TERRIER TIDBITS

St. Francis (NY) vs. Fairleigh Dickinson

The Terriers conclude a three-game homestand as they host the Fairleigh Dickinson UnKnights this evening at the Aviator Sports Complex at Floyd Bennett Field.

All-time, the Knights lead the head-to-head series 20-15-4. St. Francis is looking to rebound against the Knights after falling to them last season, 2-1 in double overtime in Teaneck, NJ.

Red Flash Snap Terriers' Eight Game Winning Streak

After pressuring late in the contest and controlling the possession for a majority of the way, the St. Francis (NY) men's soccer team had their eight-game winning streak snapped with a 1-0 defeat at the hands of Northeast Conference foe Saint Francis University of Pennsylvania on Sunday afternoon at Aviator Field.

The Red Flash got on the board in the 32nd minute of play as Pablo Medina fed Wayne Tiller for the marker from 23 yards away.

St. Francis (NY) (8-3-1, 3-1-0 NEC) missed on three opportunities last in the contest, but terrific saves by Red Flash netminder Darius Motazed kept his shutout alive.

On the Terrier front, junior Giorgio Ferrara led with a pair of shots on target and junior Richie Arkoi missed as time concluded after a corner kick.

TERRIER TIDBITS

UP FOR GRABS:

With three weeks left in the regular season, the NEC play-off race is in full swing with four points separating first place from fourth.

Fairleigh Dickinson kept the top spot thanks to a 1-1 weekend. The Knights overcame Quinnipiac and a one-goal deficit with back-to-back strikes less than eight minutes apart late in the second half.

Second-place Central Connecticut State stretched its league-leading winning streak to four games thanks to a pair of wins over Saint Francis (PA) and Bryant. Sacred Heart needed just two goals to secure both of its weekend wins, downing Mount St. Mary's and preseason favorite Monmouth by a 1-0 count.

In fourth place, five teams have nine points, including the St. Francis (NY) Terriers, who had their eight-game winning streak snapped by Saint Francis (PA) this past weekend. The Red Flash, along with Quinnipiac, Monmouth and Mount St. Mary's, round out the fourth-place log jam

STOP!:

St. Francis (NY) saw its league-leading eight-game winning streak come to an end Sunday afternoon, as Saint Francis (PA) pinned a 1-0 setback on the Terriers. It tied the longest winning streak under head coach Tom Giovatto, last set during the 2008 season.

HONOR THY SENIOR:

The Terriers will honor three seniors prior to this evenings contest. Captains Robbie Weir and Aldo Toma and Jonas Pantelidis will be honored.

HIGH FIVE

The Terriers are ranked fifth in the recent Continental Tire/NSCAA North Atlantic Rankings.

TOP 20 HITS:

The honors keep rolling in for the red-hot men's soccer team. In the latest TopDrawerSoccer.com Northeast Conference player rankings, sophomore forward Gabriel Bagot is ranked 4th (1st among forwards) while teammate Tyler Clarhaut is positioned 19th (2nd amongst goalkeepers).

SUPER SAVINGS 2x

Sophomore forward Gabriel Bagot, who tallied twice in the second half of the Terriers 2-0 win at Bryant University on was named the SoccerSavings.com/BigAppleSoccer.com's men's college player of the week on October 9th. Bagot is the second consecutive Terrier to be honored with this award as junior goalkeeper Tyler Clarhaut

KEEPING IT CLOSE:

The Terriers have recorded seven one-goal victories on the year. From September 7th to October 7th, St. Francis had won by a single goal in six consecutive matches.

THREES COMPANY:

Midfielders Adam Maabdi and Jonas Pantelidis each share the team lead with three helpers on the year. For Maabdi, each assist were timed to his fellow countryman, sophomore forward Gabriel Bagot

HOME COOKING:

Since the 2005 season, St. Francis is 25-17-4 in home contests. Under fifth year head coach Tom Giovatto, the Terriers are 20-9-2 at the Aviator Sports Complex.

Scouting Fairleigh Dickinson Knights

The Knights rallied in the second half with two goals to take down Quinnipiac, 2-1, on Sunday evening at University Stadium in Teaneck, NJ.

Twelve minutes into the match, the Knights had their best scoring chance of the first half as junior Jack McVey ripped a shot from 25 yards out towards the lower right part of the goal but was knocked away by Bobcats goalie Borja Angoitia to force a corner kick.

In the 23rd minute of the half, Quinnipiac struck for a 1-0 lead as Machel Baker found Phillp Surprise in the far right side of the box who then took a shot towards the lower left corner of the goal, beating a diving Jacob Lissek, to put the visitors ahead.

The Knights outshot the Bobcats, 10-7, over the opening 45 minutes, but were outshot, 4-3, on shots on goal.

In the second half during the 67th minute, McVey crossed the ball into the box from the left side and found junior Karlis Putans in the middle who was able to get his head on the ball and direct it past Angoitia to tie the match at one.

Eight minutes later in the 75th minute, McVey drew a penalty outside the box. He then took the free kick and buried it in the upper left-hand corner of the goal to give the Knights a 2-1 advantage. Lissek improved his record to 8-3-2 between the pipes and made three saves. Angoitia turned away four shots for the Bobcats.

NEWS and NOTES on Fairleigh Dickinson Knights

- Jack McVey scored his fourth goal of the season in the win over Quinnipiac. All four of his goals this season have been game-winners.
- Sophomore Jacob Lissek (Highlands Ranch, CO/Rock Canyon) tied a career high with nine saves in the loss to Monmouth
- FDU is off to its best start since 2008 when they started out 9-3-2 and 4-0-1 in NEC play and made the NCAA Tournament

Next Up:

The Terriers will travel to West Long Branch, New Jersey to square off against Monmouth University on October 23rd at 1:00 pm in a Northeast Conference affair.
