Game #26: Saint Francis University Red Flash (11-14; 9-5 NEC) St. Francis Brooklyn Terriers (16-9; 7-7 NEC)

February 22nd, 2014 | 2:00 PM

Pope Physical Education Center | Brooklyn Heights, New York

GAME OVERVIEW

The St. Francis Brooklyn women's basketball team begins a four-game homestand to close out the 2013-14 Northeast Conference regular season as they welcome in the Saint Francis University Red Flash.

THE SERIES VS. THE RED FLASH

Saturday's contest is the 54th all-time meeting between the two schools with the Red Flash holding a 39-14 advantage. These two teams met back on February 10th in Loretto as the Terriers stopped an eight-game losing skid to their Pennsylvania counterparts, 90-76. In the process, SFBK snapped SFU's season-high six game win streak.

TERRIER TIDBITS

- With one more victory, the 2013-14 Terriers can set the all-time mark for wins with 17. In the 90-76 triumph at Saint Francis University on February 10th, SFBK tied the school mark of 16, set back during the 1975-76 season under St. Francis College Hall of Famer and current head coach of the Lafayette College Leopards, Dianne Nolan
- St. Francis Brooklyn is looking to avoid their first three-game losing streak since January 20th-January 27th of this year.

THE RACE TO THE NORTHEAST CONFERENCE CHAMPIONSHIPS

St. Francis Brooklyn is currently tied for sixth in the Northeast Conference standings with Wagner. The Red Flash are occupying the third spot. If the playoffs started today, SFBK would travel to Mount St. Mary's while SFU would host Wagner due to Wagner taking the season-series from St. Francis Brooklyn.

LIU BROOKLYN

John Thurston enters his second season as head coach of the St. Francis Brooklyn women's basketball program. Overall, Thurston embarks on his 41st season on the sidelines.

In his first season at the helm of the Terriers, St. Francis Brooklyn was picked eleventh in the preseason coaches' poll. Thurston led the Terriers St. Francis Brooklyn back to the Northeast Conference Tournament after a five year hiatus. The Terriers eleven wins marked the first time the program attained double-digit victories since the 2007-08.

In addition to the success on the court, under Thurston's tutelage, the St. Francis Brooklyn women's basketball program excelled in the classroom. The Terriers were tied for the second-highest Division I team GPA in the WBCA Academic Top 25 Team Honor Roll for the 2012-13 season. The team is the only New York Metropolitan area squad to earn the honor. Eight student-athletes received 3.8 or above grade-point averages in the spring semester alone, led by guard Katie Fox's overall 4.0 mark. The Terriers paced the entire Northeast Conference in women's basketball with a team grade-point average of 3.625.

Thurston is one of only a few coaches who have been a Head Coach at the NCAA DI, DII, DIII and NAIA levels in 26 years of coaching men's college basketball from 1971-1997. During the early 1970's, Thurston's Fairleigh Dickinson-Florham teams were known for their high scoring offense, averaging almost 100 points per game.

During the following ten years as an assistant and three as Head Coach at James Madison University, the Dukes went to four NCAA tournaments and one NIT. For his tremendous efforts in the 1986-87 season, Thurston was named the Colonial Athletic Association "Coach of the Year." In nine years at Wingate University he served the dual role of Athletic Director and Head Basketball Coach and is credited with moving the athletic department from NAIA status to nationally competitive NCAA DII affiliation.

From 2001-2003 Thurston held the position of General Manager at Atlanta's Suwanee Sports Academy establishing widely respected basketball training programs and bringing national events such as the adidas Showtime Championships and adidas Top Ten All-Star game to the Atlanta area.

While planning the Suwanee Sports Academy venture, Thurston took over the girls program at Marist HS in Atlanta in 1999. During his three years at the helm the War Eagles broke school records for wins each year advancing to the State Tournament each year with a pair of Elite Eight appearances. His teams were ranked in the Top Ten in GA all three years and six of his players went on to play college basketball, five at the DI level.

Thurston returned to collegiate coaching in the fall of 2003 to serve as Ann Hancock's top assistant at UNC-Wilmington and has been involved with the women's game for eight years on both the major and small college levels.

In 2005, Thurston moved to Northwood University in West Palm Beach, FL to develop the school's first ever women's basketball program. In their first two seasons of competition, he led the Seahawks to two Florida Sun Conference titles, and their first appearance at the NAIA National Tournament in 2008 in Sioux City, Iowa. He was named FSC Coach of the Year in 2008, and under his guidance, Kaitlyn Vican (2007, current assistant coach of the Terriers) and Kara Otterbine (2008) were named FSC Player of the Year.

Thurston has gained respect through the years as an evaluator and developer of talent, ranging from two NBA players, six overall NBA draft choices, seven European professionals, four "Rookies of the Year", three "Players of the Year", one "Defensive Player of the Year", eighteen All-Conference selections, three 2000 pt. scorers and thirteen 1000 pt scorers. Twelve of his former players have already been elected to their school's Hall of Fame.

A 1966 graduate of Archbishop Molloy High School he was an All-City performer in both baseball and basketball under legendary coach Jack Curran and was a 1966 draft choice of the Los Angeles Dodgers. He continued his education at Seton Hall University graduating with a degree in Government. He played both baseball and basketball for the Pirates and was awarded the John F Kennedy Award in 1970 as the school's outstanding student-athlete.

He and his wife, Candice, have been married for 41 years and have two daughters, Clancy and Corey and four grandchildren, Jack, Rhone, Luke, and Elsa.
