JACKRABBITS HEAD BACK TO TEXAS

Sports Information Contact: Jason Hove

February 27, 2020

BROOKINGS, S.D. — For the second time in three weeks, the South Dakota State baseball team will be in the Lone Star State for a weekend series.

This time, the Jackrabbits will head deeper into the heart of Texas in search of better results as they meet UT Rio Grande Valley in a four-game set. Friday's series opener is slated for 7 p.m. at UTRGV Stadium in Edinburg, Texas. A doubleheader is scheduled for a 3 p.m. start on Saturday, with the series finale set for a noon first pitch on Sunday.

Video coverage of all four games will be available online through wacdigitalnetwork.com.

SDSU, 1-6 overall, began the season by being swept in a three-game series Feb. 14-16 at nationally ranked Dallas Baptist. After picking up their first win of the season Feb. 21 at Pacific (Calif.), the Jackrabbits have dropped three games in a row by a total of four runs.

The Jackrabbits are in the midst of playing their first 23 scheduled games on the road.

UTRGV enters the weekend with a 3-6 overall record. The Vaqueros were swept last weekend at No. 24 Oklahoma State before splitting a pair of midweek road games at Houston (W, 6-5 in 12 innings) and Baylor (L, 0-2).

THE SERIES: Friday's game will mark the 34th time SDSU and UTRGV have met on the baseball diamond, but the first matchup between the two programs in a dozen years.

Formerly known as Texas-Pan American, UTRGV has dominated the all-time series by a 32-1 margin, dating back to 1977. Most of the games played in the late 1970s and 1980s were part of the Jody Ramsey Invitational.

SDSU's lone win in the series came in the squads' last meeting, March 7, 2008, in Huntsville, Texas. The Jackrabbits held on for an 11-10 victory and were paced in the victory by three-RBI performances from Billy Stitz and Tyson Fisher. SDSU stole five bases in the game, including two by Tim Hanigan.

PRESEASON POLL: South Dakota State has been picked to finish third in the upcoming Summit League baseball race, according to a poll conducted among conference coaches that was announced Feb. 6 by league officials.

The Jackrabbits received two of the six first-place votes, finishing with 18 points. Oral Roberts received three first-place votes and topped the poll with 23 points, followed by defending league champion Omaha with one first-place vote and 19 points.

Rounding out the poll were: North Dakota State, 16 points; Western Illinois, 9 points, and Purdue Fort Wayne, 5 points.

Among the Jackrabbit returners, juniors Gus Steiger and Bret Barnett were recognized among the Summit League's top players to watch.

A two-time all-Summit League honoree, Steiger paced the Jackrabbits offensively in 2019 with team highs in batting average (.324), hits (73) runs scored (45), runs batted in (43), doubles (13) and stolen bases (18). He also ranked second on the squad with five home runs in starting all 50 games.

Steiger, a native of Minnetonka, Minnesota, was a first-team all-Summit selection at short-stop in 2019, after earning second-team recognition as a second baseman his freshman year.

Barnett emerged as the top relief pitcher in the Summit League during the 2019 season, earning first-team honors after posting a 5-1 record with seven saves. The left-hander from Indianola, Iowa, registered a 1.31 earned run average, struck out 47 batters in 34 1/3 innings and limited opposing hitters to a .138 batting average.

Summit League play is slated to begin March 13, when SDSU opens a three-game set at Oral Roberts. League teams will play a pair of three-game series (home and home) for a total of 30 regular season contests.

The top four teams during the regular season will advance to the 2020 Summit League Baseball Championship, which is scheduled for May 20-23 in Omaha, Nebraska.

LAST TIME OUT: Minnesota scored three times in the bottom of the second inning and held off South Dakota State for a 4-2 victory in nonconference baseball action Wednesday night at U.S. Bank Stadium.

SDSU led 2-0 three batters into the game. Landon Badger led off the game by reaching on an error and came around to score all the way from first base on Gus Steiger's double down the third-base line. Steiger advanced to third on the throw back to the infield and later scored on a groundout off the bat of Ryan McDonald.

Minnesota, 4-4 overall, answered in the home half of the second, when Jordan Kozicky doubled in Easton Bertrand for the first run and Zack Raabe followed a few batters later with a two-out, two-run double that knocked out Jackrabbit starter Riley McSherry.

The score remained 3-2 until Minnesota added an insurance run in the bottom of the eighth on another double by Raabe, one that plated Kozicky. Jack Kelly joined Raabe and Kozicky with two hits for the Golden Gophers, who ended the night with nine hits as a team.

The Jackrabbits managed only three hits in the contest, but were issued 12 free passes – 10 walks and two hit batters – by the Minnesota pitching staff. Steiger was 2-for-4, adding a single in the fifth inning.

