THE SERIES: St. Francis Brooklyn leads the all-time series by a 20-11 margin. The Terriers dropped an 87-75 decision against the Pioneers at the Pope Physical Education Center last month. Freshman guard Rasheem Dunn paced the Terriers with 18 points and muscled up for a career-high nine rebounds in 29 minutes of the bench. Senior guard Yunus Hopkinson (16 points) and sophomore guard Glenn Sanabria (13 points) were also in double-figures. Freshman forward Robert Montgomery tied his career-best with three blocks.

LAST TIME OUT: he St. Francis Brooklyn Terriers were defeated by the Robert Morris Colonials, 78-54, on Saturday afternoon at the Pope Physical Education Center.

Terriers' freshman guard Rasheem Dunn paced the Red & Blue with 15 points and a career-best 10 rebounds, recording his first career double-double. Sophomore guard Glenn Sanabria scored 12 points and sophomore center Joshua Nurse added career-highs in rebounds (7) and blocks (3) in 17 minutes off the bench.

St. Francis Brooklyn (4-21, 2-10 NEC) jumped out to a 7-4 advantage after a layup by Sanabria but the visitors scored eight straight points to claim a 12-7 advantage with 13:05 left in the first stanza.

Consecutive buckets by Dunn and sophomore wing Keon Williams knotted the score at 14 with 11:02 left and the hosts then managed to pull ahead for the final time in the contest on a conventional 3-point play by Dunn with 6:10 left. The lead, however, was short lived as the visitors rattled off six straight points to claim the lead for good at 27-21.

A triple by Sanabria with 3:58 remaining brought the Terriers within 27-24 but the Colonials went on a 13-2 spurt to lengthen their lead to 40-26 with 1:29 left before intermission. Robert Morris settled for a 44-31 halftime advantage.

St. Francis Brooklyn outscored the Colonials by an 8-3 margin to open the second-half, closing within 47-39 after a jumper by freshman Gianni Ford with 16:05 left in the contest.

However, Robert Morris (9-16, 5-7 NEC) held the hosts to just four points over the next nine and a half minutes and outscored the Terriers by a 24-4 margin to put the game away at 71-43 with 6:49 left.

Sophomore guard Isaiah Still scored a game-high 18 points and grabbed a team-best 10 boards for the Colonials. Dachon Burke (14 points) and Matty McConnell (10 points) were also in double-digits.

The Terriers shot 29.1 percent (16-of-55) overall and made just 3-of-25 (12 percent) from behind the arc.

The Colonials hit 47.1 percent (24-51) overall, made 4-of-10 treys and were 26-for-32 (81.3 percent) from the line.

TERRIER HISTORY

The St. Francis College men's basketball team, founded in 1896, is the oldest collegiate program in New York City. In the Terrier's 120 year history, they have won 6 regular season championships and have had 4 NIT bids.

The Terriers are one of five original Division I schools NEVER to Play In the NCAA Tournament (Northwestern, Army, William & Mary, Citadel) since it began in 1948. The school has played in four NIT Tournaments (1954, 1956, 1963, 2015).

With an enrollment of 2,700 and a facility that holds just 1,000 fans (4th smallest in D1), St. Francis Brooklyn is one of the smallest schools in all of NCAA Division I.

St. Francis Brooklyn is a Franciscan college located in downtown Brooklyn. Most are shocked that there is a D1 basketball facility inside the building, which is located on Remsen Street in Brooklyn Heights.

Post-Season Heartbreak "I know we are Franciscan but this is a bit much" St. Francis Brooklyn is the lone NEC charter member that has yet to win an NEC title. The Terriers have also played the most games in NEC Tournament history (38) without winning a championship. St. Francis Brooklyn is 10-28 all-time in the NEC Tournament.

The Terriers reached the NEC semifinals five straight seasons from 1999-03. St. Francis reached the league championship game in 2001 (losing to Monmouth, 67-64) and 2003 (losing to Wagner, 78-61).

St. Francis Brooklyn won 20 games in 1998-99 but lost to Mount St. Mary's, 68-66, in the semifinals of the NEC Tournament.

The Terriers won the Northeast Conference regular-season title in 2000-2001 but lost in the championship game to Monmouth despite holding a 20-point lead with 14 minutes to go in the contest.

St. Francis Brooklyn won a share of the NEC regular-season crown with Monmouth in 2003-04, but lost to Central Connecticut State in the NEC quarterfinals.

In the the 2014 NEC quarterfinals, the Terriers led Mount St. Mary's by 17 points in the second-half but eventually lost on a 3-pointer at the buzzer. To make things worse, the Mountaineers put 6 players on the court by mistake and stole an inbounds pass which led to a basket with less than 30 seconds left. The officials never caught the violation. Mount went on to win the conference championship game and play in the NCAA play-in game.

