There Goes The Neighborhood, Part II: Terriers and Blackbirds Meet in

Brooklyn Heights on Saturday Afternoon

After a thrilling double-overtime victory on Monday evening, the St. Francis Brooklyn women's basketball team will look for the season sweep of their intra-borough rivals, the LIU Brooklyn Blackbirds, this afternoon from the Pope Physical Education Center. Both teams split their weekend contests against the Western Pennsylvania contingent of Robert Morris and Saint Francis U.

All-Time vs. LIU Brooklyn Blackbirds

Today's contest marks the 69th all-time meeting between the two schools with the Blackbirds holding a 47-21 advantage in the head-to-head series. Back on January 28th, these two teams were pitted against one another in the 20th annual "Battle of Brooklyn" at the Wellness Center.

St. Francis Brooklyn snapped a seven-game losing streak to the Blackbirds with the 69-58 victory in the contest. Freshman guard Leah Fechko (Twinsburg, OH/Twinsburg) garnered MVP honorees after scoring a career-best 18 points on 7-of-10 shooting from the field, which included 2-of-3 from beyond the arc and nine rebounds.

Scouting LIU Brooklyn Blackbirds

The Blackbirds are coming off their most impressive win of the 2012-13 season, as they defeated the Saint Francis U Red Flash, 61-43, on Monday evening from the Wellness Center. Letavia Whippy was one of three Blackbirds to finish the game in double-figures as the second-year player recorded her first career double-double (14 points, 15 rebounds). Tamika Guz added 12 points and seven caroms while Sophie Bhasin also ended the game with 12 points and five rebounds.

Krystal Wells, who scored 20 points the last time vs. St. Francis Brooklyn, is the team's leading scorer at 10.1 ppg. Cleandra Roberts is the team's leading rebounder at 6.3 per game while Kelly Robinson is dishing out 4.8 assists/game.

POINT DISTRIBUTION

Here is how St. Francis Brooklyn distributes their points so far during the 2012-13 season.

THURSTON'S TERRIER TURNAROUND

Head Coach John Thurston's first season at the helm has yielded some relatively phenomenal results. The New York City native stepped into the Terriers' head coaching vacancy this past offseason, and the team has responded well to its new leader.

St. Francis Brooklyn double-overtime win over Robert Morris on Feb 4. allowed the team to match its entire win total from one season ago. After posting only four wins during the 2011-12 campaign, the Terriers already have eight victories this season, and with eight more games to play, they have an opportunity to end their postseason drought.

St. Francis Brooklyn, which posted a combined four NEC wins over the prior three seasons, has not qualified for the postseason conference tournament since 2008. Currently owning a 5-5 league mark, the Terriers are in a three-way tie for fifth place with Central Connecticut and Mount St. Mary's.

If the eight-team NEC Tournament were to begin today, St. Francis Brooklyn would be part of the field.

TERRIERS' TENACIOUS D OFFERS ONE EXPLANATION

St. Francis Brooklyn doubled their entire win total from one season ago, and the new-found success can be traced back to the team's stout defense.

Only two teams are holding opponents to an average less than 60.0 points per game and the Terriers are one of them.

St. Francis Brooklyn (59.9 ppg allowed) trails only defending NEC champion Sacred Heart (56.4 ppg) in scoring defense. The Terriers are also helping their cause with marksmen-like three-point shooting. John Thurston's team connects at 34.1 percent from downtown, a mark second to only Quinnipiac.

TERRIER THREE PARTY

St. Francis Brooklyn has recorded at least one made three-pointer in 223 straight contests. The last time the Terriers failed to convert a made three-pointer was back on November 23, 2005, against the Lafayette College Leopards in Easton, Pennsylvania.

St. Francis Brooklyn went 0-4 from beyond the arc as they were defeated 56-51. Here is how each of the 12 Northeast Conference members rank in regards to this streak:

Team	Streak (gm)	Last Time Didn't Convert
Sacred Heart	354	---
St. Francis Brooklyn	223	11/23/05 @ Lafayette
Monmouth	136	12/18/08 @ Virginia
Wagner	112	2/21/09 vs. Robert Morris
Mount St. Mary's	86	1/28/10 vs. Sacred Heart
Quinnipiac	64	2/6/10 vs. Sacred Heart
Robert Morris	53	3/8/11 @ Monmouth
Central Conn. St.	39	12/22/11 @ Auburn
Fairleigh Dickinson	27	2/11/12 @ Monmouth

ST. FRANCIS BROOKLYN TERRIER TIDBITS

OVER THE LAST FIVE GAMES

The Terriers are just 2-3 in their last five contests. A pair of guard are leading the attack as Sarah Benedetti (Canton, CT/Canton) and two-time reigning Choice Hotels Northeast Conference Rookie of the Week Leah Fechko (Twinsburg, OH/Twinsburg). Benedetti is scoring 13.8 ppg while Fechko is tallying 11.8 over their last five games. Fechko is pulling down 8.0 caroms a contest while shooting 46.9 percent from the field. Benedetti is shooting 38.5 percent from beyond the arc.

