BROOKINGS, S.D. — The South Dakota State University baseball team will go out of conference one final time during the 2018 season, traveling Wednesday night for a matchup at Wichita State.

First pitch is scheduled for 6 p.m. at Eck Stadium in Wichita, Kansas. The game is slated to be broadcast on Brookings-based KJQ 910 AM with Tyler Merriam calling the play-by-play, and also will be available for listening through the Jackrabbits All-Access media portal at GoJacks.com. Live stats will be available at GoJacksLive.com.

The Jackrabbits enter the midweek matchup with a 15-24 overall record and in the midst of having matched their season-best four-game winning streak. SDSU solidified its hold on second place in the Summit League standings at 13-8 by sweeping a three-game weekend series from Omaha in what were the first true home games for the Jackrabbits this season.

Wichita State, which hosts Summit League leader Oral Roberts on Tuesday, enters the week with a 29-16 overall record. The Shockers are in their first season as a member of the American Athletic Conference and currently rank eighth in the nine-team race with a 6-12 mark in league play.

THE SERIES: Wednesday's game will mark the first time South Dakota State and Wichita State have met on the baseball diamond in 37 years. The two programs met five times in April 1981 in Wichita, with the Shockers winning all five contests, including a 29-5 victory in the second game of the series.

The 1981 Wichita State team featured All-Americans and eventual Major Leaguers in Joe Carter and Phil Stephenson. The Shockers qualified for the NCAA Tournament that season and went on to win an NCAA-record 73 games the next year in advancing to the College World Series championship game.

WICHITA HOMECOMING: Wednesday's contest also will mark a homecoming for SDSU pitching coach Mitch Mormann, who completed his collegiate career at Wichita State in 2012. After previous stints at Des Moines Area Community College and Louisiana State, Mormann posted a 3-3 record with a 3.91 earned run average in his lone season with the Shockers. He pitched in 15 contests, including 12 starts, and totaled 53 innings.

Mormann later signed a free agent contract with the San Francisco Giants organization. He is in his second season as the Jackrabbits' pitching coach.

PRESEASON POLL: The Jackrabbit baseball team was picked to finish second in the 2018 Summit League race, according to a poll of league coaches released Feb. 8.

SDSU received 20 points and one first-place vote, finishing behind defending champion Oral Roberts, which received the other five first-place votes and 25 total points. North Dakota State completed the top half of the poll with 17 points.

Rounding out the second half of the poll were Western Illinois (14 points), Omaha (9) and Fort Wayne (5).

The Jackrabbits, who return six position starters, will attempt to qualify for the Summit League postseason tournament for the ninth time in 10 years. The 2018 Summit League Baseball Championship is slated for May 23-26 in Tulsa, Oklahoma.

In addition, SDSU shortstop Tony Kjolsing was selected as a Summit League Player to Watch. A senior from Chaska, Minnesota, Kjolsing batted .291 with four home runs and 21 runs batted in while playing in 32 games during the 2017 season.

SUMMIT LEAGUE SUCCESS: South Dakota State has been a consistent winner in The Summit League since it became a league member a decade ago. In 10-plus seasons as a member of The Summit League, the Jackrabbits have compiled a 161-123 (.567 winning percentage) in conference games. SDSU has posted a .500 or better record in league play seven times and has made eight appearances in the four-team postseason tournament out of the nine years it has been eligible.

The Jackrabbits shared a Summit League regular season title in 2010 and won the Summit postseason tournament in 2013.

LAST WEEKEND: Playing for the first time at Erv Huether Field this season, South Dakota State opened the final month of the regular season with a three-game sweep of Summit League rival Omaha.

Game 1: South Dakota State 5, Omaha 4 [10 inn.]

Tony Kjolsing led off the bottom of the 10th inning with a home run to lift South Dakota State to a 5-4, series-opening win over Omaha in Summit League baseball action Friday afternoon at Erv Huether Field.

A senior shortstop from Chaska, Minnesota, Kjolsing's game-winning blast just to the right of straightaway center field came on a 3-2 pitch from Maverick reliever Cal Hehnke. Kjolsing's third home run of the season followed three scoreless innings by Henke.

Omaha forced extra innings after rallying from a 4-1 deficit against the Jackrabbit bullpen. The Mavericks pulled to within 4-3 in the sixth when Braden Rogers doubled in Thomas DeBonville and later scored on a sacrifice fly by Keil Krumwiede.

Omaha tied the game in the seventh on a run-scoring single by Cole Thibodeau. A baserunning error by the Mavericks prevented them from taking the lead in the eighth and Alex Marro worked around an error in the ninth to keep the game knotted at 4, thanks to a diving stop and throw across the diamond by Newt Johnson with a runner at third for the final out of the inning.