St. Francis Brooklyn equalled their program-record for victories in a season with 23 in 2014-2015 and won the regular-season title. However, the Terriers fell to Robert Morris on their home floor in the championship game. They fell to Richmond in the NIT opener.

Recent Success

The Terriers defeated the Miami Hurricanes in the 2013 season-opener, their first win against an ACC school.

The Terriers are 67-43 (.613) in NEC contests over the past seven seasons under Glenn Braica.

2016-2017 St. Francis Brooklyn Game Notes

WINNING THE TURNOVER BATTLE

The Terriers are leading the NEC with a +2.08 turnover margin thus far. The Terriers average 11.8 miscues a game and are forcing 13.9 turnovers a night. They are also second in the league in steals (6.96 pg.), which is good for 77th in the NCAA.

THANKS I'LL HAVE ANOTHER

The Terriers are 27th in the country in offensive rebounding at 13.3 pg. Wagner leads the NEC at 14.2 per game, which is good for 8th in the NCAA.

THREE-HEADED MONSTER

St. Francis Brooklyn's guard trio of Glenn Sanabria, Yunus Hopkinson, and Rasheem Dunn are averaging a combined total of 38.4 ppg. (61 percent of the team's scoring. They also have distributed 164 out of the Terriers' 241 total assists) (69 percent). In addition, the trio have combined for 47 of the 54 individual double-figure contests.

BOMBS AWAY

The Terriers are taking an average of 26.3 3-pointers per game (11th in NCAA) compared to 14.2 by their opponents. Through 12 NEC contests, the disparity is even greater (26.6 to 13.2). Hopkinson (11th, 186) and Sanabria (27th, 168) both rank among the top-30 in the country in attempts

BRAICA SECURES WIN #100

Seventh-year head coach became the third Terrier coach to record 100 wins at St. Francis Brooklyn after the Terriers defeated Mount Saint Vincent. Danny Lynch recorded his 100th win for the Terriers in his 6th season, the fastest to do so at the College. He owns a career mark of 102-110.

SANABRIA'S CAREER DAY: SO guard Glenn Sanabria scored a career-high 30 points in the victory against Savannah State. The 30 points is tied for the second-best performance of any player in the NEC this season. The total is the most a Terrier has scored since Tyreek Jewell recorded 29 against Sacred Heart on February 4th, 2016. He was named to the All-Tournament Team at the Emerald Coast Classic after netting 22.0 ppg...He's third in the NEC with 2.46 3s per game.

A JOB WELL-DUNN: Three-time NEC Rookie of the Week Rasheem Dunn has established himself as one of the top freshmen in the NEC. The Brooklyn product has already scored 20 or more points six times and he is the NEC's second-leading freshman scorer at 13.4 ppg. The last Terrier freshman to score 20 points in a game prior to this season was Stefan Perunicic on 2/19/09. Perunicic hit the 20-pt mark three times that season. The guard scored a season-high 24 points in the overtime win against Bryant. Dunn scored the first nine points for the Terriers in the extra period. He followed that up with 19 points and a season-high 5 assists in another OT win against CCSU (12/31/16). He recorded his first career double-double against RMU (2/4/17) with 15 points and a career-best 10 boards.

PRE-SEASON NEWS: The Terriers are down to 11 scholarship players after losing a pair of student-athletes during the pre-season. 6-9 sophomore center Cori Johnson will apply for a medical red-shirt after suffering a season-ending knee injury in practice. Sophomore guard Dagur Jonsson left the program in October to return to his native Iceland.

NEC PRE-SEASON COACHES POLL:

St. Francis Brooklyn was picked 7th out of 10 schools in the NEC Pre-Season Coaches Poll after losing seven letterwinners off a team that went 11-7 in the NEC and tied for second in the standings. The Terriers graduated a pair of Third Team All-Conference players (Tyreek Jewell & Chris Hooper). In addition, two-time NEC Defensive Player of the Year Amdy Fall graduated.

YOUTH WILL BE SERVED: The Terriers feature five players who are playing in their first season of Division I basketball. In fact, seven of the 11 players are either freshmen or sophomores.

DYNAMIC BACKCOURT POTENTIAL: Senior Yunus Hopkinson and sophomore Glenn Sanabria are expected to be one of the top starting backcourt duos in the NEC this season. After playing sparingly during his first two seasons, Hopkinson developed into one of the top guards in the league last year, and was named to the NEC's Third Team as a result. Hopkinson was SFBK's leading scorer in NEC contests at 14.1 ppg. (9th in league). He was 4th in the league in 3-pt fg made per game (2.29), 5th in NEC in free throw percentage (.842), and poured in 20 or more points six different times. After a promising freshman season, Sanabria injured his shoulder early in 2015-2016 and earned a medical red-shirt. Both players can play on or off the ball. Coach Braica is also extremely excited about the potential of a pair of true freshman, Rasheem Dunn and Gianni Ford. The pair entered the program with tremendous high school accolades.

