Siena '01

Second Season

26-10 (.722)

Siena Basketball alumnus is 18th head coach in program history

42-year-old native of nearby Clifton Park led Siena to program's first MAAC Championship in a decade in just his first season at the helm last winter

Only one of 61 new Division I coaching hires in 2019-20 to lead his team to an outright conference championship

Named one of the "Top-12 Most Immediately Successful Hires of the 2019-20 Season" by CBS Sports' Matt Norlander

Led Siena to season-ending 10-game winning streak to cap 2019-20, and a perfect 14-0 mark at the Times Union Center

Developed three All-MAAC selections in first season leading the program, including MAAC Player of the Year Jalen Pickett

Former Siena Basketball Director of Basketball Operations (2005-06), returned to program as an assistant coach in 2018-19 prior to promotion

Graduated cum laude from Siena in 2001, while helping guide the Saints to 20 wins and a share of the MAAC Regular Season Championship during his senior season, after having sat out the previous year per NCAA transfer regulations following his matriculation from the University of New Hampshire

Spent 11 seasons as a Division I assistant coach, which has included stops at Siena (2018-19), George Washington (2014-18), Boston University (2011-14), and Fairfield (2008-11)

As an assistant coach, teams made seven national postseason tournament appearances while averaging 20.5 wins and a .624 winning percentage, and has also helped guide his programs to a 124-70 (.639) conference mark and, including his time as an undergraduate at Siena, has won a conference regular season or postseason title at each school

2012 Capital District Basketball Hall of Fame inductee

1996 Albany Times Union Player of the Year at Shenendehowa High School

Married to wife, Laura, and has a three-year-old daughter, Reese (turns four Mar. 17), and a newborn son, Matteo (born May 12)

QUICK HITS

Siena looks to establish a new program record winning streak this weekend

The Saints enter the series with Saint Peter's having won 16 straight, matching the record Siena established a program benchmark with 16 straight wins from Feb. 25 - Dec. 28, 1950

The Saints broke the program's Division I record for consecutive wins Saturday at Rider

Siena holds the nation's third longest active win streak through Wednesday, trailing only Winthrop (20) and Gonzaga (18)

The Peacocks were the last team to defeat the Saints - 85-80 last Feb. 2 in Jersey City - and are the only team to have beaten Siena in the past year (19-1)

Freshman Bennett Kwiecinski and his twin brother, Jordan, who plays for Drake, play for two of the six remaining undefeated teams in the country

The Saints also put a 16-game home win streak on the line this weekend

Siena is tied with NC Central for the eighth longest active home win streak nationally

The Saints' 16-game home win streak is the fifth longest in program history

At 6-0, Siena is off to the program's best start in 35 years, since beginning 9-0 in 1985-86

The Saints are the deepest into a calendar year with an undefeated record intact

The previous program record deepest into a season without a loss was Jan. 15, 1943

The Saints are also off to the program's first 6-0 MAAC start in 11 years (14-0 in 2009-10)

Head coach Carmen Maciariello has raced out to a 26-10 (.722) start to his career

Maciariello is off to the best 36-game head coaching start in program history

Maciariello is off to the tied for third best 36-game head coaching start in MAAC history

Maciariello's 26 wins are tied for the second most of any MAAC coach in their first 36 games, trailing only Fran Frascilla (Manhattan) and Mitch Buonaguro (Fairfield) by one win Siena swept the MAAC Weekly Awards for the second straight week Monday

Most impressively, four different Saints earned their first career honors

Jordan King was named MAAC Player of the Week Monday and Colin Golson, Jr. Rookie

Manny Camper and Aidan Carpenter earned acclaim the previous week

King set new career-highs in scoring in back-to-back games, averaging 21.5 points and 4.5 assists, while shooting 60% (12-20) from the field, including 64% (9-14) from three

Golson, Jr. averaged 10.5 points and 5.5 rebounds while making his collegiate debut, coming off the bench to shoot 56% from the field including an even 50% from three

The Saints are ranked 22nd in the latest College Insider Mid-Major Top-25 Poll

Siena was previously ranked 21st in the organization's preseason Top-25

The Saints had last cracked the Top-25 in the 2016-17 preseason poll (22nd)

Siena was amongst teams also receiving votes in each of last year's final two polls

The Saints have been consistent offensively, scoring between 74-78 points in all six games

Siena ranks 29th nationally in three-point percentage (.387) and 30th in FG% (.488)

Five Saints are averaging in double figures, while eight average 8.8 points or more

The two-headed monster at center of Kyle Young and Jackson Stormo has been lights out