CLEANING UP ON THE OFFENSIVE GLASS

Of the 248 offensive rebounds that the St. Francis Brooklyn women's basketball team has pulled down this season, freshman Leah Fechko (Twinsburg, OH/Twinsburg) has accounted for 23.1 percent of those caroms, as the first year guard has pulled down a total of 48, good for 10th in the Northeast Conference

OH WERE HALFWAY THERE

In just a year and a half, sophomore sharp-shooter Sarah Benedetti (Canton, CT/Canton) has already hit the 500 point club as she tallied 14 points in the win against Robert Morris on Monday, February 4th.

RESERVING A SPOT

The St. Francis Brooklyn Terriers are receiving significant contributions from their reserves this season. The Terriers have outscored their opponents bench, 386 to 256. St. Francis Brooklyn is averaging 18.3 points from their backups while holding their opponents to just 12.1 points per game from their reserves.

MAKING IT COUNT AT THE CHARITY STRIPE

Second year guards Katie Fox (Twinsburg, OH/Twinsburg) and Eilidh Simpson (Melbourne, Australia/Wesley College) have combined to make their last 31 free-throw attempts. Simpson has made 20 straight since going 1-of-2 against Yale while Fox has made 11 straight free-throws heading into this afternoon's contest at CCSU, which includes a career day from the line, 5-of-5, vs. Monmouth.

JESS-SAYING

Sophomore forward Jessica Kaufman (Melbourne, Australia/Presentation College Windsor) is having a bounce-back season. Currently, Kaufman ranks third in the Northeast Conference in Field Goal Percentage, shooting the ball at a 50.4 percent clip.

UP FOR GRABS

Junior Kiley Grabbe (Mullica Hill, New Jersey/Clearview Regional) has pulled down an even 100 for her career as the third-year center pulled down four in the loss against Central Connecticut back on 1/26/13.

VENEY GOT 400 PTS/NEEDING THE 300 REBOUNDS

Second-year forward Jaymee Veney (Fairborn, OH/Fairborn) reached the 400 point plateau, becoming the second Terrier to do so this season. The Ohioan is just 24 caroms short of career #300.

FETCHED BACK-TO-BACK ROOKIE HONORS

Freshman guard Leah Fechko (Twinsburg, OH/Twinsburg) was awarded back-to-back Choice Hotels Northeast Conference Rookie of the Week for the weeks of January 22nd and 29th.

For the week of January 22nd, Fechko averaged 11.0 points, 5.0 rebounds, 2.0 assists and 2.0 steals per contest as the Terriers went 1-1 against the NEC's Garden State contingent. The native Ohioan shot an even 50 percent from the field and connected at 83.3 percent from the charity stripe.

Fechko did not want to let go of the Choice Hotels NEC Rookie of the Week award as the freshman guard averaged a double-double over the Terriers' two-game road swing, which included the annual "Battle of Brooklyn." Shooting 54.5 percent from the floor, Fechko accounted for 14.5 points and 10.5 rebounds per contest. After posting a double-double of 11 points and 12 rebounds in a tough loss at Central Connecticut, Fechko was even better against cross-boro rival LIU. The 5-foot-8 Ohioan erupted for a career-high 18 points and grabbed nine rebounds in the Terrier's 69-58 wire-to-wire win over the Blackbirds. Fechko sank 7 of her 10 field goal attempts on the way to becoming the first freshman in more than a decade to win the "Battle of Brooklyn" MVP award.

ST. FRANCIS BROOKLYN TERRIER TIDBITS

NON-CONFERENCE PROGRESS

St. Francis Brooklyn tripled its non-conference win total from one year ago. The Terriers defeated three teams – Army, Delaware State and Rider – that it lost to during the 2011-12 campaign.

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL SIGNS OLIVIA LEVEY TO NATIONAL LETTER-OF-INTENT FOR 2013-14 SEASON

St. Francis Brooklyn women's basketball head coach John Thurston has announced that Olivia Levey (Seymour, Connecticut/Academy of Our Lady of Mercy|Lauralton Hall) has signed a National Letter-of-Intent to play for the Terriers starting in 2013-14.

"We are very excited about the addition Olivia Levey to our program," commented coach Thurston. "She is a powerful presence inside with advanced post moves. Olivia played for one of the top high school programs in Connecticut and has been around great coaching both in high school and during the summer travel season. She is extremely intelligent both on and off the court and will fit in very well with our current players. We expect her to contribute immediately to our program."

