Origin of the Salukis

Since the athletic department was established in 1913, Southern Illinois' teams had been known as the Maroons. In 1951 several members of the Southern Illinois University athletic staff suggested a new nickname, and on March 19, 1951, the student body overwhelmingly approved "Salukis" as the official new symbol of SIU athletics, easily besting "Rebels," "Knights," "Flyers," "Marauders," and "Maroons."

The oldest purebred dogs in the world with records dating back to 2600 B.C., the Saluki is an ancient Egyptian hunting dog known for its speed and hunting prowess.

So why is the name Salukis relevant to Southern Illinois? Natives of southern Illinois know that the region is frequently referred to as "Little Egypt." Historian Baker Brownell, in his book "The Other Illinois," explained how the region came to be known as Egypt.

He wrote, "There was a drought in the northern counties (of Illinois) in the early 1800s...the wheat fields dried up, the streams dried in their beds. But in southern Illinois, rain fell and there were good crops, and from the north came people seeking corn and wheat as to Egypt of old. Thus, the name, Egypt."

The 19th century drought in Illinois parallels the Biblical account of the country of Egypt.

"There was famine in all lands; but in all the land of Egypt there was bread. All the earth came to Egypt to Joseph to buy grain, because the famine was so severe. And (Jacob) said, 'Behold, I have heard that there is grain in Egypt; go down and buy grain for us there, that we may live, and not die.' So 10 of Joseph's brothers went down to buy grain in Egypt." (Genesis 41:45b, 57, 42:2-3)

In Egypt at that time, Salukis were accepted as the finest animal a family could possess. Adopting such a well-respected dog as its mascot fit perfectly for a school in a region known as "Little Egypt."

King Tut's Tomb

The tomb of King Tut was moved from McAndrew Stadium to its current spot between the SIU locker room in the Donald Boydston Center and Saluki Stadium. Before each home game, the Salukis walk out of the locker room and pat Tut's Tomb for good luck on the Saluki Walk to the tunnel where they run into the stadium. King Tut was the first live Saluki dog mascot, and he was buried in the northeast corner of McAndrew Stadium.

Saluki Stadium

The Southern Illinois football team moved into the brand-new $29.9 million Saluki Stadium for the 2010 season, after playing the previous 73 seasons at historic McAndrew Stadium. SIU, which was ranked No. 5 in the nation at the time, opened Saluki Stadium on Sept. 2, 2010 with a 70-7 win over Quincy in front of a sell-out crowd of 15,276.

The horseshoe-shaped facility has a seating capacity of 15,000. Seating includes 1,080 prime chairback seats as well as spots on the grass berm enclosing the north end zone.

The two-story press box features 12 suites, a 2,500-square foot VIP Club Room, along with traditional booths for radio, television, coaches and the print media. A 20x40 foot TS Sports scoreboard with video replay capabilities in the North end zone and expanded concessions and restrooms significantly enhance the fan experience.

FieldTurf, a Tarkett Sports Company, installed its Duraspine PRO turf system and its patented sand and rubber infill at Saluki Stadium. The top of the line artificial turf is the same that has been installed at Gillette Stadium, home of the New England Patriots, and numerous other high-profile collegiate institutions and pro football organizations.

Saluki Stadium was a part of the $80 million Saluki Way Project, which included a renovation to the 46-year old SIU Arena and the construction of the Donald Boydston Center that features new football offices, an athletic training room and a 5,000-square foot locker room for the team.

A half-cent sales tax increase approval by the city of Carbondale along with an increase in student fees, private donations and the sale of 12 new suites will pay for the balance of construction costs.

SALUKI NOTEBOOK

Eight starters return on Offense

The Salukis return eight starters and 17 total letterwinners on offense. The returning starters are highlighted by All-American TE MyCole Pruitt (team-high 49 receptions and 577 yards). He has been named a second-team preseason All-American by The Sports Network and Phil Steele Magazine.

Senior QB Kory Faulkner is also returning. He completed 58.7 percent of his passes for 1,865 yards and 11 touchdowns in 2012. He has started the last 18 games for SIU and will be joined by returning FB Ray Agnew in the backfield.

The Salukis have added depth at running back. In addition to Mika'il McCall, who started four games last year, SIU has added three transfers with Malcolm Agnew (Oregon State), Ken Malcome (Georgia) and Tay Willis (Highland CC).

SIU returns two wide receivers with John Lantz (26 receptions) and LaSteven McKinney (43 receptions, 9.0 yards/punt return). McKinney was a second-team All-Conference selection as a wide receiver/return specialist in 2012.

The offensive line returns four of five starters from the end of last season with RT Victor Craven, C Tanner Crum, LG Nate Haremza and LT Ethan Wirth.

Defense returns five starters

Five starters return on defense for Southern Illinois. The Salukis will have to replace the entire defensive line, as all three starters were seniors in 2012.

Two of the four starting linebackers return. ILB Bryan Presume returns after leading the team with 78 tackles and recording 2.0 sacks. OLB Cory Lee (36 tackles, 1 FR) is also back. OLB Tyler Williamson figures to make an impact after earning MVFC All-Newcomer and Defensive Player of the Week honors in 2012.

