Southern Illinois University's Charlotte West Stadium was completed in 2003, and has quickly earned a reputation as one of the finest softball facilities in the country, as well as being a tough venue for opponents.

Since its opening on March 1, 2003, the Salukis have recorded a .745 winning percentage in their home facility.

The stadium is named for Dr. Charlotte West, who retired as SIU's associate athletics director in 1998 after serving the University for 42 years as a faculty member, coach and administrator.

She began her faculty career at SIU in 1957 as an instructor in the department of physical education. She became a full professor in 1973 and developed SIU's graduate program in sport management, which she directed until June 1991.

From 1960 until 1986, West was director of intercollegiate athletics for women. She helped transform the department from its meager beginnings into a nationally-recognized program with a budget of more than $1 million for 11 sports.

After the 1986 merger of the men's and women's athletics departments, West served as associate athletics director for one year, interim director for a year and associate athletics director for 10 years.

The $1.7 million stadium was officially opened on March 15, 2003 with a 9-0 win over Bradley, in front of a crowd of 395 fans.

In 11 years of existence, Charlotte West Stadium has served as the host of the MVC Softball Championship three times (2004, 2008 and 2012). It also played host to the NCAA Regionals in 2007.

The state-of-the-art facility holds 502 fans and is one of the finest in the Midwest.

The stadium features chair back and bleacher seating, a concession area, rest rooms, lights, large dugouts, a training room, full-size lockers in a carpeted locker room, a large electronic scoreboard, coaches' office, two batting cages, an irrigation system and a spacious, elevated press box with phone and ethernet connections.

The Stadium field consists of a four-way sports turf mix outfield with a Bermuda/rye mix primary and Crimson Stone Ultimate Series Infield, which is illuminated by a top-of-the-line lighting system for night games.

A Tradition of Academic Excellence

In addition to success on the field, the SIU softball team has had a strong tradition of excellence in the classroom. The Salukis have been named to the NFCA All-Academic top-10 list in nine of the past 12 seasons.

Kerri BLAYLOCK

HEAD COACH ★ 15TH SEASON

The official slogan for Saluki softball is “A Tradition of Excellence.” Kerri Blaylock has been a major contributor to that tradition as she enters her 15th season as the team’s head coach and her 24th overall year with the program.

Including her nine seasons as an assistant under her mentor, Saluki Hall of Famer Kay Brechtelsbauer, and her 14 years as the team’s skipper, Blaylock has helped Saluki softball maintain its position as one of the elite programs in the Missouri Valley Conference while elevating the program to national prominence. All told, SIU has won four conference titles and made six NCAA Tournament appearances with Blaylock on the staff.

As a head coach, Blaylock has led SIU to more than 500 wins and three MVC titles with five NCAA Tournament appearances while producing 69 All-Conference selections. Entering the 2014 season, Blaylock ranks first among active MVC coaches in career winning percentage (.670) with a record of 513-253. That ranks her 22nd nationally in winning percentage among active Division I coaches with five years of service or more. She holds a .700 winning percentage in MVC games (231-99) and has been a member of five MVC Coaching Staffs of the Year.

Blaylock’s specialty is pitching. Her staff led the MVC in overall ERA every year except one between 1997 and 2006. SIU also led the league in strikeouts for five consecutive years from 1998 to 2002, setting an MVC record with 500 strikeouts in 2000. Two of the three All-Americans in SIU history were pitchers under Blaylock, including Jamie Schutteck (Third-Team, 1997) and Erin Stremsterfer (Third-Team, 2001). Southern has had the MVC Pitcher of the Year four times during Blaylock’s tenure, including Stremsterfer (2001), Amy Harre (2005), Cassidy Scoggins (2006) and Danielle Glosson (2010).

