

2017-2018 Terrier Game Notes VS.

St. Francis Brooklyn (2-6, 0-0 NEC)

at Fordham (3-5, 0-0 A10)

Bronx, NY (Rose Hill Gym)

Setting The Scene

The Terriers are coming off a 71-53 loss at #9 ranked Notre Dame last Sunday afternoon. Sophomore guard Rasheem Dunn, junior forward D.J. Porter, and freshman guard Jalen Jordan scored 10 points apiece to lead the Terrier offense. Sophomore forward Milija Cosic added 8 points and a team-high 8 rebounds.

St. Francis Brooklyn (2-6) held the hosts to just eight field goals in the second-half and frustrated the Irish with their gritty play. In fact, 2017-2018 AP Pre-Season All-American Bonzie Colson (13 points, 9 rebounds) was ejected after being whistled for a flagrant two foul with 6:02 remaining in the contest. Just moments later, Notre Dame head coach Mike Brey was sent to the locker-room for the first time in his 23-year career after being called for two administrative technical fouls.

The Terriers refused to go away as they managed to climb their way back to within 62-49 with 5:30 left. The Terriers were awarded six free-throws after the technical fouls to Colson and Brey. Jordan hit one of two and Porter converted 3-of-4 freebies. Cosic then scored inside to cap the stretch.

St. Francis Brooklyn was unable to get any closer as the Irish scored five straight points to widen their lead to 67-49 at the 2:47 mark.

The Dunk

Freshman guard Josh Nicholas completed a ferocious windmill dunk against Notre Dame and the play made ESPN Sports Center's #3 play-of-the-day. It was the first time a Terrier has ever pulled off a Sports Center Top-10 play.

Johnson Gets Feet Wet

After not playing an organized game in two years, SO center Cori Johnson averaged 10.7 mpg. over 3 contests at the FGCU Tournament. Johnson played 18 minutes in the contest against the host Eagles, scoring 8 points and grabbing 4 boards.

Jalen Jordan Named NEC Rookie of the Week

St. Francis Brooklyn freshman shooting guard Jalen Jordan was named the Northeast Conference Rookie of the Week on November 20th. Jordan looks to be the latest in a long line of terrific guards in recent years who have suited up for the Terriers. On Sunday, he poured in 22 points, including a 6-11 afternoon from outside the arc, and added four rebounds and a steal in St. Francis Brooklyn's 77-74 win over Brown in its home opener. He also hit a clutch left-corner trifecta with just over a minute remaining to help secure the victory.

On the week, Jordan averaged 13.5 ppg on 52.6 percent shooting from the floor and 50.0 percent from three-point range. He ranks second on the Terriers with 11.8 ppg.

All-Time vs. Fordham: The Rams hold a 20-12 lead.

ABOUT THE COLLEGE

St. Francis College, often referred to as St. Francis or SFC, is a private, coeducational college located in Brooklyn Heights, New York, in the United States. The campus comprises five interconnected buildings, occupying half of a city block in Downtown Brooklyn. It was founded in 1859 by friars of the Order of Servants Franciscans, a Franciscan order, as the St. Francis Academy and was the first private school in the Roman Catholic Diocese of Brooklyn. St. Francis College began as a parochial all-boys academy in the City of Brooklyn and has transformed into a small liberal arts college that has 19 academic departments which offer 72 majors and minors.

