NEXT UP FOR ST. FRANCIS BROOKLYN

The Terriers will wrap-up their three game road trip as they travel to Easton, Pennsylvania to tangle with the Lafayette College Leopards on September 13th.

MEN'S SOCCER FALLS TO UMASS LOWELL, 3-1, IN WINDJAMMER CLASSIC OPENER

Despite an early first half tally, the St. Francis Brooklyn men's soccer team fell to the UMASS Lowell Riverhawks, 3-1, in the opening round of the 24th annual Morgan Stanley Windjammer Classic. The Terriers dropped to 0-3 for the first time since 2006 when they opened the season against NC State, Duke and Lafayette. UMASS Lowell improves to 1-2 on the season.

In the 8th minute of the contest, St. Francis Brooklyn scored their first goal of the season as newcomer John Makaya tallied his first career goal as a Terrier. After receiving a long feed from Dominick Falanga, Makaya was able to sprint past his defender and go one-on-one against UML's Austin Kroll. Kroll made the first save but Makaya was determined to get the tally, as he swooped in, corralled the loose ball, and delivered a low strike into the bottom right of the goal.

Five minutes later, the Riverhawks were able to knot the match at a goal apiece. UML's Carlos Ruiz sent a high-arching feed into the middle of the box. Teammate Wuilito Fernandes was then able to out-jump the Terriers' defense and head the one-timer past the out-stretched reach of junior netmider Jack Binks.

After both teams battled for control, UML struck again in the 31st minute. Guilherme Rodrigues sent a pass over the midfield that found the foot of teammate Homero Morais, who then blasted a shot into the upper left corner to give the Riverhawks a 2-1 advantage.

The final tally of the contest came with time winding down in the first half. After St. Francis Brooklyn was called for a handball deep in the zone, UML's Carlos Ruiz stepped up for a penalty kick attempt. Diving to his right, Binks was unable to thwart the attempt as the Riverhawks took a two-goal lead into the intermission.

After coming back on in the 58th minute, junior midfielder Harry Odell had two chances to help St. Francis Brooklyn climb back into the match. The first opportunity came in the 61st minute as Odell beat his defender and fired a lazer shot that Kroll was able to knock down and cover up to deny the chance. Ten minutes later, Odell found himself in a similar position, this time he switched the ball to his left foot and the Manchester, England native then booted an attempt on goal but Kroll once again denied him.

The Terriers had two late chances to claw back into the contest. In the 81st minute, newcomer Philip Shafer received a cross from teammate Adrian Cosovic. Shafer, a 6'3 striker, was able to out-leap everyone, but headed the ball an inch off the left post.

Cosovic had a scoring chance of his own in the 86th minute as he beat Kroll, who was out of position along the goalline. Cosovic sent the ball on net but several Riverhawks' defenders managed to keep the ball from crossing the goalline.

MEN'S SOCCER FALLS TO MANHATTAN; 1-0; IN DOUBLE OVERTIME

The St. Francis Brooklyn men's soccer team dropped a heartbreaking 1-0 decision against the Manhattan College Jaspers in extra time on Tuesday night at Brooklyn Bridge Park, Pier 5.

100 minutes of play couldn't decide a victor until three minutes into the second overtime session. After attempting to clear the zone, the ball bounced off a St. Francis player and found its way to the back of the net along the lower left corner.

In the 58th minute of the contest, Manhattan's Eugene Heerschap had a scoring chance as he soared down the right side of the field, burst by a pair of Terrier defenders and then fired a low line drive from the right wing that was turned aside by junior netminder Jack Binks (4 Saves).

St. Francis Brooklyn almost secured the victory at the buzzer after sophomore midfielder Nyle Patel (5 shots, 3 on target) was able to corral a pass deep in the box on the left side of the field but his shot attempt was misdirected wide of the goal.

The second best chance for the home eleven came in the first overtime period in the 98th minute. Newcomer Vincent Bezecourt got free in the middle of the field and was able to rocket a shot from the top of the box. The ball was headed towards the upper part of the net but it smacked off the top of the crossbar.

MEN'S SOCCER DROPS SEASON OPENER; FALL 1-0 TO SAINT JOSEPH'S

The 2013 defending Northeast Conference champions, the St. Francis Brooklyn Terriers, dropped its season opener at Saint Joseph's on Friday evening, falling to the Hawks, 1-0, at Sweeney Field.

