NOTES YOU NEED TO KNOW

- Seton Hall makes its first ever trip to the Little Apple to face Kansas State on Saturday afternoon.
- The only meeting between the Pirates and Wildcats came 85 years ago, when Seton Hall earned a 34-29 win over K-State on Dec. 30, 1940.
- That win over Kansas State was in the midst of the Pirates' program-record 41-game winning streak, which spanned parts of three seasons from 1939-41.
- The Pirates are seeking their first win over a Big 12 foe since downing Texas, 64-60, on Dec. 7, 2021.
- The Longhorns were ranked No. 7 in that game, which served as Seton Hall's last non-conference ranked win before it defeated No. 23 NC State at last week's Southwest Maui Invitational.
- Budd Clark secured his first double-double of the season on Wednesday, dishing out a career-high matching 12 assists to pair with 10 points.
- Five different Pirates made multiple three-pointers in Wednesday's win, a first since Feb. 14, 2012 against St. John's.
- The Pirates had a strong trip to the Valley Isle, going 2-1 to capture third place at the Maui Invitational.
- AJ Staton-McCray was named BIG EAST Player of the Week on Monday for his efforts in Hawaii, averaging 19.7 ppg en route to earning All-Tournament Team honors.
- Wednesday's win over Central Connecticut State gave Seton Hall its first 8-1 start since 2021-22 (started 9-1).
- Elijah Fisher surpassed the 1,000 point mark for his career last Tuesday against USC.
- The Pirates have scored at least 68 points in their first nine games for the first time since 2019-20.
- Seton Hall has had at least three double-digit scorers in all seven games so far this season.
- The victory over the Wolfpack on Monday snapped The Hall's seven-game losing streak against ranked opponents.
- The 11-point margin was Seton Hall's largest victory over an AP Top 25 non-conference foe since defeating No. 23 Virginia, 74-60, on Nov. 23, 2007.

- The Pirates' six-game winning streak was their longest under Shaheen Holloway. The last time The Hall won six straight was Feb. 19-March 9, 2022.
- Seton Hall boasts the 8th-best scoring defense in the country (61.3) and is fourth in blocks per game (6.8).
- Six different Pirates scored in double figures against NC State, a first for the team since Dec. 1, 2021 against Wagner.
- Freshman Najai Hines has been the leader in rim protection so far this season for The Hall, as his 2.3 blocks per game sits 21st in the nation and second in the BIG EAST.
- Fellow frontcourt mate Stephon Payne ranks fourth in the conference with 1.56 blocks per game.
- Hines swatted seven shots in Seton Hall's 70-58 win over Monmouth, the most blocks by a Pirate since Ike Obiagu (7) on March 9, 2022.
- Hines recorded his first career double-double against Fairfield, finishing with 10 points and 10 rebounds.
- Hines' double-double came in his third career game, the fastest Pirate freshman to do so since Angel Delgado in 2014 (also his third game).
- Elijah Fisher led all scorers with 21 points on an efficient 8-of-14 shooting from the floor in the win over Wagner on Nov. 7.
- Seton Hall played five consecutive home games to open the season for the first time since 1981-82.
- Seton Hall welcomes in 11 newcomers to the program to join a group of four returnees, highlighted by sophomores Godswill Erheriene and Jahseem Felton.
- Of those 11 newcomers, 10 players transfer into the program.
- Last season was an outlier in terms of Holloway's performances in conference play, finishing below .500 in league games for just the second time in seven seasons as a head coach.
- Holloway's first two seasons at Seton Hall were the winningest in program history in terms of both overall and BIG EAST wins.

NEW KIDS ON THE BLOCK

- Plenty of fresh faces will adorn the court at Prudential Center this season as 11 newcomers, 10 of whom are transfers, join the squad this season.
- The 10 transfers on the roster rank The Hall tied for eighth in the nation.
- Despite being new to Seton Hall, these transfers bring a wealth of experience and success to the roster.
- Four transfers have scored at least 900 points in their careers (Clark, Fisher, Rivera, Staton-McCray).
- Four players enter the program coming off double digit scoring averages a season ago (Clark, Fisher, Rivera, Simpkins).
- Seven transfers have started at least 20 games in their career, with four having started in at least 60 games prior to this season (Clark, Fisher, Payne, Staton-McCray).

EXCEEDING EXPECTATIONS

- The Pirates have traditionally been underrated by the BIG EAST coaches when it comes to the preseason poll.
- In the 45 previous preseason polls, Seton Hall has finished higher than its predicted finish 22 times.
- The Pirates have met their preseason prediction 12 times (28%) and have finished below their preseason prediction just three times since the league reconfigured in 2013-14.

YOU'VE GOT A "BUDD" IN ME

- Merrimack transfer Adam “Budd” Clark figures to be a key cog in Seton Hall’s machine this season.
- The Philly guard proved to be one of the best mid-major players in the nation during his two seasons at Merrimack, winning NEC Rookie of the Year honors in 2023-24 and a unanimous All-MAAC First Team selection last season.
- Clark’s 19.8 ppg last year ranked him 23rd in the nation.
- The junior put up big numbers against some notable foes, including a 32-point effort at Stanford and a 22 point night at Rutgers.

BIG JAH STAYS IN JERSEY

- Plainfield native Najai Hines announced his commitment to Seton Hall in late July.
- The four-star recruit revealed his decision on the heels of a dominant performance at Peach Jam, where he averaged 13.1 points and 9.8 rebounds while playing for NY Renz.
- According to 247Sports, Hines (#71) is the third-highest ranked recruit to land with the Pirates, sitting behind Isaiah Whitehead (#10) and Angel Delgado (#43).

