LAST YEAR

The 19 overall wins in 2022-23 were the most for SIUE in a Division I season. The nine OVC wins also were a program record. Seven true road wins were the most for SIUE at the Division I level. With 10 total wins away from home, SIUE was the winningest road team in the OVC last season.

FREE DAMARCO

Damarco Minor led the OVC in free throw percentage at .876 last year. That percentage is second best for a career at SIUE. Minor also set a new OVC record with 47 consecutive free throws made 11/18/22-1/12/23. The previous record was set by Morehead State's Glen Napier in 1981-82. Included in the streak was a 15-15 performance against Southern Indiana, which set SIUE's single game record for free throws made without a miss.

PRESEASON PROGNOSTICATION

SIUE was picked second in the OVC preseason poll as voted on by the league's head coaches and communications personnel. It is the highest that SIUE has been picked in the preseason poll.

ALL OVC

Taylor, Minor and Shamar Wright each were named to the All-OVC preseason team. The three selections are the most ever for SIUE.

TAYLOR'S RETURN

Taylor is returning from a third torn anterior cruciate ligament (ACL). He suffered the injury to his left knee in SIUE's first OVC Tournament game in March. Last season he led the team in scoring and was sixth in the OVC at 15.5 points per game. He scored a career-best 30 points at Tennessee Tech. He scored in double figures in 25 of 32 games last year and now 56 of 69 in his career. He returned to game action last year for first time since tearing his right ACL in SIUE's game at Southeast Missouri Jan. 29, 2022. He previously sat out the 2020-21 season with the same injury, which he sustained in August 2020.

TAYLOR'S FIRST SEASON

Taylor was the leading scorer among first-year players in the country at 17.6 points per game in 2021-22. He won the OVC Freshman of the Week award five times and was a finalist for the Macy Award for National Freshman of the Year.

MINOR ACCOMPLISHMENTS

Minor recorded SIUE's first 30-point game in OVC tournament action, when he scored 32 in the quarterfinal loss against UT Martin. That came a night after scoring 27 in the opening round against Southern Indiana.

OH BROTHER

The Wright brothers are one of 28 sets of brothers playing at the same school, which includes 10 other sets of twins.

THE BARONE LEGACY

Brian's father, Tony, Sr. was head coach at Creighton (1985-1991) and Texas A&M (1991-1998) and the NBA's Memphis Grizzlies for the 2006-07 season.

ALL IN THE FAMILY

Lamar and Shamar Wright are the sons of former NBA player, the late Lorenzen Wright. Lamar (55) and Shamar (42) wear the numbers that Lorenzen wore in the NBA. Shamar has returned to the number, which he also wore during his first two seasons at SIUE. Older brother, Lorenzen, Jr. played at UT Martin during the 2017-18 season.

FAMILY MATTERS

Wright, Sr. played for the Memphis Grizzlies from 2001-06, while Tony Barone, Sr. was on staff.

2023-24 MEN'S BASKETBALL GAME NOTES

HEAD COACH BRIAN BARONE

The 2023-24 season marks Brian Barone's fifth season as SIUE's men's basketball head coach. He took over as head coach in March 2019 after having previously been an assistant for the Cougars for two seasons.

Finishing with a record of 19-14, Barone led the Cougars to a historic season in 2022-23, turning in the first winning season since SIUE made the transition to Division I play. The Cougars won nine games in the nonconference season before winning nine in Ohio Valley Conference play, both new highs for the program at Division I. SIUE won seven true road games and also was 3-1 in neutral site games. The 10 wins away from home made SIUE the winningest road team in the league. SIUE defeated Southern Indiana 68-54 to advance to the second round of the OVC tournament for the first time.

SIUE went 3-0 at the JK54 Classic to win the November tournament hosted by Longwood. On December 21, the Cougars picked up one of their best wins since making the jump to Division I when they defeated Saint Louis 69-67. The game featured an 18-point second-half comeback by the Cougars, which was one of the largest second-half comebacks in the NCAA during the season.

Beginning with the tournament at Longwood, SIUE won six consecutive games and nine of 11, propelling the Cougars to a 10-4 start to the season.

The Cougars improved in several key offensive categories. SIUE's scoring average improved by more than seven points per game. The Cougars improved their overall shooting percentage from .418 in 2021-22 to .435 overall and from .291 to .329 from three-point range. At the free throw line, the improvement was even more dramatic, where the team connected on 72.9 percent of its shots, compared to a .690 percentage in the previous season. The Cougars were second in the league in free throw percentage, as well as free throws made and free throws attempted. The improved offense didn't come at the expense of defense. The Cougars held opponents to 71.3 points per game, good for second in the OVC. SIUE foes were limited to a .425 shooting percentage from the field, which also was second in the league.