In addition to Southern’s on-field success,

Blaylock’s teams have consistently ranked among the nation’s best in the classroom as well. SIU has ranked among the top 20 nationally in team GPA every season since 2001 with seven top-five finishes. The Salukis ranked second nationally for team GPA in both 2007 and 2011. SIU players have earned 74 MVC Scholar-Athlete awards and 11 Academic All-America honors under Blaylock.

YEAR-BY-YEAR AT SIU

Blaylock took the reins of the program in 2000 after the retirement of Kay Brechtelsbauer, who coached SIU for 32 years. Blaylock served nine seasons as an assistant under Brechtelsbauer, including five as the team’s pitching coach.

Saluki softball didn’t falter during the transition from Brechtelsbauer to Blaylock. As a first-year head coach in 2000, Blaylock led SIU to a 41-22 record, the first 40-win season since the Salukis went 41-16 in 1997. SIU hasn’t won fewer than 30 games or finished worse than fourth in the MVC in the 12 seasons since.

SIU finished in the top three in the MVC each year from 2001-03 with Blaylock’s staff earning MVC Coaching Staff of the Year in both 2002 and 2003. Individually, SIU had the MVC’s Rookie of the Year in both 2002 (Amy Harre) and 2003 (Katie Louis). The 2003 Salukis went 39-14 and earned the program’s first NCAA Tournament bid since 1991. SIU advanced to the Regional final in the 2003 NCAA Tournament for the program’s first-ever Sweet 16 appearance.

Blaylock broke through with her first MVC championship in 2004, setting a then-program record for wins with a 45-17 overall record with an 18-6 mark in the Valley. The Salukis followed up by setting a new MVC record for wins in 2005 that still stands today. SIU went 47-14 and set a program record for conference wins with a 24-3 mark in the Valley to win its second-consecutive MVC title. The 2004 and 2005 teams both advanced to the NCAA Tournament and Blaylock's staff also made it four-straight seasons by being named the MVC's Staff of the Year in 2004 and 2005.

SIU stretched its streak of consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances to five-straight, earning at-large bids in both 2006 and 2007. The 2007 squad spent a school-record 13-consecutive weeks ranked in the top 25 nationally, including a program-best No. 18 ranking.

SIU finished third in the MVC in 2008 with Lauren Haas earning the program's first Valley Player of the Year honor since 1997. In 2009, SIU had its best start in school history at 13-1 and went on to finish second in the MVC. The Salukis made it back into the national rankings again in 2009, tying a program-best by elevating as high as No. 18.

The 2010 season saw SIU climb back atop the MVC standings for the third Valley title of the Blaylock era, and the program was rewarded with its fifth MVC Coaching Staff of the Year honor under Blaylock. The Salukis followed up with a pair of 36-win seasons in 2011 and 2012 as Mallory Duran-Sellers became the second MVC Player of the Year under Blaylock in 2012.

On March 21, 2013 Blaylock recorded her 500th career win with a 7-6 victory over Saint Louis. Blaylock became the second coach in SIU history and the eighth in Missouri Valley Conference history to reach the 500-win mark.

BACKGROUND

Blaylock had a stellar playing career in addition to her coaching successes. She was considered one of the top three pitchers in the state as a prep at nearby Herrin High School, according to the Chicago Tribune, compiling a record of 65-7 from 1980-84. She set marks for wins and strikeouts for Herrin High and became the first female athlete ever selected to the Herrin High School Hall of Fame in 1992.

Following her successful prep career, Blaylock attended the University of Evansville, where she developed into one of the Aces' all-time leading hurlers. During her career, she put together a record of 77-48 with a 1.54 ERA and struck out 365 hitters in 857.2 innings of work. Blaylock still holds virtually all of Evansville's pitching records.

Blaylock excelled as a student-athlete both on and off the field at UE. As a junior, she was named a GTE Academic All-American, and in 1988, she was named the Midwestern Collegiate Conference Player of the Year. Evansville recognized Blaylock's success on the diamond by inducting her into the school's Hall of Fame in 1995.

