1984 JACKRABBITS: COLLEGE WORLD SERIES QUALIFIERS

When Mark Ekeland became the fourth coach in SDSU baseball history, no one expected a whole lot. After all, the team was 14-16 in 1983, and hadn't made the NCAA Tournament in seven years.

That 1984 season turned into one of the most memorable in school history, as SDSU finished 27-13 and advanced to the NCAA Division II College World Series.

The Jacks won the NCC Tournament, twice defeating host Minnesota State, Mankato.

SDSU earned the right to host the Midwest Regional, and defeated Missouri-St. Louis in the championship, earning a trip to Riverside, California, and the CWS.

Though the Jacks would lose both games in California, it could not diminish the accomplishments of the squad.

During the season, the 1984 team accounted for 19 records. While 18 of those have since been broken, Dave Lane, as a sophomore, set a new benchmark for career stolen bases. He still holds that mark, with 76. In addition, Ekeland was named Midwest Regional Coach of the Year.

ALL-AMERICANS

ED MARAS

PITCHER • WINDOM, MINN.

1966 • COLLEGE BASEBALL COACHES ASSOCIATION • FIRST TEAM

The 6-foot-2, 225 pound righty was described in his All-American candidacy as “strong as the proverbial bull.” The proof? Before he graduated from SDSU, the Windom, Minn., native was drafted by the NFL’s Green Bay Packers and the American League’s Baltimore Orioles.

Maras earned his baseball recognition with a tremendous senior season, which led to becoming the first All-America selection for the Jackrabbit baseball program.

Before 1966, no SDSU pitcher had ever won more than five games. Maras topped that, going 7-2 with a 2.61 earned run average. He led the Jacks to their second straight North Central Conference title, striking out a team-best 58 batters in 69 innings of work.

Of his two losses, one came at the hands of Minnesota, runners-up in the Big Ten that season, and the Gophers only managed six hits and one earned run off him.

He was more than just a pitcher, however, as Maras also stood out as an all-conference first baseman that season. Maras hit .357 with 12 extra-base hits (four doubles, four triples and four home runs), ending the year with a .602 slugging percentage.

The Jackrabbits, led by Maras, finished that year 15-12, but 10-2 inside the NCC. Maras was responsible for nearly half of the squad’s wins on the mound, and led the team in nearly every offensive category.

JIM LANGER

OUTFIELDER • ROYALTON, MINN.

1969 • COLLEGE BASEBALL COACHES ASSOCIATION • SECOND TEAM

Everyone recognizes Jim Langer as a Pro Football Hall of Famer and the starting center on the 1972 World Champion and undefeated Miami Dolphins.

Jackrabbit historians, however, remember him just as much for his prowess on the diamond as the gridiron.

Langer’s impressive junior season earned him second-team All-America honors in the college division, which would later be known as Division II.

Selected as an outfielder, Langer won SDSU’s proverbial “triple crown,” as he led the Jackrabbits in hitting, pitching and fielding.

Listed at 6-foot-2 and 240 pounds, Langer hit .399 while setting then-single season records with 37 hits and 25 runs batted in. He hit five doubles, two triples and three homers, slugging .505.

As a starting pitcher, he compiled a 5-3 mark with a 3.19 earned run average. As you can imagine, Langer was much more power than finesse, striking out 50 batters in 53.1 innings.

On top of it all, Langer did not commit an error while patrolling the outfield, leading the Jacks to a share of the North Central Conference crown — SDSU’s third in five seasons.

DEAN KROGMAN

INFIELDER • LISMORE, MINN.

1971 • COLLEGE BASEBALL COACHES ASSOCIATION • FIRST TEAM

The 1971 South Dakota State University baseball squad finished one game shy of a North Central Conference championship — but don’t blame Dean Krogman.

All that the Minnesotan did was set a record for slugging percentage that still stands today, set four more records that have since been broken, and led the NCC in six different offensive categories.

Krogman hit for the highest average, at that time, in SDSU history, ending the season with a .417 average (42-for-101). He hit 10 homers, drove in 34 runs, and tallied 42 hits, all of which were also records that have since been eclipsed.

The most amazing stat about Krogman’s season was his ability to hit for power. Of his 42 hits, 24 went for extra bases, leading to a school-record .881 slugging percentage. That mark still stands, more than 40 years later.

He hit 11 doubles and three triples, striking out only 14 times in 30 starts.

As previously mentioned, he was an even bigger factor against conference foes. He hit at a .418 clip in the NCC, tops in the conference. He also held top honors in the league for hits (28), home runs (9), total bases (66), triples (3) and runs scored (23).

