Series Record: Today's game is the 48th meeting between the Terriers and Knights. St. Francis won the first meeting of the season, 63-62 in overtime, on December 4th, but the Knights still own the all-time series record 36-12. Dating back to the 2003-04 season, the Terriers have now won two straight games against Fairleigh Dickinson University.

Last Time the Teams Met: St. Francis secured the win, their third of the season, with a one-point overtime victory 63-62 after a Tiffany Hill jumper at the buzzer. Hill led three Terriers who scored in double-figures with 23. Katja Bavendam added 17 points off the bench and Kim Weir had 10 points. For the Knights, Erin Mills scored 18, Krissy Suckow scored 13 and Kay Odenwaelder had 12. (see box score at back of game notes)

Terrier Update: St. Francis is coming off their first win, 53-51, in 2005 against Long Island University on Wednesday night. St. Francis held an 11 point lead at the half and extended their advantage to 17 before the Blackbirds fought all the way back. Late game heroics from freshman Tiffany Hill secured the game for the Terriers with 10 seconds to play. Senior Kim Bennett scored 17 points and grabbed 11 rebounds to earn her second double-double this season, while Hill added 15.

Up Next: The Terriers return back to Brooklyn for Monday night matchup with the Robert Morris University Colonials at 7 pm. On Saturday, February 12th, St. Francis will play host to Wagner in a regionally televised game on the Metro Channel, subsidiary of MSG, at 6 pm.

Warrington 's Scoring Statement: Against Mount St. Mary's on January 29th, freshman Linda Warrington, hailing from Belchertown, Massachusetts, earned her first career start. In the game, she notched a new career-high and team-high with 21 points on 8-for-11 shooting, two threes and a perfect 3-for-3 from the foul line. She also added a new career-high in rebounds with six. In scoring 21 points, Warrington becomes one of only two Terriers to reach this plateau this season. Classmate Tiffany Hill has eclipsed this mark three times this year.

Weir Climbing Career Three-Point Charts: Senior guard/forward Kim Weir has already made her mark on several St. Francis College history. She currently ranks among the all-time top ten in several three-point field goal statistics.

3-pt FG made (career)	5th	96
3-pt FG made (season)	6th (03-04)	45
3-pt FG attempt. (career)	4th	418
3-pt FG attempt. (season)	6th (03-04)	148
3-pt FG % (season)	39.3% (02-03)	53/89

Top of the Hill: Freshman Tiffany Hill currently leads the Terriers in scoring, she averages 13.8 points per game. To date, she has scored 248 points and led the team in scoring in over half of the team's games this season. Hill is also averaging a team-leading 1.8 steals per game.

Consistent Kim: Senior forward Kim Bennett is averaging 12.5 points per game over the last three games (MU, RMU, MSM, LIU) and has also averaged 7.25 rebounds per contest. Bennett has improved her scoring average to 10.5 ppg - ranking 2nd on the team and 20th in the NEC, and now leads the Terriers in rebounding with 6.3 rpg (11th in the NEC). Bennett is also the Terriers most consistent shooter from the floor, connecting on 46.1% of her attempts (76/165) - ranking 12th in the league.

Raising Her Game: Freshman Linda Warrington has significantly raised her game during the Pennsylvania-Maryland road trip. Over the span, Warrington averaged 33.0 minutes, 16.5 points, 5.0 rebounds, 2.5 assists and 2.0 steals per game. In addition, Warrington nailed two three-point field goals in each of the games.

Critical Stretch for Terriers: The St. Francis College women's basketball team, who now stands in 9th place in the Northeast Conference, faces an important few weeks on their schedule. St. Francis has started this stretch out on a good foot after defeating LIU, who is ranked #6, on Wednesday. On Saturday, February 5th, the Terriers play the Knights of Fairleigh Dickinson in Teaneck hoping to complete the sweep of the Knights this season. FDU is currently ranked 11th in the league with a 1-9 NEC record. Next Monday, St. Francis hosts the NEC's turn-around team, Robert Morris University, hoping to revenge their loss from late January. Then, on Saturday, February 12th, St. Francis meets Wagner for the first of two matchups in Brooklyn. The Seahawks are currently in 10th place and 1-8 in the NEC.