Cornerback Terrell Wilson (5 career INT) is a three-year starter. SIU will have experience at safety. DJ. Cameron (2 INT) started 10 games, and Luke Thuston (35 tackles) started six. In addition, former UCLA transfer Anthony Thompson (1 INT, 1 FF, 1 FR) returns for his second season. Boo Rodgers also returns after redshirting in 2012. He was a starter in 2011 when he had 1 INT and 5 breakups.

Special Teams

Punter Austin Pucylowski (40.2 yards/punt, 23 punts inside the 20) is back after an All-MVFC honorable mention season in 2012. Austin Johnson (7-of-12 FG) and Thomas Kinney will compete for the place kicker role.

- Weeks Ranked No. 1: 16

99-Straight Weeks in the Top 25

The Southern Illinois football team set the Missouri Valley Football Conference record by being ranked in the Top 25 for 99 consecutive weeks. The streak started on Sept. 8, 2003 (No. 23 in the coaches poll and No. 21 in the media poll). It lasted until Oct. 18, 2010, when the Salukis dropped out of the top 25. Southern was last ranked in 2011 when it began the season ranked No. 19 in the preseason and stayed in the polls the first five weeks of the season.

Fourteen All-Americans

Southern Illinois has had 14 First-Team All-Americans over the last 11 seasons. Of those 14, five have been running backs. Tailback Arkee Whitlock (2005 and 2006) and CB Korey Lindsey (2009 and 2010) are two of three players in school history to be named a First-Team All-American in back-to-back seasons. Lindsey, who was a Third-Team All-American in 2008, is one of two players in school history, along with Alexis Moreland (2002-04), to garner All-America accolades in three separate seasons.

1983 National Champions

It was the year that the Southern Illinois University football team put together a dominating and magical run to take the Division I-AA National Championship. After narrowly missing an undefeated regular-season with a loss to Division I-A Wichita State in the regular-season finale, the Dawgs marched through the playoffs, outscoring their three opponents by an average of 23 points, capped by a 43-7 thrashing of Western Carolina in the National Championship game. The Salukis finished that campaign with a sparkling 13-1 record, the best mark in SIU history.

46-9 at Home Since 2003

Southern Illinois has compiled a 46-9 (.836) record at home in regular-season games since 2003. Included in that streak is a 29-8 record in Missouri Valley Football Conference games. If you add in home playoff games, the Salukis are 50-13 (.794) overall since 2003.

Salukis in the NFL

As of July 31, Southern Illinois has six former players in NFL camps this fall — LB Bart Scott (New York Jets), DE Ken Boatright (Seattle), LB Jayson DiManche (Cincinnati), RB Jewel Hampton (San Francisco), CB Korey Lindsey (New Orleans) and RB Deji Karim (Houston).

In five seasons at the helm of Southern Illinois University, Dale Lennon ranks second in school history in winning percentage with a 35-23 (.603) record and two FCS Playoff appearances. His 35 wins are the most by an SIU coach in his first five years.

Lennon was named SIU's 20th head coach in program history on Dec. 27, 2007. He guided the Salukis to back-to-back Missouri Valley Football Conference titles in 2008 and 2009 and was tabbed as the MVFC and AFCA Region IV Coach of the Year in both seasons. During that stretch, the Salukis won 14 consecutive conference games, which is the longest conference winning streak in MVFC history.

Individual award winners have been plentiful during Lennon's tenure. Running back Deji Karim was the 2009 MVFC Offensive Player of the Year and one of three finalists for the Walter Payton Award, which is given to the most outstanding player in the FCS each year. Karim was a sixth-round draft pick of the Jacksonville Jaguars in 2010. Running back Larry Warner was also a finalist for the Walter Payton Award in 2008, finishing 10th in the balloting. Linebacker Brandin Jordan (2009) and cornerback Korey Lindsey (2010) were finalists for the Buck Buchanan Award that goes to the FCS's most valuable defensive player.

In 2010, Lindsey won the College Football Performance Awards' Elite Defensive Back Award. Lindsey was drafted in the seventh round by the Cincinnati Bengals in the 2010 NFL Draft.

In 2011, Bryan Boemer won the Rimington Award as the nation's top FCS center.

In Lennon's five seasons, SIU has had eight First-Team All-Americans, plus five CoSIDA Academic All-

Americans. Before Lennon arrived at Southern, the Salukis had only six Academic All-Americans in the previous 95 years. As of the start of 2013 NFL training camps, six of Lennon's former Saluki players (Ken Boatright, Jayson DiManche, Stephen Franklin, Jewel Hampton, Deji Karim and Korey Lindsey) had signed an NFL contract.

During his first two seasons in the MVFC, Lennon totaled a 15-1 record and won a pair of conference titles.

In 2008, Lennon's first season in Carbondale, he guided SIU to a 9-3 record. He had the difficult task of replacing the most successful coach in school history, Jerry Kill, who was the 2007 Liberty Mutual Coach of the Year and went on to success at Northern Illinois and now Minnesota.

Lennon, who came to SIU with his own personal string of five-consecutive playoff appearances, lived up to the challenge during his first year in Carbondale, claiming a share of the MVFC title and a playoff berth.

