DOWN LIVINGSTON, TO THE LEFT

Following a career evening from freshman guard Nevena Dimitrijevic, St. Francis College Brooklyn returns to their region, and find themselves visiting the Sharks of Long Island University on Saturday afternoon. Both teams are currently looking to shave off negative demons, that have them staring at losing streaks extending to three and four respectively. The Terriers have taken down LIU in their previous four-of-five meetings dating back to the John Thurston era. Current St. Francis head coach Linda Gimino is 3-0 against LIU, including a televised game on Remsen Street, where her team took down Rene Haynes' squad by double-digit points. The Terriers are looking for their second road victory of the season. First one came back in December inside the SFCU Arena in our state's capital by a score of 49-41. Long Island University is looking for their first victory inside the Steinberg Wellness Center since Saint Francis University on January 27, 71-53 as the score.

BATTLE OF BROOKLYN

THE HISTORY BETWEEN RIVALS

During the 1993-1994 season, St. Francis College and LIU Brooklyn contested the first official “Battle of Brooklyn” in women’s basketball. The annual game is dedicated to all women who have played collegiate basketball.

The Battle of Brooklyn has been a tradition between the two schools in men’s basketball for 31 years. The annual game is dedicated in tribute of women’s basketball. Each year, a Most Valuable Player trophy is awarded at the conclusion of the contest. The 26th annual “Battle of Brooklyn” trophy remained on Remsen Street, as the Terriers defeated the Blackbirds 79-67 at the Steinberg Athletic Wellness Center.

Three returners for the Terriers in Jade Johnson, Abby Anderson, and Ally Lassen will be the lone trio to have played against the then-LIU Blackbirds, and have competed in the historic rivalry.

In the previous two seasons combined, the Australian native has registered 56 points during the Battle of Brooklyn contests, that would eventually land her a pair of MVP trophies. During the 2018-19 battle on Tillary Street, Johnson would break the program’s three-point record by netting 8 in the game. She would surpass Sarah Benedetti, who originally held the record with seven till January 21.

Beginning in the 2019-20 season, the LIU Blackbirds will now compete as the Long Island University Sharks. Following the 2018-19 season, Long Island University Post and Brooklyn officially merged to become “One LIU”. Among the changes include the team name, mascot, and uniforms. The Rivalry will continue to grow.

POSTSEASON

WBI - 1-1 (2017-18)

Linda Cimino was named the 13th head women's basketball coach in program history by Director of Athletics Irma Garcia on May 21, 2018.

Cimino enters her second season at the helm of St. Francis Brooklyn. During Cimino's first season on Remsen Street, she led the Terriers to a historic finish with 18 total victories including 12 in NEC play, which are a program record. Cimino guided the Terriers to the No. 3 seed in the 2019 NEC Tournament and hosted Mount St. Mary's in the NEC Quarterfinals.

While in Brooklyn Heights, Cimino coached one of the conference's greats in Australian point guard Amy O'Neill. She would go on to achieve a plethora of accolades that included being named an NCAA Stat Champion in Assists Per Game, All-Metropolitan Basketball Writers Association Second Team honoree, and All-NEC First Team selection under Cimino. O'Neill became the first Terrier in program history to record a triple-double, and she accomplished the feat twice during her senior season.

The Terriers set a number of team records in 2018-19, which included most points on offense in a single-season (2,329), and most free-throws made (456). She also coached Jade Johnson, who is the returning leading scorer in the NEC. During Cimino's first season in Brooklyn Heights, Johnson tallied a career-high 598 points during her junior campaign, and set the record for most points in a single-season.

Prior to being named the Terriers' 13th head coach, Cimino spent four seasons as Binghamton's head coach in the America East. Cimino's positive energy and relentless work ethic changed the culture at Binghamton University over her four seasons, both on and off the court. Known for her passion and enthusiasm, Cimino considers player development, strong recruiting and building relationships key ingredients in constructing a winner. Her leadership style reignited a sense of energy and pride at Binghamton.

From 2015-18, at Binghamton, the Bearcats averaged 15+ wins and played at or above .500 in conference play each year. In 2017-18, the Bearcats received a bid to the Women's Basketball Invitational (WBI), marking the first time that the program reached a national postseason tournament since Binghamton moved up to NCAA Division I prior to the 2001-02 season. Playing in its first-ever Division I national postseason game, Binghamton won, 70-59, at Youngstown State in the opening round of the WBI. It was a historic win for the Bearcats in more ways than one. Binghamton finished with 20 wins for the first time since the 2000-01 season, the year before it moved up to the NCAA Division I level. Binghamton also boasted the America East Player of the Year, Imani Watkins, who set the program's all-time scoring record. Watkins was also named to the All-America East First Team and finished up her career with 2,125 points. Alyssa Ewing James was an anchor for Cimino on the defensive end of the floor. James joined the 1,000-point and 1,000-rebound club in 2017-18 and set the America East and Binghamton blocks record for a career with 270. James also became just the second three-time America East Defensive Player of the Year in conference history.