Last Time Out - February 3, 2005
St. Francis 53 - LIU 51

The St. Francis College women's basketball team broke their eight game slide by defeating Long Island University 53-51 on the Peter Aquilone Court at St. Francis College on Wednesday evening. Terrier senior forward Kim Bennett earned her second double-double of the season by scoring a game-high 17 points and grabbing a game-high 11 rebounds. St. Francis improves to 5-13, 2-7 in the Northeast Conference while LIU drops to 9-11, 5-6 in the league.

Bennett scored the Terriers' first three baskets and assisted on the fourth to give St. Francis a 9-6 lead at the 14:24 mark. Long Island closed to within one point on a Ravin Chase jumper, but the Terriers scored the next 10 points to lead 18-8 with just over eight minutes to go in the half. St. Francis pushed their lead to 12-points on two occasions, the first after a Tiffany Hill free throw (22-10) and then on a Bennett layup (24-12). The Blackbirds' Kelli Sawyer scored six points in the half's final six minutes but the Blackbirds could not get closer than nine points. In the final minute of the first half, Bennett grabbed a defensive rebound, outletted to Hill, who passed to Marjorie Prado, who then passed to a streaking Kim Weir to score a wide open layup to end the half up 11 points, 33-22.

To open the second half, the Terriers exploded on an 8-2 run to lead by their biggest margin of the game, 17 points, after a Bennett layup with an assist from classmate Kim Weir. The Blackbirds slowly chipped away at the Terrier lead and a Ravin Chase basket with 12:57 to play cut the deficit to single digits, 43-35. Long Island closed to within five points on an Erin Pinchbeck three (45-40), but a 4-0 run gave St. Francis a nine-point cushion, 49-40, with just over seven minutes remaining. Over the next four minutes, the Blackbirds blanked the Terriers and scored 10 straight points to tie the game 49-49 with 3:01 to play. LIU then took their first lead of the second half, 50-49, on Mikaelar Whippy free throw. Tiffany Hill netted two free throws to give St. Francis back the lead, but then LIU's Goska Radwan tied the game 51-51 to set up the winning basket. After a St. Francis timeout, the Terriers cleared the left side of the floor and Hill nailed a jumper just outside the lane. Long Island had the ball with 10 seconds remaining but was unable to get a shot off.

In addition to Bennett's 17 points and 11 rebounds, Tiffany Hill added 15 points in the win.

Paxhia and Hill Named to Iona Tipoff All-Tournament Team - Junior point guard Justine Paxhia and freshman guard Tiffany Hill lead the Terriers to a 1-1 record and a 2nd place finish at the Iona Tipoff Tournament (11/21-22). In the win over Iona, Paxhia scored 15 points, grabbed a team-high 8 rebounds and dished out a game-high 6 assists. On Sunday, against Columbia, she dished out a new career-high 11 assists, scored 8 points and had 8 boards. Tiffany Hill scored 11 points against Iona and then a team-high 14 points against Columbia.

Weir Named to South Floirida/Best Western All-Tournament Team - Senior forward Kim Weir helped the Terriers to a 1-1 weekend in South Florida over Thanksgiving. Weir scored 6 points and grabbed a game-high 9 rebounds against South Floirida and then notched her first double-double of the season in the win over Niagara. She scored 15 points and had 11 rebounds in the victory.

Kim Kombination - In the team's game against Niagara University, senior forwards Kim Bennett and Kim Weir led their team to victory after both players posted double-doubles for the first time this season. Bennett scored a team-high 16 points and Weir notched 15 points. Both players grabbed 11 rebounds each in the game.

Buzzer Beaters - In the final seconds of the team's game against Niagara University, junior Justine Paxhia scored the game winning basket to lift her team over the Purple Eagles (50-48). On December 4th, freshman Tiffany Hill nailed a foul line jumper in overtime to lift the Terriers to a one-point victory over Fairleigh Dickinson University, 63-62.

Bavendam Helps Lead Terriers to Victory over FDU: Freshman Katja Bavendam added a career-high 17 points in the Terriers victory over FDU in early December. Bavendam also grabbed four rebounds and swatted two shots in a season-high 30 minutes.