South Dakota State started the year with a seven-game losing streak, but with the help of Krogman the Jacks won 14 of their last 23 games, posting a 13-7 mark in the NCC.

DAVE MANKE

OUTFIELDER • MARSHALL, MINN.

1976 • COLLEGE BASEBALL COACHES ASSOCIATION • THIRD TEAM

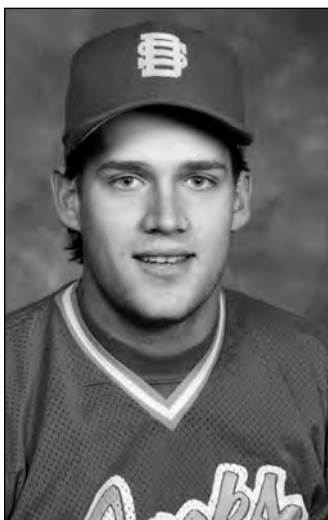

When asked to describe Manke, legendary Jackrabbit baseball coach Erv Huether said "he's one of the best I've ever coached."

Talk about high praise.

Manke, who did just about everything during his time in blue and yellow, was a three-time all-District V selection, earning All-America status following his senior season.

During his final year, Manke helped SDSU to an 18-16 mark, including a 13-7 record and a runner-up finish in the North Central Conference.

Manke, a native of Marshall, Minnesota, led SDSU with a .386 batting average, scoring 27 runs while tallying seven doubles, a triple and two long balls. He drew 24 walks compared to only five strikeouts in 131 plate appearances. That's a ratio of one strikeout every 26 times up.

BILLY McMACKEN

DESIGNATED HITTER • BROOKINGS, S.D.

1988 • COLLEGE BASEBALL COACHES ASSOCIATION • THIRD TEAM

The beginning of something special was McMacken's 1988 campaign, the first of three consecutive All-America seasons for the Brookings product.

The designated hitter lived up to the position's name, hitting at a .409 clip, and set a then-school record with 35 runs batted in.

When he towed the rubber, the southpaw was just as impressive. He was a perfect 5-0, and while his earned run average was above five, opponents hit only .302 against him.

In addition to his pitching and DH duties, he saw plenty of action at first base, where he was perfect defensively, not making an error the entire season.

McMacken's numbers would have been even more impressive, but SDSU had to forfeit its first 10 games of the season. While all the other statistics stand from those games, McMacken's three pitching victories do not, and therefore he's only credited for a 5-0 season.

The Jackrabbits went 27-15, winning the NCC's Southern Division. In fact, SDSU played its way to the NCC Tournament's title tilt, falling to host Minnesota State, Mankato.

1989 • COLLEGE BASEBALL COACHES ASSOCIATION • THIRD TEAM

As a junior, McMacken became the first Jackrabbit to ever earn multiple All-American honors.

In leading SDSU to a 30-16-1 record, McMacken topped the Jackrabbits in batting average (.416), home runs (10), runs batted in (52), total bases (109), hits (62) and runs scored (48). He also hit 13 doubles, which tied for tops on the squad.

For the second consecutive season, McMacken was errorless in the field in 36 total chances.

He also pitched in 11 games, going 5-6 with a 6.55 ERA.

Even though McMacken still had a year to play, he'd already set the career record for runs batted in, which at that point was 142.

SDSU rattled off a 30-win season in 1989, going 11-1 to win the Southern Division title. Despite hosting the NCC Tournament, SDSU was eliminated prior to the championship game.

1990 • COLLEGE BASEBALL COACHES ASSOCIATION • THIRD TEAM

South Dakota State won its sixth consecutive NCC Southern Division crown, claimed a runner-up finish at the NCC Tournament, and earned a postseason berth to the Central Regional. The year 1990 also marked an unprecedented third-consecutive All-America season Billy McMacken.

School records the lefty set during his senior season included 16 homers, 60 runs batted in and 127 total bases. The total bases mark remained a school mark until 2010, while his 60 RBIs and 16 home runs each ranked second on the list until the Division I era.

He also smacked 18 doubles, which stood as a single-season record for 18 years.

On the mound, he went 5-5 with a 5.12 ERA, holding opponents to a .276 batting average.

TREVOR SCHULTE

PITCHER • MONTEVIDEO, MINN.

1993 • COLLEGE BASEBALL COACHES ASSOCIATION • FIRST TEAM

One could argue that Trevor Schulte is the greatest pitcher in Jackrabbit baseball history – and it would be hard to refute.

