SALUKI STADIUM

The Southern Illinois University football team moved into the brand-new $29.9 million Saluki Stadium for the 2010 season, after playing the previous 73 seasons at historic McAndrew Stadium. SIU, which was ranked No. 5 in the nation at the time, opened Saluki Stadium on Sept. 2, 2010 with a 70-7 win over Quincy in front of a sell-out crowd of 15,276.

The horseshoe-shaped facility has a seating capacity of 15,000. Seating includes 1,080 prime chairback seats as well as spots on the grass berm enclosing the north end zone.

The two-story press box features 12 suites, a 2,500-square foot VIP Club Room, along with traditional booths for radio, television, coaches and the print media. A 20x40 foot TS Sports scoreboard with video replay capabilities in the North end zone and expanded concessions and restrooms significantly enhance the fan experience.

FieldTurf, a Tarkett Sports Company, installed its Duraspine PRO turf system and its patented sand and rubber infill at Saluki Stadium. The top of the line artificial turf is the same that has been installed at numerous high-profile collegiate institutions and pro football organizations.

Saluki Stadium was a part of the $80 million Saluki Way Project, which included a renovation to the 46-year old SIU Arena and the construction of the Donald Boydston Center that features new football offices, an athletic training room and a 5,000-square foot locker room for the team.

A half-cent sales tax increase approval by the city of Carbondale along with an increase in student fees, private donations and the sale of 12 suites paid for the balance of construction costs.

7-STRAIGHT PLAYOFFS

Southern Illinois advanced to the NCAA Division I Football playoffs seven-straight years from 2003-09. That streak is tied for the third longest in FCS history. Southern Illinois made the quarterfinals in four of those seven seasons and advanced to the national semifinals in 2007, when Delaware quarterback Joe Flacco led the Blue Hens to a 20-17 win over SIU in a game that was televised by ESPN. The Salukis enter the season ranked 18th nationally all-time in FCS Playoff appearances with eight.

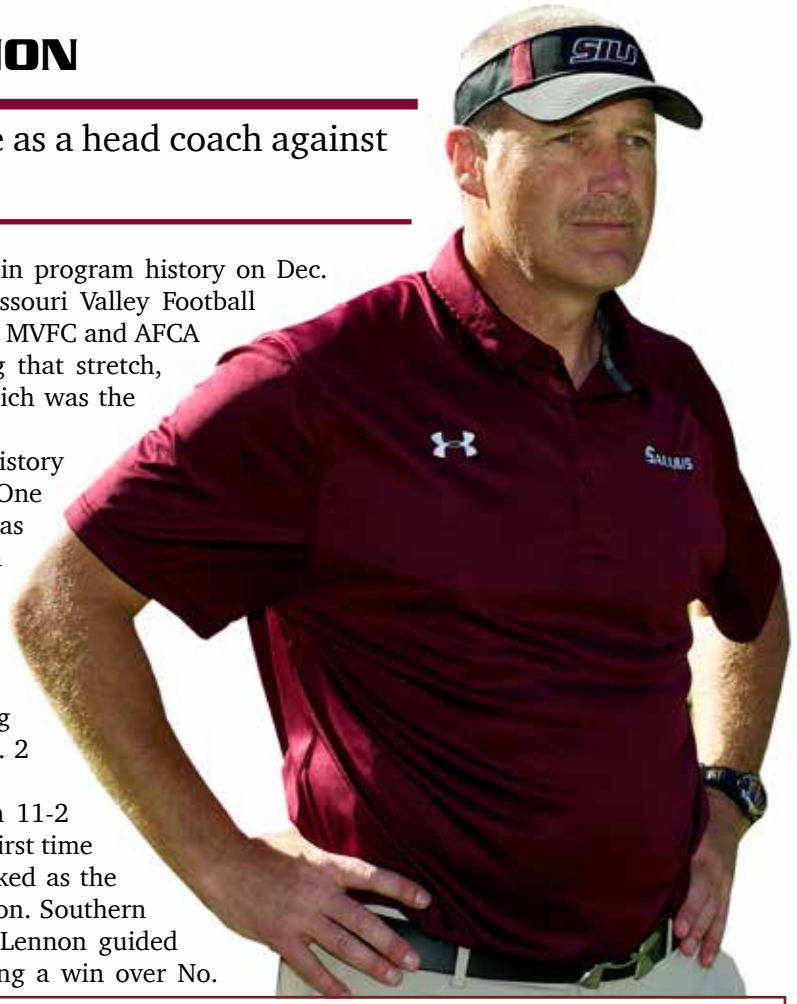
HEAD COACH DALE LENNON



Dale Lennon won his 150th career game as a head coach against Missouri State on Nov. 8, 2014.

