CHARLOTTE WEST STADIUM • ROCHMAN FIELD

Southern Illinois University's Charlotte West Stadium was completed in 2003, and has quickly earned a reputation as one of the finest softball facilities in the country, as well as being a tough venue for opponents.

Since its opening on March 1, 2003, the Salukis have recorded a .757 winning percentage in their home facility.

The stadium is named for Dr. Charlotte West, who retired as SIU's associate athletics director in 1998 after serving the University for 42 years as a faculty member, coach and administrator.

She began her faculty career at SIU in 1957 as an instructor in the department of physical education. She became a full professor in 1973 and developed SIU's graduate program in sport management, which she directed until June 1991.

From 1960 until 1986, West was director of intercollegiate athletics for women. She helped transform the department from its meager beginnings into a nationally-recognized program with a budget of more than $1 million for 11 sports.

After the 1986 merger of the men's and women's athletics departments, West served as associate athletics director for one year, interim director for a year and associate athletics director for 10 years.

Barrett Rochman, a Carbondale businessman and SIU alumnus, who is a significant annual contributor to the softball program, had the softball field named in his honor.

The $1.7 million stadium was officially opened on March 15, 2003 with a 9-0 win over Bradley, in front of a crowd of 395 fans.

In just six years of existence, Charlotte West Stadium has served as the host of the MVC Softball Championship three times (2004, 2008 and 2012). It also played host to the NCAA Regionals in 2007.

The state-of-the-art facility holds 502 fans and is one of the finest in the Midwest.

The stadium features chair back and bleacher seating, a concession area, rest rooms, lights, large dugouts, a training room, full-size lockers in a carpeted locker room, a large electronic scoreboard, coaches' office, two batting cages, an irrigation system and a spacious, elevated press box with phone and ethernet connections.

The Stadium field consists of a four-way sports turf mix outfield with a Bermuda/rye mix primary and Crimson Stone Ultimate Series Infield, which is illuminated by a top-of-the-line lighting system for night games.

A Tradition of Academic Excellence

In addition to success on the field, the SIU softball team has had a strong tradition of excellence in the classroom. The Salukis have been named to the NFCA All-Academic top-10 list in eight of the past 11 seasons.

Kerri BLAYLOCK

HEAD COACH ★ 14TH SEASON

The unofficial slogan for Saluki softball is "A Tradition of Excellence." Kerri Blaylock has been a major contributor to that tradition as she enters her 14th season as the team's head coach and her 23rd overall year with the program.

Including her nine seasons as an assistant under her mentor, Saluki Hall of Famer Kay Brechtelbauer, and her 13 years as the team's skipper, Blaylock has helped Saluki softball maintain its position as one of the elite programs in the Missouri Valley Conference while elevating the program to national prominence. All told, SIU has won four conference titles and made six NCAA Tournament appearances with Blaylock on the staff.

As a head coach, Blaylock has led SIU to more than 480 wins and three MVC titles with five NCAA Tournament appearances while producing 67 All-Conference selections. Entering the 2013 season, Blaylock ranks first among active MVC coaches in career winning percentage (.683) with a record of 488-226. That ranks her 22nd nationally in winning percentage among active Division I coaches with five years of service or more. She holds a .710 winning percentage in MVC games (218-89) and has been a member of five MVC Coaching Staffs of the Year.

Blaylock's specialty is pitching. Her staff led the MVC in overall ERA every year except one between 1997 and 2006. SIU also led the league in strikeouts for five consecutive years from 1998 to 2002, setting an MVC record with 500 strikeouts in 2000. Two of the three All-Americans in SIU history were pitchers under Blaylock, including Jamie Schutteck (Third-Team, 1997) and Erin Stremsterfer (Third-Team, 2001). Southern has had the MVC Pitcher of the Year four times during Blaylock's tenure, including Stremsterfer (2001), Amy Harre (2005), Cassidy Scoggins (2006) and Danielle Glosson (2010).

In addition to Southern's on-field success, Blaylock's teams have consistently ranked among the nation's best in the classroom as well. SIU has ranked among the top 20 nationally in team GPA every season since 2001 with seven top-five finishes. The Salukis ranked second nationally for team GPA in both 2007 and 2011. SIU players have earned 70 MVC Scholar-Athlete awards and 11 Academic All-America honors under Blaylock.

YEAR-BY-YEAR AT SIU

Blaylock took the reins of the program in 2000 after the retirement of Kay Brechtelbauer, who coached SIU for 32 years. Blaylock served nine seasons as an assistant under Brechtelbauer, including five as the team's pitching coach.

Saluki softball didn't falter during the transition from Brechtelbauer to Blaylock. As a first-year head coach in 2000, Blaylock led SIU to a 41-22 record, the first 40-win season since the Salukis went 41-16 in 1997. SIU hasn't won fewer than 30 games or finished worse than fourth in the MVC in the 12 seasons since.

