WOMEN'S BASKETBALL PLAYERS IN THE SIENA ATHLETICS HALL OF FAME

VICKI AROMANDO '82 CLASS OF 1987

The first woman to be inducted into the Siena Hall of Fame. Aromando graduated as the second all-time leading scorer in program history with 1,594 points. She was twice named an All-American by the American Women's Sports Federation and set program records for points scored in a single season (617) and career rebound average (7.8). She holds the school record for most points in a season. Along with being the first woman in program history to score 1,000 points, Aromando helped lead the Lady Indians to a New York State Intercollegiate Athletics for Women (NYSIAIW) Championship title in 1982. She was also a member of the softball team for two seasons, ending her career with a .528 career batting average.

MARY GAUDREAU '83 CLASS OF 1988

Siena Women's Basketball's all-time leading scorer to this day, Gaudreau played from 1979 through 1983 during the program's early years, leading the team in scoring during her final two seasons. A guard, she became the first Siena basketball player, male or female, to score more than 2,000 points in a career with 2,084, and remains one of only four between both programs to have done so.

Gaudreau averaged 18.4 points per game throughout her career and still holds program records for all-time scoring, field goals made (891), field goals attempted (1,943), field goals attempted in a season (544), most points scored in a game (41), and most field goals attempted in a game (29). She was a two-time First Team CoSIDA Academic All-America in 1981 and 1982 and was part of the Indians squad that captured the 1982 New York State Intercollegiate Athletics for Women NYSIAIW Division II Championship. Gaudreau was selected to the MAAC Basketball Hall of Fame Honor Roll in 2016.

COACH JOE HOGAN '67 CLASS OF 1989

During Hogan's six-year tenure from 1979-85, the women's team compiled a 119-51 record, good for a .700 winning percentage. Hogan produced a winning record in each of his six seasons at the helm and is one of five Siena basketball coaches, men's or women's, to produce three consecutive 20-win seasons. His 1982 team won the New York State Intercollegiate Athletics for Women (NYSIAIW) Division II Championship by defeating Canisius, ranked seventh in the nation at the time. Hogan also oversaw the transition of the team from Division II to Division I status during the 1983-84 season. Under his guidance, four players earned Academic All-American status and seven have joined him in the Siena Hall of Fame. He was inducted into the Upstate New York Basketball Hall of Fame in 2014.

HEIDI HARKINS '84 CLASS OF 1991

A guard from 1980-84, Harkins graduated as Siena's career assist leader and was 10th on the College's all-time scoring list. In four years, she totaled 1,106 points and accumulated 451 assists, leading the team in scoring during the 1983-84 season. Harkins played in 114 career games, which was tied for the program record at the time, and also recorded steals to sit inside the program top-10. As a sophomore, she was a contributing factor in the Indians team that won the 1982 New York State Intercollegiate Athletics for Women (NYSIAIW) Division II Championship. In 1984, she was named First Team Academic All-America for her success in the classroom and was also a First Team selection by the American Women's Foundation. Harkins went on to serve as an assistant coach for the women's basketball program. She was inducted into the Upstate New York Basketball Hall of Fame in 2010.

CATHY ROUSSEAU '82 CLASS OF 1992

In her four seasons at Siena (1978-82), Rousseau started every game at forward. As a rookie, she averaged 13.6 points per game and pulled down 11.4 rebounds per game, which marked her best season in a Siena uniform. Rousseau is one of 12 players to exceed 1,000 points in her career. She scored 1001 from 1978-82 and joined teammate and All-American Vicki Aromando as the first two women in the school's history to reach that milestone. Rousseau graduated third on Siena's career rebounding list, pulling down 725; seventh in career steals (205); and is also seventh on the season rebounding list, pulling down 228 to lead the team in 1978-79. She was also sixth all-time in assists with 220. She was a leader on the 1982 squad that captured the 1982 New York State Intercollegiate Athletics for Women (NYSIAIW) Championship. Rousseau was inducted into the Upstate New York Basketball Hall of Fame in 2010.

ANN MARIE GRANEY '85 CLASS OF 1994

Making her debut in 1981, for the next four seasons, Ann-Marie Graney was an integral part of Siena's success both on and off the court. As the center on head coach Joe Hogan's team, she led Siena to 75 wins. She became the sixth player in school history to reach the 1,000-point plateau and finished her career with 1,264 points, sixth all-time, and a then-Siena record 821 rebounds. She was part of the Siena squad that captured that 1982 New York State Intercollegiate Athletics for Women (NYSIAIW) Championship. In the classroom, she personified what it is to be a student athlete, and was twice named to the College Sports Information Directors of America Academic All-American First Team.

VAL HIGGINS '91 CLASS OF 1998

The 1991 MAAC Player of the Year, Higgins scored 1,137 points for Siena as it transitioned into the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference. The team posted a winning mark in each of her four years, and advanced to the MAAC Tournament Semifinals in each of their first two years in the league, with her help. Higgins was also a two-time First Team All-MAAC selection and was selected as a Second Team GTE Academic All-American her senior year. She still holds the single-game program record for field goals made (18), remains inside the program top-10 in single-season field goals and career and single-season field-goal percentage, and her 37-point output against Manhattan in 1991 remains the second-most points scored in a single game in program history. Higgins was inducted into the Upstate New York Basketball Hall of Fame in 2010.