In 2017-18, Binghamton was included among the top 50 teams in the nation in several categories. As a team, Binghamton was ranked ninth in the nation with 5.9 blocks per game. It was also 24th in field goal percentage defense (.362), 34th in scoring defense (57.4 ppg.), and 47th in steals (9.9 spg.).

COACHING STAFF

Peers have taken notice of Cimino as she was named the 2016 America East Coach of the Year. Binghamton was picked to finish last in the America East Conference in 2015-16, but under Cimino's guidance, it finished in a three-way tie for third place. The Bearcats won their most games (14) and most conference games (eight) since the 2010-11 season, putting Binghamton amongst the most improved teams in the NCAA. At the America East Tournament, Binghamton advanced to the conference semifinals for the first time since 2011.

As a coach who focuses on player development, Cimino takes great pride in working with her players to reach their full potential. Most notably, Kim Albrecht had two breakout seasons under Cimino's guidance, capping her career as a NCAA statistical champion in which she led the country in free throw percentage (91.4). This was the first statistical champion in Binghamton basketball history.

Her first year with the Bearcats saw a program best two players named to the America East All-Rookie Team, including the America East Rookie of the Year. The team's ability to shoot the ball significantly improved under her guidance as the team finished first in the America East in free-throw percentage (.720) after finishing last the season prior to her arrival. The team also finished third in the conference in three-point field goal percentage after finishing sixth the previous season.

Cimino arrived at Binghamton after a successful eight-year run as the head coach at Caldwell University. Her strong ability to connect with and motivate her players played a significant role in her rebuilding the Cougars' program. She is the program's all-time leader in wins with a 128-100 (.561) overall record. This includes a 90-52 (.633) mark in her final five years at the helm, averaging 18 wins a season after Caldwell went 39-71 in the four years prior to her tenure. In only her second year with Caldwell, her team was recognized as one of the most improved teams in the country.

In 2010-11, Cimino led the Cougars to their most successful season in the program's history. She guided the program to the most wins in their history (21), broke the mark for win percentage (.778), made the program's first appearance in the national rankings and won the Central Athletic Collegiate Conference (CACC) Regular Season Championship.

In addition to the 2010-11 championship, Caldwell shared the CACC title in 2012-13 while also going 15-4 in conference play and rattling off a school record 15 consecutive wins. In both 2012-13 and 2013-14, Caldwell advanced to the CACC Tournament championship game. Furthermore, Caldwell earned a bid to the ECAC Division II Tournament twice during her career.

Cimino was able to attract high caliber student-athletes to Caldwell that paid off for both her team and the student-athletes. She recruited and coached three CACC and two ECAC Rookie of the Year players, as well as two CACC Players of the Year and two Division II All-Americans. Under Cimino's watch, Caldwell was just as successful in the classroom. Thirteen different players were selected to the CACC's All-Academic Team, and during the 2013-14 season, the overall team GPA was a 3.4.

Away from the court, Cimino has had an equally impactful career as an athletics administrator. In addition to her success as Caldwell's head coach, Cimino was the Associate Director of Athletics and Senior Woman Administrator all eight years. She oversaw facilities, game-day operations and scheduling for all Caldwell programs, in addition to serving as the sport administrator for all of the women's teams. Cimino was also heavily involved in Caldwell's Cougar Pride Booster Club, oversaw the Student Athlete Advisory Club (SAAC) and coordinated the athletic department's community outreach program. In 2011, she was selected to participate in the NCAA's Women and Minorities Mentor Program.

Among her committee work, she was appointed the Chair of the NCAA Women's Basketball Rules Committee prior to the 2018-19 season. She has served on the NCAA Women's Basketball Regional Advisory Committee (East Region), in which she was also a NCAA site representative for two regional tournaments. She also served on the NCAA Division II USA Today Coaches Poll Committee and WBCA National Coach of the Year Award Committee. At Binghamton, Cimino was selected to take part in the pilot WBCA Mentoring Program.

Prior to arriving at Caldwell, Cimino was a health education teacher in the Bellmore-Merrick Central High School District for five years. During that span she was as an assistant coach at her alma mater, Adelphi University after previously serving as the head girls' varsity basketball coach at Calhoun High School for three seasons. She began her college coaching career at the age of 22 as the head coach at Queensborough Community College, where she led the team to the CUNY championship game in 2002.

A member of Adelphi's basketball program from 1997-00. She graduated from Adelphi in 2001 with a Bachelor's degree in Health and Physical Education and her Master's degree in Health Education from Adelphi in 2004. A native of Lincoln, RI, Cimino was All-State in both basketball and softball at North Smithfield High School.

