BIG 12 CONFERENCE

Jackrabbits Begin Home Dual Season

Sports Information Contact: Jason Hove

January 7, 2021

BROOKINGS, S.D. — The South Dakota State University wrestling team opens the home portion of its schedule Sunday afternoon, hosting a dual triangular versus Big 12 Conference rivals Northern Iowa and North Dakota State.

Action begins at 2 p.m. at Frost Arena. Dual action will take place on the east mat, with additional matches between wrestlers not in their teams' respective lineups, slated to be contested on the west mat throughout the afternoon. Video coverage of both mats will be available through FloWrestling.org (subscription required).

SDSU and North Dakota State enter Sunday's triangular with identical 1-1 records. Both teams earned victories over Oregon State while falling to nationally ranked Missouri during competition in a four-team dual event Jan. 3 in Fargo, North Dakota.

Northern Iowa will be wrestling for the first time this season.

The order of duals is as follows:

- No. 23 Northern Iowa vs. South Dakota State
- Northern Iowa vs. North Dakota State
- North Dakota State vs. South Dakota State

Note: There will be a 10-minute intermission between dual meets

THE SERIES: Both Northern Iowa and North Dakota State are longstanding Jackrabbit opponents, dating back to when all three programs competed in the pre-Division I era as members of the North Central Conference.

Series vs. Northern Iowa

South Dakota State has found the going tough in its history against Northern Iowa, with the Panthers holding a 39-5-1 advantage in a dual series that dates back to the 1953-54 season. After a 20-year hiatus, the series resumed during the 2004-05 season, when the Jackrabbits joined UNI at the D-I level as both squads competed in the Western Wrestling Conference.

UNI competed in the Mid-America Conference for five seasons (2013-17) before gaining affiliate membership in the Big 12 Conference prior to the start of the 2017-18 campaign.

In last season's matchup, Jan. 10, 2020, in Cedar Falls, Iowa, the Jackrabbits won five of the first six matches and went on to knock off 16th-ranked Northern Iowa, 25-13.

SDSU opened with victories from Danny Vega at 125 pounds and Zach Price in the 133-pound matchup before 17th-ranked Henry Pohlmeier swung the momentum firmly in the Jackrabbits' favor by defeating seventh-ranked Max Thomsen, 9-1, in the 149-pound bout.

Pohlmeier's win started a string of three consecutive victories that included a decision by Colten Carlson at 157 pounds and a pin by Tanner Cook at 165 pounds.

Tanner Sloan closed out the SDSU victories with a win by fall in the 197-pound match.

Series vs. North Dakota State

South Dakota State and North Dakota State will meet for the 67th time in dual competition, when the two programs clash Sunday evening at Frost Arena. NDSU leads the all-time series between the two longtime rivals, 44-21-1, including a 13-5-1 advantage in the Division I era for both programs.

NDSU has won the last two matchups, including a narrow, 19-18 victory in the 2019-20 dual finale Feb. 21 at Frost Arena.

BIG 12 SUCCESS: Now in its sixth season as an affiliate member of the Big 12 Conference for wrestling, South Dakota State has proven it can contend in one of the top wrestling leagues in the country.

Since joining the league at the start of the 2015-16 season, the Jackrabbits have combined to post a 30-13 record (.698 winning percentage) in duals against Big 12 opponents, with seven of those losses coming during the 2018-19 campaign. SDSU posted an 8-0 mark in Big 12 duals during the 2017-18 season.

The Jackrabbits also turned in back-to-back third-place efforts at the Big 12 Wrestling Championship in both 2017 and 2018, after a fourth-place finish at their inaugural league meet in 2016. SDSU posted another fourth-place finish in 2020, improving six spots in the team standings from the previous season.

RABBITS RANKED: Seven Jackrabbit wrestlers appear in individual national rankings heading into Sunday's home opener.

Sophomore 197-pounder Tanner Sloan leads the SDSU contingent with an eighth-place showing in the InterMat rankings. Sloan also holds rankings of ninth by Trackwrestling and WIN Magazine, and 10th from FloWrestling.