Dale Lennon was named SIU's 20th head coach in program history on Dec. 27, 2007. He guided the Salukis to back-to-back Missouri Valley Football Conference titles in 2008 and 2009 and was named the MVFC and AFCA Region IV Coach of the Year in both seasons. During that stretch, the Salukis won 14-consecutive conference games, which was the longest conference winning streak in MVFC history.

Lennon is the fourth-winningest coach in SIU history with 48 career wins in seven years as the head coach. One of the most respected coaches in the country, Lennon was named to the American Football Coaches Association Board of Trustees in 2014.

Lennon also guided SIU to back-to-back FCS Playoff appearances in 2008 and 2009. In 2009, Southern won 11-straight games and became the first team in league history to go 8-0 in conference play, doing so in convincing fashion by winning road games at No. 2 Northern Iowa and at No. 9 South Dakota State.

The Salukis finished the 2009 campaign with an 11-2 record and climbed to a No. 1 national ranking for the first time since Oct. 10, 2005. The Sports Network had SIU ranked as the No. 1 team for the last three weeks of the regular season. Southern was the No. 3 overall seed in the FCS Playoffs, and Lennon guided the team to the quarterfinals of the playoffs by posting a win over No. 17 Eastern Illinois, before falling to No. 6 William & Mary.

In Lennon's seven seasons, the program has had eight First-Team All-Americans, eight CoSIDA Academic All-Americans, and 10 players sign NFL contracts.

Individual award winners have been plentiful during Lennon's tenure. Running back Deji Karim was the 2009 MVFC Offensive Player of the Year and one of three finalists for the Walter Payton Award, which is given to the most outstanding player in the FCS each year. Karim was a sixth-round draft pick of the Jacksonville Jaguars in 2010. Running back Larry Warner was also a finalist for the Walter Payton Award in 2008, finishing 10th in the balloting, and tight end MyCole Pruitt was a finalist in 2014. Linebacker Brandin Jordan (2009) and cornerback Korey Lindsey (2010) were finalists for the Buck Buchanan Award that goes to the FCS's most valuable defensive player. In 2010, Lindsey won the College Football Performance Awards' Elite Defensive Back Award. Lindsey was drafted in the seventh round by the Cincinnati Bengals in the 2010 NFL Draft. In 2011, Bryan Boemer won the Rimington Award as the nation's top FCS center.

In Lennon's seven seasons, Southern has had eight First-Team All-Americans, plus eight CoSIDA Academic All-Americans. Before Lennon arrived at SIU, the Salukis had only six Academic All-Americans since the honor began in 1952. Ten of Lennon's former Saluki players (Ken Boatright, Jayson DiManche, Stephen Franklin, Jewel Hampton, Deji Karim, Korey Lindsey, Ray Agnew, Kory Faulkner, MyCole Pruitt and Malcolm Agnew) have signed NFL contracts and five of those players are still in the league.

Lennon ranks among the winningest head coaches in school history. He is third in winning percentage (.585), second in playoff appearances (2), fifth in games coached (82), and is one of just three Saluki coaches to lead the Dawgs to a 10-win season. During Lennon's tenure, the program has won 11 games against ranked opponents.

Lennon came to SIU from North Dakota, where he had a string of five-consecutive playoff appearances.His success at both schools have made him one of the winningest active coaches in the country. In 16 seasons as a head coach, Lennon has compiled a 144-61 (.702) record. He has been to either the Division I or II playoffs in 10 seasons. Lennon also owns a national championship ring, which he captured in 2001 when he was the head coach at his alma mater, North Dakota.

