The Missouri Valley Conference has demonstrated throughout history that it finds the strength, resources, competitive determination and leadership to rise to even higher levels when confronted with change or significant challenges.

In 2012-13, the winds of change that have dramatically affected Division I conference realignment in recent years finally touched The Valley. For the first time since 1996, the MVC will experience the addition and departure of a member institution. The Valley formally welcomed Loyola University Chicago into the membership on July 1, 2013. Loyola is the 33rd institution to enter the Missouri Valley Conference and the first-ever member university from the Chicago metropolitan area. In March 2013, Creighton University, an MVC member for nearly 60 years, had announced its departure from the MVC for the newly configured Big East Conference.

The nation's second-oldest NCAA Division I conference continues to be a leader in college athletics and is one of the nation's most progressive conferences. League members have worked together to focus on common goals and objectives, putting a high value on league harmony while continuing to invest in athletic programs to compete at the highest level.

Men's basketball continues to be the engine that drives Valley athletic programs. In 2013, Wichita State reached the Final Four, marking the first time since 1979 (Indiana State) that an MVC team had advanced that far (a league member has now been to the Final Four 17 times.) The league has had four different Sweet 16 teams since 2006, and The Valley is the only non-BCS league with more than two different Sweet 16 teams in that span. Wichita State (4) and Creighton (21) ended the season ranked in the USA Today Coaches poll, marking the third time in the past eight seasons that two league members achieved a Top-25 ranking in a season-ending poll. Six MVC schools represented the league in post-season play, and the league combined for a record-setting 13 post-season victories in 2013.

The MVC Men's Basketball Championship – affectionately known as Arch Madness – continues to be a spectacular showcase for the league, and the MVC has extended the tournament agreement with the Scottrade Center that will keep Arch Madness in St. Louis through at least 2015. During the 2011

MVC Championship, the league surpassed 1 million in total attendance for the event, now in its 24th year. Notably, the 2013 championship was the second-most attended in conference history.

While the success of men's basketball has received the greatest attention, the overall performance of league teams in virtually every sport continues to raise the national profile of the conference.

In track & field, league student-athletes continue to be dominant nationally in the sport. Indiana State's Felicia Johnson won an individual weight throw title at the NCAA Indoor Championships, and the MVC has now produced 14 national champions in the sport in the past seven years. Indiana State, notably, swept both the men's and women's MVC outdoor titles, marking the first time a school had won in both genders at the league outdoor meet since 2008.

The seeds for the creation of the conference were planted by eight administrators representing five institutions, who met at the Midland Hotel in Kansas City, Mo., on Jan. 12, 1907. The five schools which formed the Missouri Valley Intercollegiate Athletic Association were Washington University of St. Louis, and the state universities of Iowa, Kansas, Missouri and Nebraska. Two months after the initial meeting, two more schools -- Drake University and Iowa State College -- were admitted.

In the fall of 1907, basketball became the first competitive sport. Today, the Missouri Valley Conference sponsors the following sports: baseball, men's and women's basketball, men's and women's cross country and track & field (indoor and outdoor), men's and women's golf, men's and women's soccer, softball, women's swimming and diving, men's and women's tennis, and women's volleyball.

While The Valley no longer sponsors football (it did from 1907-85), six league members compete in football at the FCS (Football Championship Subdivision) level as Illinois State, Indiana State, Missouri State, UNI and Southern Illinois play in the 10-member Missouri Valley Football Conference (with North Dakota State, South Dakota, South Dakota State, Western Illinois and Youngstown State). That league competed as the Gateway Conference from 1985-2007. Drake plays non-scholarship football in the Pioneer Football League.

This season, the league will conduct its 103rd outdoor track and field championship, its 96th tennis championship, its 60th baseball tournament, and its 76th golf championship for the men. Those programs, plus other current sponsored sports of cross country (55 years), indoor track (63), men's soccer (23), women's soccer (17), and swimming and diving (20), have helped solidify The Valley as one of the nation's most respected conferences.

Men's basketball, perhaps, has the league's most storied tradition, boasting the likes of Hall of Famers Bird and Robertson as former players, but The Valley has also produced national-caliber student-athletes in its other sponsored sports. In 2001, Missouri State's Jackie Stiles became the first Valley woman to earn the Honda-Broderick Cup, given to the nation's top female collegiate student-athlete. In the sport of track and field, Indiana State's Holli Hyché captured seven national sprint titles in the early 1990s, Southern Illinois' Darrin Plab won back-to-back NCAA outdoor high jump titles in 1991 and 1992, SIU's Brittany Riley became the World record holder in the weight throw in 2007, and Kylie Hutson of Indiana State swept both the indoor and outdoor pole vault titles in 2009 and in 2010. Southern Illinois' Jeneva McCall (three NCAA individual championships) and Illinois State's Tim Glover (back-to-back javelin championships in 2011 and 2012) are the most recent multi-year NCAA champions in the league's highly decorated history in track & field.

League members include Bradley, Drake, Evansville, Illinois State, Indiana State, Loyola Chicago, Missouri State, Northern Iowa, Southern Illinois, and Wichita State. Central Arkansas and Southern Illinois Edwardsville are affiliate members in men's soccer, and Dallas Baptist is an affiliate member for baseball.

