SOUTHERN ILLINOIS NOTES

All-Time in Conference Openers

The Salukis are 3-0 in conference openers under fourth-year head coach Cindy Stein. SIU had lost three-straight conference openers prior to Stein's arrival in 2013. Overall, the Salukis hold a .542% winning percentage (19-16) in conference openers since 1981-82, and have won three of the last four MVC openers played at the SIU Arena. Southern last opened the Valley season at the Arena in 2013, when the Salukis defeated the Bradley Braves in double overtime, 100-96.

All-Time vs. the Ramblers

The Salukis and the Ramblers will meet for the 12th time in a rivalry that dates back to 1982. SIU has an opportunity to even the series with a win on Friday, as Loyola holds a 6-5 advantage after winning two out of three last season. The Salukis won the last meeting between the two programs, as Southern defeated Loyola, 73-64 in the MVC

Tournament quarterfinals.

Current Salukis vs. the Ramblers

Kylie Giebelhausen comes into Friday's contest shooting 48.6% (17-of-35) from the floor in five career games against Loyola, including 41.7% (10-of-24) from downtown. The East Peoria, Ill. native also averages 9.8 points and 5.2 rebounds per game against the Ramblers while Rishonda Napier is averaging 11.6 points and 4.0 assists per game in six career meetings against Loyola.

Milestone Watch

Rishonda Napier is nearing several milestones. She's eight three-pointers away from breaking Teri Oliver's school record of 235 career three-pointers, set in 2011. Her 228 threes are the 11th-most among current DI players. She's also just 41 points shy of becoming the fifth Saluki to score 1,500 career points.

SOUTHERN ILLINOIS NOTES

Last Meeting

Four scored in double figures as the Salukis advanced to the Missouri Valley Conference Tournament Semifinals for the first time since the 1996-97 season with a 73-64 win over the no. 5 seed Loyola Ramblers on March 12, 2016 in the iWireless Center.

Southern was led in scoring by Rishonda Napier, who finished with 20 points, six assists and four boards. Dyana Pierre notched her 52nd career double-double, scoring 13 points and grabbing a game-high 16 rebounds. Cartaesha Macklin narrowly missed a double-double of her own, tallying 18 points and nine rebounds, while Kylie Giebelhausen added 12 points on 5-of-7 shooting.

Napier Remains Perfect

Rishonda Napier made a pair of free throws against South Dakota on Dec. 20, and has now made 30-straight free throws to start the season. It's the most consecutive makes from the charity stripe in school history, and is tied with Karly Buer (Missouri State, 2011-12) and Catie O'Leary (Bradley, 2012-13)

for 14th-most in Missouri Valley Conference history.

Threes in bunches

The Salukis made 10 three-pointers in their 69-61 win over Memphis, and followed with 11 three-pointers in their 77-69 win over UMKC. It marks just the third time since 1989, and the first since the 2003-04 season, that SIU has made 10-plus three-pointers in back-to-back games.

Winning Non-Conference Games

The Salukis finished 6-5 in non-conference play to start the 2016-17 season, insuring a record of .500 or better in non-conference play for the third-straight season. It marks the first time since the 1993-94, 1994-95 and 1995-96 seasons that the Salukis have posted three-straight .500 or better records in non-conference action.

Comeback Kids

SIU roared back to erase a 16-point third quarter deficit to defeat the UMKC Kangaroos, 77-69 on Dec. 19. It marked Southern's largest comeback victory since the 2002-03 season, when the Salukis came back from being down 18 points to defeat Tennessee Tech on Nov. 30, 2002.

Resilient Bunch

The 2016-17 Salukis are also the first team dating back to the 2002-03 season that has overcome two deficits of 15-points or more in the same season. SIU roared back from being down 15 to down the SEMO Redhawks on Dec. 9, and later came back from being down

16 points to stun the UMKC Kangaroos on their home floor.

Nebo, Napier earn All-Tournament honors at Roo Holiday Classic

Kim Nebo and Rishonda Napier earned All-Tournament honors at the Roo Holiday Classic after helping the Salukis to a split at the two-day event. Nebo averaged 11.5 points and 8.5 rebounds and notched the fifth double-double of her career against the Kangaroos, as she scored 14 points and grabbed 10 rebounds to go along with two assists, a block and a steal. Rishonda Napier averaged 16 points, 4.0 assists and 3.0 rebounds during the two-day tournament en route to earning All-Tourney honors, which included scoring 16 points in the second half of SIU's comeback win over UMKC on Dec. 19.

Giebelhausen from long distance

Kylie Giebelhausen currently leads the Salukis in scoring (13.3 pts/game), and has done so, in part, by shooting 43.9% from beyond the arc. She currently leads the Valley in three pointers made (29), three-pointers made per game (2.64) and three-point field goal percentage (43.9%).