ANGELA FEDULLO '83 CLASS OF 1999

A multi-sport star at Siena in the early days of women's athletics at the school, Fedullo excelled both on the court in basketball and on the field in softball. A four-year starter on both teams, she scored 367 points with a .445 shooting percentage on the court and was an All-State selection and was the team's 1980 MVP in softball, batting .456 that season. Fedullo also led the softball team in batting (.562), RBI (19), and extra base hits (6) in 1979, and was a First Team All-State selection during her senior season, while leading the team in hitting (.373), and helping them make the New York State Playoffs. She was part of the 1982 Siena women's basketball team that won the New York State Intercollegiate Athletics for Women (NYSIAIW) Championship. Fedullo went on to coach the softball team from 1990-96, guiding them through their first seasons as a part of the MAAC. The 1991 softball team stood as the only squad in program history for 13 years to have two games in the MAAC Tournament. She is one of four relative combinations of any kind to be inducted into the Siena Hall of Fame, along with her father, Ralph Fedullo '52, HOF '71.

LIZ LOPS '94 CLASS OF 2000

A star on Siena's highly successful early MAAC squads, Lops scored 1,702 points in 111 contests, leading the team in scoring in each of her final three seasons. The 1993-94 MAAC Player of the Year, she was also a Kodak All-America Team Honorable Mention selection that year, the 1990-91 MAAC Rookie of the Year, and a four-time All-MAAC selection, including two First Team nods. Averaging 18.4 points and 8.9 rebounds during her senior year, the 6-2 forward finished her career ranked first in program history in rebounding, free throws made, and free throws attempted, and still holds the records in the latter two. Lops ended her career with career averages of 15.3 PPG and 8.3 RPG, and was a co-captain of the 1993-94 team that posted a 24-4 record, captured the MAAC Regular-Season Championship and strung together an NCAA-best 16-game winning streak. Lops's career continued professionally in Sweden, where she was a three-time all-star and had her jersey retired after averaging 23 points and 12 rebounds. She was named to the MAAC Basketball 25th Anniversary Team in 2006 and the conference's Hall of Fame Honor Roll in 2012.

KIM COLUNIO '95 CLASS OF 2003

Starring from 1991-95, Colunio helped the Saints establish themselves as MAAC heavyweights during the 1990s. A two-time First Team All-MAAC selection, she averaged 21.4 points per game her senior season, ranking nationally in scoring while finishing her career with 1,311 points. Her senior year performance of 557 points still ranks inside the top-5 in program history and earned her a spot on the ECAC All-Star team. She also ranks among the program's best in single-game scoring, registering 31 points against Loyola (MD) as a senior. Siena won 61 in games during Colunio's tenure on the team, including a 24-4 record during that 1993-94 campaign that saw the Saints capture the MAAC regular-season title and win an NCAA-best 16-straight contests.

MELANIE HALKER '99 CLASS OF 2005

One of the most prolific post players in program history, Halker remains the Saints' all-time rebounder (1,122, 10.0 per-game) to this day, and is one of only two women's hoopers and four Siena basketball players total to score 2,000 career points (2,021). She also still holds the single-season marks for field goals (263, 1998-99), rebounds (341, 1996-97) and boards per game, as well as the single-game record for rebounding (24), which came on November 23, 1997. A two-time MAAC Player of the Year selection in 1997 and 1998, Halker also earned three First Team All-MAAC selections, a MAAC All-Rookie Team nod, and was the MAAC Rookie of the Year for the 1995-96 season. She remains inside the MAAC top-10 in scoring, rebounding, and rebounds per game to this day.

Halker helped the Saints to a 42-17 mark during her final two seasons with the program, with the Saints winning the MAAC Regular-Season Championship in both years, and advancing to the Second Round of the 1999 WNIT in the program's first-ever Division I postseason berth. She embarked on a professional playing career following graduation, playing in Luxembourg and Israel. Upon her return to the states, Halker went into coaching, serving as an assistant coach for Siena, Indiana State, Dayton, Princeton, and Michigan from 2002-19. She was named the eighth head coach of Xavier Women's Basketball on April 5, 2019. Halker was named to the MAAC's 25th Anniversary Women's Basketball Team in 2005 and was selected to the MAAC Hall of Fame Honor Roll in 2018.

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL PLAYERS IN THE SIENA ATHLETICS HALL OF FAME

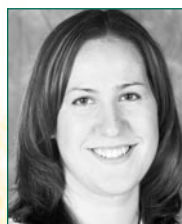

KATY STURGIS '83 CLASS OF 2011

Sturgis (1979-83) was a dominant low-post presence on both ends of the floor, and one of the premier players during Siena's pre-Division I era. She has held Siena's all-time record for blocked shots (139) for nearly 40 years, and also holds the program's record for blocks per game (1.2). Sturgis scored 1,294 points in her career and is one of four players in program history to have registered seven blocks in a game, tying a program record. Her contributions led Siena to 84 wins in her four seasons, including three New York State Intercollegiate Athletics for Women (NYSIAIW) Division II Tournament appearances, the 1982 Championship title, and a trio of EIAIW Tournament appearances.

