THE CAPSULE

The Robert Morris University women's basketball team returns to Brooklyn for the second time this season, this time to take on the St. Francis Brooklyn Terriers in a 7:00 p.m. game at the Pope Center Monday, January 24. RMU has won five straight while the Terriers find themselves in a dog-fight for a top-four seed in the NEC Playoffs.

THE SERIES VS. ST. FRANCIS BROOKLYN

The Colonials took the first game this season in double-overtime and now hold the all-time series lead at 38-16. These teams have split the last six meetings with RMU holding a 15-10 record at the Pope Center.

COLORING IN THE PLAYOFF PICTURE

The Colonials have secured one of the top two seeds in the upcoming NEC Tournament while the regular-season title remains on the line. RMU's magic number is 2 with Mount St. Mary's. Any combination of Robert Morris wins and Mount losses that equal two will result in the top seed for RMU.

SPANOU'S NEXT RECORD - ?

Senior forward Artemis Spanou has already set records for points, rebounds, field goals, field goal attempts and free throws and free throw attempts. But it looks like the weekly run to the top of the record book will be on hiatus while she continues to climb in several categories. Spanou has set two NEC and six RMU career records along with three RMU game records so far this season.

MUSKET SHOTS

- Artemis Spanou became the all-time leading scorer, male or female, in RMU history reaching 1,970 career points vs. Bryant
- RMU is 108-30 (.783) at the Sewall Center since 2004-05, including 73-15 (.830) in NEC games
- Robert Morris has won nine consecutive home games and 12 total this season, both tied for second in program annals
- The Colonials scored 101 points vs. St. Francis Brooklyn, their most since a team-record 106 points vs. FDU (2.23.02)
- Freshman Rebeca Navarro tied the team record for three-point percentage at .857 (6-7) against Sacred Heart
- Going 12-20 (.600) from long-range against Sacred Heart, RMU was second for both three's made and percentage
- The Colonials 10-16 (.625) three-point performance against Bryant was the best in team history (min. of 10 3-pt. made)
- Overcoming the 21-point deficit at CCSU was RMU's greatest comeback in the Sal Buscaglia era
- RMU had just six turnovers in this season's first game with Sacred Heart, tied for second-fewest in team history
- The Colonials were selected first in the 2013 NEC Preseason Poll
- Robert Morris has made it to the NEC Tournament semifinals in seven of the last nine seasons

Home games in BOLD CAPS; All times Eastern

* Northeast Conference contest

SWELL AT SEWALL

The 2013-14 squad is closing in on a pair of home win records as they continue to dominate at home games (see "Chuck's Charms"). RMU has won nine straight home games, the second-longest streak in team history (11, 06-07 to 07-08; 9, twice). The Colonials 12 home wins are also tied for third-most in team history (14, 06-07; 12 09-10 & 04-05).

ONE THREE RECORD: TWO THREE SECONDS

Freshman Rebeca Navarro connected on 6-of-7 three-pointers (.857) vs. Sacred Heart, tied for a team record for percentage with at least three makes. The Colonials went 12-20 (.600) from three-point range against Sacred Heart, second-best percentage this season and also the second-best in team history. The 12 threes are also second in team annals.

REBOUNDING REVIEW

The Colonials 7.0 rebounding margin is the best in team history. The margin is bolstered by four games in which RMU has outrebounded its opponent by at least 25 rebounds. The Colonials averaged 43.1 rebounds a game while allowing 36.1.

DIALING LONG DISTANCE ... FROM EUROPE

The Colonials European born players have accounted for 160 of the team's 165 three-pointers this season. Anna Niki Stamolamprou has 47, Ashley Ravelli 46 and Rebeca Navarro 32.

NAVARO NETS VEINTE

Freshman guard Rebeca Navarro went 6-of-7 from three-point range en route to a season-high 20 points against Sacred Heart. She was 5-5 and scored 15 points in the first half alone.

ANNA NIKI HITS 20

Freshman guard Anna Niki Stamolamprou tallied a season-high 20 points against St. Francis Brooklyn. She was 7-of-17 from the field with two three-pointers. Stamolamprou went 4-of-7 from the charity stripe and had five assists.