Prado For Three: against Towson, sophomore Marjorie Prado came off the bench to score a team-high and personal season-high 12 points on four three-point field goals. As a freshman, Prado nailed 25 three-point field goals.

Double-Double for Big K: 6'7" freshman Katja Bavendam earned her first collegiate double-double in her first collegiate start against Rider University. She scored 12 points on 5-of-12 shooting and grabbed a career-high 11 rebounds. Bavendam also added a career-high 2 assists in the game.

Warrington Debuts in Boston, Continues Good Play at Home: Against Northeastern on December 18th, freshman Linda Warrington, who hails from Belchertown, Massachusetts, madet the most of her then career high 13 minutes of play. Warrington nailed 3 of her 6 attempted shots, including one three-point field goal, scoring a career high seven points. She also added a team high and career high five rebounds in the contest. In the following game against Lafayette, Warrington came off the bench and played 27 minutes, scoring six points, grabbing three rebounds and collecting three steals.

Paxhia Sets Team Record: In her first game back from her injury, junior point guard grabbed 12 rebounds, a team-season-high. She pulled down six defensive and six offensive rebounds, both were game-highs.

Hill's Streak Ends: Freshman Tiffany Hill hit 22 straight free throws before missing one against Central Connecticut State University. Hill is shooting 70.8% (51/72) from the foul line this season - ranking 2nd on the team.

Support the Fighting 69th Infantry Regiment: More than 800 residents of New York City and Long Island - St. Francis College alumni included-are serving the U.S. in Iraq. Among them are our neighbors, the Fighting 69th Infantry Regiment, a Manhattan-based reserve unit that has served the five boroughs and nation for more than 150 years. These soldiers, whose deployment is scheduled to last until October 2005, are supported by their families and the regiment's Family Support Group. But they need our help as well. Join the St. Francis College community in supporting the soldiers of the Fighting 69th by bringing toiletries and over-the-counter pharmaceutical items to be shipped directly to them in Baghdad. Items needed include: Soap, deoderant, foot powder, shampoo, conditioner, hand cleansers, skin cream, sunscreen, aloe vera, chapstick, baby wipes, toothpaste, gum, mints, band-aids, saline nasal spray, eye drops, contact lens cleaner, shaving cream, disposable razors, aftershave, and long distance phone cards.

Bins for donations will be available at all St. Francis College basketball games.

Hill Earns First NEC's Rookie of the Week Honor of 2004-05: Hill earned all-tournament team honors at the Iona College Tip Tournament after guiding St. Francis (NY) to a 1-1 record last week, including a win in the Terriers' season opener against Iona and a loss to Columbia in the championship game. The 5-7 guard added 11 points, six rebounds and three steals in 24 minutes versus Iona after fighting through first-half foul trouble. Against the Lions, Hill played in all 40 minutes, scoring a team-high 14 points, grabbing two rebounds and recording two steals and a block. The freshman shot 11-for-26 from the field combined in the two games.

Hill Earns 2nd NEC Rookie of the Week Award: Tiffany Hill pushed St. Francis (NY) to an overtime, NEC season-opening win against Fairleigh Dickinson. With St. Francis (NY) trailing FDU by three points with 1:21 remaining in the extra period, Hill remarkably scored six points in the final 81 seconds, including the gamewinner as time expired to seal the win for the Terriers. For the contest, the Orange, NJ native, who played the entire 45 minutes of action, collected 23 points, eight rebounds, one assist and one steal, while shooting 9-for-22 from the field and 1-for-3 from three-point range. In a non-conference loss to Towson, Hill recorded two points, two rebounds, two assists and three steals. The 5-7 guard currently leads St. Francis (NY) in scoring (12.8 ppg) and steals (1.8 spg) as well as fourth in rebounding (4.5 rpg).