In 2009, SIU became the first team in league history to go 8-0 in conference play, doing so in convincing fashion by winning road games at No. 2 Northern Iowa and at No. 9 South Dakota State. The 2009 season featured an 11-game overall winning streak, the third longest winning streak in school history.

The Salukis were ranked No. 1 by The Sports Network for three weeks and entered the 2009 NCAA Division I playoffs, the school's seventh-consecutive playoff appearance, as the No. 3 overall seed. Lennon guided SIU to the quarterfinals of the playoffs by posting a win over No. 17 Eastern Illinois, before falling to No. 6 William & Mary.

During Lennon's tenure, the program has won 10 games against ranked opponents. Lennon's success at SIU and previously at North Dakota have made him one of the winningest active coaches in the country. In 16 seasons as a head coach, Lennon has compiled a 137-56 (.710) record. He has been to either the Division I or II playoffs in 10 seasons. Lennon also owns a national championship ring, which he captured in 2001 when he was the head coach at his alma mater, North Dakota.

Lennon stands as the winningest coach in UND history with a 90-24 record in nine seasons. In addition to leading North Dakota to a national championship, Lennon's teams made seven playoff appearances, played in two national championship games and won five North Central Conference Championships.

Lennon graduated from Rugby High School in Rugby, N.D., a town of less than 3,000 residents near the Canadian border.

He went on to play fullback from 1979-83 for the University of North Dakota and was a team captain.

Lennon's coaching tenure with the Fighting Sioux began on the defensive side of the ball. He was North Dakota's defensive line coach for two seasons (1988-89) before being promoted to defensive coordinator (1990-96).

The Fighting Sioux made four-straight playoff appearances from 1992-95, which ultimately led to Lennon's hiring as head coach of the University of Mary in Bismarck, N.D. in 1997. There he reversed the fortunes of the program and led it to an NAIA playoff appearance in 1998.

Lennon returned to his alma mater as head coach in 1999, and the program flourished under his direction. He reached the pinnacle of success in 2001, guiding his team to the NCAA Division II National Championship and earning AFCA Coach of the Year honors. He won the NCC Coach of the Year laurels three times.

Lennon began his coaching career as the defensive backs coach for Valley City (N.D.) State in 1986. He then coached linebackers at Dickinson (N.D.) State in 1987, helping the team to a 9-1 record and an NAIA playoff appearance before joining the North Dakota coaching staff the following season. Lennon and his wife, Chris, have three adult sons, Jared, Trevor and Cody.

As Head Coach at SIU: 35-23 (5 years), As Head Coach Overall: 137-56 (16 years)

BUBBA SCHWEIGERT

Associate Head Coach/
Defensive Coordinator/Safeties
Jamestown College, 1985
29th Year Overall/6th at SIU

The 2013 season will be Bubba Schweigert's sixth season as the defensive coordinator for the Salukis and his fifth year serving as the associate head coach.

Schweigert features an aggressive, blitzing 3-4 scheme that emphasizes putting pressure on the offense. His 2012 defense showcased that pressure up front as it ranked third in the Missouri Valley Football Conference in rushing yards allowed and tied for fifth in the nation with 35 sacks. In addition, the opportunistic defense recovered 15 fumbles, tied for 10th most in the nation. Defensive end Ken Boatright was named an AFCA All-American and a third-team AP All-American in 2012.

Schweigert's 2011 defense ranked third in the Missouri Valley Football Conference in total yardage, interceptions and sacks. Perhaps his most remarkable coaching effort took place in 2010, when four starters in the secondary were lost to season-ending injuries, and a total of 50 games were lost by players on the two-deep. Nevertheless, his unit still led the Missouri Valley Football Conference in total defense, yielding an average of 332.1 yards per game.

His 2009 defense ranked second nationally with 23 interceptions, and the Salukis tied for fourth nationally with 33 forced turnovers. That year, his group also ranked eighth nationally in scoring defense, allowing just 15.92 points per game and led the MVFC with 36 sacks. In 2008, SIU was tied for 12th nationally in forced turnovers (29) and in five seasons his teams have forced an average of 2.2 turnovers per game (127 total).

In his five seasons at SIU, Schweigert has coached four first team All-Americans and 19 All-Conference selections (nine first team, six second team, four honorable mention). Cornerback Korey Lindsey garnered All-American accolades in each of his three seasons under Schweigert, was drafted by the Cincinnati Bengals and is currently a member of the New Orleans Saints.

Prior to SIU, Schweigert compiled a 22-21 record as head coach at Division II Minnesota Duluth (2004-07). He was named the North Central Conference Coach of the Year in 2005 after directing UMD to an 8-4 record, defeating three American Football Coaches Association top 20 teams along the way. His team won a share of the school's first NCC title and its second NCAA Division II playoff berth in four years. Schweigert was also named the D2football.com Northwest Region Coach of the Year and the AFCA Division II Coach of the Year for Region 5.

Prior to UMD, Schweigert spent 15 seasons at the University of North Dakota where he helped guide the Fighting Sioux to six NCC titles, eight playoff appearances and a Division II National Championship in 2001. He was Dale Lennon's defensive coordinator from 1999-2003. Schweigert was named the AFCA DII Assistant Coach of the Year in 2000.

