2014-15 Northeast Conference Champions:

The 2014-15 season was one for the ages as the Terriers captured their first Northeast Conference championship in program history. The historic season was capped off with a 77-62 victory over higher seeded Robert Morris Colonials. With a conference championship under their belts, the Terriers earned an automatic bid into the NCAA Tournament (also for the first time in program history). The Terriers took on the nation's top seeded UConn Huskies in the first round of the tournament.

Series History vs. CCSU:

The Blue Devils lead the all-time season series (26-9), dating back to the 1988-89 season when the teams first met. On January 30, the Blue Devils edged out the Terriers, 65-61 in overtime. Junior forward Olivia Levey posted her first-career double-double with a career-high 23 points and 12 rebounds. Senior guard Leah Fechko added 11 points and nine boards.

Last Time Out:

This past Saturday the Terriers fell to Mount St. Mary's, 57-40 on Senior Day. Prior to the game Leah Fechko and Taylor Watson were honored. The senior duo personified Terrier basketball, which emphasizes hard work on the court and in the classroom. Over their past three seasons the Terriers have been ranked in the top five of the WBCA Academic Top-25 poll. Fechko scored 16 points and grabbed six rebounds in 38 minutes of play. At the 7:03 mark in the third quarter Fechko knocked down a pull-up jumper, the basket resulted in career-point number 1,201. Watson, who received her first-career start, recorded three rebounds and two steals in 15 minutes. The loss eliminated the Terriers from playoff contention.

2014-15 NEC Champions

The St. Francis Brooklyn Terriers defeated Robert Morris University, 77-62, on March 15, 2015, to capture their first Northeast Conference Championship. The Terriers advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the first time in program history, and met the UConn Huskies in the first round.

St. Francis Brooklyn is the first team to go on the road and win all three playoff games to be crowned NEC Champions. They are also the first number five seed to take home the championship trophy.

Sarah Benedetti was named Most Valuable Player after she scored a career and game-high 29 points in the victory.

Benedetti said, "It is a great feeling. I always loved being the underdog and this is the true underdog story. It feels amazing. We have never been in this situation before, but our experience with our 4 seniors and one junior really builds our team chemistry and that helps us when we had to make big shots to win the game."

An emotional John Thurston said after his Terriers won their first championship, "I want to thank the NEC for putting on a great tournament. They have been so helpful with every step of the way. Congratulations to Robert Morris. To have a team in the NCAA and another team make the finals, it is like us with two teams to make the championship game, your name is out there with some elite programs."

He added, "To Sal and his staff, it is so hard to beat Robert Morris, they are extremely talented. They are so well coached and tough to prepare for. They had a great season. To Irma Garcia, we are so grateful for her dedication and support. Without her vision and support with women's basketball, we wouldn't be here. Irma, and so many other people at St. Francis Brooklyn who have been there for years and have not been able to see a championship, we are grateful to bring them this trophy."

2014-15 NEC Champions

Eilidh Simpson and Jaymee Veney both added 14 points and 5 rebounds a piece. St. Francis Brooklyn took a 32-29 lead into halftime. They turned it on from three-point range in the second half, converting on seven of nine from beyond the arc. As a team, the Terriers shot 10-for-17 from three point range and outscored the Colonials 30-21 from beyond the arc. Overall, St. Francis Brooklyn shot 48.2 % on 27-for-56 shooting.

Simpson said, "Robert Morris played a great game. The first half was a back and forth battle. The second half of the game we were able to pull away after Sarah made some big shots. It was an unreal feeling coming down the stretch. We went to double-overtime with Central Connecticut, so we know it is not over until that final buzzer sounds. To win with these guys is the best feeling in the world"

Veney said, "You never have a feeling of relief when you play here. Robert Morris is a great team, and they are always in it. To win on the road and beat such a great team is extremely rewarding."

St. Francis Brooklyn and Robert Morris traded baskets in the first half, but the Terriers were able to separate themselves from the defending Northeast Conference Champion Colonials in the second half. The Terriers biggest lead was 18 points.

