TERRIER SPORTS NETWORK (TSN)

Brooklyn Heights, NY— Director of Athletics Irma Garcia has announced an extension of the Terrier Sports Network for men's and women's basketball games this season. Live video coverage will be available for most home games this season as well as live radio coverage on the road.

"This is the first season of video streaming at the College and I'm delighted that we will be working with Stretch Internet again this season for a lot of our internet broadcasts," said Garcia. "We're really looking forward to giving all of our student-athletes the exposure that they deserve. We certainly feel that we are now on the cutting edge in terms of web broadcasting and video streaming."

St. Francis College play-by-play announcer Nicholas Guerriero will begin his fifth season as the voice of the Terriers.

"I'm really looking forward to entering this season, not only will St. Francis be on the cutting edge in mass media within the conference, but in the NCAA as a whole. This season, the network plans on giving the fans a real treat as far as broadcasts are concerned." "With video streaming, fans inside and outside of Brooklyn will get to see the Terriers in a whole new light."

Broadcasts will consist of pre and post game shows; in-depth analysis of players and coaches as well as interviews during the game from our sideline reporters.

Brian Morales, Assistant Sports Information Intern, will return to the broadcasts on a more behind the scenes aspect. Morales will be in-charge of setting up interviews and coordinating broadcasts while doing day-to-day activities in the Sports Information Department. On select road games, he will join the broadcast as a commentator.

"I am really excited to see the launch of video streaming for St. Francis this upcoming season. While working for the broadcast last season on radio, we (Terrier Sports Network) realized that our fans were really into each broadcast. Since technology is constantly changing, we decided to take Terrier Sports Network to the next level as well," said Morales.

New to the network this season will be student-interns Ashley Kalmar and Deron Cummings. Kalmar, a Communications Arts Major, will be responsible for producing all video components that come along with streaming the games and also will oversee engineering audio functions for the radio contests. Cummings, also a Communications Arts Major, will be the camera operator and will assist in the broadcasts in other various positions.

In addition to broadcasting most men's and women's basketball games live, the network will feature Terrier contests and special events throughout the year. Numerous podcasts featuring interviews with coaches and student-athletes will also air on TSN. All broadcasts will be free of charge for Terrier fans.

All archived shows can be heard through iTunes, and fans will have the ability to purchase old broadcasts through the Stretch Internet website.

TERRIER TIDBITS

I'LL TAKE A DOZEN 1,000 POINT SCORERS TO GO! WITH MY COFFEE

Against the Long Island Blackbirds on Saturday, January 17th, senior guard Kara Ayers (Galloway, NJ/ Absegami) tied the game at 47 with 2:17 remaining in the 16th Annual "Battle of Brooklyn" at the Wellness Athletic Center. With that basket, Ayers became the 12th member of the St. Francis College Women's Basketball 1,000 point club. In addition, she and the Terriers captured their first Battle of Brooklyn trophy in more than three years, as Ayers was named MVP of the game on a career setting day.

Last season, Ayers' teammates, graduated center Katja Bavendam and fellow guard Tiffany Hill became the 10th and 11th members of the 1,000 Point Scorers club. Hill would finish her Terrier career with 1,764 points, good for second all-time while Bavendam finished seventh with 1,130 career points. Ayers is currently sixth with 1,086 career points, surpassing Bavendam's total from a year ago.

THE SHOW IS SET TO AYER AT A SCHOOL NEAR YOU!

Senior guard Kara Ayers is the Terriers' leading scorer this season, averaging 18.9 ppg, which leads the Northeast conference. In ten conference games, Ayers is second to Sade Logan of Robert Morris, averaging 19.7 ppg while Logan is averaging 21.1 ppg.

This season, Ayers has not scored less than 11 points in any contest and has recorded double-digits in scoring in all 21 games played this season. She is second in the Northeast Conference with nine 20-point performances. Ayers has also helped out on the boards, pulling down 5.2 rebounds, and leading the team in steals with 37. She has also logged the most minutes for this young Terrier squad, averaging 38.7 minutes a contest, which is first in the Conference of all players who have played a minimum of twenty-one games.

TERRIER TIDBITS

THERE IS ALWAYS A 50-50 CHANCE OF WINNING IN THE NORTHEAST CONFERENCE

Head Coach Brenda Milano is rapidly approaching a career coaching milestone, as her next victory this season will be her 50th career victory, all coming while being at the helm of the Terriers. Coach Milano, as of January 28th, 2009, has compiled the most wins by any coach, surpassing current St. Francis College Athletic Director and former women's basketball coach, Irma Garcia, who managed to rack up 42 career victories. Ms. Garcia has more conference wins over coach Milano, at 39 to 35.