Hill Earns League-Leading 3rd NEC Rookie of the Week Award: The freshman, who earns her league-leading third Choice Hotels NEC Rookie of the Week award, averaged 23.0 points in the Terriers' last two games, including a 33-point explosion versus Pittsburgh. Hill also recorded six rebounds, three assists and a steal, while hitting four three-pointers. Before Christmas against Lafayette, Hill registered 13 points and five rebounds to help St. Francis (NY) mount their largest margin of victory since 1997, dropping the Leopards, 58-33. The Orange, NJ product shot a combined 15-of-38 from the field in the two games, 5-of-13 from behind the arc and 11-of-11 from the free-throw line. The newcomer has guided the Terriers in scoring in six of ten games this season and ranks fifth in the league in scoring (15.9 ppg).

DEFENSE: The Terriers have done a good job on the defensive end holding their opponents to low field goal percentages. As of the NEC statistics on Feb. 3rd, the Terriers ranked 2nd in the league in 3-pt field goal percentage defense (30.2) and 4th in the league in field goal percentage defense (40.1).

Off to A Good Start: After going 0-7 in the month of January the St. Francis College women's basketball team won their first game in the month of February. Last season the Terriers closed in on the NEC playoff race during February, winning three games during the 28 day month.

Bennett Powers Terriers: In the win over LIU on February 2nd, Kim Bennett earned her second double-double of the season as she led all players in points and rebounds. Bennett scored 17 points and pulled down 11 rebounds in the victory. She has scored in double-figures for St. Francis 12 out of 18 games this season.

Bratton's Boards: Against Mount St. Mary's sophomore Sarah Bratton came off the bench and grabbed a new career-high eight rebounds in 16 minutes of action. Shea Iso added five points, an assist and a steal in the game.

Brilliant Bavendam: 6'7" freshman Katja Bavendam has shown moments of brilliance early in her collegiate career. Against FDU, she scored a career-high 17 points, against Rider she earned her first double-double (12 pts/11reb) and versus Mount on January 6th, she notched 10 points.

Warrington Shines Bright at RMU: Freshman swingman Linda Warrington came off the Terrier bench to score 12 points at Robert Morris. In the same game, Warrington also added then career-highs in steals (3), field goals made (5) and 3-pt field goals made (2).

Paxhia Returns to Court: Junior guard Justine Paxhia returned to the floor for the first time since December 1st against Mount St. Mary's University on January 6th. Prior to her injury, the Brooklyn native was averaging career-best numbers in several statistical categories. Through the first five games of the season she averaged 10.6 points, 7.8 rebounds, 5.8 assists and 1.2 steals. Paxhia also set new career highs with 11 assists and four steals against Columbia on November 21st. In her first game back she picked up right where she left off scoring seven points, grabbing a game-high 12 rebounds and dishing out a game-high seven assists.

Terriers Lock Down Lafayette: On December 22nd against Lafayette, the Terriers held the Lafayette University Leopards to 33 points in the game, 13 in the first half and 20 in the second, breaking a 29-year record for fewest points allowed in a women's basketball game involving the Terriers. The previous record, 30 points, was in the opening game of the 1975-76 season, a 52-30 victory over New York Community College. The St. Francis defense conceded only ten field goals in the entire contest (10-for-41, 24.4%). The game's margin of victory, 25 points, was the largest margin since the Terriers defeated Fairleigh Dickinson University (82-54) on February 27, 1997.

Setting a New Mark: Freshman Tiffany Hill scored a career high 33 points against the BIG EAST's University of Pittsburgh on December 28, 2004. Her previous career high was 23 points against Fairleigh Dickinson University on December 4th. The last St. Francis player to score at least 33 points was Colleen Carbone's 33 point effort against Mount St. Mary's on January 25, 2003. The last St. Francis College player to score more than 33 points was Christine Cunningham who notched 34 points against Fairleigh Dickinson University on January 19, 1995. The record for most points in a single game is 47 scored by Pam Curcio against CW Post on December 8, 1988.

Peter Aquilone Court Dedication: Prior to the women's basketball game on December 1, 2004 against Towson University, the St. Francis College basketball court was dedicated to Peter Aquilone. Peter Aquilone, who passed away suddenly on September 23, was the son of Ed Aquilone, director of athletics at St. Francis College. Peter dedicated his life to the Franciscan tradition of generosity, exemplifying that it is in giving that we receive.