As the story was all season, St. Francis Brooklyn was nearly perfect from the free-throw line, shooting 13-for-14 from the charity stripe, compared to Robert Morris who shot 3-for-8 from the line. The key stretch in this championship game started at the 11:25 mark when Benedetti hit a three, Fechko scored two layups, then Alex Delaney and Eilidh Simpson hit back to back threes to give the Terriers a 60-44 lead with 8:29 to play.

Robert Morris would pull within 10 with 4:31 remaining after a Ashley Ravelli three-pointer. Simpson responded with a three on the next possession and the Terriers would go on to secure their first Northeast Conference Championship.

Head Coach John Thurston enters his fourth season as the head coach of the St. Francis Brooklyn women's basketball team and 43rd on the sidelines. In his three seasons with the Terriers, Coach T has instilled a winning atmosphere in the program, both on the court and in the classroom.

The 2014-15 campaign was an incredible success for Thurston's Terriers. For the first time in program history, St. Francis Brooklyn Women's Basketball won the Northeast Conference Championship by defeating Robert Morris on March 15, 2015. The Terriers also made their first appearance in the NCAA Women's Basketball Tournament and faced the eventual National Champion UConn Huskies in the opening round.

While the success on the court last season was impressive, the Terriers also were champions in the classroom and among their fellow peers. All 13 members of the St. Francis Brooklyn Women's Basketball Team were named to the 2014 Northeast Conference Winter Academic Honor Roll, with six of the 13 being named to the Commissioner's Honor Roll.

As a team, St. Francis Brooklyn Women's Basketball Team finished with a 3.61 overall team GPA this past academic year. They had the highest grade point average in the Northeast Conference for women's basketball, taking home the 2014-15 NEC Team GPA Award. St. Francis Brooklyn Women's Basketball finished second in the WBCA Academic Top 25, placing second with a 3.656 grade point average. That was the highest GPA in either the men's or women's NCAA Tournament field.

As if the accolades weren't impressive already, the Terriers completed the clean sweep of the major awards when they were named the winners of the Northeast Conference Sportsmanship Award for Women's Basketball. The NEC Sportsmanship Award is designed to acknowledge the team in each conference sport that, in the opinion of its peers, most closely demonstrates good sportsmanship based on the NEC Principles of Sportsmanship and Standards of Conduct.

Academic success has been the foundation of the revival of the Terriers' women's basketball program. In 2011-12, while coach Thurston served as the Assocififth conference victory at home against Sacred Heart.

Head Coach John Thurston Fourth Season

Thurston is one of only a few coaches who have been a Head Coach at the NCAA DI, DII, DIII and NAIA levels in 26 years of coaching men's college basketball from 1971-1997. During the early 1970's, Thurston's Fairleigh Dickinson-Florham teams were known for their high scoring offense, averaging close to one hundred points per game.

After FDU-Florham, Thurston joined Lou Campanelli's staff at James Madison, where he spent ten years as an assistant and was promoted to head coach in 1985. During his tenure, the Dukes went to four NCAA tournaments and one National Invitational Tournament (NIT). For his tremendous efforts during the 1986-87 campaign, Thurston was named the Colonial Athletic Association "Coach of the Year."

Thurston's next coaching stop found him at Wingate University, where he spent nine years in North Carolina. He served a dual role as Athletic Director and head basketball coach while helping the school transition from NAIA to nationally competitive DII affiliation.

In the fall of 2003, Thurston returned to collegiate coaching as he served as Ann Hancock's top assistant at UNC-Wilmington. Two years later, Thurston moved to West Palm Beach, Florida, where he was hired at Northwood University, to develop the school's first women's basketball program.

In their first two seasons of competition, he led the Seahawks to two Florida Sun Conference titles and their first appearance at the NAIA National Tournament in 2008 in Sioux City, Iowa. Thurston was named FSC Coach of the Year in 2008, and had back-to-back Player of the Year selections in current St. Francis Brooklyn assistant coach Kaitlyn Vican (2007) and Kara Otterbine (2008).