GREEN IN THE POST: The Terriers lost three "biggs" to graduation and have already lost another (6-9 Cori Johnson) to a season-ending knee injury. Only SO Josh Nurse (71 minutes) and JR Jagos Lasic (26 minutes) had seen any collegiate action prior to the season. SO Jahmel Bodrick and FR Robert Montgomery will be counted upon to provide bulk up front in their initial season on Remsen Street.

WILL THIS BE THE YEAR? St. Francis Brooklyn is one of just five schools that have never qualified for the NCAA Tournament. Army, Northwestern, Citadel, and William & Mary are the others. The Terriers last won the Northeast Conference regular-season title in 2014-2015 but were defeated by Robert Morris in the championship game, which was played on the Terriers' campus.

Head Coach
Glenn Braica

Glenn Braica was named the 17th head coach in the history of the St. Francis Brooklyn men's basketball program on May 20, 2010 and is already the fifth winningest coach at the school. Under his tutelage, the Terriers have qualified for the Northeast Conference Tournament in each of his six seasons, and have opened some eyes both locally as well as on the national scene.

Braica has recorded a sensational 65-41 mark in league contests. Last season, the Terriers went 11-7 in the NEC and tied for second-place in the standings. Three players earned All-NEC honors and Amdy Fall won his second consecutive Defensive Player of the Year Award.

St. Francis Brooklyn tied a school record with 23 victories in 2014-2015 and won their first NEC regular-season crown since the 2003-04 campaign. The Terriers earned a berth in the National Invitation Tournament, the program's first post-season appearance since 1963. Jalen Cannon, one of Braica's first recruits, was named the NEC Player of the Year and was a First Team All Metropolitan Sports Writers Association selection. In addition, Brent Jones earned First Team All-Conference accolades and Amdy Fall was named the NEC's Defensive Player of the Year. It came as no surprise that Braica earned NEC Coach of the Year honors and was the Metropolitan Sports Writers Association's Co-Coach of the Year.

Braica, who has guided the Terriers to a 56-43 record over the past three seasons, has developed a reputation as one of the good guys in the industry and was named a finalist for the prestigious Skip Prosser "Man of the Year" Award in 2013-2014 and 2014-2015.

On the court, Braica's student-athletes exude the same intensity as their leader does on the sidelines and it's easy to tell why recruits sign up to play for him. A born-and-raised Brooklynite, Braica has spent his entire career in New York City, which began after his playing days at Queens College. He was an assistant at St. Francis Brooklyn for 15 years before a stint at St. John's, returning in 2010 as the program's head coach. That experience has helped Braica navigate through a crowded recruiting scene to thrust the Terriers back in contention to win an NEC championship each season. The current roster includes six players who hail from New York City.

"The New York guys have been good to us," Braica said. "It's a lot of long-standing relationships, coaches I know and like and they trust us with their kids. We never used to tell people 'We're from Brooklyn,' Braica admitted. "But now we advertise it because it's really the place to be."

The Pope Center was the place to be for perhaps the most exciting week in school history in March of 2015. Playing in front of sold out and boisterous crowds, the Terriers hosted three NEC Tournament contests, including the championship tilt in front of a national ESPN 2 audience.

"Although we came up just a bit short of qualifying for the NCAA Tournament, we still had a phenomenal year and excited our students, alumni and the local community," said Braica. "The effort was there the entire season and I'm happy that they were rewarded with post-season play. It was a huge accomplishment and one that they can be proud of."

The prior season in 2013-14, the Terriers shocked the country by defeating the Miami Hurricanes in Coral Gables. In the process, Coach Braica and his staff delivered the program's first victory against an Atlantic Coast Conference team.

"This is one of the biggest wins, if not the biggest in the history of our school," Braica told the media during his press conference. "They are the defending ACC champs and are such a great program. I was particularly impressed that our guys had enough left at the end to pull this out after Miami had tied it up to force overtime. To have that kind of mental discipline is not easy so it's a credit to our guys that they were able to hang in there and win the game."

After another impressive victory at Florida Atlantic, Braica's group again had the college basketball world on the edge of their seats just ten days later as they carried the lead against national power Syracuse until the final minute in the Carrier Dome. Despite the heartbreaking defeat, the Terriers bounced back quickly and went on to tie a Northeast Conference record with nine victories during their non-conference slate. A last second triumph at America East regular-season champion Stony Brook was yet another statement victory for the program.