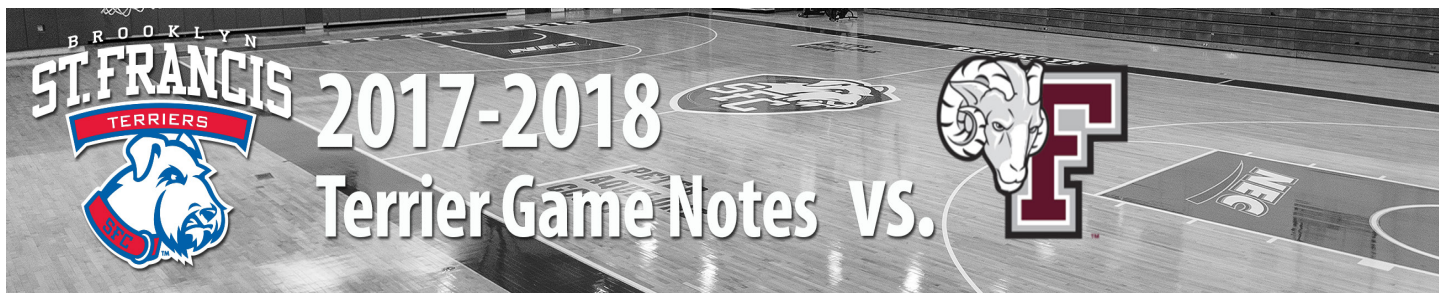

St. Francis College is a predominantly undergraduate institution, yet does have graduate programs in accounting, project management and psychology. St. Francis has been ranked nationally and regionally by Forbes magazine, Washington Monthly and U.S. News and World Report as one of the top baccalaureate colleges. St. Francis is set in an urban environment and is considered a commuter college. As of 2016, there are 2,700 undergraduates (10% part-time) and 66 graduates (45% part-time). The student to faculty ratio is 18:1 and 43.6% of classes have 20 or fewer students. The 2,900 students that attend St. Francis College come from over 80 countries. St. Francis College has been ranked by the New York Times and Forbes as one of the more diverse colleges in the United States.

St. Francis Brooklyn Men's Basketball History In a Nutshell

The Terriers are one of four original Division I schools NEVER to play in the NCAA Tournament (Army, William & Mary, Citadel) since it began in 1948. The school has played in four NIT Tournaments (1954, 1956, 1963, 2015).

Founded in 1896, the St. Francis men's basketball team is the OLDEST collegiate program in New York City.

With an enrollment of 2,700 and a facility that holds just 1,000 fans (4th smallest in D1), St. Francis Brooklyn is one of the smallest schools in all of NCAA Division I.

St. Francis Brooklyn is a Franciscan college located in downtown Brooklyn. Most are shocked that there is a D1 basketball facility inside the building, which is located on Remsen Street in Brooklyn Heights.

Post-Season Heartbreak "I know we are Franciscan but this is a bit much"

St. Francis Brooklyn is the lone NEC charter member that has yet to win an NEC title. The Terriers have also played the most games in NEC Tournament history (38) without winning a championship. St. Francis Brooklyn is 10-28 all-time in the NEC Tournament.

The Terriers reached the NEC semifinals five straight seasons from 1999-03. St. Francis reached the league championship game in 2001 (losing to Monmouth, 67-64) and 2003 (losing to Wagner, 78-61). The Terriers won the 2014-2015 NEC regular-season but lost to Robert Morris in the NEC Finals on their home court.

St. Francis Brooklyn last won 20 games in 1998-99 but lost to Mount St. Mary's, 68-66, in the semifinals of the NEC Tournament.

The Terriers won the Northeast Conference regular-season title in 2000-2001 but lost in the championship game to Monmouth despite holding a 20-point lead with 14 minutes to go in the contest.

St. Francis Brooklyn won a share of the NEC regular-season crown with Monmouth in 2003-04, but lost to Central Connecticut State in the NEC quarterfinals.

In the 2014 NEC quarterfinals, the Terriers led Mount St. Mary's by 17 points in the second-half but eventually lost on a 3-point shot at the buzzer. To make things worse, the Mountaineers put 6 players on the court by mistake and stole an inbound pass which led to a basket with less than 30 seconds left. The officials never caught the violation. Mount went on to win the conference championship game and play in the NCAA play-in game.

Terriers Ink Two During Early Signing Period

St. Francis Brooklyn head men's basketball coach Glenn Braica announced the addition of a pair of standout student-athletes to national letters of intent during the early signing period. Guard Larry Moreno (Brooklyn Law & Tech) and center Christian Rohlehr (Jefferson Community College) will join the Terrier program for the 2018-2019 campaign.

