

2017-2018 Terrier Game Notes VS.

St. Francis Brooklyn (9-13, 6-4 NEC) at Bryant (2-21, 1-9 NEC) Feb 1, 2018, 7:00 p.m. (Providence, RI)

Last Time Out: Emmitsburg, Md. -- The St. Francis Brooklyn Terriers saw their three-game winning streak come to an end as they fell to the Mount St. Mary's Mountaineers, 86-72, on Saturday afternoon at Knott Arena.

Junior guard Glenn Sanabria, who swished his 150th career 3-pointer in the opening half, scored a season-high 23 points on 9-of-14 shooting. Sanabria scored 18 points in the second half and drilled 5-of-9 attempts from behind the arc. Freshman Chauncey Hawkins (4 assists, 3 steals) continued his solid play off the bench as the guard posted a career-best 19 points. Hawkins hit 6-of-9 field goal attempts and was a career-best 4-for-6 from long-distance.

St. Francis Brooklyn's (9-13, 6-4 NEC) slow start to open the contest made it difficult to make a comeback but the Red & Blue gave a great effort none the less. Playing in front of a large and boisterous crowd of 3,000 fans, the Mount raced out to a 21-8 lead at the 9:44 mark.

The Terriers re-gained their footing and managed to close within just six points after freshman guard Josh Nicholas delivered a trey to make it 31-25 with 3:18 left before the break. But the hosts scored the next six points to push the lead back to double-digits at 37-25 at the 2:25 mark and eventually settled for a 43-34 halftime advantage.

Mount St. Mary's (12-11, 6-4), once again, started fast as they scored the first eight points of the second half to take their largest lead of the game at 51-34 with 18:24 remaining.

The Terriers, who defeated the Mount 81-73 on January 18th in Brooklyn Heights, still trailed by 17, 62-45, with 14:04 left but went on an 8-1 spurt to close within 63-53 at the 11:59 mark. Hawkins and Sanabria delivered consecutive triples and a layup by Sanabria capped the stretch.

St. Francis Brooklyn was able to get the game back to single-figures after Hawkins made another trifecta to make it 66-58 at the 8:54 mark. The Mount, however, scored six straight points to extend their lead to 72-58 with 6:03 remaining.

Mount maintained a double-digit lead until Sanabria hit a three-point-er with just thirty-seven seconds left in the contest to bring the Terriers within 81-72. The hosts scored the final five points of the contest to ice the game.

The hosts shot a red-hot 56 percent (28-of-50) overall from the floor and were 10-for-20 from long-range. The NEC's leading scorer Junior Robinson scored a game-high 27 points and went 4-for-5 from deep.

The Terriers shot 43.3 percent overall (26-of-60) but were only 13-of-33 (39.4 percent) from behind the arc.

The Mount also held a big advantage at the foul line as they went 20-for-27 (74.1 percent) while St. Francis Brooklyn took just 10 attempts (7-for-10).

St. Francis Brooklyn Men's Basketball History In a Nutshell

The Terriers are one of four original Division I schools NEVER to play in the NCAA Tournament (Army, William & Mary, Citadel) since it began in 1948. The school has played in four NIT Tournaments (1954, 1956, 1963, 2015).

Founded in 1896, the St. Francis men's basketball team is the OLDEST collegiate program in New York City.

With an enrollment of 2,700 and a facility that holds just 1,000 fans (4th smallest in D1), St. Francis Brooklyn is one of the smallest schools in all of NCAA Division I.

St. Francis Brooklyn is a Franciscan college located in downtown Brooklyn. Most are shocked that there is a D1 basketball facility inside the building, which is located on Remsen Street in Brooklyn Heights.

Post-Season Heartbreak "I know we are Franciscan but this is a bit much"

St. Francis Brooklyn is the lone NEC charter member that has yet to win an NEC title. The Terriers have also played the most games in NEC Tournament history (38) without winning a championship. St. Francis Brooklyn is 10-28 all-time in the NEC Tournament.