HITTING THE CENTURY MARK

Robert Morris reached the 100-point plateau for the just the third time in team history beating St. Francis Brooklyn 101-95 in double-overtime Saturday. RMU had 100 against Ohio University in 1997. The team-record for points was in a 106-99 win against Fairleigh Dickinson on Feb. 23, 2002.

BROWN'S FLOATER WAS "TYUS EDNEY-LIKE"

Janee Brown went the length of the floor in 4.1 seconds to tie St. Francis Brooklyn at the end of the first overtime. Tyus Edney (UCLA) needed 4.8 seconds to cover the same distance to beat Missouri in the NCAA Tourney in 1995.

OURSLEER OUTDOES HERSELF

Freshman forward Cassie Oursler tallied season-highs for points in back-to-back games on RMU's last road trip. She went 12-of-14 from the charity stripe to score 16 at Mount St. Mary's. Two days later, she scored 17 points and ripped down 11 rebounds, both career highs, in recording her second double-double of the season.

STACKING WINS

The Colonials seven-game win streak ended at Wagner, but it was the team's longest since the 2009-10 squad had 13 consecutive in the W-column. The 2007-08 team owns the record with 17 in a row.

CHUCK'S CHARMS

The Charles L. Sewall Center, a.k.a. "The Chuck", has lent a certain advantage for the Colonials over the past 10 seasons. Since 2004-05, Robert Morris is 107-30 (.781) in home games, including an even more impressive 72-15 (.826) record against Northeast Conference opponents.

CHALK TALK

Robert Morris went 16-for-17 (.941) from the free throw line against Saint Francis, the second-best free throw shooting performance in team history. Artemis Spanou led the way by going 9-9. Anna Niki Stamolamprou and Kelly Hartwell were each 2-2 and Janee Brown was 3-4. The record is 17-17 against Central Conn. State on Feb. 22, 1999.

TAKING CARE OF THE BALL

Robert Morris committed just six turnovers in the first game against Sacred Heart this season, tied for the second fewest in team history. The record is three in a game at Pitt (2/14/1987). The last time RMU had just six turnovers in a game was at Wagner (12/2006).

BIGGEST COMEBACK UNDER BUSCAGLIA

The Colonials overcame a 21-point second half deficit against Central Connecticut State Saturday to win, 61-59. It was the biggest deficit overcome by the team under 11th year head coach Sal Buscaglia. Previously, RMU climbed out of a 14-point hole against Miami (Ohio) to win 90-89 in the 2006-07 season opener (Nov. 12, 2006).

TRACKING "OFFENSIVE FLOW"

The new officiating guidelines designed to create more "offensive flow" have resulted in nearly 11 more whistles per game this season compared to last season. Through 26 games, there have been an average of 40.2 fouls and 43.6 free throws per game. The Colonials games in 2012-13 averaged 29.9 fouls and 30.8 free throws per game.

INSURMOUNTABLE LEAD

Robert Morris has never lost a game in which it has held the lead at the end of the second half. The Colonials are 17-0 in such situations this season. All-time, RMU is 474-0 when leading at the end of the second half.

PRESEASON PRIZEWINNER

With the NEC Player of the Year and Rookie of the Year returning, the RMU women's basketball team is the favorite in the 2013-14 NEC Preseason Women's Basketball Coaches Poll. The Colonials received five of a possible nine first-place votes and are the favorite for the first time since the 2008-09 season and third time overall.

RAVELLI ROOKIE OF THE YEAR

Sophomore Ashley Ravelli was named the 2012-13 NEC Rookie of the Year. Ravelli finished fourth in the league with 70 three pointers last season while averaging nearly 11 points per game.

PERENNIAL PLAYOFF POTENTIAL

Robert Morris missed the playoffs for the first time since 2004-05 last season, falling shy by one game. RMU had eight consecutive playoff appearances from 2004-05 through 2011-12. RMU finished first in three of those seasons, earning the tournament's top seed in 2010.

INTERNATIONAL LOVE

The Robert Morris roster once again features members from all over the world. On a team of 12 players, seven hail from outside the borders of the United States while five call America home. Of the five Americans, all come from different states with Pennsylvania, Maryland, New York, California and Virginia represented. Two players hail from Greece, two from Spain, and one each from France, Italy and the Democratic Republic of the Congo.

WHO WAS ROBERT MORRIS?