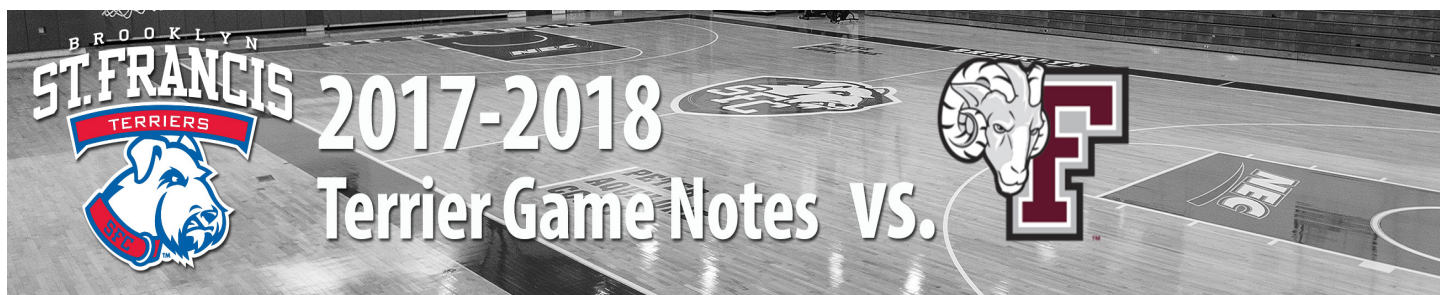

"Both players have tremendous potential and fit in well with our program," Braica stated. "They come from two programs that we trust and we appreciate their confidence in us."

The 6-foot-0 Moreno is his school's all-time leading scorer with 1,330 points at Brooklyn Law & Tech. Last season, he averaged 20.4 points, 6.4 rebounds and 4.6 assists per game, and led his team to the Public Schools Athletic League "A" championship game. He was named to the First Team All-State squad and was as a First Team All-Brooklyn pick by the state federation last year. In addition, he was named a First Team All-Brooklyn performer by the Brooklyn Courier. Moreno was also named the Most Valuable Player of the Hersh Classic in 2016.

"Larry is a true New York city guard who plays both backcourt positions and can really score," Braica said. "He's got the ability to create shots for himself and for his teammates, can shoot the three and puts up points very quickly. We feel that he can be a dynamic player in the Northeast Conference as he gets stronger and gains experience."

Last season as a sophomore, the 6-foot-10, 240 pound Rohlehr averaged 20.1 points, 9.0 rebounds, and 6.0 blocks per game at Jefferson Community College in Watertown, New York. A native of Ajax, Ontario, Canada, he was selected to the First Team All Midstate Conference and was a First Team All-Region III performer. Rohlehr led the NJCAA (Division III) in blocked shots for the second consecutive year and was third in field goal percentage (67.2) last season. Last season, he made the All Midstate Conference Second Team and was a Third Team All-Region III performer as a freshman.

"Christian comes from the same junior college as one of our former stars, Steven Howard," Braica explained. "We expect him to be a rim protector for us. He's got excellent hands, is a good rebounder, and has the ability to score in the post. We feel that he's got a lot of upside after picking up the game of basketball at the age of 15."

NEC MEN'S BASKETBALL PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Dachon Burke, Robert Morris

6'4", 180 lbs.

So., G, Orange, NJ/Orange

Burke made it back-to-back NEC Week of the Week honors after averaging 23.5 points, 8.0 rebounds, 3.5 steals and 1.0 block in RMU's 1-1 week. He was efficient from the field, hitting at a 50.0 percent clip, and made 5-7 (.714) from three-point territory. In an 81-74 victory at Youngstown State on Wednesday, Burke posted game-highs with 21 points, nine rebounds and four steals, and added a pair of blocks. Three days later in the finale of an eight-game road trip, Burke established a career-high in points for the second consecutive game with 26 in a 76-74 setback at Siena. The Orange, NJ native added seven rebounds, three assists and three steals. Burke scored 20 points in the second half, including 11 points in the final 1:16 to nearly lead the Colonials back from a 16-point deficit. Burke leads Robert Morris and ranks sixth in the NEC in scoring (16.6 ppg). He also paces the circuit with 2.7 spg and is ninth in rebounding (6.6).

NEC MEN'S BASKETBALL CO-ROOKIES OF THE WEEK

Nigel Jackson, Wagner

6'7", 215 lbs.

Fr., F, Baltimore, MD/Mount St. Joseph

Jackson comes off the best game of his young career on Friday when he finished with 14 points and four rebounds, and shot 5-7 from the floor, including 4-5 from outside the arc in just 17 minutes of action as Wagner edged Fairfield, 78-76. Jackson, who added an assist and a steal, has averaged 9.8 ppg, 7.0 rpg and shot 52.0 percent from the field and 43.8 percent from long range during WC's four-game win streak.