The Terriers reached the NEC semifinals five straight seasons from 1999-03. St. Francis reached the league championship game in 2001 (losing to Monmouth, 67-64) and 2003 (losing to Wagner, 78-61). The Terriers won the 2014-2015 NEC regular-season but lost to Robert Morris in the NEC Finals on their home court.

St. Francis Brooklyn last won 20 games in 1998-99 but lost to Mount St. Mary's, 68-66, in the semifinals of the NEC Tournament.

The Terriers won the Northeast Conference regular-season title in 2000-2001 but lost in the championship game to Monmouth despite holding a 20-point lead with 14 minutes to go in the contest.

St. Francis Brooklyn won a share of the NEC regular-season crown with Monmouth in 2003-04, but lost to Central Connecticut State in the NEC quarterfinals.

In the 2014 NEC quarterfinals, the Terriers led Mount St. Mary's by 17 points in the second-half but eventually lost on a 3-point shot at the buzzer. To make things worse, the Mountaineers put 6 players on the court by mistake and stole an inbounds pass which led to a basket with less than 30 seconds left. The officials never caught the violation. Mount went on to win the conference championship game and play in the NCAA play-in game.

Terriers Ink Two During Early Signing Period

St. Francis Brooklyn head men's basketball coach Glenn Braica announced the addition of a pair of standout student-athletes to national letters of intent during the early signing period. Guard Larry Moreno (Brooklyn Law & Tech) and center Christian Rohlehr (Jefferson Community College) will join the Terrier program for the 2018-2019 campaign.

"Both players have tremendous potential and fit in well with our program," Braica stated. "They come from two programs that we trust and we appreciate their confidence in us."

The 6-foot-0 Moreno is his school's all-time leading scorer with 1,330 points at Brooklyn Law & Tech. Last season, he averaged 20.4 points, 6.4 rebounds and 4.6 assists per game, and led his team to the Public Schools Athletic League "A" championship game. He was named to the First Team All-State squad and was as a First Team All-Brooklyn pick by the state federation last year. In addition, he was named a First Team All-Brooklyn performer by the Brooklyn Courier. Moreno was also named the Most Valuable Player of the Hersh Classic in 2016.

"Larry is a true New York city guard who plays both backcourt positions and can really score," Braica said. "He's got the ability to create shots for himself and for his teammates, can shoot the three and puts up points very quickly. We feel that he can be a dynamic player in the Northeast Conference as he gets stronger and gains experience."

Last season as a sophomore, the 6-foot-10, 240 pound Rohlehr averaged 20.1 points, 9.0 rebounds, and 6.0 blocks per game at Jefferson Community College in Watertown, New York. A native of Ajax, Ontario, Canada, he was selected to the First Team All Midstate Conference and was a First Team All-Region III performer. Rohlehr led the NJCAA (Division III) in blocked shots for the second consecutive year and was third in field goal percentage (67.2) last season. Last season, he made the All Midstate Conference Second Team and was a Third Team All-Region III performer as a freshman.

"Christian comes from the same junior college as one of our former stars, Steven Howard," Braica explained. "We expect him to be a rim protector for us. He's got excellent hands, is a good rebounder, and has the ability to score in the post. We feel that he's got a lot of upside after picking up the game of basketball at the age of 15."

Getting the Job "Dunn"

Dunn went over the 700 point mark for his career against Mount on Jan. 27th. The sophomore has scored 20 or more points seven times this season. He is 10th in the league in scoring at 14.8 ppg. Dunn is tied for 10 in NEC contests at 15.4 ppg.

The Worldwide Leader

The Dunk

Freshman guard Josh Nicholas completed a ferocious windmill dunk against Notre Dame and the play made ESPN Sports Center's #3 play-of-the-day. It was the first time a Terrier has ever pulled off a Sports Center Top-10 play.