All four of the Jackrabbits' runs in regulation were scored in the bottom of the second inning, starting with a leadoff home run to center by Josh Falk. SDSU added three more runs later in the frame by taking advantage of some defensive lapses by the Mavericks. A fly ball lost in the sun led to a triple by Gus Steiger, who later scored on a squeeze bunt by Kolton Michalski that turned into a single when the Mavericks were late in covering first base. The final two runs of the inning came across on an RBI groundout by Anthony Schneider and two-out single to left by Kjolsing.

Kjolsing, Steiger and Falk each collected two of the Jackrabbits' nine hits. Rogers and Adam Caniglia each posted two of Omaha's eight hits.

Jackrabbit starter Corey Kuhlmann limited Omaha to one run on four hits over five innings. He struck out two and walked one. Marro fanned two batters in three scoreless innings to pick up the win.

For Omaha, Joey Machado settled in after some early control issues to complete six innings. He surrendered seven hits, walked five and struck out two. Hehnke had retired eight SDSU batters in a row before allowing Kjolsing's walkoff homer.

Action resumed Sunday after thunderstorms rolled through the area late Saturday afternoon.

The Jackrabbits opened the scoring in the bottom of the second as Josh Falk hit a one-out double and scored on Gus Steiger's single to right field.

The next eight Jackrabbit runs crossed home plate on home runs. Nick Smith turned on an inside pitch from Spencer Koelewyn for a three-run shot to right field in the third inning that put the Jackrabbits ahead 4-0.

After Omaha got on the board in the top of the fourth on a Braden Rogers RBI single, the Jackrabbits struck for six runs in the home half of the inning, sending 11 men to the plate. Tony Kjolsing, who hit a walkoff homer in Friday's series opener, wrapped a fly ball around the left-field foul pole for a three-run homer and Falk followed two batters later with a two-run homer that hit the top of the fence in center field before bouncing over.

Landon Badger added a run-scoring single to complete the fourth-inning onslaught.

Omaha pulled to within 10-4 with a run in the fifth on a Max Gamm run-scoring single and added two more in the sixth on a bases-loaded walk to Henry Wittren and a sacrifice fly by Gamm.

A Derek Hackman RBI single in the bottom of the sixth halted the Omaha comeback and Newt Johnson launched a two-run home run to right center on the final pitch thrown before play was suspended.

The Jackrabbits wasted little to end the suspended game via the 10-run rule. Leading 13-4 when play resumed at noon Sunday, Gus Steiger hit a one-out double, advanced to third on a groundout and scored the game-ending run on a passed ball.

Steiger and Falk each went 3-for-4 in the contest for a Jackrabbit squad that out-hit Omaha, 13-5.

SDSU starter Brady Moxham was lifted with two outs and two men on in the top of the fifth. The sophomore right-hander walked four and struck out two. Brett Mogen followed with two-thirds of an inning to pick up his first collegiate win.

Game 3: South Dakota State 8, Omaha 6

South Dakota State rallied for four runs in the bottom of the eighth inning to post an 8-6 victory and series sweep over Omaha Sunday afternoon at Erv Huether Field.

Trailing 6-4, the SDSU eighth-inning rally began with one out. Josh Falk began a string of seven consecutive Jackrabbit batters reaching base safely with a solid single up the middle. Gus Steiger followed with a walk and SDSU loaded the bases on a base hit by Philip Jacobson. Landon Badger then dumped a single to center field to score Falk and make it a one-run game.

After a pitching change, the Jackrabbits tied the game at 6-all when pinch-hitter Skyler Wenninger was hit by a pitch. Anthony Schneider then stepped to the plate and drove the first pitch he saw into right field to score both Jacobson and Badger.

Alex Marro, who recorded the final out of the eighth inning, pitched a scoreless ninth inning to seal his second win of the series.

SDSU's eighth-inning comeback marked the second time in the game the Jackrabbits overcame a deficit. Omaha led 3-0 after scoring once in the fifth inning and twice in the sixth.

The Jackrabbits knotted the game at 3-all with a three-run home half of the sixth. Falk doubled in the first two runs and later scored the tying run on a groundout off the bat of Phil Velez.

SDSU gained the lead an inning later as Ian Cote drew a leadoff walk, moved to second on a sacrifice bunt. After Cote advanced to third base on a wild pitch during an intended intentional walk, Tony Kjolsing lifted a fly ball to left field for a sacrifice fly.

However, Omaha countered with a three-run top of the eighth to regain the lead.

Pinch-runner Hunter Hughes scored the tying run when he kicked the ball away from Cote on a slide into home plate. Thomas DeBonville and Keil Krumwiede added run-scoring singles later in the frame.

The series finale started as a pitchers' duel between left-handers Bryce Johnson of SDSU and Omaha's Andrew Brighton. Johnson, who was making his first start of the season, struck out three and did not walk a batter in allowing two runs on six hits over 5 1/3 innings.