Levey, a 5-11 forward, spent her freshman year playing for Christian Heritage in which she was a 1,000 point scorer. Olivia was named to the 2009-10 Boston Globe All-Scholastics Team as well as the Connecticut Post All-Star Second Team and was honored with All-New England Honorable Mention selection.

In her second season, her first at Lauralton Hall, Levey garnered two Most Valuable Player awards, receiving the awards at the Mercy Classic and the 2011 Northeast College Showcase. In addition, Levey was selected to the Mercy Classic All-Tournament Team.

With her stock rising, Levey was nominated for the 2012 Gatorade Player of the Year in addition to being named a two-time All-SWC Conference selection and a two-time SWC All-Tournament Team selection.

Last Time: Robert Morris 63, St. Francis Brooklyn 67 2ot

Brooklyn Heights, New York---Sophomore guard Sarah Benedetti drained a deep three-pointer from the left wing with thirty-one seconds remaining, propelling the St. Francis Brooklyn Terriers to their fifth Northeast Conference victory, as they defeated the Robert Morris University Colonials, 67-63, on Monday evening at the Pope Physical Education Center. The Terriers, who have already doubled their win total from a year ago, improved to 8-13 and evened their conference mark at 5-5.

Benedetti was one of five Terriers to score in double figures, as she finished with a team-leading 14 points, seven of which coming in the extra sessions. The Canton, Connecticut native was a perfect 6-of-6 from the free-throw line in a career high 43 minutes of action. Jaymee Veney chipped in 13 points and seven rebounds in 44 minutes of play while Jessica Kaufman, Eilidh Simpson and Leah Fechko each contributed ten points. Simpson dished out a game and career-high seven assists.

Robert Morris' (5-16, 4-6 NEC) Artemis Spanou led the way for the visitors, finished the contest with a game-high 18 points and 20 rebounds in 50 minutes of action. Ashley Ravelli notched 13 points and five assists in 49 minutes of play while Kelly Hartwell added 10 points and six rebounds.

Randi Jackson of the Colonials was able to give the visitors a 63-60 lead with 1:49 left in double overtime. St. Francis Brooklyn answered back after a foul was called on Spanou with 1:08 remaining. Benedetti made both her attempts from the free-throw line, cutting the deficit to one, 63-62. On the ensuing possession, Simpson was able to make a big steal as she swiped the ball cleanly away from Jackson.

After letting twenty-second trim off the clock, the Melbourne, Australia native was able to locate Benedetti on the left-wing and the recently named 2012-13 Capital One Academic All-District First Team honoree hit nothing but net on a three-pointer to put the home team up, 65-63 with just thirty-seconds to go. The Colonials had a trio of chances in the closing seconds but were unsuccessful from close range and Veney was able to ice the game by making two-free throws with just seven seconds remaining.

The Terriers were able to strike first in what was a see-saw first half, as the home team erupted on a 7-0 run, as put that was catapulted by the trio of Veney, Fox and Simpson. After back-to-back field goals by Anna Gailite, the Colonials sparked a 9-2 run of their own, which was capped off by a tri-fecta from Ravelli and a lay-up by Anna Kavasila.

Over the next nine minutes, the Terriers were much more aggressive and went out on a 15-4 run to extend their lead to 25-16. RMU's Spanou scored the final four points of the first stanza as the Terriers held on to a 25-20 halftime lead. The Terriers extended their lead to 32-26 after Fechko was able to hit a layup attempt in the lane. The Colonials had fight left in them, as they were able to trim the St. Francis Brooklyn lead to just one, 34-33, after back-to-back jumpers by Kavasila and Kelly Hartwell. After Benedetti connected from long-range, Ravelli answered back for Robert Morris to cut the deficit back to one, and on the next Colonial possession were able to take the lead on a Spanou lay-up.

Over the final 8:30, the game was tied six times as the teams battled to a 53-53 standstill after the first forty minutes. The Colonials' Hartwell got the scoring started in the first extra session while the Terriers responded with a Kaufman lay-up to tie the game back at 55 with 3:06 left. Spanou put RMU back in the driver's seat, 57-55 with 1:59 left but a costly foul by Ravelli put Benedetti on the line with 1:32 left. The second-year guard calmly made both attempts, tying the game for the eleventh time.

Both teams couldn't secure the momentum over the final 1:32 of the first overtime as both squads combined to miss their final three shots, which included a misfire from Benedetti from long-range that would have won the game with nine seconds in the stanza.

St. Francis Brooklyn finished the game shooting 32.3 percent from the field (21-of-65) while hitting 18-of-19 from the charity stripe (94.7 percent). The Colonials outmuscled the Terriers in the rebounding department, 50-39, thanks to Spanou's 20 rebound effort. The Terriers were able to convert 19 points off 21 Colonial turnovers and were able to tie a season-high with 11 steals.

It was the Terriers' first double-overtime game since battling Monmouth University back on January 19th, 2008.

