SOUTHERN ILLINOIS NOTES

Series History

The Salukis and the Purple Aces will meet for the 55th time in a series that dates back to 1984. SIU swept Evansville for the first time since the 2011-12 season with a 66-63 win at the Ford Center a year ago. Southern will try to win at the Ford Center for the third-straight season, which the Salukis haven't done since the 1996-98 seasons.

Current Salukis vs. the Purple Aces

Rishonda Napier comes into Sunday's contest averaging 14.4 points, 4.6 assists and 2.8 steals per game in five career meetings against the Purple Aces. The Burbank, Calif. native has dished out six assists in three-straight games against Evansville, all three of which were wins. In four career games against the Purple Aces, Kylie Giebelhausen is shooting 51.6% from the field (16-of-31), including 58.3% (14-of-24) from downtown. She's averaging 11.5 points, 5.0 rebounds and 1.0 blocks per game against the Aces.

Scouting the Purple Aces

The Purple Aces have lost four-straight after opening MVC play with back-to-back wins. Evansville, who was picked to finish ninth in the 2016-17 MVC preseason poll, returns Sara Dickey and Camary Williams. Dickey needs just 95 points to become the 8th player in MVC history with 2,000 career points, while Williams could make a run at SIU standout Kasia McClendon's conference record for steals in a season. Williams has a league-best 77 steals and would need 55 steals to pass McClendon, who tallied 131 steals during the 1996-97 season.

Streak Ends

Rishonda Napier missed her first free throw of the season in the win over Wichita State. The miss ends Napier's consecutive free-throws made streak at 33. It's the longest streak in school history, and tied for the ninth-longest in Missouri Valley Conference history. It's also tied for the 41st-longest streak in NCAA DI history.

SOUTHERN ILLINOIS NOTES

Threes in bunches

The Salukis made a season-high 13 three-pointers against Wichita State, and followed by netting 10 against the Missouri State Lady Bears on Sunday. SIU has now made 10-plus three-pointers in three-straight games, the longest such streak in program history.

Splash Sisters

Kylie Giebelhausen and Rishonda Napier broke the school-record for three-pointers made by teammates, as the duo made 12 of Southern's 13 three-pointers in the win over Wichita State on Jan. 13. The previous best was 11, set by Christine Presswood (4) and Teri Oliver (7) against Missouri State on Feb. 26, 2010.

School Record for threes in back-to-back games
Kylie Giebelhausen followed up her school-record tying seven three-pointers by making three from behind the arc against Missouri State. While it marked the second time that the East Peoria, Ill. native has made 10 three-pointers over the course of two games, she fell just shy of Napier's school record of 12. Napier made six in each of SIU's wins over Mercer and Morehead State last season.

School Record for three-pointers in back-to-back games

1. 12 — Rishonda Napier (2015-16 season)
2. 11 — Cari Hassel (1994-95 season)
- 11 — Karrie Redeker (1991-92 season)

Two threes from the top-5

Kylie Giebelhausen needs to make just two from downtown to crack the top-five in school history for three-pointers made. She has made 152 career three-pointers, which is good for sixth all-time. Danette Jones sits in fifth with 153 while Giebelhausen needs just six to pass Karen Powell (1990-94) for fourth, and 10 to pass Karrie Redeker (1988-92) for third.

Climbing up the ranks

Rishonda Napier has made 246 career three-pointers, the most in school history and the 14th-most in Missouri Valley Conference history. If she makes three from behind the arc, she will pass Michelle Nason (WIU/Bradley) for 13th place. With four made three-pointers she can become just the 13th player in MVC history to make 250-plus three-pointers. Dayna Finch of Creighton holds the all-time Valley record, having made 294 3-balls from 2001-04.

Former Running Mates

Napier also moved up to second on SIU's all-time scoring list with 1,552 career points, second only to Cartaesha Macklin's school record of 1,779. She is one of 36 active players in NCAA DI with 1,500-plus career points.

Points-Assists Double Doubles

Rishonda Napier finished with 18 points and 11 assists in Southern's win over Wichita State, marking the second time this season Napier has recorded a points-assists double-double. She's the first Saluki to record multiple points-assists double-doubles in the same season since Macklin did so during the 2012-13 season.

