6 point-per-game average during her four-year career and was the Most Valuable Player for the 1978-79 season. In 1982, Olkowski was the recipient of the Rutgers Headley-Singer Award and was a Wade Trophy candidate in both 1981 and 1982.

A four-year starter and two-time captain for Rutgers, Kathy Glutz (1976-80) amassed 1,415 career points (first on the all-time list at the time) and 835 career rebounds (second) during her tenure. Named as the Most Valuable Player of the 1977-78 squad after averaging 16.5 points per game that season, she finished her career with a 12.3 points per game average during her 115 career tilts.

Denise Kenney (1976-79) is the 25th-leading scorer in Lady Knight history with 1,103 career points. She was credited with 512 career rebounds and 263 career steals, the fifth-best total currently in RU history. She still is in possession of the single-game record for steals with 10 at Saint Joseph's in 1978. A three-year letterwinner, she captained the squad during both the 1977-78 and 1978-79 seasons.

The formation of the Cagers Club in 1979 was largely due to the efforts of one of the most dedicated and enthusiastic supporters in the history of Lady Knight basketball.

Ethelyn Meyer's organizational abilities and tireless efforts resulted in the establishment of the Cagers Club and in its becoming one of the pivotal organizations supporting the Lady Knight basketball program. In the beginning, she provided the backbone of the Cager organization while playing a crucial role in the initiation of many of the events that surround the women's basketball program at Rutgers. The Annual Awards Dinner and the special awards that are presented to 1,000-point scorers and rebounders are her legacy.

A true visionary, Nancy Mitchell recognized the need for the establishment of intercollegiate athletics for women at Rutgers University. In her role as administrator and advisor at Douglass College, her commitment to the implementation of women's intercollegiate athletics on a University-wide level was outstanding. She was instrumental in the establishment of women's basketball on a national level. Mitchell then became one of the most ardent supporters of women's basketball and remained active through her involvement as the faculty representative to the Association of Intercollegiate Athletics for Women (AIAW) where she served on numerous national and regional committees. Until her retirement in 1992, she also served as the Chairperson for the President's Athletic Advisory Committee at Rutgers.

In conjunction with the inaugural Hall of Fame induction ceremonies, the 1982 Lady Knight basketball team received special recognition. It was this team that put together a 25-7 record, remained in the top 10 in the national polls all season and captured the only National Championship in Rutgers basketball history. The team silenced critics that felt that the loss of All-American center Kris Kirchner and Wade Trophy finalist Joanne Burke, in addition to the uncertainty of June Olkowski's knee injury, would be too much for the team to overcome.

CLASS OF 1994

The Lady Knight Most Valuable Player in 1980, Joanne Burke (1979-81) amassed 855 career points and 262 rebounds in two seasons "On the Banks." Elected the team captain for the 1980-81 season, Burke was a Wade Trophy candidate in 1980 and was honored as an EAIAW All-Region selection for the 1979-80 season. She led the team in scoring with 15.8 points per game as a junior and in steals, 2.5 and 2.0 respectively, during both her seasons.

The first Rutgers player to garner three Kodak All-American selections and Lady Knight Most-Valuable-Player awards, Sue Wicks (1984-88) is the most highly-decorated player in the history of Lady Knight basketball. A dominant force in women's collegiate basketball from 1984 to 1988, she still holds the Knight career records in points (2,655), rebounds (1,357), blocked shots (293), scoring average (21.2 ppg), rebounding average (10.9 rpg), field goals made (1,091), field goals attempted (2,099), free throws made (473) and free throws attempted (641). Wicks led Rutgers in scoring and rebounding during all four of her years "On the Banks", and during the 1987-88 season, she set single-season records in points (793), field goals made (319), free throws made (155) and scoring average (25.6 ppg). In 1988, Wicks was named the National Player of the Year by Naismith, the U.S. Basketball Writers' Association, Women's Basketball News Service and Street & Smith's. During her career, Rutgers posted a 105-21 (.833) record and advanced to the NCAA Tournament East Regional Final twice. For her accomplishments as both a Knight and as a member of the WNBA's New York Liberty, Wicks was inducted into the Rutgers Hall of Distinguished Alumni in 2005.

The "Sticks" half of the formidable "Wicks and Sticks" combination, Regina Howard (1983-87) ranked second (after graduation) on both the all-time scoring and rebounding charts with 1,807 points (now third) and 1,036 rebounds (third currently). She led Rutgers in field-goal percentage in each of her four years and led in steals in 1986-87 with 2.8 per game. Howard garnered Kodak District II All-American honors in 1986 and was selected as an honorable mention All-American by Street & Smith's in 1986. As a senior, she captured the Most Valuable Player Award at the NCAA Tournament East Regional and shared the Lady Knight MVP award with Sue Wicks. Also in 1987, Howard was voted the Player of the Year by the New Jersey Sportswriters & Coaches Association and was a Wade Trophy candidate.

A true friend of Lady Knight basketball, Henrietta Leitner enriched the lives of those associated with the women's basketball program during her 14 years as women's basketball secretary. Her enthusiasm, loyalty and dedication to women's basketball throughout her career at Rutgers was truly noteworthy and meaningful to all whose lives she touched. She provided the behind-the-scenes support that kept the day-to-day operations running smoothly.

CLASS OF 1995

Kristen Foley (1982-87) made her mark "On the Banks" not only on the court but in the classroom as well. A three-time Lady Knight Scholar-Athlete, she was a member of the 1987 Atlantic 10 All-Academic Team and was recognized on the 1986 GTE/CoSIDA Academic All-America Team. She finished third on the all-time assists list with 455, and led the team in that category in 1984-85 with a 2.8 per game average. A team captain as both a junior and senior, Foley scored 1,051 points at Rutgers, the 11th-best total in RU history at the time, and in 1987 won the Headley-Singer Award, given annually to the most outstanding graduating female athlete at Rutgers. Foley was named to the 1986 NCAA Tournament East Region All-Tournament Team and also was recognized as a Street & Smith's Pre-season All-American. In all, Foley led teams that garnered a combined record of 92-26 (.780) in her four seasons at Rutgers.

Regina Howard

Sandy Tupurins (1976-80) was known more for her rebounding than her scoring at Rutgers. A team captain in 1979-80, she set the single-season rebounding average record in 1976-77 when she averaged 13.7 rebounds per game. Tupurins was a dominating force in the paint for Rutgers during her four years, finishing first in both rebounding with 944 and blocked shots with 107. She holds the single-game rebounding record, swiping 26 in one game against William Paterson in 1977.

CLASS OF 1996

Patty Sikorski (1976-80) scored 1,284 points to finish her career second on the RU list (now 17th). During her career, Rutgers advanced to the EAIAW Tournament four times and the AIAW Tournament on two occasions, including a Final Eight finish in 1980. The Allentown, Pa., native from Dieruff High School still is the second-best freshman scorer in history, averaging 15.8 points per game during her rookie campaign. Sikorski also ranked in several other career categories: third on the all-time rebounding list with 624 boards, second in field goals made with 545, first in field goals attempted with 1,265 and first in free-throw percentage at .764.