CONNIE PRICE-SMITH
HEAD COACH
SOUTHERN ILLINOIS ('84)

A four-time Olympian and one of the most decorated athletes Southern Illinois has produced, Connie Price-Smith enters her 13th season as head coach at her alma mater. After spending her first three years as the head women's coach, Price-Smith took over the combined men's and women's program in 2004-05 and has since kept SIU track and field among the top programs in the Missouri Valley Conference.

Under Price-Smith, a 1990 Saluki Hall of Fame inductee, the SIU women's team has won four conference titles and finished a program-best ninth in the nation for Saluki women at the 2010 NCAA Outdoor Track and Field Championships -- the third best finish of either gender in SIU history. A four-time MVC Coach of the Year, Price-Smith has coached SIU athletes to a combined 155 MVC individual titles, 42 All-American honors and five individual NCAA champions during her time as both the head women's coach and at the helm of the combined program.

The 2013 season saw the opening and dedication of Saluki track and field's new facility, the Lew Hartzog Track and Field Complex and Connie Price-Smith Throws Area -- the first landmark on SIU's campus to be named after an African-American woman. Under her watch in 2013 the Salukis added two more All-Americans (J.C. Lambert and DeAnna Price), three second-team All-American honors (Kim Fortney x2, Bradley Sauer) and eight more MVC individual champions.

The Price-Smith led Salukis continued their MVC dominance in 2012, notching 16 more MVC Individual Championships, five All-Americans, an MVC Track and Field Most Valuable Player (Jeneva McCall, Indoor), an NCAA Runner-Up (J.C. Lambert, weight throw) and two more individual national championships across both the indoor and outdoor season.

The Saluki men took the Missouri Valley indoor conference title, claiming four event titles to edge out Indiana State. The championship was the first for the men in 20 years and was the fifth MVC team championship won under Price-Smith's tutelage.

Senior thrower Jeneva McCall brought the Salukis to national prominence with her two individual national championships in the weight throw and hammer throw. McCall recorded five MVC event championships in 2012 alone, which gave her 15 total titles during her career at Southern.

The 2011 season saw both the Saluki men's and women's squads take second place at the MVC Indoor and Outdoor Championships, winning a combined 23 individual conference titles between the two seasons. The teams also garnered a combined six All-American honors in 2011.

The 2011 indoor season was highlighted by senior Jeff Schirmer winning MVC Most Valuable Athlete honors for scoring the most points on the men's side at the MVC Championships, while junior Jeneva McCall was named Most Outstanding Field Athlete for the women. SIU sent five athletes to the NCAA Indoor Finals, where Salukis took home four All-American honors.

Schirmer followed up with another Most Valuable Athlete nod at the MVC Outdoor Championships, while McCall was again named Most Outstanding Field Athlete. Fourteen Salukis qualified for the NCAA Regionals with five advancing to the NCAA Outdoor Finals, earning five All-American honors.

Salukis earned three of the four available MVC Elite 18 honors for track and field in 2011 as Lucas Cherry (men's outdoor), Toni Whitfield (women's outdoor) and Emily Toennies (women's indoor) earned the award. Toennies was also awarded the MVC's prestigious Emerson Excellence Award.

In 2010, Price-Smith led SIU track and field to one of the best seasons in recent memory, with seven different athletes earning 12 NCAA All-American honors, McCall winning the national championship in the discus and the women's team finishing ninth at the NCAA Outdoor Championships. In addition, the women's team won the MVC Outdoor Championship for a second consecutive season as Price-Smith earned her fourth MVC Coach of the Year honor. McCall became the first Saluki in program history to earn All-America honors in five events in the same season.

The 2009 season saw the SIU women's team sweep the MVC Indoor and Outdoor titles with Price-Smith earning women's Coach of the Year honors for both seasons.

Between 2005 and 2008, the SIU women's team advanced athletes to both the NCAA Outdoor and Indoor Championships each season, finishing in the top 25 nationally four times. The 2007 and 2008 women's indoor team finished 19th and 17th in the nation, respectively, thanks to Southern's only female back-to-back national champion, Brittany Riley (weight throw). The 2008 outdoor team finished in a tie for 25th nationally, the program's best finish until the 2010 season.

In addition to her duties at SIU, Price-Smith has been involved in coaching at the international level for USA Track and Field since 2004. She served as an assistant coach for Team USA at the 2004 IAAF World Junior championships, the 2005 IAAF World Indoor Championships and the 2006 World Cup. Price-Smith served as Team USA's head coach at the 2007 Pan American Games before serving on her first Olympics coaching staff the following year as an assistant women's coach for throws at the 2008 Beijing Games. She most recently served as head women's coach for Team USA at the 2011 IAAF World Championships, assistant women's coach for throws at the 2012 London Olympics and the head women's coach at the 2013 World University Games in Russia -- where former Saluki Geneva McCall became the first American woman to ever medal in the hammer throw with her gold medal victory.

