St. Francis Brooklyn Terriers
(1-4, 0-0 NEC)

AT

Saint Peter's Peacocks
(3-3, 0-0 MAAC)

Thursday, November 30, 2017

7 p.m. – Yanitelli Center

Jersey City, NJ

Thanksgiving In Florida:

The Terriers went 0-2 down in the Florida Atlantic held Thanksgiving weekend four-team tournament, falling to the hosting Owls in round one, 80-60, before losing to Norfolk State in the final seconds of the consolation game, 52-51.

Recent Series History:

Thursday will mark the fourth consecutive show-down between the two Tri-State based squads. St. Francis Brooklyn and Saint Peter's are scheduled to meet in New Jersey for the third time in the four meetings, and although the Terriers have been on the road for most of the meetings, they've won two of the last three match-ups, including last year's.

All three games have been defensive match-ups, but last season, it was the Terriers who emerged victorious, led by current senior Alex Delaney, who netted a career-best 23 points while simultaneously pulling down eight rebounds, capping off a big afternoon. Delaney shot 4-of-8 from three, and 8-of-14 from the field.

Head Coach John Thurston Sixth Season

John Thurston is entering his sixth season as the head coach of the St. Francis Brooklyn women's basketball squad.

One year removed from putting together the best regular season in school history with a record of 19-11 (10-8 NEC) in 2013-14, Thurston helped lead the Terriers to their first Northeast Conference Championship, marking the school's first automatic NCAA tournament bid in either Division I basketball program. The Terriers lost to eventual National Champion and women's basketball power UConn Huskies in the tournament's opening round.

Last season, the Terriers finished 8-22 (6-12 NEC) and reached the NEC Quarterfinals, where they lost to the top-seeded Sacred Heart Pioneers, cracking the conference playoffs for the fourth time in five years.

Off the court, the Terriers have excelled in their academic ventures, proving to be one of the top schools in the books, and a perennial contender for the Women's Basketball College Association's Academic National Championship. In 2016, the Terriers actually won the National Title with a team grade point average of 3.72, the highest accumulative GPA in the country.

As a group, St. Francis Brooklyn Women's Basketball has finished in the top-five in each of the last five seasons, and most recently finished in fourth last season with a team GPA of 3.689.

Last season also marked the team's fifth consecutive NEC Sportsmanship Award for women's basketball. The NEC Sportsmanship Award is designed to acknowledge the team in each conference sport that, in the opinion of its peers, most closely demonstrates good sportsmanship based on the NEC Principles of Sportsmanship and Standards of Conduct.

As a result, the Terriers have garnered a favorable reputation on and off the court, known for the academic excellence and gamesmanship.

Head Coach John Thurston Sixth Season

Back in 2011-12, while coach Thurston served as the associate head coach, the team first appeared on the WBCA Academic Top-25 as they placed tenth with an overall team grade point average of 3.456. The following season, Thurston's first as head coach, the team finished in a tie with DePaul University for second in the nation with a team grade point average of 3.625. The 2013-14 Terriers capped off a successful season with a fourth-place finish with an overall GPA of 3.608.

In addition to being named to the WBCA Academic Top 25 Honor Roll in every season dating back to 2011-12, the Terriers had previously earned four consecutive Northeast Conference Team Institutional Awards thanks in large part to having one of their past student-athletes, Sarah Benedetti, being named one of 20 winners of the 13th annual Division I-AAA Athletics Directors Association (DI-AAA ADA) Scholar-Athlete Team. In 2013-14, Katie Fox, was one of 20 winners of the 12th annual Division I-AAA Athletics Directors Association (DI-AAA ADA) Scholar-Athlete Team while having 11 Terriers named to the NEC's Academic Honor and four being named to the NEC Commissioner Honor Roll in that season.

Thurston is one of only a few coaches who have been a head coach at the NCAA DI, DII, DIII and NAIA levels in 26 years of coaching men's college basketball from 1971-1997. During the early 1970's, Thurston's Fairleigh Dickinson-Florham teams were known for their high scoring offense, averaging close to one hundred points per game.

After a stint at FDU-Florham, Thurston joined Lou Campanelli's staff at James Madison, where he spent ten years as an assistant and was later promoted to head coach in 1985. During his tenure at JMU, the Dukes went to four NCAA tournaments and made one National Invitational Tournament (NIT) appearance. For his tremendous efforts during the 1986-87 campaign, Thurston was named the Colonial Athletic Association "Coach of the Year."

