THE HOWARD SERIES

- The meeting is the eighth between St. Francis Brooklyn and Howard. The Terriers own a 6-1-0 series advantage.
- These two teams are meeting for the fourth straight year, with St. Francis Brooklyn posting a 3-0 record while outscoring the Bison by a 9-2 advantage.
- The Bison are 0-7 on the 2014 season and are on a 12-match losing streak dating back to last season.
- The last time Howard was victorious was back on October 20, 2013 when they beat Washington Adventist, 3-2.

ALL-TIME VERSUS THE SUN BELT

- St. Francis Brooklyn is 16-17-1 all-time against members from the Sun Belt.
- Howard, NJIT and Hartwick joined the Sun Belt Conference prior to the start of the 2014 season.
- The Terriers are a combined 11-1-0 against NJIT and Howard.

TERRIER REWIND

- After two late goals in regulation, overtime couldn't decide a victor as the St. Francis Brooklyn men's soccer team and the Lafayette College Leopards played to a 2-2 draw on Saturday afternoon in Easton, Pennsylvania.
- Lafayette struck first in the 5th minute of the contest when Ben Marks took a corner kick from the left side of the field. He drove a high-arching strike and teammate Christian Moyse was able to out-jump a pair of Terriers in the box and put one past junior goalkeeper Jack Binks.
- St. Francis Brooklyn rallied to tie the contest in the 11th minute after newcomer Vincent Bezecourt took a free-kick from the right wing. Standing about thirty yards out, he was sent a left-footed strike into the box. Sophomore defender Paul Galimi soared in on goal and headed one past Leopards goalkeeper Sandy Leavy. For Galimi, it was his first career goal while Bezecourt notched his first career assist.
- St. Francis Brooklyn took a 2-1 advantage late in regulation as sophomore Nyle Patel tallied his first career goal in the 86th minute. The ball was played across the field to the right top of the box, Patel settled the ball and rocketed the shot to the far right corner to give the visitors the one-goal lead.
- Lafayette tied the match just two minutes later off the foot of Greg Biggiani. Felman crossed the ball from the left side to Biggiani on the near side of the goal.

FIRST TIMERS

In the 2-2 draw at Lafayette, sophomores Paul Galimi and Nyel Patel scored their first careers goals.

IN THE TERRIERS CORNER

The Terriers lead the conference in corner kicks taken with 30 as of September 11th.

BROTHERLY LOVE AT ST. FRANCIS BROOKLYN

Since taking over in 2007, head coach Tom Giovatto has added three sets of siblings to his roster. In 2007, Nicholas and Greg Baum, in 2008, he added Christopher Antonino and brother Nicholas and this season, Giovatto added Florida brothers Phillip and Shafer.

SWINGING 60'S

Head coach Tom Giovatto needs just one more victory for 60 in his career.

JACK BE NIMBLE, JACK BE QUICK

Junior goalkeeper Jack Binks is rapidly approaching a milestone. Binks has 85 career saves for the Terriers with 74 of them coming in his first season last year.

The Darlington, England product needs just 20 to tie Rosario Candela'05 for 12th place all-time on the career saves list.

GOAL SCORING AT A PREMIUM

After failing to score in the first two matches of the season, the Terriers have scored at least one goal in their last four games.

THREE NAMED TO ALL-TOURNAMENT TEAM

At the conclusion of the 2014 Morgan Stanley Windjammer Inn Classic, hosted by the University of Vermont, three St. Francis Brooklyn players were named to the All-Tournament team. Juniors Harry Odell and John Makaya along with freshman defender Dominick Falanga each received the accolade.

OH CAPTAIN, MY CAPTAINS (S)

Prior to the start of the season, seniors Riccardo Milano and Andy Cormack were named captains by head coach Tom Giovatto. Cormack is a two-time captain as he, along with John Johansson'13 anchored the club last season.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- 2013 National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA) North Atlantic Region Coach of the Year
- 2013 National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA) National Coach of the Year finalist
- 2013 BigAppleSoccer.com Coach of the Year
- Ranks SECOND in St. Francis Brooklyn men's soccer history in Winning Percentage (.544)
- Four Winning Seasons

Appointed just the fourth head coach in the history of the St. Francis Brooklyn men's soccer program on August 22nd, 2007, Tom Giovatto has made an impact in his eight seasons at the helm of the Terriers. Heading into the 2014 campaign, Giovatto holds a 59-48-17 overall record while compiling a 29-28-8 conference and is 2-1 in Northeast Conference playoff competition.

The veteran coach guided the team to their first Northeast Conference championship since 1998 after SFBK came from behind to defeat Bryant University in overtime, 3-2, in the championship game. With the win, the Terriers claimed the conference's automatic bid and reached the First Round of the NCAA College Cup for the first time since 1982 when they squared off against the #16 ranked Penn State Nittany Lions.