The "Financier of the American Revolution." He isn't as famous as his friend George Washington, but without Robert Morris, the American colonies' bold attempt to throw off British rule never could have succeeded.

Born in 1734 in Liverpool, England, Robert Morris sailed to the United States with his father when he was 14 years old. Morris became a partner at the import export firm of Willing & Morris where he made his millions. After, he became the spokesman for opposition to the Stamp Act, smuggled arms for the new American army and navy, signed the Declaration of Independence, secured financing - often using his personal credit - to fight the Revolutionary War and served as a Pennsylvania state senator. He died in Philadelphia on May 8, 1806.

SPANOU'S SPACE

Senior forward Artemis Spanou is moving up nearly every list in every record book. Just see for yourself ...

2013-14 NEC PRESEASON

With the Northeast Conference Player of the Year and Rookie of the Year returning, the Robert Morris University women's basketball team is the favorite in the 2013-14 NEC Preseason Women's Basketball Coaches Poll. The Colonials received five of a possible nine first-place votes and are the favorite for the first time since the 2008-09 season and third time overall.

Sophomore guard Artemis Spanou, the reigning NEC Player of the Year, was a unanimous pick for the Preseason All-NEC Team. Spanou led the nation in rebounding as a junior, scooping up 15.6 rebounds per game. The Greek goddess of double-doubles also led the league in scoring at 19.1 points per game. The junior has eclipsed the 1,000 point and 1,000 rebound mark.

Spanou is one of four starters returning to the RMU roster this season. One of those starters in 2012-13 NEC Rookie of the Year Ashley Ravelli. Ravelli finished fourth in the league with 70 three pointers last season while averaging nearly 11 points per game. Along with sophomore Lou Mataly, the Colonials have two three-point threats returning. Mataly was limited to 19 games last season, but still managed to make her mark as rookie averaging 10.1 points and shot nearly 40 percent from long range.

Guard Kelly Hartwell is back for her senior season after earning a starting spot and averaging 7.8 points and 4.3 points as a slashing guard last season. Five freshmen add depth to the squad along with the returns of senior Britta Emberg, redshirt-junior Jolie Olingende and sophomore guard Randi Jackson.

SAL BUSCAGLIA

Head Coach
11th season at RMU
36th season overall
Canisius 1976

Robert Morris University women's basketball coach Sal Buscaglia, now in his 11th season at RMU, began the renaissance of Colonials basketball with his arrival in 2003-04. Since he has taken over, the women's basketball program has played in five national tournaments, won two Northeast Conference championships and earned playoff berths in nine seasons.

Not only has Coach Sal, as he is respectfully called, turned the program into a perennial NEC power, but a nationally competitive program. The turnaround could not have been more dramatic.

His first squad, in 2003-04, posted a 3-24 record. Given a year to recruit and rebuild, his 2004-05 squad posted a 20-10 record marking the third-largest turnaround in NCAA history and giving RMU its first 20-win season since the 1983-84 season. Perhaps the biggest piece in the resurgence of the program came to the forefront that season in the form of Sugeiry Monsac. It also earned Buscaglia the Brenda Reilly NEC Coach of the Year award, his first of two such honors during his tenure at RMU.

Monsac was a highly-touted recruit sought out by numerous BCS level programs, but when she committed to Coach Sal and RMU, it marked a turnaround. Monsac was named the NEC Player of the Year in 2004-05 and was a two-time All-NEC selection who would score 1,177 points and grab 689 rebounds in just 67 career games.

After a 20-9 season and a trip to the league semifinals in 2005-06, 2006-07 marked the complete revival of the program. Going 21-8 in the regular season and sharing the NEC title with a 15-3 record, RMU earned a berth into the NCAA Tournament for the first time in team history after a victory in the Northeast Conference Championship in 2007. That squad finished with a program-record 24 victories overall winning three tournament games including a thrilling championship over Sacred Heart, 68-66.

One year later, Buscaglia and his Colonials repeated the feat. This time around, the squad was led by record-setting three-point shooting of Sade Logan and the first triple-doubles in team history by NEC Tournament MVP Chinata Nesbit. Coach Sal and his staff put in a dribble-drive motion offense - one of just two teams in women's basketball running the offense - to take advantage of the team's athletically-gifted guards. Logan would tie the NCAA record with 126 three-pointers that season and RMU posted a 23-10 record. A 16-2 NEC record the squad its second straight regular season title prior to defeating LIU Brooklyn, 86-75 in the tournament title tilt.