Terry Dorner (1980-82), a transfer from Mercer County Community College, played just two years for Rutgers, but made a major impact at the time and in the Knights' all-time career records. Dorner was a 1982 Kodak District II All-American and an EAIAW All-Region team selection that year. She led the team in scoring (19.6 ppg) and rebounding (10.1 rpg) in 1981-82 and was the team's co-Most Valuable Player with Mary Coyle. Dorner helped Rutgers win the 1982 AIAW National Championship and advance to the Final 16 in 1981. A native of Williamsport, Pa., Dorner appeared on several Rutgers career-best lists at the end of her stay "On the Banks," including second in scoring average (15.0) and third in rebounding average (8.9).

CLASS OF 1997

Telichee Austin (1985-89) enjoyed a brilliant career at Rutgers as she established herself as one of the Knights' all-time greats. Austin finished her career as the third all-time leading scorer with 1,789 points and the fourth all-time playmaker with 371 assists. She still ranks in the top-10 in nearly every offensive category in both the single-season and career record books and continues to hold the Louis Brown Athletic Center record for field goals attempted by a Knight with 28 against West Virginia (Feb. 16, 1989). Austin, who played with the Hall of Fame duo of Wicks and Sticks (Sue Wicks and Regina Howard), was a four-year starter on teams that won two Atlantic 10 Tournament Championships and advanced to the NCAA Tournament all four seasons. During her freshman and sophomore campaigns, Rutgers advanced to the Elite Eight of the NCAA Tournament.

Marge Howes was a pioneer in women's basketball, organizing the first team at Douglass College in 1958. Howes was a physical education teacher with a vision to provide women with intercollegiate athletic opportunities. Her players came from her physical education classes and in the first year finished with a record of 3-0. She coached six seasons and compiled a varsity record of 47-13 (.783). Howes' commitment to women's athletics reached far beyond Rutgers. She was the state chair of the Division of Girls' and Women's Sports in New Jersey and Connecticut where she was instrumental in implementing the "rover" concept in New Jersey. Women's basketball today is a reflection of Howes' solo efforts in the sport almost 50 years ago.

CLASS OF 1998

Vicky Picott (1987-91), one of the Scarlet Knights' most prolific players, led Rutgers to four-straight NCAA Tournament appearances and one Atlantic 10 Tournament Championship during her four years "On the Banks." A sleek and mobile forward, Picott was the 14th RU player in history to score 1,000 points. She ranked third in the all-time records in scoring (1,792), rebounds (1,029) and steals (257) at the end of her career, and was second in free throws made (378) and attempted (542). Picott, who served as a team captain as a junior and senior, was the 1988 Atlantic 10 Freshman of the Year, a Second Team All-Conference selection as a sophomore and a first team pick as both a junior and senior. Sharing team Most-Valuable-Player honors with Lynn Ust as a junior and senior, she helped the team to a 94-29 (.764) record in four seasons. Picott won a silver medal at the 1989 Olympic Festival and played for the 1988 U.S. Junior National Team.

Telicher Austin*Vicky Picott*Jennie Hall

CLASS OF 1999

Jennie Hall (1979-83) helped brand Rutgers as one of the nation's elite teams during her four-year career. A Street & Smith's All-American in 1983, Hall led Rutgers to a 99-28 (.780) record in four years, including a 25-7 slate in 1982 when Rutgers won the AIAW Tournament National Championship. During that national-title run, she led the team with 24 points and five rebounds against Villanova in the semifinal game. Hall was named to the AIAW All-Tournament Team for her efforts. She served as co-captain as a senior while earning First Team all-Atlantic 10 honors as well as team Most Valuable Player accolades. In 1983, Hall earned the most prestigious award at Rutgers, the Headley-Singer Award, given to the top graduating female student-athlete. Hall finished her career 10th in single-season scoring average (15.2), ninth in career rebounds (419), fifth in career assists (279) and second in career steals (206). After her Rutgers career, Hall went on to win a silver medal at the World University Games in 1985 and was an Olympic Team invitee in 1984 and 1988. Hall became the first American woman to play professionally in Finland. She spent seven years playing professional ball overseas and was named to the National All-Star Team three times. After serving as an assistant coach for eight years, Hall was named the 1999 Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference Coach of the Year in her first season as head coach at Coppin State.

CLASS OF 2000

Caroline DeRoose (1990-94), a two-time Kodak District II All-American (1993-94), was a three-year starter for the Scarlet Knights and led the team in scoring her junior (15.7 ppg) and senior (19.4 ppg) seasons. DeRoose led the team to an impressive 88-25 (.779) record during her career, earning four-straight NCAA Tournament berths and winning two Atlantic 10 Conference titles (1993 and 1994). DeRoose, from Ghent, Belgium, won the 1994

Headley-Singer Award given to Rutgers' most outstanding graduating female athlete. The team's Most Valuable Player in 1992 and 1994, she was named the New Jersey Basketball Coaches & Sportswriters Association Player of the Year in 1993. She was the 1994 Atlantic 10 Player of the Year and earned All-Atlantic 10 accolades every season, including Academic All-Atlantic 10 honors in 1994. DeRoose appears abundantly in the Rutgers record books, establishing the all-time career records for free-throw percentage (.834), three-point field goals made (205), three-point field goals attempted (517) and three-point field-goal percentage (.397). She also tied the Louis Brown Athletic Center record for the most three-pointers made by a Rutgers women's player when she drained six against Massachusetts (Feb. 28, 1994). In the career records, DeRoose finished with 1,762 points and a scoring average of 14.9 points per game. DeRoose was the 16th Rutgers women's basketball player to score 1,000 career points, and finished her career 14th in rebounding (568), eighth in assists (359), sixth in field goals made (630), fourth in field goals attempted (1,430), seventh in free throws made (297) and ninth in free throws attempted (356) at that time.

CLASS OF 2001

When Theresa Shank Grentz was hired at Rutgers in August of 1976, she became one of the first full-time women's basketball coach in the nation. During her 19 seasons at Rutgers she amassed a 434-150 record, winning eight Atlantic 10 Conference regular-season and four tournament titles. She led the Lady Knights to the 1982 AIAW Tournament National Championship and nine consecutive trips to the NCAA Tournament (1986-94) as 14 of her 19 teams won 20 or more games. She coached three Kodak/WBCA All-Americans while "On the Banks" -- Kris Kirchner (1981), June Olkowski (1982) and Sue Wicks (1986-88). Wicks went on to earn National Player of the Year honors in 1988. Grentz was named the Atlantic 10 Coach of the Year in 1986, 1988, 1993 and 1994 and the Star-Ledger named her its Coach of the Year in 1986, the Metropolitan Women's Basketball Association named her its Coach of the Year in 1993, and she earned her second Kodak District II Coach of the Year award that same season. She was inducted into the Nike Hall of Fame in 1992, Grentz also was named the 1987 Converse/WBCA National Coach of the Year following a season which found her Lady Knights finish with a 30-3 record. Her extensive international coaching experiences while at Rutgers were capped by her selection as the head coach of the 1992 Olympic Team. She led the United States to a bronze medal at the Games in Barcelona. Grentz added to her selection to the Rutgers Women's Basketball Hall of Fame by her induction into the Women's Basketball Hall of Fame just six weeks later. Grentz was inducted into the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame Class of 2022, honoring her time playing for Immaculata College and winning three IAWA National Championships. She was already enshrined into the Hall of Fame with her Might Mack teammates in 2014.