- Hines posted a dominant senior season at Plainfield High School, averaging 18.6 points and 16.9 rebounds last year.

THE GRIZZLED VET

- Graduate Student AJ Staton-McCray brings the most experience to the table as a transfer.
- Staton-McCray's 124 career games played are tops on the team.
- Staton-McCray spent last season back in his home state of Florida where he played for Miami.
- Prior to that, he spent four years at Samford, reaching the NCAA Tournament with the Bulldogs in the 2023-24 season.
- At the end of Samford's NCAA Tournament game against Kansas in 2024, Staton-McCray made the memorable chasedown block that was controversially ruled a foul in the final minute.

NOT HIS FIRST GO AROUND

- Senior transfer Elijah Fisher finds himself back in the BIG EAST Conference after transferring to Seton Hall this offseason.
- The Toronto, Ontario native spent one season in the league during his career, playing with DePaul during the 2023-24 season.
- Fisher was second on the Blue Demons with 10.2 ppg and shot an efficient 52 percent from the floor that season.
- This is Fisher's fourth stop of his collegiate career, playing his freshman year at Texas Tech and spending last season at Pacific, where he averaged a team-best 15.7 ppg.

UP NEXT: GARDEN STATE HARDWOOD CLASSIC

- After a week off, the Pirates return to Prudential Center on Dec. 13 at 8 p.m. to host Rutgers in the annual Garden State Hardwood Classic.
- The in-state rivals have met since 1916, however this year will be the 11th installment under the Garden State Hardwood Classic name.
- The teams will battle for the Boardwalk Trophy, a 32-pound trophy in the shape of the state of New Jersey and made out of recycled Asbury Park boardwalk planks which were recovered after Superstorm Sandy.
- The Pirates lead the all-time series against Rutgers, 42-33, and have won six of 10 matchups since 2014.

Desire. Dedication. Discipline.

The Three D's are the foundation of head coach Shaheen Holloway's program and they are the words that he has lived by on and off the basketball court. It's a foundation that is centered around winning, personal and athletic development, and a commitment to Seton Hall basketball.

When Holloway, a former associate head coach and standout student-athlete at Seton Hall, was named the new head men's basketball coach at his alma mater on March 30, 2022, he stated this was an opportunity that he couldn't mess up because "it's way too important to me." He bleeds Pirate Blue and, with The Three D's as the bedrock, he will look to build on a solid first season at the helm of his alma mater.

Holloway led Seton Hall to a 25-win season and the 2024 National Invitation Tournament championship in his second season at the helm in South Orange. The Pirates' 25 victories was tied for the fourth-most in school history and their most wins in a single season since 2015-16. Despite being picked to finish ninth out of 11 teams in the BIG EAST's preseason coaches poll, Holloway led The Hall to a 13-7 mark in conference play and a fourth-place finish in the league standings. The 13 BIG EAST victories, tied for the second-most in program history with the 2019-20 Pirates, were highlighted by a 15-point win over eventual national champion UConn on Dec. 20, 75-60, and a 78-75 win over seventh-ranked Marquette on Jan. 6. Both wins came at Prudential Center where the Pirates won 13 games in 2023-24, which tied the 2017-18 campaign for the most wins in the building's history.

Holloway's first campaign was the best in the history of Seton Hall men's basketball for a first-year head coach. Holloway set program records for most wins (17), BIG EAST victories (10) and road wins (6) for a first-year head coach in school history. He was also the first Seton Hall head coach to lead the Pirates to a postseason berth in his first season since Tommy Amaker in 1997-98. Despite starting 0-3 in BIG EAST play, Holloway took a group of four returners and five newcomers and guided The Hall to a .500 record in league play for the eighth consecutive season.

The Pirates bought in to Holloway's philosophy on the defensive end of the floor in year one as they finished second in the BIG EAST and in the top 70 nationally in scoring defense (65.1 ppg), field goal percentage defense (41.5 percent), three-point field goal percentage defense (31.8 percent) and steals (8.2 steals per game). Seton Hall finished 20th in KenPom's adjusted defensive efficiency ranking.

As is always the case with Holloway's teams, the Pirates excelled in the classroom in 2022-23. The Hall earned the NABC Team Academic Excellence Award, one of only two BIG EAST teams to earn the honor in 2023, and a program-best six Pirates were named to the NABC Honors Court for posting a cumulative GPA above 3.2.

Holloway returned to South Orange after leading Saint Peter's on a miraculous run to the Elite Eight at the 2022 NCAA Tournament. The 2020 MAAC Coach of the Year, Holloway led the Peacocks to the 2022 MAAC Tournament title and three straight campaigns with 10-plus victories in conference play.

Holloway's teams in Jersey City played with a toughness and intensity that mirrored the way he played the game at The Hall, where he holds the program record with 681 career assists and was inducted into the Seton Hall Athletics Hall of Fame in 2012. He's the first Seton Hall graduate to lead the men's basketball program since all-time great Richie Regan '53 led the Pirates from 1960-70.

Holloway led Saint Peter's to a run of three consecutive top-three finishes in the MAAC from 2020-22, a first for the program since the school's first three seasons in the conference in the early 1980s. Under Holloway's tutelage, Saint Peter's produced five All-MAAC selections, the NCAA Division I leader in blocked shots, the MAAC Defensive Player of the Year, and 10 student-athletes that were named to the MAAC All-Academic Team.