St. Francis Director of Athletics Irma Garcia was on the money when she introduced Braica to the campus and media for the first time in 2010 saying, "With Glenn we get a true Brooklynite; someone who has spent his entire career making connections within the New York City basketball community. He's someone who cares about his student-athletes not just when they play for him, but years later. He is their mentor for life."

It didn't take long for Braica to get the program back on track. In his first season on the sidelines in 2010-2011, Braica led the Terriers to a 15-15 campaign and the No. 5 seed in the Northeast Conference Tournament. It was the program's best record since the 2003-04 season when St. Francis finished 15-13 and won a share of the NEC regular-season title. Under Braica, the Terriers increased their scoring by more than six points per game from the previous season and were one of the best teams in the country in taking care of the basketball, averaging a conference-low 13.3 turnovers per game. The team also led the NEC with 7.80 steals per game.

In 2011-2012, St. Francis hosted their first home conference tournament game since 1997 after placing fourth in the league standings. Braica's focus on strong defense certainly paid off. That season his squad was one of the best in the nation at guarding the three-point line. The Terriers ranked second in the NEC and 17th in the country in defensive three-point field goal percentage. Braica was rewarded by being named the Jim Phelan NEC Coach of the Year as well as the NABC Division I District 18 Co-Coach of the Year.

In his first stint at St. Francis, Braica was with the Terriers for 15 years and was the Associate Head Coach from the 2000-01 season to 2003-04 under his current assistant coach Ron Ganulin.

During Braica's last seven years at St. Francis, the Terriers posted a 118-83 record, including an 88-42 mark in the NEC and captured two regular season titles. They finished with a .500 or better record in the league seven-straight years, at that time the longest active streak in the conference. They also reached the NEC Semifinals five times and had two championship game appearances in Braica's last five seasons. Braica helped Ganulin orchestrate the Terriers' offensive system, which ranked first or second in the NEC in each of the last five seasons he was on staff. During his tenure the squad emerged from the league's lower tier and went on to become one of the conference's marquee programs.

From 1998-2004, the Terriers had one player named the league's Player of the Year, six first-team All-NEC selections, five second-team All-NEC honorees, two players that led the league in scoring, two NEC Rookies of the Year and a NEC Defensive Player of the Year. Braica recruited and coached several student-athletes that would go on to pro basketball careers during his time with the Terriers.

Following his first span at the college, Braica spent six seasons as an assistant at St. John's under Norm Roberts. When Roberts became head coach at St. John's, Braica, a teammate at Queens College, was his first hire.

Glenn is a proven recruiter, scout and strategist, and was instrumental in helping St. John's rebuild its program," said Roberts. "I truly believe that Glenn has the whole package. He brings experience, tremendous coaching ability as well as the personality and demeanor to promote and elevate St. Francis College to the top of the Northeast Conference."

Braica was also praised by Roberts for his ability to reach out to the community and Red Storm alumni, bringing former players back into the fold. He was also one of the co-directors of the Norm Roberts basketball camp, helping to increase enrollment from 75 campers in 2004 to 260 kids per session in 2009.

While at St. John's, Braica recruited and helped develop First Team All-Big East guard Dwight Hardy, Sixth Man of the Year Justin Burrell as well as D.J. Kennedy and Cedric Jackson, who both played in the NBA for the Cleveland Cavaliers.

From 2001-03, Braica was the head coach for the Empire State Games New York City men's open team, which won gold medals in 2001 and 2002, as well as a silver medal in 2003. The teams included former Terriers Cliff Strong, Sean Dantzler, Damien Herard, Devon Neckles, Karl Sanders, and Tristan Smith as well as current NBA player Royal Ivey. Braica has also coached numerous players that participated in the NBA Summer League, including Dwight Hardy (Miami Heat), Justin Burrell (Golden State Warriors), D.J. Kennedy (Cleveland Cavaliers), Paris Horne (Charlotte Hornets), and Justin Brownlee (NY Knicks & Charlotte Hornets).

Since taking over as the Terriers' head coach, a large number of Braica's student-athletes have gone on to sign professional contracts on the international circuit. Akeem Bennett '11, Ricky Cadell '11, Alex Harrinton '11, Stefan Perunicic '12, Akeem Johnson '13, Alexander Isailovic '14, Ben Mockford '14, Kevin Douglas '15, Jalen Cannon '15, Lowell Ulmer '15, Chris Hooper '16 have all enjoyed success overseas.

Braica attended St. Agnes High School and Bishop Ford High School in Brooklyn in the early 1980s and graduated from Queens College in 1989. Braica began his coaching career at New York City Tech as an assistant in 1988. He also served as a teacher at The Reece School and in the New York City Board of Education from 1989-1994.