Price-Smith began her coaching career as a volunteer assistant coach at Ohio State after retiring from a successful 14-year career as a world-class thrower. In addition to competing in the Olympics in 2000 (Sydney), 1996 (Atlanta), 1992 (Barcelona) and 1988 (Seoul), Price-Smith is a 25-time national champion in the shot put and discus.

All told, Price-Smith won 18 outdoor national titles, six indoor titles and five Olympic trials championship titles during her post-collegiate career. Her world rankings in the shot put in 1995 (6th), 1996 (5th), 1997 (6th), 1998 (3rd) and 1999 (7th) made her the first U.S. woman to be world-ranked in the shot put for five consecutive seasons.

In 1992, Price-Smith became the first woman to win both the shot put and discus at an Olympic trial in 32 years. In 1995, she became the first U.S. woman in 35 years to win a World Championship medal in the shot put. Though Price-Smith never won an Olympic medal, her fifth-place finish in the shot put at the 1996 Atlanta Games is the highest finish by a U.S. woman in the event since 1960.

Ironically, Price-Smith only competed for the Saluki track and field team for one season after wrapping up a successful four-year basketball career at SIU. From 1980-84, Price-Smith was a center for the Salukis under coach Cindy Scott.

A two-time All-Gateway Conference selection, Price-Smith scored 1,271 points and pulled down 744 rebounds during her basketball career. She still ranks in the top 10 in school history in career scoring, rebounding, rebound average, field goal percentage, free throws made and free throws attempted.

Price-Smith threw the shot put for the first time as a senior at the urging of former SIU track and field standout John Smith, whom she married in 1990 and now coaches alongside. She quickly became dominant in the shot put and discus, winning MVC indoor and outdoor titles in the shot put in 1985. She ranks fifth in SIU history in the discus, eighth in the outdoor shot put and ninth in the indoor shot put.

In addition to being inducted into the SIU Hall of Fame in 1990, Price-Smith also received the SIU Distinguished Alumni Award in 2001 and was named the Administrative/Professional Woman of Distinction in 2007. She was also selected for induction to the Missouri Valley Conference Hall of Fame in 2012 as an Institutional Great.

MATT SPARKS
DISTANCE COACH
12TH YEAR (2014)
INDIANA ('97)

Matt Sparks enters his 12th season at SIU in 2013-14 as both the middle distance and distance track coach and the head coach of the cross country program.

A native of Noblesville, Ind., Sparks has been at SIU since 2002, starting out as the head women's cross country coach and women's distance track coach until the track and field programs were combined in 2004. Since, Sparks has been head men's and women's cross country coach and head men's and women's distance coach for Saluki track.

Sparks has led a resurgence in Saluki cross country not seen since the days of legendary coaches Bill Cornell and Lew Hartzog. In his first season in charge of the combined program, Sparks led the Saluki men to a share of the Missouri Valley Conference championship (the first for SIU in nine years) and in 2007 and 2008 the Saluki men repeated as MVC champs -- also for the first time in a decade.

Sparks owns six MVC cross country titles to his name, including two in 2013. The Saluki men and women swept the MVC Championships on Nov. 2, becoming the first school to do so since 1989 (Illinois State). Sparks became only the second head coach in conference history to sweep both the men's and women's titles (John Kornelson, Wichita State, 1987). The men's win in 2013 was his fifth at SIU, which ties Bill Cornell for the most men's titles in school history and is also tied for the fourth-most in conference history. The sweep made Sparks the winningest cross country coach in SIU history.

The Saluki men were able to replicate some of the same magic from 2012, posting three 2012 All-MVC runners (Zach Dahleen, fourth; Nick Schrader, fifth; Oscar Medina, sixth) back in the top-10 en route to a dominant 59-point victory over newcomer Loyola.

The Saluki women earned their first title in 21 years (1992, Don DeNoon) in a more dramatic fashion. Southern was down eight at the midway point of the race but made an impressive charge for the victory, besting pre-championship favorite Bradley by 20 points. The Saluki women put three in the top-10 for All-MVC (Kristen Levi, third; Sadie Darnell, fourth; Kelley Gallagher, fifth) and three more within the top-20 to seal the victory.

Sparks graduated from Noblesville High School in 1992 where he was a three-time top-five finisher in the state cross country meet and a four-time All-Indiana track and field recipient.

As a student-athlete at his alma mater Indiana University, Sparks was a consistent scorer at the Big Ten Championships on the track. In 1996, he narrowly missed qualifying for the NCAA Outdoor Championships in Eugene, Ore., running a time of 14:12.82 in the 5000 meter run. All four years he spent in Bloomington, Sparks was a top-three runner for the Hoosier cross country team. He gained valuable experience working with four-time national champion and American record holder Bob Kennedy and Hall of Fame coach Sam Bell.

Sparks first started coaching at IU as a graduate assistant and volunteer assistant for three seasons. He played a key role in the recruitment and development of many cross country and track and field athletes for the Hoosiers. Additionally, he was part of the coaching staff of the women's Hoosiers team that won both the indoor and outdoor Big Ten Championships in 2000.