CLASS OF 2002

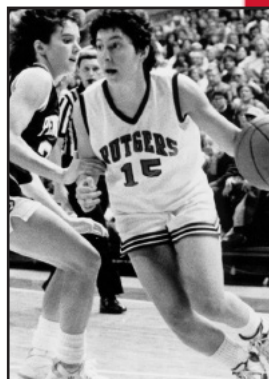

A 1991 and 1992 First Team all-Atlantic 10 selection, Tanya Hansen (1988-92) ranks among Rutgers' career leaders in blocked shots, field goals, rebounds, free throws and scoring. The 6-2 forward averaged 14.5 points and 7.7 rebounds per game during her career, leading the Lady Knights to four-consecutive berths in the NCAA Tournament. As a senior, she averaged a whopping 20.3 points and 8.6 rebounds per contest on her way to being named the New Jersey Basketball Coaches & Sportswriters Association Player of the Year and earning a spot on the Kodak All-District II First Team. A native of Albany, NY, she twice competed at the U.S. Olympic Festival as a member of the East Team, winning a silver medal in 1989 and a gold in 1990. A defensive standout, her 245 career blocks were third on the RU list, and the 75 she posted as a junior was the third-best single-season total in school history. Also a Second Team all-conference selection in 1990, she played professionally in Spain following her days "On the Banks."

CLASS OF 2003

Janet Malouf (1985-89) was one of the greatest point guards in Rutgers history, leading the Lady Knights to four NCAA Tournament berths (1986-89) and two Atlantic 10 Conference Tournament Championships (1987-88) while starting 125 of RU's 129 games during her career. She established the Rutgers career (718) and single-season (209, 1986-87) assists records, marks that stayed atop the record charts for a dozen years. The team's assists leader all four of her seasons, Malouf still holds the freshman assist per game (5.6) class record at Rutgers. A selection to the 1986 Atlantic 10 All-Freshman Team as well as the 1989 Atlantic 10 All-Third Team, she won a gold medal with the 1986 U.S. Select Team at the Jones Cup Tournament in Taiwan.

CLASS OF 2004

Liz Hansen (1992-96) was one of the most accurate outside shooters in Rutgers history, finishing her career second on the three-point field-goal percentage chart. Hanson also completed her career tied for first in steals (287), second in three-point field goals made (139), three-point field goals attempted (379) and free-throw percentage (.809), third in both assists (474) and free throws made (356), sixth in free throws attempted (440), and ninth in scoring (1,413). She established the Rutgers single-season steals record (117, 1993-94), a total that remains the highest single-season mark in Scarlet Knight history, men's or women's. Hanson helped lead the Scarlet Knights to two Atlantic 10 Conference Tournament titles (1993-94) and a pair of NCAA Tournament berths during her time "On the Banks," earning First Team All-Atlantic 10 honors as a sophomore (1993-94). A member of the 1994 and 1995 Atlantic 10 All-Tournament Teams, she twice was a member of the Atlantic 10 All-Academic Team (1994-95) and won a bronze medal at the 1994 U.S. Olympic Festival as a member of the East Team.

1999-2000 Team*Cheryl Cop*Tomora Young

The 1999-2000 Scarlet Knights advanced to the school's first-ever Final Four berth in the NCAA Tournament, posting a 26-8 overall record and a 12-4 mark in the BIG EAST Conference to finish tied for third place in the regular-season standings. The Scarlet Knights advanced to the final of the BIG EAST Tournament before receiving a second seed in the West Region of the NCAA Tournament, and the right to host the first two rounds of the national tourney. Rutgers dispatched No. 15 Holy Cross 91-70 and No. 10 Saint Joseph's 59-39 in Piscataway before moving on to the West Regional in Portland, Ore. RU defeated No. 11 UAB 60-45 in the semifinals, then upset top-seeded Georgia 59-51 in the regional final, punching the team's ticket for the Final Four in Philadelphia. The Scarlet Knights' dream season ended with a 64-54 loss to Tennessee.

CLASS OF 2006

Cheryl Cop (1989-93), a native of Elizabeth, N.J., helped lead the Knights to four NCAA Tournament berths (1990-93), the 1993 Atlantic 10 Conference Tournament title and started 87 out of a possible 94 games during her career. A member of the 1990 Atlantic 10 All-Freshman Team and Bell Atlantic Holiday Tournament Team (1989), she finished her career sixth in all-time free-throw percentage (.766) and was a three-time team Scholar-Athlete (1991-93) during her time "On the Banks." A team captain both her junior and senior years, Cop, who earned a spot on the 1991 Atlantic 10 All-Academic Team, averaged 7.9 points and 3.2 assists per game during her career, leading the team in free-throw percentage (.880) as a freshman, in assists (3.5 apg) and free-throw percentage (.805) as a sophomore, in field-goal percentage (.561) as a junior, and sharing the team lead in assists per game (3.1) as a senior. Cop was labeled as "Most Courageous" for returning from a season-ending knee injury and Type I diabetes diagnosis during her freshman year. In 1993 she won the Headley-Singer Award, given annually to the most outstanding graduating female athlete at Rutgers.

CLASS OF 2007

Tomora Young (1995-99) helped lead the Scarlet Knights to back-to-back NCAA Tournament berths, including a showing in the Elite Eight in 1999 and the Sweet Sixteen in 1998. The Red Bank, N.J. native was named All-BIG EAST three-straight years, earning first team honors following her junior season. In addition, Young was selected BIG EAST All-Tournament in 1998 and also named the Co-Player of the Year by the Metropolitan Writer's Association. A 5-10 guard, Young was one of the most efficient three-point shooters to wear the Scarlet. She is second all-time in three-point field goals made (180) and attempted (513) and also graces the record book in three-point field goal percentage (.351), placing her sixth on the all-time chart. Young sits atop the single season record list in three categories, all achieved during the 1997-98 season. She is ranked first in three-point field goals made (71) and three-point field goal attempts (186) in a single campaign. Young also holds the RU record for most proficient showing from the free throw line in a single season with a .901 percentage (64-for-71).

Former standouts Tasha Pointer (1997-01) and Shawnetta Stewart (1997-00) helped lead the Scarlet Knights to the 2000 Final Four.

Pointer led the Scarlet Knights to their first-ever Final Four appearance as a junior captain in 2000. The Chicago native earned a number of accolades during her time at RU including being named the 1998 BIG EAST Rookie of the Year and garnering All-BIG EAST First Team honors in 1999 and 2001. In 2001, Pointer was also tabbed an Associated Press All-America Honorable Mention. Pointer was named to two NCAA All-Tournament teams, selected to the 1999 Midwest Region to the 2000 West Region squads. The point guard holds the Rutgers' all-time assists and steals records - men's and women's - with 839 assists and 292 steals, respectively. In addition, Pointer scored 1,456 points in her decorated career ranked ninth-best all-time.

She recorded the first triple-double in Rutgers basketball history against Providence during her senior campaign. Pointer had four triple-doubles in her illustrious career, the most in BIG EAST history. In 2003, Pointer was named to the BIG EAST 25th Anniversary Hall of Fame Team.

