Players in the Siena Athletic Hall of Fame

Leslie Akeo '13 • Class of 2018

Arguably one of the greatest defensive players in program history, Akeo played for the Saints from 2010-13 and garnered numerous honors throughout her career, including being named the 2012-13 Siena College Female Student Athlete of the Year, the 2012-13 MAAC Nominee for NCAA Woman of the Year, and a 2012 Senior Class Award Candidate. The two-time team captain was the 2011 MAAC Co-Defensive Player of the Year, the 2012 MAAC Libero of the Year, and a First Team All-MAAC selection. A two-time MAAC All-Tournament Team honoree, Akeo is Siena's all-time leader in both digs (2,285) and digs per set (5.12). She ranks inside the top-10 in NCAA Division I history in single-season digs with 788 in 2012, and her average of 6.11 digs per set during the 2012 season ranks as the third-best mark in MAAC single-season history. Her stellar performance that season helped the Saints advance to the 2012 MAAC Championship match.

Donna DeFrancesco '97 • Class of 2010

A two-sport star at Siena, DeFrancesco led both the volleyball and softball programs during her collegiate career. She still ranks among the volleyball program's top-10 ranks in blocks per game (1.34), career blocks (402), and attack percentage (.340), as well as with multiple single-season performances. DeFrancesco was instrumental in Siena Volleyball winning four straight MAAC championships from 1993-96, which led to the program's first-ever NCAA Tournament berth in 1995. The 1996 MAAC Tournament MVP, she earned All-MAAC honors in both of her final two seasons in volleyball. She was also given a pair of GTE/CoSIDA Regional All-Academic Awards in 1995 and 1996, and was selected to the MAAC All-Academic Team. DeFrancesco also had an impressive career on the softball field, serving as the team's starting shortstop. She held a .289 career batting average, and at the time of her graduation, held the single-season program record for assists (123).

Christie Gustafson '07 • Class of 2015

Gustafson played for Siena from 2003-06 and was a key factor in the Saints winning back-to-back MAAC Tournament championships and advancing to the NCAA Tournament in 2005 and 2006. She won back-to-back MAAC Tournament MVP awards in each of those years, was a Second Team All-MAAC selection in 2005, and a First Team honoree in 2006. Gustafson currently sits inside the program's all-time top-10 ranks in kills, kills per set, service aces, points, and points per set.

Nadiege Honore '08 • Class of 2016

Honore played for the Saints from 2004-07 and aided the team in capturing MAAC Tournament championships and NCAA Tournament appearances in each of her final three seasons. She was a First Team All-MAAC selection in 2005, a Second Team honoree in 2007, and the MAAC Tournament MVP in 2007. She still ranks inside the program's career top-10 in kills, kills per set, points, points per set and matches played.

April London '09 • Class of 2014

The top setter in program history, London still holds multiple Siena Volleyball records, including career assists (5356), career assists per set (11.21), career service aces (221), career sets played (478), career matches played (132), single-season assists, single-season assists per set and single-season service aces. A two-time MAAC Setter of the Year (2005 and 2008), she played a major role in the Saints winning the MAAC Championship and advancing to the NCAA Tournament in each of her four seasons on the team. London was also named the 2005 MAAC Rookie of the Year, earned All-MAAC honors in 2006 (Second Team) and 2008 (First Team), was part of two MAAC All-Tournament teams (2005 and 2008), and was tabbed as a CoSIDA District I Academic All-American during her senior year. She was honored as a Second Team selection on the MAAC's 35th Anniversary Fall Sports team in 2016.

Kristin May '97 • Class of 2006

A catalyst on four straight MAAC Championship teams, May compiled 1,464 career kills and 1,165 digs as part of her illustrious career for Siena. The 1993 MAAC Rookie of the Year, she won the conference's Offensive Player of the Year honor the following season, and was a three-time All-MAAC (1993, 1994, 1996) and MAAC All-Tournament Team (1994, 1995, 1996) selection. In 1995, May was recognized as one of just 19 Division I student athletes on the National GTE/CoSIDA Academic All-Academic Team (Third Team) and was also a three-time GTE/CoSIDA Regional selection (1994, 1995, 1996). May led the Saints to the NIVC in 1993, NCAA Play-In Series in 1994, 1995 and 1996, and the program's first-ever NCAA Tournament berth in 1995, following an NCAA Play-In victory over Colgate.

Burgandy McCurty '10 • Class of 2015

Arguably the top attacker in Siena Volleyball history, McCurty used her time at Siena (2006-09) to lead the Saints to MAAC Tournament championships and NCAA Tournament appearances in 2006, 2007 and 2008, and was a three-time MAAC Offensive Player of the Year from 2007-09. A four-time First Team All-MAAC selection, she was also the 2006 MAAC Rookie of the Year, the 2008 MAAC Tournament MVP, and a two-time MAAC All-Tournament Team selection, McCurty remains the program's all-time leader in kills (1945), kills per set (4.27), attack percentage (.353), points (2194) and points per set (4.82), and is inside the program's career top-10 ranks in 10 different categories. Additionally, she displayed the top-two single-season outputs in kills, attack percentage, points, and points per set, as well as the top output in kills per set. A program-record 13-time MAAC Player of the Week selection, she stands as the only repeat winner of the Siena Female Athlete of the Year award, taking home the honor in 2008 and 2009. McCurty also played on Siena's women's lacrosse team during her senior season. She was honored as a First Team selection on the MAAC's 35th Anniversary Fall Sports Team in 2016, and currently serves on Siena College's Board of Trustees.

Rochelle Travers '96 • Class of 2002

Despite playing just two years for the Saints, Travers had a lasting impact on the storied Siena Volleyball program. Transferring to Siena from Cerritos Community College prior to the 1994 season, she quickly inherited the setter role on a championship team, helping the Saints capture back-to-back MAAC Championships in 1994 and 1995. Travers spearheaded the Saints' run to the 1995 NCAA Tournament, averaging 10 assists per game in helping the Saints to a 25-5 regular-season mark. A deceptive offensive presence, Travers boasted a .374 attack average that year, en-route to capturing 1995 MAAC Player of the Year honors – a distinction rarely bestowed upon a setter. She was also named the 1994 MAAC Tournament MVP and named to the 1995 All-Tournament following stellar performances with the season on the line.

Hank Wysocki • Class of 2011

The winningest coach in program history, Wysocki led Siena Volleyball from 1983-99 and finished his career with a 328-265-5 career mark. Coaching in the MAAC for the final decade at the helm, he coached the Saints to four straight MAAC Championship titles in 1993, 1994, 1995, and 1996, which included three NCAA Play-In appearances, a trip to the 1993 NIVC, and the program's first NCAA Tournament Appearance in 1995. He finished his career with a 46-26 MAAC record and coached seven CoSIDA District I Academic All-Americans, three MAAC Offensive Player of the Year recipients, and one MAAC Rookie of the Year. He was honored as the 1995 MAAC coach of the Year. Three of Wysocki's former players (Rochelle Travers '96, HOF '02; Kristin May '97, HOF '06; Donna DeFrancesco '97, HOF '10) have joined him in the Siena Athletic Hall of Fame.