Thurston's next coaching stop found him at Wingate University, where he spent nine years in North Carolina. He served a dual role as Athletic Director and head basketball coach while helping the school transition from NAIA to nationally competitive DII affiliation.

In the fall of 2003, Thurston returned to collegiate coaching as he served as Ann Hancock's top assistant at the University of North Carolina-Wilmington. Two years later, Thurston moved to West Palm Beach, Florida, where he was hired at Northwood University to develop the school's first women's basketball program.

In their first two seasons of competition, he led the Seahawks to two Florida Sun Conference titles and their first appearance at the NAIA National Tournament in 2008 in Sioux City, Iowa.

Thurston was named FSC Coach of the Year in 2008, and had back-to-back Player of the Year selections in current St. Francis Brooklyn assistant coach Kaitlyn Vican (2007) and Kara Otterbine (2008).

Through 46 years in the game, Thurston has gained the respect as an evaluator and developer of talent, ranging from NBA players, six overall NBA draft choices, 15 European professionals, four "Rookies of the Year," three "Players of the Year," two "Defensive Players of the Year," 19 All-Conference selections, three 2,000 point scorers and 16 1,000 point scorers. Twelve of his former players have already been elected to their school's respective Hall of Fame.

Thurston is a 1966 graduate of Archbishop Molloy High School in Queens, New York, where he was an All-City performer in both baseball and basketball under legendary coach Jack Curran. In June of 1966, Thurston was selected by the Los Angeles Dodgers in the 1966 MLB Amateur Draft. He continued his education at Seton Hall University, where he played both baseball and basketball for the Pirates. In 1970, he was awarded the John F. Kennedy Award as the school's most outstanding student-athlete.

Thurston and his wife, Candice, have been married for 46 years and have two daughters, Clancy and Corey. During the offseason, he spends time with his four grandchildren, Jack, Rhone, Luke and Elsa.

Associate Head Coach Dionne Dodson

Dionne Dodson enters her tenth season with the Terriers and will once again serve as head coach John Thurston's associate head coach. She has held this role since the start of the 2014-15 campaign.

In Dodson's first season as Associate Head Coach, the Terriers put together a season for the ages.

After a magical run to end the year, the Terriers captured the school's first ever championship in the Northeast Conference. The NEC title victory gave the Terriers an automatic bid to the NCAA tournament, which was their first ever time playing in March Madness.

"Coach Dodson has done an outstanding job of coordinating recruiting, budget, academic support and NCAA compliance here at St. Francis and will continue to do so," said Thurston. "She has been extremely loyal to the college and the women's basketball program. Dionne has done it all in her years as an assistant and I believe she is ready to be a head coach."

Since her arrival, five players have been named to the Northeast Conference All-Rookie Team with three All Northeast Conference Team selections, and numerous Terriers have been honored by being chosen to the NEC Academic Honor Roll and Commissioners' Honor Roll. With Dodson on hand, St. Francis Brooklyn garnered their first Capital One All-Academic District 1 First Team selection. As a whole, the Terriers been named to the WBCA Top 25 Academic Honor Roll on multiple occasions, winning the top-25 WBCA Academic National Championship last season.

Dodson spent two seasons at Fordham University where she was involved in all aspects of the program. Her duties included the coordination of the entire recruiting system, assisting with scouting and tape breakdown and on-floor coaching while organizing summer camps. One of her recruits that Dodson brought to the Rose Hill campus ranks seventh all-time on the career scoring list.

Prior to Fordham, Dodson served as the assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Manhattan College for three years. Of the players she recruited to Riverdale, five student-athletes rank among the top in career scoring, while three are amongst the career leaders in rebounds, and one each for career assists and career blocks. In her time with the Jaspers, Dodson has coached numerous athletes to All-MAAC selections, two of which were named to the First Team, two to the Second Team and two Third Team while having three players named to All-Rookie teams.

Dodson spent a single season at Coastal Carolina University of the Big South Conference. Her responsibilities at Coastal included coordination of the entire recruiting system, assisting with scouting and on-floor coaching.