Coming up on 600

SIU head coach Cindy Stein will coach her 599th career game Sunday at Evansville, the most of any active Valley coach. Missouri State's Kellie Harper is second, having coached 410 career games. Stein's 332 career wins are also the most of any active Valley coach.

Five points shy of 400

Carlie Corrigan needs just five points to score her 400th career point. She will be the 66th Saluki to eclipse the 400 career points plateau, and the 45th Saluki with at least 400 career points and 90-plus assists.

Double-Doubles

Kim Nebo and Rishonda Napier posted double-doubles in the win over Wichita State, marking the first time since Jan. 8, 2016 vs. Bradley that two Salukis had double-doubles in the same game.

Tied the school record

Kylie Giebelhausen tied the school record for three-pointers in a game with 22 points on 7-of-10 shooting from three-point range in the win over Wichita State on Jan. 13. The East Peoria, Ill. native became the sixth Saluki to make seven in a single game, which was last done by Rishonda Napier on March 17, 2016 against Western Illinois in the first round of the Women's Basketball Invitational (WBI). The junior guard missed her first attempt from behind the arc but then rattled in six-straight without a miss.

Following Giebelhausen's lead

Giebelhausen also led the Salukis in scoring for the fourth time this season in the win over the Shockers, as she poured in 22 points. Southern is 4-0 this season when the East Peoria, Ill. native leads the team in scoring.

In a club by herself

Kylie Giebelhausen reached 700 career points and became the only Saluki with at least 700 points/90 blocks/150 assists/70 steals/300 rebounds. The junior from East Peoria, Ill. has reached double-digits in 12 of SIU's 17 games this season, most recently posting 13 points against Missouri State.

Thievery

The Salukis tallied 10 steals versus Drake on Sunday, Jan. 8, the second time this season that Southern has nabbed 10 or more. It marks the first time SIU has notched 10-plus steals against a Missouri Valley Conference opponent since March 7, 2015, when the Salukis recorded 12 versus the Illinois State Redbirds.

Comeback Kids

SIU roared back to erase a 16-point third quarter deficit to defeat the UMKC Kangaroos, 77-69 on Dec. 19. It marked Southern's largest comeback victory since the 2002-03 season, when the Salukis came back from being down 18 points to defeat Tennessee Tech on Nov. 30, 2002.

Resilient Bunch

The 2016-17 Salukis are also the first team dating back to the 2002-03 season that has overcome two deficits of 15-points or more in the same season. SIU roared back from being down 15 to down the SEMO Redhawks on Dec. 9, and later came back from being down 16 points to stun the UMKC Kangaroos on their home floor.

Power 5 Conference win

The Salukis picked up a 64-61 win at Purdue, a win that snapped several long streaks. The win at Purdue marked SIU's first win in West Lafayette, Ind. since 1980, and the Salukis first win over a Big Ten school since 1993. 1993 also marked the last time SIU beat a school from a Power 5 conference, as Southern defeated Arizona State, 73-57 on Dec. 20, 1993.

HEAD COACH • FOURTH SEASON

Cindy Stein enters her fourth season as the head coach of the Salukis in 2016-17. She was named the 10th head coach in Southern Illinois women's basketball history on April 3, 2013. A proven winner and a former NCAA Division II Coach of the Year, Stein has made an immediate impact at SIU much like she has in each of her previous head coaching stints.

At Southern Illinois 2015-16 (20-13, 12-6 MVC)

The 2015-16 season kept with the theme of several program firsts within Stein's tenure while the squad's 20-13 overall record marked the program's 10th 20-win season. The Salukis beat every Missouri Valley Conference foe at least once and advanced to the semifinals of the MVC Tournament for the first time since the 1994-95 season. In doing so, Southern earned an invitation to the Women's Basketball Invitational, the program's first postseason berth since 2007.

The Salukis averaged 69.2 points per game during the season, the highest mark in more than 20 years while shattering the school record for three-pointers made in a single-season. The Dawgs continued to win the battle of the boards under Stein, and for just the eighth time in program history, and the first time since the 1995-96 season, SIU averaged more than 40 rebounds per game. Southern's 42.2 rpg were second only to the 1994-95 team's 42.3 rpg for highest average in school history.

