Daniel J. Lynch '38

4

Daniel J. Lynch is one of the most prolific figures in the history of St. Francis College Athletics. His athletic success and coaching prowess elevated the Terriers men's basketball program to national prominence in the 1950's and continued his leadership as the program's athletic director. St. Francis College Athletics will honor Lynch's legacy from this day forward by retiring his number four to recognize his contributions to the program.

Lynch was the Terriers' captain during his playing days. He was the leading scorer in all four seasons of his career and was twice selected to the Metropolitan Basketball Writers Association All-Metro Team.

He returned to his alma mater to coach the Terrier men's basketball team in 1948; winning a program-record 278 games during his 21 seasons at the helm. His 1956 team, which won 18 straight games, was nationally ranked. In all, 11 of his teams were selected for postseason tournaments.

Under Lynch, the Terriers were the first New York City team to have a televised game. St. Francis defeated Seton Hall on PIX 11 during his first season. From 1948 to 1952, the Terriers participated in 4 National Catholic Invitational Tournaments (NCIT). The Terriers went to the NCIT finals three consecutive times, with the 1950-51 squad defeating the Seattle University 93-79 in the Championship game.

The Terriers continued to find success under Lynch as they moved to compete on a national platform, making the National Invitational Tournament three straight seasons (1954-56), culminating with a ranking in the Associated Press poll and his 1956 team reaching the NIT semifinal. St. Francis was invited to the Tournament again in 1963, one of his final seasons on the bench for the Terriers.

After a successful coaching career, Lynch was appointed the College's Athletic Director in 1964, a post he held for eleven years. With his leadership, St. Francis continued to build a legacy of hard-working student-athletes from Brooklyn and beyond and cementing the Terriers as cornerstones of the Brooklyn Heights community.

JOIN US IN THE GENOVESI CENTER FOLLOWING THE COMPLETION OF OUR MEN'S BASKETBALL CONTEST AGAINST SAINT PETER'S FOR THE "LEGENDS OF REMSEN STREET" RECEPTION AS WE RETIRE DANIEL LYNCH'S #4 JERSEY AND REMEMBER THE FOUNDATIONS OF ST. FRANCIS COLLEGE ATHLETICS OVER THE PAST 51 YEARS.