Brooklyn, New York | 20th Annual "Battle of Brooklyn"

BROOKLYN, NEW YORK---Reigning Choice Hotels Northeast Conference Rookie of the Week Leah Fechko was one of four St. Francis Brooklyn Terriers to score in double-figures as the Terriers defeated local rival LIU Brooklyn, 69-58, in the 20th Annual "Battle of Brooklyn," contested at the Wellness Center on Monday evening.

St. Francis Brooklyn evened its Northeast Conference record at 4-4, picked up their seventh overall win of the season (7-12) and stopped a seven game losing streak to the Blackbirds, who falter to 4-15 overall and 1-7 in conference tilts. Fechko, who was named the games Most Valuable Player, is the first Terrier to be named MVP since Kara Ayers ('09) took home the honors after St. Francis Brooklyn last won the Battle of Brooklyn back on January 17th, 2009. She is the first freshman to win the award since Tamika Dudley of LIU Brooklyn did so in the 2000-01 season.

"I'm proud of the girls and the way we played tonight," commented first-year head coach John Thurston. "We came out with much more intensity on both ends of the floor. Our defense, especially in the first half, was exceptional. Tonight's victory was a team-victory and we'll continue to build upon tonight's effort moving forward."

Fechko posted a career-high 18 points and nine rebounds in 35 minutes of play. The first-year guard finished the game shooting 7-of-10 from the field, 2-of-3 from beyond the arc while dishing out three assists. Sophomore guard Sarah Benedetti added 15 points on 6-of-12 shooting, while classmate Jessica Kaufman chipped in with 13 points, ten of those points coming in the first half. Fellow countrywoman Eilidh Simpson netted ten points and a team-high five assists and five steals in 35 minutes of action.

LIU Brooklyn had two players finish in double-figures, led by Krystal Wells, who finished with a game-high 20 points, all coming in the second half. Wells finished the game shooting 7-of-19 from the perimeter and 4-of-11 from beyond the arc while teammate Cleandra Roberts was one carom short of a double-double, finishing with 11 points and a team-high nine rebounds in 30 minutes of play.

The Terriers led wire-to-wire and never surrendered the lead. St. Francis Brooklyn sharpshooter Benedetti found the early touch, lighting up the scoreboard for three trifectas in the first five minutes of the contest, which helped the visitors jump out to an early 12-8 lead.

Behind the hot start, St. Francis Brooklyn held the Blackbirds without a field goal for nearly nine minutes, erupting on a 21-2 run, which saw the Terrier lead expand to 33-1. LIU Brooklyn ended the run at the 7:19 mark after Letavia Whippy was able to convert on the layup attempt, making it 33-12.

Despite LIU Brooklyn outscoring the Terriers, 13-10, for the remainder of the half, St. Francis Brooklyn entered the break with a 43-25 lead. The visitors shot a blistering 55.9 percent from the field (19-of-34) in the opening stanza, which is the highest shooting percentage for a half since the Terriers shot 56.0 percent at Wagner on January 12th, 2013.

LIU's Wells gave the Blackbirds a chance to get back in the game when she converted back-to-back three-pointers in a two minute stretch, which narrowed the Terrier lead to just 11, 45-34, with 17:51 left in the game. Both teams couldn't find their range, and the score remained 52-38, in favor of the Terriers for over five minutes.

With a little over seven minutes remaining in the contest, the Blackbirds mounted a comeback as Wells was the catalyst again, drawing the contact and converting a three-point play, while bringing the home team within ten, 61-51 at the 3:39 mark.

St. Francis Brooklyn regained their composure and closed out the game with the eleven point victory. The Terriers finished the contest shooting 52.8 percent (28-of-53) and 38.5 percent from beyond the arc. Both teams finished the contest with 33 rebounds, while the Terriers' bench out-scored the Blackbirds reserves, 23-to-7.

HEAD COACH JOHN THURSTON

First Season as St. Francis Brooklyn Head Coach 40th Overall Season in Coaching

Alma Mater: Seton Hall University '70

Career Record | Women's Head Coach: 49-34 (Third Year)

Career Record | Men's Head Coach: 165-232 (15th Year)

Thurston's St. Francis Brooklyn Record | 8-13 (First Year)

Thurston's St. Francis Brooklyn Conf. Rec. | 5-5 (First Year)

John Thurston enters his first season as head coach of the St. Francis College women's basketball program. Overall, Thurston embarks on his 40th season on the sidelines.

Thurston takes over for Brenda Milano, who announced her resignation after nine years on the sidelines. Coach Thurston finished his second-season with program, serving as the Associate Head Coach last year, as he brings a wealth of experience to the program.