Before joining North Dakota, Schweigert was the defensive coordinator at his alma mater, Jamestown College (N.D.), from 1985-88. He also served as admissions counselor and head baseball coach. Schweigert has a bachelor's degree in business administration from Jamestown College and a master's degree from North Dakota. In 2002, he was honored with Jamestown College's Rollie Greeno Award for Outstanding Commitment in the field of education and coaching. Schweigert and his wife, Laura, have two sons, A.J. (10) and Cooper (8).

KALEN DEBOER

Offensive Coordinator/
Wide Receivers
University of Sioux Falls, 1998
15th Year Overall/4th at SIU

The 2013 season is Kalen DeBoer's fourth season as the offensive coordinator at SIU and his 15th year as a college coach. He also serves as the position coach for the wide receivers. DeBoer was hired following the 2010 season after compiling a 67-3 (.957) record during five seasons as head coach at the University of Sioux Falls. He guided USF to three National Championships and was a three-time NAIA National Coach of the Year. In his first season in Carbondale, the Saluki offense averaged 30.1 points and 378.2 yards of total offense per game behind a balanced attack. SIU ran for 189.5 yards per game and threw for 188.7 in the first year in DeBoer's system.

DeBoer's offense set a Saluki Stadium record with 565 yards of total offense in its game against Southeast Missouri State in 2012. That eclipsed the previous record, which was set by DeBoer's offense in 2010 when the Salukis put up 508 yards of total offense against Indiana State in the final game of the season. In 2011, the Salukis finished third in the MVFC in total offense, averaging 377.8 yards per game. Jewel Hampton rushed for 1,121 yards -- the second tailback at SIU to surpass the 1,000-yard plateau (Deji Karim did it in 2009) in DeBoer's offense. The 2010 offense recorded five games with more than 400 yards of total offense and had 34 plays that went for 20 yards or longer (eight rush, 26 pass) on the year.

Prior to joining the Saluki coaching staff, DeBoer led one of the most dominant programs in the nation. In his five years as the head coach at Sioux Falls (2005-09), DeBoer won four Great Plains Athletic Conference Championships, 50-straight home games and 29-straight games overall over his last two seasons. That winning streak was the longest in the nation at any level in college football at the time. His teams won back-to-back NAIA National Championships in 2008 and 2009, and adding in his 2006 national championship, DeBoer won as many National Championships as games he lost during his five-year tenure as USF's head coach.

DeBoer coached two NAIA National Players of the Year in quarterbacks Lorenzo Brown (2009) and Chad Cavender (2007). A graduate of USF, DeBoer played for the Cougars from 1993-96, where he was an All-American wide receiver. He set school records for receptions (234), receiving yards (3,400) and touchdown catches (33). Following his playing days, he became a student assistant for Sioux Falls under coach Bob Young in 1997. From 2000-04, he served as USF's offensive coordinator and succeeded Young as head coach in 2005. At the age of 32, he led Sioux Falls to the 2006 National Championship. He and his wife, Nicole, have two daughters, Alexis and Avery.

AUSTIN FLYGER

Defensive Line
Augustana College, 2004
7th Year Overall/4th at SIU

The 2013 season will be Austin Flyger's fourth year at Southern Illinois and his seventh year coaching college football. In 2012 he returned to SIU as the defensive line coach, where he had served as a graduate assistant and defensive line coach for two seasons (2008-09).

The veteran defensive line was one of the strengths of the 2012 team and featured an AFCA All-American in defensive end Ken Boatright. SIU's three starting defensive linemen, Boatright, Eze Obiora and Kayon Swanson combined for 15.5 sacks on the season. Obiora had 8.0 of those sacks, which tied for second in the MVFC and 18th in the nation. The line helped SIU rank third in the conference in rushing yards allowed in 2012.

During both seasons of Flyger's previous tenure, SIU's defensive line was a key component of the team's championship defenses, led by All-Conference nose tackle Chris Arthurs. The defense held opponents to 10 or fewer points in seven games in 2008 and 2009, as the Salukis posted a combined 20-5 record, including a 15-1 mark in the Missouri Valley Football Conference.

After the 2009 season, Flyger took a full-time position as the defensive line coach at Northern State, where he worked under former Saluki assistant coach Tom Dosch.

Flyger was a stand-out player at Augustana from 2000-2003. There, he earned All-North Central Conference honors and was named the league's most valuable defensive lineman as a senior in 2003. Flyger went on to play three seasons with the Sioux Falls Storm of the United Indoor Football League before embarking on a coaching career. His first coaching opportunity came in 2007, when he served on Dale Lennons's staff at the University of North Dakota, working primarily with the defensive line.

Flyger has a bachelor's degree in business administration from Augustana and is working towards his master's degree in sports management from SIU.

Under Hedberg's tutelage, Chris Dieker was a two-time All-Conference performer who moved into the top five in 13 different offensive categories in the school record books. Dieker was named the Missouri Valley Football Conference Offensive Player of the Week after throwing for a career-high 279 yards and four touchdowns to go along with a pair of rushing touchdowns in a 49-21 win over Indiana State, Nov. 20, 2010.