The left-hander from Montevideo, Minnesota, got off to a rocky start as a junior, losing each of the first two games he pitched. He would not lose a game for another 14 months.

Schulte started 11 more games, winning 10 of them, and finished the season with an earned run average of 2.88.

He also made two appearances out of the bullpen, notching one save in his 81 innings of work. He recorded 72 strikeouts while only walking 38. In fact, he allowed just 57 hits all season for an opponents' batting average of .197.

Schulte was named Most Valuable Pitcher of both the North Central Conference and the North Central Region, setting a single-season record for wins that he would break again the next year.

Following his 10-win streak to end the 1993 season, Schulte won his first 11 outings of his senior season, which tied an NCAA Division II record that stood for 17 years.

TERRY VAN ENGELENHOVEN

FIRST BASEMAN/DH • LUVERNE, MINN.

1993 • COLLEGE BASEBALL COACHES ASSOCIATION • SECOND TEAM

In his first two years as a Jackrabbit, Terry Van Engelenhoven had a total of 12 at-bats. While his one hit was a home run, there was no reason to think this pitcher was going to be anything special with the bat.

And then came 1993.

Van Engelenhoven started 54 games as a first baseman/designated hitter and turned in single-season records with 67 hits and 17 home runs, finishing the year with a .416 batting average.

He also turned in some big innings on the mound, throwing one complete game – the championship game of the NCC Tournament, as he shut down North Dakota. He went 3-4 in 63 innings of work this year.

To add even more irony to it all, Van Engelenhoven wasn't even a first-team all-North Central Conference selection. The Luverne, Minn., native was merely selected honorable mention.

While Van Engelenhoven's outing against North Dakota gave the Jacks a conference crown, it was UND who got the last laugh. SDSU won a school-record 39 games and hosted the Central Regional, where it won its first two games, but UND beat the Jacks in back-to-back games to go to the College World Series.

COLE IRISH

THIRD BASEMAN • PLAINVIEW, MINN.

1996 • COLLEGE BASEBALL COACHES ASSOCIATION • SECOND TEAM

The last Jackrabbit to earn All-America status at the Division II level, Irish shattered the SDSU record books in 1996, and one of those marks still stand.

Irish hit at a .449 clip, 75-for-167, the highest average ever put up by a Jackrabbit with at least 100 at bats.

In addition, he put up several numbers which, at the time were school records: 75 hits, 63 runs and 63 RBIs. He also added 14 doubles and three triples, earning NCC Southern Division Most Valuable Player and first-team all-NCC honors.

In addition, his 28 runs scored and 19 walks in conference play set NCC records — both of which have since been surpassed.

He hit safely in 41 of the 47 games he played, tallying 22 multiple-hit games.

Irish's numbers weren't just against fluff competition. In the NCC Tournament, he had four hits, including a double and two home runs, against league champion Minnesota State, Mankato.

The Jacks, led by Irish, finished the year at 34-13, winning their 11th NCC Southern Division crown in 12 seasons.

TREVER VERMEULEN

RELIEF PITCHER • MITCHELL, S.D.

2010 • PRO-LINE ATHLETIC NCBWA • THIRD TEAM

While the Jackrabbit offense grabbed most of the headlines during a record-breaking 2010 season, Mitchell native Trevor Vermeulen made his mark on the mound in becoming the first SDSU player to earn All-America recognition at the Division I level.

A third-team selection to the All-America team selected by the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association, Vermeulen posted a 9-1 record with a school-record 10 saves during the 2010 season. He led all Division I pitchers in earned run average for part of the season, finishing the campaign in fourth place with a 1.45 ERA in 35 appearances. The junior right-hander also struck out 62 batters and walked only 19 in 68.1 innings pitched.

Vermeulen was the lone Summit League player honored on the All-America squad.

HALL-OF-FAMERS

DOUG SEHR

Three former South Dakota State baseball standouts have joined the prestigious list of members of the Jackrabbit Sports Hall of Fame in the past four years.

The most recent inductee is Cole Irish, who was enshrined in the fall of 2024. He excelled at the plate for South Dakota State teams that won 30 or more games each of his four seasons in the lineup and claimed three consecutive North Central Conference titles from 1993-95.

A native of Plainview, Minnesota, Irish put together one of the best individual seasons in program history in 1996, earning NCC Southern Division Most Valuable Player honors along with being named to the College Baseball Coaches Association All-America Second Team for NCAA Division II. During that season he established Jackrabbit single-season records in four categories: batting average (.449), hits (75), runs scored (63) and runs batted in (63).