Despite generating the majority of the chances at the beginning of the contest, the Terriers gave up an early goal in the first third of the match as the host Hawks struck in the 14th minute of the contest. Saint Joseph's was able to convert off a corner kick as Tim Lazorko sent a ball across the 18 yard box that was corralled by Mike Glazer, who then put one past Terrier goalkeeper Jack Binks (3 Saves; 9 Shots Faced) to the upper-right corner, giving the home eleven the only goal of the contest.

St. Francis Brooklyn had an opportunity to take an early lead in the very first minute as sophomore Fabian Suele tried to find newcomer John Makaya (3 shots; 1 SOG) near the top of the box. However, Makaya's shot attempt sailed high over the crossbar.

The Terriers had three more chances to get the equalizer. The first came in the 67th minute when Makaya crossed a good ball over a Saint Joseph's defender that found the foot of Cormack, who then misfired as the ball sailed into the side netting. The second, in the 84th minute, St. Francis Brooklyn newcomer Philip Shafer streaked down the left side of the field and blasted a shot that Higbee was able to deflect away from the back of the net. Finally, sophomore Nyle Patel (2 Shots) launched an attempt that sailed high over the goal.

The veteran coach guided the team to their first Northeast Conference championship since 1998 after SFBK came from behind to defeat Bryant University in overtime, 3-2, in the championship game. With the win, the Terriers claimed the conference's automatic bid and reached the First Round of the NCAA College Cup for the first time since 1982 when they squared off against the #16 ranked Penn State Nittany Lions.

With a dynamic offensive and defensive playbook in Giovatto's arsenal, the Terriers were ranked 24th in the entire NCAA in Save Percentage (.817) while also placing among the top-50 teams in Scoring Offense (1.63), Shutout Percentage (0.37), Team Goals Against Average (0.87), Total Goals (31) and Wins-Loses-Tied Percentage (0.658). At season's end, he was recognized as the 2013 National Soccer Coaches Association of American (NSCAA) North Atlantic Region Coach of the Year and was also the recipient of the 2013 BigAppleSoccer.com Coach of the Year.

In his "sophomore" season back in 2008, the team sparked as they finished the season with an 11-4-3 mark, thanks in part to a remarkable eight-match winning streak (spanning from September 15th to October 24th). The following season, the Terriers continued to exhibit success as they posted their second straight double-digit win total, finishing the year at 10-6-2 and a remarkable 7-2-1 conference record. The achievement helped SFBK lock the second seed in the conference tournament, thus ending a ten-year postseason drought. Prior to his promotion to head coach, he served as the assistant coach of the Terriers team in 2006. Giovatto was responsible for all the recruiting efforts while overseeing the scouting duties on the opposing teams.

While coaching the Terriers is a full-time job, he also serves as the Director of Coaching at Met Oval Brooklyn Knights (girls division). There, he is in control of hiring coaching staffs for the under-13 to under-20 programs while overseeing the entire league as a whole. He also coaches in the USSF Development Academy League for Met Oval.

Giovatto received his first chance to coach collegiate soccer back in 2001 as he was hired as an assistant coach at Saint Peter's University (Jersey City, New Jersey). He aided in all aspects of the men's soccer program, which included recruiting and fund raising efforts. In 2003, Giovatto got his first taste of success as the Peacocks' captured the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference (MAAC) Championship while posting a school-high 18 wins. Saint Peter's advanced to the second round of the NCAA Men's College Cup that season. Back in December of 2009, Saint Peter's University honored the entire 2003 squad by enshrining them into the school's Hall of Fame.

After a two-year stint at Saint Peter's, Giovatto headed to Stony Brook University as an assistant coach. As part of the staff, Giovatto was responsible for all on-field coaching duties, while assisting in all the recruiting processes, fund-raising and was responsible for scheduling matches for the season. On the field, the university achieved the most wins in the school's history and capped off a stellar season by making its first ever playoff appearance in the America East Tournament.

A 1997 graduate of Iona College, Giovatto was a three-year varsity letter-winner for the Gaels, receiving a Bachelor's degree in Mass Communications. Upon graduation, Giovatto had the opportunity to play for the New York/New Jersey Metrostars (currently the New York Red Bulls) of Major League Soccer. The following year, he joined the Brooklyn Knights of the United Soccer League Premier Development League (USL PDL). In 2000, Giovatto was invited to play for the Baltimore Blast of the National Premier Soccer League (NPSL) during the preseason. After his playing days came to a close, Coach Giovatto obtained a United States Soccer Federation License.

Giovatto and his wife, Lisa, have one daughter and reside in Brooklyn Heights.