Thurston is one of only a few coaches who have been a Head Coach at the NCAA DI, DII, DIII and NAIA levels in 26 years of coaching men's college basketball from 1971-1997. During the early 1970's, Thurston's Fairleigh Dickinson-Florham teams were known for their high scoring offense, averaging almost 100 points per game.

During the following ten years as an assistant and three as Head Coach at James Madison University, the Dukes went to four NCAA tournaments and one NIT. For his tremendous efforts in the 1986-87 season, Thurston was named the Colonial Athletic Association "Coach of the Year."

In nine years at Wingate University, he served the dual role of Athletic Director and Head Basketball Coach and is credited with moving the athletic department from NAIA status to nationally competitive NCAA DII affiliation.

From 2001-2003 Thurston held the position of General Manager at Atlanta's Suwanee Sports Academy establishing widely respected basketball training programs and bringing national events such as the adidas Showtime Championships and adidas Top Ten All-Star game to the Atlanta area. While planning the Suwanee Sports Academy venture Thurston took over the girls program at Marist HS in Atlanta in 1999.

During his three years at the helm the War Eagles broke school records for wins each year advancing to the State Tournament each year with a pair of Elite Eight appearances. His teams were ranked in the Top Ten in GA all three years and six of his players went on to play college basketball, five at the Division I level.

Thurston returned to collegiate coaching in the fall of 2003 to serve as Ann Hancock's top assistant at UNC-Wilmington and has been involved with the women's game for eight years on both the major and small college levels.

In 2005, Thurston moved to Northwood University in West Palm Beach, FL to develop the school's first ever women's basketball program. In their first two seasons of competition, he led the Seahawks to two Florida Sun Conference titles, and their first appearance at the NAIA National Tournament in 2008 in Sioux City, Iowa. He was named FSC Coach of the Year in 2008, and under his guidance, Katie Vican (2007, current assistant coach of the Terriers) and Kara Otterbine (2008) were named FSC Player of the Year.

Thurston has gained respect through the years as an evaluator and developer of talent, ranging from two NBA players, six overall NBA draft choices, seven European professionals, four "Rookies of the Year", three "Players of the Year", one "Defensive Player of the Year", eighteen All-Conference selections, three 2000 pt. scorers and thirteen 1000 pt scorers. Twelve of his former players have already been elected to their school's Hall of Fame.

A 1966 graduate of Archbishop Molloy High School he was an All-City performer in both baseball and basketball under legendary Coach Jack Curran and was a 1966 draft choice of the Los Angeles Dodgers. He continued his education at Seton Hall University graduating with a degree in Government. He played both baseball and basketball for the Pirates and was awarded the John F Kennedy Award in 1970 as the school's outstanding student-athlete.

He and his wife, Candice, have been married for 40 years and have two daughters, Clancy and Corey and four grandchildren, Jack, Rhone, Luke, and Elsa.

Choice Hotels/NEC Player of the Week

BLAIR KONISZEWSKI, SACRED HEART

Jr., G, 5-11, Vienna, VA/Paul VI

Coming off the bench, Koniszewski provided more than a spark for Sacred Heart during its two-game NEC sweep of Wagner and Mount St. Mary's. The junior forward averaged 20.0 points, 3.0 rebounds and 3.0 assists per game over the two-win road swing that extended the Pioneers' win streak to six in a row and pushed them into sole possession of second place in the Northeast Conference standings. Playing 28.5 minutes per contest, Koniszewski shot 47 percent from three-point range and accounted for a 3-to-1 assist-to-turnover ratio. The versatile 5-foot-11 forward erupted for a career-high 26 points in a 58-50 triumph over Mount St. Mary's. Not only did she provide 45 percent of Sacred Heart's scoring in the game, but Koniszewski came through in crunch time. With Sacred Heart clinging to a 49-48 lead and under 2:00 remaining in regulation, Koniszewski stepped up and sank her fourth three-pointer of the game. The third-year Pioneer completed a perfect day (12-for-12) at the free throw by hitting a pair that bumped SHU's advantage to eight points with 25 second left. Koniszewski hit four more three-pointers in her next outing at Wagner. The native Virginian finished the 76-47 victory with 14 points, four assists and no turnovers to her credit. Koniszewski is the first non-starter to capture the Choice Hotels NEC Player of the Week award this season. In 22 games off the bench, she averages 9.5 points over 21.1 minutes per game.