Through his forty-plus year in the game, Thurston has gained the respect as an evaluator and developer of talent, ranging from two NBA players, six overall NBA draft choices, 10 European professionals, four "Rookies of the Year," three "Players of the Year," one "Defensive Player of the Year," 18 All-Conference selections, three 2,000 point scorers and 16 1,000 point scorers. Twelve of his former players have already been elected to their school's respective Hall of Fame.

Thurston is a 1966 graduate of Archbishop Molloy High School, where he was an All-City performer in both baseball and basketball under legendary coach Jack Curran. In June of 1966, Thurston was selected by the Los Angeles Dodgers in the 1966 MLB Amateur Draft. He continued his education at Seton Hall University, where he played both baseball and basketball for the Pirates. In 1970, he was awarded the John F. Kennedy Award as the school's outstanding student-athlete.

Thurston and his wife, Candice, have been married for 44 years and have two daughters, Clancy and Corey. During the offseason, he spends time with his four grandchildren, Jack, Rhone, Luke and Elsa.

ate Head Coach, the team first appeared on the WBCA Academic Top-25 as they placed tenth with an overall team grade point average of 3.456. The following season, Thurston's first as head coach, the team finished in a tie with DePaul University for second in the nation with a team grade point average of 3.625. The 2013-14 Terriers capped off a successful season with a fourth-place finish with an overall GPA of 3.608.

In addition to being named to their fourth straight WBCA Academic Top 25 Honor Roll, the Terriers earned their fourth consecutive Northeast Conference Team Institutional Award thanks in large part to having one of their student-athletes, Sarah Benedetti, being named one of 20 winners of the 13th annual Division I-AAA Athletics Directors Association (DI-AAA ADA) Scholar-Athlete Team. In 2013-14, Katie Fox, was one of 20 winners of the 12th annual Division I-AAA Athletics Directors Association (DI-AAA ADA) Scholar-Athlete Team while having 11 Terriers named to the NEC's Academic Honor and four being named to the NEC Commissioner Honor Roll in that season.

Thurston guided St. Francis Brooklyn to their best overall regular season in the program's existence. The Terriers compiled a 19-11 overall mark, the most wins in program history while posting a 10-8 conference record, which set a new school mark. Thurston's Terriers posted a 12-2 record at home, which was the best in school history. The team strung together an impressive eight game win streak that began at the 2013 University of Miami Thanksgiving Tournament consolation game against Hartford and concluded with their

#35 Olivia Levey

Junior, Forward, 6-0
Seymour, CT/Lauralton

Thurston's Tidbits: "Olivia showed a lot of promise two years ago as a freshman backup in the post. She was having a great preseason last year when she suffered a season ending injury. She's worked extremely hard to get herself back into playing shape. She is probably not yet back to her maximum ability, but she still has days where she's dominating in practice. She is a very good offensive low post player, and our players have tremendous confidence in her and her ability around the basket."

2014-15 (Sophomore): Missed entire season due to injury.

2013-14 (Freshman): Appeared in 19 games for the Terriers...Logged 4.2 minutes per contest...Tallied 1.4 points per game with her best game coming against the LIU Brooklyn Blackbirds at Barclays Center when she went 4-of-4 from the field for a career-best eight points...Pulled down two rebounds on five occasions.

Prior to St. Francis Brooklyn: Levey, a 5-11 forward, spent her freshman year playing for Christian Heritage where she was a 1,000 point scorer. Levey was named to the 2009-10 Boston Globe All-Scholastics Team as well as the Connecticut Post All-Star Second Team, and was honored with All-New England Honorable Mention selection.

In her second season, her first at Lauralton Hall, Levey garnered two Most Valuable Player awards, receiving the awards at the Mercy Classic and the 2011 Northeast College Showcase. In addition, Levey was selected to the Mercy Classic All-Tournament Team.