SDSU's other hit was a double by Josh Falk in the fourth inning, but the Jackrabbits had a runner thrown out at third base on the play to thwart a potential rally. The Jackrabbits, who stranded 11 runners in the game, left the bases loaded in the sixth.

Six Jackrabbit pitchers combined for a season-high 12 strikeouts. Freshmen Eli Sundquist (five strikeouts) and Rick Atkins (three strikeouts) led SDSU on the mound. Atkins fanned the side in the third inning, while Sundquist followed suit in the fifth.

Minnesota starter Trent Schoeberl earned the win after pitching the first 5 1/3 innings, striking out five and walking five. Reliever Ryan Duffy added four strikeouts in 1 2/3 innings, with Sam Thoreson earning the save after pitching the final two innings with three strikeouts.

A native of Indianola, Iowa, Barnett entered his junior season after turning in one of the best seasons ever by a Jackrabbit hurler during the 2019 campaign. The left-hander posted a 5-1 record with a team-high seven saves in 20 appearances. His 1.31 earned run average was the third-lowest single-season mark by a Jackrabbit with more than 30 innings pitched.

Barnett also struck out 47 batters in 34.1 innings and held the opposition to a .138 batting average en route to first-team all-Summit League honors. He did not allow a run over his last seven appearances and brought a scoreless streak of 13.1 innings into the 2020 season.

Barnett was the lone Summit League player honored on the preseason All-America squad.

In addition, Barnett was recently named to the 2020 Stopper of the Year Preseason Watch List selected by the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association.

MOGEN SETS UP AGAIN: Senior relief pitcher Brett Mogen picked up where he left off from the 2019 season with four shutout innings in his first appearance of the 2020 campaign Feb. 15 versus Dallas Baptist.

The right-hander from Dell Rapids struck out three and walked three, while limiting DBU to two hits.

Dating back to last season, Mogen ran his scoreless innings streak to 16 — over seven appearances — before allowing a run in the series finale at Pacific. He opened the series with three shutout innings in helping lead the Jackrabbits to a 2-1 win in the Feb. 21 series opener.

Mogen finished 2019 with a 1.67 earned run average in sharing the team lead with 20 appearances. His 2019 ERA ranks as the sixth-best in a season by a Jackrabbit who pitched more than 30 innings.

IRONMAN BEHIND THE PLATE: Jackrabbit catcher Derek Hackman has been behind the plate for 55 of the 63 innings SDSU has been in the field so far this season.

The junior from Johnston, Iowa, ranks second on the team with 35 putouts and stands fourth on the team with five hits.

BACK-TO-BACK JACKS: When Matt Krambeck and Drew Beazley hit back-to-back home runs in the Feb. 15 game at Dallas Baptist, it marked the first time the Jackrabbits connected on consecutive circuit clouts in nearly a full calendar year.

The last time SDSU accomplished the feat was Feb. 16, 2019, versus UT Martin, when Logan Holtz and Ryan McDonald went back-to-back in the fifth inning. That also was the second game of the season.

COACH BISHOP: Rob Bishop, who has guided college baseball teams to more than 600 victories, was named head baseball coach at South Dakota State University on Aug. 1, 2016. Bishop is the ninth head coach in program history and the fourth in the Division I era of Jackrabbit baseball.

Now in his fourth season with the Jackrabbits, Bishop holds a 73-84 record at SDSU.

In his first season, Bishop's 2017 squad returned to the winning side of the ledger with a 26-24 overall mark, including an 18-12 record for a third-place finish in The Summit League standings. SDSU won its opening-round game in the Summit League Baseball Championship, 6-5, over second-seeded North Dakota State.

In 2018, SDSU overcame a slow start to post a winning record in Summit League play at 14-13 and went on to reach the title game of the Summit League Baseball Championship. The Jackrabbits finished with an 18-32 overall record during a campaign in which they played only six home games.

SDSU bounced back in 2019, posting a 28-22 overall record that included a second-place mark of 19-10 in Summit League play. The Jackrabbits won or split nine of the 10 league series in regular season play en route to making an appearance in the four-team Summit League Baseball Championship for the 10th time in 11 years.

Overall, Bishop has compiled a 622-406-1 record (.605 winning percentage) as a collegiate head coach. He earned his 600th career victory in the Jackrabbits' 8-6 victory at UA Little Rock on March 10, 2019.

Individually, Jackrabbit players have been honored as all-Summit League performers 18 times during his brief tenure, including eight all-league selections in 2019. Utility player Nick Smith was honored for the third consecutive season, while shortstop Gus Steiger and starting pitcher Tyler Olmstead were repeat selections in 2019.

In addition, catcher Luke Ringhofer was selected in the 22nd round of the 2017 Major League Baseball Draft by the Baltimore Orioles and relief pitcher Chris Halbur was offered a free agent contract by the Los Angeles Dodgers after Bishop's first season in Brookings.