SIU finished in the top three in the MVC each year from 2001-03 with Blaylock's staff earning MVC Coaching Staff of the Year in both 2002 and 2003. Individually, SIU had the MVC's Rookie of the Year in both 2002 (Amy Harre) and 2003 (Katie Louis). The 2003 Salukis went 39-14 and earned the program's first NCAA Tournament bid since 1991. SIU advanced to the Regional final in the 2003 NCAA Tournament for the program's first-ever Sweet 16 appearance.

Blaylock broke through with her first MVC championship in 2004, setting a then-program record for wins with a 45-17 overall record with an 18-6 mark in the Valley. The Salukis followed up by setting a new MVC record for wins in 2005 that still stands today. SIU went 47-14 and set a program record for conference wins with a 24-3 mark in the Valley to win its second-consecutive MVC title. The 2004 and 2005 teams both advanced to the NCAA Tournament and Blaylock's staff also made it four-straight seasons by being named the MVC's Staff of the Year in 2004 and 2005.

SIU stretched its streak of consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances to five-straight, earning at-large bids in both 2006 and 2007. The 2007 squad spent a school-record 13-consecutive weeks ranked in the top 25 nationally, including a program-best No. 18 ranking.

SIU finished third in the MVC in 2008 with Lauren Haas earning the program's first Valley Player of the Year honor since 1997. In 2009, SIU had its best start in school history at 13-1 and went on to finish second in the MVC. The Salukis made it back into the national rankings again in 2009, tying a program-best by elevating as high as No. 18.

The 2010 season saw SIU climb back atop the MVC standings for the third Valley title of the Blaylock era, and the program was rewarded with its fifth MVC Coaching Staff of the Year honor under Blaylock. The Salukis followed up with a pair of 36-win seasons in 2011 and 2012 as Mallory Duran-Sellers became the second MVC Player of the Year under Blaylock in 2012.

BACKGROUND

Blaylock had a stellar playing career in addition to her coaching successes. She was considered one of the top three pitchers in the state as a prep at nearby Herrin High School, according to the Chicago Tribune, compiling a record of 65-7 from 1980-84. She set marks for wins and strikeouts for Herrin High and became the first female athlete ever selected to the Herrin High School Hall of Fame in 1992.

Following her successful prep career, Blaylock attended the University of Evansville, where she developed into one of the Aces' all-time leading hurlers. During her career, she put together a record of 77-48 with a 1.54 ERA and struck out 365 hitters in 857.2 innings of work. Blaylock still holds virtually all of Evansville's pitching records.

Blaylock excelled as a student-athlete both on and off the field at UE. As a junior, she was named a GTE Academic All-American, and in 1988, she was named the Midwestern Collegiate Conference Player of the Year. Evansville recognized Blaylock's success on the diamond by inducting her into the school's Hall of Fame in 1995.

After graduating from Evansville in 1988 with a bachelor's degree in accounting, Blaylock attended Southeast Missouri State University where she began her coaching career as a graduate assistant. She later received a master's degree in 1991 in business administration.

Jen SEWELL

ASSOC. HEAD COACH ★ 5TH SEASON

Jen Sewell enters her fifth year at Southern Illinois University and her third season as the associate head coach. Sewell serves as the team's hitting coach while also working with infield and catchers. Additionally, Sewell works SIU camps and clinics and assists in recruiting and opponent scouting.

SIU has consistently been one of the top hitting teams in the Missouri Valley Conference under Sewell's instruction, finishing third or better in team batting average in each of her four seasons. The Salukis' team batting average has improved each year with Sewell on the staff, elevating from .264 her first season in 2009 to .290 in 2012.

The Salukis have proven to also be the league's most patient team under Sewell's tutelage. SIU finished with the most walks in the MVC in each of the last four seasons, including a program-record 228 walks in 2012, in addition to finishing last in the league in strikeouts in 2012 and 2011. The Salukis have also finished in the Valley's top three in slugging percentage, on-base percentage and RBI in each of the last three seasons.

2012 was a banner year for the Saluki offense as SIU led the league in on-base percentage, runs, hits and walks and ranked second in batting average and RBI. SIU's 307 runs in 2012 broke a school record and ranks fourth in MVC history. The Salukis' .290 batting average in 2012 was the program's best since 1997.