With her stock rising, Levey was nominated for the 2012 Gatorade Player of the Year in addition to being named a two-time All-SWC Conference selection, and a two-time SWC All-Tournament Team selection.

Levey as she was selected to the New Haven Register All-Area team, as well as being honored as a Connecticut Post All Star/Super 15 from 2010-to-2012. To conclude the year, Levey was selected to the New Haven Tap-Off Club All-Area Team and was an All-State First Team Class LL choice.

As a member of the CBC Exodus, Levey averaged 16 points per game, 10.0 rebounds per contest and two blocks a game to help lead her team to a 23-2 record, which was ranked third in the entire state of Connecticut. Levey was named to the National Honor Society in high school.

#11 Rachel Iozzia

Junior, Guard, 5-10
Bayville, NJ/Central Regional

Thurston's Tidbits: "Rachel has been a real surprise, she is a former walk-on who earned a scholarship. She worked hard to get stronger; she is probably, next to Leah, our most intelligent player. She has really good long-range shooting ability; she is an outstanding passer, probably our best passer. At her size she can create problems for opposing guards, she can also play multiple positions. Rachel has given us an added dimension that we weren't expecting because she can do a lot of different things."

2014-15 (Sophomore): Named to the Northeast Conference Winter Commissioner's Academic Honor Roll... Named to the Northeast Conference Academic Honor Roll... Played a season-high 16 minutes against Sacred Heart on 1/3/15 in the Terriers NEC opener... Appeared in 17 games for St. Francis Brooklyn averaging six minutes per contest... Scored her first collegiate hoop at home against CCSU on 2/9/15... Hit a three from the top of the arc against UConn in the Terriers first-ever NCAA Tournament Game.

Prior to St. Francis Brooklyn: Iozzia, a 5-10 guard, enjoyed a stellar four-year career at Central Regional. While serving as team captain all four years, she averaged 11.4 points per game, while pulling down 1.6 rebounds per contest, and dishing nearly two assists per game. She became just the fifth female to reach the 1,000 career point plateau for the Golden Eagles, and the first one to do so in twelve years as she led Central to a 49-18 victory over Lakewood. For her career, Iozzia netted 1,103 career points, the third highest total in Central Regional school history.

Iozzia recorded the most three-pointers in a season during her freshman campaign as the Bayville native connected on 47 three-pointers. In the first round of the SJ III, Iozzia scored eight points and handed out a school single-game record 15 assists, as the Golden Eagles defeated the 14th seeded Camden Panthers, 56-27. She set the single-season assist record with 143 and left Central Regional as the all-time school leader in assists with 345. Iozzia is third in school history with 224 career steals.

Among her accolades, Iozzia was named to the 2012-13 All-Ocean County Second Team. She garnered Most Valuable Player in each of her four years in high school, while also being named Scholar Athlete. She was the recipient of the Xerox Award during her junior season.

Thurston's Tidbits: "Blair served in a backup role, a learning role as a freshman last year. She has to step up into a real leadership role as our point guard. She has shown tremendous improvement in her physical readiness from a year ago until today, and I think that is going to allow her to maximize her potential. She is more of a scoring point guard than Katie Fox was, so that adds a little bit of dimension to our offense, and to our system. If she can maintain the same level of defensive ability that Katie Fox showed then I think she is going to be an outstanding point guard."

2014-15 (Freshman): Named to the Northeast Conference Winter Academic Honor Roll.... Played in 15 contests for the Terriers and averaged 5.3 minutes per game... Scored her first collegiate points when she sunk two free-throws against Saint Joseph's on 11/29/14... Her first collegiate field goal came on Valentine's Day 2015 when she hit a three versus Sacred Heart... Shot 83.3 percent from the charity stripe in her rookie campaign.

Prior to St. Francis Brooklyn: Arthur, a 5-8 guard from Allegan, Michigan, put forth an impressive resume at Allegan. Arthur finished with 1,126 career points, making her one of only two girls in Allegan history to eclipse the 1,000-point plateau. In her final season, Arthur averaged 15.2 points per game while grabbing 7.0 rebounds a contest, while dishing out 5.0 assists per game. The Allegan native shot 70 percent from the charity stripe while converting 40 percent from beyond the arc.

