Jacks close California swing at Sacramento State

Athletic Communications Contact: Jason Hove

February 25, 2025

BROOKINGS, S.D. — The South Dakota State University baseball team wraps up an eight-day, eight-game season-opening trip to California with a four-game series at Sacramento State.

The series opener is set for a 6 p.m. Pacific Time (8 p.m. Central) first pitch Wednesday night at John Smith Field in the California capital city. Games Thursday and Friday are set for 2 p.m. PT (4 p.m. CT), with the series finale scheduled for 1 p.m. PT (3 p.m. CT) on Saturday.

Video coverage of all four games will be distributed stateside through the ESPN+ streaming platform (subscription required) and internationally at WACInternational.tv.

South Dakota State enters the series still in search of its first win of the season after suffering a four-game sweep at the hands of Pacific (Calif.) to begin the road swing. The Jackrabbits had their original season-opening series the previous weekend at Murray State canceled due to inclement weather.

Sacramento State, meanwhile, has posted a 4-4 record through its first eight games of the season, splitting four-game series against both San Francisco (Feb. 14-17) and Ball State (Feb. 20-22).

Updates of Jackrabbit baseball will be available throughout the weekend via Twitter (@GoJacksBaseball) and through GoJacks.com.

THE SERIES: Wednesday's series opener will mark the seventh all-time meeting between South Dakota State and Sacramento State on the baseball diamond. The Hornets hold a 4-2 series advantage on the strength of winning the last four games between the two programs.

South Dakota State won the first two matchups in a series played Feb. 16-18, 2007, in Sacramento. The Jackrabbits won the inaugural meeting, 2-1, behind a strong combined pitching performance by Erik Bess, Kevin Morsching and Jacob Kougl, before claiming a win in that first series with a 15-3 victory in Game 2 as Jake Rogers and Cal Lewis each drove in three runs.

Sacramento State won the 2007 series finale, 13-4, then swept a weather-altered three-game series during the 2016 season by scores of 10-7, 11-3 and 4-0. The first game of the 2016 series was played in Sacramento, while the final two games were moved to Stockton, California, and played at Pacific University.

SHORT HOPS: Following are some quick notes regarding the South Dakota State baseball team heading into this week's series at Sacramento State:

- The Jackrabbits dropped to 5-16 in Opening Day games during the Division I era (since 2005) with a 7-1 setback at Pacific on Feb. 21.

- South Dakota State pitchers struck out 12 and issued nine walks in the Feb. 21 opener at Pacific, then combined for 12 more walks over the final three games of the series against 22 K's.

- Thirteen different pitchers saw mound duty for the Jackrabbits in the four-game series at Pacific, including freshmen right-handers Caleb Duerr and Drew McDowell making their collegiate debuts.

- Reece Arbogast (relief outing in Game 1 of Feb. 22 doubleheader) and Arlen Peters (Feb. 23 start) shared the longest outing by an SDSU pitcher last weekend at four innings.

- Freshman outfielder Nicholas Werk recorded a pair of outfield assists, throwing out runners at home plate in the Feb. 21 opener and Game 2 of a Feb. 22 doubleheader.

- SDSU had a streak of 17 scoreless innings at the plate in the Pacific series, covering the final 12 innings of the Feb. 22 doubleheader and first five innings of the Feb. 23 series finale.

THE CHRISTIANSEN CONNECTION: South Dakota State will be facing one of its former head coaches in this week's series at Sacramento State. Reggie Christiansen led the Jackrabbit baseball program from 2005-08, helping the Jackrabbits usher in their Division I era.

During his four seasons in Yellow and Blue, Christiansen guided South Dakota State to a 96-113 combined record, improving from 17 wins his first season to 34 victories and a Division I Independent tournament championship in 2007.

Christiansen departed SDSU following the 2008 season to return to his home state as an assistant coach at Sacramento State under longtime skipper John Smith. Christiansen was promoted to head coach following Smith's retirement after the 2010 season, and has led the Hornets to 429 victories during his tenure, including 11 30-win seasons, of which two were also 40-victory campaigns.

PRESEASON POLL: South Dakota State has been picked to finish fifth in the upcoming Summit League baseball race, according to a preseason poll conducted among the league's head coaches that was announced earlier this month.

The Jackrabbits are coming off a 2024 season in which they posted a 20-29 overall record, including an 11-17 mark in Summit League play.

Defending league tournament champion Oral Roberts collected three first-place votes to take the top spot in the poll with 22 points. St. Thomas (19 points), Omaha (18) and North Dakota State (17) each received one first-place vote to hold spots 2-4, followed by SDSU with eight points and Northern Colorado with six.

Summit League play begins March 14, when the Jackrabbits travel to Northern Colorado for the start of a three-game series. The four-team Summit League Baseball Championship is set for May 21-24 in Omaha, Nebraska.