After graduating from Evansville in 1988 with a bachelor's degree in accounting, Blaylock attended Southeast Missouri State University where she began her coaching career as a graduate assistant. She later received a master's degree in 1991 in business administration.

Jen SEWELL

ASSOC. HEAD COACH ★ 6TH SEASON

Jen Sewell enters her sixth year at Southern Illinois University and her fourth season as the associate head coach. Sewell serves as the team's hitting coach while also working with infielders and catchers. Additionally, Sewell works SIU camps and clinics and assists in recruiting and opponent scouting.

SIU has consistently been one of the top hitting teams in the Missouri Valley Conference under Sewell's instruction, finishing third or better in team batting average in each of her four seasons. The Salukis' team batting average has improved each year with Sewell on the staff, elevating from .264 her first season in 2009 to .290 in 2013.

The Salukis have proven to also be the league's most patient team under Sewell's tutelage. SIU finished with the most walks in the MVC in each of the last five seasons, including a program-record 228 walks in 2012, in addition to finishing with the fewest strikeouts in 2012 and 2011. The Salukis have also finished in the Valley's top three in slugging percentage, on-base percentage and RBI in each of the last four seasons.

In 2013, SIU finished first in the MVC in runs scored with 274 recorded and first in RBI's with 252. Under Sewell's direction, Morgan Barchan was named First-Team All-Conference after recording 62 hits to tie for first in the Valley, becoming the first-ever Saluki to lead the league in hits. Jayna Spivey was also named a First-Team selection after a productive offensive season tying the MVC lead with 44 RBI and ranking second in the league with 38 runs scored.

2012 was a banner year for the Saluki offense as SIU led the league in on-base percentage, runs, hits and walks and ranked second in batting average and RBI. SIU's 307 runs in 2012 broke a school record and ranks fourth in MVC history. The Salukis' .290 batting average in 2012 was the program's best since 1997.

Mallory Duran-Sellers was named the 2012 MVC Player of the Year and Allie VadeBoncover earned First-Team All-MVC honors in 2012 thanks in part to their offensive production. Duran-Sellers set an MVC record with 61 runs scored and also ranked third in the league in batting average, hits and on-base percentage. VadeBoncover tied the school record with a league-leading 51 RBI and also finished second in the MVC in on-base percentage.

SIU also had a solid year offensively in 2011 under Sewell, finishing second in the league in batting average, on-base percentage, runs scored and RBI. Duran-Sellers had a First-Team All-Conference season, posting the third-most hits in SIU history (65), with the fifth-best batting average in school annals (.398).

Sewell helped mentor the battery of MVC Pitcher of the Year Danielle Glosson and Second-Team All-MVC catcher Cristina Trapani.

Prior to SIU, Sewell spent five seasons at Kansas (2004-2008), as a hitting and infield coach. Sewell helped coach KU to its first-ever Big 12 postseason championship and second straight NCAA Regional appearance in 2006. She also guided the Jayhawk defense to a program-best .973 fielding percentage, which ranked 14th in the nation in 2005. That same year, Sewell coached the team to a single-season home run record and single-season fielding percentage record of .973 which ranked No. 14 in the nation. Sewell coached Big 12 Player of the Year and Second Team All-American Serena Settlemier to single-season marks for home runs and slugging percentage while becoming KU's fastest assistant coach to reach 100 wins.

Sewell got her start as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Princeton for four seasons. During her four seasons at Princeton, Sewell coached seven All-Ivy League selections, an Ivy League Player of the Year and Rookie of the Year, as well as a two-time Ivy Pitcher of the Year. # BUDDY FOSTER

ASSISTANT COACH ★ 7TH SEASON

Buddy Foster returns to the Saluki softball coaching staff for 2014 after seven years away from Carbondale.

Foster served as an assistant at SIU from 2000-05 before leaving for coaching stints at Bradley, Kansas and most recently at SIUE.