Dodson received her start in coaching at Saint Francis University in Loretto, Pennsylvania where she served as an assistant coach from 1999- 2002, helping the Red Flash win the 2000 and 2002 Northeast Conference regular season and tournament championships and advancing to the NCAA Tournament. She was responsible for developing and monitoring the strength and conditioning program as well as monitoring the academic progress of the student-athletes.

Dodson also assisted in recruiting, on-floor coaching of the guards and with scouting as well as organizing community service activities. The players she helped recruited were named a NCAA Post Graduate Scholarship recipient, a two-time Academic All-American, NEC Player of the Year, two time NEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year, NEC Rookie of the Year, NEC Defensive Player of the Year, NEC Tournament MVP and a member of the NEC 25th Anniversary Team.

A 1997 graduate of Muskingum College in New Concord, Ohio, Dodson received a Bachelor's degree in Psychology. She later earned a Master's degree in Sport Management from Slippery Rock University in 2003.

Assistant Coach Ranait Griff

Ranait Griff enters her Third season as an assistant coach after entering John Thurston's women's basketball coaching staff in 2015-16. Griff also oversees the film exchange program between all non-conference and conference opponents. Griff currently coordinates the travel arrangements for Terriers' women's basketball and also assists in player development.

Upon her arrival Thurston said, "Ranait Griff is a very intelligent and enthusiastic young coach whom we are thrilled to have as part of our staff. She has great experience coaching in one of the top travel team programs in New Jersey. She gained valuable experience working the past two years for top level coaches Pat Coyle and Phyllis Mangina on the staff at Saint Peter's. We expect her to have a great impact working with our young players."

Griff joins St. Francis Brooklyn after two seasons as an assistant at Saint Peter's University under coach Pat Coyle. Griff is a 2013 graduate of Fordham University in the Bronx where she played with current assistant coach Kaitlyn Vican from 2009-10 where Thurston was as an assistant coach. As one of four seniors in her final season with Fordham, the Rams went to the WNIT after the team recorded the most wins in program history in the last 30 years.

Like fellow Assistant Coach Kaitlyn Vican, Griff is a graduate of Fordham University. While at Fordham she earned a degree in business administration with a concentration in marketing.

The Summit, New Jersey native feels right at home with seven members of the 2015-16 Terriers squad residing in the Garden State.

"I came to St. Francis Brooklyn for the opportunity to coach with John," Coach Griff said upon accepting an Assistant Coaching position at St. Francis-Brooklyn. "He was the reason I went to Fordham. I'm excited to join his staff here at St. Francis Brooklyn. With seven new freshmen joining the team, it is exciting to get the chance to start all over again and teach."

In 2016, Coach Griff was awarded the prestigious honor of being inducted into the Rutgers Prep Athletic Hall of Fame where she attended high school. At Rutgers Prep, Griff was a standout athlete who played basketball, soccer and lacrosse.

Assistant Coach Leah Fechko

Leah Fechko joins the St. Francis Brooklyn women's basketball coaching staff one year after graduating the college, and leaving the program as one of the greatest players in school history.

Fechko will arrive back on Remsen Street replacing former assistant coach Kaitlyn Vican. The Twinsburg, Ohio native played professionally for the 2016-17 season in Dublin, Ireland with Killester Basketball Club.

"We are very pleased to welcome Leah Fechko back to St Francis College as a member of our women's basketball staff," said head coach John Thurston. "Her knowledge of St Francis, our system, the Northeast Conference and basketball in general made her an ideal choice to work with our younger players on a daily basis. She was an outstanding student, a team captain and role model, and she'll be a great resource for all of our student athletes."

As a Terrier from 2012-2016, Fechko strung together a list of accomplishments rivaling few if any in the history of Terrier basketball, and was one of the premier players across the NEC.

After earning All-NEC Rookie Team honors following her 2012-13 campaign, Fechko served as a core player for the 2014-15 NEC Champion Terriers that reached the NCAA Tournament for the first time in school history, for either basketball program.

In her senior season, the former guard took home NEC Defensive Player of the Year and All-NEC First team honors after putting together her best season statistically with 14.9 points, 8.6 rebounds, 3.6 assists and 2.4 steals per contest, leading the team in each category.

Currently, Fechko is the only player in school history, man or woman, to record 1,200 career points, 800 rebounds, 250 assists and 200 steals. She currently ranks eighth in points in Terrier women's basketball history with 1,216 points, fifth in rebounds with 855, tied for ninth in assists with 295 and third in steals with 233.