Lennon stands as the winningest coach in UND history with a 90-24 record in nine seasons. In addition to leading North Dakota to a national championship, Lennon's teams made seven playoff appearances, played in two national championship games and won five North Central Conference Championships.

Lennon graduated from Rugby High School in Rugby, N.D., a town of less than 3,000 residents near the Canadian border. He went on to play fullback from 1979-83 for the University of North Dakota and was a team captain.

Lennon's coaching tenure with North Dakota began on the defensive side of the ball. He was UND's defensive line coach for two seasons (1988-89) before being promoted to defensive coordinator (1990-96). The Fighting Sioux made four-straight playoff appearances from 1992-95, which led to Lennon's hiring as head coach of the University of Mary in Bismarck, N.D. in 1997. There he reversed the fortunes of the program and led it to an NAIA playoff appearance in 1998.

Lennon returned to his alma mater as head coach in 1999, and he reached the pinnacle of success in 2001 by guiding his team to the NCAA Division II National Championship and earning AFCA Coach of the Year honors. He won NCC Coach of the Year laurels three times.

Bill O'Boyle

Assistant Head Coach
co-Offensive Coordinator/O-Line
Western Illinois, 1987
29th Year Overall
3rd at SIU

Bill O'Boyle enters his third season on the staff at Southern Illinois. He was promoted to offensive coordinator for the 2014 season and assistant head coach for the 2015 season. He served as the offensive line coach in his first season, 2013.

In O'Boyle's first season as the program's offensive coordinator in 2014, the Salukis set a program record for touchdown passes and scored the most points in a single season since 2009. The program's passing and first down totals were its highest since 2007.

O'Boyle's offensive line led the MVFC in fewest sacks allowed in 2013, giving up just 14 all season, and his unit ranked second in the league in fewest sacks allowed in 2014 while the quarterbacks set a program record for most touchdown passes.

Prior to joining the Salukis, he was the offensive coordinator at Colorado Mesa University in 2012.

From 2005-11, O'Boyle was the head coach at Chadron State, where he compiled a 54-22 overall record, including three-consecutive undefeated regular seasons and three Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference titles from 2006-08. His .750 winning percentage was the third-highest for active coaches in Division II entering the 2011 season.

Under O'Boyle's guidance the Eagles won 28-straight RMAC games and earned three NCAA Division II playoff berths, advancing to the quarterfinals in 2006 and 2007 and to the second round in 2008.

As head coach at Chadron State, Bill O'Boyle was named the Liberty Mutual Division II Coach of the Year in 2007.

A three-time RMAC Coach of the Year, O'Boyle was named the Liberty Mutual Division II Coach of the Year in 2007. Twice, he was named American Football Coaches Association Region 5 Coach of the Year, and he was also the 2006 Sportexe Division II Coach of the Year and Football Gazette National Coach of the Year.

He coached 13 All-Americans and nine Academic All-Americans during his tenure at Chadron State. Included on his list his former players are San Diego Chargers running back Danny Woodhead and Cleveland Browns offensive lineman Garret Gilkey.

O'Boyle started as a graduate assistant and then assistant coach at Chadron State in the late 1980s. From 1990-1994 he spent four years at Western Illinois, his alma mater, as the offensive line coach and strength coach. He returned to Chadron State, and prior to his head coaching duties, he was the Eagles' offensive line coach and strength coach. In 1999, he became the Eagles' offensive coordinator.

O'Boyle has strong ties to both SIU and the Missouri Valley Football Conference. His uncle, Tom O'Boyle, was the Salukis' defensive coordinator under Dick Towers from 1968-73. Two brothers, Mike O'Boyle and Dennis O'Boyle, lettered in football at SIU in the early 1970s. Two more brothers, Kevin O'Boyle and Tim O'Boyle, played football at Southern. Bill played and coached football for MVFC school Western Illinois. Bill has one daughter, Cassie.

Nick Hill

co-Offensive Coordinator / QBs
Southern Illinois, 2007
2nd Year Overall
2nd at SIU

One of the most decorated quarterbacks in Saluki Football history, Nick Hill returned to his alma mater for the 2014 season to begin his collegiate coaching career. After his first season, Hill was promoted to co-offensive coordinator and will continue to work with the quarterbacks.