In addition, SDSU shortstop Carter Sintek was named a Summit League Player to Watch and reliever Dylan Driessen was selected as a Summit League Pitcher to Watch.

A sophomore from Bennington, Nebraska, Sintek started 23 games in the first half of the 2024 season before being sidelined the remainder of the year for medical reasons. He batted .283 (26-for-92) with seven extra-base hits (2 doubles, 3 triples, 2 home runs) and nine runs batted in, while posting eight multi-hit games.

Driessen, a junior from Omaha, Nebraska, averaged 12.98 strikeouts per nine innings last season, tallying 62 K's in 43 innings of work. The right-hander made a team-high 25 appearances, finishing the 2024 campaign with a 3-3 record and one save.

SUMMIT LEAGUE SUCCESS: South Dakota State has been a consistent winner in The Summit League since it became a league member more than a decade ago. Now in its 16th season as a member of The Summit League, the Jackrabbits have compiled a 226-193 (.539 winning percentage) record in regular season conference games. SDSU has posted a .500 or better record in league play 10 times and has qualified for the four-team postseason tournament 13 out of the 15 years it has been eligible.

The Jackrabbits shared a Summit League regular season title in 2010 and won the league's postseason tournament in 2013.

POWER SURGE: The Jackrabbits have dramatically increased their power numbers in recent years, leading The Summit League in home runs two of the last three seasons.

In 2022, SDSU finished the 2022 season with a league-leading 62 home runs in 45 games — an increase of 34 home runs from the previous campaign. The Jackrabbits homered in 26 of their last 28 games, which included a school-record streak of 18 consecutive games with a homer from March 19-May 6, 2022.

The 2023 squad connected on a school-record 89 home runs in 52 games. Only the College World Series-qualifying squad from Oral Roberts hit more home runs among league schools that season with 98, but needed 14 more games to do so.

SDSU hit at least one home run in each of its first nine games of the 2023 season and had an 11-game home run streak later in the campaign. Overall, the Jacks hit a home run in 38 of 52 contests during the 2023 campaign, including a season-best seven homers two times.

The Jackrabbits finished the 2023 season ranked 29th among NCAA Division I teams with an average of 1.71 home runs per game and 40th with a .505 slugging percentage.

SDSU returned to the top of the pack in home runs in 2024 by hitting 80 round-trippers — 30 more than the next-closest league opponent, Oral Roberts. Summit League Player of the Year Cael Frost connected on a school-record 21 home runs to lead both SDSU and the conference, while Dawson Parry (15) and Jordan Sagedahl (10) also notched double figures in home runs en route to all-league recognition.

However, all three of those players have moved on, leaving sophomore Luke Luskey as the Jackrabbits' top returning home run hitter. The first baseman came on strong late in the season to finish with eight home runs, highlighted by a pair of two-home run games in the final two weekends of the 2024 campaign.

In all, 12 different Jackrabbit players hit at least one home run last season.

YOUTH MOVEMENT: Three true freshmen found their names on the lineup card for the Jackrabbits in their Opening Day game at Pacific last Friday.

On the infield, Keagen Jirschele (second base) and Nolan Grawe (third base) earned starting assignments, while Nicholas Werk patrolled left field. Jirschele drove in the only run of the game for the Jackrabbits with a sixth-inning single.

Fellow freshmen Dayton Franke (designated hitter/first baseman) and Owen Siebert (outfield) also started games in the series.

LUSKEY LEADS AT THE PLATE: Luke Luskey provided the bulk of the offense for the Jackrabbits in their season-opening series at Pacific.

A sophomore from Green Isle, Minnesota, Luskey batted .571 (8-for-14) with a .929 slugging percentage during the four-game set. He recorded three-hit games in both the series opener and finale while notching one hit in the middle two games of the series to extend his hitting streak dating back to last season to nine games.

Luskey hit SDSU's lone home run of the series in the Feb. 23 finale and also tallied a pair of doubles in the series.

RONKEN MOVES TO RIGHT: Sophomore Bryce Ronken is expected to make a full-time move to the outfield during the 2025 season.

A Sioux Falls native, Ronken split time between third base, designated hitter and outfield a year ago. He put up solid offensive numbers by ranking third on the team with a .313 batting average (35-for-112) and a .545 slugging percentage as 14 of his 35 hits (7 doubles, 2 triples and 5 home runs) went for extra bases.

GOBLE SEEKS BOUNCE-BACK SEASON: Senior pitcher Jake Goble will attempt to regain the form that he displayed during a breakthrough 2023 season.

A right-hander from Rapid City, Goble earned honorable mention all-Summit League honors as a sophomore after leading the team with 58 1/3 innings pitched and a 4.32 earned run average while sharing the team lead with five victories and 11 games started. He also was named to the all-tournament team at the Summit League Baseball Championship after a solid start in an elimination game against North Dakota State as the Jacks advanced to the title game.