The Shot

Junior guard Glenn Sanabria swished a catch-and-shoot 3-pointer at the buzzer to send the Robert Morris game into overtime. The play made ESPN Sports Center's #3 play-of-the-day. It was the second time a Terrier has ever pulled off a Sports Center Top-10 play.

Jalen Jordan Named NEC Rookie of the Week

St. Francis Brooklyn freshman shooting guard Jalen Jordan was named the Northeast Conference Rookie of the Week on November 20th. Jordan looks to be the latest in a long line of terrific guards in recent years who have suited up for the Terriers. He poured in 22 points, including a 6-11 afternoon from outside the arc, and added four rebounds and a steal in St. Francis Brooklyn's 77-74 win over Brown in its home opener. He also hit a clutch left-corner trifecta with just over a minute remaining to help secure the victory.

Jalen Jordan Earns 2nd NEC ROW Award

Jordan's second NEC Rookie of the Week honor (1/22/18) came after the 6'3" guard averaged 14.5 points and 7.5 rebounds per game in St. Francis Brooklyn's 2-0 week. He shot 52.6 percent from the floor, including 50.0 percent from three-point range (5-10), and did not commit a single turnover in 63 minutes of play. Jordan hit 3-5 from distance and finished with 17 points and seven rebounds in Thursday's 81-73 win over the Mount, then came back with 12 points and a career-best eight boards to help lead the Terriers to an 85-80 conquest of Bryant.

The wins lifted SFBK to within one game of first place with a 5-3 league mark. Jordan, who hails from Conyers, GA, ranks second among NEC freshman scorers with 12.1 ppg. He's also fourth in the league in free throw percentage (.846), fifth in three-point accuracy (.433) and seventh in made three-pointers (2.25/game).

Glenn Sanabria Named College Sports Madness

POW

St. Francis Brooklyn Guard Glenn Sanabria has been named College Sports Madness NEC Men's Basketball Player of the Week for his exceptional performance during the past week's action. College Sports Madness identifies the players who have had the greatest impact to their team from each conference and on a national basis each Monday.

Sanabria averaged 20.5 ppg., 4.0 rpg. and 3.5 apg. in leading St. Francis Brooklyn to a pair of NEC victories last week. The Staten Island native was on fire from behind the arc as he splashed 11-of-18 attempts (.611 percent). The St. Peter's graduate scored 20 points as he drained a career-high six treys to open the week against Mount St. Mary's. Sanabria drilled a long-distance bomb to give St. Francis Brooklyn the lead for good, 51-50, at the 13:40 mark. He also converted both of his free throws with 40 seconds left to help secure the win.

The combo guard then played a tremendous all-around game against Bryant, producing 21 points, five rebounds, five assists and zero turnovers. Again, he converted two clutch free throws with 38 ticks left to help ice the game.

Sanabria leads the NEC with a 2.57 assists/turnover ratio and is 7th in 3-point marksmanship at .421 percent. In NEC contests only, Sanabria is shooting a league-high .545 percent (24-of-44) from behind the arc.

Chauncey Hawkins Earns NEC Co-Rookie of Week

St. Francis Brooklyn freshman guard Chauncey Hawkins was named the Northeast Conference Co-Rookie of the Week on Monday by the league office.

Hawkins joined teammate Jalen Jordan as NEC Rookie of the Week winners after coming off the bench to average 17.5 points, 2.5 rebounds, 3.5 assists and 2.0 steals per game in a Terrier split. He shot a scorching 66.7 percent from the field overall, and matched that figure from downtown, hitting 6-9 outside the arc.

Hawkins scored 16 points on just six shot attempts in 19 minutes of play in Thursday's 76-70 win at FDU. The Spring Valley, NY product went on to score a career-high 19 points at Mount St. Mary's on Saturday, hitting 4-6 from three-point range. Hawkins added four assists, a personal-best three steals and a blocked shot. The big week lifted his season scoring average to 6.5 ppg.