Tasha Pointer

Stewart is one of the most prolific players in Rutgers basketball history. She concluded her career as the 10th all-time leading scorer despite playing only three years. Stewart compiled 1,346 points and 629 rebounds while also nailing 144 career three pointers, which ranks fourth all-time. Stewart was named All-BIG EAST following her junior and senior seasons in 1999 and 2000. She led the team in scoring, rebounding and steals in each of those campaigns. Over her final two seasons, Stewart averaged 14.5 points, 6.7 rebounds and 1.9 steals per game as the Scarlet Knights combined for 55-14 record. In 2000, Stewart was named an honorable mention Associated Press All-American selection and named the NCAA Tournament West Region Most Valuable Player. In addition, she was chosen Player of the Year by the New Jersey Collegiate Basketball Coaches Association and the Metropolitan Basketball Writers' Association. The previous season, she was named to the Midwest Region All-Tournament Team and was tabbed the MWBA Player of the Year. Stewart was the first player to commit to C. Vivian Stringer's first recruiting class at Rutgers.

CLASS OF 2013

Tammy Sutton-Brown (1997-2001) averaged 9.6 points and 5.3 rebounds per game during her career, finishing her time "On the Banks" ranked third in field-goal percentage (.577), fifth in blocked shots (148), seventh in free throws made (304), 14th in rebounds (685) and 20th in scoring (1,246). A member of the Canadian Junior National Team in high school, Sutton-Brown made an immediate impact at Rutgers, leading the squad in field goal percentage and blocks as a freshman. As a sophomore, Sutton-Brown earned Third Team All-BIG EAST honors, as she shot over 67 percent from the floor, setting an RU single-season field goal percentage record in the process. Sutton-Brown, also known as "Simba" to fans and teammates, was named to the BIG EAST All-Tournament Team as a junior. Over the course of the tournament's three games, Sutton-Brown logged 39 points and hauled in 17 rebounds. As a senior, Sutton-Brown was a Third Team All-BIG EAST selection and candidate for the Naismith National Player of the Year Award. Altogether she helped lead the Scarlet Knights to four NCAA Tournament berths, including an Elite Eight finish in 1999 and a Final Four bid in 2000. Sutton-Brown went on to be the 18th overall pick of the Charlotte Sting in 2001. The 12-year WNBA veteran was a two-time WNBA All-Star, becoming the fifth player in league history to reach 3,000 points, 1,500 rebounds and 400 blocks. Sutton-Brown was also the third Scarlet Knight to help her team to a WNBA championship trophy in 2012 with the Indiana Fever. She was also a member of the 2000 Canadian Olympic team.

CLASS OF 2016

One of the best to grace the hardwood of the RAC, Cappie Pondexter's (2001-06) list of honors collected as a Scarlet Knight are long and distinguished. The 5-9 guard who played for Rutgers from 2001-06 was the fourth Scarlet Knight in women's basketball history to be named a first team Kodak/WBCA All-American and was the 2006 Women's Basketball News Service National Player of the Year. During her career, the Chicago native averaged 18.3 points per game, 4.4 rebounds per game and 1.8 steals per game in 121 games played. Her name is scattered all across the Rutgers record book including ranking second in all-time scoring (2,211), first in three-point field goal percentage (.426), sixth in assists (470) and as one of three Scarlet Knights to pour in 40 or more points in a game. As a senior, Pondexter was named a finalist for all three major national player-of-the-year awards (State Farm Wade Trophy, Naismith and Women's Wooden Award), the Bayer Advantage Senior CLASS Award and the Nancy Lieberman Award (top point guard). The unanimous choice as the 2006 BIG EAST Player of the Year, she became the first player in league history to be named to the All-BIG EAST First Team four times during her career. The highest WNBA draft pick in school history, taken second by the Phoenix Mercury in 2006, Pondexter's career continued to shine following her days "On The Banks." She is a two-time WNBA champion (Phoenix Mercury '07 & '09) and Finals MVP in '07, a seven-time WNBA All-Star and a three-time All-WNBA First Team selection. Most recently, she was named one of the 20 greatest players in the 20-year history of the WNBA and became the seventh player in league history to score more than 6,000 career points.

Essence Carson

Pat Willis

CLASS OF 2020

Paterson, New Jersey native Essence Carson led the Rutgers women's basketball team to the 2007 National Championship game and parlayed her Scarlet Knight success into a long professional career in the WNBA. A 2008 First Round WNBA Draft selection, Carson went on to play in two WNBA Finals, winning the WNBA Championship in 2016 with the Los Angeles Sparks.

Carson totaled 1,262 points and 707 rebounds during her four seasons with the Scarlet Knights, which posted a .796 winning percentage and made three NCAA regional title games with Carson on the court. Her standout seasons "On the Banks" were a preview of the success that Carson would cultivate during her professional and international basketball career. Following the 2007 Big East Championship crown, Carson and the Scarlet Knights appeared in the program's second NCAA Final Four and reached the National Championship game. That year, she was named an AP Honorable Mention All-American, Kodak/WBCA Regional All-American, First Team All-Big East and a Wade Trophy candidate as one of the top players in the nation.

In addition to standout offensive numbers, Carson was a staple in Rutgers' signature defensive schemes that put the program at the top of the women's basketball national scene. She closed her career with three consecutive Big East Defensive Player of the Year honors. Carson added prestigious accolades following her senior season, including another AP All-America Honorable Mention and candidacy for the Wade Trophy, the Naismith National Player of the Year and the Senior CLASS Award for excellence in character, classroom, community, and competition.

Her Scarlet jersey was interchangeable with the Red, White and Blue as Carson represented her country with Team USA throughout her amateur career. She was a four-time gold medalist with the Team USA U18 team at the 2004 FIBA America Championships, the U19 team at the 2005 U19 World Championships, the U20 team at the 2016 FIBA Americas Under-20 Championship for Women and the U21 team at the 2007 FIBA Under-21 World Championship for Women.

The 2011 WNBA All-Star stayed sharp in-between seasons overseas, playing pro ball with teams in Latvia, Italy, France, Hungary, Spain and Turkey.

CLASS OF 2021

The second full-time head coach in Rutgers women's basketball history, C. Vivian Stringer (1995-2022) served at the helm of the Scarlet Knights from 1995 until her retirement in the spring of 2022. During that span, Stringer won 535 games with the Scarlet Knights while qualifying for 17 NCAA Tournaments, including 10 consecutively from 2003 to 2012. Stringer led Rutgers to a pair of Final Four appearances in 2000 and 2007, with the latter culminating in RU's first NCAA Championship Game. In 2000, she became the first men's or women's basketball coach to guide three different intercollegiate programs to the Final Four after playing in the first NCAA Championship Game with Cheyney State in 1982 and leading Iowa to the national semifinals in 1993.

Within three seasons at Rutgers, the Scarlet Knights won 20 games and won a Big East division title. Within five years, RU rose to national prominence as the women's game exploded in popularity across the United States.

Stringer surpassed the monumental 1,000 career victory milestone in November 2018. She became the fifth NCAA Division I women's basketball coach to reach 1,000 career wins and was the first African-American coach to reach the milestone. She retired ranked fifth all-time in NCAA women's basketball history with 1,055 career victories. In 2019-20, Stringer passed the late, great Pat Summitt and became the NCAA record holder with 37 seasons of 20 or more victories. Following that season, she received the John R. Wooden Award "Legends of Coaching" honor based on character, success on the court, graduation rate of student-athletes in their basketball program, coaching philosophy, and identification with the goals of the John R. Wooden Award.

Her standard of excellence extends to Stringer's staff and student-athletes. In March 2021, Stringer was honored in the Sports Business Journal as a Leader in Diversity and Inclusive Hiring. Stringer also recruited, developed, and coached 21 student-athletes who would be selected in the WNBA Draft, along with others who played professionally overseas.

