SOUTHERN ILLINOIS NOTES

All-Time vs. the Sycamores

The Salukis and the Sycamores meet for the 89th time in a series that dates back to the 1968-69 season. SIU has won four-straight over Indiana State, sweeping the season series in each of the past two seasons under Coach Stein. The series is tied 44-44, with Southern sporting an 18-15 all-time record in home games against the Sycamores.

Scouting the Sycamores

The Sycamores come into Sunday's matinee matchup sporting a 6-6 record after a 57-41 loss at Evansville Friday night. Indiana State shot just 25.5% from the floor, including 17.4% from three in its Valley openers against the upstart Purple Aces. The Sycamores have the top scoring defense in the league, holding opponents to just 60.8 points per game through their first 12 games. The Salukis, on the other hand, are second in the league in both scoring offense (67.9 points/game) and scoring defense (63.7 points/game).

Holding their own against the 3-ball

The Salukis held the Loyola Ramblers without a three-pointer on Dec. 30, as the Ramblers were 0-for-9 from three-point range. It marks the first time since Nov. 13, 2012 that Southern has held an opponent without a 3-ball, when the Salukis held Central Arkansas to 0-for-12 from three. It was the first time that SIU held a conference opponent without a three-pointer since Jan. 19, 2012 against Missouri State, when the Salukis held the Bears to 0-for-11 from downtown. Of the four times a team from the Valley has held an opponent to one or fewer three-pointers, SIU accounts for three of them.

Defending the Perimeter

The Salukis are currently ranked 1st in the conference, and 7th in the nation, in opponent's three-point field goal percentage. SIU is holding opponents to just 24.3% shooting from beyond the arc.

SOUTHERN ILLINOIS NOTES

Double-Double

Kim Nebo recorded the sixth double-double of her career, and her third in the last five games, in SIU's 73-57 win over Loyola on Dec. 30. The Katy, Texas native scored 10 points and grabbed 11 rebounds against the Ramblers, and the Salukis improved to 4-0 this season, and 6-0 all-time, when Nebo records a double-double.

Hawkins' career night

Tiajaney Hawkins was the spark that ignited the Saluki offense in the 73-57 win over Loyola on Dec. 30, as she set or tied career-bests in points (14), defensive rebounds (3), and field goals made (7). She was also a perfect 7-for-7 from the floor.

Still Perfect

Rishonda Napier extended her free-throws made without a miss streak to 32 in the win over Loyola, which is the 12th longest streak in MVC history. The longest such streaks in MVC history is at the top of page 3.

Making shots in the second half

The Salukis shot 69.2% (18-of-26) from the field in the second half in the win over Loyola, their highest field goal percentage in a half this season. It also marks the second-straight game in which the Salukis have shot 65% or better in the second half, as SIU shot at a 68% (17-of-25) clip in the final 20 minutes against the South Dakota Coyotes.

Napier cracks the top-5

Rishonda Napier scored 20 points on an efficient 7-for-11 from the field in the win over Loyola on Dec. 20, moving her past Petra Jackson (1982-86) for fifth on SIU's all-time scoring list. Jackson is currently an assistant coach for the St. Louis Surge, a women's professional basketball team playing in Women's Blue Chip Basketball League (WBCBL).

29 points from Fourth

Napier needs just 29 points to pass Sue Faber (1979-83) for fourth on SIU's all-time list, and just 60 points to pass Amy Rakers (1987-91) to move into second place. From there, she has a ways to go to break former teammate Cartaesha Macklin's school record of 1,779, needing 301 points in her remaining 18-plus games.

Moving on up

Napier also moved into a three-way tie for eighth place in school history with 516 field goals, and her next basket will move her past Bridgett Bonds (1984-88) and Terica Hathaway (1997-01) for eighth. Dyana Pierre (2012-16) has the seventh-most field goals made in school history with 581.

Four threes away

Napier also needs just four three-pointers to break Teri Oliver's school record of 235, set in 2012. She went 4-of-5 from three-point range in Southern's win over Loyola on Friday.

Splash Sisters

Rishonda Napier and Kylie Giebelhausen are both lifetime 35% shooters from outside of the arc, with Giebelhausen shooting 35.5% through three seasons, and Napier's career shooting percentage rising to 35.2% after an efficient 4-of-5 night from three-point land against Loyola. Giebelhausen currently leads the Valley with 31 three-pointers made, while Napier is in second with 26.