In 2024, Goble pitched through an up-and-down season in which he dropped to a 3-8 record.

MADISON EARNS OPENING DAY START: Newcomer Ty Madison was named the Jackrabbits' Opening Day starter and was charged with the loss after allowing five runs in 2 1/3 innings. He struck out four and walked three in his Jackrabbit debut.

A right-hander from Omaha, Nebraska, Madison previously pitched at Des Moines Area Community College, where he made a combined 14 starts and went 8-5 during the 2023 and 2024 seasons. Madison posted a 4-3 record in 2024, striking out 35 batters in 37 1/3 innings over eight starts as DMACC advanced to the NJCAA Division II World Series.

BACK END OF THE BULLPEN: South Dakota State boasts two of the top power arms in The Summit League within its relief corps.

Senior Alex Clemons and junior Dylan Driessen both entered the 2025 season ranked in the top four in program history for strikeouts per nine innings pitched. Driessen currently stands third with an average of 12.80 strikeouts/9 innings after tallying 100 K's in 70 1/3 innings pitched during his career.

Driessen reached the 100-strikeout mark in his season debut Feb. 23 at Pacific, striking out a pair of batters in 2 1/3 innings of work.

A native of Bettendorf, Iowa, Clemons is right behind in fourth place with an average of 12.36 K's/9 innings after fanning 108 batters in 78 2/3 career innings. He fanned three batters in 1 2/3 scoreless innings while also pitching in the Feb. 23 series finale at Pacific.

Eli Sundquist, who pitched for the Jackrabbits from 2020-23 is the current school record holder with an average of 13.99 K's/9 innings.

FAMILY AFFAIR: Two sets of brothers help make up the 2025 roster for the South Dakota State baseball team.

Both brotherly combinations came to fruition this season as Colin Gibson and Nicholas Werk joined their older brothers, Jayden and Matthew, respectively, on the squad.

A catcher Jayden Gibson was limited to one game last season due to injury after previously playing at Western Illinois and Parkland College (Ill.). Colin Gibson turned in an All-America season as a shortstop at the junior college level in 2024 at Dakota County Technical College (Minn.).

The Werk brothers hail from Madison Lake, Minnesota, and were standouts at nearby Mankato East High School. Matthew Werk has lettered as a reserve infielder each of the last two seasons, while Nicholas was the Opening Day left fielder for the Jackrabbits.

Adding to the family connections on this year's squad, senior pitcher Owen Bishop is the nephew of Jackrabbit head coach Rob Bishop.

FACILITY IMPROVEMENTS: South Dakota State's Erv Huether Field is in the midst of a renovation project that will convert the Jackrabbits' home baseball facility to a fully synthetic turf playing surface.

The privately financed project, which is being completed in conjunction with similar improvements at the adjacent Jerald T. Moriarty Field for softball was announced in August 2024 and is expected to be completed in time for SDSU's home opener in March.

"This upgrade is an absolute game changer in recruiting and developing great players," head coach Rob Bishop said. "We will be able to play more home games in addition to having more consistent practice conditions in the fall and spring."

An SDSU alum, who has chosen to remain anonymous, provided the lead gift. Three baseball alumni and their families – Chuck and Dorie Sendelbach, Charles and Linda Elhoff, and Jimmy and Amber May – also provided substantial gifts to move the project forward.

SDSU's home opener is tentatively scheduled for March 21 against St. Thomas.

NEWSTROM JOINS COACHING STAFF: Michael Newstrom joined the South Dakota State baseball coaching staff in the fall of 2024 and will oversee the Jackrabbit pitching staff.

Most recently, Newstrom spent the 2024 season as a pitching assistant at Cal State University Bakersfield. The Roadrunners improved in nearly every pitching statistical category from the previous year, including a drop in team earned run average by a full run.

A native of Puyallup, Washington, Newstrom also coached three seasons in collegiate summer leagues. He spent the 2021 season as pitching coach and first base coach for the Souris Valley Sabre Dogs. The team based in Minot, North Dakota, went on to win the Expedition League championship with a 47-18 record.

He moved on to work with the pitching staff of the Willmar (Minn.) Stingers of the Northwoods League during the 2022 and 2023 summer seasons. The Stingers finished the 2022 campaign with a 48-20 record, followed by a 26-8 mark in 2023 en route to playoff appearances both years after winning half-season division titles. Six players he worked with advanced to the Cape Cod League and six more were selected in the Major League Baseball Draft.

Newstrom pitched four seasons (2018-2021) at Washington State University, primarily as a reliever. The left-hander set the single-season school record with 34 appearances his senior season and ranks eighth all-time in appearances for the Cougars with 76.