Stringer has served the game of basketball as an administrator and an international coach. An assistant coach for the gold-medal 2004 U.S. Olympic Team, her first USA Basketball experience came as an assistant for the bronze-medal 1980 USA Jones Cup Team. Stringer was one of the key players in the development of the Women's Basketball Coaches Association. Stringer served on the Board of Directors of the Kay Yow Cancer Fund in 2007. The Fund's mission is to raise money for scientific research, serve the underserved and unite people in the fight against all cancers affecting women.

In addition to her Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame induction in 2009 and Women's Basketball Hall of Fame enshrinement in 2001, Stringer entered another elite club with a 2020 induction into the New Jersey Hall of Fame alongside Eli Manning, Rick Barry, Ed Harris, and Anne Hathaway.

Pat Willis (1979-84) spent nearly three decades of loyal service to Rutgers University and its Department of Intercollegiate Athletics as both a softball and basketball coach before retiring in 2006.

Willis amassed more than 600 victories during her 27-year career as the Scarlet Knights softball head coach, including three 30-win seasons, 20 20-win campaigns, an AIAW College World Series and two NCAA Tournament berths (1984, 1994), compiling a career record of 645-565-8 while "On the Banks". She was named the A10 Coach of the Year in 1990.

Over her career, Willis groomed 50 all-conference honorees and almost 30 all-region selections, including 1998 BIG EAST Player of the Year Angie Catalano and 1993 All-American Carla Camino, a fellow member of the Rutgers Athletics Hall of Fame. Willis also successfully guided the Scarlet Knights in their transition from the Atlantic 10 Conference to the BIG EAST in 1996. While a member of the Atlantic 10, Rutgers had at least one player earn all-conference honors for 12 consecutive seasons. In 1981, Rutgers posted a 28-3 record under the leadership of its second-year head coach, winning the Eastern Association for Intercollegiate Athletics for Women (EAIWA) title before advancing to the AIAW College World Series in Oklahoma. In 1984, the second year of membership for RU in the Atlantic 10, the Knights earned their first conference title and reached their first NCAA Tournament, finishing the season with a 22-14 slate.

Beginning in 1993, Willis and Rutgers began a three-year run that saw it win 90 games and the 1994 Atlantic 10 Tournament title, advancing to the NCAA Tournament for the second time in school history. Willis' 1993 team amassed a school-record 34 wins, including her 350th career victory.

Rutgers softball joined the BIG EAST for the 1996 season and just one year later the Scarlet Knights earned their first-ever BIG EAST Tournament berth. After making its first appearance in the postseason tournament in 1997, RU returned in 1998 to pick up the school's first win in a BIG EAST Tournament game.

Before taking over the reins of the softball program in 1980, Willis served as an assistant to the program's first-ever head coach, Jody Vogt, for two seasons which included an appearance in the 1979 AIAW College World Series.

Willis also worked with the Rutgers women's basketball program for five seasons from 1979-84 as an assistant coach, helping head coach and eventual Naismith, Women's Basketball and Rutgers Athletics Hall of Fame inductee Theresa Grentz guide the Lady Knights to a 119-37 (.763) record. Rutgers advanced to three-straight AIAW National Tournaments from 1980-82, including the 1982 national title, the final AIAW championship to be awarded. During Willis' final two seasons as a member of the women's basketball staff, RU became a member of the Atlantic 10 Conference, reaching the tournament final in 1983 and the semifinals in 1984.

CLASS OF 2025

Almost 17 years after her collegiate playing career, Rutgers women's basketball legend Matee Ajavon will be inducted into the 2025 Rutgers Hall of Fame class on Friday, October 17. Her career is highlighted by numerous personal awards and accomplishments in addition to a National Championship run with RU and a successful WNBA career. Ajavon helped lead the Rutgers women's basketball team to the 2007 National Championship game before enjoying a successful professional career in the WNBA and overseas.

During her career "On the Banks," she received Associated Press All-American Honorable Mention accolades (2007, 2008) while also being named a candidate for the Naismith National Player of the Year Award (2006, 2008), Wade Trophy (2006, 2007, 2008) and Nancy Liberman Award (2008).

In addition, Ajavon earned 2005 BIG EAST Freshman of the Year, averaging 12.4

points per game along with 121 assists that season. She was also named to the First Team All-BIG EAST in both 2006 and 2008.

Ajavon was the fifth overall pick by the Houston Comets in the 2008 WNBA Draft. During her first season, she averaged 8.0 points and 1.7 assists per game to earn a spot on the 2008 All-Rookie Team. After the Comets folded, Ajavon was chosen second overall in the 2009 WNBA Dispersal Draft by the Washington Mystics, where she played five seasons before spending her last four campaigns in the "W" with the Atlanta Dream. She helped guide the two franchises to five combined playoff appearances.

The 5-foot-8 point guard also enjoyed international success as she earned gold with Team USA in the 2007 Pan American games. She also played professionally overseas in Turkey, Poland and Israel.

Ajavon's name can still be found throughout the Scarlet Knights' record book as she ranks 10th on the Rutgers all-time scoring list with 1,622 points, fourth on the Rutgers all-time assist list with 556 assists and fifth on the Rutgers all-time steals list with 275 steals. She also played in 132 games, ranking her seventh on the Rutgers most games played list.

#45 JUNE OLKOWSKI (1978-82)

On Jan. 2, 1988, former Lady Knight All-American June Olkowski became the first graduate of the RU women's athletic program to have her uniform number retired.

Following the end of her playing days, Olkowski served as the head coach at Northwestern, Butler and Arizona. On the same day that her number was retired, Arizona met Rutgers in a match-up that saw Olkowski's alma mater emerge as the victor.

"It was a very special, very emotional day for me," expressed Olkowski. "It was a nice homecoming, but once the ball was tossed, I was the enemy."

During her playing days at Rutgers, the Philadelphia native became only the second Rutgers women's basketball player ever to be recognized as a Kodak/WBCA All-American while leading Rutgers to the AIAW national championship in 1982. During her four-year career at The State University, Olkowski guided her squads to a 108-22 (.831) record while consistently placing in the national top-10 polls.

Many thought Olkowski was the best player in the country – until she suffered a serious knee injury. A less determined player might have retired, but Olkowski underwent major surgery and came back to help Rutgers win the national title.

The twice-injured knee did not limit her successes at Rutgers. She was a Wade Trophy finalist during both her junior and senior years while compiling 1,500 career points, 780 rebounds, 208 assists, 190 steals and 78 blocked shots.

Olkowski graduated from Rutgers in 1982 (Douglass College) with a Bachelor's of Science degree in sports administration.

"Having my number retired is the highest honor I can imagine" said Olkowski. "It is a very humbling and unexpected experience. You dream of winning a National Championship, but not of having your number retired."

#23 SUE WICKS (1984-88)

Sue Wicks, the most highly decorated player in the history of Rutgers women's basketball, became the second former player to have her jersey retired when she was honored April 26, 1998.

She is the only RU player to garner three Kodak All-America honors and three Atlantic 10 Conference Player of the Year awards. Wicks was named the National Player of the Year in 1988 by Naismith, the U.S. Basketball Writers Association, the Women's Basketball News Service and Street & Smith's. Rutgers posted an impressive 105-21 (.833) record and advanced to the NCAA East Regional final twice during Wicks' career. She was inducted into the Rutgers Women's Basketball Hall of Fame in 1994, the first year she became eligible, and still holds the career record for points, male or female, at Rutgers with 2,655 tallies.