Prior to joining the Salukis, Sparks enjoyed a successful two-year stint at Ohio State as the head women's cross country coach and women's distance coach alongside future Saluki coaches Connie Price-

Smith and John Smith from 2000-02. The Lady Buckeye distance crew set school records in the 3000m steeplechase and the distance medley relay under Sparks' direction.

Since coming to Southern in 2002, Saluki cross country under Sparks has consistently been one of the top squads in the highly-competitive Missouri Valley. In addition to his six team championships, Sparks has two All-Americans (Jeff Schirmer, 2008-09), four MVC champions (Mohamed Mohamed, 2006; Jeff Schirmer, 2007-08; Dan Dunbar, 2010), and five national qualifiers -- the most recent finalist being Brian Dixon in 2012 (143rd).

On the track, Sparks has had similar success with his distance runners -- who have contributed to some of the best Saluki track and field teams in school history. In 12 seasons Sparks has coached 51 MVC champions, 125 All-MVC performers, five MVC Most Valuable Track Athletes and five NCAA finals qualifiers. The Saluki men captured their first championship in 20 years indoors in 2012, due in large part to Sparks' MVC champion distance medley relay team and the individual efforts of five-time MVC champion Zach Dahleen.

In addition to the athletic accomplishments his runners have achieved, Sparks has led one of the most successful academic programs at SIU and in the MVC. His cross country teams have consistently achieved top-20 GPAs nationally and his student-athletes have earned numerous awards for their academic efforts. From 2002-09, Sparks' women's teams achieved Academic All-America status, with the 2003 squad notching the second-highest GPA (3.61) in the country. In 2010, his men's team returned the favor with the second-highest GPA nationally at 3.60.

Across both track and cross country, Sparks has accumulated 120 total MVC Scholar-Athletes honorees. In fact, he owns 66 of SIU's 126 (52.4 percent) track and field Scholar-Athletes accumulated during his time in Carbondale (2002-present). In addition, every MVC Elite 18 award that SIU track and field has earned have all been Sparks distance runners.

Sparks graduated from IU in 1997 with an education degree in general science and biology, and he completed his master's in applied sports science at IU in 1999.

Sparks and his wife, Emily, reside in Carbondale with their son, Samuel, and daughter, Eliza.

JOHN SMITH
THROWS COACH
10TH YEAR (2014)
SOUTHERN ILLINOIS ('84)

Throws coach John Smith, one of SIU track and field's greatest throwers and now one of its most storied coaches, enters his tenth season with the Salukis in 2013-14.

A native of Portage, Ind., Smith joined the Saluki coaching staff in 2004 after coaching 20 Big Ten champions, 19 All-Americans, 15 national qualifiers and two NCAA champions in five years at Ohio State.

An All-American during his time with the legendary Saluki track and field teams of the early 1980s, Smith has now crafted a legacy as the leader of a new golden age in Saluki throws in the 21st century. In his nine seasons at SIU, Smith has accumulated five NCAA champions, 42 All-Americans, 54 Missouri Valley Conference champions, one NCAA Indoor National Athlete of the Year and one world record in the women's weight throw -- the latter two courtesy of two-time NCAA champion Brittany Riley.

As a student-athlete at SIU from 1980-84, Smith won eight MVC titles in the shot put, discus and hammer and set records in both the indoor and outdoor shot put that still stand today. Smith was part of the legendary 1984 squad that won 13 All-American certificates and two NCAA runners-up that finished fifth outdoors and ninth indoors nationally. In 2007, Smith was named to the MVC's All-Centennial Team.

After he graduated in 1984, Smith was a member of two Olympic Festival teams and a part of the USA vs. Great Britain national team. He participated in five national championships, with his highest finish being seventh in the shot put.

Before hitting the collegiate coaching scene, Smith was involved with personal high school coaching in the shot put and discus since 1980. He trained 20 Indiana state champions and five Track and Field News High School All-Americans. Two of his student-athletes were national champions and five were named to the U.S. Junior National Team.

He began his collegiate coaching career as a postgraduate volunteer assistant coach and strength and conditioning assistant at SIU from 1984-86, where he coached his future wife Connie Price-Smith and SIU's first female All-American Rhonda McCausland. From there, Smith continued his tour as a professional coach, following Connie Price-Smith's highly successful professional career over the next decade. In 1999, he was hired as the throws coach at Ohio State, where he stayed until Southern came calling for him to return to Carbondale five years later.

At OSU, Smith coached a slew of magnificent throwers but two that stood out during his tenure were two-time NCAA champion Dan Taylor and future Saluki Amarachi Ukabam.

Taylor, a nine-time All-American, two-time Big Ten Indoor/Outdoor Male Athlete of the Year, Ohio State Athlete of the Year and Region V Athlete of the Year, established OSU and Big Ten records in the indoor weight throw and set OSU standards in the hammer and discus outdoors as well. Most notably, Taylor became the first thrower in NCAA history to win both the indoor shot put and weight throw national titles in the same season.