Following his playing days at WSU, Newstrom began his coaching career as a student assistant and took on multiple roles under head coaches Brian Green and Anthony Claggett, including bullpen coach, scouting and analytics, camp instruction and serving as the program's director of operations. He helped develop individual routines for Cougar pitchers, specializing in mechanics and recovery/training.

In each of his two seasons on staff, the Cougar pitching staff established new single-season strikeout records with 473 in 2022 and 518 in 2023.

COACH BISHOP: Rob Bishop, who has guided college baseball teams to more than 700 victories, was named head baseball coach at South Dakota State University on Aug. 1, 2016. Bishop is the ninth head coach in program history and the fourth in the Division I era of Jackrabbit baseball.

Through eight seasons with the Jackrabbits, Bishop holds a 158-206 record at SDSU, including a 97-91 mark in Summit League regular season games. He recorded his 100th win with the Jackrabbits on April 3, 2022, as SDSU posted a 2-1 victory at St. Thomas.

In his first season, Bishop's 2017 squad returned to the winning side of the ledger with a 26-24 overall mark, including an 18-12 record for a third-place finish in The Summit League standings. SDSU won its opening-round game in the Summit League Baseball Championship, 6-5, over second-seeded North Dakota State.

In 2018, SDSU overcame a slow start to post a winning record in Summit League play at 14-13 and went on to reach the title game of the Summit League Baseball Championship. The Jackrabbits finished with an 18-32 overall record during a campaign in which they played only six home games.

SDSU bounced back in 2019, posting a 28-22 overall record that included a second-place mark of 19-10 in Summit League play. The Jackrabbits won or split nine of the 10 league series in regular season play en route to making an appearance in the four-team Summit League Baseball Championship for the 10th time in 11 years.

The 2020 season was canceled just before the start of Summit League play, with SDSU posting a 5-12 record in the first month of the season. The Jackrabbits recorded wins at Minnesota, Air Force and Kansas State the final week of the pandemic-shortened campaign.

When play resumed in the spring of 2021, the Jackrabbits posted a 15-32 overall record and suffered their first losing season in league play since 2016, but managed to earn the fourth and final spot in the Summit League Baseball Championship.

SDSU used a powerful offense to return to the Summit League tournament in 2022 after posting a 13-9 record in league play. The Jackrabbits, who doubled up the opposition in home runs by a 62-30 count, played only 12 home games in posting a 22-23 overall mark.

The Jackrabbits continued their offensive prowess in 2023 by setting a school record with 89 home runs in 52 games. SDSU played only one true home game but managed a 24-28 overall record and another winning season in Summit League play with a 13-11 mark. That momentum carried over to the four-team league postseason tournament, where the Jackrabbits made a run to the title game.

SDSU hit a Summit League-best 80 home runs in 2024 and also led the circuit with a .492 slugging percentage in 2024, but missed the four-team league tournament for the first time since 2012 after posting a 20-29 overall record and an 11-17 mark in conference play.

Overall, Bishop holds a 707-528-1 record (.572 winning percentage) as a collegiate head coach. He earned his 700th career victory in the Jackrabbits' 11-7 win at North Dakota State on April 6, 2024.

Individually, Jackrabbit players have been honored as all-Summit League performers 41 times during Bishop's tenure, including seven all-league selections in 2024. Outfielder Cael Frost became the first Jackrabbit baseball player to be honored as Summit League Player of the Year and was joined on the all-league first team by Cade Stuff (second baseman), Dawson Parry (designated hitter), Jordan Sagedahl (utility player) and Nic McCay (starting pitcher). Outfielder Reece Anderson and freshman first baseman Luke Luskey were second-team honorees in 2024.

In addition, Bishop has mentored a handful of Jackrabbit players who have pursued professional careers. Catcher Luke Ringhofer was selected in the 22nd round of the 2017 Major League Baseball Draft by the Baltimore Orioles and relief pitcher Chris Halbur was offered a free agent contract by the Los Angeles Dodgers after Bishop's first season in Brookings. Shortstop Gus Steiger signed with the Cincinnati Reds following an abbreviated 2020 MLB Draft. In 2019, left-handed pitcher Brady Stover was a 31st-round pick of the Washington Nationals, but opted to return to the Jackrabbits for his senior season.

Following the 2023 MLB Draft, pitcher Ryan Bourassa signed as a free agent with the Atlanta Braves organization.

Prior to becoming head coach at SDSU, Bishop spent six years at NCAA Division II member Montana State University-Billings, where he led the Yellowjackets to back-to-back Great Northwest Athletic Conference regular season titles in 2015 and 2016, attaining the program's first-ever 30-win season with a 30-20 record in 2016.

Previously, Bishop spent 10 years at Miles City Community College in Montana, where his teams won MonDak conference championships every year. His squads also claimed five consecutive junior college region titles and a Northwest District championship in 2007 to advance to the NJCAA Division II College World Series.