In all, she still holds eight Rutgers career records nearly three decades after her playing days ended and her 1987-88 single-season totals in points (793), field goals made (319), free throws made (155) and scoring average (25.6 ppg) still top the RU charts. She became the first Rutgers women's basketball player to be drafted by an American professional basketball league when she was the first-round draft choice of the New York Liberty in the inaugural WNBA Draft in 1997. Wicks returned to the States after playing overseas for eight years.

"It was fantastic," Wicks said of the honor. "It was great to go back. I have so much pride in my University and to go back there and be honored by a whole new group of women was really great."

#25 CAPPIE PONDEXTER

With a storied career, Pondexter became only the third Scarlet Knight on the women's side to have her jersey retired joining June Olkowski and Sue Wicks. She was the first player in BIG EAST history to earn first team honors four-straight years and recorded 2,211 points during her illustrious career to rank second all-time at RU. She was the first player in Rutgers history to post 1,000 points, 500 rebounds and 400 career assists in a career and her name can be found among the top-10 in 12 categories in the RU record books.

During her career, the Chicago native averaged 18.3 points per game, 4.4 rebounds per game and 1.8 steals per game in 121 games played. Her named is scattered all across the Rutgers record book including ranking second in all-time scoring (2,211), first in three-point field goal percentage (.426), sixth in assists (470) and as one of three Scarlet Knights to pour in 40 or more points in a game.

As a senior, Pondexter was both a First Team Associated Press and Kodak/WBCA All-American, the unanimous choice for BIG EAST Player of the Year, the 2006 Women's Basketball News Service National Player of the Year and a finalist for all three major national player-of-the-year awards State Farm Wade Trophy, Naismith and Women's Wooden Award.

Pondexter's accomplishments are not limited only to Rutgers. The highest WNBA draft pick in school history, taken second by the Phoenix Mercury in 2006, Pondexter's career has continued to shine following her days "On The Banks". Wrapping up her 11th season in the league and second season with the Chicago Sky, she is a two-time WNBA champion (Phoenix Mercury '07 & '09), a seven-time WNBA All-Star and a three-time All-WNBA First Team selection. Most recently, she was named one of the 20 greatest players in the 20-year history of the WNBA and became the seventh player in league history to score more than 6,000 career points.

Internationally, Cappie was a member of Team USA that earned a gold medal at the 2008 Beijing Olympics. She has also had a successful overseas career that has resulted in Fenerbache SK capturing five Turkish Cups and UMMC Ekaterinburg winning the Russian League and Russian Cup three times.

"I'm very thankful because it's not very often a player gets to come back and have their jersey retired," said Pondexter. "I couldn't be happier to have my jersey here in the rafters where it belongs."

ERICA WHEELER

On July 27, 2019, former Scarlet Knight and Indiana Fever guard Erica Wheeler was named the WNBA All-Star Game MVP tying the all-star record with seven made 3-pointers and finishing the game with 25 points and seven assists.

Wheeler made her first WNBA All-Star appearance having been selected as one of the 12 reserves by the league's head coaches.

The former Scarlet Knight was the first undrafted player to be named to the WNBA All-Star Game since Brazilian center Erika de Souza in 2014 and was only undrafted player among the 22 players selected for the 2019 game.

Wheeler was only the fifth undrafted free agent ever named to a WNBA All-Star Game.

BETNIJAH LANEY

Following the 2020 WNBA season, former Scarlet Knight and Atlanta Dream wing Betnijah Laney was named the league's Most Improved Player.

Laney received 25 of 47 votes from a national panel of sports-writers and broadcasters. Signed by Atlanta as a free agent in June, Laney averaged career highs of 17.2 points, 4.9 rebounds, 4.0 assists, 1.6 steals and 33.3 minutes while starting all 22 games for the Dream. Her previous career highs in each category were all set in 2019, when she averaged 5.6 points, 4.2 rebounds, 1.7 assists and 1.4 steals in 25.8 minutes in 34 games for the Indiana Fever.

Laney scored at least 20 points seven times during the season after not having a 20-point game in her first four WNBA seasons. She reached the 30-point mark twice, including a career-high 35 points against Washington.

KAHLEAH COPPER

On October 17, 2021, Rutgers women's basketball Class of 2016 graduate Kahleah Copper won the 2021 WNBA Championship with the Chicago Sky and claimed the WNBA Finals Most Valuable Player award.

Copper is the sixth Scarlet Knight to win a WNBA Championship and just the second to earn Finals MVP, joining Cappie Pondexter's 2007 honor. Overall, Rutgers alumni under C. Vivian Stringer have won seven WNBA titles.

It is the first WNBA Championship for the Sky, and Copper fueled the title run with averages of 18.6 points on .535 shooting, 7.7 rebounds and 2.0 assists per game during the 2021 WNBA Playoffs. The former Scarlet Knight averaged 17 points and 5.5 rebounds in the four-game Finals series with a .500 shooting percentage, a .364 mark from three-point distance, and 1.3 steals per contest.

WILLIAM F. TATE IV

PRESIDENT OF RUTGERS UNIVERSITY

William F. Tate IV, an award-winning scholar, took office as the 22nd president of Rutgers, The State University of New Jersey, on July 1, 2025. He also serves as a University Professor and Distinguished Professor.

Prior to accepting the Rutgers presidency, he served as president of Louisiana State University (LSU) and held faculty and leadership roles at the University of South Carolina, Washington University in St. Louis, Texas Christian University (TCU), and the University of Wisconsin-Madison.

PREVIOUS ROLES

As chief executive officer of both the LSU system and its flagship campus, President Tate oversaw a public research institution with over 60,000 undergraduate, graduate, and professional students; 3,000 full-time faculty; an estimated economic impact of over $6 billion; and more than 200 licenses, while holding faculty appointments in sociology, psychiatry and behavioral medicine, epidemiology, and public health. In recognition of his record-setting tenure at Louisiana State University, Dr. Tate received a U.S. Congressional Commendation, along with formal resolutions from the Louisiana Senate and House of Representatives.

President Tate served as executive vice president for academic affairs and provost, while holding the Education Foundation Distinguished University Professorship, at the University of South Carolina. Prior to that, he served as a department chair and dean of the graduate school and vice provost for graduate education at Washington University in St. Louis. In addition, he held the Edward Mallinckrodt Distinguished University Professorship in Arts and Sciences. Prior to joining Washington University in St. Louis, he served as the William L. and Betty F. Adams Chair at TCU and as a tenured faculty member at the University of Wisconsin-Madison.

ACADEMIC BACKGROUND

President Tate is an elected member of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences and the National Academy of Education. In addition, he is the recipient of numerous research recognitions including being elected to fellow status in the American Educational Research Association (AERA) as well as association-related honors including an Early Career Contribution Award, Presidential Citation, Distinguished Scholar Award in Mathematics Education, and Distinguished Contributions in Education Research Lifetime Achievement Award-Division G.

He was awarded the Anna Julia Cooper Postdoctoral Fellowship to study social and public policy at the University of Wisconsin-Madison. He later completed a second postdoctoral fellowship at the Washington University School of Medicine, where he earned a Master's in Psychiatric Epidemiology (M.P.E.).