Expanded Role

Charlie Corrigan was elected one of three captains this season and has responded accordingly, as she's started 11 of SIU's 12 games this season and has more starts this season than in her previous three seasons combined. The Plainfield, Ill. native is one of three Salukis who have made 20-plus three-pointers this season, as she netted three in Friday night's win over Loyola. She's made at least three from outside the arc in five games this season, a feat she had accomplished just once coming into her senior campaign.

Becoming a Mainstay

Nicole Martin has started five-straight games for the Salukis, a stretch that has seen SIU win four out of five games. She has the highest field goal percentage (61.5%, 16-of-26) of any Saluki with at least 25 attempts and is averaging 6.6 points and 4.9 rebounds during that stretch. She logged career-highs in minutes (28) and assists (3), and tied a career-best in blocks (2) in Friday night's win over the Ramblers.

Holding Court

Kylie Giebelhausen has played 35-plus minutes in nine of SIU's 12 contests this season and has done so in six-straight games. She's currently third in the Valley in minutes played (34.2) and ranks in the top-10 in the league in scoring (17th; 13.0), assists (7th; 3.0), three-point percentage (4th; 42.5%), three-pointers made (1st; 2.6), defensive rebounds (8th; 4.2), and blocked shots (1st; 1.2). Comeback Kids

SIU roared back to erase a 16-point third quarter deficit to defeat the UMKC Kangaroos, 77-69 on Dec. 19. It marked Southern's largest comeback victory since the 2002-03 season, when the Salukis came back from being down 18 points to defeat Tennessee Tech on Nov. 30, 2002.

Resilient Bunch

The 2016-17 Salukis are also the first team dating back to the 2002-03 season that has overcome two deficits of 15-points or more in the same season. SIU roared back from being down 15 to down the SEMO Redhawks on Dec. 9, and later came back from being down 16 points to stun the UMKC Kangaroos on their home floor.

Threes in bunches

The Salukis made 10 three-pointers in their 69-61 win over Memphis, and followed with 11 three-pointers in their 77-69 win over UMKC. It marks just the third time since 1989, and the first since the 2003-04 season, that SIU has made 10-plus three-pointers in back-to-back games.

Winning Non-Conference Games

The Salukis finished 6-5 in non-conference play to start the 2016-17 season, insuring a record of .500 or better in non-conference play for the third-straight season. It marks the first time since the 1993-94, 1994-95 and 1995-96 seasons that the Salukis have posted three-straight .500 or better records in non-conference action.

Top-10 most assists in a game

Rishonda Napier dished out a career-best 11 assists in the win over Memphis, tying her with Molly McDowell for the 8th-most assists in a single game in program history.

Power 5 Conference win

The Salukis picked up a 64-61 win at Purdue, a win that snapped several long streaks. The win at Purdue marked SIU's first win in West Lafayette, Ind. since 1980, and the Salukis first win over a Big Ten school since 1993. 1993 also marked the last time SIU beat a school from a Power 5 conference, as Southern defeated Arizona State, 73-57 on Dec. 20, 1993.

HEAD COACH • FOURTH SEASON

Cindy Stein enters her fourth season as the head coach of the Salukis in 2016-17. She was named the 10th head coach in Southern Illinois women's basketball history on April 3, 2013. A proven winner and a former NCAA Division II Coach of the Year, Stein has made an immediate impact at SIU much like she has in each of her previous head coaching stints.

At Southern Illinois 2015-16 (20-13, 12-6 MVC)

The 2015-16 season kept with the theme of several program firsts within Stein's tenure while the squad's 20-13 overall record marked the program's 10th 20-win season. The Salukis beat every Missouri Valley Conference foe at least once and advanced to the semifinals of the MVC Tournament for the first time since the 1994-95 season. In doing so, Southern earned an invitation to the Women's Basketball Invitational, the program's first postseason berth since 2007.

The Salukis averaged 69.2 points per game during the season, the highest mark in more than 20 years while shattering the school record for three-pointers made in a single-season. The Dawgs continued to win the battle of the boards under Stein, and for just the eighth time in program history, and the first time since the 1995-96 season, SIU averaged more than 40 rebounds per game. Southern's 42.2 rpg were second only to the 1994-95 team's 42.3 rpg for highest average in school history.