In his first season coaching the quarterbacks at SIU, Hill's quarterbacks set a program record for touchdown passes with 29, and Mark Iannotti earned a spot on the MVFC All-Newcomer team. The program's passing and first down totals were its highest since 2007.

Hill spent the 2013 season as the head coach at Carbondale High School. Prior to his coaching career, Hill spent parts of six seasons in professional football. He played for four different arena league teams and also signed free agent contracts with the Chicago Bears and Green Bay Packers.

Hill was a two-year starter for the Salukis. As a senior in 2007, he was named first-team All-MVFC as he set single-season school records for passing yards (3,175), completion percentage (71.5) and touchdown passes (28). That year he led the Salukis to a 12-2 record and the semifinals of the FCS Playoffs -- the program's deepest run into the postseason since winning the National Championship in 1983.

Despite playing only two years at SIU, he ranks fifth in career passing yards (5,184), second in touchdown passes (46) and first in completion percentage (68.3).

In 2013, Hill was voted to the Saluki Football All-Century team. A native of nearby DuQuoin, Ill., he is married to his wife, Alicia.

David Elson
Defensive Coordinator
Secondary/Recruiting Coordinator
Butler, 1994
22nd Year Overall
2nd at SIU

David Elson enters his second season as an assistant coach for the Salukis and his first season as defensive coordinator after earning the promotion following the 2014 season. Elson also works with SIU's secondary and leads the program's recruiting efforts.

Elson is no stranger to the Missouri Valley Football Conference, having served as the head coach at Western Kentucky for seven seasons from 2003 to 2009. He helped lead the Hilltoppers through their transition from the FCS to the FBS. Prior to his head coaching tenure, he was the defensive coordinator at WKU under Jack Harbaugh and helped the team win the 2002 I-AA national championship.

Among the players Elson mentored while at Western was wide receiver Curtis Hamilton, who played in the NFL for the Chicago Bears and New Orleans Saints, and cornerback Joseph Jefferson, who played for the Indianapolis Colts.

Elson became the youngest Division I head coach when he was tapped to lead WKU before the 2003 season. He made the I-AA playoffs in both 2003 and 2004. After losing 25 seniors from his 2003 team, Elson guided the 2004 Hilltoppers to a 9-4 record and a 6-1 mark in the Gateway. That team made a quarterfinal appearance in the FCS Playoffs, and Elson was a finalist for the Eddie Robinson National Coach of the Year Award. His 2005 team reached a No. 1 national ranking twice during the year, and his 2003 and 2004 teams both finished the season ranked in the top-15 nationally. Nine of his players earned All-America accolades.

Elson is also familiar with Southern Illinois, having spent two years in Carbondale as SIU's graduate assistant in 1994 and 1995.

Prior to becoming Southern's secondary coach in 2014, Elson served two years as defensive coordinator at New Mexico State. He spent the 2010 season on the Indiana University coaching staff as defensive quality control coach before his time at New Mexico State.

A 1994 graduate of Butler, Elson was a three-year letter winner and started at strong safety his final two seasons. The Bulldogs captured the conference championship in both his sophomore and junior years.

A native of Indianapolis, Elson and his wife Kathy have three daughters, Lauren, Jessica and Maggie.

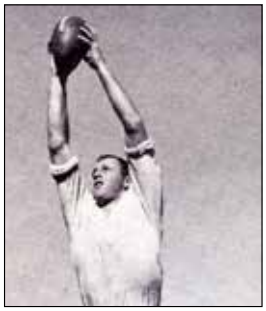
Retired Jerseys

#23 Harry Bobbitt (1961-63)



Carbondale native Harry Bobbitt died of a blood clot in July 1964, the year prior to what would have been his senior season. His number was retired after that year. One of three team captains of the 1963 team, Bobbitt caught a then program record 34 passes for 503 yards and five touchdowns.