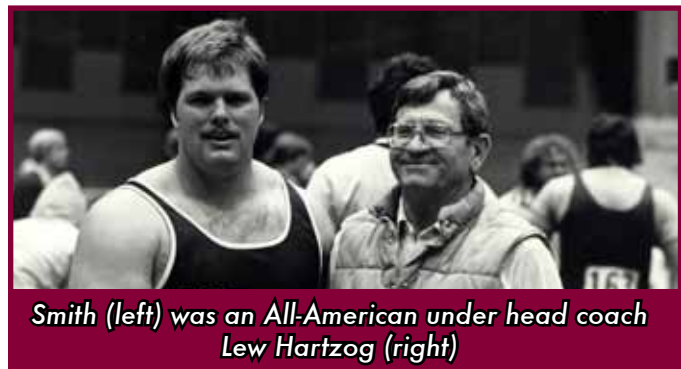

Smith also helped establish one of the finest freshman campaigns by an OSU student-athlete with his mentoring of Amarachi Ukabam to Big Ten and NCAA Mid-east Regional titles in the discus in 2004. Ukabam followed Smith to SIU later that year where she became a five-time All-American and broke seven MVC records in her first season as a Saluki in 2005 that still stand today.

Ukabam competed alongside Brittany Riley, who in 2007 would bring worldwide acclaim to Southern with her world-record shattering mark of 25.56m (83-10.50) in the weight throw set as a Saluki on Mar. 10, 2007. Riley was a six-time All-American who won two NCAA championships (weight throw, 2007-08) and was named the NCAA Indoor National Athlete of the Year in 2007.

Smith's Saluki throwers are responsible for two of the greatest seasons in Saluki track and field history. In 2009 the women's outdoor team finished ninth at the NCAA Outdoor Championships, the best finish in the women's program history and the third best national finish ever at SIU. That outdoor season saw eight All-American certificates awarded to Saluki throwers, including sophomore Jeneva McCall's national title in the discus. Four women (McCall, Gwen Berry, Olga Ciura and Sasha Leeth) earned All-American honors in the hammer throw, the most All-American honors for one school in a single event in NCAA history.

2010 NCAA Outdoor Championships

In 2012, senior Jeneva McCall -- one of the most accomplished Saluki athletes ever -- concluded her SIU career in grand fashion with two NCAA titles (weight throw, hammer throw). Those two championships pushed her career total to three, which made her the winningest Saluki in history and the first ever to win multiple titles in the same season.

Of the 54 Missouri Valley Conference records SIU holds, 18 record holders are SIU throwers -- 13 of which are pupils of John Smith since 2004. On the women's side it's a Saluki landslide as Southern owns every MVC indoor record (all under Smith) and outdoors they hold six of ten MVC records -- which, makes 10 of the 14 available women's MVC records owned by throwers who studied under Smith. Smith's throwers have also won exactly half (54) of the available MVC throwing titles (108) since his first campaign in 2005.

Post-collegiately and internationally, Smith's throwers have gone on to compete successfully in the highly arduous professional throwing circuit. In 2013, Jeneva McCall became the first American woman to ever medal in the hammer throw in international competition with her gold medal victory at the World University Games in Kazan, Russia. Earlier that same year, former Saluki and Smith disciple Gwen Berry won the USA weight throw national title at the USATF Indoor Championships with the best mark in the world for 2013 at 24.70m (81-10.50).

His most notable pupil in his professional coaching career is, of course, his wife -- current head coach Connie Price-Smith. From 1980-84, Connie Price was a Saluki basketball standout center under SIU basketball coach Cindy Scott. At the urging of Smith (then a postgraduate volunteer assistant coach), Price threw the shot put and discus in 1985, winning indoor and outdoor MVC shot put titles that very season. At SIU, Price still ranks fifth all-time in the discus, eighth in the outdoor shot put and ninth in the indoor shot put -- all in one season of work under Smith's guidance.

What followed for Price was a 14-year professional career that included 18 outdoor national titles, six indoor titles, five Olympic trials titles and four trips to the Olympic games with Team USA (Seoul, 1988; Barcelona, 1992; Atlanta, 1996; Sydney, 2000). Price became the first American woman to be world-ranked in the shot put for five consecutive seasons (1995-99), the first woman to win both the shot put and discus at an Olympic trial in 32 years (1992), the first American woman to win a World Championship medal in the shot put in 35 years (1995, silver), and her fifth-place finish in the shot put at the 1996 Olympic games in Atlanta was the highest finish by an American woman since 1960. In addition, Price-Smith won the gold medal at the Pan-American Games in 1999 just prior to Smith's hiring at OSU.

Price and Smith were married in 1990 and have been coaching together since Smith joined the staff in 2004 from Ohio State.

ANDRE SCOTT
JUMPS COACH
TENTH YEAR (2014)
AUBURN ('98)

Andre Scott is in his tenth season at Southern Illinois as the jumps coach. In his time with the Salukis, Scott's jumpers have won numerous All-American honors, broke every women's SIU all-time record, set a handful of national standards around the world and have helped the Salukis win the 2009 Indoor and Outdoor Missouri Valley Conference Championships as well as the women's 2005 MVC indoor title.

Some of Scott's most prestigious pupils during his tenure at Southern include Bahamian long jump record holder and 2012 Olympian Bianca Stuart, two-time All-American Malaikah Love and current Saluki and Bahamian high jump record holder Kenya Culmer.

