SOUTH DAKOTA STATE JACKRABBITS: Please call us South Dakota State or SDSU. Please do not call us San Diego State, SDST or SDS, and please, never call us South Dakota. What's the difference? Great Question. Calling us "South Dakota" is like calling Illinois State "Illinois" or Utah State "Utah." Again, calling South Dakota State "San Diego State" is just not cool, so please don't do it.

Also, Jackrabbits is one word, not Jack Rabbits or JackRabbits. Our jackrabbit mascot is modeled after a real species of rabbit, not a rabbit named Jack. Technically speaking, a jackrabbit is a hare, but let's not get too literal. Calling us the Jacks is an acceptable second reference.

A South Dakota State Win Would ...

Give SDSU its school-record 28th win of the season, their third consecutive Summit League Tournament Championship and send them to the NCAA Tournament for the fifth time in the last seven years ... move SDSU to 128-94 all-time against South Dakota ... push Otzelberger to 46-23 at South Dakota State ... give the Jackrabbits a 1,511-1,030-1 all-time mark.

A South Dakota State Loss Would ...

Put the Jacks at 27-7 and send the Jacks to the National Invitation Tournament (NIT) after earning the automatic bid with the regular season crown ... move SDSU to 127-95 all-time against the Coyotes ... make Otzelberger 45-24 at South Dakota State ... drop SDSU to 1,510-1,031-1 all-time.

Four recognized by Summit League

Mike Daum has been named the Summit League Player of the Year, David Jenkins Jr. was tabbed as Freshman of the Year and head coach T.J. Otzelberger earned Coach of the Year honors as three Jackrabbits were named to the All-Summit League teams, announced Wednesday by the league office.

Daum was named to the All-Summit League First Team for the third time in his career, joining Nate Wolters with the most all-league first team nods in Division I while becoming the sixth player in Summit League history to repeat as Player of the Year.

Jenkins capped an impressive regular season with Freshman of the Year, All-Summit League Second Team and Summit League All-Newcomer team honors. He joins Daum as the only freshmen at SDSU to earn all-league honors (at both Division I and II levels).

Reed Telllinghuisen was named All-Summit League honorable mention and earned all-league honors for the first time in his career.

Otzelberger earns the top coaching award in his second season leading the Jacks, helping the team tally 13 league wins (second-most in program history), 25 wins overall (fourth time in last seven years to hit the 25-win plateau) and put together a 15-0 home run while building the nation's longest active home winning streak of 20.

Jenkins Honored by Summit League

South Dakota State's David Jenkins Jr. has been named the Summit League's Player of the Week, announced Jan. 22.

Jenkins led all scorers with 27 points in SDSU's 98-70 win at Western Illinois, shooting 69.2 percent (9-for-13) from the field with four 3-pointers and a 5-for-5 effort at the charity stripe. He added six boards and an assist over 30 minutes.

It was the seventh 20-point game of the season for the Tacoma, Washington native, who is sixth nationally in total points among all NCAA Division I freshman.

Jenkins' recognition continued a hot streak for the Jackrabbits in weekly awards, as a South Dakota State student-athlete had claimed the award three weeks in a row and in five of the last six announcements at that point.

Daum Named December Athlete of the Month

Mike Daum was named the Summit League's December Male Athlete of the Month, announced Jan. 9.

Daum, who was also the November honoree, averaged 23.4 points and 7.9 rebounds per game in that span, shooting 51.5 percent from the field. Beyond the arc, he hit 22-of-45 attempts and at the charity stripe buried 29 of his 37 free throws.

The junior was a two-time Player of the Week selection in the month and reached double figures in seven of eight starts. He had three double-doubles in the month and five games with 20 or more points, including a trio of 30-point efforts. The Kimball, Nebraska native shot over 50 percent in the final six games, including a 5-for-7 (71.4 percent) game at UMKC.

He is the first men's basketball player to receive the award in consecutive months since Wolters in 2013.

Flatten Granted Sixth Year by NCAA

South Dakota State's Skyler Flatten was granted a sixth-year of eligibility Friday from the NCAA. Flatten, who entered the 2017-18 season as a senior, is now eligible to return to the Jackrabbit basketball program for the 2018-19 season.

Flatten, who missed all of 2015-16 due to injury, has appeared in 90 games for the Jackrabbits, averaging 5.1 points and 2.0 rebounds per game for his career.

This season, the Clark, South Dakota native is posting a career-high 7.0 points and 3.1 rebounds per game, starting 28 of 33 contests. He is shooting 50.0 percent from the field and leads The Summit League with an identical mark in 3-point field goal percentage, hitting 53-of-106.

Daum Named November Athlete of the Month

South Dakota State's Mike Daum was selected as the Summit League's November Male Athlete of the Month, announced Dec. 7 by the conference office.

Daum helped the Jacks to a 7-2 record through the opening part of the season and averaged a near-double-double, posting 20.1 points and 8.2 rebounds per game while hitting 22 3-pointers. The Kimball, Nebraska native scored in double figures for all nine contests, including two 30-point performances and five games with 20 or more.