The Alburnett, Iowa, native is coming off a 2019-20 season in which he posted a 21-6 overall record and was an NCAA qualifier. Sloan capped his first season with an All-America selection by the National Wrestling Coaches Association.

Fellow NCAA qualifier Tanner Cook also is ranked in the same four polls at 165 pounds, topping out at No. 15 in the Trackwrestling rankings. Cook, who did not wrestle during the

NEW FACILITY ON THE HORIZON: The South Dakota Board of Regents approved plans in December for South Dakota State University to move forward with a $4 million on-campus wrestling training facility.

The nearly 16,000-square-foot Kurtenbach Family Wrestling Center would be constructed on the southwest corner of the Sanford-Jackrabbit Athletic Complex. Former SDSU wrestler and coach Frank Kurtenbach provided the lead gift for the facility, which will feature four competition mats, plus a strength and conditioning area, locker rooms, team room, coaches' offices and spaces for academics and nutrition.

"The approval from the Board of Regents to break ground on a state-of-the-art wrestling facility will forever change the landscape of SDSU Wrestling," SDSU head coach Damion Hahn said. "I can't thank our Jackrabbit family enough for the contributions that have been made toward this endeavor. I would like to make a special thank you to the Kurtenbach family for their vision and support of the project."

Pending final approval by the South Dakota Legislature, construction of the two-story structure is tentatively scheduled to begin in spring 2021.

COACH HAHN: Damion Hahn is overseeing a successful rebuilding of South Dakota State University wrestling as he is in his third season at the helm of the Jackrabbits' program. Hahn holds a 16-17 career dual record heading into the weekend.

During the 2019-20 season, the Jackrabbits returned to the winning side of the ledger in dual competition by posting a 12-6 overall record, including a 6-3 mark in the Big 12. Included in the dual victories were wins over nationally ranked Northern Iowa and Stanford.

SDSU also improved by six spots in the Big 12 Conference Wrestling Championship, finishing fourth in the team standings at the 2020 competition. Four Jackrabbit wrestlers earned automatic qualifying berths in the NCAA Division I Wrestling Championships, with another receiving a bid as an alternate. The NCAA Championships were later canceled due to the COVID-19 pandemic, but the National Wrestling Coaches Association selected 149-pounder Henry Pohlmeier, 184-pounder Zach Carlson and 197-pounder Tanner Sloan as second-team All-Americans.

In his first season at SDSU, Hahn faced a rebuilding task as the Jackrabbits featured new starters in six spots in the lineup. SDSU finished with a 3-10 dual mark, including a 2-7 record against Big 12 foes. Pohlmeier was the lone NCAA qualifier.

Hahn was hired at SDSU on April 9, 2018, following more than a decade of success as a member of the coaching staff at Cornell (N.Y.).

"Damion represents everything we are looking for in being able to take our wrestling program to the next level," said SDSU Director of Athletics Justin Sell in announcing the hire. "His success both as a collegiate wrestler and coach, along with his ability to recruit high-achieving student-athletes on and off the mat, made him the ideal candidate. He is a tremendous ambassador for the sport who will work tirelessly to ensure wrestling thrives both on our campus and across the country."

Hahn spent 12 years as an assistant coach and later the associate head coach at Cornell in Ithaca, New York. During his tenure, the Big Red recorded 11 top-10 team finishes at the NCAA Championships, including consecutive runner-up finishes in 2010 and 2011. He mentored 50 All-Americans, 12 of whom were individual NCAA champions. Cornell also won 12 straight Ivy League dual championships and 11 consecutive Eastern Intercollegiate Wrestling Association team titles.

In accepting his first head coaching position, Hahn made a return to the Midwest. As a collegiate wrestler at Minnesota, Hahn won NCAA individual national titles as a junior and senior. A four-time All-American, he also was a three-time Big 10 individual champion and was named the Jesse Owens Big 10 Male Athlete of the Year in 2004. The Golden Gophers won team NCAA championships during both his freshman and sophomore seasons. He finished his collegiate career with a 118-21 record.

Hahn was inducted into the University of Minnesota's M Club Hall of Fame in 2018.