Jon Williams, Robert Morris

Fr., G, Akron, OH/St. Vincent-St. Mary

Williams joined teammate Koby Thomas as NEC Rookie of the Week award winners for Robert Morris over the first month of the 2017-18 season. The Akron, OH native averaged 13.0 ppg and 5.0 apg, and was a scorching 7-9 (.778) from three-point range in a 1-1 week for the Colonials. Williams, who shot 61.9 percent overall for the two games, contributed 11 points while dishing out five assists in RMU's 81-74 win at Youngstown on Wednesday. He followed with a career-high 15 points and five assists in a two-point loss at Siena on Saturday. He knocked won 5-7 from deep, including four in the second half as RMU mounted a comeback that fell just short. Williams ranks 11th in the NEC with 3.6 apg.

Glenn Braica was named the 17th head coach in the history of the St. Francis Brooklyn men's basketball program on May 20, 2010 and is already the fifth winningest coach at the school. Under his tutelage, the Terriers have opened some eyes both locally as well as on the national scene.

Braica has recorded a terrific 67-57 mark in league contests.

In 2015-2016, the Terriers went 11-7 in the NEC and tied for second-place in the standings. Three players earned All-NEC honors and Amdy Fall won his second consecutive Defensive Player of the Year Award.

St. Francis Brooklyn tied a school record with 23 victories in 2014-2015 and won their first NEC regular-season crown since the 2003-04 campaign. The Terriers earned a berth in the National Invitation Tournament, the program's first post-season appearance since 1963. Jalen Cannon, one of Braica's first recruits, was named the NEC Player of the Year and was a First Team All Metropolitan Sports Writers Association selection. In addition, Brent Jones earned First Team All-Conference accolades and Amdy Fall was named the NEC's Defensive Player of the Year. It came as no surprise that Braica earned NEC Coach of the Year honors and was the Metropolitan Sports Writers Association's Co-Coach of the Year.

Braica has developed a reputation as one of the good guys in the industry and was named a finalist for the prestigious Skip Prosser "Man of the Year" Award in 2013-2014 and 2014-2015.

On the court, Braica's student-athletes exude the same intensity as their leader does on the sidelines and it's easy to tell why recruits sign up to play for him. A born-and-raised Brooklynite, Braica has spent his entire career in New York City, which began after his playing days at Queens College. He was an assistant at St. Francis Brooklyn for 15 years before a stint at St. John's, returning in 2010 as the program's head coach. That experience has helped Braica navigate through a crowded recruiting scene to thrust the Terriers back in contention to win an NEC championship each season. The current roster includes six players who hail from New York City.

"The New York guys have been good to us," Braica said. "It's a lot of long-standing relationships, coaches I know and like and they trust us with their kids. 'We never used to tell people 'We're from Brooklyn,' Braica admitted. "But now we advertise it because it's really the place to be."

The Pope Center was the place to be for perhaps the most exciting week in school history in March of 2015. Playing in front of sold out and boisterous crowds, the Terriers hosted three NEC Tournament contests, including the championship tilt in front of a national ESPN 2 audience.

"Although we came up just a bit short of qualifying for the NCAA Tournament, we still had a phenomenal year and excited our students, alumni and the local community," said Braica. "The effort was there the entire season and I'm happy that they were rewarded with post-season play. It was a huge accomplishment and one that they can be proud of."

The prior season in 2013-14, the Terriers shocked the country by defeating the Miami Hurricanes in Coral Gables. In the process, Coach Braica and his staff delivered the program's first victory against an Atlantic Coast Conference team.

"This is one of the biggest wins, if not the biggest in the history of our school," Braica told the media during his press conference. "They are the defending ACC champs and are such a great program. I was particularly impressed that our guys had enough left at the end to pull this out after Miami had tied it up to force overtime. To have that kind of mental discipline is not easy so it's a credit to our guys that they were able to hang in there and win the game."

After another impressive victory at Florida Atlantic, Braica's group again had the college basketball world on the edge of their seats just ten days later as they carried the lead against national power Syracuse until the final minute in the Carrier Dome. Despite the heartbreaking defeat, the Terriers bounced back quickly and went on to tie a Northeast Conference record with nine victories during their non-conference slate. A last second triumph at America East regular-season champion Stony Brook was yet another statement victory for the program.

St. Francis Director of Athletics Irma Garcia was on the money when she introduced Braica to the campus and media for the first time in 2010 saying, "With Glenn we get a true Brooklynite; someone who has spent his entire career making connections within the New York City basketball community. He's someone who cares about his student-athletes not just when they play for him, but years later. He is their mentor for life."