Scott's 2013 season yielded his 21st and 22nd MVC individual titles, both courtesy of Dougie Palacios (indoor and outdoor triple jump). Kenya Culmer also had an excellent season, breaking her own SIU indoor high jump record and finishing as an MVC runner-up in both the indoor and outdoor high jump and All-MVC in the indoor and outdoor triple jump. Both Culmer and Palacios qualified for the NCAA West Regional and were constant figures in the weekly national collegiate lists in both the indoor and outdoor seasons.

The 2012 season saw continued success from Southern's jumpers, as Malaikah Love finished her storied SIU career on a high note with two second-team All-American honors in the pentathlon and outdoor triple jump and three individual MVC titles -- pushing her career title to nine. Love leaves SIU as a two-time All-American in the pentathlon, a two-time second-team All-American, nine-time MVC champion, the all-time MVC record holder in the pentathlon and the all-time record-holder in four events (pentathlon, heptathlon, indoor and outdoor triple jump) at SIU. Dougie Palacios was named an honorable mention All-American in the outdoor triple jump after his MVC title in the same event (the first for Southern in ten years) and Kenya Culmer won the outdoor MVC high jump title and broke two SIU records (indoor and outdoor high jumps) over the course of the season, which also registered as the Bahamian national records.

Scott's 2011 season was once again highlighted by the performance of Malaikah Love, who won a staggering five MVC titles and an All-American honor in the pentathlon indoors. Love, alongside freshman Kenya Culmer, both qualified for the NCAA West Regional outdoors.

Southern's jumpers were a part of SIU's historic 2010 women's team with sophomore Malaikah Love's first All-American honor in the pentathlon who also qualified for the NCAA West Regional outdoors alongside and Kasey Ocegüera. Love also won her first MVC title in the indoor long jump.

From 2006-09, Scott was able to coach one of the most gifted female long jumpers in international competition today in Bahamian native Bianca Stuart. Stuart, a native of Nassau (as are current Salukis Culmer and Palacios), has gone on to set the Bahamian outdoor long jump record of 6.81m in 2011. The following year she competed for Team Bahamas in London at the 2012 Summer Olympic Games in the long jump.

In Stuart's four years under Scott's tutelage, she won seven MVC titles in the long jump (four indoor, three outdoor), broke the school-record an impressive seven times and still stands as the Missouri Valley Conference's all-time and MVC championships record holder in the event both indoors and outdoors and the all-time MVC record holder indoors. Stuart earned All-American honors twice in her Saluki career (2008 outdoors, 2009 indoors), and was the first Saluki female jumper to earn All-American status indoors -- the second Saluki female jumper ever.

In 2009, Scott led standout long jumper Bianca Stuart to her second All-American honor in as many years. Stuart placed fourth at the indoor NCAA Championships in College Station, Texas. She recorded a leap of 21-02.00

2012 Olympian Bianca Stuart was an SIU jumper under Scott from 2006-09.

Senior Kenya Culmer has broken both SIU high jump records under Scott.

at the NCAA Championships and two weeks earlier she won her seventh and final MVC Championship with a season-best mark of 21-06.25.

Freshman Malaikah Love broke the SIU outdoor record in the triple jump with an NCAA Regional and Junior National qualifying leap of 41-10.00 in 2009. That same year, Scott also led Maxim Bakana to the NCAA regional's where he placed 14th overall.

Scott has also coached NCAA Regional Qualifiers Antwon Stapleton in the triple jump (51-08.00), Freddy Rule in the high jump (7-01.50), Kenen Shadd in the triple jump (51-11.00) and Inna Turevsky in the triple jump (41-07.00).

Scott came to Southern Illinois in 2004 after spending two seasons as the jumps coach at Pittsburgh. There he coached one All-American, two Big East and Eastern College Athletic Conference (ECAC) triple jump champions and four NCAA Regional qualifiers.

Since 2000, Scott has coached seven professional athletes, including his wife, Colleen Scott, a triple and long jumper for Jamaica. Scott has also coached Trecia Smith, the current Jamaican national record holder in both the indoor and outdoor triple jump, who finished fourth at the 2004 Athens Olympic Games.

Prior to 2000, Scott spent a year as a volunteer coach at his alma mater, Auburn, where he was a seven-time all-American triple jumper and three-time SEC champion as both a jumper and a sprinter. At Seminole High School in Sanford, Fla., Scott was named the Boys Track and Field Gatorade Player of the Year in 1994.

Scott graduated from Auburn in 1998 with a Bachelor's of Science degree in health promotion. He and his wife reside in Carbondale with their son, Sterling.

Coach Scott At A Glance

- Seven-time All-American and three-time SEC Champion as a student-athlete at Auburn (1994-98)
- Has coached four All-Americans and three second-team All-Americans
- Every SIU women's jumping record has been broken under his tutelage
- Coached 22 MVC Champions
- Pupils hold four MVC records
- Coached two Olympians (Bianca Stuart and Trecia Smith)
- Former pupils hold five national records in their native countries (Bahamas and Jamaica)

CHIDI ENYIA
SPRINTS COACH
FOURTH YEAR (2014)
ILLINOIS STATE ('02)

Chidi Enyia is in his fourth season as the sprints coach at Southern Illinois. Enyia served as a volunteer assistant with the Salukis during the 2009-10 season.