LAST TIME OUT FOR BOTH

GAME #23- St. Francis College Brooklyn @ Bryant - 2/10/20

SMITHFIELD, RI— The St. Francis College Brooklyn women's basketball team (6-17, 2-10) fell to the Bulldogs of Bryant University (7-15, 5-6) by a score of 67-62 from the Chace Athletic Center on Monday evening.

Trading a pair of shots that were both unsuccessful, the first basket would come off a left-handed lay-up from junior forward Ally Lassen three minutes into the contest. Four straight points off the finger-tips of freshman guard Nevena Dimitrijevic. A 7-0 run would commence from Mary Burke's Bulldogs to give Bryant a four-point lead into the second stanza, and wouldn't look back.

Ensuring that a comeback could be obtained were a trio of Terriers in Jordan, junior forward Abby Anderson, and the aforementioned Dimitrijevic. The Serbian native would tie the game at 25 off a three-pointer made from distance on the wing, before Bryant's Gallagher would do the same on the other end to force a timeout. Tying the game at 31, would be Anderson who made a lay-up before preseason All-NEC selection, Sydney Holloway tallied her 10th point in the low post to give her squad a three-point lead heading into the locker room.

Earning double-digit points in the third stanza, Dimitrijevic would tally 10 points in as many minutes, when she would string off six consecutive points in the frame, and narrow the opposition's team lead down to just seven. The Serbian native would record 25 points, and match her career high.

The final frame would show Dimitrijevic register the teams' three only field-goals by adding six more points, and adding to her new career-high with 31 on the night. Anderson would tally three-points off three conversions from the free-throw line. The Terriers converted 22-of-56 from the field, and added 13-of-20 from the charity stripe.

LAST TIME OUT VS. LIU

GAME #14- Long Island University @ St. Francis College Brooklyn - 1/08/20

BROOKLYN HEIGHTS, NY - The St. Francis College Brooklyn women's basketball team (5-8, 1-1) take down the Sharks of Long Island University (1-12, 0-2) by a score of 88-63 in the 27th Annual Battle of Brooklyn, on Wednesday evening from inside the Pope Physical Education Center. The contest was shown on television's SNY in the New York market.

Coming off a trio of underwhelming performances from the Terriers, head coach Linda Gimino would shake up her lineup with the additions of freshman guard Caylin Richardson and junior forward Abby Anderson. Needing the spark that would ignite the team, came to fruition as the Scranton, PA native tallied the team's first four points. Down the stretch, St. Francis College would extend their lead to seven with an Alyssa Fisher three off the bench to force LIU to call timeout.

Bench players came to life this evening, as redshirt junior guard Melody Van Ness tallied a pair of triples to give her team a 13-point lead, and go on a 13-0 run in a span of just three minutes. Concluding the half on a 6-0 run off the heels of senior guard Jade Johnson, who single handedly gave her team a 48-34 advantage with a pair of triples, from her point guard, Dimitrijevic.

The aforementioned freshman guard in Nevena Dimitrijevic would begin to open eyes wider and wider as the evening went on, as the Serbian native finished the contest just one rebound away from joining prestigious company, set by her predecessor Amy O'Neill just a season ago, against the then-LIU Brooklyn Blackbirds.

Categorically, the Terriers would be victorious in the battle for the paint, where St. Francis College tallied 28 points. Earned 24 fast break points, compared to seven, and contributed a season high 30 points off the bench.

The Most Valuable Player trophy was awarded to Linda Gimino's "floor-general" in Dimitrijevic, where the trophy has remained on Remsen Street for the previous four years. The Serbian native does take over as the MVP from her current teammate Jade Johnson, who was the recipient of the respective award in each of the last two Battle of Brooklyn contests. St. Francis College also improves to 14-13 all-time in the battle.

HOW IT HAPPENED:

•Senior guard Jade Johnson notched 25 points on the scoresheet, grabbed nine rebounds, and converted five-of-six from three-point range in 33 minutes on the hardwood.

•Freshman guard Nevena Dimitrijevic tallied 14 points, assisted on 15 baskets, and grabbed nine rebounds. The Serbian native was one grab away from the program's third triple-double in history. Dimitrijevic converted four-of-10 from the field, and added five-of-six possible points from the charity stripe.

•Junior forward Ally Lassen recorded 13 points, grabbed five rebounds, assisted on one basket, and added five of a possible seven from the free-throw line in 25 minutes on the court.

•Redshirt junior guard Melody Van Ness tallied a career-high 16 points, and added one steal in 19 minutes of game-action. The New Jersey native converted a career-high six-of-seven field-goals.

•Freshman guard Alyssa Fisher recorded 10 points, grabbed three rebounds, and sank home four-of-four from the free-throw line in 19 minutes.