Prior to SIU, Hedberg spent nine seasons as head coach at St. Cloud State, where he posted a 47-51 record. In 18 years as a collegiate head coach, he compiled an overall mark of 92-74-2.

Jackson is responsible for helping develop All-American tight end MyCole Pruitt. As a sophomore in 2012, Pruitt led the team in catches (49), receiving yards (577) and TD catches (4). The tight end is an important element in coordinator Kalen DeBoer's offense. Pruitt has been the team's leader in receptions and receiving yards in each of the past two seasons. Kyle Harruff tied for the team lead with three touchdown receptions, 17 catches for 294 yards - an average of 17.3 yards per reception under Jackson's guidance. Fellow tight ends C.J. Robertson, Philip Schumacher and tight end/fullback John Goode also hauled in touchdown catches in 2010. Goode was a second team All-MVFC selection in 2010 under Jackson.

Jackson came to Southern Illinois from the University of Minnesota, where he was an assistant offensive line coach from 2007-09. In 2007, Jackson helped coach the Gopher offensive front that ranked 10th in the nation in sacks allowed (13 total). He worked directly with the Gopher centers along with his various other coaching duties. The Milwaukee, Wis. native has 32 years of coaching experience, including a five-year stint as SIU's offensive coordinator from 1989-93. He enters his fifth season since his 2009 return to SIU. He will coach the running backs after spending the past four years as the Saluki offensive line coach.

Since returning to the Salukis, Meyer's offensive line was a driving force behind a unit that averaged 30 points per game in both 2009 and 2010. In 2012 Saluki senior right guard Richard Wilson was named an All-MVFC honorable mention. In addition, Meyer has mentored two All-Conference lineman. Center Bryan Boemer and left tackle David Pickard received All-

MVFC recognition in 2009, 2010 and 2011, with Boemer winning the coveted Rimington Award in 2011. The award goes to the best center in FCS football. Pickard received third team All-America accolades from The Sports Network (TSN) following the 2009 season and was a two-time Academic All-American.

From 2005-11, O'Boyle served as the head coach at Chadron State College, where he compiled a 54-22 overall record, including three-consecutive undefeated regular seasons and three Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference titles from 2006-08. His .750 winning percentage was the third-highest for active coaches in Division II entering the 2011 season.

Under O'Boyle's guidance the Eagles won 28-straight RMAC games and earned three NCAA Division II playoff berths, advancing to the quarterfinals in 2006 and 2007 and to the second round in 2008.

A three-time RMAC Coach of the Year, O'Boyle was named the Liberty Mutual Division II Coach of the Year in 2007. ERIC SCHMIDT

Inside Linebackers/Special Teams

North Dakota, 2002

12th Year Overall/6th at SIU

The 2013 season is Eric Schmidt's sixth season as a member of SIU's defensive staff. It is his second season as the inside linebackers and special teams coach. In addition, he has worked with both outside linebackers and the defensive line at SIU.

Schmidt has coached eight All-Conference players in his first five years with the Salukis. His players have helped provide pressure on the quarterback, a critical component of Bubba Schweigert's defensive philosophy.

In 2012 with the help of strong play by the inside linebackers, the Saluki defense recorded two shutout victories. The team also finished 10th in the FCS in rushing yards allowed. Junior inside linebacker Bryan Presume led the team with 78 tackles while senior inside linebacker Joe Okon was second on the team with 66.

In 2011, defensive end Ken Boatright led the team with 6.5 sacks, while nose tackle Kayon Swanson added four sacks and earned All-Conference honors.

In 2010, defensive end Chance Coda was a second team All-MVFC selection after posting 8.0 tackles for a loss and 4.5 sacks. Coda was also a first team ESPN Academic All-American. Outside linebacker Jayson DiManche was named to the All-MVFC honorable mention team after leading the team in sacks, and he was named the MVFC Defensive Player of the Week following his three-sack performance in a win over No. 20 Western Illinois.

In 2009, outside linebacker Kyle Walker finished third in the MVFC with nine sacks, helping SIU lead the conference in total sacks. Another outside linebacker, Chauncey Mixon, capped off his career with 41.5 tackles for a loss and 16.0 sacks, which are tied for the seventh most in school history.

Schmidt, who in his playing days had a knack for getting to the quarterback, has relayed that knowledge to the players he now coaches. A former standout linebacker under Dale Lennon at the University of North Dakota, Schmidt coached with Lennon at his alma mater for two seasons (2006-07) before following Lennon to SIU.

Prior to UND, he spent four years as head football coach at Crookston (Minn.) High School. He led the Pirates to a Section 8AAA runner-up finish in 2004, and one year earlier, led the team to the Minnesota state semifinals. Schmidt was named the 2003 Section 8AAA Coach of the Year. He also coached girls basketball at Crookston and guided the team to a State AA runner-up finish in 2006.

A native of Mandan, N.D., Schmidt played for the Fighting Sioux from 1998-01 and was a captain of UND's 2001 national championship team. A two-time All-North Central Conference selection, Schmidt earned All-America honors as a senior in 2001. His 10.0 sacks as a senior set a new school record.

Schmidt received his bachelor's degree in secondary education from North Dakota in 2002. He and his wife, Tiffany, have a daughter, Kennedy, and a son, Truman.