Foster's main responsibilities with the team will be recruiting, but he will also assist with pitching and hitting.

Foster was an assistant coach at SIUE the last four seasons during which the Cougars went 113-96, including a 35-13 record in 2013. Foster helped mentor 14 All-Ohio Valley Conference selections at SIUE, including 2013 OVC Player of the Year Alex McDavid and Freshman of the Year Haley Chambers.

Prior to his stint in Edwardsville, Foster served one season as the associate head coach at Kansas until the Jayhawks' head coach Tracy Bunge's retirement. Before KU, Foster was the head coach at Bradley for three seasons from 2006-08.

Foster helped revive a struggling BU program that had registered just one 20-win season in the five years prior to his arrival. The Braves posted back-to-back winning seasons during his first two seasons in Peoria, Ill., marking the first time BU had accomplished that feat in 11 years. Foster ultimately racked up 63 wins with Bradley and the Braves ranked among the top 25 in the nation in team GPA each year.

Prior to Bradley, Foster was part of some of the most successful years in Saluki softball history. Southern went 239-103 during his six years in Carbondale with a 103-40 mark in MVC play. The Salukis won two MVC titles and earned three consecutive NCAA Tournament bids during his last three years with the program.

Foster served two seasons as an assistant at his alma mater, Southeast Missouri State, from 1998-99 before coming to SIU. The Redhawks went 69-30-1 during Foster's two years on staff with back-to-back OVC regular season and tournament titles and consecutive trips to the NCAA Tournament.

Foster got his start in coaching as a graduate assistant at SEMO from 1992-93 before serving one season as the assistant coach at John A. Logan College in 1996.

"Kelsea continues to be our wall in the infield. We fielded one of our best percentages ever this fall thanks to her abilities to stop a ton of hits from getting through the left side. I would say that probably her most impressive improvements comes via her offense. Kelsea has always been hungrier for more at the plate and she really went to work this fall. She, along with the other seniors, really want to go out with a bang in 2014."

“Michelle is a player that came on for us late last year and we expect her to have an all-conference type of season this year. She’s probably one of the fastest we’ve had in a Saluki uniform. Michelle is exactly the type of hitter we want near the top of the lineup and plays a fearless outfield for us. If fans want ESPN type plays, they should keep an eye on her because she can make some ridiculous catches look easy.”

"As always in season's past, Taylor will play a huge role in the middle of our lineup. Opponents know what she can do offensively. She's actually added some options to her game that will help her when teams try to stand way back in order to defend her. Some of the biggest adjustments this fall came on the defensive side for Taylor. She wants to cover more ground and has really played well at 1B."

*"Nothing really changes this year for Jayna. She has had such a great three years in a Saluki uniform and their goal as a senior class is to do something big this year. We expect her to lead the league in many offensive categories. She has committed to playing a bigger role in our infield vocally and is playing the best defense we have seen out of her in her career. "Allie will benefit from the roster addition of Jessa Thomas at catcher. Both can now share the load of catching a long and taxing season. We foresee Allie getting a big boost from being a little fresher throughout the year. She is a shut-down type arm in our conference as well as one of the best at-bat managers on our team. Teams know Allie can change the game with one swing."

"Bertie returns healthy for one of the first times in her Saluki career. She spent the offseason tweaking and refining her pitches and will finally get to come into spring feeling 100 percent this year. I love when pitchers are willing to reinvent themselves each year to give a new look to hitters and I can't wait to work her new stuff into our pitch calling. We expect Bertie to get up on the mound a ton and be a go-to for us in 2014." — Coach Kerri Blaylock

Kalyn HARKER

Junior • 5-6 • CF

Lebanon, Ind. • Lebanon HS

"Kalyn's job this year is to step up into the top of the lineup in the wake of Morgan Barchan's graduation. K's ability to hit away, power slap, and run are HUGE assets to us. Our goal is to be faster and more dynamic this year at the top of the lineup and Kalyn helps us do that in combination with Michelle Glenn. Kalyn knows her other job is to run the show in the outfield. We believe a ball shouldn't drop out there with the type of athletes we have this year and Kalyn is in charge of making sure we run a ton of stuff down in our outfield."