All Ball

Giebelhausen also leads the MVC in blocks per game (1.27). She ranks fourth on SIU's all-time career blocks list with 91 and is one of only four Salukis to surpass 90 career blocks.

500 Field Goals and Counting

Rishonda Napier became the 12th Saluki to make 500 field goals in a career, and needs to make just three on Friday to pass Connie Price for 10th on SIU's all-time career list. Price-Smith, the current head track and field coach at Ole Miss, made 511 field goals during her SIU basketball career.

Finding their stroke

The Salukis shot 57.1% (28-of-49) from the floor in the win over SEMO, including 58.3% (7-of-12) from three-point territory. It's the best Southern has shot from the field since shooting 60% in a 70-65 loss to Evansville on January 2, 2009.

Corrigan's career night

Carlie Corrigan had the hot hand in SIU's win over Memphis, as she shot 70% (7-of-10) from the floor, including 80% (4-of-5) from downtown. She set a career-high with 20 points in the win, and tied career-bests in both field goals (7) and three-point field goals (4).

Top-10 most assists in a game

Rishonda Napier dished out a career-best 11 assists in the win over Memphis, tying her with Molly McDowell for the 8th-most assists in a single game in program history.

Sharing is Caring

The Salukis have handed out 15-plus assists in eight of their 11 contests this season, including in four-straight contests. The most 15-plus assist games in a season, dating back to 1989 is 20, set during the 1991-92 season. 15-plus assists in at least 10 games for three-straight seasons This year's squad has the potential to dish out 15-plus assists in 10 or more games for the third-straight season, which would be the first time since 2005-08, when Southern had three-straight double-digit assist seasons.

Defending the Perimeter

The Salukis are currently ranked 1st in the conference, and 16th in the nation, in opponent's three-point field goal percentage. SIU is holding opponents to just 25.7% shooting from beyond the arc.

Dishing Out Helpers

The Salukis dished out 29 assists on 37 field goals in the win over Brescia, tied for the second-most assists in a single game in program history. Eight different Salukis recorded an assist in the win, and Southern turned the ball over just six times.

Finding the Opener Shooter

Of the eight occurrences in which SIU has tallied 20 or more assists in back-to-back games, the 49 combined assists against SIUE and Brescia are the second-most. The 1990 squad recorded 58 assists in back-to-back contests, as Southern handed out a school record 30 assists against Western Illinois on Jan. 8, 1990 and followed with 28 against Northern Iowa on Jan. 11, 1990.

Back-to-Back 20+ Assist games

Southern recorded 20+ assists in back-to-back contests this year, finishing with 20 in the loss to SIUE and coming back with 29 in the win over Brescia on Nov. 26. You have to go all the way back to the 2000-01 season to find the last time that SIU recorded 20+ assists in multiple games during the same season, and all the way back to the 1998-99 season when current Director of Basketball Operations Julie Beck was Southern's head coach to find the last time SIU accomplished the feat in back-to-back games. SIU recorded 21 assists vs. Murray State on Nov. 20, 1998, and followed with 20 assists at Memphis on Nov. 23, 1998.

Dropping Dimes Part Two

Of the 53 times in which the Salukis have tallied 20 or more assists in a single game since 1989, it was just the eighth time that Southern has dished out 20-plus assists in back-to-back games. Southern's longest streak of 20-plus assist games is three-straight, which it has done twice, last doing so during the 1993-94 season.

Finding the Open Looks

SIU is averaging 7.5 three-pointers per game in the early goings of the 2016-17 season, well above the school record of 6.667 threes per game set a year ago. SIU is attempting 21 three-pointers per contest through 11 games, or slightly less than the school-record of 21.5 three-point attempts per game, set during the 2011-12 season.

Power 5 Conference win

The Salukis picked up a 64-61 win at Purdue, a win that snapped several long streaks. The win at Purdue marked SIU's first win in West Lafayette, Ind. since 1980, and the Salukis first win over a Big Ten school since 1993. 1993 also marked the last time SIU beat a school from a Power 5 conference, as Southern defeated Arizona State, 73-57 on Dec. 20, 1993.

Napier's 100th career start

Rishonda Napier made her 100th career start against UMKC on Dec. 19, scoring 16 points to lead SIU back from a 16-point deficit to defeat the Kangaroos, 77-69.

CINDY STEIN

HEAD COACH • FOURTH SEASON

Cindy Stein enters her fourth season as the head coach of the Salukis in 2016-17. She was named the 10th head coach in Southern Illinois women's basketball history on April 3, 2013. A proven winner and a former NCAA Division II Coach of the Year, Stein has made an immediate impact at SIU much like she has in each of her previous head coaching stints.