Brighton also worked 5 1/3 innings, leaving the game with three runs allowed on six hits with two walks and one strikeout.

Omaha finished with a 12-11 advantage in hits, including three each by DeBonville and Grant Suponchick. Kjolsing was 3-for-3, while Falk ended the day 2-for-4 with two runs scored.

PLAYER OF THE WEEK: South Dakota State University shortstop Tony Kjolsing shared Summit League Player of the Week honors Monday after helping lead the Jackrabbits to a weekend sweep of Omaha.

A senior from Chaska, Minnesota, Kjolsing batted .636 (7-for-11) with two home runs and six runs batted in as the Jackrabbits ran their winning streak to four. Kjolsing hit a game-winning home run in the bottom of the 10th inning to lift SDSU to a 5-4 victory in the series opener on May 4 at Erv Huether Field and added a three-run shot the next day in a 14-4 Jackrabbit win. He recorded at least two hits in all three games, totaling a 1.273 slugging percentage and .667 on-base percentage. Kjolsing also stole his team-leading 16th base of the season and played errorless defense.

Kjolsing shared the weekly award with Western Illinois designated hitter Alex Dorethy. It marked the second time Kjolsing has been honored as Summit League Player of the Week in his career and the third time an SDSU player has received the award this season, joining Phil Velez (April 9) and Josh Falk (April 16).

MR. MAY: Tony Kjolsing's player-of-the-week performance last week continued a trend of the senior shortstop heating up at the plate when the calendar flips to the month of May.

In 29 games (25 starts) during the month of May over the past three seasons, Kjolsing is batting a combined .384 (38-for-99) with 24 runs scored and 26 runs batted in. He has posted a .686 slugging percentage, totaling nine doubles and seven of his 12 career home runs in the final month of the regular season.

LET'S PLAY TWO: When the 2018 Jackrabbit baseball schedule was first put together, SDSU had one true doubleheader — March 10 at Northern Colorado — on the docket.

Fast forward to late April and the Jackrabbits played their seventh doubleheader of the season April 20 against Oral Roberts thanks to inclement weather that seemingly followed them wherever they went over the first two months of the 2018 campaign. SDSU played a doubleheader in each of the first five Summit League series in which it managed to play more than one game.

In those seven doubleheaders the squad has played, the Jackrabbits have turned in a 5-9 record. SDSU was swept in each of its first four doubleheaders, then turned the tables with sweeps of Fort Wayne (April 7) and North Dakota State (April 12). The Jacks and Oral Roberts split an April 20 doubleheader in Council Bluffs, Iowa.

Until May 4, SDSU had yet to play a true home game this season due to the extended wintry weather affected the Upper Midwest earlier this spring. Instead, the Jacks were forced to move home series to Joplin, Missouri; Omaha, Nebraska/Council Bluffs, Iowa, and Sioux Falls.

K ZONE: Two of the three pitchers who have held regular starting roles for the Jackrabbits in Summit League play are averaging better than a strikeout an inning.

Sophomore left-hander Brady Stover has recorded 58 strikeouts in only 38 2/3 innings pitched. In an April 7 start versus Fort Wayne, Stover set a new Jackrabbit single-game mark in the Division I era with 13 strikeouts. He allowed only one hit — an infield single — over 6 1/3 innings.

Two starts later, Stover fanned 10 Oral Roberts batters in 6 2/3 shutout innings.

Stover's current pace of 13.50 strikeouts per nine innings pitched ranked seventh in NCAA Division I this season and is ahead of the SDSU single-season record of 12.86 set by Bob Ehrke in 1953. Stover missed his scheduled start last weekend against Omaha and will be evaluated later in the week to determine his availability for this weekend's series against Western Illinois.

Sophomore right-hander Tyler Olmstead also has more strikeouts than innings pitched. Olmstead, who fanned a career-high 10 batters in a March 31 start at Omaha, has since upped his season strikeout total to 46 in 43 innings.

Out of the bullpen, senior Derek Feige has struck out 26 batters in only 21 1/3 innings. Austin Suhr (22 strikeouts in 22 2/3 innings) and Otis Roby (12 K's in 12 1/3 IP) also are averaging nearly one strikeout per inning pitched.

ELITE COMPANY: Prior to Brady Stover's 13-strikeout performance April 7 against Fort Wayne, the SDSU record for strikeouts in a Division I game was 12, and was shared by Robby Apo (2006), Caleb Thielbar (twice in 2009), Blake Treinen (2010) and Layne Somsen (2013). Thielbar, Treinen and Somsen all have since gone on to pitch in the Major Leagues.

SMITH HEATING UP: Nick Smith has made the most of his return to the Jackrabbit lineup after battling through injuries the first two months of the season.