For his career, Irish set a then-SDSU record with 224 hits and ranked second with 60 stolen bases. A two-time first-team all-NCC selection as a third baseman, he led the team in steals three times (11 in 1994, 25 in 1995 and 19 in 1996) and also paced the squad in hits (62) and runs scored (45) as a junior. His nine home runs in 1996 were also a team high.

COLE IRISH

A member of the 2022 Hall of Fame class, Ryan Krogman was a consistent performer behind the plate and in the middle of the Jackrabbit baseball lineup for teams that made won three consecutive North Central Conference titles from 1992-94 and made NCAA Division II regional appearances each season. SDSU set and then matched a school record record with back-to-back 39-win seasons in 1993 and 1994.

The Brookings native was honored as North Central Conference Most Valuable Player in 1993, when he shared the NCC lead with 23 hits in league play. He also was an All-NCC selection as an infielder in 1991 and at catcher for the second time in 1994. Krogman led league with seven home runs during conference play in 1994, including tying the SDSU record with three home runs in a game against South Dakota.

For his career, Krogman started 187 of the 188 games in which he played, and batted .347, collecting 211 hits. He still ranks in SDSU career top 10s for runs scored (160), runs batted in (154), bases on balls (100) and putouts (814).

A 2021 inductee, Doug Sehr was a mainstay in the Jackrabbit baseball lineup from 1991-94, setting then-program records with 198 career games played and 647 at-bats.

The Canton native was honored as North Central Conference Southern Division Most Valuable Player in 1994 as the Jackrabbits repeated as league champions and made their third consecutive appearance in the NCAA Division II Central Regional. Besides setting a then-single-season record with 70 hits, Sehr batted .407 with six home runs, 16 doubles and 48 runs batted in during his senior season. He also scored 59 runs.

A career .334 hitter, Sehr finished second on the Jackrabbit career charts with 216 hits, 46 doubles and 161 RBIs, and tied for second with 160 runs scored. An infielder, Sehr also set the SDSU career standard for assists with 352 (since broken).

Other former South Dakota State baseball players enshrined in the Jackrabbit Sports Hall of Fame include: Bob Ehrke, Dal Eisenbraun, Wayne Rasmussen, Doug Peterson, Ed Maras, Jim Langer, Dean Krogman, Dave Manke, Steve Brown, Dave Lane, Tim Johnson, Billy McMacken and Trevor Schulte.

CALEB THIELBAR

2009 • MILWAUKEE • 18TH ROUND • 556TH OVERALL • JUNE REGULAR

Thielbar became the first Jackrabbit player to play in the Major Leagues, when he made his debut as a member of the Minnesota Twins on May 20, 2013, at Atlanta. Thielbar pitched out of the Twins' bullpen for the remainder of the 2013 season, compiling a 3-2 record and 1.76 earned run average in 49 appearances. He received the Bill Boni Award as Minnesota's most outstanding rookie during a season in which he held opposing batters to a .154 average and struck out 39 hitters in 46 innings.

He remained with the Twins throughout the entire 2014 season, ranking fifth on the team with 54 appearances — all out of the bullpen — and posting a 2-1 record with a 3.40 ERA. He struck out 35 batters in 47 2/3 innings. Thielbar pitched briefly for the Twins in 2015 before being designated for assignment.

Thielbar, who compiled a 20-19 career record at SDSU, was originally drafted by the Milwaukee Brewers in June 2009. He was tabbed by Baseball America as the player with the best pro debut in the Brewers' minor league system in 2009, after leading the Rookie-level Arizona League in both wins (six) and earned run average (1.56), while striking out 46 batters in 45.1 innings. He received a late-season promotion to Helena, then moved to Wisconsin of the Midwest League during the 2010 season. After becoming the fourth SDSU player in as many years to be taken in the Major League Draft when he was selected in the 23rd round by Florida, Treinen opted to return to the Jackrabbits for his senior season in 2011.

Bray became the second Jackrabbit to be selected in the 2015 Major League Baseball Draft. A three-time all-Summit League selection and the Jackrabbit career leader in strikeouts and innings pitched, Bray has proven to be a strike-thrower both as a reliever and starter through his professional career.

He spent his first three seasons in the Los Angeles Dodgers organization before being traded to the Minnesota Twins shortly before the start of the 2018 season. He split the 2019 season between Double-A Pensacola (Fla.) and Triple-A Rochester (N.Y.).