At Southern Illinois 2015-16 (20-13, 12-6 MVC)

The 2015-16 season kept with the theme of several program firsts within Stein's tenure while the squad's 20-13 overall record marked the program's 10th 20-win season. The Salukis beat every Missouri Valley Conference foe at least once and advanced to the semifinals of the MVC Tournament for the first time since the 1994-95 season. In doing so, Southern earned an invitation to the Women's Basketball Invitational, the program's first postseason berth since 2007.

The Salukis averaged 69.2 points per game during the season, the highest mark in more than 20 years while shattering the school record for three-pointers made in a single-season. The Dawgs continued to win the battle of the boards under Stein, and for just the eighth time in program history, and the first time since the 1995-96 season, SIU averaged more than 40 rebounds per game. Southern's 42.2 rpg were second only to the 1994-95 team's 42.3 rpg for highest average in school history.

Under Stein's tutelage, three Salukis, Dyana Pierre, Rishonda Napier and Cartaesha Macklin earned All-MVC first-team honors, with Pierre nabbing both All-MVC first-team and All-Defensive team honors. The three first-team selections are the most in a single-season in program history. The Dawgs also continued to raise the bar in the classroom, as the 2015-16 team achieved the highest team GPA in 11 semesters and 9 of 12 Salukis posted a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or higher. The league office took notice, as the Salukis garnered three MVC Scholar Athlete selections, the most for Southern since the 2008-09 season.

Stein's coaching tree continued to grow, as associate head coach Andrea Gorski was named the head coach at Bradley University. Gorski joins an impressive list of former Stein assistant coaches who have gone on to head coaching positions: Brandon Schneider, an assistant for Stein at Emporia State, was hired as the head coach at Kansas in 2015. Tanya Warren, the 2016 Missouri Valley Conference Coach of the Year, was an assistant for Stein at Missouri from 2001-04 and has been the head coach at the University of Northern Iowa since 2007 while Matt Daniel, an assistant under Stein at Missouri, is now the head coach at Marshall University. Dave Wilbers, another former Stein assistant at Mizzou, just completed his ninth season as the head coach at Arkansas Tech, where he has compiled a 218-58 record. Most recently, Amanda Hanneman, who played for Stein at Missouri and went on to serve as a graduate assistant on Stein's inaugural staff at SIU, just completed her first season as the head women's basketball coach at St. Teresa's Academy in Kansas City, Mo.

2014-15 (17-13, 10-8 MVC)

Stein and the Salukis conducted an improbable change of gear in 2014-15. Southern went 17-13 overall with a 10-8 conference record with Stein at the helm, ushering in the largest turnaround from one season to the next in school history at plus-12 wins.

SALUKI WOMEN'S BASKETBALL 2016-17

In fact, that turnaround was third-best in the NCAA by the end of the regular season in 2014-15. In perhaps the best Saluki women's team since the 2006-07 WNIT team, Stein and the Salukis stunned the Missouri Valley with a bonafide, efficient offense that came primarily from the first solid starting five SIU had seen in ages in redshirt sophomore Rishonda Napier (point guard), redshirt junior Cartaesha Macklin (shooting guard), freshman Kylie Giebelhausen (shooting guard), junior Azia Washington (power forward) and junior Dyana Pierre (center). The crew went 16-8 together and combined for 84.2 percent of all SIU scoring.

After losing backcourt superstars Macklin and Napier to redshirt seasons in 2013-14, Stein had an optimal offensive weapon set with skilled shooters on the outside, skilled bigs down low in Pierre and Washington, and superb passers getting them the ball and opening mismatches. Southern improved in nearly every statistical category from Stein's first season to her second, including scoring, turnover ratio and even attendance. Pierre and Napier both put in monumentally historic seasons, and both were rewarded with First-Team All-MVC honors for their superb efforts. Pierre was the only player in the Valley to average a double-double at 14.6 PPG and 11.8 RPG -- the latter of which was the eighth-best rebounding average in the NCAA that season. Pierre also put in only the seventh-ever 14-of-14 game in NCAA history, became just the fifth Saluki to ever record a 20-20 game and the fifth Saluki to ever join the 1,000-900 club.

2013-14 (5-25, 3-15 MVC)

Stein's inaugural team at SIU went 5-25 after a slew of bad breaks left the team with only nine available players for the entire MVC schedule. Despite playing without three players who figured to be major contributors, including preseason All-MVC guard Cartaesha Macklin, Stein improved the team's field-goal percentage defense, 3-point percentage defense, scoring defense, rebound margin, blocks and assist-to-turnover ratio from the season before. She improved the team's conference win total from one to three, including an upset over eventual MVC regular-season and tournament champion Wichita State. Stein helped turn Dyana Pierre into a budding star in the Valley. Pierre averaged 14.0 points and an MVC-best 9.6 rebounds as a sophomore and became the first SIU player to earn first-team All-MVC recognition since 2006, and just the second to do so since 2000.