Under Stein's tutelage, three Salukis, Dyana Pierre, Rishonda Napier and Cartaesha Macklin earned All-MVC first-team honors, with Pierre nabbing both All-MVC first-team and All-Defensive team honors. The three first-team selections are the most in a single-season in program history. The Dawgs also continued to raise the bar in the classroom, as the 2015-16 team achieved the highest team GPA in 11 semesters and 9 of 12 Salukis posted a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or higher. The league office took notice, as the Salukis garnered three MVC Scholar Athlete selections, the most for Southern since the 2008-09 season.

Stein's coaching tree continued to grow, as associate head coach Andrea Gorski was named the head coach at Bradley University. Gorski joins an impressive list of former Stein assistant coaches who have gone on to head coaching positions: Brandon Schneider, an assistant for Stein at Emporia State, was hired as the head coach at Kansas in 2015. Tanya Warren, the 2016 Missouri Valley Conference Coach of the Year, was an assistant for Stein at Missouri from 2001-04 and has been the head coach at the University of Northern Iowa since 2007 while Matt Daniel, an assistant under Stein at Missouri, is now the head coach at Marshall University. Dave Wilbers, another former Stein assistant at Mizzou, just completed his ninth season as the head coach at Arkansas Tech, where he has compiled a 218-58 record. Most recently, Amanda Hanneman, who played for Stein at Missouri and went on to serve as a graduate assistant on Stein's inaugural staff at SIU, just completed her first season as the head women's basketball coach at St. Teresa's Academy in Kansas City, Mo.

2014-15 (17-13, 10-8 MVC)

Stein and the Salukis conducted an improbable change of gear in 2014-15. Southern went 17-13 overall with a 10-8 conference record with Stein at the helm, ushering in the largest turnaround from one season to the next in school history at plus-12 wins.

SALUKI WOMEN'S BASKETBALL 2016-17

In fact, that turnaround was third-best in the NCAA by the end of the regular season in 2014-15. In perhaps the best Saluki women's team since the 2006-07 WNIT team, Stein and the Salukis stunned the Missouri Valley with a bonafide, efficient offense that came primarily from the first solid starting five SIU had seen in ages in redshirt sophomore Rishonda Napier (point guard), redshirt junior Cartaesha Macklin (shooting guard), freshman Kylie Giebelhausen (shooting guard), junior Azia Washington (power forward) and junior Dyana Pierre (center). The crew went 16-8 together and combined for 84.2 percent of all SIU scoring.

After losing backcourt superstars Macklin and Napier to redshirt seasons in 2013-14, Stein had an optimal offensive weapon set with skilled shooters on the outside, skilled bigs down low in Pierre and Washington, and superb passers getting them the ball and opening mismatches. Southern improved in nearly every statistical category from Stein's first season to her second, including scoring, turnover ratio and even attendance. Pierre and Napier both put in monumentally historic seasons, and both were rewarded with First-Team All-MVC honors for their superb efforts. Pierre was the only player in the Valley to average a double-double at 14.6 PPG and 11.8 RPG -- the latter of which was the eighth-best rebounding average in the NCAA that season. Pierre also put in only the seventh-ever 14-of-14 game in NCAA history, became just the fifth Saluki to ever record a 20-20 game and the fifth Saluki to ever join the 1,000-900 club.

2013-14 (5-25, 3-15 MVC)

Stein's inaugural team at SIU went 5-25 after a slew of bad breaks left the team with only nine available players for the entire MVC schedule. Despite playing without three players who figured to be major contributors, including preseason All-MVC guard Cartaesha Macklin, Stein improved the team's field-goal percentage defense, 3-point percentage defense, scoring defense, rebound margin, blocks and assist-to-turnover ratio from the season before. She improved the team's conference win total from one to three, including an upset over eventual MVC regular-season and tournament champion Wichita State. Stein helped turn Dyana Pierre into a budding star in the Valley. Pierre averaged 14.0 points and an MVC-best 9.6 rebounds as a sophomore and became the first SIU player to earn first-team All-MVC recognition since 2006, and just the second to do so since 2000.

At Illinois Central College

Stein came to Carbondale after leading Illinois Central College to a 32-4 record and a third-place finish at the NJCAA Division II national tournament during her lone season at the school in 2012-13. Stein turned around an ICC team that went 16-16 the year before her arrival. Stein was named the NJCAA Region XXIV Coach of the Year following ICC's run.