GUNTA BASKO '03 CLASS OF 2011

An integral part of three consecutive MAAC regular-season titles for Siena Women's Basketball, Basko led the Saints to their first and only NCAA Tournament appearance to date in 2001, as well as a pair of WNIT bids in 2002 and 2003. With 1,833 points to her name, she ranks third all-time on the program's scoring list and led the team in points per game during her sophomore and junior seasons. Basko was a four-time All-MAAC honoree, including a pair of First Team nods, and is one of only a handful of players in conference history to win multiple MAAC Player of the Year honors, doing so in 2001 and 2002. She was also named the MAAC Defensive Player of the Year during her junior season and earned a pair of Kodak District II All-America awards. Basko went on to play professionally from 2003-19 in five different countries following graduation, most notably in her home country of Latvia, which she represented in multiple EuroBasket Games. She was selected to the MAAC's 25th Anniversary Women's Basketball Team in 2006.

LIENE JANSONE '04 CLASS OF 2011

With 1,639 points to her name, Jansone ranks sixth all-time in Siena Women's Basketball history in scoring, and still holds the program career (59.1) and single-season (60.5, 2001-02) records for field-goal percentage, while also reigning as the MAAC's all-time leader in the category. The team's leading scorer during the 2002-03 season, she helped the Saints in assembling four-straight MAAC Regular-Season Championships, including a MAAC Tournament win and the program's only NCAA Tournament berth to date in 2001 and back-to-back WNIT appearances in 2002 and 2003. Jansone took home a slew of MAAC honors, including four All-MAAC awards, a MAAC Rookie of the Year award in 2001, a MAAC 6th Player of the Year honor in 2002, and a MAAC Player of the Year award in 2003. She went on to play professional basketball from 2004-14 in seven different countries and signed a contract with the New York Liberty of the WNBA in 2006. She was also a member of the Latvian National Team, playing in four Eurobasket Women competitions and the 2008 Summer Olympics. She was selected to the MAAC's 25th Anniversary Women's Basketball Team in 2006.

LAURA MENTY '08 CLASS OF 2013

Finishing her career with 1,779 points, Menty led her team in scoring all four years and still ranks fourth all-time in points scored in Siena history. The 2005 MAAC Rookie of the Year, she was a Second Team All-MAAC selection in 2006, and took home First Team All-MAAC honors in each of her final two seasons. She also earned a national honor during her senior season, collecting a Women's Basketball Coaches Association National Player of the Month Honorable Mention Award for January 2008. Menty still ranks inside five categories in the program's record books, including career field-goal percentage (.538) and free throws made (508). In 115 career games played, she averaged 15.5 points and shot 74 percent from the free-throw line. She was named to the MAAC Basketball Hall of Fame Honor Roll in 2017.

TEHRESA COLES '14 CLASS OF 2023

A standout for Siena Women's Basketball from 2011-15, Coles was the 2014-15 MAAC Defensive Player of the Year, the Siena Female Student Athlete of the Year for that season, and also was the MAAC Nominee for the 2015 NCAA Woman of the Year award. A Loudonville native and star at Colonie Central High School, she was selected as the 2019 Siena female inductee into the MAAC Hall of Fame Honor Roll after finishing as one of just four players in MAAC history to eclipse 1,000 points, 500 points, 300 steals, and 250 assists over a career. The program's all-time leader in both career (308) and single-season (98) steals currently ranks 16th in scoring with 1,199 points and was a Second Team All-MAAC selection after leading the Saints to the WBI Championship Game and leading the conference in steals (2.9 – 21st nationally) during the 2014-15 season. Coles was named a 2015 WBI All-Tournament Team selection in 2015, and also was a two-time team captain, a two-time MAAC Player of the Week, a two-time MAAC Rookie of the Week, and was a 2015 MAAC All-Tournament Team selection. She went on to provide color commentary for Siena Women's Basketball television broadcasts, and serve as a member of the Siena College Board of Trustees.

KOLLYNS SCARBROUGH '18 CLASS OF 2023

A first-ballot selection and Siena Women's Basketball standout from 2014-18, Scarbrough was a First Team All-MAAC selection following the 2014-15 season and a two-time Second Team Honoree during the 2015-16 and 2016-17 seasons. A MAAC All-Rookie Team selection in 2015, the Jamaica, New York product was the 2018 MAAC Nominee for the NCAA Woman of the Year Award and finished her career ranked eighth all-time in points (1,515) and seventh in rebounding (733). The program-record holder in minutes played (3,768), she led the Saints in scoring during the 2015-16 and 2017-18 seasons, and was an integral part of Siena's run to the 2015 WBI Championship Game.