Making Them Count

The Terriers have been one of the poorer free throw shooting teams in recent years. However, this season, the Red & Blue are 3rd in the NEC (.721). Jalen Jordan is 3rd individually at .845 percent (49-of-58). Rasheem Dunn is 10th at .784 (69-of-78). The squad went 15-of-16 (93.8 percent) in the win vs. the Mount.

Last Time vs. Bryant

Brooklyn Heights, NY - - The host St. Francis Brooklyn Terriers continued their hot shooting as they edged the Bryant Bulldogs, 85-80, to win their second consecutive Northeast Conference contest on January 20th at the Pope Physical Education Center.

Junior Glenn Sanabria continued his torrid marksmanship as the guard scored a team-high 21 points on 7-of-13 shooting, including a 5-for-9 performance from behind the arc. Sanabria, who hit 6-of-9 treys in the win against Mount St. Mary's on Thursday, also added five rebounds and five assists with zero turnovers in 36 minutes. Sophomore guard Rasheem Dunn contributed 15 points and seven rebounds and senior forward D.J. Porter (6 rebounds, 5 assists) tied a career-high with 13 points. Freshman guard Jalen Jordan contributed 12 points and snared a career-best eight caroms.

The Terriers, who shot an even 50 percent (33-of-66) in the contest, survived a late run to hold off the Bulldogs down the stretch. St. Francis Brooklyn looked to have the game in hand after Dunn swished a trey to make it 78-69 with just 3:03 remaining. But Bryant's Hunter Ware converted a layup to cap a 6-0 Bulldogs' run with 1:23 left, shrinking the score to 78-75.

Following a timeout, the hosts were able to grab a pair of offensive rebounds and Sanabria ended up with two foul shots with 38 seconds left. Sanabria converted both attempts to give his team an 80-75 advantage.

Ikenna Ndugba answered with a layup to bring the visitors within 80-77 and then elected to put Dunn on the line with 24 ticks remaining. Dunn calmly swished both attempts to re-store a five-point edge at 82-77.

Adam Grant, who scored a game-high 26 points, then misfired on a 3-pointer with 19 seconds left and Sanabria grabbed the rebound before he was fouled for a one-an-one chance at the line. However, Sanabria missed the front end chance and Grant followed with a triple from the top of the key to bring the Bulldogs within 82-80 with eight seconds left.

Bryant (2-19, 1-7 NEC) elected to foul Dunn with four seconds remaining and the Brooklyn native hit the first but misfired on the second to keep it a one possession game at 83-80.

Fortunately for the Terriers, after the rebound, Dunn came up with a steal and put the game away with a layup at the buzzer.

St. Francis Brooklyn, who led, 44-39 at the break, widened their lead to a game-high 11 points with 15:34 remaining after a jumper by sophomore forward Milija Cosic.

The Terriers still led by double-digits at 56-46 with 12:31 remaining after Porter nailed a 3-pointer but the Bulldogs were able to keep the game in single-figures for the rest of the way after Ikenna Ndugba's long-range shot at the 12:18 mark.

The Bulldogs, who shot 51.6 percent overall (32-of-62) jumped out to a 5-0 start in the opening stanza, however, the hosts went on a 16-4 burst to take a 16-9 advantage with 13:03 remaining.

The visitors managed to battle back and even the game for the final time at 33-33 with 3:27 after Ndugba hit a trey. The Terriers went on an 11-6 spurt to grab the five-point halftime edge.

St. Francis Brooklyn made 12-of-27 (44.4 percent) 3-pointers and owned a 40-32 advantage on the boards.

Head Coach Glenn Braica Eighth Season

Glenn Braica was named the 17th head coach in the history of the St. Francis Brooklyn men's basketball program on May 20, 2010 and is already the fifth winningest coach at the school. Under his tutelage, the Terriers have opened some eyes both locally as well as on the national scene.

Braica has recorded a terrific 67-57 mark in league contests.

In 2015-2016, the Terriers went 11-7 in the NEC and tied for second-place in the standings. Three players earned All-NEC honors and Amdy Fall won his second consecutive Defensive Player of the Year Award.