At Illinois Central College

Stein came to Carbondale after leading Illinois Central College to a 32-4 record and a third-place finish at the NJCAA Division II national tournament during her lone season at the school in 2012-13. Stein turned around an ICC team that went 16-16 the year before her arrival. Stein was named the NJCAA Region XXIV Coach of the Year following ICC's run.

At Missouri

Prior to ICC, Stein spent 12 seasons as the head coach at Missouri where she led the Tigers to 185 wins between 1998 and 2010. Stein inherited a Mizzou team that went 11-16 in 1997-98 and led the Tigers to a 22-10 record with a Sweet 16 run by her third year in 2000-01.

Stein's tenure at Mizzou saw the Tigers make seven total postseason appearances with three NCAA Tournament bids and four WNIT appearances. Stein's players at Mizzou earned a combined 24 All-Big 12 honors with four First-Team selections, and she coached five Tigers who were selected in the WNBA Draft. Additionally, Mizzou players earned a combined 46 Academic All-Big 12 honors under Stein's watch.

Following a 13-15 mark during her first season in Columbia, Mo., Stein's Tigers went 18-12 during the 1999-2000 season, marking the program's best record in seven seasons. The 1999-2000 Tigers also earned the program's first postseason berth since 1994 with a trip to the WNIT.

SALUKI WOMEN'S BASKETBALL 2016-17

Stein's third year saw Mizzou go to historic heights as the 2000-01 Tigers posted their best record in 13 years and made a run to the Sweet 16 for just the second time in program history. Following the season, Amanda Lassister became Mizzou's first-ever first-round WNBA Draft pick when she was selected 15th overall by the Houston Comets while fellow Tiger Marlana "Pep" Williams was selected by the Indiana Fever in the third round.

Missouri ultimately made it to the postseason six-consecutive seasons with WNIT berths in 2001-02 and 2002-03 before capping the run with an NCAA Tournament berth in 2003-04. The Tigers also continued sending players into the professional ranks as three-time All-Big 12 selection Evan Unrau was selected in the third round of the 2004 WNBA Draft by the Washington Mystics.

The 2005-06 season was another banner year for the program as the Tigers went 21-10 for their second 20-win season of Stein's tenure, and made it back to the NCAA Tournament. Mizzou had two more players selected in the WNBA draft following the 2005-06 season as LaToya Bond was selected by the Charlotte Sting in the second round and Christelle N'Garsanet was taken in the third.

The 2006-07 Tigers gave Stein her sixth postseason win at Mizzou with a victory in the opening round of the WNIT. Stein coached Mizzou to the most postseason appearances and postseason wins in program history.

At Emporia State

Stein spent three seasons as the head coach at Emporia State prior to Mizzou, turning the Hornets from a sub-.500 team into a Division II national title contender. After going 12-14 in her first season at ESU in 1995-96, the Hornets improved to 20-10 the following season and made it to the second round of the NCAA Tournament before going 33-1 and finishing as the national runner up in 1997-98.

The 1997-98 Hornets went 16-0 in the Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletics Association, earning MIAA Regular Season and Tournament Championships in advance of the historic run to the NCAA Division II title game. Stein coached two-time All-Americans Aneta Kausaite and Jurgita Kausaite at Emporia State in addition to recruiting All-Americans Emily Bloss and Tara Holloway, who both went on to earn National Player of the Year honors. Aneta Kausaite eventually became the first-ever Division II player to play in the WNBA.

Following ESU's run to the 1997-98 title game, Stein was named the National Coach of the Year by the Women's Basketball Coaches Association, the Molten Division II Bulletin and the Kansas Basketball Coaches Association. She was also selected as the 1998 Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletic Association Coach of the Year and the District VI Coach of the Year.

Early Career/Playing Career

Prior to her head coaching experience, Stein was an assistant coach at Illinois (1993-95), Bradley (1988-1993), Cincinnati (1987-88) and Miami University (1986-87). Stein began her foray into coaching as a graduate assistant at Central Michigan from 1984-86.

Stein played collegiately at Illinois from 1981-83 after two years at Illinois Central College from 1979-81. Stein helped the Illini to the 1982 NCAA Tournament, and she still holds several Illinois assists records. A junior college All-American, Stein also helped ICC to back-to-back appearances in the NJCAA national tournament.

Stein has a bachelor's degree in physical education from Illinois and a master's degree in physical education from Central Michigan.