#30 Mark Hemphill (1979)

Mark Hemphill was a football-track letterman, who had suffered a severe spinal injury during the 1979 football season. On Sept. 13, 1980, Southern Illinois University honored him with "Mark Hemphill Day" at McAndrew Stadium. A McAndrew Stadium all-time record crowd of 17,150 showed up to watch SIU beat Eastern Illinois 37-35 on that special day. More than $30,000 dollars was raised in contributions and given to Mark's family to help in covering his various rehabiliation expenses. Illinois Governor Jim Thompson was on hand to present Mark with a plaque at halftime during which time his football jersey was retired. Mark died a year later in St. Louis, his hometown.

#78 Jim Lovin (1946-49)

Jim Lovin, a Benton, Ill. native who is shown on the left in the picture, was the first Southern Illinois football player to have his jersey number retired. Not only was Lovin the first player in SIU's history to start every game throughout his four-year career, but he was the first Illinois Intercollegiate Athletic Conference player to be named first team All-Conference four times. The tackle was SIU's team MVP in 1948 and 1949. In the 1949 season finale, a 41-14 win over Indiana State at McAndrew Stadium, Lovin was rewarded with an opportunity to kick a PAT, which he made.

Road to the FCS Championship

The NCAA Division I Football Championship provides for a field of 24 teams. Eleven (11) member conferences have been granted automatic qualification for the championship. The remaining 13 teams will be selected at-large by the NCAA Division I Football Championship Committee.

The top eight teams in the 24-team bracket for the championship will be seeded. Team pairings will be determined according to geographical proximity. Teams from the same conference will not be paired for first-round games or for second-round games when both teams are playing their first games of the championship (except for teams from the same conference that did not play against each other during the regular season; such teams may play each other in the first and second round).

Eight first-round games will be conducted on the campus of one of the competing institutions, and the winners will advance to the second round. The second round features eight games (including the eight teams that received a first-round bye) on the campus of one of the competing teams. Second-round winners meet in the quarterfinals on the campus of one of the competing institutions. Quarterfinal winners will advance to the semifinals on the campus of one of the participating institutions. The winners of the semifinal games will play in the 2015 NCAA Division I Football Championship Game in Frisco, Texas.

Silkworm Inc. Press Center

The Silkworm Inc. Press Center for working press is located on the south end of the third floor of the press box at Saluki Stadium. It opens two hours prior to game time. Radio, coaches and TV booths are located in the center of the third floor of the press box.

Meals will be served prior to kickoff. Media credentials are required for admittance to the press box and for meals.

Game programs and flip cards will be made available in the press box while all game notes, statistics and media guides will be available on SIU's game day web page, where you can also find a link to the game viewer for live in-game stats.

Postgame statistics and play-by-plays will be provided in the press box after the game.

Complimentary wireless Internet is available for use. An SIU IT representative will be on hand to assist media members accessing the wireless network.

A limited number of phone lines and hard-wire ethernet outlets are available for use on a first-come, first-serve basis in the Silkworm Inc. Press Center. Dial "9" to get an outside line.

Credentials

Credentials are required for entrance to the press box or access to the field (for photographers). To request a season or single-game press credential and/or sideline credential, please e-mail Football SID John Lock at jtlock2@siu.edu.

Credential requests should be made by sports editors or sports directors of accredited media outlets and should be limited to working media only. Because of limited space, requests should be made as early as possible. Family/friends of credentialed media members will not be granted access to the press box.

Credentials will be mailed to the requesting individual or organization if time permits or sent to the visiting school's sports information director for distribution. Credentials can also be picked up in the Media Services office located in Room 127 of Lingle Hall or at the media will call at Saluki Stadium.

Credentials will be issued to working media only. Media credentials are not transferable and use by anyone other than members of the working media is unauthorized. News organizations allowing unauthorized individuals to use credentials will have their credentials revoked for the remainder of the year.

Sideline Access

Sideline access is closely monitored at Saluki Stadium. In addition to a media credential, field photographers must obtain an armband that allows access to the sideline. Armbands will be available on the third floor of the press box. The armband must be worn in plain sight at all times. Please observe NCAA regulations and shoot from the designated areas. Photographers must shoot from behind the white lines between the 25-yard line and the back of the end zone on either side of the field.

Game Day Parking

Media working on deadline may request parking access in Reserved Lot C located in the circle lot on the south side of the SIU Arena. Names will be provided to the parking attendant on game day. Other media should park in the non-reserved lot directly south of Saluki Drive.