The forward had three consecutive double-doubles from Nov. 12-17, racking up 22 points and 13 rebounds against Mary and 30 points with 13 rebounds against Alabama State before closing the streak with a 21-point, 11-board performance at then-No. 3 Kansas.

Tacoma Talent

Tacoma, Washington native David Jenkins Jr. has burst on the scene through his first season of collegiate basketball, racking up a freshman record 520 points with 79 3-pointers through 33 games. He has hit at least two 3-pointers in 22 contests and on Dec. 15 at Colorado set the school's freshman single-game scoring record at the Division I level with 31. He matched that Feb. 8 at Denver.

Jenkins is now seven 3-pointers shy of the Jackrabbit season record for 3-pointers made (after Daum reset the mark at 86) and his 207 attempts on the year is tied for fourth most in school history for a season.

The lone West coach native on the Jackrabbit roster has reached double figures in 26 games, becoming the first Fellow Tacoma native Isaiah Thomas, currently with the Cleveland Cavaliers, had 508 points and 28 double figure games through 33 games of his freshman year at Washington.

Jenkins scored over 2,000 points in his high school career before spending a year at Sunrise Christian Academy Prep School. He was named as a newcomer to watch in The Summit League by TheAthletic.com's John Rohde.

As of March 5, Jenkins sits seventh among Division I freshmen this season in total points.

The Jackrabbits remained fourth in the latest College Sports Madness Mid-Major poll, released March 5 by the organization.

State was fourth last week and has been in the top 10 for the last nine polls. The Jacks have been ranked in 17 of 18 versions of the poll.

The latest edition of the poll features 2017-18 opponents South Dakota (No. 6) and Buffalo (No. 13).

Senior Impact

Three seniors will leave the program after this season, but not before leaving a mark as one of (if not the most) successful group in the school's history. Lane Severyn, Ian Theisen and Reed Telllinghuisen have gone 95-42 (.689) as a group over the last four years, a mark good enough for the second-best winning percentage and wins in the school's Division I history.

Tough Tests

South Dakota State played five Power Five (ACC, SEC, Big 12, Big 10, Pac-12) opponents this season and has two wins those games.

The Jackrabbits knocked off Ole Miss (Nov. 28) in overtime after a win over Iowa (Nov. 21) at the Cayman Islands Classic.

SDSU also faced Kansas (Nov. 17) and Colorado (Dec. 15) in addition to a road matchup at then-No. 6 Wichita State (a member of the American Athletic Conference), with narrow losses against the Shockers and Buffaloes. At WSU, the Jacks led for over 28 minutes of game action, but a late charge helped the Shockers defend their home court. SDSU charged back from an early deficit in Colorado to force overtime, but could not pull off the comeback in a double overtime affair that saw SDSU play just eight Jackrabbits in 50 minutes of game action.

South Dakota State has seven wins over Power Five programs since joining The Summit League in 2007, picking up wins over Iowa State (2008), Iowa (2010 and 2017), Washington (2011), TCU (2015), Minnesota (2015) and Ole Miss (2017).

SDSU's wins over Iowa and Ole Miss this season came in the shortest time frame of any Summit League team since 1998 (seven days). The Jackrabbits are the fifth league team to post a win over separate Power Five conferences in the same regular season, and the first to do it since 2009.

Against Power Five opponents in his career, Mike Daum is averaging 17.6 points and 7.2 rebounds per game and shooting 44 percent from the field and 42.9 percent from deep.

SDSU Signs Three

Owen King, Aaron Fiegen and Matthew Mimms signed their National Letters of Intent to join South Dakota State, announced Nov. 11 on National Signing Day.

King (Caledonia, Minnesota) averaged 19 points, five rebounds and six assists per game as a junior for Caledonia High School. He enters his senior season as the school's all-time leading scorer (1,925 points) and in December was named Minnesota's Associated Press High School Football Player of the Year.

Fiegen (Madison, South Dakota) was a First Team All-State pick last year, averaging 15.5 points, 5.1 rebounds and 1.1 assists per game in 2016-17.

Mimms (Fairfax, Iowa) is a two-time Iowa State Champion with Xavier High School. He averaged 15.5 points, five assists and 2.3 steals per game as a junior.

Preseason All-Conference Team; Jacks Picked First

Mike Daum and Reed Tellinghuisen made repeat appearances on the Summit League's Preseason All-League teams, announced early-October. Daum was the Preseason Player of the Year with First Team honors while Tellinghuisen picked a Second Team nod for the second straight season.

Daum is the second Jackrabbit to be named Preseason All-Conference and the first to do it twice, joining Nate Wolters (2012-13).

As a team, South Dakota State was picked to win the league for the fourth time in program history.

SDSU Last Time Out (March 5, 2018)

SIOUX FALLS, S.D. -- No. 1 seed South Dakota State rolled into its fourth consecutive Summit League Tournament title game appearance with a 78-57 semifinal victory over No. 5 seed North Dakota State Monday at the Denny Sanford PREMIER Center.