St. Francis Coaching Career Victories

Coach	Overall Wins	Conference Wins
Brenda Milano	49-115	35-70
Irma Garcia	42-157	39-151
Kevin Jones	10-8	9-7
Christine Cunningham	6-48	6-48
Cecil King	2-14	2-14
Steve Fagan	1-17	1-17

WHEN THERE IS A WILL THERE IS WAY, THERE IS NOTHING SHE KEN'T DO

Junior Kendra Williams continues to emerge as a primer post player for Head Coach Brenda Milano's young Terrier squad. Against the Wagner Seahawks on January 26th, Williams posted another solid performance, scoring 18 points and grabbed nine rebounds in a 65-58 defeat. Against the Mount St. Mary's Mountaineers on January 10th, Williams posted her second double-double of the season, scoring 11 points and pulling down a game-high 11 rebounds in the 59-50 lost to The Mount

Williams set a new-career high in points this season with 20 against Albany on December 19th and in rebounds with 12 against the Colgate Raiders on November 22nd. In front of the home crowd on New Year's Eve against the University of Pennsylvania Quakers, Williams shoot 9-of-14 from the field, setting a new career mark in field goals made with nine, as she racked in 18 points to lead the Terriers in scoring.

For the season, Williams has scored in double-digits in 14 out of 19 games for the Terriers, while continuing to become a force while crashing the boards. She recorded a career-high of 12 rebounds against the Colgate Raiders on November 22nd.

TERRIER TIDBITS

MY-OH-MY WHAT A WONDERFUL DAY!

A constant fixture for head coach Brenda Milano has been senior point guard Kristen Miah. The Chester, Pennsylvania native in her final year as the point guard for the Terriers has set personal career best on more than one occasion since being healthy after a nagging injury last season.

Against the Bryant on December 1st, Miah was able to swipe six steals against Bulldogs, surpassing her previous best of five set last season against the Iona Gaels. Miah has also dished out a career best ten assist against the Fairleigh Dickinson Knights on January 31st and is currently tied for fourth place in the conference in assist, averaging 4.1 per contest.

THERE IS A BRIGHT LEIT AT THE END OF THE TUNNEL FOR THE TERRIERS

St. Francis sophomore Kristin Leitheuser has been showing that she is going to be a valuable asset once the seniors graduate at the end of the season. After playing in 25 games last season, only averaging 2.3 points per game and 2.0 rebounds a contest, Leitheuser has stepped up her game tremendously.

The Pleasant Valley native is third on the team in scoring, averaging 7.7 points per game while tied for the team lead in rebounds, pulling down 5.9 boards a game. Amongst Northeast Conference players, Leitheuser is ranked 14th in the rebounding department, pulling down 83 defensive rebounds and 124 for the season, while logging 31.5 minutes a contest.

SHARING THE BALL IS ALL IN A DAY'S WORK!

Senior Kristen Miah has established herself as one of the premier point guards in the Northeast Conference. Entering this season, Miah had dished the ball 267 times for St. Francis. This season, the Pennsylvania native has been credited with 88 assist, which gives her a total of 355 and ranks sixth all-time in St. Francis history and needs 50 more assist to surpass her 2006-07 total of 138 assist, which stands in sixth all-time in St. Francis Women's Basketball history.

TERRIERS SET TO SHOOT FOR A CURE TO PROMOTE BREAST CANCER AWARENESS!

In an effort to promote breast cancer awareness, St. Francis College Athletics held its first ever "Think Pink Day" last season. The event featured a doubleheader where the men and women's basketball teams competed fiercely as hundreds of fans packed into the Pope Physical Education Center (Peter Aquilone Court).

This year, in conjunction with the WBCA Pinkzone™ and the Kay Yow Foundation™, St. Francis College is set to "SHOOT FOR A CURE" on February 14th 2009 to promote Breast Cancer Awareness.

The Terriers will take on the Fairleigh Dickinson University Knights in a doubleheader matchup while sporting pink ribbons to support this cause.

FANTASTIC FOUR LOOK TO GIVE SENIOR LEADERSHIP TO YOUNG TERRIER SQUAD

This season, Head Coach Brenda Milano will look to four players in particular to lead her young Terrier squad through the grueling battles that the Northeast Conference schedule entails. Along with Ayers, seniors guards Kristen Miah and Karla Babica along with forward Deanna Petrucci each bring key elements that are vital for a team to contend and win.