Postgame Procedure

Postgame interviews will take place in the Tedrick Auditorium, located in the Boydston Center across the hall from the football offices. Head coach Dale Lennon and requested players will be made available in the football auditorium approximately 10 minutes following the game.

SIU's locker room is closed following games. The visiting team's locker room is located on the bottom floor of Lingle Hall. The visiting SID will establish postgame interview policies for their coach and players.

Football E-Mail List

If you would like to be added to the Saluki football E-mail list to receive news about the team, please e-mail John Lock at jtlock2@siu.edu.

Interviews During the Week

Head coach Dale Lennon will hold a weekly press conference on Mondays in the Tedrick Auditorium on the second floor of the Boydston Center.

Immediately after the press conference, selected players will be available in the locker room on the lower level of the Boydston Center. Media should send interview requests by e-mail to John Lock by 5 p.m. on Sunday evening. If a player is unavailable for interviews on Monday due to class schedule, there will be a brief opportunity to interview the player after practice on Tuesday. Please coordinate this interview with a member of the Media Services staff.

Players may not be interviewed without permission from Media Services. Cell phone numbers will not be given out.

True freshmen and newcomers will not be available for interviews until after their first game, unless otherwise granted permission by head coach Dale Lennon.

Out of town media wishing to conduct interviews with players or coaches may do so by phone. Please contact John Lock to arrange an interview.

Practice Policies

Training camp practices are open to the media, unless otherwise noted. A weekly interview schedule will be distributed to the e-mail list. Media must remain on the sidelines at all times. When Coach Lennon speaks to the team as a group after practice, media must remain on the sideline.

Media may watch practice during the season on Tuesdays and Wednesdays. On days the team practices in Saluki Stadium, members of the media must move into the stands. Video and still photographers may shoot the first 20 minutes of actual practice time.

Missouri Valley Football Conference Call

Every Tuesday during the season, all MVFC head coaches will participate in a weekly teleconference. Audio replays of the conference call are available at www.valley-football.org. For more information contact Mike Kern, (314) 444-4326, at the conference office.

ORIGIN OF THE SALUKIS

Several members of the Southern Illinois University athletic staff suggested a new nickname in 1951. The teams had been known as the Maroons since intercollegiate athletics began in 1913. The name became official on March 19, 1951, when the student body overwhelmingly approved "Salukis" as the new symbol of SIU athletics, easily besting "Rebels," "Knights," "Flyers," "Marauders," and "Maroons."

The oldest purebred dogs in the world with records dating back to 3600 B.C., the Saluki is an ancient Egyptian hunting dog known for its speed and hunting prowess.

So why is the name Salukis relevant to Southern Illinois? Natives of southern Illinois know that the region is frequently referred to as "Egypt." Historian Baker Brownell, in his book "The Other Illinois," explained how the region came to be known as Egypt.

He wrote, "There was a drought in the northern counties (of Illinois) in the early 1800s...the wheat fields dried up, the streams died in their beds. But in Southern Illinois, rain fell and there were good crops, and from the north came people seeking corn and wheat as to Egypt of old. Thus, the name, Egypt."

The 19th century drought in Illinois parallels the Biblical account of the country of Egypt.

"There was famine in all lands; but in all the land of Egypt there was bread. All the earth came to Egypt to Joseph to buy grain, because the famine was so severe. And (Jacob) said, 'Behold, I have heard that there is grain in Egypt; go down and buy grain for us there, that we may live, and not die.' So 10 of Joseph's brothers went down to buy grain in Egypt." (Genesis 41:54b, 57, 42:2-3).

In Egypt at that time, Salukis were accepted as the finest animal a family could possess. Adopting such a well-respected dog as its mascot fit perfectly for a school in a region known as "Little Egypt."

King Tut's Tomb

The tomb of King Tut was moved from McAndrew Stadium to its current spot between the SIU locker room in the Donald Boydston Center and Saluki Stadium. Before each home game, the Salukis walk out of the locker room and pat Tut's Tomb for good luck on the Saluki Walk to the tunnel where they run into the stadium. King Tut was the first live Saluki dog mascot, and he was buried in the northeast corner of McAndrew Stadium.