"I am thrilled for the opportunity to continue growing as a coach under coach Thurston," said assistant coach Fechko. "He is the reason I had a great career as a player, and I know as a coach I will be able to help him with my knowledge of the game and having a positive impact on the young players. I'm looking forward to the start of a successful 2017-18 season!"

ST. FRANCIS BROOKLYN

Thurston's Tidbits: "Alex is our most experienced and knowledgeable player. She also plays multiple positions and can hold her own defensively at multiple positions. Her long range shooting has been her most potent offensive weapon but her real value is in her versatility, which allows her to contribute in any situation. Alex is one of those players who can keep her team together on and off the floor."

Averaged 16.6 minutes per game in 32 contests played, notching three starts... Scored a season-high 12 points against Sacred Heart in the NEC Quarterfinals.

Prior to St. Francis Brooklyn: Delaney has represented her country at the National Championships for six seasons. She was a member of the U18 team that won the championship in 2012, a second place finish in 2014, and a third-place showing in 2013. In the most recent National Championships, as a U-20 member, Delaney averaged 15.7 points per game while dishing out 5.3 assists. She also pulled down 6.3 rebounds per contest and shot 94.1 percent from the free-throw line.

Among her accolades, Delaney was named Player of the Tournament at the Australian Schools Tournament in 2013, NSW Youth League All Star 5 Team and Sydney Comets Warath League Best Defensive Player in 2013. She was awarded the prestigious Blue Award for her achievements in school sports and was named the Senior Basketballer of the Year for her last three years in high school. Academically, Alex received the High Achievers Award from Monte Sant' Angelo Catholic College for her achievements in the Higher School Certificate (HSC), where she achieved 99.5 out of a possible 99.9 ATAR score.

Thurston's Tidbits: "Amy is a solid all around, true point guard who scores, gets to the free throw line, distributes the ball and defends aggressively. We have had all of these things in the past, just not in the same player. I love her attitude, her enthusiasm, her leadership skills and her high level of competitiveness."

Prior to St. Francis Brooklyn: Amy O'Neill arrives to Remsen Street by way of Cowley College of the Kansas Jayhawk Community College Conference. The Melbourne born O'Neill joins Alex Delaney and Jade Johnson as current Terriers from Australia, and the sixth Australian under head coach John Thurston. O'Neill was named the 11th NJCAA Division I All-American in school history, earning Third-Team honors after the 2016-17 season, along with a First-Team All-Region selection.

As a sophomore, O'Neill posted all around numbers with 16.8 points, 4.6 assists, 3.9 rebounds and 2.5 steals per contest. She completed her time in Cowley as the 10th leading scorer in school history, and registered the ninth most points in a season last year.

O'Neill scored a season-best 47 points on only 23 shot attempts at Barton Community College in an 82-64 victory on November 26, 2016. In that game, O'Neill shot 60.9% from the field, hit 5-of-11 from three, and knocked in 14-of-15 on free throws, while also coming away with five steals.

O'Neill played a big role in 51 Cowley victories over a two-year period, which included a berth in the 2016 NJCAA National Tournament.

The 5-foot-6 point guard will have two years of NCAA eligibility. She is the first JUCO signee in the tenure of head coach John Thurston.

Thurston's Tidbits: "Tori is starting to show the benefit of two years; drills, drills and more drills! She fought through a leg injury to have a solid showing in Canada. She is the rare post player who knows where everyone is supposed to be on the floor at all times. Her knowledge of our system allows her to vocally direct our defense. Offensively she causes opponents problems with her 12-to-18-foot range."

2016-17 (Sophomore): Named to the Northeast Conference Winter Academic Honor Roll...Appeared in 26 games, recording one start...averaged 2.1 points and 0.9 rebounds in 6.0 minutes per contest...Scored in 17 games, led by a season-best eight points at Central Connecticut (2/25/17)...Shot 66.7% on free throws.

2015-16 (Freshman): Named to the Northeast Conference Winter Academic Honor Roll...Appeared in 27 games and averaged 8.4 minutes per game...Averaged 2.2 points per game on 33.9% 19-of-56 shooting from the field...Shot 87.5% (21-of-24) from the free-throw line...Scored a career-high nine points on 2-of-4 (50.0%) shooting from the field and shot a perfect 5-of-5 from the free-throw line against Fairleigh Dickinson University on February 8...Recorded a career-high two blocks on February 8 against Fairleigh Dickinson.