With a dynamic offensive and defensive playbook in Giovatto's arsenal, the Terriers were ranked 24th in the entire NCAA in Save Percentage (.817) while also placing among the top-50 teams in Scoring Offense (1.63), Shutout Percentage (0.37), Team Goals Against Average (0.87), Total Goals (31) and Wins-Loses-Tied Percentage (0.658). At season's end, he was recognized as the 2013 National Soccer Coaches Association of American (NSCAA) North Atlantic Region Coach of the Year and was also the recipient of the 2013 BigAppleSoccer.com Coach of the Year.

In his "sophomore" season back in 2008, the team sparkled as they finished the season with an 11-4-3 mark, thanks in part to a remarkable eight-match winning streak (spanning from September 15th to October 24th). The following season, the Terriers continued to exhibit success as they posted their second straight double-digit win total, finishing the year at 10-6-2 and a remarkable 7-2-1 conference record. The achievement helped SFBK lock the second seed in the conference tournament, thus ending a ten-year postseason drought. Prior to his promotion to head coach, he served as the assistant coach of the Terriers team in 2006. Giovatto was responsible for all the recruiting efforts while overseeing the scouting duties on the opposing teams.

While coaching the Terriers is a full-time job, he also serves as the Director of Coaching at Met Oval Brooklyn Knights (girls division). There, he is in control of hiring coaching staffs for the under-13 to under-20 programs while overseeing the entire league as a whole. He also coaches in the USSF Development Academy League for Met Oval.

Giovatto received his first chance to coach collegiate soccer back in 2001 as he was hired as an assistant coach at Saint Peter's University (Jersey City, New Jersey). He aided in all aspects of the men's soccer program, which included recruiting and fund raising efforts. In 2003, Giovatto got his first taste of success as the Peacocks' captured the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference (MAAC) Championship while posting a school-high 18 wins. Saint Peter's advanced to the second round of the NCAA Men's College Cup that season. Back in December of 2009, Saint Peter's University honored the entire 2003 squad by enshrining them into the school's Hall of Fame.

After a two-year stint at Saint Peter's, Giovatto headed to Stony Brook University as an assistant coach. As part of the staff, Giovatto was responsible for all on-field coaching duties, while assisting in all the recruiting processes, fund-raising and was responsible for scheduling matches for the season. On the field, the university achieved the most wins in the school's history and capped off a stellar season by making its first ever playoff appearance in the America East Tournament.

A 1997 graduate of Iona College, Giovatto was a three-year varsity letter-winner for the Gaels, receiving a Bachelor's degree in Mass Communications. Upon graduation, Giovatto had the opportunity to play for the New York/New Jersey Metrostars (currently the New York Red Bulls) of Major League Soccer. The following year, he joined the Brooklyn Knights of the United Soccer League Premier Development League (USL PDL). In 2000, Giovatto was invited to play for the Baltimore Blast of the National Premier Soccer League (NPSL) during the preseason. After his playing days came to a close, Coach Giovatto obtained a United States Soccer Federation License.

Giovatto and his wife, Lisa, have one daughter and reside in Brooklyn Heights.

Aug. 29, 2014 * Philadelphia, PA

Philadelphia, Pennsylvania---The 2013 defending Northeast Conference champions, the St. Francis Brooklyn Terriers, dropped its season opener at Saint Joseph's on Friday evening, falling to the Hawks, 1-0, at Sweeney Field.

Despite generating the majority of the chances at the beginning of the contest, the Terriers gave up an early goal in the first third of the match as the host Hawks struck in the 14th minute of the contest. Saint Joseph's was able to convert off a corner kick as Tim Lazorko sent a ball across the 18 yard box that was corralled by Mike Glazer, who then put one past Terrier goalkeeper Jack Binks (3 Saves; 9 Shots Faced) to the upper-right corner, giving the home eleven the only goal of the contest.

MATCH #2

Manhattan 1, St. Francis Brooklyn 0
Sept. 2, 2014 * Brooklyn Heights, NY

Brooklyn Heights, New York---The St. Francis Brooklyn men's soccer team dropped a heartbreaking 1-0 decision against the Manhattan College Jaspers in extra time on Tuesday night at Brooklyn Bridge Park, Pier 5.

100 minutes of play couldn't decide a victor until three minutes into the second overtime session. After attempting to clear the zone, the ball bounced off a St. Francis player and found its way to the back of the net along the lower left corner.

In the 58th minute of the contest, Manhattan's Eugene Heerschap had a scoring chance as he soared down the right side of the field, burst by a pair of Terrier defenders and then fired a low line drive from the right wing that was turned aside by junior netminder Jack Binks (4 Saves).

St. Francis Brooklyn almost secured the victory at the buzzer after sophomore midfielder Nyle Patel (5 shots, 3 on target) was able to corral a pass deep in the box on the left side of the field but his shot attempt was misdirected wide of the goal.

The second best chance for the home eleven came in the first overtime period in the 98th minute. Newcomer Vincent Bezecourt got free in the middle of the field and was able to rocket a shot from the top of the box. The ball was headed towards the upper part of the net but it smacked off the top of the crossbar.