SDSU (27-6) shot 48.3 percent as a team and hit eight 3-pointers, led by David Jenkins Jr. and Mike Daum in the scoring column.

Jenkins paced all scorers with 24 points, hitting 10-of-15 from the field en route to his 11th 20-point game of the season.

Daum finished with 19 points and 11 rebounds for his 20th double-double of the season while Tevin King (five assists) and Skyler Flatten (two steals) added eight points each.

South Dakota State scored the first 10 points of the game and with the PREMIER Center on its feet continued to roll, building a 23-6 lead before the 10-minute mark after a run of nine straight.

The lead reached 22 (34-12) after another string of nine unanswered around the four-minute mark and the Jacks carried a 38-20 lead in the locker room at half.

NDSU brought it within eight (39-31) in the opening moments of the second before SDSU countered with an 11-1 run that included 3-pointers from Lane Severyn and Flatten to regain control 50-32 near the 15-minute mark.

After taking their largest lead of the night (30) with 5:35 to play after a 14-0 rally made it 75-45, the Jacks rode out the clock to secure their spot in tomorrow night's final.

Opponent Last Time Out (March 5, 2018)

GoYotes.com

SIOUX FALLS, S.D.—South Dakota got 20 points from Matt Mooney and 11 from Triston Simpson in a blowout 76-58 win against Denver Monday to reach the Summit League Tournament championship game for the first time. The second-seeded Coyotes will take on top-seeded South Dakota State at 8 p.m. Tuesday for the right to go to the NCAA Tournament.

Like the rest of the semifinal games at the Denny Sanford PREMIER Center Monday, this one was never in doubt. South Dakota led 26-9 near the midway point of the first half and 47-25 at the break in rolling to its eighth win in its last nine games. The Coyotes (26-7) picked up their 26th victory of the season, one shy of the program record set in 2005. They will be seeking their first ticket to the Division I tournament.

Daniel Amigo had 16 points and 12 rebounds to lead third-seeded Denver (15-15), which appeared out of gas following last night's double-overtime win against Oral Roberts. The Pioneers, one of the most accurate 3-point shooting teams in the country, went 3-for-20 from downtown and shot less than 33 percent for the game. South Dakota's top-ranked defense held them to their lowest scoring output of the season in ending their five-game win streak.

Mooney reached 20 points for the fourth straight game and for the 13th time this season. He made his first five shots, including a zone-busting triple with 5:34 left in the first half that put USD ahead 35-13. Mooney finished 8-of-10 from the field and has scored 20 points in each of the first two games of the tournament.

South Dakota shot 52 percent from the floor including an 8-for-18 performance from 3-point range. Six different Coyotes made a 3. Tyler Hagedorn made two of them and also reached double figures for USD with 10 points.

Joe Rosga, Denver's all-conference guard who banked in a 3 near the buzzer to force overtime last night, had just five points Monday on 2 of 13 shooting. He was 1 of 7 from downtown. Credit the defense of Mooney and Simpson for those numbers. Denver was shooting 3's at a 41 percent clip, which led the Summit and ranked seventh nationally.

Denver had 19 offensive rebounds but even that couldn't overcome USD's hot shooting. In addition to Mooney, Simpson made 5 of 8 shots and the Coyote bench, paced by Nick Fuller (8 points) and Brandon Armstrong (7) combined to make 8 of 16.

#PROJACKS

Nate Wolters – Chalon (French ProA League / Basketball Champions League)
Wolters, who graduated from SDSU in 2013, signed a two-way contract with the Utah Jazz in September 2017, meaning he can play up to 45 days with the Jazz in the NBA for the 2017-18 season and will spend a majority of time with the G-League's Salt Lake City Stars. He is exclusively signed to the Jazz, and cannot be picked up by any other NBA team, like non-two-way G-League players. The Washington Wizards drafted Wolters with the 38th overall pick in the 2013 NBA Draft, then traded him to the Philadelphia 76ers, who traded him to the Milwaukee Bucks, all on the same night. Wolters played his rookie season with the Bucks before they waived him on Jan. 9, 2015. He signed the first of two 10 day contracts with the New Orleans Pelicans on Jan. 14, but they let him go on Feb. 3, making him a free agent again. The Grand Rapids Drive claimed Wolters from the player pool on March 6. He finished the season with the Drive, then played with the Los Angeles Clippers in the 2015 summer league, but suffered an injury late in the season, then chose to play the 2015-16 season in Turkey, signing with Besiktas Integral Forex Istanbul in the Turkish Basketball Super League. After spending the 2016 Summer Leagues with Indiana and Washington of the NBA, Wolters was in camp with the Denver Nuggets and just missed the cut before playing with Crvena Zzezda MTS Beograd (Euroleague, Adriatric League and Serbian League members for the 2016-17 season. His stay with the Jazz/Stars ended in Dec. 2017 when he was waived from his two-way contract, and he signed with Chalon of the France Pro-A League in January.