Enyia's third year with the Salukis was highlighted by the performances of sprinters Mathew Benes, Tess Shubert and Amiris Warren and long jumper Lauren Cheadle, who each qualified for the NCAA Midwest Regional and climbed the rankings in Southern's storied record books. In fact, Warren's 11.51 time at the MVC Championships (All-MVC) in the 100 meter dash broke a 24-year old record held by Traci Davis at 11.59, and her All-MVC time of 23.84 in the 200m dash now ranks second all-time and qualified her for NCAA regionals.

Benes' qualifying time of 14.30 in the 100m hurdles now ranks tenth all-time at SIU, and Cheadle's qualifying mark of 5.96m in the long jump also ranks tenth.

Shubert, who earned All-MVC indoors in the 400 meter dash, qualified for finals in the 400 meter hurdles at the NCAA Regional where she finished 22nd. Shubert finished her career second all-time in the 400 meter hurdles, third in the indoor 400m dash (55.62) and fourth in the indoor 600m run (1:34.97).

Enyia's third season was also highlighted by another hurdler, freshman Remy Abrought. In her first season alone she moved up to fifth all-time in the indoor 60m hurdles (8.66) and sixth in the outdoor 100m hurdles (13.86). Her 100m hurdles time qualified her for the USATF Junior Outdoor Championships.

Most impressively, freshman Nikolai Gall ran away with the outdoor 400 meter dash MVC title and qualified for the Pan-Am Junior Championships in Columbia with his time of 47.55. Enyia's sprinters also earned All-MVC in the indoor men's 4x400 relay (Blake Green, Christopher Nightengale, Brett Kohler and Ryan Sidwell) and the women's outdoor 4x100 relay (Lauren Cheadle, Tess Shubert, Desiree White, Amiris Warren) -- the latter of which set the second-best time in Saluki history at 45.91.

In the 2011-12 season, Enyia's sprinters contributed to the men's indoor Missouri Valley Conference title as Jeremy Bankston was part of the champion distance medley team and former walk-on Dominic Williams was All-Conference placing 3rd in the 200m. During both seasons, 14 of his athletes landed in the top-ten of SIU's record books for their individual performances. Junior Tess Shubert in the 400m hurdles and Freshman Amiris Warren in the 100m also qualified for the NCAA West Regional finishing 25th and 22nd respectively out of 48 competitors.

In his first season at SIU, Enyia saw success in both the indoor and outdoor seasons. During the indoor season, Enyia coached the men's distance medley relay team to a Missouri Valley Conference title. The men's 4x400 relay team also received All-MVC honors. Meredith Hayes became the 3-time MVC Indoor Event Champion and record holder in the 60m Hurdles as well as being named an All-MVC performer.

Under Enyia's direction, Hayes, Deloney and Tredene Gant took MVC Outdoor titles in the 100m hurdles, 400m hurdles and 200m respectively as well as qualifying for the NCAA West Regional. Hayes became the new SIU record holder in the 100-meter hurdles posting a time of 13:39 and the indoor MVC Championships record holder in the 60 meter hurdles (8.40).

In 2007, Enyia founded the USATF/AAU affiliated, Flight Track Club out of Frankfort, Ill. Serving as head coach, Enyia focused on coaching the sprints, hurdles, horizontal jumps and the middle distance events. In just three summer seasons, he had 16 individuals and seven relay teams qualify for the USATF Junior Olympics and Youth National meets. Two of his qualifiers and three of his relay teams finished as All-Americans. In the summer of 2009, Enyia's 100m and 400H qualified for the USATF World Youth Trials held at Eastern Michigan University.

In 2006-08, Enyia was the sprints and horizontal jumps coach at Lincoln-Way East High School in Frankfort, Ill. In his two and a half seasons at LWE, the Griffins broke 19 school records under Enyia's guidance. Enyia had six individuals and eight relays qualify for the Illinois High School Outdoor State meet. He had two all-state individuals in the boy's 100m and 200m as well as an all-state 4x400 relay team.

Enyia played football at Illinois State, where he graduated from in 2002 with a bachelor's in general art. After graduation, Enyia ran with the God Speed Track Club out of California from 2003-04.

He is a USATF Level I Certified Track and Field Coach and has over 15 years experience in performance enhancement consulting numerous athletes worldwide from youth to emerging elite in multiple sports.

He was born in DeKalb, Ill., and graduated from Crete-Monee High School in Crete, Ill., in 1997. Enyia is a first-generation American, as his parents come from Nigeria.

Enyia is currently completing a master's in exercise science from Southern Illinois.

BRIAN PORTER
POLE VAULT COACH
SECOND YEAR (2014)
TEXAS TECH ('10)

Brian Porter is in his second season as the pole vault and javelin coach at Southern Illinois University.