MATCH #3

St. Francis Brooklyn 1, UMASS Lowell 3
Sept. 5, 2014 * Burlington, VT

Burlington, Vermont----Despite an early first half tally, the St. Francis Brooklyn men's soccer team fell to the UMASS Lowell Riverhawks, 3-1, in the opening round of the 24th annual Morgan Stanley Windjammer Classic. The Terriers dropped to 0-3 for the first time since 2006 when they opened the season against NC State, Duke and Lafayette. UMASS Lowell improves to 1-2 on the season.

In the 8th minute of the contest, St. Francis Brooklyn scored their first goal of the season as newcomer John Makaya tallied his first career goal as a Terrier. After receiving a long feed from Dominick Falanga, Makaya was able to sprint past his defender and go one-on-one against UML's Austin Kroll. Kroll made the first save but Makaya was determined to get the tally, as he swooped in, corralled the loose ball, and delivered a low strike into the bottom right of the goal.

Five minutes later, the Riverhawks were able to knot the match at a goal apiece. UML's Carlos Ruiz sent a high-arching feed into the middle of the box. Teammate Wuilito Fernandes was then able to out-jump the Terriers' defense and head the one-timer past the out-stretched reach of junior netmider Jack Binks.

After both teams battled for control, UML struck again in the 31st minute. Guilherme Rodrigues sent a pass over the midfield that found the foot of teammate Homero Morais, who then blasted a shot into the upper left corner to give the Riverhawks a 2-1 advantage.

The final tally of the contest came with time winding down in the first half. After St. Francis Brooklyn was called for a handball deep in the zone, UML's Carlos Ruiz stepped up for a penalty kick attempt. Diving to his right, Binks was unable to thwart the attempt as the Riverhawks took a two-goal lead into the intermission.

MATCH #4

St. Francis Brooklyn 1, #RV Vermont 2
Sept. 7, 2014 * Burlington, VT

Burlington, Vermont---After scoring in the 79th minute of play, the St. Francis Brooklyn Terriers were unable to hold the lead and fell to the #RV Vermont Catamounts, 2-1, to conclude the 2014 Morgan Stanley Windjammer Inn Classic.

Neither side scored in the first-half, but the hosts held a 7-1 edge in shots at the break. St. Francis Brooklyn (0-4) broke through and took a 1-0 advantage in the 79th minute. Andy Cormack headed in a corner kick from Salvatore Barone, who was credited with the assist.

However, the Catamounts responded quickly and tied the contest just two minutes later when Brian Wright put in a rebound after an initial shot by Brad Cole was turned away by Terriers' keeper Jack Binks.

Vermont (4-0) struck for the game-winner just five minutes later as Cole played the hero of the contest for the Catamounts. Cole initiated the game-winning play by sending a long pass in front of the goal that was volleyed in by Mike Clayton.

Binks was credited with three saves on the afternoon while his counterpart Conor Leland made two stops in the victory. Vermont held a 12-4 advantage in shots and a 13-5 edge in corner kicks in the match. At the conclusion of the match, three Terriers were named to the All-Tournament squad, juniors Harry Odell, John Makaya and freshman Dominick Falanga.

2014 MATCH SUMMARIES

MATCH #5

St. Francis Brooklyn 2, Lafayette 2

Sept. 13, 2014 * Easton, Pennsylvania

Easton, Pennsylvania-After two late goals in regulation, overtime couldn't decide a victor as the St. Francis Brooklyn men's soccer team and the Lafayette College Leopards played to a 2-2 draw on Saturday afternoon in Easton, Pennsylvania. The Terriers are still in search of their first victory of the season and now stand at 0-4-1 while the Lafayette Leopards are 1-3-1 on the campaign.

Lafayette struck first in the 5th minute of the contest when Ben Marks took a corner kick from the left side of the field. He drove a high-arching strike and teammate Christian Moyse was able to out-jump a pair of Terriers in the box and put one past junior goalkeeper Jack Binks. The Leopards nearly took a 2-0 advantage a Daniel Felman sent a shot on target that was stopped by Binks to keep the deficit at one.

St. Francis Brooklyn rallied to tie the contest in the 11th minute after newcomer Vincent Bezecourt took a free-kick from the right wing. Standing about thirty yards out, he was sent a left-footed strike into the box. Sophomore defender Paul Galimi soared in on goal and headed one past Leopards goalkeeper Sandy Leavy. For Galimi, it was his first career goal while Bezecourt notched his first career assist.

St. Francis Brooklyn took a 2-1 advantage late in regulation as sophomore Nyle Patel tallied his first career goal in the 86th minute. The ball was played across the field to the right top of the box. After it was deflected a couple of times, Patel settled the ball and rocketed the shot to the far right corner to give the visitors the one-goal lead.

Lafayette tied the match just two minutes later off the foot of Greg Biggiani. Felman crossed the ball from the left side to Biggiani on the near side of the goal. Biggiani leaped high in the air and headed the volley to the back of the net for the equalizer.