At Missouri

Prior to ICC, Stein spent 12 seasons as the head coach at Missouri where she led the Tigers to 185 wins between 1998 and 2010. Stein inherited a Mizzou team that went 11-16 in 1997-98 and led the Tigers to a 22-10 record with a Sweet 16 run by her third year in 2000-01.

Stein's tenure at Mizzou saw the Tigers make seven total postseason appearances with three NCAA Tournament bids and four WNIT appearances. Stein's players at Mizzou earned a combined 24 All-Big 12 honors with four First-Team selections, and she coached five Tigers who were selected in the WNBA Draft. Additionally, Mizzou players earned a combined 46 Academic All-Big 12 honors under Stein's watch.

Following a 13-15 mark during her first season in Columbia, Mo., Stein's Tigers went 18-12 during the 1999-2000 season, marking the program's best record in seven seasons. The 1999-2000 Tigers also earned the program's first postseason berth since 1994 with a trip to the WNIT.

SALUKI WOMEN'S BASKETBALL 2016-17

Stein's third year saw Mizzou go to historic heights as the 2000-01 Tigers posted their best record in 13 years and made a run to the Sweet 16 for just the second time in program history. Following the season, Amanda Lassister became Mizzou's first-ever first-round WNBA Draft pick when she was selected 15th overall by the Houston Comets while fellow Tiger Marlana "Pep" Williams was selected by the Indiana Fever in the third round.

Missouri ultimately made it to the postseason six-consecutive seasons with WNIT berths in 2001-02 and 2002-03 before capping the run with an NCAA Tournament berth in 2003-04. The Tigers also continued sending players into the professional ranks as three-time All-Big 12 selection Evan Unrau was selected in the third round of the 2004 WNBA Draft by the Washington Mystics.

The 2005-06 season was another banner year for the program as the Tigers went 21-10 for their second 20-win season of Stein's tenure, and made it back to the NCAA Tournament. Mizzou had two more players selected in the WNBA draft following the 2005-06 season as LaToya Bond was selected by the Charlotte Sting in the second round and Christelle N'Garsanet was taken in the third.

The 2006-07 Tigers gave Stein her sixth postseason win at Mizzou with a victory in the opening round of the WNIT. Stein coached Mizzou to the most postseason appearances and postseason wins in program history.

At Emporia State

Stein spent three seasons as the head coach at Emporia State prior to Mizzou, turning the Hornets from a sub-.500 team into a Division II national title contender. After going 12-14 in her first season at ESU in 1995-96, the Hornets improved to 20-10 the following season and made it to the second round of the NCAA Tournament before going 33-1 and finishing as the national runner up in 1997-98.

The 1997-98 Hornets went 16-0 in the Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletics Association, earning MIAA Regular Season and Tournament Championships in advance of the historic run to the NCAA Division II title game. Stein coached two-time All-Americans Aneta Kausaite and Jurgita Kausaite at Emporia State in addition to recruiting All-Americans Emily Bloss and Tara Holloway, who both went on to earn National Player of the Year honors. Aneta Kausaite eventually became the first-ever Division II player to play in the WNBA.

Following ESU's run to the 1997-98 title game, Stein was named the National Coach of the Year by the Women's Basketball Coaches Association, the Molten Division II Bulletin and the Kansas Basketball Coaches Association. She was also selected as the 1998 Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletic Association Coach of the Year and the District VI Coach of the Year.

Early Career/Playing Career

Prior to her head coaching experience, Stein was an assistant coach at Illinois (1993-95), Bradley (1988-1993), Cincinnati (1987-88) and Miami University (1986-87). Stein began her foray into coaching as a graduate assistant at Central Michigan from 1984-86.

Stein played collegiately at Illinois from 1981-83 after two years at Illinois Central College from 1979-81. Stein helped the Illini to the 1982 NCAA Tournament, and she still holds several Illinois assists records. A junior college All-American, Stein also helped ICC to back-to-back appearances in the NJCAA national tournament.

Stein has a bachelor's degree in physical education from Illinois and a master's degree in physical education from Central Michigan.