Prior to St. Francis Brooklyn: Wagner is a 6-2 center who will fill the post-player void that Jaymee Veney leaves behind. In an interview with the Patriot Press, the future Terrier said she chose St. Francis Brooklyn because it is a small school with amazing coaches. Wagner is Freehold's all-time leader in blocked shots. In her senior year she averaged 12.4 points, 8.4 rebounds and 2.4 blocks per game. She was recently named as a National Girls and Women in Sports recipient. Along with Ehling and Phipps, Wagner is also a 1,000 Point Scorer and is one of just seven girls to achieve that milestone at Freehold.

Wagner has found success at the AAU level as well. Here are some of her notable AAU achievements: 2011 USJN National Showcase Champions, 2011 Vivian Stringer Shootout Champions, 2012 U16 AAU Super Regional Champions, 2012 All Gym Ratz Team, 2013 USJN Big Apple Challenge Pool All Star Team. Max-Preps ranked her 58th overall in the state of New Jersey.

Thurston's Tidbits: "A scorer's mentality, long range shooting ability and an advanced pull up game make Jade a prime offensive weapon for us. Played very well in Canada as she shook off the rust of missing the second half of the season last year with an injury. Her incredible work ethic while injured last year has made her much stronger. While most are excited about her scoring potential, I feel that she may be our best one on one defender."

2016-17 (Freshman): Named to the Northeast Conference Winter Commissioner's Honor Roll...Played in 15 games, recording six starts before a season-ending knee injury...Was team's fourth leading scorer averaging 7.0 points over 19.4 minutes per game...Nailed 16 three-pointers over 15 appearances...Scored double-digit points four times, including a season-high 14 points, which she netted twice (11/26/16 vs Boston College and 12/21/16 vs Rider).

Prior to St. Francis Brooklyn: Johnson hails from Grange, Adelaide/SA, Australia...The 5-9 guard played at Immanuel College located in SA, Australia...The Australian native was named a reserve on the U17 Australian Women's Basketball Team (2014) and the U17 World Championships in Czech Republic...Johnson was also a U18 South Australian Metro Women's Basketball Team Representative (2013-14)...Johnson was awarded the South Australian Sports Institute Talented Athlete Scholarship Award (2013-14)...She was a member of the National Intensive Training Program (NITP) and SA Elite Squad...In the 2013 U18 Australian National Junior Championships Johnson averaged 20.8 points per game...The year prior she led the 2012 U16 Australian National Junior Championships tournament in scoring with 21.3 points per game...While playing for the FEBC Senior Women in the Central Australian Basketball League, Johnson was named MVP in her rookie year...The Australian was the leading scorer averaging 16.1 points per game that season.

Thurston's Tidbits: "Mia has easily been our most improved player in preseason. She played very well in Canada and has carried that over into practice. She has been shooting the ball exceptionally well and will give us a good scoring option from the both the point and shooting guard positions. She has surprised me with her in depth knowledge of our system."

2016-17 (Redshirt Freshman): Named to the Northeast Conference Winter Academic Honor Roll...Made 23 appearances as a redshirt freshman...posted 1.2 points, 0.6 rebounds and 0.4 assists in 7.0 minutes per contest...Scored in 10 games, netting a season-best five points at Saint Francis PA (1/9/17)...Shot 75.0% from three between January 9 and January 27.

2015-16 (Freshman): Missed entire season due to injury.

Prior to St. Francis Brooklyn: In her senior season with the Holmdel Hornets, the 5-8 Ehling averaged 13.6 points per game and scored in double-digits in 16 out of 22 contests. She scored 17 or more points in eight games including two games of 22 points and 23 points against Life Center and Manalapan, respectively.

Ehling was a 1,000 Point Scorer at Holmdel. The milestone making basket came in a loss to St. John Vianney on a jump shot in the second quarter. Just like future teammate Leah Fechko, Ehling has ball theft on her mind. She recorded 29 steals in 22 games and recorded three or more steals six times, including one game with five steals against Raritan. In the Quarterfinal Round of the NJSIAA Tournament against Somerville, she scored 12 points en route to a Holmdel victory.