After a 13-18 mark in an injury-marred 2008-09 season, the 2009-10 squad bounced back by setting team records for regular season wins (22) and conference victories (17) while leading the team to its first outright NEC Regular Season Championship and an eventual Postseason WNIT Tournament. The appearance marked the fourth consecutive season RMU played in a national tournament. Angela Pace was the feature player on that team becoming the first player in league history to earn both Player of the Year and Defensive Player of the Year.

Current senior Artemis Spanou made her mark in 2010-11 when she became the first Robert Morris player to earn NEC Rookie of the Year honors. Spanou and her teammates posted a 16-14 mark and led the squad back to the NEC semifinals.

A year later, the Colonials went 18-14 overall and 11-6 in league games, returning for the eighth time in the last nine seasons to the Northeast Conference semifinals. The team's regular season record earned them the top seed in the Women's Basketball Invitational, the fifth national tournament appearance in six seasons.

The injury bug reared its head again in 2012-13, but a new look RMU squad took some impressive individual honors. Spanou led the nation in rebounding and the conference in scoring to earn NEC Player of the Year honors, the fourth Colonial under the watch of Coach Sal to be named the league's top player. Ashley Ravelli, a three-point specialist, was named the Rookie of the Year joining Spanou as the only two players in program history to earn the moniker.

In 35 seasons, Buscaglia has put together 11 national tournament runs and has finished with a winning record in 30 of those seasons. He has collected over 650 career victories, 401 of those coming on the Division I level, while posting an overall winning percentage of .665.

Before Robert Morris, Buscaglia spent five seasons at Manhattan College (1998-2003). In just his second season at Manhattan, Buscaglia led the Lady Jaspers to a 17-win season, marking the fifth most victories in school history, and was recognized as the 24th most improved team in NCAA Division I. In five seasons at Manhattan, Buscaglia compiled a record of 79-65, including a 20-10 record and NCAA Division I tournament appearance in 2002-03.

Buscaglia's Manhattan team received votes in the Top 25 in 2002-03 as the Jaspers claimed the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference regular season and tournament championships. The MAAC championship in 2003 was the first league title in school history. Manhattan's 20-10 overall record was also the best in school history. In 2001-02 he guided the jaspers to an 18-10 overall record and was named the Co-Coach of the Year in the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference.

For eight seasons prior to his arrival at Manhattan, Buscaglia was head coach of the University at Buffalo from 1990-98 and led the Bulls to five 20-win campaigns. In its first season in Division I competition in 1991-92, Buffalo finished with a 23-6 record, which was the 10th highest winning percentage (.793) in Division I that season. The Bulls won East Coast Conference regular season titles in 1992, 1993 and 1994, as well as tournament championships in 1992 and 1994.

In 1994-95, Buffalo moved to the Mid-Continent Conference and Buscaglia led the Bulls to a share of the Mid-Con regular-season title in 1995 and an appearance in the conference tournament finals in 1997. In each of Buffalo's first three seasons in the Mid-Con, Buscaglia led the Bulls to at least 20 wins. For his efforts at Buffalo, Buscaglia earned New York State Coach of the Year honors in 1992 and 1996.

Buscaglia started his coaching career at Hilbert Junior College, in Hamburg, New York, where in 12 seasons from 1977-90 he amassed a record of 249-62. During his tenure at Hilbert, his teams collected 93 straight league wins, eight straight Region Tournament Championships (1982-90), eight straight regular season conference championships (1982-90) and eight straight National Tournament appearances (1982-90). In 1988-89 his team finished in the elite eight. Coach Sal is a member of the Hilbert College Hall of Fame.

A native of Buffalo, New York, Buscaglia is a 1976 graduate of Canisius with a Bachelor of Science Degree in business and accounting and in 1989 earned a Master's Degree in physical education, also from Canisius. In 1980, Buscaglia received a Master's Degree in business education from the State University of New York College at Buffalo.

Buscaglia, a proud father and grandfather, has a son Charlie, who is an assistant with the Colonials, and a daughter, Deanna. Deanna resides in Elma, N.Y. with her husband Mark and their children Paityn (12), Shane (10) and Eva (7).
