» The lede: "If they can beat us 120 to 0 they will." That thought has probably run through the mind of every coach and player who has faced the University of Tulsa in the past dozen years. SIU Coach Dick Towers spoke them at the beginning of the week. And if past performances are any indication, Hurricane Coach Glenn Dobbs will try to make a prophet of him.

» The Southern Illinoisan newspaper estimated that SIU was anywhere from a 45- to a 60-point underdog in the game.

» Tulsa took a 13-0 first-quarter lead. SIU rallied to tie the game, 13-13, at halftime. A lone second-half field goal gave SIU the win.

» The game was Homecoming for SIU, and 15,500 fans came to McAndrew Stadium to watch the game.

» The Southern Illinoisan's headline following the shocking win: "Salukis stun Tulsa 16-13"

» The lede: "A Little Leaguer struck out Carl Yastrzemski. Jackie Gleason beat Jim Ryun in the mile, and Slippery Rock State hung one on the Green Bay Packers. Anything's possible. Southern Illinois proved it Saturday before a roaring McAndrew Stadium Homecoming crowd of 15,500, shocking heavily favored Tulsa with a 16-13 football miracle."

CARL MAUCK EARNS PRESTIGIOUS HONOR

» Southern Illinois alumnus Carl Mauck earned the 2017 Gerald R. Ford Legends Award. The award is presented to former collegiate or professional centers who, in addition to standout football careers, have also made significant contributions to the football and/or business communities, or through philanthropic endeavors.

» Mauck, who played football at SIU, had an NFL career that lasted 34 years. He spent 13 years as a player and an additional 21 years as an assistant coach in the NFL.

» The award is given by the Rimington Trophy, which is awarded to the top centers in NCAA Football. President Gerald Ford was the inaugural winner of the award in 2005, and the award is named for him.

COACHES

MVFC Champions: 2003 • 2004 • 2005 • 2008 • 2009 | FCS National Champions: 1983 | FCS Playoffs: 1983 • 2003 • 2004 • 2005 • 2006 • 2007 • 2008 • 2009

Nick Hill is in his second season as the head coach of Saluki Football. He is the 21st head coach in school history and only the fourth to lead his alma mater, joining Abe Martin, Bill O'Brien and Shawn Watson.

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING ABOUT NICK HILL

Jerry Kill, Saluki Hall of Fame Football Coach:

"I promise you Nick Hill will work day and night because he doesn't want to let anyone down. Guys work better with a little chip on their shoulder. When I came there I had a little chip, and I surrounded myself with great staff, and he'll do the same thing. He has a good model to work from. I think he's learned a lot about coaching, based on what Southern's offense accomplished last year. What people don't realize is how many people he knows, from various pro leagues, to our guys at Minnesota and throughout college football. Nick will have a lot of people supporting him. He needs to enjoy today, and the bottom line is he has to go out-work people tomorrow. A lot of people weren't fired up about me when I was hired. You get respect by winning football games, and to do that, you recruit good staff and good players. Nick can do that. He's smarter than I was -- a dumb-ass country boy from Cheney, Kan."

Carl Mauck, Saluki Hall of Famer and 34-year NFL playing and coaching veteran:

"Nick has the characteristics you look for in an outstanding head coach. He's level-headed, but also has a lot of fire and energy. He knows what he wants at quarterback, which is the position that makes or breaks your team. He will recruit harder than anyone and will present himself well to recruits and their families. I'm confident that he can assemble a strong staff. He knows the area, he loves the school. I'm proud that he got the job and I'm excited for him and the program."

Deji Karim, Former Saluki running back, teammate and four-year NFL veteran:

"Nick is a great leader because of the type of person he is. He's smart, and his core beliefs and values inspire everyone around him to improve. He has great relationships with current and former players, and I truly believe he will get SIU back on the right track."

Brandon Jacobs, Former Saluki RB, teammate, nine-year NFL veteran, and two-time Super Bowl champion

"First of all, Nick is a great man, and that is a sign of a great coach. He's just a good, solid dude; his character speaks for itself. I spoke to Nick during the process about his goals if he were to get this opportunity, and he is absolutely on the right track. Coach Kill recruited good, hard-working, shipyard guys. Nick is going to do the same thing. He's not in this for a paycheck. He genuinely loves being around the guys. He's in this to win, and his heart is in it. They will play their hearts out for him."