Ehling compiled an impressive resume at Holmdel. Her accolades include: First Team All "A" Division, Arthur Harmon MVP All-Star Game Award 2015, Holiday Tournament 2014 MVP, and Class A Central Second Team. Ehling's Hornets made it to the State Championship Game in 2014. She also competed in the Shore Basketball Coaches Association Senior All-Star Game.

Thurston's Tidbits: "Sam is really developing into a high level player. At 6-foot-3 she gives great size on the wing without sacrificing versatility. Always a good post up player, she is now an excellent deep threat as well. Her ball handling has improved and she has become a defensive presence with her shot blocking, rebounding and ability to get her hands in passing lanes. We are really excited about her future."

Thurston's Tidbits: "Fastest, quickest, strongest player on the team. You don't usually say that about freshmen post players. Casey was our leading scorer in Canada playing only about 15 minutes per game. She is a hard worker who wants to get better and only needs to add some finesse to her game. Her physical prowess keeps her ceiling high as far as improvement goes."

Prior to St. Francis Brooklyn: Forward Casey Carangelo from Thomaston High School in Connecticut will be the lone Terrier from The Nutmeg State.

Carangelo helped Thomaston to four straight State Championship game appearances, ultimately winning two titles to cap off a decorated high school career. The six-footer ended her career as the leading scorer in school history with 1,588 points. The mark broke a previous 23-year old record set by Amy Matthews in 1994, who finished her tenure with 1578 points.

Carangelo was named to the Connecticut High School Coaches Association Girls Basketball All-State team in both 2015-16 and 2016-17, and she also won HoopZone Player of the Year. She notably scored 30, 38 and 33 points in consecutive games, and was subsequently awarded Female Athlete of the Week honors from 'The Zone' in Connecticut on the week of January 16, 2017.

Thurston's Tidbits: "Talk about lucking out with a player in recruiting...we did just that when we found Abby late in the recruiting season. She has played like a veteran since she first entered a game up in Canada. A big, strong, versatile wing; she is what I would call a power guard. An excellent post up player, she can also stretch defenses with her shooting ability. She can make plays and rebound the ball, and she was a First Team All-State softball player."

Prior to St. Francis Brooklyn: Abby Anderson joins the Terrier roster from Holy Cross High School in Scranton, Pennsylvania, arriving as the second current Pennsylvania native.

Anderson, a forward, was a three-year varsity starter at Holy Cross, and became the school's all-time leading scorer, registering over 1,500 career points in four seasons. Anderson won several accolades in high school including a Pennsylvania Sports Writers All-State Third-Team honor, an NPF Sports All-District Small School Team mention, a two-time Lackawanna League All-Star recipient, a Scranton Times Athlete of the Week, and a multi-time Dunmorean Newspaper Athlete of the Month.

The 5-foot-11 forward put up 19.1 points, 10 rebounds and four assists per game as a senior, while shooting 78% on free throws and 42% from three-point land. In 2016-17, Anderson also poured in 522 points for the 17-win Lady Crusaders, the most for a single season in school history.

Anderson also plays softball, and was 2014 Pennsylvania Class "AA" First Team All-State outfielder.

Thurston's Tidbits: "The word potential immediately comes to mind when we talk about Ally. She was a virtual unknown in high school despite being in the Top 20 in New Jersey in both scoring and rebounding. Ally has a classic basketball body with speed, quickness and potential for growth. A great attitude allows her to get better every day. You will hear more about her down the road in her career."

Prior to St. Francis Brooklyn: 6-foot-1 forward Ally Lassen rounds out the Terriers' incoming recruiting class, adding another New Jersey native to the team.

Lassen was a standout at Point Pleasant Boro High School in Jersey, earned Class B South Player of the Year from the Shore Conference, and was named to the Shore Basketball Coaches Association Senior All-Star Game.

Lassen also eclipsed the 1,000-point mark for her career on February 23, 2017, and her highlight performance came on Senior Night, where she recorded 41 points and 20 rebounds in a 62-38 win over Howell.

"We are very pleased with our incoming class of recruits," added coach T. "They bring scoring ability, rebounding, size and speed to our roster. They all have a chance to contribute, how quickly they adapt to the D-I level of play and our system will determine their roles early on. As with all our players, they have outstanding academic credentials."