Choice Hotels/NEC Rookie of the Week

ASHLEY RAVELLI, ROBERT MORRIS

Fr., G, 5-10, Milano, Italy/The Hun School (NJ)

Ravelli provided scoring and endurance during Robert Morris' two-game stay in Brooklyn, which ended with a double-overtime affair Monday night. Playing 88 of a possible 90 minutes for the injury-ravaged Colonials, the rookie guard averaged 15.0 points per game against the NEC's Brooklyn-based contingent. She shot 43 percent from downtown, sinking three three-pointers in each of the two contests. Ravelli scored a game-high 17 points on Saturday at LIU with her final trifecta breaking a 41-41 tie with 00:53 remaining in the eventual 47-41 win. Two days later, and only a few blocks away from LIU, Ravelli recorded 13 points and five assists in a marathon of a game against St. Francis Brooklyn. She played 49 of a possible 50 minutes in the two-overtime affair. Her layup gave Robert Morris a 61-60 lead with 2:36 left in the second extra session before the home team bounced back for a 67-63 victory. Ravelli, who is averaging 9.3 points per contest, has twice won the Choice Hotels NEC Rookie of the Week award this season, matching the feat of fellow first-year Colonial Lou Mataly.

QUINNIPIAC'S QUEST FOR NEC CROWN COULD TURN INTO HISTORIC RIDE

As they passed the halfway point on Monday night, Quinnipiac is right where the Northeast Conference coaches expected them to be.

The Bobcats, who were tabbed the NEC preseason favorite in a vote of the league's head coaches, are in first place.

In traveling their current path, the Bobcats haven't just been winning; they've been dominating the opposition. Quinnipiac has yet to lose in NEC play this season, defeating conference opponents by an average of 18.2 points per game.

Coinciding with Quinnipiac's quest to capture the program's first-ever NEC crown is an opportunity to join an extremely elite class. At 10-0 in league play, the Bobcats have a chance to become only the fourth team in NEC history to post a perfect 18-0 regular season record.

The last team to accomplish the feat was the 2009 Sacred Heart squad. The 2004 Saint Francis (PA) team and the 1994 Mount St. Mary's Mountaineers are the other two who attained regular season perfection. In all three prior instances, the team followed up its 18-0 regular season record by winning the postseason NEC Tournament and earning a bid to the "Big Dance."

Quinnipiac's top regular season showing came during the 2007-08 campaign when Tricia Fabbri's team went 16-2 over the course of the 18-game league schedule and earned the No. 1 seed in the NEC Tournament. The Bobcats fell to LIU Brooklyn in the semifinal round, but went onto qualify for the Women's NIT and finished with a program-record 25 victories.

Currently sporting a 19-2 overall record, Quinnipiac is threatening to top that mark and if the Bobcats continue on this torrid pace, they will.

Riding an 11-game overall win streak, QU has not lost since Dec. 29, 2012 when it fell to ACC member Georgia Tech. The Bobcats' only other loss this season came at the hands of perennial America East power Hartford.

Quinnipiac did manage to pick up a handful of notable non-conference victories along the way, including a season-opening road win at CAA member James Madison, the 2012 WNIT runner-up. On Dec. 22, the Bobcats defeated Big East foe St. John's.

Tricia Fabbri's Bobcats can move two-thirds of the way toward a perfect NEC season with a pair of victories this upcoming weekend. They'll face two formidable foes in Central Connecticut (Feb. 9) and Monmouth (Feb. 11). CCSU received a 30-point performance from Jaclyn Babe and gave the Bobcats a scare before falling, 82-73, on Jan. 28 in Hamden. Monmouth, the 2012 NEC Tournament runner-up, is the team responsible for knocking Quinnipiac out of the postseason last March.

First in More Ways than One: If you're trying to figure out how Quinnipiac owns a NEC-best 17-2 overall record, look no further than the NEC's statistical team leader board. Not only do Tricia Fabbri's Bobcats lead the league standings, they are tops in the NEC in eight major statistical categories: scoring offense (72.6 ppg), scoring margin (+12.6/game), field goal percentage (.407), three-point field goal percentage (.363), assists (17.0 apg), steals (12.2 spg), turnover margin (+8.2/game) and assist-to-turnover ratio (1.13).

Quotable

► Sarah Benedetti, G/F (St. Francis Brooklyn)

"My coaches were telling me to keep shooting, don't worry about it. And I just let it go and it went in. It was a great feeling."

- on starting the game 2-for-14 from the field before hitting the game-winning three-pointer in double overtime against Robert Morris on Feb. 4.

► Gail Striegler, Head Coach (LIU Brooklyn)

"It was a great performance, top to bottom. Everyone who went in really played hard. It was just good minutes by everybody that played."

- on her team's effort in a 61-43 win over Saint Francis (PA) that snapped a three-game slide.

► Carly Thibault, G (Monmouth)

"We knew this was a game we had to win. We talked about it a lot that there's kind of a log jam in the middle of the NEC right now so we need to start getting on a little bit of a roll here to end the regular season."

- following a win over CCSU that moved Monmouth (6-4) in sole possession of fourth place.

► Jenny Palmateer, Head Coach (Monmouth)

"Believe it or not we do work on free throws. The thing is, we know to get where eventually we want to go the free throws are a thing you have to get good at. Otherwise they're going to come back to bite you in the end. If we don't shoot in the 80s we probably don't win this game today."