Arthur was named as a Detroit Free Press and Detroit News Honorable Mention All-State selection in her final season, while also garnering First Team All-State Honors from the Basketball Coaches Association of Michigan. She was also named team Most Valuable Player for the fourth time, becoming the only player in the program's history to achieve that feat all four years. The sharpshooter also broke the schools record for most three-pointers in a season (40) and in a career (72).

#5 Becky Pund

Sophomore, Guard, 5-8
Audubon, NJ/Gloucester Catholic

Thurston's Tidbits: "Becky is a very skilled player, has as good of ball skills as any player that we have. She's still making the adjustment, like a lot of talented players, to playing with others. With the ball by themselves they are very skilled. They have to mesh those skills into a team format, but as far as quickness, and physical skills go she is one of the top players on our team."

2014-15 (Freshman): Named to the Northeast Conference Winter Commissioner's Academic Honor Roll... Named to the Northeast Conference Winter Academic Honor Roll... Shot 83.3 percent from the free-throw line on the year... Hit her first three-pointer in the first round of the Preseason WNIT Tournament against UAlbany... Grabbed two offensive rebounds in the first-round game of the NCAA Tournament against the UConn Huskies.

Pund poured in 15.4 points per game while dishing out 7.1 assists while netting 1,034 points in just two years at GCHS. Selected to the South Jersey Invitational Basketball Tournament for the second straight year, she was named to the All-Tournament Team and named Most Valuable Player after averaging 19 points and dishing out 6.3 assists.

#14 Alex Delaney

Sydney, Australia/
Monte Sant' Angelo Mercy College

Thurston's Tidbits: "We're expecting Alex to take over a major role this year, she played the most minutes of any of the freshman last year, and had some starts for us when we had our injuries. She has shown a lot of potential, she is an excellent long-range shooter; she has tremendous knowledge of the game. She picks things up easily, I just think that she is going to have an outstanding career ahead of her, and I hope that down the road she will become the next 1,000 point scorer."

2014-15 (Freshman): Named to the 2014-15 Northeast Conference Winter Academic Honor Roll... Hit the game-winning bucket versus Stony Brook in the Terriers first home win of the season... Averaged 16.6 minutes per game in 32 contests played, notching three starts... Scored a career-high 12 points against Sacred Heart in the NEC Quarterfinals... Her lone basket against Robert Morris in the NEC Championship Game provided a huge momentum swing for the Terriers en route to their victory... Shot 43.0 percent from the field on 40-for-93 shooting and shot 36.7 percent from beyond the arc on 22-for-60 shooting... Had five points against UConn in the NCAA Tournament.

Prior to St. Francis Brooklyn: Delaney, a 5-10 forward, is the third Australian signed by the Terriers' under Thurston's tenure.

Delaney has represented her country at the National Championships for six seasons. She was a member of the U18 team that won the championship in 2012, a second place finish in 2014, and a third-place showing in 2013. In the most recent National Championships, as a U-20 member, Delaney averaged 15.7 points per game while dishing out 5.3 assists. She also pulled down 6.3 rebounds per contest and shot 94.1 percent from the free-throw line.

Among her accolades, Delaney was named Player of the Tournament at the Australian Schools Tournament in 2013, NSW Youth League All Star 5 Team and Sydney Comets Warath League Best Defensive Player in 2013. She was awarded the prestigious Blue Award for her achievements in school sports and was named the Senior Basketballer of the Year for her last three years in high school. Academically, Alex received the High Achievers Award from Monte Sant' Angelo Catholic College for her achievements in the Higher School Certificate (HSC), where she achieved 99.5 out of a possible 99.9 ATAR score.