Ray'Sean Taylor became SIUE's first-ever All-OVC First Team selection. Damarco Minor was named to the league's All-newcomer team.

With 11 wins during the 2021-22 season, Barone guided SIUE to its second most wins, at the time, in the Division I era. It marked just the sixth time the Cougars had won at least 10 games since moving to Division I play. Despite still contending with lingering Covid-19 concerns, SIUE returned to Evansville for the OVC Tournament for the second consecutive year.

Under Barone, freshmen Ray'Sean Taylor and Deeluan Pruitt stood out among a talented roster. Taylor was on pace for a historic season before suffering a second ACL tear forcing him to miss the final 11 games. At the time of his injury, he was averaging 17.6 points per game, which would have been second in the OVC and was the most for any first-year player. Pruitt led the Cougars in rebounding at 6.8 points per game which was good for fourth in the OVC. He was third on the team in scoring at 10.2 points per game, which was 21st in the league.

Barone led the Cougars through an unprecedented 2020-2021 campaign, guiding the team back to the Ohio Valley Conference tournament despite overwhelming challenges.

The Cougars won nine total games, including six road wins, setting a then-program high for road wins in the Division I era, including a 20-point triumph at Northern Illinois, the largest road win since the reclassification. SIUE also won road games at eventual OVC champion Morehead State, Tennessee State, Eastern Illinois, UT Martin and Tennessee Tech. The win at Tennessee Tech also was a first for the program. The team won seven OVC games. SIUE also had to contend with 10 canceled or postponed contests related to the ongoing Covid-19 pandemic and finished the season playing 18 games in just 37 days.

The highlight of Barone's first season came with a historic 79-69 win on the road at Belmont. It was the program's first-ever win over Belmont and came among five Ohio Valley Conference victories. The Cougars also won road OVC games at Eastern Illinois and UT Martin during the season. SIUE also triumphed over Southeast Missouri and Eastern Kentucky at home.

Barone presided over the final year of Brandon Jackson and Tyresse Williford's careers. Jackson finished his career as the program's all-time leader in games played (122) and 22nd in scoring with 906 points. Williford finished his career 12th all-time in assists (242) despite playing just two seasons. He was ninth all-time with an average of 4.0 assists per game.

Before coming to SIUE, Barone boasted previous NCAA Division I experience as an assistant as well as stints as an assistant and head coach in the junior college ranks.

Barone's most recent Division I experience came at Green Bay under current Bradley head coach Brian Wardle. In five years on the Green Bay staff, Barone helped guide the Phoenix to a 95-65 overall record. In 2014-15, Green Bay posted a 24-7 record and claimed the Horizon League's regular season championship.

Barone was on staff at Indiana University as the Hoosiers' director of basketball operations/video coordinator where he worked under his college head coach Tom Crean. He began at IU in 2008 after serving the 2007-08 campaign as the coordinator of basketball operations and video coordinator at Marquette.

Barone's first Division I coaching experience came at Illinois State. He spent four seasons (from 2003-04 through 2006-07) as an assistant coach for the Redbirds where he helped resurrect a program that had just eight wins the year prior to his arrival.

He also has experience in the junior college ranks, with coaching stops at Butler Community College, Garden City Community College and Central Florida Community College.

As a player, Barone played his first two seasons at Texas A&M, playing for his father Tony Barone, Sr. He earned honorable mention all-Big XII accolades as a sophomore following the 1997-98 season when he finished among the league's top five in assists and steals. He also received GTE Big XII Academic All-Conference accolades as well.

He transferred to Marquette. Barone made his debut in 1999-00 after sitting out one season as a transfer. He served as team captain during his tenure and was also named to the Conference USA All-Academic Team. Barone earned his bachelor's degree in communications from Marquette in 2000 and completed his master's in communications at MU in 2002.

Basketball runs in Barone's family. His father, Tony Sr., played at Duke and was the head coach at Creighton, Texas A&M and the NBA's Memphis Grizzlies, as well as being the Director of Player Personnel for the Grizzlies. His brother, Tony, Jr., has been a college assistant coach, a Director of Scouting in the NBA, and currently is the assistant director for development and enforcement for men's basketball with the NCAA.

Barone and his wife, Mimi, have a son, Carson, and three daughters, Ava, Gianna and Cecilia.