Under Stein's tutelage, three Salukis, Dyana Pierre, Rishonda Napier and Cartaesha Macklin earned All-MVC first-team honors, with Pierre nabbing both All-MVC first-team and All-Defensive team honors. The three first-team selections are the most in a single-season in program history. The Dawgs also continued to raise the bar in the classroom, as the 2015-16 team achieved the highest team GPA in 11 semesters and 9 of 12 Salukis posted a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or higher. The league office took notice, as the Salukis garnered three MVC Scholar Athlete selections, the most for Southern since the 2008-09 season.

Stein's coaching tree continued to grow, as associate head coach Andrea Gorski was named the head coach at Bradley University. Gorski joins an impressive list of former Stein assistant coaches who have gone on to head coaching positions: Brandon Schneider, an assistant for Stein at Emporia State, was hired as the head coach at Kansas in 2015. Tanya Warren, the 2016 Missouri Valley Conference Coach of the Year, was an assistant for Stein at Missouri from 2001-04 and has been the head coach at the University of Northern Iowa since 2007 while Matt Daniel, an assistant under Stein at Missouri, is now the head coach at Marshall University. Dave Wilbers, another former Stein assistant at Mizzou, just completed his ninth season as the head coach at Arkansas Tech, where he has compiled a 218-58 record. Most recently, Amanda Hanneman, who played for Stein at Missouri and went on to serve as a graduate assistant on Stein's inaugural staff at SIU, just completed her first season as the head women's basketball coach at St. Teresa's Academy in Kansas City, Mo.

2014-15 (17-13, 10-8 MVC)

Stein and the Salukis conducted an improbable change of gear in 2014-15. Southern went 17-13 overall with a 10-8 conference record with Stein at the helm, ushering in the largest turnaround from one season to the next in school history at plus-12 wins.

SALUKI WOMEN'S BASKETBALL 2016-17

In fact, that turnaround was third-best in the NCAA by the end of the regular season in 2014-15. In perhaps the best Saluki women's team since the 2006-07 WNIT team, Stein and the Salukis stunned the Missouri Valley with a bonafide, efficient offense that came primarily from the first solid starting five SIU had seen in ages in redshirt sophomore Rishonda Napier (point guard), redshirt junior Cartaesha Macklin (shooting guard), freshman Kylie Giebelhausen (shooting guard), junior Azia Washington (power forward) and junior Dyana Pierre (center). The crew went 16-8 together and combined for 84.2 percent of all SIU scoring.

After losing backcourt superstars Macklin and Napier to redshirt seasons in 2013-14, Stein had an optimal offensive weapon set with skilled shooters on the outside, skilled bigs down low in Pierre and Washington, and superb passers getting them the ball and opening mismatches. Southern improved in nearly every statistical category from Stein's first season to her second, including scoring, turnover ratio and even attendance. Pierre and Napier both put in monumentally historic seasons, and both were rewarded with First-Team All-MVC honors for their superb efforts. Pierre was the only player in the Valley to average a double-double at 14.6 PPG and 11.8 RPG -- the latter of which was the eighth-best rebounding average in the NCAA that season. Pierre also put in only the seventh-ever 14-of-14 game in NCAA history, became just the fifth Saluki to ever record a 20-20 game and the fifth Saluki to ever join the 1,000-900 club.

2013-14 (5-25, 3-15 MVC)

Stein's inaugural team at SIU went 5-25 after a slew of bad breaks left the team with only nine available players for the entire MVC schedule. Despite playing without three players who figured to be major contributors, including preseason All-MVC guard Cartaesha Macklin, Stein improved the team's field-goal percentage defense, 3-point percentage defense, scoring defense, rebound margin, blocks and assist-to-turnover ratio from the season before. She improved the team's conference win total from one to three, including an upset over eventual MVC regular-season and tournament champion Wichita State. Stein helped turn Dyana Pierre into a budding star in the Valley. Pierre averaged 14.0 points and an MVC-best 9.6 rebounds as a sophomore and became the first SIU player to earn first-team All-MVC recognition since 2006, and just the second to do so since 2000.