St. Francis Brooklyn tied a school record with 23 victories in 2014-2015 and won their first NEC regular-season crown since the 2003-04 campaign. The Terriers earned a berth in the National Invitation Tournament, the program's first post-season appearance since 1963. Jalen Cannon, one of Braica's first recruits, was named the NEC Player of the Year and was a First Team All Metropolitan Sports Writers Association selection. In addition, Brent Jones earned First Team All-Conference accolades and Amdy Fall was named the NEC's Defensive Player of the Year. It came as no surprise that Braica earned NEC Coach of the Year honors and was the Metropolitan Sports Writers Association's Co-Coach of the Year.

Braica has developed a reputation as one of the good guys in the industry and was named a finalist for the prestigious Skip Prosser "Man of the Year" Award in 2013-2014 and 2014-2015.

On the court, Braica's student-athletes exude the same intensity as their leader does on the sidelines and it's easy to tell why recruits sign up to play for him. A born-and-raised Brooklynite, Braica has spent his entire career in New York City, which began after his playing days at Queens College. He was an assistant at St. Francis Brooklyn for 15 years before a stint at St. John's, returning in 2010 as the program's head coach. That experience has helped Braica navigate through a crowded recruiting scene to thrust the Terriers back in contention to win an NEC championship each season. The current roster includes six players who hail from New York City.

"The New York guys have been good to us," Braica said. "It's a lot of long-standing relationships, coaches I know and like and they trust us with their kids. "We never used to tell people 'We're from Brooklyn,' Braica admitted. "But now we advertise it because it's really the place to be."

The Pope Center was the place to be for perhaps the most exciting week in school history in March of 2015. Playing in front of sold out and boisterous crowds, the Terriers hosted three NEC Tournament contests, including the championship tilt in front of a national ESPN 2 audience.

"Although we came up just a bit short of qualifying for the NCAA Tournament, we still had a phenomenal year and excited our students, alumni and the local community," said Braica. "The effort was there the entire season and I'm happy that they were rewarded with post-season play. It was a huge accomplishment and one that they can be proud of."

The prior season in 2013-14, the Terriers shocked the country by defeating the Miami Hurricanes in Coral Gables. In the process, Coach Braica and his staff delivered the program's first victory against an Atlantic Coast Conference team.

"This is one of the biggest wins, if not the biggest in the history of our school," Braica told the media during his press conference. "They are the defending ACC champs and are such a great program. I was particularly impressed that our guys had enough left at the end to pull this out after Miami had tied it up to force overtime. To have that kind of mental discipline is not easy so it's a credit to our guys that they were able to hang in there and win the game."

After another impressive victory at Florida Atlantic, Braica's group again had the college basketball world on the edge of their seats just ten days later as they carried the lead against national power Syracuse until the final minute in the Carrier Dome. Despite the heartbreaking defeat, the Terriers bounced back quickly and went on to tie a Northeast Conference record with nine victories during their non-conference slate. A last second triumph at America East regular-season champion Stony Brook was yet another statement victory for the program.

St. Francis Director of Athletics Irma Garcia was on the money when she introduced Braica to the campus and media for the first time in 2010 saying, "With Glenn we get a true Brooklynite; someone who has spent his entire career making connections within the New York City basketball community. He's someone who cares about his student-athletes not just when they play for him, but years later. He is their mentor for life."

It didn't take long for Braica to get the program back on track. In his first season on the sidelines in 2010-2011, Braica led the Terriers to a 15-15 campaign and the No. 5 seed in the Northeast Conference Tournament. It was the program's best record since the 2003-04 season when St. Francis finished 15-13 and won a share of the NEC regular-season title. Under Braica, the Terriers increased their scoring by more than six points per game from the previous season and were one of the best teams in the country in taking care of the basketball, averaging a conference-low 13.3 turnovers per game. The team also led the NEC with 7.80 steals per game.