#15 Cassidy Derda

South Burlington, VT/Tilton

Thurston's Tidbits: "Cassidy is another returnee that got some extended playing time last year. Like Alex, she had the opportunity to make some big shots coming down the stretch when we were making our tournament run. I think that elevated her confidence level and motivated her to work very hard on her conditioning during the summer. She's another player who is much better now than she was when she first stepped on campus for us. We expect her to be an excellent offensive center -- she has three point shooting range so she creates matchup problems. If she can continue her development defensively, and in rebounding the ball our road back to the postseason tournament could be sooner rather than later."

2014-15 (Freshman): Named to the 2014-15 Northeast Conference Winter Academic Honor Roll... Played in 28 games and averaged seven minutes per game in her rookie season... Scored a season-best seven points against LIU in "The Battle of Brooklyn" on 3/2/15... Hit a trey in three consecutive games against CCSU (2/9/15), Sacred Heart (2/14/15) and Wagner (2/16/15)... Played a season-high 19 minutes against UAlbany in the opening round of the Preseason WNIT Tournament.

Prior to St. Francis Brooklyn: Derda, a 6-1 forward from South Burlington, Vermont, played at Rice Memorial High School. Before playing for Rice, Derda played two years at South Burlington High School. In the classroom, Derda was named to the Class Honor Roll in three straight years, while maintaining a senior grade-point average of 3.4. At Rice, she was named Outstanding Female Athlete and received the Outstanding Performance Award.

Derda was named to the Burlington Free Press First Team All-State Basketball team. In addition, she was named to the All-Metro League First Team, and the Vermont Basketball Coaches Association Senior All-Star team. Derda also received the Burlington Free Press Top Athletic Performer on three occasions. In 2012, Derda was named to the Burlington Free Press Second Team All-State Basketball team in April, while being selected to her first All-Metro League First Team. Rounding out the accolades for Derda, she was selected to the Vermont Basketball Coaches Association Dream Dozen team her sophomore and junior year, while being named the Most Valuable Player in the Vermont Girls Basketball State Championship.

#4 Etta Andersen

Freshman, Guard, 5-8
Copenhagen, Denmark/
Hjemly Sportsschool

Thurston's Tidbits: "Etta is a very solid point guard, who is competing for our starting point guard position. She is unusual for us in that she is a legitimate size, big, strong, and she's quick -- she has all of those attributes. She is making some adjustments to the American game and American rules, which is difficult for players. As far as skills go, she has as much potential as any point guard since I've been here."

Prior to St. Francis Brooklyn: Andersen is the lone international recruit for Thurston and his staff. Andersen will join Alex Delaney as the other foreign born player on the 2015-16 Terriers. Anderson is a 5-9 guard who played the 2014-15 season for Stevnsgrade in her home country of Denmark. For Stevnsgrade, she scored a career-best 10 points on four separate occasions.

Andersen competed in the U18 European Championships- Division B and averaged 7.1 points per game. She also competed in the U16 European Champions- Division B and averaged 5.4 points per game. While playing in the U18, she scored 14 points against Switzerland. In that same game she notched six steals, and sunk four three-pointers.

Andersen was nominated for the "Talent of the Year" award after playing with the Stevnsgrade Superwomen. She was the youngest person on the squad. The team won the cup in her final season with the Superwomen.

#24 Kat Phipps

Freshman, Guard, 5-6
Spring Lake, NJ/St. Rose

Thurston's Tidbits: "Kat has the reputation as an outstanding long-range shooter. She set the state record in New Jersey for three point shots made in a season and she hasn't disappointed so far. She has had an easier adjustment to Division-I because she comes from a great coaching background. She is a true competitor, with an unbelievable work ethic, and a great understanding of the game."

Prior to St. Francis Brooklyn: Phipps was named to NJ.com's All-Senior Second Team. Phipps scored 1,610 points in four seasons at St. Rose, including 713 in her senior campaign. She sank 153 three-pointers last season to bring her high school career total to 237 made threes. Phipps averaged 22.3 points per game in the 2014-15 campaign with 23 games of 20 or more points. She eclipsed the 30 point mark four times and scored 42 points in a contest with St. Mary's NY. Phipps opened the season with nine straight games scoring 21 or more points. She set the state record for three-pointers made in a season, shattering the previous mark of 111.

