Game # 7	Fairfield vs. St. Francis College Terriers Saturday, September 26 th , 2009 7:00 PM Brooklyn, New York

Setting the Scene...The St. Francis College Terriers (2-3) will play host for the first time in 2009, as they square off against the NJIT Highlanders at Aviator Field & Sports Complex. The Terriers are coming into the contest dropping their meeting at the hands of Yale University, falling 4-1 on September 19th. The Terriers took thirteen shots, while recording a season-high nine corner kicks. St. Francis leads the overall head-to-matchup 1-0-0 after defeating the Highlanders in Newark last season by the score of 2-0.

Scouting the Highlanders....The NJIT Highlanders (2-5) enter tonight's contest after a lengthy double overtime victory, as they defeated visiting VMI, 3-2 on September 20th. The Highlanders took a total of 43 shots in the contest, while VMI only recorded eight shots. NJIT attempted 15 corner kicks during the contest as well

St. Francis ranked 9th in latest NSCAA National Rankings...On September 15th, the NCAA Regional Rankings were announced, and the Terriers cracked the top Ten, landing in the ninth spot after their performance in Virginia. Five other Northeast Conference squads top the list, including Monmouth University, which has the overall spot at 5-0.

In the Nik of Time...Senior mid-fielder Semso Nikoceciv (Brooklyn, NY/Sheepshead Bay HS) had an impressive showing in Virginia in the Jay Sculley Memorial Tournament, last weekend on the campus of VMI. The 2008 All-Northeast Conference 1st Teamer, scored the first goal of the season for the Terriers against VMI, and the followed up his performance with the game-winning goal against Liberty in the championship game, giving the Terriers the title in the inaugural tournament and making the All-Tournament team.

Keep Save, and a Beauty....Senior goalkeeper Chris Antonino (Howard Beach, NY/Molloy HS) and freshman Paul Benkert (Rockville, MD/Gonzaga College High School) each recorded their first shutouts of the season in the Jay Sculley Memorial Tournament. Benkert, got the start against the host VMI and made two crucial saves for the Terriers, preserving the victory. Antonino, who has been a constant staple for the Terriers the past three seasons, made four saves against Liberty, including a crucial save off a penalty kick. Both goalies, including Semso Nikoceciv, made the All-Tournament squad last weekend.

2009 ST. FRANCIS COLLEGE MEN'S SOCCER: GAME NOTES

Head Coach TOM GIOVATTO

St. Francis College announced the appointment of Tom Giovatto as head men's soccer coach at the College on August 14th, 2007, and the program has progressed significantly ever since. Giovatto, who has experience coaching in the amateur and collegiate ranks, is entering his third season at the helm of the Terriers' program.

In his first two seasons with the Terriers, Giovatto endured a rocky inaugural season, going 4-9-5 overall and 2-5-2 in Northeast Conference only to sparkle in his "sophomore" year, as St. Francis had their first double-digit win total in almost a decade, going 11-4-3 overall and placed fifth in the Northeast Conference.

St. Francis, which registered a remarkable eight match winning streak (September 15th to October 24th), opened up the 2008 campaign by winning the Navy Invitational as they tied the host Midshipmen 0-0, only to come away with an impressive 2-1 overtime victory against former Northeast Conference member UMBC (University of Maryland, Baltimore County).

When the 2008 Northeast Conference competition opened up, the Terriers hosted the defending 2007 champions, Central Connecticut State Blue Devils at the Aviator Sports Complex in Brooklyn. In a highly competitive match, the Terriers edged Central Connecticut, 2-1, showing that the Terriers had what it took to compete for an NEC title.

Prior to his promotion, Giovatto was the assistant coach under Carlo Acquista. He helped recruit many of the current players who make up the nucleus of the Terrier squad that has been on the rise since taking over the program.

College: IONA '97

While coaching for St. Francis is his primary responsibility, Giovatto is the Director of Coaching at Met Oval Brooklyn Knights for the Super-Y Girls Division (National League under USL). There he was the head coach and in charge of hiring a coaching staff for the U-13 to U-20 programs, while running the Program Development in those leagues. His U-16 Girls were invited to the National Championships in 2005, while the U-15 Girls won the Metro Division Championship in 2004.

Giovatto received his first chance in coaching when he was hired as an assistant at Saint Peter's College from 2001-2003. In 2003, Saint Peter's captured the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference Championships while posting a school-high 18 wins and made it to the second round of the NCAA tournament, after defeating then 11th ranked Brown University. As an assistant coach, he assisted in all on-field coaching duties and aided in the recruiting, fund-raising, travel and game-scheduling process.

In February 2004, Giovatto was named to his second assistant coach position, this time at Stony Brook University. As a member of the coaching staff, the university achieved the most wins in the school's history and capped off a stellar year by making its first ever playoff appearance. While there, he was responsible for all on-field coaching duties, while assisting in recruiting, fundraising, and game-scheduling.

Giovatto graduated from Iona College with a B.A. in Mass Communications in 1997. At Iona, Giovatto was a three-year varsity letter-winner as a Gael. Upon graduation from Iona, Giovatto had an invitation to play for the New York/New Jersey Metro Stars of the MLS (Major League Soccer). In 1998, Giovatto joined the PDL's Brooklyn Knights and in 2000, was invited to the NPSL's Baltimore Blast during the pre-season.

Loose Camp...We Got This!...Senior defenseman Anthony Matos has enjoyed a stellar career at St. Francis. The Wantagh, New York native has played in 50 of 52 career games for the Terriers while scoring a career-high four goals last season, including two game-winners. Matos was named to the Collegiate Soccer News National Team of the Week for the week of November 14th. Back in 2006, his gritty defense rewarded him with mention to the 2006 All-Northeast Conference Second Team appearance.

New Face, Same Place....Head Coach Tom Giovatto used the off-season to address several key areas to improve on the success of the 2008 squad. New to the team this season are three goalkeepers, Christopher Sieble, Liam Burton and Paul Benkert; Mid-fielders Farzan Bigdeli, Corey Schulz and Diego Mercado. After red-shirting last season, Tevin Jackson, Aldo Toma and Leonardo Buttitta, will be looked to add their skills in St. Francis' quest for a Northeast Conference Championship.

Terriers notch Top 4 in NEC Coaches' Preseason Poll...The Terriers claimed the number four spot in the 2009 Northeast Conference Coaches Preseason Poll, while garnering two-first place votes. St. Francis (NY) (11-4-3, 4-3-2 NEC) narrowly missed out on a berth to the postseason following a fifth-place finish to its regular season slate. However, the future is bright for head coach Tom Giovatto and the Terriers, who posted a 7-1-1 non-conference record and reeled off an eight-game midseason winning streak last fall.

After tying for seventh in the NEC with eight goals and 20 points a year ago, John Sallhag (Vaxjo, Sweden) returns to the front line for his junior campaign. The 2007 NEC Rookie of the Year and an all-conference pick in each of his two seasons, Sallhag notched four game-winning markers to help the Terriers get back on track and finish with a record above .500.

Senior midfielder Semso Nikocevic (Brooklyn, NY/Sheepshead Bay), a two-time All-NEC first team selection, finished with one goal and two assists last fall and his playmaking abilities will be relied upon to fill the void left by Alex Silaco, the league's assists leader (seven) in 2008.

A familiar face in net, Chris Antonino (Howard Beach, NY/Archbishop Molloy) returns for his senior outing. He ranked second in the NEC in goals against average (0.78), tied for third with seven blankings and placed fourth with a .817 save percentage last season.