In 2011-2012, St. Francis hosted their first home conference tournament game since 1997 after placing fourth in the league standings. Braica's focus on strong defense certainly paid off. That season his squad was one of the best in the nation at guarding the three-point line. The Terriers ranked second in the NEC and 17th in the country in defensive three-point field goal percentage. Braica was rewarded by being named the Jim Phelan NEC Coach of the Year as well as the NABC Division I District 18 Co-Coach of the Year.

In his first stint at St. Francis, Braica was with the Terriers for 15 years and was the Associate Head Coach from the 2000-01 season to 2003-04 under his current assistant coach Ron Ganulin.

During Braica's last seven years at St. Francis, the Terriers posted a 118-83 record, including an 88-42 mark in the NEC and captured two regular season titles. They finished with a .500 or better record in the league seven-straight years, at that time the longest active streak in the conference. They also reached the NEC Semifinals five times and had two championship game appearances in Braica's last five seasons. Braica helped Ganulin orchestrate the Terriers' offensive system, which ranked first or second in the NEC in each of the last five seasons he was on staff. During his tenure the squad emerged from the league's lower tier and went on to become one of the conference's marquee programs.

The Terriers are 73-61 in NEC contests over the past seven seasons under Braica.

From 1998-2004, the Terriers had one player named the league's Player of the Year, six first-team All-NEC selections, five second-team All-NEC honorees, two players that led the league in scoring, two NEC Rookies of the Year and a NEC Defensive Player of the Year. Braica recruited and coached several student-athletes that would go on to pro basketball careers during his time with the Terriers.

Following his first span at the college, Braica spent six seasons as an assistant at St. John's under Norm Roberts. When Roberts became head coach at St. John's, Braica, a teammate at Queens College, was his first hire.

Glenn is a proven recruiter, scout and strategist, and was instrumental in helping St. John's rebuild its program," said Roberts. "I truly believe that Glenn has the whole package. He brings experience, tremendous coaching ability as well as the personality and demeanor to promote and elevate St. Francis College to the top of the Northeast Conference."

Braica was also praised by Roberts for his ability to reach out to the community and Red Storm alumni, bringing former players back into the fold. He was also one of the co-directors of the Norm Roberts basketball camp, helping to increase enrollment from 75 campers in 2004 to 260 kids per session in 2009.

While at St. John's, Braica recruited and helped develop First Team All-Big East guard Dwight Hardy, Sixth Man of the Year Justin Burrell as well as D.J. Kennedy and Cedric Jackson, who both played in the NBA for the Cleveland Cavaliers.

From 2001-03, Braica was the head coach for the Empire State Games New York City men's open team, which won gold medals in 2001 and 2002, as well as a silver medal in 2003. The teams included former Terriers Cliff Strong, Sean Dantzler, Damien Herard, Devon Neckles, Karl Sanders, and Tristan Smith as well as current NBA player Royal Ivey. Braica has also coached numerous players that participated in the NBA Summer League, including Dwight Hardy (Miami Heat), Justin Burrell (Golden State Warriors), D.J. Kennedy (Cleveland Cavaliers), Paris Horne (Charlotte Hornets), and Justin Brownlee (NY Knicks & Charlotte Hornets).

Since taking over as the Terriers' head coach, a large number of Braica's student-athletes have gone on to sign professional contracts on the international circuit. Akeem Bennett '11, Ricky Cadell '11, Alex Harrinton '11, Stefan Perunicic '12, Akeem Johnson '13, Alexandar Isailovic '14, Ben Mockford '14, Kevin Douglas '15, Jalen Cannon '15, Lowell Ulmer '15, Chris Hooper '16 have all enjoyed success overseas.

Braica attended St. Agnes High School and Bishop Ford High School in Brooklyn in the early 1980s and graduated from Queens College in 1989. Braica began his coaching career at New York City Tech as an assistant in 1988. He also served as a teacher at The Reece School and in the New York City Board of Education from 1989-1994.