Filling the designated hitter role out of the No. 3 spot in the lineup, Smith put together a team-best 14-game hitting streak that was snapped in the April 29 series finale at Fort Wayne. During his 14-game streak, Smith batted .431 (25-for-58) with seven runs batted in and 13 runs scored.

Smith hit his first collegiate home run in a May 5 victory over Omaha and is currently leading the team with a .324 batting average. He has reached base safely by hit or walk in 24 straight games.

A junior from Chanhassen, Minnesota, Smith earned second-team all-Summit League honors in 2017 as a utility player after leading the team with a .340 batting average and sharing the team lead with two triples.

JOHNSON CONNECTS TWICE: Senior infielder Newt Johnson became the first SDSU player this season to homer twice in the same game as he connected on a pair of round-trippers in the first game of a doubleheader March 17 at Oral Roberts. It was the second two-homer game of Johnson's career, with the first coming on Feb. 27, 2016, versus Virginia Commonwealth in a game played in Wilmington, North Carolina.

Prior to Johnson's two-homer game, Anthony Schneider was the last Jackrabbit to homer twice in a game — March 7, 2017, at Minnesota.

The Rapid City native is tied for fourth in The Summit League with teammate Josh Falk with six home runs. Johnson also leads the Jackrabbits and ranks third in The Summit League with 34 runs batted in.

Johnson had a string of reaching base safely in 29 consecutive games come to an end in the May 4 series opener against Omaha. It was the longest such streak by a Jackrabbit player this season.

GRAND OLD TIME: Phil Velez's game-winning grand slam against Fort Wayne on April 8 was the second grand slam hit by a Jackrabbit this season.

Anthony Schneider connected on a pinch-hit grand slam in SDSU's March 2 game at Southeast Missouri State.

MARRO IN THE NINTH: Junior right-hander Alex Marro has taken over the closer's role in the Jackrabbit bullpen in recent weeks.

Marro has not allowed a run over his last seven appearances, covering 10 2/3 innings. He has recorded three of his team-high four saves over that span, and also earned both of his victories of the season in the opening and final game of last weekend's series against Omaha.

COACHES

Grunzke	GRUNS-key
Higginbotham	HIGG-in-bawth-um
Mormann	MORE-man

His streak began by pitching a combined three scoreless innings in an April 12 double-header against North Dakota State in Sioux Falls. He pitched one scoreless inning in the opener, then earned the save by striking out four in two innings in the nightcap.

Marro also notched saves April 20 versus Oral Roberts and April 27 at Fort Wayne.

PRESSING THE ISSUE: South Dakota State enters the week tied for the Summit League team lead in stolen bases with 53. The Jackrabbits moved atop the league rankings after swiping a combined 11 bases in a three-game series April 27-29 at Fort Wayne. SDSU matched a Division I-era single-game high with seven stolen bases in the April 29 series finale.

Individually, Tony Kjolsing ranks second among Summit League players with 16 stolen bases (in 20 attempts). Newt Johnson ranks second on the team with nine steals, while Landon Badger and Anthony Schneider each have tallied seven stolen bases.

COACH BISHOP: Rob Bishop, who has guided college baseball teams to more than 500 victories, was named head baseball coach at South Dakota State University on Aug. 1, 2016. Bishop is the ninth head coach in program history and the fourth in the Division I era of Jackrabbit baseball.

Overall, Bishop holds a 590-370-1 record (.614 winning percentage) as a collegiate head coach, including a 41-48 mark with the Jackrabbits. Prior to coming to SDSU, he spent six years at NCAA Division II member Montana State University-Billings, where he led the Yellowjackets to back-to-back Great Northwest Athletic Conference regular season titles in 2015 and 2016, attaining the program's first-ever 30-win season with a 30-20 record in 2016.

His squads also were honored as the top academic team in the GNAC each of his last three seasons.

Previously, Bishop spent 10 years at Miles City Community College in Montana, where his teams won MonDak conference championships every year. His squads also claimed five consecutive junior college region titles and a Northwest District championship in 2007 to advance to the NJCAA Division II College World Series. He also served as athletic director the last five years of his tenure at Miles City.

Bishop served as a graduate assistant at SDSU under head coach Mark Ekeland during the 1998 and 1999 seasons. In his first season as a head coach, Bishop led Huron University to the South Dakota Intercollegiate Conference title in 2000.

A 1994 graduate of Jamestown College, Bishop earned NAIA All-America honors during the 1992 and 1994 seasons as an infielder.

THE ROSTER: The 2018 SDSU baseball roster features 33 players from six different states and one Canadian province. Of the 33 players, 12 are from South Dakota, 10 are from Iowa and seven hail from Minnesota. Arizona, Washington and Wisconsin are represented by one player each, as is Manitoba.

By class, seven are seniors, 11 are juniors, eight are sophomores and seven are incoming freshmen.