Phipps drained at least one three-pointer in all but one of her 32 games played. She made nine threes on two separate occasions and averaged 4.8 made threes per contest. She also averaged 5.4 rebounds and 3.4 assists per game to go along with her scoring average of 22.3 points per game. She recorded three double-doubles in her senior year. Phipps converted five or more shots from long distance on 19 occasions. Phipps was named MVP of the Soaring Eagle Holiday Festival.

Phipps was named First Team All Division from 2013-15, 2015 First Team All Shore, 2015 Second Team All-State, 2015 Honorable Mention All-Metro Team, 2015 Shore Sports Zone Player of the Year Finalist, and the 2015 St. Rose Athlete of the Year (James T. Murphy Award).

#23 Maria Palarino

Freshman, Forward, 5-10
Irwin, PA/Penn Trafford

Thurston's Tidbits: "Maria we think is going to develop into a very good player. Right now, her physical skills are ahead of her basketball skills. As with so many freshmen it's usually one or the other. I think she is still gaining confidence having to play a different role at a higher level of competition, but she is a tremendous competitor, who goes all out on every play. I think she will probably end up being a three-year starter for us down the road."

Prior to St. Francis Brooklyn: The 5-10 Pennsylvania native joins the Terriers after averaging 17.3 points per game in her senior season at Penn Trafford High School. Max Preps ranked Palarino 18th overall in the state of Pennsylvania. She finished her career at Penn Trafford with 1,287 points and was a 49% overall shooter for her team. During her senior year, Palarino shot 52% from the field overall and 62% from inside the three-point arc.

Palarino was selected as the Penn-Trafford Girls Basketball Player of the Year. She led her team in points, free throws, blocked shots and defensive rebounds. She scored her 1,000th point against the Obama Academy of International Studies on December 29, 2014. Against Blackhawk on December 16, 2014, Palarino led her team with 30 points and 14 boards. She shined as well against Greater Latrobe recording a near triple-double with 29 points, 11 steals and 8 rebounds.

#32 Dana DiRenzo

Freshman, Guard, 5-10
Hammonton, NJ/St. Joseph's

Thurston's Tidbits: "Dana has been another one who has been a real pleasant surprise, and again because she was completely non-recruited. She probably has had as good of preseason so far as any of the freshmen, and is possibly the most ready to play right now. She's a highly intelligent player, who is able to absorb information. She's aggressive, she rebounds the ball, she's a good passer, her shooting is coming along. We have her penciled in as a backup to Alex Delaney this year, but I think you're going to see her playing minutes even get greater as her career goes on."

Prior to St. Francis Brooklyn: DiRenzo averaged 22.3 points and 15 rebounds per game in her final season at St. Joe's. DiRenzo set school records in career points (1,580) and rebounds (1,316.) She dished out 245 assists, swiped 342 steals and swatted down 82 blocks. She was also a member of her school's National Honor Society.

She recorded six triple doubles in four seasons in high school and will look to bring her aggressiveness on the boards to Brooklyn Heights in 2015. DiRenzo notched 21 rebounds in a contest against Atlantic City and subsequently, set the new rebounding record at her school in that game.

DiRenzo's accolades at St. Joseph's included: First Team CAL, AC Press First Team All-Star, All-South Jersey Second Team, Hammonton Gazette Winter Sport Player of the Year, Carino Basketball Club First Team All- Parochial, Dave Lewis Iron Woman Award Winner, NJSIAA Women in Sports Award Winner & ESPN Athlete of the Week.

#33 Mia Ehling

Freshman, Guard, 5-8
Holmdel, NJ/Holmdel

Thurston's Tidbits: "Mia has been a real surprise, and even as I say that I'm thinking to myself surprise to who? Mia, is maybe the most skilled player we have, she just doesn't know that. She is an effortless shooter, an excellent passer, and has a pretty good understanding of the game. Because she wasn't highly recruited we probably didn't have high expectations for her, but she has far exceeded our expectations so far in preseason workouts."