- following a win over CCSU during which the Hawks shot 83.3 percent from the free throw line.

► Peter Cinella, Head Coach (FDU)

"Today was a good win for the entire team against a very solid Central Connecticut team. We made great hustle plays, in particular, late in the game. Desiree Crawford and Erika Livermore hustled for key rebounds, and Stephanie Isaacs was all over the boards. We got great defense and did a great job of rebounding the basketball."

- following an overtime win that snapped his team's four-game losing streak

QUINNIPIAC'S QUEST FOR NEC CROWN COULD TURN INTO HISTORIC RIDE

Thurston's Terrier Turnaround:

John Thurston's first season at the helm has yielded some relatively phenomenal results. The New York City native stepped into the Terriers' head coaching vacancy this past off-season, and the team has responded well to its new leader. St. Francis Brooklyn's double-overtime win over Robert Morris on Feb. 4 allowed the team to match its entire win total from one season ago. After posting only four wins during the 2011-12 campaign, the Terriers already have eight victories this season, and, with eight more games to play, they have an opportunity to end their postseason drought. St. Francis Brooklyn, which posted a combined four NEC wins over the prior three seasons, has not qualified for the postseason conference tournament since 2008. Currently owning a 5-5 league record, the Terriers are in a three-way tie for fifth place with Central Connecticut and Mount St. Mary's. If the eight-team NEC Tournament were to begin today, St. Francis would be part of the field.

Slow Start Behind Them, Bulldogs

Focus on Finish: Bryant's first season as a postseason-eligible NEC member did not start out as planned, but now it appears that Mary Burke has her team on the right track. The Bulldogs lost their first five games on the conference slate. After an 86-84 overtime loss to Mount St. Mary's dropped Bryant to 0-5 on Jan. 19, the Bulldogs began digging their way back into contention. Having won four of its last five conference contests, Bryant (4-6) finds itself tied with Robert Morris and Fairleigh Dickinson for the eighth, and final, spot in the NEC Tournament. The Bulldogs, who swept their way through the Garden State this past weekend, have eight games remaining on the regular season schedule and will next face defending champion Sacred Heart in a grudge match. SHU is responsible for Bryant's lone defeat since Jan. 19. The Pioneers tamed the Bulldogs, 62-44, at home on Jan. 28. When they've come, they've come in bunches for the Bulldogs this season. Similarly to the start to its conference schedule, Bryant began the 2012-13 campaign by dropping its first four games. The Bulldogs rebounded for a four-game win streak, which evened its overall record at 4-4, before hitting another dry spell. After taking down America East member Maine on Dec. 10, Bryant did not find the win column again until Jan. 21.

Injury Bug Takes Another Bite out of Robert Morris: Two-time Choice Hotels NEC Rookie of the Week Lou Mataly (Toulouse, France) was inactive during Robert Morris' two-game road swing through Brooklyn this past weekend. The French-born guard is the latest casualty on a long list of Colonials who have missed time due to injury this season. Over the first 19 games of her collegiate career, six of which were starts, Mataly averaged 10.1 points per contest and hit a team-high 47 three-pointers. A return date is unavailable at this time. Robert Morris is already playing without the services of starting point guard Jasmine Tate (Columbus, OH/ Harvest Prep) who was lost for the season seven games into the 2012-13 campaign. Prior to the season tipping off, the Colonials lost their starting center when Jolie Olingende (Kinshasa, Congo) suffered a season-ending injury.

Ankoma-Mensa Coming of Age: It has been a steady three-year progression for Bryant's Naana Ankoma-Mensa (Brampton, Ontario) and it's leading to stardom. The junior power forward has been a double-double nearly every time out for the Bulldogs this season. The Canadian-born Ankoma-Mensa is averaging 14.3 points and 12.8 rebounds per contest and has logged a double-double on 13 occasions. Ankoma-Mensa has been a member of Bryant's rotation since her rookie year. A freshman with raw talent, she averaged 5.3 points and 5.7 rebounds per games, mostly in a reserve role. Ankoma-Mensa broke into Bryant's starting lineup as a sophomore and became increasingly effective in her role. Her 12.4 points per game made her the team's scoring leader and her 9.6 rebounds per contest were good enough for second in the NEC.

SHU Loves Its Freebies: Sacred Heart made its opponent pay from the charity stripe this past weekend, a feat that is nothing new for Ed Swanson's Pioneers. Over a two-game clip,

Milestone Watch

► Sacred Heart Pioneers

The Pioneers collected the program's 200th Northeast Conference victory with a 58-50 triumph over Mount St. Mary's on Feb. 2. All 200 of those wins have come under the direction of head coach Ed Swanson. Since joining the NEC in 1999, Sacred Heart has never finished lower than a tie for third in the league standings and has captured three NEC Tournament titles.