It didn't take long for Braica to get the program back on track. In his first season on the sidelines in 2010-2011, Braica led the Terriers to a 15-15 campaign and the No. 5 seed in the Northeast Conference Tournament. It was the program's best record since the 2003-04 season when St. Francis finished 15-13 and won a share of the NEC regular-season title. Under Braica, the Terriers increased their scoring by more than six points per game from the previous season and were one of the best teams in the country in taking care of the basketball, averaging a conference-low 13.3 turnovers per game. The team also led the NEC with 7.80 steals per game.

In 2011-2012, St. Francis hosted their first home conference tournament game since 1997 after placing fourth in the league standings. Braica's focus on strong defense certainly paid off. That season his squad was one of the best in the nation at guarding the three-point line. The Terriers ranked second in the NEC and 17th in the country in defensive three-point field goal percentage. Braica was rewarded by being named the Jim Phelan NEC Coach of the Year as well as the NABC Division I District 18 Co-Coach of the Year.

In his first stint at St. Francis, Braica was with the Terriers for 15 years and was the Associate Head Coach from the 2000-01 season to 2003-04 under his current assistant coach Ron Ganulin.

During Braica's last seven years at St. Francis, the Terriers posted a 118-83 record, including an 88-42 mark in the NEC and captured two regular season titles. They finished with a .500 or better record in the league seven-straight years, at that time the longest active streak in the conference. They also reached the NEC Semifinals five times and had two championship game appearances in Braica's last five seasons. Braica helped Ganulin orchestrate the Terriers' offensive system, which ranked first or second in the NEC in each of the last five seasons he was on staff. During his tenure the squad emerged from the league's lower tier and went on to become one of the conference's marquee programs.

The Terriers are 67-57 in NEC contests over the past seven seasons under Braica.

From 1998-2004, the Terriers had one player named the league's Player of the Year, six first-team All-NEC selections, five second-team All-NEC honorees, two players that led the league in scoring, two NEC Rookies of the Year and a NEC Defensive Player of the Year. Braica recruited and coached several student-athletes that would go on to pro basketball careers during his time with the Terriers.

Following his first span at the college, Braica spent six seasons as an assistant at St. John's under Norm Roberts. When Roberts became head coach at St. John's, Braica, a teammate at Queens College, was his first hire.

Glenn is a proven recruiter, scout and strategist, and was instrumental in helping St. John's rebuild its program," said Roberts. "I truly believe that Glenn has the whole package. He brings experience, tremendous coaching ability as well as the personality and demeanor to promote and elevate St. Francis College to the top of the Northeast Conference."

Braica was also praised by Roberts for his ability to reach out to the community and Red Storm alumni, bringing former players back into the fold. He was also one of the co-directors of the Norm Roberts basketball camp, helping to increase enrollment from 75 campers in 2004 to 260 kids per session in 2009.

While at St. John's, Braica recruited and helped develop First Team All-Big East guard Dwight Hardy, Sixth Man of the Year Justin Burrell as well as D.J. Kennedy and Cedric Jackson, who both played in the NBA for the Cleveland Cavaliers.

From 2001-03, Braica was the head coach for the Empire State Games New York City men's open team, which won gold medals in 2001 and 2002, as well as a silver medal in 2003. The teams included former Terriers Cliff Strong, Sean Dantzler, Damien Herard, Devon Neckles, Karl Sanders, and Tristan Smith as well as current NBA player Royal Ivey. Braica has also coached numerous players that participated in the NBA Summer League, including Dwight Hardy (Miami Heat), Justin Burrell (Golden State Warriors), D.J. Kennedy (Cleveland Cavaliers), Paris Horne (Charlotte Hornets), and Justin Brownlee (NY Knicks & Charlotte Hornets).

Since taking over as the Terriers' head coach, a large number of Braica's student-athletes have gone on to sign professional contracts on the international circuit. Akeem Bennett '11, Ricky Cadell '11, Alex Harrinton '11, Stefan Perunicic '12, Akeem Johnson '13, Alexander Isailovic '14, Ben Mockford '14, Kevin Douglas '15, Jalen Cannon '15, Lowell Ulmer '15, Chris Hooper '16 have all enjoyed success overseas.

Braica attended St. Agnes High School and Bishop Ford High School in Brooklyn in the early 1980s and graduated from Queens College in 1989. Braica began his coaching career at New York City Tech as an assistant in 1988. He also served as a teacher at The Reece School and in the New York City Board of Education from 1989-1994.

Braica and his wife, Christine, live in Brooklyn.
