TAYLOR ON LOU HENSON AWARD WATCH LIST

Ray'Sean Taylor has landed on the Watch List for the 2022-23 Lou Henson National Player of the Year award as announced Tuesday by CollegeSportsInsider.com. The award, which is presented annually to the top mid-major player in Division I college basketball, honors the former Illinois and New Mexico State head coach who won 775 games in 41 seasons.

PRUITT PROVING IT

Pruitt is living up to his preseason All-OVC selection. He scored a career-high 21 points at Saint Louis. He leads SIUE at 6.7 rebounds per game. Last year, Pruitt turned in two of the top 10 single rebounding performances in the OVC last year with 16 at Tennessee Tech (1/20) (tying SIUE's Division I single game record) and 15 at Eastern Illinois (1/13).

TAYLOR'S RETURN

Taylor has scored in double figures in 12 of 15 games this year and 30 of 35 in his career. Taylor returned to game action this year for first time since tearing his right anterior cruciate ligament (ACL) in SIUE's game at Southeast Missouri last Jan. 29. Taylor previously sat out the 2020-21 season with the same injury, which he sustained in August 2020.

PLAYING POLO

Damarco "Polo" Minor is third on the team in scoring at 11.1 points. He earned Newcomer of the Week honors in the OVC Nov. 14 after averging 16.0 points in SIUE's first two contests. Minor led South Suburban Collge to a 33-0 season and a National Championship last year. He earned multiple accolades including NJCAA Division II National Player of the Year and first team NJCAA Division II All-American. The National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) named Minor as their Two-Year Player of the Year.

DOUBLE DOUBLE-DOUBLE

Pruitt and Minor each recorded double-doubles on opening night. It marked the first time that two SIUE players had recorded double-doubles in the same game since the 2016 season when Jalen Henry and Christian Ellis each did it.

TAYLOR'S FIRST SEASON

Taylor led SIUE in scoring 14 times and scored 20 or more points in a game nine times. Taylor was the leading scorer among first-year players in the country at 17.6 points per game. He won OVC Freshman of the Week five times during the season. He was a finalist for the Macy Award for National Freshman of the Year.

MEN'S BASKETBALL

HEAD COACH BRIAN BARONE

Brian Barone is in his fourth season as SIUE's men's basketball head coach after taking over the position in March 2019. Barone had been an assistant for the Cougars the previous two seasons.

With 11 wins during the 2021-22 season, Barone guided SIUE to its second most wins in the Division I era. It marked just the sixth time the Cougars had won at least 10 games since moving to Division I play.

Despite still contending with lingering Covid-19 concerns, SIUE returned to Evansville for the Ohio Valley Conference for the second consecutive year.

Under Barone, freshmen Ray'Sean Taylor and DeeJuan Pruitt stood out among a talented roster. Taylor was on pace for a historic season before suffering a second ACL tear forcing him to miss the final 11 games. At the time of his injury, he was averaging 17.6 points per game, which would have been second in the OVC and was the most for any first-year player. Pruitt led the Cougars in rebounding at 6.8 points per game which was good for fourth in the OVC. He was third on the team in scoring at 10.2 points per game, which was 21st in the league.

Barone led the Cougars through an unprecedented 2020-2021 campaign, guiding the team back to the Ohio Valley Conference tournament despite overwhelming challenges.

The Cougars won nine total games, including six road wins, setting a new program high for road wins in the Division I era, including a 20-point triumph at Northern Illinois, the largest road win since the reclassification. SIUE also won road games at eventual OVC champion Morehead State, Tennessee State, Eastern Illinois, UT Martin and Tennessee Tech. The win at Tennessee Tech also was a first for the program. The team won seven OVC games, marking the second most OVC wins.

SIUE also had to contend with 10 canceled or postponed contests related to the ongoing Covid-19 pandemic and finished the season playing 18 games in just 37 days.

Under Barone, twins Shamar and Lamar Wright continued to develop. Shamar finished third on the team in scoring at 9.0 points per game and was second in rebounding at 4.6 boards a game. Lamar led the OVC in blocked shots at 1.9 per game while scoring 6.5 points and grabbing 3.4 rebounds per game.

The highlight of Barone's first season came with a historic 79-69 win on the road at Belmont. It was the program's first-ever win over Belmont and came among five Ohio Valley Conference victories. The Cougars also won road OVC games at Eastern Illinois and UT Martin during the season. SIUE also triumphed over Southeast Missouri and Eastern Kentucky at home.

Barone presided over the final year of Brandon Jackson and Tyresse Williford's careers. Jackson finished his career as the program's all-time leader in games played (122) and 22nd in scoring with 906 points. Williford finished his career 12th all-time in assists (242) despite playing just two seasons. He is ninth all-time with an average of 4.0 assists per game for his career.

Even before coming to SIUE, Barone boasted previous NCAA Division I experience as an assistant as well as stints as an assistant and head coach in the junior college ranks.

Barone's most recent Division I experience came at Green Bay under current Bradley head coach Brian Wardle. In five years on the Green Bay staff, Barone helped guide the Phoenix to a 95-65 overall record. In 2014-15, Green Bay posted a 24-7 record and claimed the Horizon League's regular season championship.

While at Green Bay, Barone was instrumental in the recruitment and development of two-time Horizon League Player of the Year Keifer Sykes and second round 2015 NBA Draft Pick Alec Brown. More than 10 Green Bay players from Barone's tenure went on to play professionally.

Prior to his time in Green Bay, Barone was on staff at Indiana University as the Hoosiers' director of basketball operations/video coordinator where he worked under his college head coach Tom Crean. He began at IU in 2008 after serving the 2007-08 campaign as the coordinator of basketball operations and video coordinator at Marquette.

Barone's first Division I coaching experience came at Illinois State. He spent four seasons (from 2003-04 through 2006-07) as an assistant coach for the Redbirds where he helped resurrect a program that had just eight wins the year prior to his arrival.

He also has experience in the junior college ranks, with coaching stops at Butler Community College, Garden City Community College and Central Florida Community College.

As a player, Barone played his first two seasons at Texas A&M, playing for his father Tony Barone, Sr. He earned honorable mention all-Big XII accolades as a sophomore following the 1997-98 season when he finished among the league's top five in assists and steals. He also received GTE Big XII Academic All-Conference accolades as well.

He transferred to Marquette. Barone made his debut in 1999-00 after sitting out one season as a transfer. He served as team captain during his tenure and was also named to the Conference USA All-Academic Team.

Barone earned his bachelor's degree in communications from Marquette in 2000 and completed his master's in communications at MU in 2002.

Basketball runs in Barone's family. His father, Tony Sr., played at Duke and was the head coach at Creighton, Texas A&M and the NBA's Memphis Grizzlies, as well as being the Director of Player Personnel for the Grizzlies. His brother, Tony, Jr., has been a college assistant coach, a Director of Scouting in the NBA, and currently is the assistant director for development and enforcement for men's basketball with the NCAA.

Barone and his wife, Mimi, have a son, Carson, and three daughters, Ava, Gianna and Cecilia.