TRAVIS STEPPS

Secondary

Pittsburg State, 2002

12th Year Overall/10th at SIU

The 2013 season is Travis Stepps' 10th as a member of the coaching staff at Southern Illinois and his eighth year as a full-time assistant. Stepps' players have received 11 All-Conference accolades in his tenure at SIU and he has coached a pair of All-Americans in Craig Turner and Corey Lindsey.

Turner was an honorable mention All-American in 2007, and Lindsey became just the second player in school history to be named an All-American in three separate seasons. Lindsey was a third team All-America selection by The Sports Network in 2008 and was voted a first team All-American by the AP in 2009 and 2010, becoming just the third Saluki to ever repeat as a first team All-American. In 2010, Lindsey received the FCS Elite Defensive Back Award from the College Football Performance Awards, recognizing him as the top performer at the cornerback position based upon his cumulative performance among all Division I FCS cornerbacks in 2008 and 2009. In addition to those awards, Lindsey was a finalist in 2010 for the Buck Buchanan Award that goes to the top defensive player in the FCS. Under Stepps' tutelage, Lindsey was a three-time All-MVFC selection and finished his career ranked third in school history in career interceptions (14) and ninth in pass breakups (16).

Stepps' secondaries have been among the nation's leaders in interceptions. In 2009, the Saluki defense ranked second nationally with 23 picks. In 2008, Southern ranked 22nd with 16 interceptions. The Salukis have also returned 12 interceptions for touchdowns in the past five seasons under Stepps' watch. SIU ranked No. 3 in the conference in interceptions in 2011, and in 2010, Southern Illinois was second in the MVFC in passing defense and first in total defense.

Prior to joining the Southern Illinois coaching staff, Stepps spent two seasons on the staff at Washburn University. As a player, he was a two-time All-American defensive back at Pittsburg State. William McAndrew
1913-16, 1921-38
Record: 83-79-20

Hired at SINU in 1913 to develop a physical education department "for boys," McAndrew organized the athletics program, which previously had "club teams" and occasionally an approved team.

He served as head coach, with the exception of years spent in the armed forces and while pursuing a second degree, until 1938. The stadium opened in 1938 and named in his honor in 1943, shortly after his death.

Sam Patterson

Sam Patterson was a volunteer coach for SINU and filled in for one season after William McAndrew joined the armed forces during World War I.

No Teams in 1918 and 1920

William Lodge

Like Patterson, Lodge was a fill-in for McAndrew. He also coached the basketball team and served as acting athletic director.

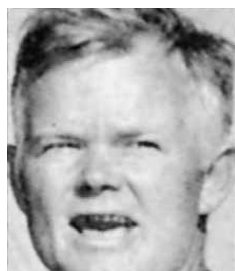

Glenn (Abe) Martin
1939-49
Record: 31-42-5

Abe Martin starred on the university's only unbeaten football team in 1930 and became the second alumnus to play professional football, competing for the Chicago Cardinals in 1932.

As coach at SINU, Martin's biggest milestone was guiding the 1947 team to a victory in the Corn Bowl.

In addition to coaching football, Martin was SINU's interim athletics director and head basketball coach in 1943 before eventually being named AD in 1945. He also revived the baseball program in 1947.

Bill Waller
1950-51
Record: 3-14-1

A Benton, Ill., native, Waller was an Illinois graduate who played professional football and baseball.

William O'Brien
1952-54
Record: 6-20

O'Brien lettered in football, baseball and track at SINU in the early 1940s.

After a stint in the Marine Corps, he returned to SIU in 1952 and was named head football coach at the age of 29. He coached until 1954, when he became director of SIU's Outdoor Recreation Department and embarked on a career in football officiating.

O'Brien had a long, productive career as an NFL referee and was an observer for the NFL until 1990.

Al Kawal
1955-58
Record: 20-15-2

Before arriving at SIU, Kawal had eight years of head coaching experience at Drake and Temple.

The native Chicagoan, had his best year in 1958, posting a 7-2 record, including a key, 32-31 win over Western Illinois. He was unbeaten in four seasons at SIU against Eastern Illinois and was 3-1 vs. Northern Illinois.

Carmen Piccone
1959-63
Record: 28-20

The 30-year old Piccone joined Southern Illinois' staff as an assistant coach in 1955 after serving under Al Kawal as an assistant at Temple.

Piccone had been a star quarterback at Temple and captained its 1952 team.

In five seasons at SIU, his teams never lost to Illinois State (4-0), Central Michigan (4-0) or Eastern Michigan (3-0). His 1960 squad won the IIAAC championship with a perfect 6-0 record.

Don Shroyer
1964-65
Record: 4-16

Shroyer joined SIU in 1964 after two seasons with the football St. Louis Cardinals.

His only wins at SIU were over Louisville, Drake, Northern Iowa and SW Missouri State. He returned to the Cardinals and primarily helped develop former Saluki standout quarterback Jim Hart.

Ellis Rainsberger
Record: 4-5-1

Rainsberger came to SIU after serving as an assistant at Kansas. He left the Salukis after one season to become an assistant at Illinois, where he spent six years. Rainsberger later moved on to the Canadian Football League.