Granite City, Ill. • St. Joseph's Academy

"Mere's big focus this year in her training has been on consistency at the plate and in the outfield and we've seen really great things out of her already in both areas. She's another game changing hitter who has spent the fall challenging herself to do some of the little things even better at the plate and in the outfield. Opponents know with a bat like hers they can't make a mistake or she will make them pay."

“Lil’ is really throwing with confidence right now thanks to her hard work in the fall. We as coaches don’t often get to work with a pitcher who can throw to all zones and has multiple offspeed options on the mound. She’s special because she’s a different look than anyone on our staff or in our conference. We are thrilled about her offseason and the momentum she’s coming into the 2014 season with is pretty exciting.”

Caylee COOK

Afton, Okla. • Vinita HS

"Caylee's bat is going to make her stand out for us in 2014. We've always projected her as a middle of the lineup type hitter and I think this is the year she breaks out for us. Caylee's biggest project this fall was to get herself ready defensively and she's put in the work to DH and play outfield for us this year. She's another player we will look to for our toughness as a program and in moments where we need a clutch at-bat."

— Coach Kerri Blaylock

At Southern Illinois 2013/ Freshman

Played in 17 games, making nine starts...started one game at catcher and eight at designated player while making eight appearances as either a pinch runner or pinch hitter...recorded five hits with two RBI and two runs scored.

Kelsey GONZALEZ

Sophomore • 5-6 • SS

Bolingbrook, Ill. • Naperville Central HS

"Gonzo led us in hitting this fall but more importantly led our infield vocally which is something we ask of all our shortstops that come to Southern. Gonzo deserves way more hype than she gets because she is a difference maker for us for several reasons; her shortstop skills are ridiculously good, she has the ability to hit .300+ out of several spots in our lineup, and she has embraced directing traffic for us defensively. We can't ask much more than that out of a player."

At Southern Illinois 2013/ Freshman

Started all 52 games for the Salukis at shortstop... hit .210 with 29 hits, 23 runs scored and 20 RBI... also drew 23 walks...recorded 106 putouts and 96 assists in the field...went 3-for-4 from the plate March 29 against Illinois State.

At Naperville Central High School

Taylor HARRIS

28

Sophomore • 5-6 • 3B

Chattanooga, Tenn • East Hamilton HS

"Taylor is another player that had a really focused offseason for us. We got a fantastic glimpse of her abilities at 3B this fall. We will be looking to get her bat into our lineup this year as well. If fans saw her practices offensively they would be in awe of her raw power. Taylor is another righty power hitter that runs really well and loves to hit the offspeed so getting her ABs early will be key for us."

— Coach Kerri Blaylock

"We are so excited to watch Shaye Harre pitch and play in a Saluki uniform. I'm amazed at the ease at which this kid moves and trains. Local folks know her offensive talents are up there with the best but I think our opponents will be surprised at how well her pitches are working right now. Shaye also plays a really nice first base and we will be working her in defensively as well."

Merri Anne PATTERSON

1 Freshman • 5-6 • OF Lynville, Tenn. • Richland HS

"Merri Anne is part of a really dynamic, athletic freshman class. Our staff has commented several times on her sheer athletic abilities. She will make a move to outfield for us and is adjusting to life in the grass but Merri Anne has the innate ability to run down any hit that makes it out there. On top of her athleticism, I think she'll be known as a hitter we want at the plate when we need something exciting to happen."

We now have another catcher that throws the ball well and can manage our pitching staff throughout a long and hectic season. We can't expect one of our catchers to do it all so Jessa knows she needs to be ready to go. Offensively, we are excited to get her into the lineup after a great fall showing."*