Prior to St. Francis Brooklyn: In her senior season with the Holmdel Hornets, the 5-8 Ehling averaged 13.6 points per game and scored in double-digits in 16 out of 22 contests. She scored 17 or more points in eight games including two games of 22 points and 23 points against Life Center and Manalapan, respectively.

Ehling was a 1,000 Point Scorer at Holmdel. The milestone making basket came in a loss to St. John Vianney on a jump shot in the second quarter. Just like future teammate Leah Fechko, Ehling has ball theft on her mind. She recorded 29 steals in 22 games and recorded three or more steals six times, including one game with five steals against Raritan. In the Quarterfinal Round of the NJSIAA Tournament against Somerville, she scored 12 points en route to a Holmdel victory.

Ehling compiled an impressive resume at Holmdel. Her accolades include: First Team All "A" Division, Arthur Harmon MVP All-Star Game Award 2015, Holiday Tournament 2014 MVP, and Class A Central Second Team. Ehling's Hornets made it to the State Championship Game in 2014. She also competed in the Shore Basketball Coaches Association Senior All-Star Game.

Thurston's Tidbits: "Lorraine is still a little bit behind because she missed her senior year with an injury. It's very difficult for players to overcome; it's been a long time since she's been in competition. You would say that, her skills are rusty, and her timing is off, but she plays hard and that's why we recruited her. When she gets her timing back and she is fully recovered from her injury I think she is going to turnout to be fine. It was a serious injury at the absolute worst time in her basketball development, it's going to take her a few months of getting into the competitive flow again."

Prior to St. Francis Brooklyn: Hickman, 6-1, becomes the first New Yorker to join Thurston's squad since Jasmin Robinson '13. Hickman is a three-time All-County Athlete who finished her career by scoring nearly 1,000 points and pulling down over 500 boards. She was named to the All-State Girls 5th Team by the New York State Sports Writers Association.

Against Nassau Conference A-III rival Bethpage, Hickman scored 25 points to go along with 12 rebounds, 16 of her 25 came in the first quarter. In the 2013-14 season, Hickman recorded 11 games of 10 or more rebounds and nine double-doubles. In an interview, Floral Park Head Coach Mike Spina spoke highly of his varsity athlete, calling her one of his hardest workers he has coached in 30 years on the sidelines.

#40 Tori Wagner

Freshman, Forward, 6-2
Freehold, NJ/ Freehold Twp

Thurston's Tidbits: "Tori basically has all the skills. Her mental approach to the game is very good; as with a lot of post players their physical development has to correspond with their skills development, and right now her skills are ahead of the physical dimension. That is the only thing that holds her back. As she gets stronger, and quicker you'll see her start to develop. Like a lot of post player her best years are probably ahead of her, probably somewhere midway through her sophomore year I think you'll see Tori really step up. She is going to play a lot this year, but sometime next year you'll really see her blossom."

Prior to St. Francis Brooklyn: Wagner is a 6-2 center who will fill the post-player void that Jaymee Veney leaves behind. In an interview with the Patriot Press, the future Terrier said she chose St. Francis Brooklyn because it is a small school with amazing coaches. Wagner is Freehold's all-time leader in blocked shots. In her senior year she averaged 12.4 points, 8.4 rebounds and 2.4 blocks per game. She was recently named as a National Girls and Women in Sports recipient. Along with Ehling and Phipps, Wagner is also a 1,000 Point Scorer and is one of just seven girls to achieve that milestone at Freehold.

Wagner has found success at the AAU level as well. Here are some of her notable AAU achievements: 2011 USJN National Showcase Champions, 2011 Vivian Stringer Shootout Champions, 2012 U16 AAU Super Regional Champions, 2012 All Gym Ratz Team, 2013 USJN Big Apple Challenge Pool All Star Team. MaxPreps ranked her 58th overall in the state of New Jersey.
