WE ARE THE SOUTH DAKOTA STATE JACKRABBITS

Please call us South Dakota State or SDSU.

Please do not call us San Diego State, SDST or SDS, and please, never call us South Dakota. What's the difference? Great Question. Calling us "South Dakota" is like calling Arizona State, "Arizona," or Ohio State, "Ohio."

Again, calling South Dakota State "San Diego State" is just not cool, so please don't do it.

Also, Jackrabbits is one word, not Jack Rabbits or JackRabbits. Our jackrabbit mascot is modeled after a real species of rabbit, not a rabbit named Jack. Technically speaking, a jackrabbit is a hare, but let's not get technical. Calling us the Jacks is an acceptable second reference. Referring to our women's teams the "Lady Jacks" is never appropriate.

Madison Mathiowetz was a top-five finalist for the Miss Minnesota Basketball award as a high school senior. She was a three-time Class A Minnesota all-state selection and four-time conference player of the year. Mathiowetz ended her high school career with 3,762 points, which is the St. Mary's school record and ranks fourth in the history of Minnesota girls basketball. She averaged a blistering 34.9 points, 11.5 rebounds, 4.9 assists and 3.8 assists as a senior.

Brooklyn Meyer graduated from West Lyon with 1,493 career points, 967 career rebounds, 413 career blocks and a .541 career field-goal rate, all school records. Her 119 blocks as a senior is also a school record. Meyer was a three-time first-team all-state selection and earned all-tournament team honors at the Iowa State Tournament as a junior and senior.

Natalie Nielsen was a three-time all-district honoree and four-time all-conference selection for Akron-Westfield High School. She ended her career with 1,289 career points, which ranks second all-time for the Westerners, and is the program's career leader in rebounds with 810. Nielsen averaged 17.2 points and 10.4 rebounds as a senior.

SEASON PREVIEW

The Jackrabbits return six of its top seven scorers from last year's 29-9 WNIT championship squad, including the 2022 WNIT MVP and 2022-23 Summit League Preseason Player of the Year Myah Selland. Selland averaged 14.3 points per game last season to pace the Jackrabbits and added 5.5 rebounds, 3.3 assists and 1.1 steals on average, all of which ranked second on the team.

Selland is just one of a number of talented returners. She was joined on the Summit League's preseason first team by Paiton Burckhard (11.3 PPG, 5.6 RPG, 2.2 APG) and Paige Meyer (10.4 PPG, 3.7 RPG, 4.1 APG). Tori Nelson (10.3 PPG, 4.2 RPG, 1.9 APG) landed on the league's preseason second team.

Haleigh Timmer averaged 8.0 PPG for the Jackrabbits as a freshman. She moved into the starting lineup during the Jacks' WNIT run and averaged 17.1 PPG on her way to all-tournament honors. Kallie Theisen (6.3 PPG, 4.8 RPG, 1.2 APG) rounds out the returners from the regular rotation. Mesa Byom, Madysen Vlastuin and Regan Nesheim are also back for the Jackrabbits.

SDSU added five newcomers in 2022-23 - one graduate transfer and four true freshmen.

MORE JACKRABBIT NOTES

Dru Gylten comes to SDSU as a graduate transfer from Utah where she averaged 5.2 assists per game last year. Freshmen Madison Mathiowetz and Ellie Colbeck join the Jacks to provide depth as guards while Brooklyn Meyer and Natalie Nielsen come in as forward options.

CHAMPIONS IN THE CLASSROOM

The Jackrabbits posted a 3.837 team GPA in 2021-22, the top GPA in all of NCAA Division I and the highest single-year GPA in the program's Division I era.

It was the fifth time in the award's history SDSU earned the No. 1 ranking (2005-06, 2006-07, 2007-08, 2010-11, 2021-22).

Myah Selland was named to the CoSIDA Academic All-America second team for the second consecutive season in 2021-22. She was joined on the Summit League's all-academic team by teammates Tylee Irwin and Tori Nelson.

All 14 Jackrabbits from last season's roster earned a spot on the Summit League's Academic Honor Roll. All eligible Jacks (those in their second year and beyond) were named to the Summit League Commissioner's List of Academic Excellence.

HER TURN

SDSU's Tori Nelson and Myah Selland are the co-founders of a non-profit foundation called Her Turn, which is designed to create more equitable sporting opportunities for girls and young women in the Brookings community.

Her Turn is a scholarship program designed to provide sport opportunities to young girls within the Brookings community who may not otherwise have the chance due to financial need. Recipients of a Her Turn scholarship will be able to attend an SDSU athletic camp of their choice at no cost to their family.

This past summer, Her Turn provided scholarships for SDSU sports camps to nine girls in Brookings.

The summer after NIL legislation passed, Nelson and Selland reached out to a few of their professors to talk about how they could use their reach and influence to help more young girls get into sports.

From the Her Turn website: "The importance of participating in sports at a young age cannot be overstated, especially in young girls. Unfortunately, girls face unique challenges in sports participation. Statistically, they have fewer opportunities to get involved, are less likely to play in the first place, and are much more likely to drop out earlier if they do. On the contrary, girls who do have the opportunity to participate in sports reap benefits such as improved mental and physical health, and learn valuable lessons pertaining to hard work, collaboration, and teamwork."

LAST TIME OUT

JACKRABBITS OUTLAST NO. 24/25 K-STATE

KANSAS CITY, Mo. - The South Dakota State women's basketball team held off a late surge by No. 24/25 Kansas State to beat the Wildcats 82-78 Saturday afternoon at Municipal Auditorium.

SDSU moves to 6-4 on the season and 2-1 against ranked opponents this year. K-State is now 9-2.

Four Jacks finished in double digits, led by a 20-point outing on 8-of-11 shooting from Myah Selland. The redshirt senior also contributed five rebounds, two assists and a steal. Paiton Burckhard was 4-for-5 on the afternoon for 13 points and posted seven boards and a block. Vlastuin chipped in 12 points, all from the 3-point line, and had four rebounds, four assists and two steals. Haleigh Timmer also had 12 points and added five rebounds.

Neither team gained more than a six-point advantage in the opening 20 minutes and the Jackrabbits went into the locker room up four, 41-37. SDSU extended that lead to nine within the first minute of the second half, scoring five straight out of the break, and later took a 12-point lead on a pair of Madison Mathiowetz free throws. The Jackrabbits led by eight after three quarters.

The Jackrabbits took their largest lead of the game - 14 points - on a Vlastuin 3-pointer three minutes into the fourth period but then were held to only two more field goals the remainder of the contest. A 12-4 run pulled the Wildcats back within six with 90 seconds to play but the Jacks fended off the Wildcats' comeback with seven made free throws in the final minute.

Mathiowetz and Brooklyn Meyer finished with six points each. Despite being held scoreless in the first 39 minutes of the contest, Tori Nelson knocked down five free throws in the last 60 seconds to help secure the win.

South Dakota State shot 51 percent from the field and 36 percent from the 3-point arc compared to 36 percent field goal shooting and a 22 percent 3-point shooting by K-State. The Jacks had a 45-30 advantage in rebounding and 6-5 edge in blocks.

The Wildcats turned the Jacks over 20 times and committed only eight turnovers themselves. They also had a 13-4 lead in steals. K-State was led by Gabby Gregory's 31 points and six rebounds.