Dick Towers
1967-73
Record: 30-37-2

Towers was promoted to head coach after just one year as an assistant at SIU.

His teams battled top competition including, Louisville, East Carolina and Oklahoma State. Towers' teams posted three seasons above .500, three below and one at 5-5. After leaving SIU, he returned to Kansas, later serving as AD at Kansas State.

Doug Weaver
1974-75
Record: 3-18-1

Weaver was named athletics director at SIU in 1973 and added the head football coaching duties the following year.

Weaver had been an assistant at Michigan State, Missouri, Kansas and UCLA, and head coach at Kansas State prior to SIU.

He resigned at SIU following the 1975 season to become the athletics director at Michigan State, where he served until retiring in 1990.

Rey Dempsey
1976-83
Record: 54-37

Dempsey had a reputation for rebuilding programs after turning around the football fortunes at Youngstown State immediately prior to taking over SIU. The Salukis became a player at the national level during his eight-year stay, winning games against Temple, East Carolina, Fresno State, Marshall, Tulsa, West Texas and New Mexico State.

His lone loss to Wichita State in 1983 cost SIU a conference title, but the Salukis ultimately won the National Championship, and Dempsey was named Division I-AA "Coach of the Year."

Dempsey left Southern within a week of winning the national title and took over the football program at Memphis. After several years at Memphis, he resigned to become a full-time minister.

Ray Dorr
1984-87

Record: 17-27

Dorr had the difficult task of succeeding Dempsey.

His 1986 team was a pleasant surprise as it was perfect against Ohio Valley teams. A one-point loss at Kansas, after taking a late lead, will be remembered as one of the toughest defeats in school history. His teams were 3-1 against both Eastern Illinois and Illinois State. Dorr left SIU to become offensive coordinator at USC. He died in 2001 of Lou Gehrig's Disease.

Rick Rhoades

Record: 4-7

Although credited with upgrading the program, the genial Rhoades resigned just two months after his first season ended.

He returned "home" to Alabama where he joined the Crimson Tide's staff. He later became an assistant at Kentucky, and in 1993 was named head coach at McNeese State.

Bob Smith
1989-93

In five seasons at SIU, Smith's teams and players established numerous offensive records.

One of the most remarkable accomplishments of his five-year tenure came in 1991 when the Salukis managed to post a 7-4 record by winning the first five games of the season, rising as high as No. 15 in the national polls. The 1991 team was adept at winning close games, as six of its seven wins came by a total of just 14 points. The club won three games by a single point.

Shawn Watson

Record: 11-22

Watson took over at SIU after putting in impressive seasons as an assistant at Miami (Ohio). His first team avoided a winless season when it upset a good Western Kentucky club, 10-7. Following the 1-10 start, his teams recorded back-to-back 5-6 seasons in 1995 and 1996. His final club in 1996 got off to a 4-1 start before a five-game losing streak and 5-6 overall finish. Left SIU to become quarterbacks coach at Northwestern.

Jan Quarless
1997-2000

Record: 14-30

Quarless became SIU's 18th head coach in January 1997. He had previously served as an assistant with the Salukis from 1977 through 1982 under Rey Dempsey.

Although his first team was 3-8, his 1999 club went 5-6 and set a new SIU scoring record.

Jerry Kill

2001-07

Record: 55-32

In seven years at the helm of SIU, Kill guided the Salukis to three-straight Gateway Conference championships and five-straight playoff appearances.

In 2004, the Salukis spent 10 weeks atop the FCS polls, and Kill won the Eddie Robinson Award for Coach of the Year in FCS.

Kill left SIU after the 2007 season to become head coach at Northern Illinois and is currently the head coach at Minnesota.

Dale Lennon

2008-Present

Record: 35-23

Dale Lennon was named the 20th head coach in school history on Dec. 28, 2007. He guided SIU to back-to-back MVFC Championships and FCS Playoff appearances in 2008 and 2009. In 2009, Lennon led the Salukis to the No. 1 national ranking for the first time since Oct. 10, 2005. The Sports Network had SIU ranked as the No. 1 team for the last three weeks of the regular season.

Lennon was named the AFCA Region IV Coach of the Year as well as the MVFC Bruce Craddock Coach of the Year in both 2008 and 2009. He joined six previous league coaches to be named the conference's coach of the year in back-to-back seasons.

SIU won 11-straight games in 2009 and finished with an 11-2 record. He is one of just three Saluki coaches to lead the Dawgs to a 10-win season. He has 35 wins, more than any other coach in his first three seasons at SIU.83

Retired Jerseys
#23 Harry Bobbitt (1961-63)

Carbondale native Harry Bobbitt died of a blood clot in July 1964, the year prior to what would have been his senior season. His number was retired after that year. One of three team captains of the 1963 team, Bobbitt caught a then program record 34 passes for 503 yards and five touchdowns.

#30 Mark Hemphill (1979)

Mark Hemphill was a football-track letterman, who had suffered a severe spinal injury during the 1979 football season. On Sept. 13, 1980, Southern Illinois University honored him with "Mark Hemphill Day" at McAndrew Stadium. A McAndrew Stadium all-time record crowd of 17,150 showed up to watch SIU beat Eastern Illinois 37-35 on that special day. More than $30,000 dollars was raised in contributions and given to Mark's family to help in covering his various rehabilitation expenses. Illinois Governor Jim Thompson was on hand to present Mark with a plaque at halftime during which time his football jersey was retired. Mark died a year later in St. Louis, his hometown.