The duo has combined to average 18.1 points and 10.0 rebounds while shooting 70% (43-61) in 36.5 minutes manning the five

Young (.714) and Stormo (.697) rank 1-2 in the MAAC in field goal percentage

Siena set a new program record with their eighth straight road win Saturday at Rider

The Saints broke the previous record of seven straight from Feb. 23, 1985 - Jan. 23, 1986

Siena has won nine of their past 10 road games overall, after having lost nine straight

Junior standout Jalen Pickett became the 45th player in program history to score 1,000 career points in a Jan. 9 win at Fairfield

The reigning MAAC Player of the Year and unanimous MAAC Preseason Player of the Year became the eighth fastest player in program history to score 1,000 points (65 games)

Pickett has been ruled out of the team's past three games (hamstring)

The defending MAAC Champion Saints opened their milestone 80th season Jan. 3

The season-opener marked Siena's first game played in 298 days, since defeating Manhattan in the MAAC Quarterfinals on Mar. 11

The 298-day span between games marked the program's longest since pausing play from 1943-46 due to World War II

The Saints endured three separate pauses following multiple positive COVID-19 test results stemming from the program's Tier 1 personnel (Nov. 13, Dec. 8, Dec. 18)

From Nov. 12 to their season opener Jan. 3 (52 days), Siena had a total of just 11 days of full team activities

Prior to Nov. 12, the Saints had gone unscathed since the start of the coronavirus pandemic

When Siena debuted Jan. 3, they were the second-to-last Division I team which had planned to start their season on-time that had yet to play (Merrimack)

Jan. 3 marked the latest start to a season-opener in the program's history

The program's previous latest start was Dec. 11, 1954 vs. Buffalo

The Saints opened last season on Nov. 5, marking their earliest-ever start

Siena's back-to-back games vs. Monmouth to open the season marked the first time they had ever played the same team on consecutive days

The last time the Saints had faced the same opponent in consecutive games was when they beat Fresno State three straight in the best-of-three CBI Championship Series in 2014

QUICK HITS

Siena is the unanimous selection to repeat as MAAC Champions

The Saints received all 11 first-place votes and the maximum 121 points

Siena is the MAAC preseason favorite for the first time in 11 years

The Saints won their third straight MAAC Championship the last time they were picked to win the league in 2009-10

Siena is the unanimous MAAC preseason favorite for the first time in 12 years (2008-09)

Pickett is the unanimous MAAC Preseason Player of the Year

Pickett is the first unanimous MAAC Preseason Player of the Year since Justin Robinson of Monmouth in 2016-17

Pickett is MAAC Preseason Player of the Year for the second straight season

Pickett became just the second-ever sophomore in league history to be named the MAAC Player of the Year last season (Lionel Simmons, La Salle: 1987-88)

Pickett was joined as a unanimous selection on the MAAC Preseason First Team by teammate Camper

Camper and Pickett are the first Siena teammates to be named Preseason First Team All-MAAC selections since Brett

Bisping and Ogunyemi in 2016-17.

Camper returns to Siena for his senior season after testing the NBA Draft waters this summer

Pickett has also been named to both the Lute Olson (top Division I player) and Lou Henson Award (top DI mid-major player)

Preseason Watch Lists

Pickett is one of only 11 players on the Olson Award Watch List who doesn't play for a high-major team

Siena welcomes back six letterwinners and two starters from last year's team

The Saints return 51% of their scoring output from last year's team

Pickett and Manny Camper account for 78% of the team's returning scoring

Siena welcomes eight newcomers including four true freshmen to this year's squad

The Saints added four total transfers, including a pair of graduate transfers

Siena's diverse 2020-21 roster features a total of 14 players hailing from nine different states and two foreign countries

The Saints boast the seventh tallest team nationally, with an average height of 78.36 inches

Siena will begin its home slate on campus at the Alumni Recreation Center

The Saints' season-opener Jan. 3 vs. Monmouth marked the program's first regular season game at the ARC in 24 years, spanning a total of 8,720 days since hosting Loyola (MD) on Feb. 18, 1997

Siena's last postseason game at the ARC was a victory over Fresno State to win the CBI Championship on Apr. 5, 2014

The ARC served as the program's exclusive home from 1974-90, and part-time home from 1990-97

The Saints hold a stellar 212-60 (.779) all-time record at the ARC

Siena posted a perfect 14-0 home record last season at the Times Union Center, the program's exclusive home since 1997