Miah is a staple as to what a point-guard should do on the court. On offense, find your teammates in stride for assists. In the 2006-07 season, Miah led the entire Northeast Conference in assists with 146, averaging 4.7 a contest and against Wagner on January 3rd, 2009, she dished out a career-high nine assist in the 65-58 overtime victory against the Seahawks. Babica has translated her tenacious defenses into being more involved in the scoring offense. This season, Babica is averaging 2.9 ppg while pulling down 1.7 rebounds in 17.8 minutes of action.

Petrucci missed the first eight games of the season due to an injury before returning to action against the University at Albany Great Danes on December 19th. Since coming back from the injury, Petrucci has been a hard-worker down-low in the paint. Against the Wagner Seahawks on January 3, Petrucci logged 12 minutes, while going 2-of-2 from the field, scoring four points. Against Long Island on the 17th of January, she didn't record a point, but was a key rebounder, pulling down four boards in the Terriers Battle of Brooklyn victory.

NOTHING SAYS LOVIN LIKE A HOME-COOKED MEAL!

St. Francis will host Sade Logan, Monet Johnson and the rest of the Robert Morris University Colonials on February 9th for a 7:00 pm start. The Terriers will look to avenge their earlier season defeat to the Colonials.

As part of a month-long Breast Cancer Awareness, St. Francis Colleg will welcome the Fairleigh Dickinson Knights on Valentine's Day (February 14th) as the opening game of a afternoon double-header to promote St. Francis' SHOOT FOR A CURE! Tip-off is scheduled for 2:00 pm.

Head Coach: Brenda Milano, Sixth Season
Hometown: Boonton, NJ
Alma Mater: Wagner College ('93), Seton Hall University

Brenda Milano is in her sixth season as head coach of the St. Francis College women's basketball program. Shortly after arriving at St. Francis, she led the 2003-04 Terriers to their best finish since 1998-99, with a 7-11 Northeast Conference record and 8-19 overall.

By the conclusion of the 2004-05 season, the record had improved to 10-19 overall, numbers that led to the team's first appearance in the NEC playoffs since 1999. Milano has continued to demonstrate that her Terriers are on the rise with a series of first in the 2006-07 campaign. After ending the regular season with a 10-17 record, the Terriers went on to defeat Long Island University in the first round of the Northeast Conference playoffs. It was the first time the team has ever qualified for the NEC semifinals. And last, season, Milano somehow was able to get the Terriers back into postseason play despite major injuries to three starters.

Milano gained her early coaching experience at Northeastern University as a graduate assistant and at Seton Hall University where she earned a master's degree in sports management. Before coaching, Milano spent time at Integrated Sports International, a sports marketing firm where she put to work her B.S. in marketing from Wagner College (1995). In 1998, Milano came to St. Francis College as an assistant coach for the women's basketball team and served as the college's assistant athletic director of business affairs, positions she held until 2002. After a brief stint at Hofstra University where she served as first assistant, Milano returned to St. Francis for the 2003-04 season to lead the team as head coach.

As a student-athlete, Milano was an outstanding member of the Wagner College women's basketball team. She served as team captain for three seasons and was named Most Valuable Player her junior and senior years. She was a member of the Second team All-Northeast Conference (1992-93) and Northeast Conference All-Newcomer Team (1990-91). Before a career-ending knee injury her senior year, she scored 1,046 total points, an accomplishment that earned her a spot in the Seahawks' 1,000-point club. Milano currently ranks 21st on Wagner's all-time scoring list.

Milano has high expectations for her team in 2008-09. The squad has a good mix of solid veterans as well as a very talented group of newcomers. Returning to lead the Terriers on the court this year are eight members of last year's squad. Four seniors, Kara Ayers, Karla Babica, Deanna Petrucci, and Kristen Miah, will be asked to provide leadership and consistency to this veteran team.

HOFSTRA 70

December 22, 2008

Hempstead, New York

Freshman Nicole Capurso scored a season-high 20 points, helping Hofstra (6-3) surge to a large first-half lead it would not relinquish in a 70-46 victory over St. Francis (NY) in a rare Monday matinee at Mack Sports Complex.

St. Francis was held to just 34.6 percent field goal shooting. Kara Ayers scored a team-high 19 points and Kendra Williams scored 11 points as the only two Terriers to reach double figures. Sophomore Kristin Leitheuser added 8 points and 7 rebounds.

Capurso shot 8-17 from the field and junior Jess Fuller poured in 10 points in the non-conference game as the Pride extended improved to 6-3.

Hofstra improved to 15-4 in the all-time series, posting its ninth consecutive victory in the matchup thanks mostly to the Pride's bench out-scoring the Terriers, 43-6. The Pride forced 27 turnovers.