► Ed Swanson, Coach (SHU)

The reigning NEC Coach of the Year is one win away from reaching the 400-win mark for his career. Swanson owns a 399-260 overall career record at SHU, and in league play, no coach in conference history has more NEC wins than Swanson (201).

► Mary Burke, Coach (BRY)

The long-time Bryant coach moved past the 300-win mark this past weekend. The Bulldogs' victories over Monmouth and Fairleigh Dickinson pushed Burke's career total to 302 wins. Burke's 300th victory came in the form of a 64-49 home win over LIU Brooklyn on Jan. 26.

► Abby Martin, PF (MON)

The veteran post player scored the 1,000th point of her career on Monday, Feb. 4 against CCSU. She became the 16th player in Monmouth's Division I history to reach the 1,000-point plateau.

► Sarah Benedetti, G/F (SFC)

The sophomore is more than halfway to the millennium mark. Benedetti, coming in with 490 career points, tallied 14 points in a two-overtime win over RMU.

► Jaclyn Babe, G (CCSU)

The dynamic senior guard poured in 20 points on Monday night at Monmouth, pulling two within two points of the 1,000-point milestone. A transfer from Duquesne, she has scored 807 of her career points at CCSU.

► Marie Archambault, G (WAG)

The senior sharpshooter tallied 16 points on Monday (Feb. 4) against Sacred Heart, leaving her nine shy of the 1,000-point mark entering Saturday's game (Feb. 9) at Robert Morris.

#30 Kelly Myers
6-0 • Soph. • F
Coventry, CT (Coventry HS)
Major: Psychology

2012-13 (Sophomore): Will sit-out the entire 2012-13 season as a medical redshirt

2011-12 (Freshman): Appeared in ten contests during the 2011-12 season...Logged 12.6 minutes per game....Tallied 3.0 points per contest while pulling down 3.0 rebounds a game....Her best performance came against Wagner on December 3, 2011 in which she recorded a career-high nine points and career-best seven rebounds in 20 minutes of action...

High School: Myers was a three sport athlete. She is a four time state champion in volleyball and a two time state champion in the shot put. But her basketball accolades are what attracted the coaches from St. Francis. Kelly is a three-time All-State selection. This season she achieved a tremendous milestone by scoring over 1,000 points and pulling down over 1,000 rebounds. She led her team in both scoring and rebounding all of her four years. They were state runner's up in both 2008 and 2009. She was named all-conference three consecutive seasons (2009, 2010 and 2011). While at Coventry, during her freshman year, her team squared off against Canton, where the best player on the team was current Terrier teammate, Sarah Benedetti...Myers finished the contest with 27 points and 24 rebounds...

Personal: Daughter of Norman and Margaret Myers...Has one sibling, Tommy...Was a four-year member of the Honor Roll and National Honor Society...Her mother, Margaret, was a member of UConn women's basketball head coach Geno Auriemma first recruiting class... Kelly's role model is her mother....Off the court, Kelly's favorite food is anything Mexican or spicy and the meal that she loves to cook is pulled pork, a recipe that she got from her father...Her favorite sports team is the New England Patriots (NFL) while her favorite athlete is Diana Taurasi (Phoenix Mercury; WNBA)...Kelly's favorite movie is Love & Basketball and her favorite television show is Criminal Minds & CSI.

#45 Casey Cummings
6-2 • Fresh. • C
Leesburg, VA (Loudon County)
Major: Education

High School: Cummings stock rose following a sensational junior season at Loudoun County...Cummings thrived in extended playing time, averaging 11.0 points and 13.0 rebounds per game to help the Raiders finish the regular season with a 26-5 record... In 2009, Cummings and the Raiders were State Champions as well as Regional Champions while securing a District Championship all four years that Cummings attended Loudoun County. In 2011, they were the runner-ups in the State Championship while Cummings garnered Second Team All-District...Cummings is the first player to record a triple-double as she finished with 16 points, 24 rebounds and 10 blocks, Ending her career at Loudoun County, Cummings has the blocks in a game, career blocks, season blocks and grabbing the most rebounds in season.

Cummings played AAU ball for the first time in her career this past summer, as she suited up for Fred Priester and the Potomac Valley Vogues at the suggestion of her high school coach, Derek Fisher. There, Cummings and the Vogues were runner-ups in the AAU Silver Showcase while finishing third in the National Championship game.

Personal: Daughter of Ginny Mcleod...Has three siblings: Christina, Chad and Caylee....Her role model is her mother because she has taught her that hard work really off...Casey's favorite food to eat and to make is Chicken Parmesan and pasta..Her favorite sports team is the New York Giants (NFL) and her favorite athlete is Victor Cruz (New York Giants- NFL)...Casey's favorite movie is Titanic and favorite tv show is Shark Week whileher favorite holiday is Christmas.