#78 Jim Lovin (1946-49)

Jim Lovin, a Benton, Ill. native who is shown on the left in the picture, was the first Southern Illinois football player to have his jersey number retired. Not only was Lovin the first player in SIU's history to start every game throughout his four-year career, but he was the first Illinois Intercollegiate Athletic Conference player to be named first team All-Conference four times. The tackle was SIU's team MVP in 1948 and 1949. In the 1949 season finale, a 41-14 win over Indiana State at McAndrew Stadium, Lovin was rewarded with an opportunity to kick a PAT, which he made.

Silkworm Inc. Press Center

The Silkworm Inc. Press Center for working press is located on the south end of the second floor of the press box at Saluki Stadium. It opens two hours prior to game time. Radio, coaches and TV booths are located in the center of the second floor of the press box.

Meals will be served prior to kickoff. Media credentials are required for admittance to the press box and for meals.

Game programs and flip cards will be made available in the press box while all game notes, statistics and media guides will be available on SIU's game day web page, where you can also find a link to the game viewer for live in-game stats.

Postgame statistics and play-by-plays will be provided in the press box after the game.

Complimentary wireless Internet is available for use. An SIU IT representative will be on hand to assist media members accessing the wireless network.

A limited number of phone lines and hard-wire ethernet outlets are available for use on a first-come, first-serve basis in the Silkworm Inc. Press Center. Dial "9" to get an outside line.

Credentials

Credentials are required for entrance to the press box or access to the field (for photographers). To request a season or single-game press credential and/or sideline credential, please e-mail Assistant AD Tom Weber at tomweber@siu.edu.

Credential requests should be made by sports editors or sports directors of accredited media outlets and should be limited to working media only. Because of limited space, requests should be made as early as possible. Family/friends of credentialed media members will not be granted access to the press box.

Credentials will be mailed to the requesting individual or organization if time permits or sent to the visiting school's sports information director for distribution. Credentials can also be picked up in the Media Services office located in Room 117 of Lingle Hall or at the media will call at Saluki Stadium.

Credentials will be issued to working media only. Media credentials are not transferable and use by anyone other than members of the working media is unauthorized. News organizations allowing unauthorized individuals to use credentials will have their credentials revoked for the remainder of the year.

Sideline Access

Sideline access is closely monitored at Saluki Stadium. In addition to a media credential, field photographers must obtain an armband that allows access to the sideline. Armbands will be available on the second floor of the press box. The armband must be worn in plain sight at all times. Please observe NCAA regulations and shoot from the designated areas. Photographers must shoot from behind the white lines between the 25-yard line and the back of the end zone on either side of the field.

Game Day Parking

Media working on deadline may request parking access in Reserved Lot C located in the circle lot on the south side of the SIU Arena. Names will be provided to the parking attendant on game day. Other media should park in the non-reserved lot directly south of Saluki Drive.

Postgame Procedure

Postgame interviews will take place in the Tedrick Auditorium, located in the Boydston Center across the hall from the football offices. Head coach Dale Lennon and requested players will be made available in the football auditorium approximately 10 minutes following the game.

SIU's locker room is closed following games. The visiting team's locker room is located on the bottom floor of Lingle Hall. The visiting SID will establish postgame interview policies for their coach and players.

Football E-Mail List

If you would like to be added to the Saluki football E-mail list to receive news about the team, please e-mail Scott Gierman at sgierman@siu.edu.

Interviews During the Week

Head coach Dale Lennon will hold a weekly press conference on Mondays in the Tedrick Auditorium on the second floor of the Boydston Center.

Immediately after the press conference, selected players will be available in the locker room on the lower level of the Boydston Center. Media should send interview requests by e-mail to Tyler Wooten (tjwooten@siu.edu) by 5 p.m. on Sunday evening. If a player is unavailable for interviews on Monday due to class schedule, there will be a brief opportunity to interview the player before practice on Tuesday. Please coordinate this interview with a member of the Media Services staff.

Players may not be interviewed without permission from Media Services. Cell phone numbers will not be given out.

True freshmen and newcomers will not be available for interviews until after their first game, unless otherwise granted permission by head coach Dale Lennon.

Out of town media wishing to conduct interviews with players or coaches may do so by phone. Please contact Scott Gierman to arrange an interview.

Practice Policies

Training camp practices are open to the media, unless otherwise noted. A weekly interview schedule will be distributed to the e-mail list. Media must remain on the sidelines at all times. When Coach Lennon speaks to the team as a group after practice, media must remain on the sideline.

Media may watch practice during the season on Tuesdays and Wednesdays. On days the team practices in Saluki Stadium, members of the media must move into the stands. Video and still photographers may shoot the first 20 minutes of actual practice time.

Missouri Valley Football Conference Call

Every Wednesday during the season, all MVFC head coaches will participate in a weekly teleconference. Audio replays of the conference call are available at www.valley-football.org. For more information contact Mike Kern, (314) 444-4326, at the conference office.