Prior to his postdoctoral training, President Tate earned a Ph.D. in mathematics education with a cognate in human development from the University of Maryland, College Park, where he was a Patricia Roberts Harris Fellow. He also holds an M.A. in mathematical sciences education from the University of Texas at Dallas and a B.S. in economics with a minor in mathematical sciences from Northern Illinois University.

He is married to Kim Cash Tate and they have two young adult children. Kim Cash Tate is an author, Bible teacher, singer/songwriter, and YouTuber. She earned a B.A. from the University of Maryland, College Park, and a J.D. from the George Washington University Law School.

KELI ZINN

Director of Athletics

Keli Zinn, a collegiate athletics leader with over 20 years of power conference experience and a proven track record of transforming championship-level programs, enters her first season as Rutgers Director of Athletics. In her two decades as an athletics administrator, Zinn has played key roles in departments that have amassed a combined 16 national championships and 34 conference championships.

Zinn arrives 'On the Banks,' following her stint as the executive deputy athletic director and chief operating officer at Louisiana State University. Zinn oversaw all external and internal affairs of the athletics department, working closely with University leadership, senior athletics administration and campus and community partners. Her work included supervision of all 21 varsity programs with direct oversight of football and gymnastics, revenue generation, capital projects and strategic initiatives.

Zinn was instrumental in advancing LSU's Name, Image, and Likeness (NIL) strategy, forging a partnership to produce The Money Game, a documentary series following Tigers student-athletes, which launched on Amazon Prime Video. Her innovative approach secured NIL agreements and fundraising growth across multiple sports, positioning LSU as a national NIL leader.

Zinn helped drive a significant growth in revenue, renegotiating the Tigers' multimedia rights and apparel partnerships, securing record setting increases in value. She was instrumental in boosting ticket sales, merchandise revenue and donor support during her time at LSU. In 2024, football surpassed its highest number of season tickets since 2017, with a total of 71,250 tickets sold.

At LSU, Zinn helped lead the Tigers to unprecedented success: four national championships (gymnastics, women's basketball, and baseball twice), three SEC titles including women's track and field and women's gymnastics, and a top-10 finish in the Director's Cup for the first time since 2008-09.

The football program completed one of the biggest turnarounds in college football during Zinn's first season in Baton Rouge in 2022, posting a 10-win regular season and the SEC Western Division title before winning the Citrus Bowl. In her three years with the Tigers, football won 29 games, with a 3-0 record in bowl games, and celebrated numerous first round NFL Draft picks, including 2023 Heisman Trophy winner, Jayden Daniels.

Prior to her time at LSU, Zinn spent 12 seasons at her alma mater West Virginia. While there, she served as deputy athletics director and chief operating officer of the department from 2016-2022. A native of Petersburg, West Virginia, Zinn was appointed the school's interim Director of Athletics, becoming the first woman to lead the department.

Zinn joined WVU in 2010 as associate athletic director for compliance and governance and in 2014, was elevated to executive senior associate athletics director. In her oversight of the day-to-day operations, Zinn helped guide the athletics department through its transition into the Big 12 in 2012.

In Nov. 2021, Zinn was selected as West Virginia Executive Magazine's cover recipient of the 2022 Young Guns Class, representing a generation of leaders who have accomplished great things through their careers in the business world and in their communities.

A 2020 inductee into the WVU College of Physical Activity and Sport Sciences Hall of Fame, Zinn has twice received national recognition from the Sports Business Journal, being named to their Forty Under 40 honors in 2019, and selected as one of SBJ's Game Changers in 2016.

She earned a bachelor's degree and master's degree in sport management from West Virginia University.

Zinn began her career in collegiate athletics, serving as a compliance assistant with the Big East (2003-2004) before joining the University of Maryland as an assistant athletics director for compliance (2005-2010).

Zinn and her husband, Nathaniel, married in 2017.

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL CONTACT

Erin Neri

Associate Director of Athletic Communications
Office/cell: 732-947-9292
Email: eneri@scarletknights.com

The Rutgers Athletic Communications Office is available to assist you with coverage of the Rutgers women's basketball program and head coach Coquese Washington. All interview requests for members of the women's basketball team, including coaches and student-athletes should be directed to the primary media contact for the Rutgers women's basketball, Erin Neri.

The Athletic Communications Office is located in the Rodkin Academic Success Center. For information regarding credentials, interviews, statistics, press conferences, etc. please call Erin Neri directly at 732-947-9292.

To assist in your coverage throughout the year, please read the media information on this page. Briefly, all interviews must be arranged through the Athletic Communications Office at least two days (48 hours) in advance and all players, coaches and support staff will not take part in an interview unless scheduled by the Athletic Communications Office.

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

Contact Erin Neri at 732-947-9292 or through email at eneri@scarletknights.com to request credentials for covering the Rutgers women's basketball team. There is also a form available on the women's basketball page of ScarletKnights.com under Press/Media Information.

Credentials for Rutgers home games are issued to working media only and should be requested as early as possible due to space limitations. Media organizations covering Rutgers and the visiting school on a regular basis will receive top priority. We do not credential freelance media members. Credential requests should be made through Rutgers' online credentialing system. Requests should be made at least 48 hours in advance of each home game.

Season credentials will be provided prior to the season for all those who plan to cover the Scarlet Knights throughout the 2025-26 campaign. Other credentials will be issued on a game-by-game basis. There will be no season photo credentials issued. They will only be available on a game-by-game basis.

Media credentials are issued solely to the person identified on it. It may not be transferred or used by any other person. Acceptance of a media credential requires compliance with all Rutgers University rules and regulations applicable to the media credential. Any breach or failure to comply with these terms, conditions, rules and/or regulations may result in the cancellation and withdrawal of the media credential, including but not limited to expulsion from the athletics event for which it was issued, and denial of a media credential for any and all future athletics events. Rutgers reserves the right to deny access to any media outlet based on a space available.

CREDENTIAL POLICY

Working credentials are subject in all respects to the Media Credential Criteria and Policies set forth by the Big Ten Conference. Credentials are issued for the sole purpose of providing facility access to an accredited agency's employee who has a legitimate working function (media or game service) in conjunction with this tournament.

Credentials non-transferable and non-assignable and any duplication or alteration of this document is prohibited. Any unauthorized use of this credential subjects the bearer to ejection from the facility and prosecution for criminal trespass.

Any secondary use of any picture, photograph, audio description, video, film/tape, drawing or other description of a game taken or made by the accredited organization or individual to whom the credential has been issued (including, but not limited to use in delayed editorial or non-editorial advertising, sales promotion or merchandising) is prohibited without prior specific written approval of the Big Ten Conference. Nothing in these terms and conditions authorizes or allows bearer to violate any of the trademarks, copyright and other proprietary rights of the Big Ten Conference.

A maximum of two minutes (2:00) of game video footage (without audio) may be utilized during the seven days following the conclusion of the game solely within regularly scheduled bona fide news programming distributed via select Rutgers women's basketball games as well as live streams and television may not be distributed via the internet, wireless or other forms of media.

MEDIA WILL CALL

Credentials will be left at the media entrance of the arena, located on the north side of the building adjacent to the Green Lot, closest to Hospital Road. A valid ID must be presented in order to obtain the requested credential at the media will call.