At Illinois Central College

Stein came to Carbondale after leading Illinois Central College to a 32-4 record and a third-place finish at the NJCAA Division II national tournament during her lone season at the school in 2012-13. Stein turned around an ICC team that went 16-16 the year before her arrival. Stein was named the NJCAA Region XXIV Coach of the Year following ICC's run.

At Missouri

Prior to ICC, Stein spent 12 seasons as the head coach at Missouri where she led the Tigers to 185 wins between 1998 and 2010. Stein inherited a Mizzou team that went 11-16 in 1997-98 and led the Tigers to a 22-10 record with a Sweet 16 run by her third year in 2000-01.

Stein's tenure at Mizzou saw the Tigers make seven total postseason appearances with three NCAA Tournament bids and four WNIT appearances. Stein's players at Mizzou earned a combined 24 All-Big 12 honors with four First-Team selections, and she coached five Tigers who were selected in the WNBA Draft. Additionally, Mizzou players earned a combined 46 Academic All-Big 12 honors under Stein's watch.

Following a 13-15 mark during her first season in Columbia, Mo., Stein's Tigers went 18-12 during the 1999-2000 season, marking the program's best record in seven seasons. The 1999-2000 Tigers also earned the program's first postseason berth since 1994 with a trip to the WNIT.

SALUKI WOMEN'S BASKETBALL 2016-17

Stein's third year saw Mizzou go to historic heights as the 2000-01 Tigers posted their best record in 13 years and made a run to the Sweet 16 for just the second time in program history. Following the season, Amanda Lassister became Mizzou's first-ever first-round WNBA Draft pick when she was selected 15th overall by the Houston Comets while fellow Tiger Marlana "Pep" Williams was selected by the Indiana Fever in the third round.

Missouri ultimately made it to the postseason six-consecutive seasons with WNIT berths in 2001-02 and 2002-03 before capping the run with an NCAA Tournament berth in 2003-04. The Tigers also continued sending players into the professional ranks as three-time All-Big 12 selection Evan Unrau was selected in the third round of the 2004 WNBA Draft by the Washington Mystics.

The 2005-06 season was another banner year for the program as the Tigers went 21-10 for their second 20-win season of Stein's tenure, and made it back to the NCAA Tournament. Mizzou had two more players selected in the WNBA draft following the 2005-06 season as LaToya Bond was selected by the Charlotte Sting in the second round and Christelle N'Garsanet was taken in the third.

The 2006-07 Tigers gave Stein her sixth postseason win at Mizzou with a victory in the opening round of the WNIT. Stein coached Mizzou to the most postseason appearances and postseason wins in program history.

At Emporia State

Stein spent three seasons as the head coach at Emporia State prior to Mizzou, turning the Hornets from a sub-.500 team into a Division II national title contender. After going 12-14 in her first season at ESU in 1995-96, the Hornets improved to 20-10 the following season and made it to the second round of the NCAA Tournament before going 33-1 and finishing as the national runner up in 1997-98.

The 1997-98 Hornets went 16-0 in the Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletics Association, earning MIAA Regular Season and Tournament Championships in advance of the historic run to the NCAA Division II title game. Stein coached two-time All-Americans Aneta Kausaite and Jurgita Kausaite at Emporia State in addition to recruiting All-Americans Emily Bloss and Tara Holloway, who both went on to earn National Player of the Year honors. Aneta Kausaite eventually became the first-ever Division II player to play in the WNBA.

Following ESU's run to the 1997-98 title game, Stein was named the National Coach of the Year by the Women's Basketball Coaches Association, the Molten Division II Bulletin and the Kansas Basketball Coaches Association. She was also selected as the 1998 Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletic Association Coach of the Year and the District VI Coach of the Year.

Early Career/Playing Career

Prior to her head coaching experience, Stein was an assistant coach at Illinois (1993-95), Bradley (1988-1993), Cincinnati (1987-88) and Miami University (1986-87). Stein began her foray into coaching as a graduate assistant at Central Michigan from 1984-86.

Stein played collegiately at Illinois from 1981-83 after two years at Illinois Central College from 1979-81. Stein helped the Illini to the 1982 NCAA Tournament, and she still holds several Illinois assists records. A junior college All-American, Stein also helped ICC to back-to-back appearances in the NJCAA national tournament.

Stein has a bachelor's degree in physical education from Illinois and a master's degree in physical education from Central Michigan.