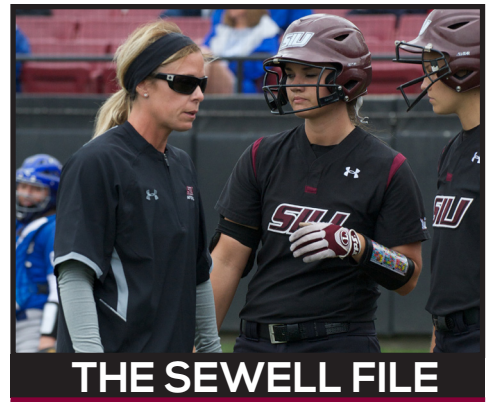

Mallory Duran-Sellers was named the 2012 MVC Player of the Year and Allie VadeBoncover earned First-Team All-MVC honors in 2012 thanks in part to their offensive production. Duran-Sellers set an MVC record with 61 runs scored and also ranked third in the league in batting average, hits and on-base percentage. VadeBoncover tied the school record with a league-leading 51 RBI and also finished second in the MVC in on-base percentage.

SIU also had a solid year offensively in 2011 under Sewell, finishing second in the league in batting average, on-base percentage, runs scored and RBI. Duran-Sellers had a First-Team All-Conference season, posting the third-most hits in SIU history (65), with the fifth-best batting average in school annals (.398).

Sewell earned a championship ring in 2010 as the Salukis took the MVC regular season title and finished second at the conference tournament with Sewell and the SIU coaching staff earning MVC Coaching Staff of the Year laurels. Sewell helped mentor the battery of MVC Pitcher of the Year Danielle Glosson and Second-Team All-MVC catcher Cristina Trapani.

Prior to SIU, Sewell spent five seasons at Kansas (2004-2008), as a hitting and infield coach. Sewell helped coach KU to its first-ever Big 12 postseason championship and second straight NCAA Regional appearance in 2006. She also guided the Jayhawk defense to a program-best .973 fielding percentage, which ranked 14th in the nation in 2005. That same year, Sewell coached the team to a single-season home run record and single-season fielding percentage record of .973 which ranked No. 14 in the nation. Sewell coached Big 12 Player of the Year and Second Team All-American Serena Settlemier to single-season marks for home runs and slugging percentage while becoming KU's fastest assistant coach to reach 100 wins.

Sewell got her start as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Princeton for four seasons. During her four seasons at Princeton, Sewell coached seven All-Ivy League selections, an Ivy League Player of the Year and Rookie of the Year, as well as a two-time Ivy Pitcher of the Year. "We are hoping to have Morgan completely healthy for the first time in two years. She had a great fall replacing Mallory Duran-Sellers as our leadoff hitter. 'Mo' is very talented offensively and does a great job in right field for us. I expect her to have a fantastic senior season both in production and in leadership on and off the field."

"Michelle is no doubt one of the best defensive outfielders in the Missouri Valley Conference. In last year's conference tournament alone she made several diving and circus catches. We are pleased with how her offense is coming along. She has really settled in at the plate and is really making great decisions. If we want to reach our goals we'll need her leadership to get there."

Brittney LANG

Senior • 5-10 • P

Leavenworth, Kan. • Lansing HS

"Britt has really come into her own as a top-notch pitcher in our league. She had a good junior year and a very good fall for us. I'm really proud of her command and her confidence on the mound. She has tweaked a couple of pitches and we've seen devastating movement out of her stuff. And don't be surprised if you see her in the hitting lineup in 2013. She is such a great athlete we need to give her the chance to swing the bat."

Kelsea ASHTON

Junior • 5-7 • INF

Carterville, Ill. • Carterville HS

"I felt that Kels had an All-conference type of year last year. She is such a steady player for us both offensively and defensively. She is a rock at third base and also is very comfortable hitting in the 2-hole for us. She is a smart leader in the infield and can settle our team down with her style of play. This is the player fans and teams don't always notice but her coaches and teammates recognize her consistency every day."

Taylor ORSBURN

Junior • 5-4 • INF

Alto Pass, Ill. • Cobden HS

"Taylor had another great year for us and I expect her junior season to be just as good. She has worked very hard in the offseason to be even better in her at-bats and I think it will help her go to another level. She is the type of player that can change the game with one swing. We want her to remain steady and consistent and have asked her to take on more of a leadership role in the infield."

Jayna SPIVEY

Junior • 5-5 • INF

Rosiclare, Ill. • Hardin County HS

"Jay is such a big part of our team both offensively and defensively. She will continue to hit in the middle of our lineup and be an RBI producer. Most teams notice her offense but she has dedicated herself to being a great defensive second baseman and it will show this year. This is another player who can change a game with one at-bat."

"Caylee comes to us from a great summer program. She was a great power hitter and an RBI machine. She didn't get much time in the fall due to an injury but is working hard to get back. We look for Caylee to help with her bat immediately and behind the plate. I don't have a player more confident on the team than Caylee and expect her to come up big in big situations."

She has great range and a big arm. She is fearless at the plate and will contribute offensively for us. This is a kid that teams will underestimate at the plate and she will burn them for overlooking her."