PHOTOGRAPHER CREDENTIALS

Credentials will be issued only to accredited media photographers who regularly cover Rutgers women's basketball and/or the visiting school. Freelance and amateur photographers are not eligible for credentials. Photo credentials must be requested at least 48 hours in advance of each home game. Photographers may shoot from both endlines. They may not shoot from behind or in front of either bench or from behind the scorer's table. They may not shoot from the sideline opposite the team benches. In some situations baseline seating will be assigned. There will be no season photo credentials issued. They will only be available on a game-by-game basis.

PARKING

Press parking is limited. Those members of the media who are regularly assigned to cover Rutgers women's basketball will be issued season parking passes. All others must make their requests known when acquiring media credentials.

MEDIA CENTER

A media center is located on the second floor/court-level of Jersey Mike's Arena. Admittance is by media credential only. Complete stats, play-by-play, game programs, team statistics, media guides and game notes are available in the media room and online. Food and refreshments will also be provided to credentialed media prior to the game.

WIRELESS INTERNET/PHONES

A password-protected wireless internet service is available for all writers and photographers. Please contact a member of Rutgers Athletic Communications for access.

RADIO

Broadcast areas are located in the press box on the North side of the arena. Space will be provided for the official radio station of the visiting school as well as the Rutgers Radio Network and WRSU (student station). All other stations wishing to broadcast will need to contact the Office of Athletic Communications at least one week prior to the game.

POSTGAME INTERVIEW POLICY

Rutgers head coach Coquese Washington, and student-athletes will be made available to the media following a brief designated cooling off period. Please direct any student-athlete requests to Rutgers Athletic Communicationsm preferable Erin Neri, by text. Visiting teams are given the opportunity to meet the media first.

IN-SEASON INTERVIEW POLICY

Requests for head coach Coquese Washington should be made at least three days in advance. Requests for student-athlete interviews should be made 48 hours in advance. All interviews must be coordinated through the Office of Athletic Communications, Erin Neri and interviews will not be granted on a game day.

The Rutgers University Division of Intercollegiate Athletics is committed to providing maximum service toward making your visit to Jersey Mike's Arena an enjoyable experience. We are grateful for the letters of appreciation recognizing the courtesy of our staff.

If you have any suggestions, comments or questions, please forward them to: Athletic Center Manager, 83 Rockefeller Road, Piscataway, N.J. 08854-8053.

2025-26 TICKET POLICIES

1. Seating and parking for all games (home, away and post-season) will be based on Season Ticket and Scarlet R priorities.
2. In order to retain season seat locations, orders must be received by the renewal deadline and maintain or increase seating priority levels.
3. Rutgers reserves the right to limit the number of priority seats.
4. Rutgers reserves the right to move seat locations slightly in order not to leave single seats open.
5. Seating for single games WILL NOT BE ADJACENT to season ticket locations.
6. Individuals wishing to sit together must submit their orders together. All seats will be assigned according to the lowest priority in the group.
7. For special handicapped seating/parking, please call the ticket office before placing orders.
8. If tickets are not received two days prior to the game, please call the Ticket Office at (732) 445-2766 or toll free at (866) 445-GORU.
9. Rutgers is not responsible for lost or stolen tickets. Please handle your tickets with care. Tickets that are apparently lost in the mail must be reported to the Ticket Office prior to the event and a report must be filed with your local post office for duplicate passes to be issued.
10. If tickets are lost, stolen, or left at home, season ticket holders and single game buyers of record will be charged full-price for a duplicate pass. This duplicate pass fee will be fully refunded if the original tickets are returned to the Ticket Office within 10 days of the event. Tickets sold over-the-counter cannot be duplicated.
11. NO REFUNDS OR EXCHANGES.
12. Tickets subject to availability.
13. Children 24 months (2 years) and older must have a ticket to the game.
14. All information subject to change.

TICKET POLICIES & INFORMATION

Ticket Policies - Everyone two years of age or older must have a ticket to enter the Athletic Center. The ticket holder is restricted to the section, row and seat indicated on the ticket. Persons leaving their seats during the game or between halves may be required to show their ticket stubs to the user before they are readmitted to their section.

Advance Tickets - Advance tickets are available at the Jersey Mike's Arena Ticket Office weekdays 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. They may be purchased online at scarletknights.com or on game day at the Ticket Office, subject to availability. For complete ticket information or to purchase your tickets with Visa, Discover, or MasterCard via the Athletic Ticket Office, please call (866) 445-GORU.

Student Tickets - Rutgers student tickets are for use by Rutgers fulltime undergraduate students only. They are not transferable and are valid only when accompanied by a valid Rutgers student ID.

Re-Entry Policy - Spectators leaving the Athletic Center will not be readmitted.

Ticket Will-Call - The Will Call window is located at the Ticket Office.

ATHLETIC CENTER POLICIES

Gate Procedures - All spectators must present their own ticket. Spectators should not bring large bags, backpacks and similar items into the RAC. All items brought into the RAC will be inspected, including small bags such as purses and diaper bags. Spectators can speed their entry into the athletic center by leaving these items behind. The RAC regulations prohibit glass bottles, cans, alcoholic beverages, coolers, umbrellas, noisemaking devices, balloons, laser pointers, pets, balls, weapons, sticks/poles, containers, fireworks and any other items deemed dangerous or inappropriate from being brought into the facility. By use of your ticket, you consent to a reasonable search for prohibited items. Ticket stubs are not valid for re-entry.

No Smoking Policy - Per university regulations, smoking is not permitted in the seating area, bathrooms and concourses.

Pets Prohibited - Pets are prohibited in the arena.

Playing Area Regulations - Spectators must keep off the playing area at all times. Anyone violating this policy will be escorted from the athletic center and subject to arrest. Spectators must use the athletic center exits on the main concourse level.

Public Address System - The public address system is intended primarily for spectators' information concerning the game. Please do not request the use of the public address system to make social contacts. No appeals will be made over the public address system except under exceptional circumstances.

Solicitation - The selling of any item by anyone other than university-authorized personnel in and around the arena, including the parking lots, is prohibited. Violators are subject to prosecution.

GENERAL ARENA INFORMATION

Starting Times - All home game tickets indicate tentative starting times. Please consult your local newspaper, check our website (www.scarletknights.com), or call the ticket office, (866) 445-GORU, to confirm starting time.

Lost and Found - Direct all inquiries to the athletic center staff (gate attendants, ushers or ticket office). Following each game, any unclaimed article will be turned over to the University Police Department and held there for proper identification. Calls can be directed to (732) 932-7211.

Athletic Center Entrance/Exit - Access the arena via East doors adjacent to the Athletic Center Ticket office. Exit Athletic Center via all East, North and South doors.

First Aid - First aid facilities are available. Please contact the nearest usher if medical assistance is required.

Security - For police assistance, please contact the nearest usher.

Rutgers Souvenirs - An attractive array of Rutgers University souvenirs are available at the novelty booth in the South corridor.

Refreshments - Refreshments are sold from concession stands located in the East lobby and North and South corridors. Sodexo is the Athletic Center food concession vendor.

Rest Rooms - Rest rooms are located in the East lobby. Baby changing tables are available in all rest rooms.

Weather or Athletic Center Emergencies - In case of any severe weather or other circumstances which may necessitate evacuation of Jersey Mike's Arena, please follow directions of event personnel (police, ushers, P.A. announcer, etc.) to the quickest and safest exit.

Night Game Safety Suggestions - Utilize lighted areas to access and exit the Athletic Center and adjacent parking lots.