The Saints averaged 6,228 fans last season at the Times Union Center

Siena ranked 83rd nationally in average home attendance, cracking the top-100 for the 23rd straight season

The Saints ranked #1 amongst all Northeast mid-major programs in average attendance, and 12th overall nationally amongst mid-majors, and were third overall amongst all of New York's Division I programs

Siena captured the program's eighth MAAC Regular Season Championship (and fourth outright) last season

The Saints were also later awarded the program's sixth MAAC Tournament Championship and seventh NCAA automatic qualifier on Mar. 24, by virtue of being the highest remaining seed following the cancellation of the MAAC Tournament on Mar. 12

The championship was Siena's first in a decade, since completing their MAAC three-peat in 2010

The Saints achieved the program's 21st 20-win season and first in four years

Siena posted a 20-10 overall record, including a 15-5 mark in the MAAC

The Saints won the MAAC Championship after being predicted to finish sixth according to the league's preseason coaches' poll, and only two seasons removed from a tied for last place finish

Siena's 104-spot improvement in the NET rankings from the year prior marked the 15th biggest turnaround nationally

The Saints' ended the season riding the nation's seventh longest active win streak (10), and were one of just 13 Division I teams nationally to go undefeated at home (14-0)

Carmen Maciariello was the only one of the 61 Division I head coaching hires in 2019-20 to win his league's regular season title outright

Maciariello's 20 victories were tied for the most-ever by a first-year Siena coach

Siena boasted three All-MAAC selections for just the fifth time in 31 years

Jalen Pickett was named the MAAC Player of the Year and was joined on the First Team by Manny Camper

Elijah Burns was named a Second Team All-MAAC selection

Pickett and Camper each enjoyed breakout 2019-20 seasons

Pickett was named to the Lou Henson All-America Team, and was an NABC District 1 honoree and USBWA All-District II

Pickett became the first Siena player in 55 years to be named an All-ECAC First Team honoree (Jack Mulvey - 1965)

Pickett became the only player in the last quarter century to average at least 15 points (15.1), six assists (6.0), one block (1.1) and one steal (1.0) per game (according to Heat Check CBB)

Pickett ranked seventh nationally in assist-to-turnover ratio (3.30), 20th in assists, and 21st in minutes (36.9)

Pickett also ranked fourth in the MAAC in scoring, sixth in blocks, and seventh in threes (58)

Over his final 15 games, Pickett averaged 7.7 assists while achieving a 3.97 assist-to-turnover ratio (115/29)

Camper eclipsed his scoring, rebounding, assist, and block totals from his first two seasons combined

Camper was one of just 29 Division I players nationally to average a double-double with 13.7 points and 10.4 rebounds

Camper ranked in the top-50 nationally in defensive rebounding (16th - 7.53), rebounding (22nd), double-doubles (26th - 14), and minutes (47th - 36.1)

Camper also ranked second in the MAAC in rebounding, offensive rebounding (2.83), and defensive rebounding, and 10th in field goal percentage (.480)

Siena led the MAAC in field goal percentage (.459 - 64th nationally), scoring margin (+4.5), scoring offense (72.2), and three-point field goal percentage defense (.318) last season

The Saints ranked in the top-100 nationally in rebound margin (+4.6 - 46th nationally) and three-point field goal percentage (.355 - 67th)

The Saints were 14-1 last season when allowing less than 70 points, and 19-3 when holding the opponent under 50% shooting

Siena was 6-2 in games decided by three points or less last season

The Saints completed the program's first 7-1 February in 13 years, since also going 7-1 in February 2007

Tied for Siena's best Month of February in 29 years, since going 8-1 in 1991

The Saints scored first in 13 straight games from Jan. 17 - Feb. 28

Siena scored on its first possession 11 times during that stretch, and made their first field goal attempt seven times

The Saints posted at least one win on every day of the week last season

Siena was most prolific on Friday's with seven victories, posting a 7-2 record

Siena and the Times Union Center

Siena Basketball achieved the highest average home attendance amongst all 56 Northeast mid-major programs during the 2019-20 season, according to the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Attendance Report. Moreover, the Saints broke the top-100 nationally overall in attendance for the 23rd straight season, ranking 83rd overall out of 350 Division I programs with an average of 6,228 fans per game.

Siena leapfrogged Atlantic 10 foe Rhode Island for top billing in Division I Men's Basketball attendance amongst all Northeast mid-major programs during the 2019-20 season. The Northeast is comprised of nine states according to the United States Census Bureau: Connecticut, Maine, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, and Vermont. Mid-major teams are defined as programs from the 25 conferences which do not comprise "high majors," which are the Power 5 (ACC, Big Ten, Big 12, Pac-12, and SEC), AAC, and Big East.