In just his first year with the Salukis, Coach Porter succeeded in developing an MVC Champion in Ryan Sidwell, who won the indoor pole vault title. Sidwell finished his career sixth (indoors) and tenth (outdoors) all-time at SIU with marks set in 2013 under Porter's tutelage. Porter's other two male vaulters -- John Baughman and Alex Lietz -- also posted personal best clearances during the year.

Porter comes from Texas Tech University, where he enjoyed a successful career as both an athlete and assistant coach.

A 2010 graduate of Texas Tech in exercise sports science, Porter was a seven-time All-Big 12 honoree and a four-time national qualifier as a student-athlete from 2007-10.

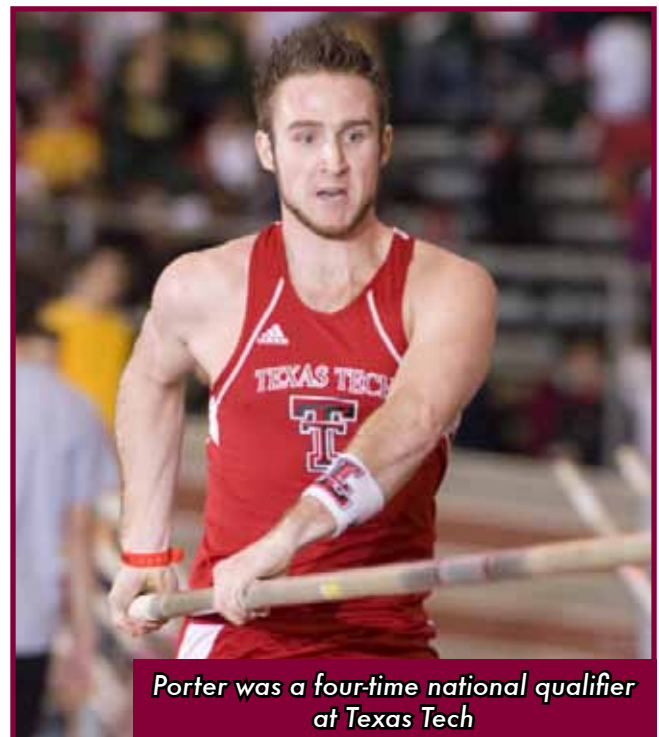

As an assistant coach over the next two seasons, Porter assisted in the development of various student-athletes who went on to earn numerous accolades:

- Six national qualifiers (including two in the triple and high jumps)
- A three-time Big 12 runner-up
- Coached the school record holder in the women's pole vault and helped her to an Olympic A standard of 4.50m.
- Coached the 2011 men's Big 12 champion in the pole vault
- Assisted the 2011 Big 12 Outstanding Freshman of the Year, who attained a personal best of 5.41m.

Porter studied under Rock Light while at Texas Tech in all aspects of the jumps and combined events.

Porter graduated from Maypearl High in Maypearl, Texas. He participated in football, basketball and track and field during his time there. He was a member of the 2005 and 2006 district track and field championship teams, and ran a leg in the 2006 district champion 4x100 and 4x400 squads.

Porter became the district champion in pole vault in 2004, 2005 and 2006, and he also took the title at regionals in 2004, 2005 and 2006. Porter earned the bronze medal at state competition in the pole vault in 2004, and was the 2AA State pole vault champion in 2005 and 2006.

Two-time World Championship medalist Michael Franks was a Saluki from 1981-85. Franks was a seven-time All-American and the 1985 NCAA indoor 400 meter dash champion while at SIU.

Thrower J.C. Lambert (2008-13) owns the most All-American honors for a Saluki male thrower with five -- including a national runner-up finish in the weight throw in 2012.

Olympian and All-American Eddie Wedderburn won three MVC titles and landed himself on five SIU top-ten lists -- including his school record in the 3000 meter steeplechase.

Bold = NCAA Champion

Note: Prior to 2011, All-American awards were handed out to the top-eight American-born athletes.

Bill Cornell (1962-65) was a key figure in the beginning of SIU's national prominence in the early 1960s, when he was a three-time All-American and two-time NCAA runner-up. Two decades later, Cornell won nine total MVC Championships as SIU's head track and cross country coach.

Jeneva McCall (2009-12) was a 13-time All-American, three-time NCAA Champion, three-time NCAA Runner-Up and 15-time MVC Champion at SIU.

COACH OF THE YEAR

Year	Coach
2005	John Smith (Throws)
2011	John Smith (Throws)

George Woods (1963-66, Class of 1978) is one of the finest throwers SIU ever produced. Woods was a three-time Olympian, two-time Olympic silver medalist, four-time All-American and 1966 NCAA Champion in the shot put. For 11 years from 1974-85, Woods held the indoor world record in the shot put.

Connie Price-Smith (1985, Class of 1990) only threw for the Salukis for one season following a highly successful four-year SIU basketball career, but her legacy was written in the shot put ring. Price-Smith went on to become a four-time Olympian and win a combined 30 national and international shot put titles.

Darrin Plab (1991-92, Class of 2006) was a two-time NCAA Champion and four-time All-American in the high jump. Plab still owns both indoor and outdoor high jump records at SIU.