Siena improved 11 spots in the national average attendance rankings this past winter to finish 83rd overall, marking the program's highest mark in five years dating back to a ranking of 82nd for the 2014-15 season. The Saints have now ranked in the top-100 nationally in attendance for each of the past 23 seasons, coinciding with the program's full-time move downtown beginning in 1997-98. Siena also stood 12th overall nationally in average home attendance amongst all 263 mid-major programs, an improvement of seven spots from the previous season.

The Saints' average attendance of 6,228 during the 2019-20 season at the Times Union Center was the program's highest mark in four years since averaging 6,269 fans in 2015-16, and outranked the NCAA average of 4,601 by more than 26%. Siena saw an increase in average home attendance of 461 spectators from the 2018-19 campaign, as the 7% improvement was the program's highest in 11 years since achieving a 14% increase in 2008-09 from the 2007-08 season. Additionally, the Saints boasted a pair of capacity crowds of 7,146 fans last season against Manhattan (Feb. 16) and in the home finale vs. Niagara (Mar. 4).

Siena ranked third in average home attendance amongst the 22 Division I programs from the state of New York, trailing only national leader Syracuse and other high-major competitor St. John's. However, the Saints outranked 16 high-major programs nationally, including nine Power 5 teams in Boston College, California, Georgia Tech, Miami, Northwestern, Oregon State, Stanford, USC, and Washington State.

The stellar fan support helped propel Siena to a perfect 14-0 record at the Times Union Center last season, as the Saints were one of just 13 Division I teams nationally to go undefeated at home in 2019-20. Siena achieved an unblemished home mark for the third time in 23 seasons since making the full-time move downtown (17-0 in both 2008-09 and 2009-10), and the 14-game win streak in Albany marks the second longest in program history (38 straight between 2008-10). The Saints won by an average of 11.1 points per game at home this past winter, and trailed for a total of just 14:09 over their final seven games at the Times Union Center.

Siena has now drawn more than 2.5 million fans over 394 all-time games at the Times Union Center, dating back to the program's first home contest in the facility during the 1990-91 season. The Saints welcomed their two-millionth fan on Dec. 23, 2014 vs. Cornell, and have drawn crowds in excess of 10,000 on 33 occasions. Siena holds a 262-132 (.665) all-time record at the Times Union Center, including a stellar 247-110 (.692) mark since permanently making the facility its home beginning with the 1997-98 season.

Siena Basketball Class of 2025

Siena Basketball Head Coach Carmen Maciariello has announced the Saints' first official signings for the Class of 2025. Waldorf, Maryland guard Jared Billups and Fort Myers, Florida guard Javian McCollum have both signed and returned their National Letters of Intent during the early signing period, and will enroll at Siena College next fall.

"We are excited to welcome such great young men to our Siena College community who will thrive academically, athletically, and socially," said Maciariello. "We can't wait for Jared and Javian to arrive in Loudonville and don the Green and Gold."

The 6-5, 200-pound Billups stars at the McDonough School, which also produced recent Siena star Evan Fisher '19, and is coached by TJ Jordan who worked alongside current Siena assistant Antoni Wyche when the duo were on staff together at Lehigh. A cousin of five-time NBA All-Star and 2004 NBA Finals MVP Chauncey Billups, he averaged 15.5 points and eight rebounds per game last season. Billups plays his AAU basketball for Team Thrill, under the direction of Donnell "Mookie" Dobbins.

"Jared is a physically ready to play guard who is a triple threat with the basketball," noted Maciariello. "He comes from a fine academic institution, and will be ready to thrive academically in our campus community."

The 6-1, 170-pound McCollum is a two-time The News-Press Player of the Year. Last season, he averaged 20.7 points while leading Fort Myers to the Class 6A Regional Final under head coach Keeth Jones. McCollum, who is averaging 18.5 points, 3.4 rebounds, 3.1 assists, and 2.2 steals for his high school career, plays on the AAU circuit for CP25 coached by Darrin Wallace.

"Javian is a quick, cerebral combo guard who can play with or without the ball, and has a gift for scoring the basketball," explained Maciariello.

The Last Time

Siena scored 100 points in a game: Siena was defeated by Quinnipiac 107-100 in triple overtime on Feb. 17, 2019 at the Times Union Center. It marked the Saints' first 100-point effort in 16 years since a 100-69 win over Saint Peter's on Mar. 1, 2003.
